In the next ten years, there will be more progress in the electrical industry than in all the 75 years since Edison invented his lamp.

THREE quarters of a century after the beginning of the Age of Light, you might think that the Age of Opportunity in electricity had pretty well ended.

Exactly the opposite is true.

So many promising new ideas are now being developed that at General Electric we expect to produce more in the next ten years than in all the previous 75 years of our existence. Electronics, home appliances, the development of peacetime uses for atomic energy—these are only some of the fields where great progress will be made.

Perhaps you will, in some way, contribute to this progress. We know, whatever your profession or your walk of life, that you will share in it.
For a competent man who's currently stymied...

A CAREER WHERE THE ONLY LIMIT IS YOUR OWN ABILITY!

It happens often. A man with plenty of ability gets started in the wrong field . . . or through no fault of his own winds up in a frustrating, routine job.

Some accept it and automatically put a rein on their own careers. But others, men with ambition and initiative, do something about it. For such men the New York Life Insurance Company offers a challenging opportunity — business for themselves as career life insurance representatives!

If you can qualify, the possibilities are unlimited. No cash investment is required. You build a secure future for yourself by helping others plan ahead for theirs. Potential earnings have no ceiling, and the Company has a special plan whereby you may qualify for a guaranteed life income after only 20 years. You receive thorough training, and at a good salary.

And always, you have the continued backing of New York Life—one of the world’s strongest legal reserve life insurance companies.

So, if you're able and ambitious, mail the coupon for more information about this unusual opportunity. There's absolutely no obligation.

Up from the Ranks

These are the presidents of the companies in the Bell System. They all started in the ranks.

Seventeen years ago the Bell System first published an advertisement like this. But there is a big difference today. Every one of the faces is new.

All of these presidents, like those before them, have had wide telephone experience—an average of 34 years in the Bell System and 18 years in upper management positions.

The Bell System is an up-from-the-ranks business and it aims to keep the opportunity for advancement open to all.

This has been true of the telephone business for many years and it is nowhere better illustrated than in the careers of the men who serve as presidents of Bell System companies.

The 87th College Year . . .

Freshmen Tom Gibbs and Barbara Kelly discuss registration procedure on the steps of the Bookstore. They were among 933 new students who entered the University this fall.

The 32nd annual Freshman Week Program at the University was held September 16-21, under the supervision of Registrar James A. Harmon, director of the project.

Freshman Week, an orientation period for first-year students, now generally scheduled by colleges and universities throughout the country, is believed to have originated on the Maine campus in 1923.

The orientation program this year included various academic tests, health examinations, social affairs, and "get-acquainted" activities.

The freshman class, numbering over 900, was divided for programming purposes into 40 divisions of approximately 25 each. Student leaders, who are members of the Skulls, Owls, All-Maine Women, and Eagles, were assigned to dormitory units and assisted throughout the program.

September 18, a freshman "mixer" was held in the Memorial Gymnasium. The program was in charge of student leaders, Cynthia Nelson, Portland, and Merton Robinson, Lisbon Falls.

Religious services were conducted on Sunday morning. The Rev. Elwin L. Wilson held Maine Christian Association Services in the Women's Gymnasium and students also attended local churches. Additional orientation meetings were scheduled for Sunday afternoon including sessions with the dean of men and the dean of women. On Sunday evening a "sing" was held in the Women's Gymnasium. Upperclass students in charge included Dana Baggett, Leominster, Mass., and Jan Bishop, South Portland.

President and Mrs. Hauck sponsored a reception for the freshmen on Monday evening in the Memorial Union.

Tests during the week included psychological examinations and reading comprehension tests. A music qualifying test was required of first-year students planning to take voice or instrumental music lessons. French, orientation, and adjustment tests were also scheduled.

Each freshman-week division held a one-hour discussion meeting with its faculty section leader and an upperclass student leader.

Chest X-rays and health examinations were also part of the program.

