General Alumni Association, University of Maine
Maine on Top in Brown Meet

Saturday, May 5, while Bates was walking away from New Hampshire University at Lewiston 80 to 54 and Bowdoin was cleaning up Holy Cross 86 to 40 at Brunswick, Maine was vanquishing Brown University on Alumni Field to the tune of 75 to 60. Altho the times and distances were not up to the standard set by the Maine track teams of 1910 to 1916, nevertheless it was a great day for Coach Flack's athletes.

8 firsts, 8 seconds, 9 thirds and a tie for second constituted the tally for Maine. Superiority of the Maine team in the dashes resulted in a narrow lead which was increased to a 15-point margin when the last of the field events was run off. First places went to Maine in the quarter, the two dashes, the two-mile, the shot, hammer, pole vault and discus.

“Bucky” Thomas ’23 was the high scorer for Maine, winning the century in 10 1-5 sec., and leading at the tape in the 220 in 22 9-10 sec. Cahill, a Maine freshman, closely pressed him, placing second in these events.

Capt. Ned Lawrence ran a beautiful race in the 440, coming from behind at the final turn and breasting the tape ahead of Elson of Brown by two yards.

McKeeman, cross country captain, won the two-mile by 30 yards. “Midget” Raymond took the lead too early in the mile and was left behind in the last lap.

Maine freshmen scored heavily in the field events, Fraser, the football tackle, winning the hammer, Barrows the discus and Jackson the shot put. Barrows also placed in the hammer and javelin throws.

The squad showed considerable improvement over the previous week, but will have to make much more headway to be considered as a strong contender for the state track title.

The summary:

- 100-yard dash: Won by Thomas, Maine; second, Cahill, Maine; third, Reed, Brown.
- 220-yard dash: Won by Thomas, Maine; second, Cahill, Maine; third, Lawrence, Maine.
- 2- mile run: Won by McKeeman, Maine; second, Martin, Brown; third, Hillman, Maine.
- 440-yard dash: Won by Lawrence, Maine; second, Elson, Brown; third, Nevers, Brown.
- 1- mile run: Won by Monk, Brown; second, Raymond, Maine; third, Ames, Maine.
- 120-yard hurdles: Won by Needham, Brown; second, Williams, Brown; third, Barrows, Maine.
- Hammer throw: Won by Fraser, Maine; second, Barrows, Maine; third, Campbell, Maine.
- Pole vault: Won by Perkins, Maine; second, Purves, Brown; third, A. C. Elliott, Maine.
- Discus throw: Won by Barrows, Maine; second, Barrows, Maine; third, Brown.
- Running high jump: Won by Jones, Brown; second, Nevers, Brown; third, Ackerly, Maine.
- Putting 16-lb. shot: Won by Nevers, Brown; second, Barrows, Maine; third, Nevers, Brown.

Maine Conquers
Harvard in 11th

Going into the eighth inning with a six-run handicap to overcome, Wilkie Clark's baseball team staged a miracle May 6 on Soldiers' Field, Cambridge, and piled seven runs on Harvard, saw the score tied in the ninth, and then hammered out a two-run win in the eleventh, 9 to 7. That historic eighth turned an apparently sure defeat into a great victory.

Six successive singles featured the batting rally in that inning, Lunge getting the hit which put Maine in the lead.

Jowett pitched against Harvard for his third year, and although hit rather freely, came away with his first success. Spaulding started the game for Harvard, getting along very well until the eighth, but two Maine men reaching first during the first seven innings. Dunbar singled in the fourth, and Foster, pinch hitting for Repsha in the seventh, was passed.

Harvard scored in the third, fifth and seventh innings. 6 to 0 was the score when Maine pounced on Spaulding. Young came to the rescue and made as many hits off him in one-third of an inning as Holy Cross did in a whole game. The rally ended when Lunge was caught off second.

Seven runs gave Maine the lead, but things looked bright for Harvard in its half when three singles filled the bases. Maine extricated itself when Buell was caught at the plate on Hill’s roller, Clark popped up an easy fly and Jenkins was doubled off third.

Harvard managed to tie in the ninth on some loose work by the Maine infield. There was nothing dangerous in the tenth. In the eleventh Oswald’s smashing drive with Prescott and Lunge on base gave Maine the two runs and sealed the verdict. Harvard failed to tally in the last half.

