Philosophy Colloquium 2001-2002

The following presentations have been organized to emphasize interdisciplinary approaches, reach out to other departments and programs, and have broad public appeal.

Oct. 18: Professor Kevin Brien, "Logos and Mythos: Marx and Buddhism"

Kevin Brien, Professor of Philosophy and Religion at Washington College in Maryland, is the author of Marx, Reason, and the Art of Freedom. He will give a second presentation on "Marx After Marxism: The Humanistic Marx." See appended cv.

Nov. 1: Professor Edwin Martin, "The Mechanisms of Pictorial Representation: Is Pictorial Representation Conventional or Natural?"

Dr. Martin, formerly the chair of the Department of Philosophy at Indiana University and the Department of Philosophy and Religion at North Carolina State University, has developed a second career as a professional photographer. He recently moved to Bangor. See appended cv.

Nov. 15: Professor Margaret Walker, "What is Moral Repair?"

Margaret Urban Walker, Professor of Philosophy at Fordham University, will be the John M. Rezendes Ethics Lecturer. A specialist in Anglo-American ethical theory and feminist critical theory, she is the author of Moral Understandings: A Feminist Study in Ethics. See appended description from Dr. Margaret Walker website and first part of cv.

April 4: Professor Wendy Doniger, Topic TBA

Wendy Doniger, Mircea Eliade Professor of History of Religions and Distinguished Service Professor at the University of Chicago, will be the Marshall Dodge Memorial Philosophy Lecturer. One of the world's leading scholars in Indian studies and in myth, Dr. Doniger has been the President of the American Academy of Religion and President of the Association for Asian Studies. See appended cv.

Late April: Professor Fred Dallmayr, "The Philosophy of Mahatma Gandhi"

Fred Dallmayr, is Packey J. Dee Professor of Political Theory at the University of Notre Dame. An internationally acclaimed scholar of great influence, Dr. Dallmayr is the author of numerous books, including Beyond Dogma and Despair; Language and Politics: Why Does Language Matter to Political Philosophy?; Critical Encounters Between Philosophy and Politics; Between Freiburg and Frankfurt: Toward a Critical Ontology; Beyond Orientalism: Essays on Cross-Cultural Encounter; The Other Heidegger; G.W.F. October 16, 2001

To: Professor Douglas Allen

From: Kathleen March & François Amar, Co-Chairs

On behalf of the Cultural Affairs Committee, including the Distinguished Lecture Series, it gives me great pleasure to inform you that your proposal, Philosophy Colloquium 2001-2002 Series, has been awarded $1,250.00. Please contact Wanda Legere at 1-1516 before your event takes place to arrange for disbursement of award funds. Note: Reception and University of Maine System payroll expenses are not reimbursable through this award.

Please note that acknowledgment of the Cultural Affairs Committee is required on all promotional materials. A budget report must be submitted at the conclusion of your event and will be considered for future funding requests. It is assumed that projects are completed within 12 months, therefore, any remaining balance will be returned to the Committee account for further distribution unless otherwise notified.

The Committee notes that it does not fund more than 50% of the amount for any given program. It also asks applicants to consider the most reasonable honoraria possible, as there may not be funding for the higher amounts.

We, the members of the Cultural Affairs Committee, congratulate you and wish you much success on this project.
