SELECTMEN'S REPORT

TRUST FUNDS

Various trust funds have been left in the custody of the town, the interest only being available for the purposes named in each account. Interest from bonds has been withdrawn and used regardless of the present value of the bonds, as interest on these is fixed.

Because of the bank holiday, interest on money deposited to cemetery accounts has not been withdrawn, as there is some question as to just how much of the amount left is really interest. For this reason no special work was done on cemetery lots this year.

We present the accounts showing original fund, amount in City National Bank when closed and the 65 per cent. assumed by the First National Bank of Belfast. As soon as assets can be liquidated, additional credits will be given each account on the 35 per cent. balance.

Because of unpaid taxes amounting to over $1,700, and over $900 held by the bank on account of bank holiday, a total of over $2,600, it was necessary the last of the year to borrow $1,500 to pay current bills. This amount, however, will not have to be appropriated, as it will be balanced as the above accounts are paid in.

REPORT OF PUBLIC GROUNDS COMMITTEE

On account of the small amount of money appropriated for public grounds, we have not been able to make any improvements during the past year. We have done only what was absolutely necessary to do. We hope conditions will be so in the future that we will be able to make some needed improvements from year to year.

The committee recommends strongly that in all cases that it is possible that either trust funds be given to the town for the care of lots or that legacies be made for such purposes. It is unfortunate that in many cases, where the provisions are not made for this purpose, the lots are left uncared for.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUISE WHEELER BARTLETT.

During the year, 10,267 books were taken from the library, an increase of 340 over the number taken the preceding year. In 1928-29 a circulation of 5,183 books was noted, and during this five-year period the circulation has nearly doubled.

The library received one bequest this year from the Caroline P. Perkins estate of $2,000. Income from this to be used for the purchase of books for the Perkins' alcove.

Cash was given by Mr. Fowler, Mr. Eshelman and Castine Woman's Club. SCHOOL REPORT

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDING SCHOOL COMMITTEE

To the Citizens of Castine:

The superintending school committee, with Superintendent Harold Philbrook, has given careful consideration to the school situation for the past year, and the committee accepts the recommendations of our superintendent as submitted in his report.

It is not only gratifying to the superintending school committee to come to the close of its fiscal year with a balanced budget, but it should and will stimulate gratitude on the part of every citizen who must share in bearing the burden of municipal government, that we have not been required to make overdrafts on accounts in order to maintain our school system.

While your committee feels that appropriations already have been reduced below what affords a comfortable and altogether efficient working capital, we are recognizing the fact that we are still facing conditions that call for curtailment in finances, though under normal conditions could not be considered as strictest economy. Our buildings, while honored with age, are in comparatively good condition, though it is easy to be seen that painting and minor repairs will have to be considered in the near future if this invaluable civic property is to be preserved. This is particularly true of our grammar school building, which already demands some attention. However, in view of the severe demands of the times, your committee desires to share in easing the burdens of the taxpayer and is therefore recommending approximately $300 less in total appropriations for the ensuing year. This must be done, recognizing the fact that this leaves no possible margin with which to meet any emergency.

The committee invites attention to the fact that we are indeed fortunate in our school system in having the arrangement which we have with the State department of education for our grade schools. This not only makes it possible for us to operate at a greatly reduced expense, but gives us the added efficiency of well-trained and competent teachers who lend a superiority to our school standards that many a small town school system cannot enjoy.

Attention should also be called to the fact that, although under reduced salaries, our teachers from the grades through the high school have shown no evidence of lessening their labors or efforts for the highest interests of the schools. We feel that they are all to be commended for this spirit.

Respectfully submitted,
 OSCAR L. OLSEN,
 ARTHUR W. PATTERSON,
 ETHEL B. LEACH,
 Superintending School Committee.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Common Schools

The town has been fortunate at a time when in many sections schools have been closed completely, and in others the educational opportunity has been seriously curtailed, to have its school program continue without any considerable impairment. Some economies have been effected in the operation of the schools, but we believe that it is still the faith of the citizens of the town that the principles of public education—free for all and equal for all—is the cornerstone of civic welfare and individual freedom, and that it shall continue to be supported whole-heartedly.

The efficient maintenance of such activities as schools, civic welfare, health, etc., in times of peace, is no less a matter of patriotism than is the shouldering of a rifle in times of war.

High School

As with the elementary schools, the high school continues to hold open the door of opportunity for all the young people of the town to obtain a fair start in life. The high school of today is no longer merely a preparatory school for college, where the favored few can obtain instruction in a few narrowly restricted subjects prescribed by the college. It still maintains its preparatory function, but it has broadened its aim to the point where it endeavors to prepare all of its pupils, within the limits of their ability to learn and its ability to offer, to take an active, intelligent and successful part in life. As a result, it is retaining and graduating more of its pupils, and this is as it should be, as it thus serves as a means of education for all types of pupils, and so far as possible for all families of the community. Its results are by no means perfect but, as is oftentimes the case in the home, it is doing its best to guide and instruct the boys and girls, though its immediate attainments sometimes seem to fall short of an ideal situation.

Recommendations

Common Schools,	$2,600
School physician,	45
High school,	4,150
Text-books,	175
Repairs,	175
Supplies,	350
Superintendent of schools,	320
Insurance, lights, etc.,	200

As the school department recognizes the necessity for economical operation of the schools, these figures represent further reductions over last year's amounts, which were at that time considerably reduced.

There is probably some misunderstanding regarding amount of supplies on hand at the end of the fiscal year. There is naturally often enough material to last through the spring term. At present there is on hand about $80 worth, consisting of approximately 70 packages composition paper, 50 packages typewriting paper, 120 arithmetic paper, 2 gross pencils, 2 cans disinfectant, 2 boxes wax crayons, 30 dozen examination blanks, 6 packages construction paper, pens and holders enough for fall, 10 boxes chalk. There is, during the winter, more or less material belonging to other towns in the stock-room.

H. C. PHILBROOK, Superintendent.
