

The University of Maine

DigitalCommons@UMaine

---

UMaine Center on Aging Podcast

Podcasts

---

1-19-2013

Jennifer Smith-Mayo's approach to Multimedia Projects

Jennifer Smith-Mayo

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.library.umaine.edu/moca\_podcast

Part of the Gerontology Commons, Higher Education Commons, Journalism Studies Commons, and the Photography Commons

---

This Video Recording is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@UMaine. It has been accepted for inclusion in UMaine Center on Aging Podcast by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@UMaine. For more information, please contact um.library.technical.services@maine.edu.

University of Maine
Center on Aging

The mission of the University of Maine Center on Aging is to promote and facilitate activities on aging in the areas of education, research, and evaluation, and community service to maximize the quality of life of older citizens and their families in Maine and beyond.

The Center on Aging is comprised of three major divisions of programmatic activity: Education and Training, Research and Evaluation, and Services and Consultation.

Jennifer Smith-Mayo's approach to Multimedia Projects

January 19, 2013

Run Time: 00:05:38

<https://soundcloud.com/umaine-center-on-aging/jennifer-smith-mayos>

Jennifer Smith-Mayo, award-winning, free-lance photographer, videographer, multimedia artist, and instructor, describes her approach to multimedia projects.

Jennifer collaborated with her husband, writer Matthew P. Mayo, on a series of popular hardcover books (Maine Icons, New Hampshire Icons, and Vermont Icons).

No Transcript Available at this time