Maine collected 12 hits off the Crimson twirlers, but, odd to relate, (Continued on Page 107)
Don't Miss the 1923 Commencement

Altho the talk among the alumni these days centers upon the Memorial Fund Campaign, plans are going forward to make the 1923 Commencement a rousing reunion of Maine men and women.

Friday morning, June 8, the reunion classes and many others will be found in evidence on the green-coated campus. When play is called for the varsity-alumni ball game in the afternoon several hundred alumni will be on the campus. Incidentally, that ball game will be one of the features of Commencement. In the alumni line-up it is expected that there will be many old stars who have been active in the game since graduation. Manager Phil R. Hussey '12 has strings out for the following:

Saturday's events will follow the plan of last year, with the General Alumni meeting in the forenoon, a varsity baseball game with New Hampshire University in the afternoon, followed in the evening by the Alumni Banquet, the movies of the Maine Pageant and the Alumni Hop.

Reservations for accommodations should be made now by writing to Alumni Secretary W. D. Towner at Room 310, Eastern Trust Bldg., Bangor.

In Memory of “Uncle Ben and Aunt Clara”

No subscription to the Memorial Fund has been more welcomed than that which reached headquarters this week from Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Mosher and Miss Helene Mosher in memory of “Uncle Ben and Aunt Clara.”

Uncle Ben and Aunt Clara were known to many generations of Maine men who received the benefit of their simple and homely hospitality. “I’m your Uncle Ben, boys, and we’ll soon make college men of you” was the friendly greeting which many a Maine freshman from the late sixties to the nineties always will look back upon with fond recollection.

Aunt Clara, altho confined to her home by the duties of housewife, was no less affectionately known. The Mosher home was always open to the students, and many a night the spare room bed was occupied by a late student arrival from Bangor. Aunt Clara’s fresh fried doughnuts in the morning were the treat of the college.

Uncle Ben was the proprietor of the two-horse bus which served as the only means of transportation between the campus and Orono in the days before the trolley cars arrived. He proudly claimed the distinction of hauling the first brick, the first timber, and the first man to reach the old Maine State College campus.

B. R. Mosher, the son of Uncle Ben, works at the University in the capacity of chef at the Commons, the men’s eating establishment in Hannibal Hamlin Hall. He it was who impersonated his father in the Maine Pageant last Commencement by driving the old bus, the mate to the one Uncle Ben drove in the old days, across the greensward.

Aunt Clara at the ripe age of 74 years now lives in Bangor, and must yet pride herself in the love for Maine which still flourishes in the hearts of her descendants, as evidenced by the letter which accompanied the subscription.

It reads as follows:

“In memory of my dear father who has gone and my dear mother who still lives—whose lives for years were spent doing for the boys of the old Maine State College and later University of Maine—and whose hearts would and will quicken to know that love lingers in my bosom and hope it will ripen in the heart of the child God spared me, we give one hundred dollars ($100) —$20 cash—the balance, $80, to be paid before June 2nd, 1924, to be credited to the memory of Uncle Ben and Aunt Clara Mosher. It is given with a $10,000 spirit.

Yours with God’s help over the top,

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Mosher,
Miss Helene Mosher.”

I want everyone interested in Maine to know who I am.
I am Bananas, the bear mascot, and I live on the University campus.
If you lived near here you would know me—but as you don’t I am introducing myself.
My everyday life wouldn’t interest you.
But happenings out of the ordinary are going on at the University.
Happenings so far-reaching, that even you must be interested.
I refer to the War Memorial Campaign for a Gymnasium-Armory.
I’m helping to raise the $500,000 necessary for its erection.
None of my five mascot predecessors had a more solemn responsibility.
42 of the finest boys who ever trod the campus gave their lives in the War.
The Memorial will be your recognition and mine of their sacrifice.
I want you to subscribe to the fund.
Will you?

BANANAS VI.

Maine Women Are Loyal

We have said it before and we say it again,—“Maine women are showing the way in this campaign!”
First it was the alumnae and wives of alumni in Lewiston and Auburn, who before that Region even had organized, held a Benefit Whist. Then a group of Bangor alumnae held a Bridge Party at the Jerrard.
Alumnae and wives of alumni in Orono, not to be outdone, put on a Memorial Fund Dance. Each affair was a success. The Maine women (alumnae and wives of alumni) living in Hartford are actively engaged in preparing for an evening’s entertainment for May 16th, the receipts to go toward the Memorial Fund.
The Bangor Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi has, through its treasurer, signed a subscription calling for $50 per year for the next five years. These women have made their personal subscriptions but desire that their society, as such, be identified as a contributor to the Memorial Fund.
Maine women are showing enthusiasm which the men will find hard to equal, are subscribing in numbers and amounts that should prove an inspiration to the men, and are identifying themselves as “top notch” workers in the Regional campaigns. We prophesy that when the Memorial Gymnasium-Armory is an accomplished fact, the men of Maine will appreciate that “our co-eds” are in no small way responsible for the success of the campaign.

