Members, thank you for your support, from all of us at Maine Public Radio.
Have an enjoyable fall season.

“Does the road wind uphill all the way?
Yes, to the very end.
Will the day’s journey take the whole long day?
From morn to night, my friend.”

October Specials on Maine Public Radio

— Election 2004 Coverage —

IN OCTOBER, Maine Public Radio and Maine PBS offer programs that explore the candidates and the issues on Maine’s November ballot. Also airing are national broadcasts of the presidential and vice presidential debates on October 5, 8 and 13 from 9:00 to 11:00 p.m. Maine Public Radio will broadcast several Election 2004 programs not confirmed at Airplay press time. Dates listed here are tentative. Please check our Web site at www.mainepublicradio.org for an updated schedule.

Vote 2004

“Through the years Mainers have come to expect complete issue and candidate coverage from Maine PBS in election years. By watching and listening to the four debates airing in October, voters will have many of their questions answered so they can cast their ballots knowing they’re making the right decision for themselves and their families,” says Maine PBS public affairs producer John Greenman.

Vote 2004: First District Debate
October 11: 1-2 pm
(airs October 8 at 8 pm on Maine PBS)

Incumbent Democratic Representative Tom Allen debates Republican challenger Charlie Summers. Hosts Charlotte Renner (host of "MaineWatch") and Maine Public Radio’s Jeanne Baron are expected to press the candidates on such issues as homeland security concerns in southern Maine, economic development, tax reform and base closings.

Vote 2004: Second District Debate
October 18: 1-2 pm
(airs October 15 at 8:30 pm on Maine PBS)

Incumbent Democratic Representative Michael Michaud, Republican challenger Brian Hamel and Socialist Equality Party candidate Carl Cooley debate the issues of concern to Maine’s large Second District. Hosts Charlotte Renner and John Greenman will focus on issues Mainers want their candidates to address such as Maine’s economy, jobs and education.

Vote 2004: Bear Baiting Debate
October 25: 1-2 pm
(airs October 22 at 8:30 pm on Maine PBS)

Hosts Charlotte Renner and Maine Public Radio’s Susan Chisholm keep representatives of the pro and con sides focused on why Mainers should be concerned about this referendum question that would ban hunting bears with traps, bait or dogs (with exceptions).

Vote 2004: Tax Cap Debate
October 29: 4-5 pm
(airs October 29 at 8:30 pm on Maine PBS)

This year’s hottest election issue in Maine is the “Palesky” 1% Tax Cap referendum question. On this edition, the question will be supported and condemned by campaign representatives from both sides as hosts Charlotte Renner and Fred Bever of Maine Public Radio referee.

The Capitol Steps “The Halloween Edition”
October 31 at 7 pm & November 1 at 12:30 pm

Faster than you can say “Swift Boat Veterans” five times fast—it’s the Capitol Steps Halloween edition of “Politics Takes a Holiday!” You can bet your Heinz 57 that John Kerry will be there, along with George (“Leave No Billionaire Behind”) Bush and Dick (“#@%!!!”) Chenéy. If you’re still sitting on the fence after this one, you’re probably going to be in a lot of pain! Join the Capitol Steps and their special brand of musical satire for an up-close look at all the least relevant election issues!

Nightmares on Congress Street
October 31 at 7:30 pm
Classic Tales to Chill & Thrill!

Portland, Maine’s Rocky Coast Radio Theatre returns this Halloween with tales guaranteed to frighten! Offerings include “The Monkey’s Paw,” “The Cabin in the Woods” and "The Horror of Walker Point." And, as a special tribute, this year’s production will be dedicated to Maine’s Master of the Macabre, Stephen King. (We hope not to scare him too badly!)
Your Input Is Important

Welcome to new members! And another thank you to each of you for your support of Maine Public Radio! With election day fast approaching, October will bring you many special programs to help with those voting booth decisions. We’ll be carrying the presidential and vice presidential debates and produce many special programs dealing with Maine’s two congressional districts and the bear baiting and tax cap referendum issues. At this writing, the schedule is still taking shape. Please visit www.mainepublicradio.org to see the up-to-date complete schedule of special election related programming.

Please take a moment or two to complete the following survey. Your input helps us make better programming decisions— for you. Please mail it soon to: Maine Public Radio, Audience Services, 1450 Lisbon Street, Lewiston, ME 04240-3595. Thanks!

Vice President for Radio Services

1. Would you like to hear Marian McPartland’s Piano Jazz in place of Jazz At Lincoln Center Fridays at 8 p.m.?
   - Yes
   - No
   - I don’t listen at this time.
   - I don’t know, don’t care or have no opinion.

2. How would you feel if the repeat of Garrison Keillor’s A Prairie Home Companion aired from 1-3 p.m. instead of 12 noon to 2 p.m. on Sundays?
   - That would work better or just as well for me.
   - That wouldn’t be as convenient for me.
   - There shouldn’t be a repeat on at all.
   - I don’t listen at that time.
   - Not familiar with the program.
   - I don’t know, don’t care or have no opinion.

3. Should Maine Public Radio add the NPR news quiz Wait Wait Don’t Tell Me to the schedule on a regular basis?
   - Yes
   - No
   - Yes, but it depends where you put it.
   - No, absolutely not. It is a ridiculous program and it doesn’t belong in your schedule.
   - I am not familiar with the program.
   - I don’t know, don’t care or have no opinion.

   PLEASE ANSWER ALL OF THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS, AS IF EACH QUESTION WAS THE ONLY QUESTION BEING ASKED.

