STATE FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP WON BY MAINE

The 1926 football season is over. It has been a very satisfactory one for Maine. A glance at the summary boxed below will tell the story of how the Maine bear fought his way to seven straight victories and a State Championship.

A victory over New Hampshire on November 13th would have given Maine a clear title to the New England Conference Championship. Now it is shared between Connecticut, New Hampshire and Maine.

The 1926 team was typical of Maine teams of recent years.—It was light; it was fast; it knew football; it had courage; it fought!

MAINE 21, CONNECTICUT, 0

Back at home, after two games away, and facing its first real hard test in the flashy Connecticut Aggies team, a N. E. Conference member, Maine's football team went to work on Alumni Field, October 16, and won 21-0, after being held scoreless during the first half which was somewhat listless.

Whatever Coach Brice said to the men between the halves had its affect, for Maine came back strong and opened its scoring in the third quarter. Maine received the ball on the Aggies' 38-yard line when a punt went out of bounds. The team lined up and Cassista, Maine quarterback, tossed a pretty lateral pass to Pat Peakes, Maine left halfback, standing on the Aggies' 45-yard line, and Peakes shot down the field for a touchdown, shaking off two tacklers. Peakes kicked the goal.

Early in the fourth quarter, following the interception of a forward pass by Simon, Maine swept down the field, aided materially by a pretty 25-yard run by Peakes. Buzzell scored the second Maine touchdown and Peakes again kicked the goal.

Just five plays later after a Maine kick-off, an Aggies' punt which Osgood ran back to Connecticut's 48-yard line, and after a pass, Peakes to Osgood, Peakes was off again to a good run and Buzzell kept on the advance by slicing off 17 yards, cutting in toward the left, and going over for the final score. Peakes kicked his third goal, ending the scoring for the day.

The game was a good one to watch, especially in the last half. It showed that Maine's perfect condition brought its advantage in the third period when the tiring Connecticut players showed fatigue. Maine met misfortune in this battle when Art Sylvester, fullback was injured so badly that he had to be removed. Peakes, Buzzell, and Cassista were strong ball-advancers while the work of Nannigan, Captain Lamoreau and Joe Simon in the line featured.

MAINE 33, BATES 0

What had been previously doped to be a close, hard-fought battle,—the first of the 1926 State Series for Maine—proved a runaway, and the Maine team easily outclassed Bates which, the week before, had been weakened tremendously in scoring 14 points on Brown, victory going to the Bears on Alumni Field in a 33-0 rout on Saturday, October 23. Bates showed a flashy offense at times, but could do nothing beyond the Maine 25-yard line.

Maine showed great improvement, and following the game, gave promise of being a strong contender for the State championship. The Blue and Blue backs swept to touchdowns in every period, scoring once in each of the first two quarters, rolling over the line for two touchdowns in the third period, and completing the scoring with the fifth advance to score in the final session.

It fell to George Lester "Mike" Coltart a sophomore and a substitute fullback for the injured Sylvester, to be the hero of the day, and the human juggernaut crunched the Bates line to bits, scoring three times for Maine and advancing the ball more than 200 yards during the afternoon. Buzzell went over for two scores, and Pat Peakes kicked three goals out of five tries from placement, following touchdowns.

Backs are often given the credit, and linemen forgotten, however, in this Maine-Bates game, sterling work was accomplished by the Maine line center trio, Tony Beeaker and Tommy Dickson at guards, with Joe Simon in the center position. These three practically lifted the Bates line in their powerful charges, and the Maine backs swept through for sensational gain after gain. Despite the one-sided score, it was a brilliant game to watch, so spectacular were the offensive moves of both teams.

Long marches led to Maine's scores,—advances of 82 yards on one, 50 yards on another, 66 yards on the third, 71 yards on the fourth and 75 yards on the fifth, showing that Maine had a powerful offense which was packed full of deception and out-tricked the visitor's best planned defenses against it.

Maine made 27 first downs to Bates 12.

MAINE 7, COLBY 6

The sureness of the right foot of Pat Peakes, Maine left halfback, and the speed of Carroll Osgood, Maine substitute quarterback, gave the winning to Maine over Colby in the second State series battle of the season, the final score being 7-6, after one of the most exciting games ever seen on Alumni Field, and played on Saturday, October 30.

