Scope and Contents

This collection includes a series of interviews conducted by MFC staff with men who were enrolled in the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) in the 1930s, who and served at one of the three camps run by ANP: the Eagle Lake or Bar Harbor camp, the Long Pond or Southwest Harbor camp; and the Ellsworth camp. Also included in the collection are interviews with women who married men from the camps and other local residents who remember the camps.

Included are 226 photographs (P08475-P08701). In addition, there are research materials from the National Archives of Records Administration.

Abstract: Civilian Conservation Corps certificate. To all who shall see these presents, Greeting: Know ye, that reposing special trust and confidence in the patriotism, ability and endeavors of John H. Parsons I so hereby appoint him Assistant Leader in 154th Company C.C.C, to rank as such of the First day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four. He is, therefore, carefully and diligently to discharge the duty of a Assistant Leader by doing and performing all manner of things thereto belonging. And I do strictly charge and require all Assistant Leaders and enrollees under his command to be obedient to his orders as a Assistant Leader. And he is to observe and follow such orders and directions, from time to time, as he shall receive from me or my successors, or other superior officers or Assistant Leaders set over him according to the laws and regulations governing the Civilian Conservation Corps. This warrant to continue in force during the pleasure of the commanding officer of the 154th Company C.C.C., for the time being. Given under my hand, at the headquarters of the 154th Company CCC at Bar Harbor, Maine, this First day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four. By the commanding officer: S. D. Conner, Camp Superintendent Francis L. Ralls, Capt., FA-Res. Commanding
