Kennebunk Chapter Maine

Kennebunk N.O.W. is now, York County N.O.W.

All of the people in the York County area are welcome to join N.O.W. In order to make it easier for the people to attend meetings we are rotating our meeting locations. The January 10th meeting will be held at the Kuhn house on River Road in Cape Neddick at 7:45 p.m.

The February meeting will be held in the Sanford area.

As a new organization we would like to see a different way of structuring leadership. This different way is shared leadership in which every person will have the opportunity to moderate meetings.

However, we need certain officers with limited responsibility to maintain communication with the National N.O.W.

President: Receives official correspondence from national N.O.W. and chooses the moderator for meetings and sets up the agenda.

Legislative Representative: Officer required by National N.O.W. Liaison between National N.O.W. and Chapter N.O.W. concerning legislative actions..

Treasurer: Usual responsibilities.

Secretary: Corresponding and recording secretary:
Taking minutes and sending out mailings.

The nominating committee is suggesting the following persons for officers. The slate is open to further nominations, either by mail or at the January 10, 1974 meeting.

Kennebunk Chapter Maine

President: Anne Hazelwood Brady.

Legislative Rep.: Britt Rose.

Treasurer: Barbara Kimball.

Secretary: Victoria Hendrickson.

The rules for voting: You must be a member of the National N.O.W. and Chapter N.O.W. The dues are $10.00* for National N.O.W. and $2.00 for Chapter N.O.W.

Also on the agenda for Jan. 10, 1974 meeting is a program about Consciousness Raising and Support Groups. Anyone interested in making contact with others interested in forming such group or groups is very welcome to attend.

If you want to remain on N.O.W.'s mailing list for 1974, please send your name and address to Shirley LeBarge or call her.

* $5.00 depending on ability to pay.

THE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR WOMEN

KENNEBUNK CHAPTER

Will meet next on Wednesday, March 14, at 7:30 p.m. at the Universalist Church on Route 1 in Kennebunk.

Edite Kroll of the H.E.R. Placement Service in Portland will speak on "Sexism in Children's Texts". All are urged to attend.

Lois Reckitt, President of the Portland Chapter of NOW will be present to report on the NOW Conference held in Washington, D. C. on February 17 - 19.

Also, our librarian, Shirley LeBarge will report on feminist resources and clippings.

Election of officers was completed at the February meeting. Serving as President is Susan Abbott; Vice-President, Britt Rose; Treasurer, Joan Young; Recording Secretary, Sally Hybers; Corresponding Secretary, Shirley LeBarge and Press Representative, Tad Sutton.

A Board of Directors, consisting of all officers and interested persons, has been formed. There is need for a few more members on the Board, so if you're interested, please contact Susan Abbott. 282-0449.

Formation of a Speakers Bureau to speak at local schools, clubs and organizations was shelved for the present. Discussion will resume at the March meeting.

Paula Moulton will be forming a phone tree for the purpose of quickly informing members of matters requiring immediate action.

Tad Sutton reported on the progress of the Equal Rights Amendment at Augusta. An appeal was made to immediately contact legislators to urge support for the ratification of the ERA.

A weekly feminist night on the radio program Maine-Line is being considered by Dick Fixeras of WGAN. All are urged to contact Mr. Fixeras regarding support for this program. Write to: Dick Fixeras, WGAN, 390 Congress Street, Portland, Maine.

The H.E.R. Placement Service in Portland is now accepting applications for qualified women to serve on various government committees in Augusta. Individuals will be reimbursed for travel and expenses for the once a month journey. This is a great opportunity for women to become involved in our political system. So, if you're interested, contact H.E.R. now.

THE NATIONAL ORGANIZATI

KENNEBUNK CHAPTER

Will meet next on Wednesday, April 11, at 7:30 p.m. at the Unitarian Church on Route 1 in Kennebunk.

