While we wait for the day when we can fill our hall with the sights and sounds of music, theatre, dance and other exciting performances, we've launched a temporary website to offer performing arts and cultural resources.

Dear Matthew,

For more than three decades, the CCA has been a beacon for cultural and artistic activity in our region. But now — in the absence of face-to-face gatherings — and when people need it the most, we are here. As we do with our regular season program, there is something here for everyone to enjoy. We hope these resources will be educational and entertaining, with a dash of fun.

- Danny Williams, Executive Director

CCA EVENT UPDATES

This is the place to go for the most up-to-date information on our performance schedule, including cancellations and postponements, for Collins Center and Bangor Symphony Orchestra shows.

SHOW STUFF

We're corraling staff and friends to create three-minute videos to show what goes on behind the scenes at the CCA. You can see a video that explaining the meaning of a ghost light, another that'll take you behind the stage, and more! Send your questions to us at cca@maine.edu.

Enter our virtual talent contest! If you can sing, play an instrument, dance, perform a monologue, create a comedy routine, do a magic trick, etc., we want to hear from you! Thanks to a generous benefactor, there will be a total of $1,000 in prizes — $500 for first place, $300 for second place and $200 for third place.

Lots of great performing arts content for people to enjoy at home online, with links to shows from living rooms around the world!

Here you'll find online resources for many topics related to arts and culture, including classes, educational opportunities, collections of plays and music, an online musical instrument museum, and plenty of family-friendly resources.

"Staff Picks" features CCA staff members sharing what they're watching, reading, listening to and learning while they work from home.
