For Travelers

Domestic Travel Restricted (New: 04/03/2020)

International Travel Prohibited (03/12/2020)

This section pertains to University sponsored international travel. This includes international travel that uses University funds, including activity fees; for which academic is awarded; or which are subject to the University's insurance coverage. Any one of those criteria means the travel is University Sponsored.

- Travel to countries with a CDC or U.S. Department of State advisory level 3 or 4 is prohibited. As of March 11, 2020, the entire globe was at least level 3. Current Level 3 and 4 information is available here: <https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/traveladvisories/traveladvisories.html/>
- If you have traveled and have been advised by a public health official to restrict your movements to halt spread of COVID-19:
 - Students – Do Not Return to Campus. First call the University to develop academic accommodations in support of your continued learning.
 - Employees- Do Not Return To Campus. Please call your manager or supervisor to discuss work arrangements.