At the March meeting, a membership committee was formed to welcome and orient new members. Serving on this committee are Rozanna Patane, Kim Massaro, Michelle Marriner and Joan Young.

The Speakers Bureau was again shelved for the present.

Lois Reckitt reported on happenings at the NOW Conference in Washington, D.C. Over 2200 women from across the country were in attendance.

Edite Kroll spoke on "Sexism in Children's Texts". For those interested in receiving lists of non-sexist children's books, write to: Little Miss Muffet Fights Back, Feminists on Children's Media, Box 4315, Grand Central Station, New York 10017, or New Jersey Women on Words and Images, Sex Stereotypes in School Readers, 25 Cleveland Lane, RD 4, Princeton, New Jersey 08540.

The Cancer Detection Clinic in Kennebunk will be giving Pap Tests to all Kennebunk area women. It will be held at the Joseph W. Bergen Clinic, Portland Road, Kennebunk, from April 2 to 13, between 10:00 and 3:00. The test is $1.00 for Kennebunk residents and $2.50 for all others. Call 985-3551 today for an appointment. (Medicare and Medicaid are accepted)

Now that the Equal Rights Amendment battle is over for the present, a short note of thanks to the senators and representatives who voted for ratification would be appreciated.

Good Living Classes will be presented by The School Around Us in Arundel during the month of April. Mini-courses in Yoga, Organic Cooking, Organic Gardening, Alternative Housing and Weaving Without a Loom will be available. Thursday night classes will begin on April 5 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Courses are $2.00 each. Call 967-3029 for information.

KENNEBUNK CHAPTER

Will meet next on Thursday, May 31, 1973 at the Unitarian Church on Route 1 in Kennebunk.

From information received from our recent survey, many people interested in coming to N.O.W. meetings have been unable to because of other commitments on Wednesday nights. Therefore, we will now meet on Thursday nights every other week. This arrangement should make it available to most people.

We regret to announce the resignation of our president, Susan Abbott. Our good wishes and thanks for an outstanding job go to Susan.

A proposal and subsequent adoption of a shared leadership format took place at the May 9 meeting. A pre-planned agenda for the following meeting and a rotating moderator system were approved.

Several task forces were formed including the Equal Rights Amendment, Library, Fund Raising, Resources, Legislation, Abortion and Publicity. If anyone is interested in joining these task forces or introducing others, please attend the May 31 meeting.

On the agenda for the May 31 meeting is a discussion of new ideas, organization of task forces and formation of a Speakers Bureau. Paula Moulton will act as moderator.

legislature convenes jan. 2, 1974

TEN REASONS WHY THE EQUAL RIGHTS AMENDMENT SHOULD BE RATIFIED ...

1. Women should be first class citizens by 1976, the 200th anniversary of our country.
2. The Equal Rights Amendment will keep faith with the basic precepts set forth in the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution and the Bill of Rights by ushering in a new era of rights and responsibilities for all the people of the United States.
3. An enlightened electorate is essential to a republic. Equal opportunity in education will be assured through implementation of the Equal Rights Amendment.
4. The Equal Rights Amendment can enhance the status of women as housewives and mothers: freedom to choose will reinforce the significant contribution of this way of life.
5. The Equal Rights Amendment will strengthen family life by establishing a true partnership that would be beneficial to husband, wife and children.
6. Legislative history indicates that special labor safety and health provisions that do not restrict opportunities will be extended to men rather than denied to women. Inequalities suffered by men in insurance rates, social security, pension benefits as widowers would be corrected.

The Courage To Grow

We Need To Face Watergate Stories

BY JOSEPH W. GAULD

POLLS SAY three out of four people think our President isn't telling the truth, yet less than one out of four would consider impeachment. Some are sick of Watergate, saying we should turn to "more important things".

Just how were those people brought up? What "things" are more important than our country's integrity?

Webster's defines integrity: Uprightness of character, honesty, probity . . . I didn't know what probity meant, so I checked it: virtue or integrity tested and confirmed. I like that: tested and confirmed. A young radical I heard described the feeling: when you bite into a real apple, the apple snaps back at you.

