Class Book Author Visit/Stephen King Day

Stephen King, the author of this year's University of Maine classbook, Hearts in Atlantis, has agreed to come to campus on October 3. To honor Stephen King and to provide a context for this year's classbook (part of which is set on our campus when Stephen was a student here in the 1960's), Wednesday, October 3 is being designated "Stephen King Day." A number of activities are being planned, tentatively including the following:

- A giant banner with the "Study Damnit" photo of Stephen will be hung from the front of the library facing the mall;
- At noon a concert of hits from the 1960's will be played by the Pep Band on the library steps;
- At 1:00 there will be a "Dress Up as Your Favorite Stephen King Character" judged on the library steps by Bob Whalen, who is teaching with Burton Hatlen a special class book course, ENG 103: Stephen King and the 1960's;
- At 3:10 there will be a panel discussion in Hauck Auditorium on "The University of Maine in the 1960's" with five or six speakers whose lives were shaped by their experience on campus in those years. Stephen will be available to respond to the panel.
- At 8:00 that evening Stephen will give a public talk at the Maine Center for the Arts on a subject of his choosing.

I am only requesting funding from the Cultural Affairs/Distinguished Lecture Series Committee for part of the honorarium to be offered to Stephen. I hope that the committee will grant the entire amount requested.

To: Harvey Kail

From: Kathleen March & François Amar, Co-Chairs

On behalf of the Cultural Affairs Committee, including the Distinguished Lecture Series, it gives me great pleasure to inform you that your proposal, Class Book 2001, has been awarded $2,500.00. Please contact Wanda Legere at 1-1516 before your event takes place to arrange for disbursement of award funds.

Note: Reception and University of Maine System payroll expenses are not reimbursable through this award.

Please note that acknowledgment of the Cultural Affairs Committee is required on all promotional materials. A budget report must be submitted at the conclusion of your event and will be considered for future funding requests. It is assumed that projects are completed within 12 months, therefore, any remaining balance will be returned to the Committee account for further distribution unless otherwise notified.

The Committee notes that it does not fund more than 50% of the amount for any given program. It also asks applicants to consider the most reasonable honoraria possible, as there may not be funding for the higher amounts.

We, the members of the Cultural Affairs Committee, congratulate you and wish you much success on this project.