Other meetings were scheduled for information about physical education and athletics, use of the library, and with faculty advisers.

Recreational activities were arranged, and college songs and cheers introduced.

Open house for freshmen students was held in the Memorial Union and dormitories after evening meetings.

American Viscose Grant To Maine

The University of Maine is one of 29 institutions scheduled to receive educational grants from the American Viscose Corporation for the academic year 1954-55. American Viscose has increased the number of institutions to receive grants this year by seven over last year's list. The funds available under the program for the 29 institutions will approximate $55,000 for 1954-55.

Fifteen fellowships, given for graduate work, have been established in the fields of chemistry, accounting, organic chemistry, cellulose chemistry, forestry, pulp technology, and paper technology. Twenty-four scholarships, for undergraduates, are divided among chemistry, engineering, physics, textiles, accounting, chemical engineering, business administration, textile technology, and mechanical engineering.

American Viscose's college program is designed to encourage the study of science, engineering and business administration. Actual selection of recipients is left to the faculty of each institution and the individuals selected are under no obligation of any kind to the Corporation.

Located in 14 states and Canada, the following institutions have been invited to take part in the program this year: Akron University, Allegheny College, Bucknell University, Carnegie Institute of Technology, Case Institute, Cornell University, Duke University, Georgia Institute of Technology, Indiana University, Jefferson Medical College, Lehigh University, McGill University, Michigan State College, New York State College of Forestry at Syracuse, New York, North Carolina State University, Northwestern University, Pennsylvania State University, Philadelphia Textile Institute, Princeton Textile Research Institute, Rowan College, Swarthmore College, Texas State College for Women, University of Delaware, University of Maine, University of North Carolina, University of Pennsylvania, University of Rochester, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, and West Virginia University.
Assistant To President

Charles E. Crossland '17

Charles E. Crossland '17 has been appointed Assistant to the President, and undertook his new appointment on September 1.

Mr. Crossland, who had previously served the University in this capacity, has since 1948 been Director of Student and Public Relations. This office has been discontinued, but Mr. Crossland will continue to have general supervision of the University's Public Relations Program and certain non-academic student activities. He will also serve as Clerk of the Board of Trustees.

Since his graduation in 1917, Mr. Crossland has been associated with the University, serving with the Agricultural Extension Service until 1928 when he became Executive Secretary of the General Alumni Association, a position he capably held for eighteen years. During World War II he was acting Business Manager of the University.

As Alumni Secretary and Director of Student and Public Relations, he was Executive Director of the Library Building Fund and Memorial Union Building Fund. In 1943 the General Alumni Association awarded him its Alumni Service Emblem for his outstanding service to the University.

Dues Committee

James A. Gannett '08 has been appointed to his second year as Chairman of the Alumni Dues Committee. Serving with Mr. Gannett on the 1954-55 Dues Committee will be C. Parker Crowell '98, Mrs. Rena C. Bowles '21, David W. Trafford '39, and John Ballou '49.

The Alumni Dues Budget for 1954-55 is $25,100, which represents an increase of $2,400 over the 1953-54 budget.

The 1953-54 Alumni Dues Campaign was the most successful in the history of the Association. 5,217 alumni paid a total of $25,177 in dues. Included in the 5,217 dues payments were $74 payments of special "first-year-out" dues by members of the Class of 1953.

Alumni are again urged to send in their dues payments early. The project to cut printing and mailing expense of dues notices continues. Chairman Gannett points out that literally hundreds of dollars can be saved for use in constructive alumni programs if alumni will heed early dues notices.

New Council Members

J. F. Grant '48

R. W. Nelson '45

A. S. Noyes '24

The General Alumni Association, in annual meeting, June 19, elected three new Alumni Council Members. Each new member succeeds a retiring member of the Council.