The Lincoln Memorial gave me that feeling of integrity the first time I went there as a little kid. The purity and solidness of that white marble. Looking up at that powerful figure of Lincoln sitting so upright, but with a slump in his shoulders as if tired from carrying extra weight. Were his sad all-knowing eyes looking down at me telling me some of that weight was mine?

I THOUGHT BACK to being six, in a tough section of Chicago. Some older kids talked me into stealing toys at the five and ten cent store when I wasn't old enough to understand stealing. But when my stepfather discovered my thievery, he immediately marched me into the middle of the store and called out the manager. I then had to return the toys and with all the customers as witnesses, apologize, even though I couldn't get the words out because I was bawling so hard. My stepfather seemed unfair making me responsible for my actions at six. Were those penetrating eyes of Lincoln making me see now what I wouldn't see then? Yet his eyes refused to judge me.

Years later, we took our three kids to the Lincoln Memorial. I saw they were also affected, even Gigi, then six. Myself, I had a lump in my throat so big it was painful. In the strange silence, pierced only by children's voices, the figure in the chair seemed so near and yet so distant. I remember resolving to be the kind of parent the weight on his shoulders expected me to be, but questioning whether I really had the stuff.

About that time, we became uncomfortable about some of Malcolm's friends. One day I looked out the window to see the police in a cruiser talking to two boys while Malcolm stood by. When I questioned Malcolm later, he paused, then blurted out that his friends had lied to the police over a neighborhood incident, but he hadn't known what to do. I simply told Malcolm by saying nothing he had lied to the police. With that, I immediately drove him to the police station to talk to the sergeant. When he came out, I knew by his face he had learned what I learned 40 years ago in that store.

I guess that's why I'm so impatient with people's tolerance of Watergate: Lincoln's statue helped me realize you are responsible for the people you associate with, responsible for what you don't say as well as what you say, and capable of understanding wrong involvement even at six.

But Lincoln's biggest lesson to me was yet to come.

RECENTLY, Gigi, now 11, and I watched a movie on TV about Lincoln. A little girl had written President Lincoln to tell him his face was so sad he ought to wear a beard. The President visits the little girl unexpectedly and asks: "How do I look?" The maid is stunned, but the little girl simply offers the President imaginary tea, then they both sit down for a "serious" chit-chat.

Gigi's eyes were riveted on this touching scene and there was something unusual in her attention. At the end of it, she said almost unconsciously, "I wish President Nixon was like that."

Her words hit me like a ton of bricks and made me wonder: Are we missing a larger truth in Watergate? Lincoln once said: A man is responsible for his own face after 40." Is that why that little girl understood the sadness in Lincoln's face? And is there something that little girls like Gigi are not finding in our faces?

So as I read the polls about Watergate and listen to arguments for and against, I wish every adult would climb those stairs at the Lincoln Memorial and present his views to the man sitting in that chair. Maybe then we could be sure we aren't settling Watergate just for "peace in our time", but for the sake of building a better world for our kid's time.

ERA READING LIST

It is important that you learn all you can about the amendment and the arguments against it so you can talk about it intelligently at any time. You can be particularly effective in counteracting the widely-held opinion that housewives don't want the ERA ratified.

"MAINE MEN FOR THE EQUAL RIGHTS AMENDMENT"

On November 15th the Kennebunk Chapter of The National Organization for Women has scheduled Angus Ferguson, Executive Director, Maine Civil Liberties Union to speak on organizing and involving "Maine Men For The Equal Rights Amendment". The open-to-the-public meeting will be held at the Unitarian Church, Rt. #1, Kennebunk at 7:45.