Probably never was there a game witnessed on Maine's gridiron, which turned about so many times, and which brought the supporters of both teams to their feet so often, as this battle of battles which gave Maine her second series victory, and the chance to battle Bowdoin at Brunswick on the following Saturday for the championship of Maine.

It was a battle of forward passes, with Colby threatening always, and using this weapon of attack wherever she might be with the ball in her possession. The fact that Peakes kicked the goal following Maine's touchdown by Nannigan in the first period, and the fact that Erickson of Colby missed his try following the Colby score by Seekins in the second quarter, meant victory for Maine.

Osgood's speed in coming up from the rear to overtake a Colby end, Callaghan, off up the field after intercepting a Maine pass on Colby's three-yard line, saved the game. Callaghan had travelled 62 yards when Osgood overtook him. Maine was about to score when the Colby end tore into the play and grabbed the pigskin. Then Colby looked to be a sure winner, with the game slipping away into its final minutes, and the visiting end speeding up the field. The plucky Maine quarter came from behind, outsprinted two Colby interferers and dumped the fleeing end, saving the game which was over soon afterward.

Maine scored in the first quarter after getting the ball on her own 43-yard line. Peakes and Coltart tore off two long gains and then Peakes passed to Nannigan who went to Colby's five-yard line where he was stopped by Erickson. Three plays later, a forward pass, Coltart to Nannigan, scored for Maine. Peakes kicked the goal.

Colby's score came in the next quarter. Advancing from about midfield, with Dick Drummond, Colby fullback doing most of the ground gaining, and aided by a pass from McLean to Seekins which gained 32 yards, the visiting team worked steadily toward Maine's final stripe. A short pass, partially blocked by Jack Minuitti, Maine left tackle, but grasped before it struck the ground by Seekins of Colby, scored the touchdown. The Maine line tore in fast, and blocked Erickson's try for the goal.

Maine had the better of first downs, making 12 to Colby's 10, and gaining 155 yards by rushing from scrimmage, while Colby gained an even 100. Colby tried 21 forward passes, completing six, while Maine went into the air 11 times, completing four. Maine gained 90 yards in this department while Colby gained 87.

MAINE 21—BOWDOIN 6

Facing a team which outweighed Maine on the average of 12 pounds to the man, and whose lineup included the flashy Captain Frank Farrington, the charges of Coach Brice upset all pre-game predictions at Brunswick on November 6, and after four periods of gruelling play, defeated Bowdoin 21-6 in a battle viewed by over 9,000 people, said to be the largest crowd ever to see a football contest in the State of Maine.

With the victory, Maine gained the championship of the State for the third successive year, and ran her record of consecutive victories in State games without defeat, to nine, the last loss being that to Colby, 0-7, in 1923. As the Sunday Telegram of Portland expressed it in headline caption on the day following the game, "Orono is again the football capital of Maine."

The game was one of many features. The alertness of the Maine team, the deception packed into practically all of Maine's plays while on offense, the fight exhibited by a light but unusually scrappy line, and the practically halting to a dead stop by the Maine defenders of Captain Farrington of Bowdoin,—all these helped to bring joy to Maine's supporters and sadness to the Bowdoin students and alumni, who, before the game, had figured their team as having an even chance. Outside dopesters in some quarters had picked Bowdoin to defeat Maine, and the out and out superiority of Maine throughout, proved one of the biggest upsets ever to be sprung in State football annals.

Charging perfectly in the first half, with its line ripping Bowdoin's heavier forwards to bits, the Maine offensive moved to a touchdown in each period, adding another in the third, before Bowdoin, encouraged by the work of two substitute backs and a slight brace in the line, came back to score in the final period.

The game was not five minutes old when Nannigan threw himself into a Farrington punt, and Lamoreau grabbed the ball on Bowdoin's nine-yard line. Two line plays gained, and Buzzell vaulted over the line for the first touchdown, Peakes kicking the goal.

