[transcript begins]

ANNOUNCER, EDDIE OWEN: This young man standing in front of me wears the uniform of the Lions is about as short a chap as I've run into so far, but I imagine like the rest of these youngsters, he plays a lot of big baseball. What's your name?

MAZEROLLE: Jeffrey Mazerolle.

OWEN: Jeffery Mazerolle. What's your position, Jeff?

MAZEROLLE: Well, I've played short stop, second base and right field.

OWEN: Short stop, second base, and right field. Well, now, tell me which of those positions is your favorite?

MAZEROLLE: Second base.

OWEN: You like the old keystone sack, huh? Have you been in on any double plays this season?

MAZEROLLE: No, not many. Not any. But I've come close to some.

OWEN: You've come close to some. Well, maybe the next game you'll come even closer, you'll be handling the ball in a double play. How are you doing at the plate?

MAZEROLLE: Well, I've got a couple singles and a double. It's not so good, but I struck out a couple times, so...

OWEN: Well, as the season goes along, why, I imagine like the rest of the boys your batting average will be picking up, too. You say second base is your favorite position, uh, how old are you?

MAZEROLLE: Ten years old.

OWEN: Ten years old. Well that means you've got a couple more years to play Little League Baseball, haven't you?

MAZEROLLE: Yes.

OWEN: And you hope that you'll keep on at second, playing second base most of the time?

MAZEROLLE: Yes, I do.

OWEN: Well, that's fine, I hope that you make that position. How's the competition? Pretty tough? Is everyone after a position all the time?

MAZEROLLE: Yes.

OWEN: But you're all in there, slugging, hoping that you'll get a regular spot and that you'll hold it? O.K. Would you mind repeating your name again, there?

MAZEROLLE: Jeffrey Mazerolle.

OWEN: O.K., Jeff, well we'll be watching out there on the field and hope that perhaps we'll be talking with you again sometime.
