en-vies your smile; The birds in the wild-wood are stilled when you speak, Their songs don't seem half worth the while. The light in your eyes makes the bright stars grow pale, They're jea-lous as jea-lous can be;
 But when one word or sign tells them all you are mine, All the world will be jea-lous of me! The me!

The musical score consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written in a single treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 3/4 time signature. The piano accompaniment is written in grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The score includes lyrics and musical notation such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings like 'rit.' and 'p.'. There are two endings for the final phrase 'The me!', with the first ending leading back to the beginning of the phrase and the second ending leading to a final cadence.
