As there was only one pupil residing in town at the time usually set for opening schools in September it was deemed advisable to board this pupil in Cherryfield in order that he might attend the grammar school there. Milo Oakes' family moving in town later made it necessary to re-open the school, but owing to the difficulty in procuring a teacher we were delayed for several weeks in the matter. We were fortunate however in procuring the services of Miss Nash who is still carrying on the school. The salary paid the teacher is unusually low and, should a change be necessary, I doubt the possibility of finding a teacher owing to the isolated location of the school. This matter should be considered when making your appropriation for the ensuing year.

In closing I want to thank the members of the committee for their patience and support.

Respectfully submitted,

BENJ. H. VARNEY,

Superintendent