Maine's score in the second quarter followed an 80-yard advance, in which "everything worked,"—as one old Maine football player expressed it. Using mostly off tackle plays with an occasional end run, and with Jim Buzzell tearing off 25 yards for the longest gain in this advance, Maine approached Bowdoin's door, and Coltart went over from the two-yard, line Peakes again kicking the extra point into the score.

The much-heralded trick plays and deception as taught by Maine's great coach, Fred Brice, came into their own in the third quarter when Maine made its third and last advance to the final stripe of whitewash. A forward pass, Peakes to Osgood helped in this gain, and quickly followed by another pass from Peakes to Nannigan, gave Maine the ball, a foot from the goal line from which point, Coltart again catapulted over the Bowdoin forwards and Peakes kicked the goal.

Bowdoin threatened in the fourth quarter and after being held for downs three times, once on the 10-yard line, again four yards from the last ditch, and again on the one half foot line, came back with her old-time characteristic fight, and scored on a forward pass from Howes to Forsythe. The Maine line blocked the attempted kick for goal.

To pick a star out of the Maine team would be like choosing one from the millions in the heavens, as each man did his bit to bring glory to Maine in such a decisive manner. Surely, the line play for Maine was of the most brilliant hue, and in this work against the heavier opponents, Tommy Dickson, right guard, was prominent all the afternoon. He broke through the tackle Farrington for loss after loss, at one time throwing the Bowdoin leader back 12 yards. Captain Lamoreau was in every play, and the work of the Maine ends Nannigan, and Black was excellent. Tony Beeaker at left guard and Joe Simon at center, played the best games of their career.

Behind the line, the Maine backfield lacked an individual star, but showed great co-ordinated power with the threat of the fast of Peakes-Buzzzell-Coltart-Bowdoin all the afternoon.

For Bowdoin, Captain Farrington, stopped often but not through fighting, always lurked as a dangerous man before Maine's defense. Al Eeke, a tackle, was immense and in on practically every play, once stopping Buzzzell when it seemed the Maine back was headed for a touchdown. Howes, sub full back, and Thayer, a sub quarterback, proved to be brilliant performers when they were injected into play in the final quarter.

But it was the smartness and fight of a lighter team which got the jump on its heavier opponent, that won victory and a State title for Maine in a game never to be forgotten.

NEW HAMPSHIRE 14—MAINE 7

Weakened by the absence of Captain Lamoreau and the battered condition of the team, on the whole, following its hard struggle the week before, Maine went into the New Hampshire game in not the best of condition, and was forced to take the small end of a 14-7 score with the interstate rival, at Durham, N. H. on November 13.

The game was the only defeat of the season for Maine and followed seven straight victories scored over Fort Williams, Rhode Island, Middlebury, Conn. Aggies, Bates, Colby and Bowdoin in that order. Maine finished the season with this game, having scored 137 points to opponents' 32.

The battle started with Maine advancing in much the same fashion as she did against Bowdoin, and scoring a touchdown in the first quarter after a long march up the field from her own territory. Slants off tackle, end runs, and successful forward passes, gained time and time again, and Young, a sophomore from Manchester, N. H., substituting for Jim Buzzzell, went over for the touchdown, Pat Peakes kicking the goal.

New Hampshire came back in the second period and with her star full back, Abbiati, ripping up the Maine line, went to a score on straight football, with little of tricky nature mixed in, kicking the goal and tying the count at half-time, at seven all.

The third period was scoreless, with New Hampshire having the slight advantage in distance gained.

An intercepted forward pass by Abbiati put New Hampshire in scoring position in the fourth period, the big full back getting the ball in N. H. territory, and dashing 56 yards for the longest run of the game, to the Maine nine-yard line, where he fell. Three plays later, New Hampshire scored, kicking the goal, and Maine was trailing 14-7.

The Bears then staged a comeback, and with Buzzzell, lame but game, in the battle, Maine started, but time was against her and she had reached the two-yard line when the game was called. A thrust by Buzzzell over the line was not allowed by the officials who claimed the forward progress of the ball had stopped. A like decision was made against New Hampshire in the closing minutes of the second period.

Maine's pass attack was a feature of the game, six going to completion before one went astray in the first half. The Maine team showed the effect of the hard battles fought in the State series, and the absence of Lamoreau, and condition of other linesmen, playing to be sure, but in no condition to play, hurt Maine's chances of stopping New Hampshire's backs.

