Biographical Note

Mildred "Brownie" Schrumpf was born in Readfield Depot, Maine in 1903. She attended high school in Winthrop and attended the University of Maine, Orono, graduating in 1925 in Home Economics. She married William E. Schrumpf, an agricultural economist with the University of Maine Agricultural Experimental Station. She authored a column on cooking in the Bangor Daily News beginning in 1951. In addition to being Central Maine's Dean of Cooking, she was very active in many public service organizations. Some of these are: Assistant State Leader for 4-H, AAUW, All Maine Women, Women's Legislative Council of Maine, Maine Press and Radio Women, Chi Omega, Omicron Nu, and Maine Home Economics Association. She received many honors from these and other organizations including Woman of the Year in 1966 from the Maine Press and Radio Women. She is author of a cook book, The Flavor of Maine.
