Full Pay Commitment Through April 4 (03/19/2020)

The University of Maine System is making the commitment that all regular employees will continue to receive their normal pay for their normal work hours through April 4, even if they are unable to work full-time during that time. This is an adjustment from guidance provided up to March 22, and will be updated following April 4.

Employees are asked to continue to work remotely if possible or as part of limited on-campus presence as already planned with their supervisors. Employees who need to be away from or are unable to work do not need to utilize sick or vacation time through April 4.

HR will provide more detailed guidance. Please see Chancellor Malloy's March 19 message for additional information.