John F. Grant '48

John F. Grant '48, Bangor, was elected to a three-year term on the Alumni Council as Representative of the College of Arts and Sciences, succeeding John H. Mahoney '27 Worcester, Mass. Mr. Grant, Vice President of Merrill Trust Company, had distinguished records in both World War II and the Korean Conflict.

Robert W. Nelson '45

Robert W. Nelson '45 was elected to a three-year term on the Council succeeding Alfred B. Lingley '20, Cranston, R. I., who has had a long and outstanding period of service. Mr. Nelson, a resident of Attleboro, Mass., is a Chemical Engineer with the American Reinforced Paper Company. A leader in alumni activities in the Southeastern Massachusetts and Rhode Island areas, he is a Past President of the Maine Club of Rhode Island, and active in the Rhode Island Black Bear Club.

Albert S. Noyes '24

Albert S. Noyes '24, Augusta, was elected to a three-year Alumni Council term, succeeding James F. O'Connor '36, also of Augusta. Following several years' service as Deputy State Banking Commissioner, Mr. Noyes was recently named State Banking Commissioner. Active in Class of 1924 affairs, Mr. Noyes was one of the several alumni instrumental in the 1953 reorganization of the Southern Kennebec Alumni Association, and is currently President of that alumni group.

THIRD EDUCATION EXTENSION CENTER

With two centers already in operation in Portland and Orono, the General Extension Division of the University will open a third center in Augusta this fall, Dean Mark R. Shibles, director of the division, said today. A fourth center for Presque Isle is also planned, he added.

These centers serve as a headquarters for the presentation of courses by instructors who work under the auspices of the General Extension Division of the university.

The Portland center was opened last year and proved to be highly successful, Dean Shibles said.

Four courses will be presented at the new Augusta center, which will be located at Cony High School. Tentative plans have been made to alternate this center between Augusta and the Lewiston-Auburn area, the dean explained, with courses being given in one city one year and in the other city the next year.

The courses to be given at Augusta are as follows: Teaching Science in the Elementary School, Group Guidance Techniques and Materials, Modern France and Germany, and Educational Sociology. The instructors will be Professors George T. Davis, Stanley L. Freeman, David W. Trafford, and William Szek, all of the Maine faculty.

Classes at Augusta will begin on September 11 and end on December 18.

In announcing the new extension center, Dean Shibles invited all interested persons to address inquiries on the program to him at South Stevens Hall,

THE MAINE ALUMNUS
New Faces and Faculty Promotions

Many faculty promotions and appointments have been announced as the University prepares to embark on its 87th year. Among the major promotions is that of Charles E. Crossland '17, former director of student and public relations, to the position of assistant to the president. Dr. Geddes W. Simpson has been promoted to head of the Department of Entomology in the College of Agriculture and the Agricultural Experiment Station. Dr. Simpson has his A.B. from Bucknell, his M.A. and Ph.D. from Cornell.

Also in the College of Agriculture we have two newly appointed department heads: Byron L. Bondurant has been named head of the Dept. of Agricultural Engineering and Dr. Jesse E. Livingston will now be head of the Botany Department.

This year a new Director of the Student Religious Association has been named. He is The Rev. Richard L. Batchelder. Rev. Batchelder is a graduate of Yale Divinity School, class of '54. He also graduated from Pomona College, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

Promotions

Promotions at the University are as follows:

AGRICULTURE: Advanced from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor are Dr. Frank H. Dalton, Bacteriology; Miss Merna M. Monroe, Home Economics; Robert Olson, Entomology; Nathan H. Rich, Agricultural Engineering; Dr. Harold Young, Forestry. Advanced from Instructor to Assistant Professor are Dr. Charles D. Richards, Botany; and Dr. Jerry L. Rountree, Animal Pathology. Advanced from Assistant Forester to Associate Forester is Frank K. Beyer.

AGRICULTURAL EXPERIMENT STATION: Advanced from Assistant Poultry Husbandman to Associate Poultry Husbandman is Cecil E. Howes. Advanced from Assistant Home Economist to Associate Home Economist is Miss Merna M. Monroe. From Assistant Chemist to Associate Chemist is Edward O. Merrill.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND ATHLETIC DEPT.: Advanced from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor is Miss M. Eileen Cassidy.

