MAINE FESTIVAL HYMN.

FOR CHORUS AND ORCHESTRA.

Words by LOU FAULKNER PERRY.

Music written for the Tenth Maine Festival
by W. R. CHAPMAN.

Allegro moderato.

1. Sing we now our hymn of praise, Joy-ful-ly our voi-ces raise;

To our fes-ti-val of song, High-est honors now be-long. Safe-ly through ten ear-nest years, We have triumph'd o'er our fears; Ten fold bless-ings now we gain,

Hail our Fes-ti-val of Maine. gain. All hail the Fes-ti-val of Maine.

2.
Sons of Maine arise and sing,
Daughters now your tributes bring;
With light hearts and voices clear,
Hail this anniversary year.
Deck yourselves with garlands bright,
In glad harmonies unite;
Years of work were not in vain,
Loyal in our love for Maine.

3.
Let the music fill the air,
Wake the echoes everywhere;
Reach to mountain vale and shore,
Thrill our land for evermore.
May our hymn of praise arise,
In grand chorus to the skies;
Let each home sound the refrain,
Crown the Festival of Maine.

Wave our banners now on high,
"Long live Maine" shall be our cry;
Swell the chorus ten times ten,
Over mountain, forest, glen.
May prosperity and peace,
Through the coming years increase;
Let not zeal and courage wane,
Blessings ten times ten we'll gain.
All hail the Festival of Maine!