HOUSEWIVES FOR ERA

The well-organized anti-ERA forces have asserted that there are two types of women working for the passage of the Equal Rights Amendment...the business and professional women and the "women's liberationists." The latter, they claim, "is totally radical. They hate men, marriage, and children. They are out to destroy morality and the family. They look upon husbands as the exploiters, children as an evil to be avoided." Housewives for ERA has been formed to counter this image. Specifically, the new organization seeks to prove that more housewives are for the ERA than are against it. Its stated purposes are threefold: to educate other housewives about the ERA; to make personal contact with legislators about the ERA; and last, but far from least, to get the ERA ratified in Maine.

The dictionary describes housewife as the "female head of the household". If you are married or divorced and take care of a home for others at least part of your time you can join our numbers.

Numbers count! Fill out the application blank and send it to: HOUSEWIVES For ERA, Maine Coalition for the ERA, Holiday Inn, Augusta, Maine 04330 or to: Pat Ryan, Coalition Coordinator, P.O. Box 138, So. Gardiner, Maine 04359.

The girl and the woman, in their new, their own unfolding, will but in passing be imitators of masculine ways, good and bad, and repeaters of masculine professions. After the uncertainty of such transitions it will become apparent that women were only going through the profusion and the vicissitude of those (often ridiculous) disguises in order to cleanse their own most characteristic nature of the distorting influences of the other sex. Women, in whom life lingers and dwells more immediately, more fruitfully and more confidently, must surely have become fundamentally riper people, more human people, than easygoing man, who is not pulled down below the surface of life by the weight of any fruit of his body, and who, presumptuous and hasty, undervalues what he thinks he loves. This humanity of woman, borne its full time in suffering and humiliation, will come to light when she will have stripped off the conventions of mere femininity in the mutations of her outward status, and those men who do not yet feel it approaching today will be surprised and struck by it. Some day (and for this, particularly in the northern countries, reliable signs are already speaking and shining), some day there will be girls and women whose name will no longer signify merely an opposite of the masculine, but something that makes one think, not of any complement and limit, but only of life and existence: the feminine human being.

This advance will (at first much against the will of the outstripped men) change the love-experience, which is now full of error, will alter it from the ground up, reshape it into a relation that is meant to be of one human being to another, no longer of man to woman. And this more human love (that will fulfill itself, infinitely considerate and gentle, and kind and clear in binding and releasing) will resemble that which we are preparing with struggle and toil, the love that consists in this, that two solitudes protect and border and salute each other.

now & THEN

"In Colorado Caroline Romney had a press hauled over snow-covered trails from Leadville to Durango where she issued the first number of The Durango Record on December 29, 1880- in a tent with a saw-dust floor. As Editor she was shot at by desperadoes, and during a particularly hostile period her printers worked fully armed with rifles and revolvers. In one of her papers, she answered a fellow publisher on a more domestic issue: "The rumor... that the editor of this paper is about to be married is without foundation. In fact, we can't afford to support a husband yet."
From Newspapering In The Old West By Robert F. Karolevitz 1965

Kay Graham, publisher of the Washington Post, made the historic decision to send two reporters to Florida, thus opening the Watergates.

7. Congress has the power to draft women now. In service to our nation, whether by draft or volunteer service, women should not be required to have more qualifications than men and they should receive the same benefits: G.I. education, vocational training, pension, health care, job and housing preferences. The Volunteer Army will become a reality on July 1, 1973.
8. The Equal Rights Amendment will help people to reach their potential through equal opportunity, freedom of choice and upward mobility.
9. President Nixon has supported the Equal Rights Amendment since 1951. In fact, every President since President Eisenhower has supported it. Both the Republican and Democratic Parties supported ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment in their Platforms. The Equal Rights Amendment passed the 92nd Congress by an overwhelming majority (Senate 84 to 8, House of Representatives 354 to 23). In 1972, voters approved Equal Rights Amendments to state constitutions in all six states where the Equal Rights Amendment appeared on the ballot.
10. The Equal Rights Amendment will not deprive women of any enforceable rights of support and will not weaken the father's obligation to support the family.