TECHNOLOGY: Advanced from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor is Dr. Robert Dunlap, Chemistry.

Garland B. Russell. Advanced from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor is Dr. George T. Davis. Advanced from Instructor to Assistant Professor is Stanley Freeman.

New Faculty

New appointments have been made at the University as follows:

AGRICULTURE: Two new department heads have been appointed in the College of Agriculture. Byron L. Bondurant has been named Professor of Agricultural Engineering and head of the Department of Agricultural Engineering. He will also act as agricultural engineer at the Agricultural Experiment Station. Mr. Bondurant received his bachelor of science degree from Ohio State after doing other undergraduate work at Case Institute and Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. He received his M.S. at the University of Connecticut, where he taught and served as the extension agricultural engineer. He also has done some research work at the University of Delaware. The other new department head is Dr. Jesse E. Livingston, who has been named Professor and Head of the Department of Botany. He will also serve as a Plant Pathologist in the Experiment Station. He received his B.S. and M.S. degrees from the University of Nebraska, and his Ph.D. from the University of Missouri, where he has been a Professor of Botany. A new Agricultural Editor for the Experiment Station has been appointed in the person of David B. Tolman. He attended the University of Maine and Yale and served as an associate editor with the Bangor Commercial. Homer T. Erickson has been named an Assistant Professor of Horticulture and Assistant Horticulturist at the Experiment Station. He received his B.S. and M.S. degrees at the University of Wisconsin. Dr. Louis A. Ploch has been appointed Assistant Professor of Agricultural Economics and Farm Management. He is a graduate of Penn State University, where he also received his master's degree. He was awarded a Ph.D. from Cornell, where he has been acting as a teaching assistant. David C. O'Meara is a new assistant in Animal Pathology at the Experiment Station. He is a graduate of Bates College and is at present working for his master's degree. A lecturer in Home Economics will be Miss Margaret E. Riegel, a graduate of Simmons College and holder of a master's degree from Cornell. She served as an Associate Professor at Penn State University. Edward F. Johnston is a new assistant Agricultural Economist in the Experiment Station. He is a graduate of Maine and has done some graduate work at Penn State University. Patricia Ann Adams has been appointed Assistant in nutrition at the Experiment Station. She graduated from Maine last June with a bachelor of arts degree.

ARTS AND SCIENCES: An Associate Professor of Chemistry in the person of Dr. Stefan A. Zieminski has been appointed. Dr. Zieminski was educated at the Technical University of Lwow, Poland, where he received a degree of Dipl. Ing. and was awarded a Doctor of Technical Science degree. He worked as a research associate at the University of Michigan when he came to this country. Dr. Jerry Braunstein has been appointed Assistant Professor of Chemistry. He received his B.S. degree from City College of New York, his M.S. from Wesleyan University, and his Ph.D. from Northwestern. He was a physicist at the Haverford of the General Electric Co. in Richland, Wash. Dr. Howard Whitley Eves will serve here as a visiting Professor of Mathematics. A graduate of the University of West Virginia, he received his master's from Harvard, and his Ph.D. at Oregon State College. Several new instructors have been named. In History and Government, Charles J. Bayard has been appointed. A graduate of Maine, he received his master's here and is working for his doctorate at the University of Indiana. In History, George A. Billias, a graduate of Bates College and holder of a master's degree from Columbia has been appointed. In (Continued on Page 15)
Promoted to Admiral—
Frank W. Fenno, Jr. '23, much decorated hero of World War II, was promoted to the rank of Rear Admiral in July.

Admiral Fenno earned fame when he took the submarine "Trout" under enemy guns into Manila Bay shortly before Corregidor fell, and removed "a vast amount of gold, silver, and other treasure." This heroic feat earned Admiral Fenno the Navy Cross, which during the war he won three times. The "Trout" was later lost in battle.