MAINE AT THE NEW ENGLANDS

Running the prettiest race of his career, Captain "Grunt" Taylor added new laurels to his state championship by taking first place in the 14th annual New England cross country meet at Boston Monday afternoon. Taylor had annexed the Maine title in the State meet two weeks before. Another Maine man, Captain Harry Richardson, kept the Blue prominent before a big crowd of fans by easily leading a field of 59 runners to the tape in the Freshman race. Maine got second place in the varsity competition, in which 12 colleges were entered, while the frosh were third among seven colleges. New Hampshire won both races, the Granite Staters showing well-balanced teams which had little difficulty in lugging off the honors.

The varsity team scores were as follows:

New Hampshire	3	6	13	16	17—55
Maine	1	8	22	25	31—87
M. I. T.	2	9	12	27	39—89

PERSONALS

The personals columns in alumni publications are known to be the most interesting part of these magazines to their alumni readers. Like the local news columns of "the home town paper," they are seldom sensational but always interesting.

We want to make our personals more complete. We would like to print one item per year about each alumnus. We would like to print death notices promptly; announce all the weddings and introduce all the babies.

Your cooperation would help immensely. When you stumble on a choice bit of news concerning a Maine man or woman, pass it on to the alumni office. A change of address or occupation is certainly news. Also when a man sticks to one address and one occupation these days, that is news too.

Keep in touch with the alumni office and you keep in touch with seven thousand Maine men and women.

THAT MAINE TEAM

Maine men everywhere are very proud of their championship football team and well they may be. They take pride in each of the seven victories including a clean sweep of the State Series; in the bitter defeat at Durham, 14 to 7, when with the prospect of playing the season without a defeat, a crippled Maine team lost to New Hampshire; but they take the greatest pride in their team for what it was—eleven men playing, as one, the best football ever seen in the Pine Tree State.

There were no stars on the Maine team or if there were they were hard to find. The line was light and outweighed in every game but never out fought. Fifteen nationalities on the squad were no closer woven into good Maine boys than the eleven blue jersied spartans in our starting line up were united together to make a team, a team that was all that the word implies. Eleven men working as one with a machine like efficiency and smoothness but a machine with a brain.

We congratulate the coaches and especially Fred M. Brice, the master who conceived the plays and who welded the team together.

We congratulate the men of the team on a season's work in which they and Maine will ever take pride. The best traditions of the past are equaled and the standards of the future raised. You were immense!

UNIVERSITY BUDGET FOR 1927-29

On November 4, 1926, Honorable Harmon G. Allen, newly elected President of the Board of Trustees, presented to the Budget Committee of the Legislature the needs of the University for the years 1927-28 and 1928-29.

The Budget was presented in three sections, one for the University, one for the Maine Agricultural Experiment Station, and one for Co-operative Agriculture.

Division	1927-28	1928-29
University of Maine	564,000.00	529,000.00
Buildings	135,000.00	50,000.00
	699,000.00	579,000.00
Maine Agri. Exp.
Station	35,000.00	35,000.00
Co-operative Agriculture	49,217.76	49,217.76

The amounts requested do not contemplate expansion, but will attempt to provide efficiency in the various activities as carried on at present.

There is a great need of more equipment for the proper teaching of agricultural subjects. To meet these needs there is requested a Dairy Building and Milk House estimated to cost, equipped ready for use, $102,000.00. There is also needed an additional unit for the Green House, together with a Head House, estimated to cost, equipped ready for use, $33,000.00.

The College of Technology will have its equipment greatly strengthened by the Crosby Mechanical Laboratory now in process of construction. The space thus available will enable the College to provide modern machinery for the teaching of its courses in Mechanical and Electrical Engineering. The Crosby Laboratory is designed to provide space in which hydraulic work may be taught. There is asked for this purpose $50,000.00 with which to purchase and install such equipment.

SENIOR FORESTERS GO TO GRIND-STONE CAMP

The Senior Foresters have gone to their forestry practice camp at Grindstone. Mr. Stewart, of the Forestry Department will be in charge of this class of twenty-nine men. George Gruhn, '25, of the State Department of Forestry, will assist Mr. Stewart. As the camp is doing practical work on the property of the Great Northern Paper Company, the company has a man present to outline the work which is to be done.

