SELECTMEN'S STATEMENT.

The Green street sewer has been completed at a cost of considerably more than was estimated. The completion and construction of the other drains and sewers have cost nearly one hundred dollars less than was expected, so that the actual amount for all the drains and sewers is twenty dollars in excess of the appropriations. This will be made good to the town by the amount to be received from those abutters who have not yet connected.

The money for the new town hall was paid to Mr. Emerson's trustees October 6, at which date interest on the same is supposed to commence. The building is practically completed, and will be in readiness to turn over to the town about May 1. We submit our usual financial report as follows:

VITAL STATISTICS.

Marriages, 5.

Births, 15.

Deaths, 14.

We would recommend the following sums of money as, in our judgment, necessary for the proper support of the several departments during the ensuing year:

For support of common schools	$1,100 00
" free high school	300 00
purchase of text-books	100 00
repairs of school buildings	150 00
school apparatus, appliances and insurance	50 00
support of poor	650 00
general repair of roads and bridges	900 00
drains and sewers	50 00
clearing roads and sidewalks of snow	300 00
building and repair of sidewalks	500 00
maintenance of library	00 001 increase of library (a sum equal to 35 cents per poll).
expenses of Memorial Day	25 00
lighting the streets	300 00
improvement of public grounds	75 00

For fire depa	rtment	20 00
payment	of superintendent of schools
	town notes	625 00
	interest on notes	156 00
v .	current and contingent expenses	650 00
	deficiencies of the past year	991 83

It is impossible this year to estimate the amount of outstanding bills, on account of all bills for the late snow-storms not having been presented.

George A. Wheeler, Bennett D. Perkins, John S. Snow,

> Selectmen, Assessors, and Overseers of the Poor.

REPORT

OF THE

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Gentlemen of the Superintending School Committee and Citizens of the Town of Castine:

During the year which I have served as superintendent of schools it has been strongly impressed upon my mind that visiting schools is but a small part of the duties of the office.

The first thing to which my attention was called on entering upon my duties was that much of our energy in the schools was being wasted, as there was no definite plan of work. The teacher in each grade, in many instances, did not know what the one before had done, nor just what she herself was expected to do. Each one was teaching that which she felt should be taught, without regard to what had been or would be taught. To obviate this we must plan a course of study for the common schools. I was informed that the only copy of the old course was burned some years ago by mistake; so, in view of the fact that we had nothing definite to work from, the task presented no small amount of labor. By comparing the work which we were doing with that of other schools, and with the help of our teachers (to whom many thanks are due), we decided the appended course to be the best we could arrange at this time. It is very unsatisfactory and incomplete, first, because we had not books, in all cases, from which we could point out definite work; second, we did not know just what was suited to our needs. But we have done the work knowing that it is productive of these results: each teacher knows what has been done before, and how much she is expected to do, thus having a definite aim in view; also, each scholar knows that unless he has completed the work thus laid out, satisfactory to teachers and school officers, he cannot go on. As some new books have been added and some changes made, the course will be revised and left with the committee with the recommendation that it be printed, and copies supplied to school officials, teachers and any one interested in the schools of Castine.

Realizing that the human voice, rightly trained, is one of the mightiest instruments of humanity, and that this branch of education has for many years been neglected in our schools, I endeavored to do something in this line. Without special appropriations, special teachers and instruments, little could be done. Parts I and II of a short course in music were put in the schools which we thought could make use of them. Our success has been varying, but we feel that our efforts are not void of result when we hear such a remark as this from one of our teachers: "Why, it is the pleasantest exercise of the day." It takes but a few minutes, and there is nothing which will brighten up the little ones for a while, and nothing which they enjoy so well, as to raise their voices in praise to God or nature. "The man that hath no music in himself nor moved with concord of sweet sounds, is fit for treasons, stratagems and spoils. Let no such man be trusted."

During the past term we have endeavored to institute a graded course in drawing. It will have to be carefully guarded to make it a success.

All our schools except two have suffered a change of teachers. The best praise that can be uttered in behalf of the Primary and Intermediate schools is that they have been taught by the same teachers with their usual success.