The University awarded Admiral Fenno with an Honorary Doctor's degree in 1951.

New Section Head—
A Maine alumni has been appointed section head for process and development at General Foods Central Laboratories at White Plains, New York.

Edward J. Holland '38 is one of the authors of a paper presented at the American Institute of Chemical Engineers Symposium on Agglomeration at Glenwood Springs, Colorado, in September.

The title of this paper is "Sonic Agglomeration and Collection of Carbon Black Aerosols—Pilot Plant and Commercial Tests."

Outstanding Field Underwriter—
Clayton T. Knox '29 of Buffalo, New York, was named the Mutual of New York's outstanding Field Underwriter for 1953 among the company's 3,200 Field Representatives.

Mr. Knox joined Mutual of New York in 1935 and previously has been recognized for his accomplishments in the insurance field. He is active in boy scout, community, and church activities.

Authors Paper—
Edward J. Holland '44 is one of the authors of a paper presented at the American Institute of Chemical Engineers Symposium on Agglomeration at Glenwood Springs, Colorado, in September.

The title of this paper is "Sonic Agglomeration and Collection of Carbon Black Aerosols—Pilot Plant and Commercial Tests."

State Banking Head—
In August, Governor Burton Cross named Albert S. Noyes '24 as Maine Bank Commissioner.

Deputy Bank Commissioner since 1945, Mr. Noyes previously served with the Bath Trust Company, as clerk and bank examiner with the Banking Department, and taught mathematics in Lubec, Bangor, and Bath Schools until 1930.

Active in University and Alumni affairs, Mr. Noyes was elected to a three-year term on the Alumni Council last June.

Active in University and Alumni affairs, Mr. Noyes was elected to a three-year term on the Alumni Council last June.
FRANCIS S. McGUIRE '31 has again been named Chairman of the 1954 Alumni-Faculty-Student Homecoming Committee by President Arthur A. Hauck. Others appointed by President Hauck to serve with Mr. McGuire are: Philip J. Brockway '31, Llewellyn E. Clark '55, Theodore S. Curtis '23, Herbert E. Elliott '57, Kenneth B. Fobes '49, Nelson B. Jones, Matthew McNeary, Cynthia Nelson '55, Margaret M. Mollison '50, Velma Oliver '25, Winston E. Pullen '41, Marion E. Rogers '50, Donald V. Taverner '43, and William C. Wells '31.

The 54th Annual Homecoming will be held on October 29 and 30. Your Homecoming Committee is currently working on plans for a thoroughly enjoyable week-end for all. Highlight of the week-end will be the Colby-Maine football game on Saturday afternoon.

Homecoming Luncheon

Preceding the Colby-Maine Game on Saturday will be the traditional Homecoming Luncheon in Memorial Gymnasium. Alumni attending will witness the presentation of the 1954 Black Bear Awards to be given for "devotion and loyalty to the high ideals of the University of Maine." Honored at the Luncheon will be retired members of the University's faculty. Many old faculty friends of the alumni will be present. Your committee feels that the Luncheon will provide a grand opportunity for alumni to once again visit with these faculty friends.

Maine Masque

The popularity of the Maine Masque Theatre's productions during the last three years at Homecomings has been so great that a number of alumni who failed to make advance reservations were unable to obtain rush seats. "Standing Room Only" is now the watchword for those who neglect to make advance reservations!

The Masque is planning another production for this year's Homecoming. The play will be presented on both Friday and Saturday evenings, and Prof. Herschel Bricker announces that this year's play will be selected on the basis of its appropriateness to the occasion. Alumni are urged to make reservations early.

