Spring Break Extended Two Days: Classes Resume March 25th

18
MAR 2020

The University of Maine System continues operations and will resume classes via distance instruction and other modalities on Wednesday, March 25. The two day extension of spring break will provide faculty and staff additional time to transition face-to-face classes to online and other instruction methods. It also provides faculty and staff with additional time to adjust to the many personal disruptions resulting from the coronavirus pandemic.

The University of Maine School of Law will begin classes on March 23.

There are no other adjustments being made to the semester calendar at this time. Decisions on commencement ceremonies are expected by April 15.
