COVID-19 GUIDANCE – UNIVERSITY TRAVEL FOR BUSINESS & PERSONAL TRAVEL

Official University Travel for business, academic and all other purposes:

Official University travel for business includes any travel that is funded, either partially or entirely, by the University.

Within the United States:

- The University encourages all students, faculty, and staff to reconsider travel – domestic and international – if you are concerned for your safety.
- The University recommends travelers follow CDC guidance when traveling. CDC travel advisory information is linked below.
- The University also recommends that travelers avoid going to areas, including domestic locations, where there has been an outbreak of the virus.

International Travel:

- The University encourages all students, faculty, and staff to reconsider travel – domestic and international – if you are concerned for your safety.
- Travel to countries with a CDC or U.S. Department of State advisory level 3 or 4 is prohibited.
- Please also see this March 4, 2020 UMS Guidance for International Travelers <https://www.maine.edu/health-advisory/2020/03/04/ums-guidance-for-international-travelers/> for detailed information about study abroad programs and other international travel guidance.

Personal Travel:

Personal travel involves travel that is not funded in any way by the University.

- UMS is asking employees and students to VOLUNTARILY disclose any international travel at this time.
- If you have been advised by a public health official to restrict movements to halt spread of COVID-19
 - Students – Students are required to work with the University to develop academic accommodations in support of their continued learning.
 - Employees- Do Not Return To Campus. Please call your manager or supervisor to discuss work arrangements.
- The University encourages students to discuss PERSONAL travel plans with their families.
- The University encourages students, faculty, and staff to consult travel advisories issued by the CDC and US. Department of State when traveling.
 - CDC Travel Advisory: <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/travelers/index.html>
 - US. Department of State Travel Advisory: <https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/international-travel.htm>