Rally and Bonfire

Stirring the memories of many an alumnus will be the gala Rally and Bonfire to be held in the early evening on Friday. Following the Rally, the Graduate "M" Club will hold its annual meeting. Activities of both recreation and relaxation are being arranged for alumni and guests in Memorial Gym and the new Memorial Union. Throughout Homecoming, the Memorial Union will be central location for both organized and informal activities. Alumni will have full use of its facilities and food service during the week end.

It is anticipated that alumni will have an opportunity to witness the freshmen competing with the sophomores for the right to doff their freshman hats and to be freed from Freshman Rules. On Saturday morning, the freshman girls will meet their sophomore sisters in a hockey match to determine whether freshman girls' hats remain "in vogue" or are doffed permanently. The alumnae will meet the undergraduate women in a field hockey match following the Frosh-Soph game.

Social Events

Spirit will run high in the annual Homecoming Decoration Contest conducted by the fraternities and dormitories. Winners of the competition will be announced during the half-time of the Colby game.

Immediately after the Colby game, opportunities will be available for alumni, faculty, students and friends to warm themselves with hot coffee and doughnuts in Memorial Gym. The Memorial Union plans an Open House directly following the game.

An opportunity will be offered alumni to revisit old faculty friends at "Coffees" in the Memorial Union on Saturday morning.

Late Saturday afternoon, fraternity alumni will make their annual trek to the "Old House" for reunions and to engage in "bull sessions" with their undergraduate brothers. Many a conversation will open with, "Now in the good old days—" Many fraternities plan special events for the week end.

BLACK BEAR AWARD

A highlight of the Faculty-Alumni Homecoming Luncheon preceding the Colby game on October 30 will be the awarding of the fifth Annual Black Bear Awards. Presented in "recognition and appreciation of outstanding service in promoting University spirit," the award was originated by the General Alumni Association in 1950.

A Black Bear mounted on a Maine granite base with sterling silver inscription plate forms the award. The bear is cast in bronze from a model exclusively sculptured for the Alumni Association by the noted Providence sculptor, Aristo B. Cianforani. The granite bases have been contributed by Robert McGuire '32 of the Deer Isle Granite Corporation.

Selection of recipients of the award is made by an Association committee from nominations made by alumni. The award is not restricted to alumni, and faculty and administrative members or friends of the University are eligible. Anyone who has received the Alumni Service Emblem is not eligible for the Black Bear Award.

Among the points considered in making the award are: 1—devotion to the aims of the University; 2—exemplification of the ideals of the University in personal life; 3—length and quality of service to the University or Alumni Association; 4—standing among alumni.

Those who have received the award in the past are: 1950—President Arthur A. Hauck and Alfred B. Lingley '20; 1951—J. Lacomber Ober '13, Clifford Patch '11, and Miss Addie M. Weed; 1952—John C. Sealey, Jr., '36 and Stanley Wallace; 1953—Harold L. Bruce '20, Chester A. Jenkins, and A. D. T. Libby '98.
Dr. Folsom Honored—

Dr. Donald Folsom, Plant Pathologist at the University, was one of four nationally prominent scientists honored at a special banquet of the American Potato Association held on August 25 in Estes Park, Colorado. These scientists were awarded honorary lifetime memberships in the Association for outstanding work in potato breeding and development.

Dr. Folsom is one of the country's outstanding authorities on virus diseases of potatoes. He also is a leader in the establishment of foundation seed for certified growers.

Faculty Author Praised—

A book co-authored by Dr. W. Harry Everhart, Associate Professor of Zoology, has been selected by the Chief of the New York Public Library's Science and Technology Division as "one of the 1953-54 season's most essential books."

Every year the New York librarian chooses 100 books in science and technology which he considers essential to technical sections of public libraries.

ALUMNI BOOK REVIEW

The Last Bachelor and Other Poems
Philip Marsh '16

"The Last Bachelor," with its beautifully, although cynically, expressed concept of modern marriage, is a poem that stands a good chance of one being much quoted. It is an impressive, always thoughtful and compelling poem. This and other poems in the collection are reminiscent of T. S. Eliot, although in no way imitative.