They are teachers who understand their work and their scholars, and there seems to exist a harmony which is very beneficial. The great drawback to the Primary school is that the little ones are allowed to enter at any time of the school year, and at almost any age, thus causing sometimes as many as five or six different classes or parts of classes in a school which ought to have only four. One class should enter at the beginning of each school year, none of them under five years of age, and one class should graduate yearly, thus keeping the equilibrium of four classes. Some charts, kindergarten materials, etc., are much needed in this school. In the Intermediate school some new books are needed to replace dilapidated ones. Some supplementary reading matter is also needed.

Bert N. Allen was chosen to take up the work of Owen L. Flye in the Grammar school. Mr. Allen proves himself a worthy teacher, and fully capable of attending to the wants of his pupils. This school is perhaps better supplied with books than any other in town.

Mr. M. L. Gray having resigned his position as principal of the High school, Miss Anna Witherle was chosen to succeed him. The school is doing good work under her management. She is assisted by Miss Amy Witherle, who is a very competent teacher.

Miss Beulah Devereux is doing good work in No. 2. The school is small. Many repairs and some school furniture are needed.

At the beginning of the school year Miss Annie Rea was chosen to succeed Miss Ida Worcester. Miss Rea is interested in her work, and is doing all in her power to benefit the school.

In No. 4, the fall term was continued by Miss Emma A. Austin, who at the close resigned on account of ill health. The school lost a faithful and earnest teacher, and the community a friend. We wish her the best success in whatever she may undertake. Her work was taken up by Mrs. Harry Soper, who is an experienced and successful teacher, and her labors will not be in vain.

Some changes have been made in the text-books, and more are needed. To some who are unacquainted with the working of school systems, the buying of new text-books may seem an idle and worthless use of money. But as the merchant that has out-of-date goods in his store is desirous of exchanging for new ones, so we should be ever on the alert for books which are more up-to-date and better than we have. As these are the medium through which the mind rises to loftier heights, is it not necessary that we have the best for our children?

Some good points to be observed in our schools are as follows: Parrot-like recitations are on the decline, although we hear some at this date. A programme placed where all can see it. A time for each recitation, and each recitation on time is a good thing. I notice that the latest and best methods of teaching the children to read are being used.

While, in general, the schools are in a good, healthy condition, in submitting this report it is not my purpose to say this or that school is doing the best possible work, for if this were so, there would be little chance for improvement. Rather, it is my duty to give a just criticism in order that the defects may be brought to light as well as the good points, and we may be able to reach beyond them. Visiting schools, I repeat, is but a small part of my duties, but rather to see that our schools are in a condition to secure the greatest amount of good for the money and energy spent.

Under the management of the superintending school committee, a cellar has been excavated under the Adams schoolhouse, and the system of sewerage has been practically completed, but as no satisfactory terms for use of water could be made, none has been engaged. This sewerage has been needed for some time, and will be appreciated by all when completed.

Your committee recommends that the new committee consider the propriety of discontinuing the school in No. 2, as at present we think the average attendance will not come up to the requirements of law.

Mr. Walker's term on the committee expires this spring, and Mr. McCluskey resigns from the board; therefore two members will have to be elected at the annual town meeting. The town can do no better than they did in the selection of these two men. Please do as well.

The committee recommends the following appropriations:

For	r support of common schools,		$1,100
	school books,	•	100
	repairs to schoolhouses, .	•	150
,	apparatus, appliances, &c.,		50
	support of free high school,	•	300

All of which is respectfully submitted.

P. Danforth, Superintendent of Schools.

W. A. Walker,
Chas. E. McCluskey,
Bradley Morgrage,

Superintending School Committee.

REPORT

OF THE ## LIBRARY COMMITTEE.

To the Citizens of the Town of Castine:

Your committee respectfully submit their report as follows:

We have paid for books bought in 1899, $18; for rebinding 50 volumes, $18.90; for new books, $102.86.

