THE FLAG.

GERTRUDE E. HEATH.

KATE VANNAH.

Con spirito.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand features a melodic line with several accents (^) and a final cadence. The left hand provides a rhythmic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

1. Fling out the flag, O chil - dren, That all the world may
2. Sa - lute the flag, O chil - dren, With grave and reve - rent
3. Re - vere the flag, my chil - dren, Wher - ev - er its folds you
4. Pray for the flag, my chil - dren, That nev - er a trai - tor

Marcato sempre.

The first system includes a vocal melody line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part is marked 'Marcato sempre' and features a steady, rhythmic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

see,..... How cra - dled deep in the heart of a child The love of the flag may hand,... For it means far more than the eye.... can see Your home and your na - tive see,..... For cra - dled deep in the heart of a child The love of the flag may bold ... De - fame a bar or a span - gled star, Or sul - ly a silk - en

The second system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part maintains the 'Marcato sempre' character with a consistent rhythmic accompaniment.

be;..... The love of the flag with its crim - son bars, .. And its land;..... And men have.... died for its crim - son bars, .. And its

SONGS WE LIKE TO SING

SELECTED FROM LISTS OF PUPILS' FAVORITE SONGS OFFERED BY SUPERVISORS AND TEACHERS
NORTH, SOUTH, EAST AND WEST

Compiled and Edited by Birdie Alexander Supervisor of Music, Dallas, Texas

BETWEEN the covers of this book are gathered together the songs that have been loved and sung by thousands and tens of thousands of men and women, boys and girls. These melodies are known all over this great country of ours, and they will be sung long after the topical, "popular" song of the moment has been forgotten.

These songs were chosen in a unique way. Supervisors and teachers in many different parts of the country were asked for lists of songs which had proved genuinely and lastingly popular with their pupils. The songs included here are those which appeared on the greatest number of individual lists. This collection, therefore, is made up of only universal favorites.

In addition to the songs there are forty-one well-known hymns in this book, furnishing excellent material for opening exercises of high schools, normal schools and for all school assemblies.