The variety of Philip Marsh's work is such that it will appeal to those who like poetry in the modern manner as well as those who prefer the more conventional forms.

Following his title poem, the author introduces a group of love poems. Here he reveals the mystery of love in all its complex aspects.

In his "War Poems," the poet turns his attention to the horrors of war, the slaughter of the innocent by the dictators in the last war, and, above all, to the spirit of strength, freedom and dedication with which our own boys fought and died for their land.

"Nature Poems" are concerned with the poet's profound and moving love for all of God's things—His hills and seasons, His giving of light and warmth, and darkness and death. His granting us the glories of nature so that we can obtain solace and strength to help us in these over-civilized, citified times.

Finally, the author offers his "Philosophical Poems," written in a rather whimsical yet satiric mood. Here are poems on the search for truth in a world of sin and evil; poems that let us glimpse the savage instinct that lies beneath the veneer of slick civilization. The dominant note is a gentle twitting of mankind, not in anger, but in the spirit of truth that may lead to change and improvement.

Philip Marsh graduated from Maine in 1916 with general and departmental honors, and accorded membership in Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. He obtained an M.A. degree from both Maine and Harvard, and earned his Ph.D. from the University of California. A bachelor, he now makes his home in Oxford, Ohio, where he is professor of English at Miami University.

Dr. Alice Stewart '37

Authors Published Article—

In the July issue of Science, published by the American Association for the Advancement of Science, appears an article written by Dr. Joseph J. Antonitis, Associate Professor of Psychology.

The title of this article is "Intensity of White Noise and Frequency of Convulsive Reactions in DBA/1 Mice." The research work was performed at the Jackson Memorial Laboratory at Bar Harbor.

This experiment was made possible by a grant to the Laboratory from the Carnegie Corporation of New York.

Director of Poultry Group—

Professor J. Robert Smyth, Head of the Department of Poultry Husbandry, has been elected a director of the Poultry Science Association. This association is comprised of poultry education workers in the United States and Canada. Professor Smyth's election was announced at the recent meeting of the Association at Purdue University which was attended by over 850 persons.

Dr. Stewart Receives Several Honors—

A Maine professor has figured prominently in the news during the summer months. Dr. Alice Stewart '37, Associate Professor of History, has been awarded a United Kingdom Fulbright Research Scholarship for 1954-55. She left for England in September.

In addition to the Fulbright Award, Dr. Stewart also received a Social Science Research Grant this year, as well as a $1,250 graduate study scholarship awarded by Delta Kappa Gamma Society, honorary educational organization for women teachers.

Named to Science Academy—

Dr. Matthew E. Highlands '28, Food Technologist at the Maine Agricultural Experiment Station, has been appointed a member of the National Academy of Science. Dr. Highlands will serve as a member of the subcommittee on fruit and vegetable products. In his work on the Maine campus, Dr. Highlands has made many contributions to the food processing industries of Maine.

Communism can be thwarted only if it is opposed by truer and more enduring ideals, by a purer faith, and by the elimination of conditions which afford a fertile field for the exploitation of the ignorant and unstable elements which are to be found in every society—even our own.

This is the opinion of Edward A. Whitney, a trustee of the University and a former Harvard University professor, who gave the commencement address at the University's 102nd commencement exercises August 13.

The University awarded degrees to 165 students at the special summer graduation exercises which were held in the Women's Gymnasium. Sixty-seven seniors received the bachelor's degree and 98 graduate students received the master's degree. In addition, post-master certificates of advanced study were awarded to five students.

Dr. Arthur A. Hauck, president of the University, officially conferred the degrees, and the diplomas were awarded by the deans of the various colleges.

The Rev. John L. Scott, Jr., chaplain of the Canterbury House near the campus, offered the prayer.

Mr. Whitney said his talk centered around three headlines: anti-intellectualism, freedom, and communism.

