Media highlight UMaine arts collaboration documenting life during the pandemic

September 22, 2020

WABI (Channel 5), Centralmaine.com and VillageSoup picked up a University of Maine news release highlighting The Jack Pine Project, a new initiative intended to document the impact of COVID-19 through creative arts, and to reflect the common experiences of Maine residents during the pandemic. The project, which includes a number of free instructional workshops, is sponsored by the Maine Folklife Center, Maine Studies and the Hutchinson Center. More information about the project is online.
