6-24-1959

William J. Carney, Bangor City Health Officer, Encourages Polio Vaccination

WLBZ Radio

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.library.umaine.edu/wlbz_station_records

Part of the History Commons, and the Radio Commons

Recommended Citation

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@UMaine. It has been accepted for inclusion in WLBZ Radio Station Records by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@UMaine. For more information, please contact um.library.technical.services@maine.edu.
Title: William J. Carney, Bangor City Health Officer, Encourages Polio Vaccination
Date: June 24, 1959

Recording number: D 12.108A; CD 21, tracks 18 to 21

Track 18
Length of recording: 0:37

[transcript begins]

This is the Bangor City Health Officer, William J. Carney. Have you protected your children against polio? Most parents have. Are you protected yourself? What about the grandparents? How many opportunities have you had to get polio vaccine? How would you feel if someone in your family got polio tomorrow because you failed to protect them? Don’t take any more chances. Call your doctor today.

[transcript ends]

Track 19
Length of recording: 0:38

[transcript begins]

This is the Bangor City Health Officer, William J. Carney. So far this year we have had almost twice as many cases of paralytic poliomyelitis as we had at this time last year. Do you want to be next? You are taking a chance with your health if you do not get vaccinated against paralytic poliomyelitis now. Call your doctor today. Tomorrow may be too late. Be protected against polio.

[transcript ends]

Track 20
Length of recording: 0:41

[transcript begins]
This is the Bangor City Health Officer, William J. Carney. How old are you? Too old to get polio? Are you one? Ten? Twenty? Thirty? Forty? Fifty? Sixty? The polio virus can’t count, but it can kill. It has killed here in Bangor and will kill again. The only way to be protected is to be vaccinated. Call your doctor today.

[transcript ends]

Track 21
Length of recording: 0:39

[transcript begins]

This is the Bangor City Health Officer, William J. Carney. Do you walk with a limp? Do you ride in a wheelchair? Do you breathe with an iron lung? Some of today’s listeners do. They had polio. Be thankful if you are healthy. Be protected against polio. Protection is as handy as your telephone. Call your doctor today and get vaccinated.

[transcript ends]

For more information about this transcript, audio recording, or other materials in Special Collections at the University of Maine, contact:

Fogler Special Collections
5729 Raymond H. Fogler Library
Orono, ME 04469-5729
207.581.1686
um.library.spc @ maine.edu