Non Graduates Are Giving

There are times when the Memorial Fund Committee is discouraged, and there are times when it feels that the subscriptions are not coming in fast enough.
Recently a report from Portland caused a great deal of pleasure at Headquarters. Many alumni will remember Paul Harmon ex'13, who, when at Orono, gave promise of being one of the greatest distance runners that Maine ever produced. Some alumni were privileged to see that great race at Lewiston in 1910, when Harmon, as a freshman, forced the veteran Colbath of Bowdoin to a State record of 4 minutes and 21 seconds,—a mark only 6 seconds behind the world's record for the mile.
Paul Harmon afterwards went to Dartmouth, from which place he graduated, but he has always had a warm spot in his heart for the University of Maine. He was one of the first of the Portland alumni to make a subscription, and has identified himself as an active and enthusiastic worker for the Fund.
Paul Harmon is not the only former student who is thus working that this campaign may succeed. The men and women who did not graduate from the University are showing a loyalty and interest equal in every way to the loyalty and interest of those who received degrees, and the Memorial Fund Committee is more than pleased to take this opportunity to advise the alumni body of this fact.

Lloyd W. Hunt '21, enlisted October 24, 1918, and died at Fort Williams, November 9, less than a month later, of bronchial pneumonia following influenza.

Roland E. Fletcher '15, a lieutenant, was killed into active service in the dental reserve corps, October 8, 1918. He died December 21, of that year at Camp Greenleaf, F.t.
of double pneumonia.

Walter C. Jones '17, was an early volunteer for service in the U. S. Navy. He died October 4, 1918, at the Naval Hospital, Chelsea, Mass., of influenza, upon the eve of his graduation from the Harvard Ensign School.
Maine Conquers Harvard in 11th

there was not an extra base blow in the collection. Capt. "Ike" Prescott, lamed a bit by collisions with Harvard runners at the plate, divided the hitting honors with Hill of Harvard. Each had three safe drives to his credit. Harvard made 16 hits for a total of 25 bases, two home runs and a triple being among them. "Crabby" Newell, the Maine basketball captain, made a hair-raising one-hand catch in right field that robbed Hill of a long hit.

UNIV. OF MAINE

Bates 5 — Maine 4

"Peanut" Hamilton, the diminutive Bates hurler, and Jack Jowett had a pitchers' battle on Garcelon Field, Lewiston, Thursday, May 3, which resulted in a one-run lead for Bates in the first game of the series. A cold, raw wind swept across the field.

Bates scored in the first inning and Maine tied in the fourth on Jowett's single and Prescott's double. Bates scored in their half and again in the sixth, putting the count 3 to 1 in their favor.

With the score against them, Maine came back with a vengeance, scoring two runs and tying the score. Bates scored in their half and again in the sixth, putting the count 3 to 1 in their favor.

Bates filled the bases in the eighth but could score but one run, a fast play, Stearns to Prescott to Lunge to Prescott, shutting off the rally.

In the ninth with the score again in Bates' favor 4-3, Maine proceeded to tie it up again. Prescott smashed out a single, went to second on Stearns' sacrifice and scored on Foster's hit.

Bates won the game in the last half of the ninth with a single, a sacrifice, and an error.

Capt. Prescott and Jowett hit the ball well for Maine, while Osgood played a fast game at shortstop.

BOWDOIN — MAINE

The hurling of Johnson proved the unsurmountable obstacle in the first meeting of the year between Maine and Bowdoin on Whittier Field, Brunswick, May 5, when but four hits were registered off the Bowdoin pitcher. Maine was held hitless in the first five innings. Repscha pitched for Maine and although he was bumped for 10 hits, he did not deserve so bad a beating as the 5 to 0 score would indicate. He fanned eight Bowdoin batters and a number of the hits which figured in the scoring were of the scratchy order.

Maine shone in the field. Dunham made a running catch in the third inning which robbed Bowdoin of at least a double, Prescott made a difficult catch of a foul fly in the fourth, and Stearns took in a sizzling line drive at the hot corner in the sixth.
