“Pumpkins for Sale,” a photograph by Tom Hindman, is AIRPLAY’s cover art for August. Hindman is a West Virginia native and graduate of Northeastern University who is the owner and operator of The Imagesmith on Maine’s Swan’s Island. At The Imagesmith visitors can see Hindman’s work and the work of other island residents. Hindman is also involved in the sale of photographic products and has had award-winning images of the Maine coast on calendars, postcards and albums. He and wife Diann have been married for ten years and have a son, Thomas Walker (named for Walker Evans), and a daughter Diedre Ann. The family has lived in Maine since 1979. Hindman is currently working on a two-part project for the Swan’s Island Educational Society: one, he says, is “to record a lifestyle that is rapidly slipping away here;” the other to “reproduce loaned photographs to archival standards so there will be a record in years to come of the island’s history.” MPBN thanks Tom Hindman for “Pumpkins for Sale” and for his work to preserve, on film, the history and lifestyle of a unique and wonderful part of our state and nation.

Dear Friends—

Having a wonderful time vacationing in Maine this month, am able to listen to MPBN Radio all over the place, and it's great.

The quality of mercy is not strain'd
It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath...

The Merchant of Venice
William Shakespeare

For many of us a “certain age,” Portia’s ardent plea for mercy in Shakespeare’s great play The Merchant of Venice brings back memories of high school classrooms and English teachers who believed in the benefits of memorization!

Now Maine Theatre of Portland brings this intriguing script, with theatre’s most famous trial scene, to life on the stage of Waynflete School, Thursday, August 14. And audience members will have the opportunity to examine the quality of mercy as they support Maine Public Broadcasting.

Co-producing Directors Richard Willing and Dale Daigle have designated opening night as a benefit performance for MPBN. “We’re fans of public broadcasting and recognize what MPBN has done for the arts across the state of Maine. It’s made theatre, dance and music available to all of us. Now Maine Theatre would like to return the favor,” said Willing.

The Merchant of Venice is Maine Theatre’s second benefit performance for MPBN. Last summer’s performance of Shakespeare’s The Tempest filled Waynflete’s Theatre with audience members who came to support Shakespeare, Maine Theatre—and MPBN. We hope it will happen again! Curtain on opening night is 8:00 p.m. Reservations: 871-7101.

Mary Lou Colbath
MPBN acknowledges the following companies for supporting MPBN Radio with a program underwriting grant. Many thanks to them for their commitment to public radio in Maine! Their addresses are provided if you’d like to add your thanks to ours.

MARGARET MILLIKEN HATCH
CHARITABLE TRUST
Thalassa was a veritable paradise—just a few islands nestled on a warm, planetwide ocean—but it was home to one of the small colonies founded centuries before by robot mother ships. Mankind had barely managed to flee before the sun went nova and destroyed the solar system. The people of Thalassa were happy, devoted to living well on their beautiful world. Mesmerized by the beauty of Thalassa and overwhelmed by its vast resources, the colonists were unaware of a monumental event slowly taking place beneath their seas. Their idyll was broken one day by the appearance in orbit of the “Magellan,” a huge spacecraft carrying one million hibernating refugees from the very last, mad days of earth. Clearly, whether the Magellan was just stopping by on her way to a more distant star, or her crew alleged, or intending to stay—as many Thalassans feared—uncertainty and change had come to the placid paradise. Arthur Clarke is at his very best in this tale of life on a paradisiacal world, of the clash of two different cultures, and of mankind’s first contact with truly alien intelligence.

A LETTER FROM A DISTANT FRIEND ...

Dear MPBN Radio:

I miss Robert J. in the mornings. I miss Prairie Home on Saturday and Saint Paul Sunday Morning the next day. Every day I lament not hearing All Things and Maine Things Considered. Somehow my life is not quite complete without the fine programing your station provides.

Missing you is just one side of the coin. I don’t want to be forgotten. Please find my check enclosed for fund drives I have missed since joining the Peace Corps and taking up my work and my life here in Belize City, Central America, last September. I would like to receive Airplay - just to savor the good things I am doing without!

Let me quickly say, I love what I am doing and recommend the same for any senior citizen who is bored with the hum-drum way of life we all fall into.

Sincerely,

Katy Perry
An ardent MPBN supporter
