MORE DICKEY LINCLON FROM MARY GROW

The Division received on April 7, its copy of the Draft Environmental Impact State ment.on the transmission lines from the proposed Dickey and Lincoln School dams to southern New England--some 43 pounds of documents and maps. The DEIS itself is almost 400 pages; the rest is appendices.

There is a 60 day period for public comment on this report, beginning about April 5, and the Department of Energy will hold public meetings in May. When the times and places are announced, I'll let each branch know, and hope people will attend the meetings and ask questions and make comments. I plan to review as much of the report as I can and perhaps submit written comments on it. Copies of the DEIS are available in libraries and some public offices. You may also contact me and we can arrange transportation somehow.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE ANNUAL REPORT

FOR PRESILENT: AGNES PATTERSON

A 1970 graduate of the University of Maine, Orono, Agnes has earned two years in credits towards her M. S. in Library Science and has spent two years as a zoology research assistant in embryology. She is active and has held offices in a variety of community organizations which include the League of Women Voters, the Thursday Club, and The Bangor Junior League. In the Orono Branch, Agnes has been presidnet, second vice-president, publicity chairman, and co-chairman of the booksale. On the Division level, she is second vice president and has been extremely helpful in the establishment of the new branch in Dexter. She attended the AAUW National Convention in Seattle.

Her central location, Agnes feels, will make it easy for her to keep in touch with all the branches, particularly Dexter and potential branches in Ellsworth and Machias. She suggests that it is time for us to start on another statewide project and has several ideas on what that project might be. With more than ample time to devote to AAUW, Agnes says, "I cannot think of a more exciting and worthwhile way to direct my energies than in the support and leadership of our Division."

FOR SECOND VICE PRESIDNET: MAVIS THOMPSON

Mavis, a 1965 graduate of Aroostook State College (UMPI), has an M. S. in Adult Education (1974) from UMPG. She, too, has been extremely active in community organizations with Girl Scouts her priority at the moment. She was the first Southern Maine chairman for WCBB and has worked for the United Way for years. Teaching English as a Second Language for Adult Education has been part-time employment for Mavis for ten years.

Mavis was first vice president for the York County Branch for two years and president for three years. For the Maine Division, she has been Topic Chairman for Redefining the Goals of Education and has served on the nominating committee. In addition to all this, Mavis is the mother of two potential AAUW members—aged five and eight.

FOR CORRESPONDING SECRETARY: CAROL BUTZOW

A member of the Bangor Branch, Carol is a graduate in 1964 of Saint Bonaventure university in Oleans, N.Y. She has an M. S. in history from Colgate (1965) and an M. S. in remedial reading form U.M.O. in 1974. Carol has served on numerous branch committees, was Legislative Chairman, and is currently recording secretary. Her many community activities include the League of Women Voters, the Bangor Junior League, the YWCA, and the Thursday Club. She is on the Reading Curriculum Committee for the Orono Public Schools and is religious education coordinator for two churches. She has two daughters aged two and five.

ACHIEVEMENT CITATION AWARD WINNER NAMED

The Citation Award Committee, under the direction of Virginia Dalrymple of Camden, after reviewing all the fine nominees, has named Diane Curtis Francis of Bath, the nominee of the Bath-Brunswick Branch, to be this year's winner.

Di, as she is known in the area, has lived in Bath since the early 1950s and therefore has seen both good and bad days in that city. Something wonderful has happened in the past five years, making people once again proud to say "I from Bath, Maine." However Di's involvement goes even farther back, to 1959 and the hard work that made possible the purchase of the William Zorach's sculpture "Spirit of the Sea" for the Bath city park. She volunteered countless hours since the Bath Marine Museum opened its doors in 1964, expanded to four major sites, and became one of the top four maritime museums in the United States.

Ralph L. Snow, executive director of the Museum calls Di the perfect volunteer because there is no job too big or too small for her to do. He particularly points to her doing whatever benefits the community most. Di's organizational abilities have spurred on the Marine Museum volunteers to the point where they raised $406,000-more money than ever raised by any vlunteer organization to that point. Recently elected vice president of the board of trustees of the Museum, Di will have a powerful say in the policy making of the next few years. She has also been involved with Sagadahoc Preservation which has been able to save a number of buildings in Bath from destruction-including the Performing Arts Center of Bath building. Di was also instrumental in the application proceedure to the National Trust for Historical Preservation, leading to the award of the "President's Award" last March.

In addition to her tireless hours spent helping to make a better place to live, Di has also been involved with the Pine Tree Society, the Bath Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, and the Board of Trustees of the Hospital.

To quote the nomination papers: "Diane Francis is certainly Bath's benefactress, giving generous donations of her time, her energy, and her money. (This nomination is made) to recognize a woman for her long-time unselfish force in the community, whose constant low-keyed work in the many organizations has turned the city around, making people once again proud to live in the city of Bath."

Other Committee members: Deborah Schall, Brunswick, Susan Oestricher, Yarmouth; Karyl Condit, Farmington; and Diane Sanders, York.