4. Should Wait Wait Don’t Tell Me air at 4 p.m. on Sundays and replace the Sunday afternoon repeat of Car Talk?
   - Yes
   - No
   - I am not familiar with Wait Wait Don’t Tell Me.
   - I don’t know, don’t care or have no opinion.

5. Should Wait Wait Don’t Tell Me air at 6 p.m. on Sundays, with This American Life and Selected Shorts moving one hour later to 7 p.m. and 8 p.m. respectively? (Sound and Spirit would be dropped from our schedule.)
   - Yes
   - Yes, this would be a better time to hear This American Life and Selected Shorts.
   - No
   - No, I value This American Life and Selected Shorts where they are now.
   - No, primarily because I don’t want to lose Sound and Spirit.
   - I am not familiar with Wait Wait Don’t Tell Me.
   - I don’t know, don’t care or have no opinion.

6. Should Wait Wait Don’t Tell Me air at 11 a.m. on Saturdays, with just one hour (the first hour) of What’Ya Know? airing from 12 noon to 1 p.m.?
   - Yes
   - Yes, one hour of What’Ya Know? is enough.
   - No
   - No, I value hearing What’Ya Know? at 11 a.m. each Saturday morning.
   - No, I like hearing both hours of What’Ya Know?.
   - I am not familiar with Wait Wait Don’t Tell Me.
   - I don’t know, don’t care or have no opinion.

7. Should Wait Wait Don’t Tell Me air at 12 noon on Saturdays, with just one hour of What’Ya Know? airing from 11 a.m. to 12 noon?
   - Yes
   - Yes, one hour of What’Ya Know? is enough.
   - No
   - No, I like hearing both hours of What’Ya Know?.
   - I am not familiar with Wait Wait Don’t Tell Me.
   - I don’t know, don’t care or have no opinion.

Volunteers Are VIPs!

WE ARE DELIGHTED TO REPORT THAT VOLUNTEERS for Maine Public Radio and Maine PBS have done an outstanding job this year. More than 2,000 individuals representing communities throughout the state and New Hampshire, Massachusetts and New Brunswick, Canada, worked together to ensure the future of Maine Public Broadcasting. The numbers are exciting. During the Great TV Auction, and seven radio and television campaigns, volunteers donated a grand total of 15,032 hours with a market value of $175,843 and helped raise over $2 million! Maine Public Radio supporters answered nearly 4,000 calls resulting in $649,814 in pledges, while folks volunteering for Maine PBS pledge drives answered more than 7,100 calls and helped raise $872,466. In addition, Great TV Auction volunteers helped bring in over $516,000 through a variety of jobs carried out over nine months. Maine Public Broadcasting is proud to acknowledge these accomplishments and pleased to have so many wonderful friends and supporters. We are inspired by your enthusiasm and awed by your accomplishments. Thank you for all that you do!

Gratz Heads National Journalist Society

MAINE PUBLIC RADIO’S Irwin Gratz is the head of the nation’s oldest and largest journalism organization. Gratz began a one-year term as president of the Society of Professional Journalists (SPJ) at the Society’s national convention in New York City on September 11, 2004. He is the first public broadcasting journalist as well as the first Maine journalist to head the 95-year-old society.

As president, Gratz will help set the society’s agenda and serve as chairman of its national board. He also plans to travel around the country, meeting with SPJ members and speaking to groups of news consumers. “There is a significant disconnect between the job journalists think they are doing and the job the public believes they are doing,” says Gratz. “That disconnect is eroding support for the First Amendment ideals of a free press.”

The Society of Professional Journalists is a professional association of 10,000 members working to improve and protect journalism. The society is in the forefront of efforts to preserve public access to vital information. The society has developed a Code of Ethics that is among the most widely used in journalism and has been adopted by Maine Public Broadcasting journalists. Gratz is a 26-year broadcast journalism veteran. He has served as local anchor of Maine Public Radio’s “Morning Edition” since 1992.

Welcome Pat Cummings

MPBC IS PLEASED TO WELCOME Pat Cummings as vice president of development. A Maine native, Ms. Cummings earned her bachelor’s degree in journalism and public relations from the University of Maine and began her career as director of promotions and public service at WLBZ-TV in Bangor.

Ms. Cummings comes to MPBC after 11 years with the University of Maine System, overseeing fundraising projects including the Buchanan Alumni House and Honors College. In her new position, she will oversee membership, underwriting, major and planned giving.

Mary Anne Alhadeff, president and CEO of Maine Public Broadcasting, is enthusiastic about Pat’s commitment to education and public service. “We are thrilled to have Pat Cummings leading MPBC’s development department. Her experience at the University System provides her with a tremendously valuable background for working in public broadcasting. She is committed to communities throughout the entire state and has a remarkable track record of fundraising success.”

11:30 Prime Cuts
"Jazz and Political and Social Issues" Part 1 of 2. Jazz is not the music of the rich. It's music from the streets, from the fields and from the stars. It's impolite and real, and it's often directly concerned with social and political issues and has its own stance, a stance that has everything to do with the freedom of art and creativity. Jazz with a purpose in this two-part series. Ken Eisen, host.

Broadway: The American Musical
October 19-21 at 9 pm

Today, with new musicals and revivals filling the house, Broadway is proving once again that its vitality and magic endure. An unprecedented six-part, six-hour series, is the first comprehensive documentary series on the history of the American musical ever created for television. Told chronologically, the story captures legendary moments in Broadway history. From The Ziegfeld Follies to Oklahoma!, opening night to Julie Taymor’s visionary staging of The Lion King, the series offers unique insight into this truly American art form.
