Media report UMaine students quarantined over Thanksgiving

November 30, 2020

The Bangor Daily News and WMTW (Channel 8 in Portland) reported that 50 students across the University of Maine System were quarantined during Thanksgiving, and interviewed a first-year UMaine student for the story. The College Post reported that 15 students quarantined at UMaine were provided access to counseling services, were having meals delivered daily and receiving invitations to virtual events. WGME (Channel 13 in Portland) shared the BDN story.