Gifts of books to this library are as follows:

From	Miss Florence Baldwin	IV	olume
	Mr John F Rea	1	"
	Miss Annie E Smith	I	"
	Miss Tappan · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	I	"
	Mrs W H H Beebe	1
31	Mrs J K Barhydt	I	**
	Mrs Mary Johnson	I	**
4	unknown	I	**

We extend to all these our sincere thanks.

A concert given September 27, 1900, netted $7.90, which sum we are holding to help in the outfitting of the new library rooms.

We have now catalogued 2,857 volumes. In August, 1900, we destroyed 16 volumes that were in too bad condition for circulation or rebinding. We estimate the number of serviceable books at present in the library to be 2,800 volumes.

We recommend for maintenance and increase, the same appropriation as last year.

- 1. To choose a moderator to preside at said meeting.
- 2. To choose a town clerk for the ensuing year.
- 3. To hear the reports of town officers and to act upon the same.
- 4. To choose all necessary town officers for the ensuing year.
- 5. To see if the town will vote to accept the road laid out by the selectmen and referred to this meeting by the town at its annual meeting in 1900.
- 6. To see what sum of money the town will vote to raise to build the above road.
- 7. To see if the town will vote to sell the present town house or the lot on which it stands, one or both, and to determine the conditions of said sale, or otherwise to determine what use or disposition shall be made of the building; this matter having been referred to this meeting by the town at its last annual meeting.
- 8. To see if the town will vote to sell the engine house or lot and to determine the conditions of said sale; this having also been referred to this meeting by the town at its last annual meeting.
- 9. To see if the town will vote to extend its thanks to Commander S. W. Very for the brass field-piece captured by the U. S. S. "Castine" at Samboaggo, Mindanao, Philippine Islands, November, 1899, and through his suggestion loaned to the town for ornamental purposes by the United States.
- 10. To see if the town will vote to have a suitable inscription placed on or near the gun carriage, and to determine where the above field-piece shall be kept and cared for.
- 11. To see if the town will vote to fix the price at which the new town hall shall be rented after it has come into its possession.

- 12. To see what sum of money the town will vote to raise for seating and furnishing the new town hall.
- 13. To see what sum of money the town will vote to raise for payment of interest to the estate of Charles F. Emerson, when interest shall become due under the contract.
- 14. To determine at what time taxes shall be payable and what discount shall be allowed for earlier payment.
- 15. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for the support of the poor.
- 16. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for the compensation of the superintendent of schools the past year.
- 17. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for the support of common schools.
- 18. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for a free high school.
- 19. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for repairs of school buildings.
- 20. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for free text-books.
- 21. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for apparatus, appliances, insurance and supplies, for schools.
- 22. To see what sum the town will vote as compensation to the road commissioner for the ensuing year.
- 23. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for the repair of roads and bridges.
- 24. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for the construction and repair of sidewalks.
- 25. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for clearing the roads and sidewalks of snow.
- 26. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for the construction and repair of drains and sewers.
- 27. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for the improvement of public grounds.
- 28. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for the maintenance of the public library.
- 29. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for increase of the library.
- 30. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for support of a fire department.
- 31. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for lighting the streets.
- 32. To see what sum the town will vote to raise to defray the expenses of Memorial Day.
- 33. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for the payment of town notes.
- 34. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for payment of interest on town notes.

- 35. To see what sum the town will vote to raise to pay the deficiencies of the past year.
- 36. To see what sum the town will vote to raise for current and contingent expenses.
- 37. To see if the town will vote to authorize the treasurer to make a temporary loan of such an amount of money as may be needed to defray the ordinary expenses of the town until sufficient money shall be received from taxes.

To act upon any matter that may legally come before this meeting.

The selectmen give notice that they will be in session for the purpose of revising and correcting the list of voters, at the town hall, at 8.30 o'clock in the forenoon, on the day of said meeting.

Given under our hands, at Castine, this eighth day of March, A. D. 1901.

GEORGE A. WHEELER,
BENNETT D. PERKINS,
JOHN S. SNOW,

Selectmen of Castine.

NOTE.

As the warrant will not be given to the constable until March 8, it is possible additional articles may be inserted after this has gone to the printer.