The work consists of timber cruising and estimating and mapping. Studies are also made of actual logging operations and camp administration. The camp lasts until the end of the semester; the men may take a vacation at Christmas if they wish.

There are four shacks holding eight men each and a larger shack which is a combination mess hall and club house. The Great Northern Paper Company has a depot camp about a mile from the forestry camp. There are shower baths here and facilities where the men may do their own laundry work.

Cooking is to be done by a regular woods cook and a cookee.

"Tuskegee Institute, Ala., Nov. 4: (AP)—Translation into Turkish of 'Up from Slavery,' the autobiography of the late Booker T. Washington, founder of Tuskegee, has been made by Lee Vrooman, of the International College at Smyrna. The book, which tells the story of the emancipation of the negro race, already has been translated into the major European languages, the Braille system for the blind, Arabian and three East Indian tongues."

Lee Vrooman is a Maine Alumnus in the Class of 1918.

RICHARDSON WINS EASILY

The victory of Harry Richardson in the freshman event was not unexpected, at least by Maine, but this detracts nothing from the marvellous race which the Lee boy ran. Starting in the first few yards he took the lead and held it throughout, never being seriously threatened, and finished at least 100 yards ahead of the second man, Hobbs of New Hampshire. The Maine flier got a great hand from the crowd when he crossed the finish line.

NEWS TRAVELS

The 15 distinct nationalities represented on Maine University's football team is proof that it is thoroughly American.—Ashtabula Star—Beacon, Ashtabula, Ohio, Oct. 14, '26.

• NO • I Am Busy

WHY do you say that when a life insurance agent calls on you?

It may be true, but why are you busy? It is largely because you wish to make the future secure for yourself and your family.

But the John Hancock agent wishes to do the same thing for you. He does not come to add to your troubles but to lessen them. He has for his commodity the security of your future.

Perhaps the next John Hancock agent who calls on you can answer some of your problems. He has the training and deals in policies to fit the needs of yourself and your business.

Why Not See Him?

MAIN FEATURES OF THE INTERCOLLEGIATE ALUMNI HOTEL MOVEMENT

Interested alumni can secure from a clerk at the desk of each Intercollegiate Alumni Hotel an information leaflet which describes in detail the Intercollegiate Alumni Hotel movement.

At each Intercollegiate Alumni Hotel there will be maintained a card index of the names of all the resident alumni of all the participating institutions. This will be of especial benefit to traveling alumni in locating classmates and friends.

The current issues of the alumni publications of all the participating institutions will be on file at each Intercollegiate Alumni Hotel.

Reservation cards will be available at the clerk's desk in each designated hotel and at the alumni office in each college or university. These reservation cards will serve as a great convenience to travelers in securing advance accommodations.

The managers of all Intercollegiate Alumni Hotels are prepared to cooperate with individual alumni to the fullest extent and are also prepared to assist in the creation of new local alumni associations and in the development and extension of the activities of those already formed.

THE INTERCOLLEGIATE ORGANIZATION

The Intercollegiate Alumni Hotel movement is the result of a year's effort on the part of a Committee, the members of which have long been identified with alumni work.

The funds to insure the success of the Intercollegiate Alumni Hotel movement are being advanced by the designated hotels, which have been selected after a careful study of their fitness for participation.

The committee on organization, the activities of which are controlled by a special group of the members of the Alumni Magazines Associated, has incorporated a non-profit corporation known as the Intercollegiate Alumni Extension Service, Inc., which will direct the policies of the Intercollegiate Alumni Hotel movement and serve as a coordinating unit between the alumni organizations and the designated hotels.

Man-power

Four millions of the best man-power of Europe perished in the Napoleonic conquests. Military conquest is non-creative, while industry is always creative.

The laboratories and shops of industry are the sources of many of the enduring attainments of our times. In the General Electric organization is an army of 75,000 persons, co-operating to make electricity do more and better work for you.

In the last ten years one American manufacturer—the General Electric Company—has created machines having a man-power forty times as great as that of all the lives lost in the Napoleonic wars.
