BDN updates coronavirus total at UMaine

September 4, 2020

The Bangor Daily News reported Thursday that known infections across the state's public universities numbered 14. That includes three new cases at the University of Maine, where nine students are infected. University of Maine System spokesperson Dan Demeritt said three students are isolating on campus and the rest are in isolation off campus. Four previously infected students have been released from isolation, according to the story.