"If our civilization is to endure, the educated man, the intellectual, if you will, must be preserved, if only to hand on the torch to a new generation when the 'times of trouble' shall have passed," he declared.

Referring to communism as "that extraordinary phenomenon of our times," Mr. Whitney said that to some it possesses almost the quality of religion. "The great gulf that separates the communist world from the free world is not only an Iron Curtain of military might, it is as well an Iron Curtain of religious divergence," he said.

He pointed out that freedom of any sort involves some risk. "The danger that a few people will go astray in their search for truth is a small price to pay for bringing the vast majority of the younger generation to maturity of mind and character," he declared.

"Only by great individual effort and considerable mental suffering can truth be pursued successfully—or even recognized when met—and only free men have the remotest chance of doing so."

Referring to communism as "that extraordinary phenomenon of our times," Mr. Whitney said that to some it possesses almost the quality of religion. "The great gulf that separates the communist world from the free world is not only an Iron Curtain of military might, it is as well an Iron Curtain of religious divergence," he said.

"It had its origin in the secularism which has been eating into the soul of man for more than a hundred years," he continued. "This communism is the ultimate logic of secularism—that secularism which has aptly been called 'man without God.'"

The speaker said that because of the religious character of communism it is not likely to be successfully opposed by military victories alone.

"Military force most assuredly has its place in confronting communism," he declared, "but no amount of 'massive retaliation' will successfully combat the religious aspect of communism, and we delude ourselves if we think it will."

Mr. Whitney told the graduates that they would have to live with the three headlines—anti-intellectualism, freedom, and communism—the rest of their lives.

"It is a real fight which you have on your hands and you can't escape it," he said. "But to be successful, the battle must be fought with wisdom, with understanding, and above all with faith in something more important than ourselves or our own security."

UNIVERSITY OF MAINE FOUNDATION ELECTS

Raymond H. Fogler '15, New York, assistant secretary of the Navy, was elected president and Sewall C. Brown, president of the Penobscot Savings Bank in Bangor, was elected treasurer of the University of Maine Foundation at the June annual meeting of that corporation.

Samuel W. Collins '19, Caribou, Ballard F. Keith '08, Bangor, and James Totman '16, Baltimore, Md., were elected members of the Foundation for five years. Charles E. Crossland '17, Orono, was re-elected secretary.

Roy A. Ladner, Jr., '43, Orono, who tendered his resignation as treasurer, reported several new and additional gifts received during the year amounting to about $6,500. The endowment funds held by the Foundation now substantially exceed $200,000.

Three members of the University's board of trustees were appointed by that board to serve as members of the Foundation. They are Raymond W. Davis '11, Guilford, Frank P. Fret '17, Portland, and Harold J. Shaw '14, Sanford.

Directors elected to serve for the next year are Raymond H. Fogler, chairman, R. W. Davis, B. F. Keith, Hardo P. Marsh, and Otto H. Nelson of Bangor. Other members of the Foundation are Dr. Arthur A. Hauck, president of the University, Stephen Wheatland, Bangor, Arthur Richardson '11, New York, Philip W. Low '18, West Newton, Mass., Robert Haskell '25, Bangor, and J. Larcom Ober '13, Chester, Pa.

The Foundation was incorporated in 1934 by alumni, trustees, and friends to cooperate with the University in receiving gifts and bequests and managing trust funds, all for the benefit of the University and its students.

1908 SCHOLARSHIP HONORS J. A. GANNETT

Members of the University of Maine Class of 1908 have honored James A. Gannett, a member of that class, by establishing a scholarship fund bearing his name. This announcement was made by Hon. Raymond Fellows of Bangor, chief justice of the Maine Supreme Court, who is president of the class.

Associated with the University 45 years, Mr. Gannett retired in 1953. He had been registrar and secretary of the faculty most of his years of service. He became one of the most popular and highly esteemed members of the University staff and was honored by election as president of the national association of registrars.

He has been a leader and officer of the Class of 1908 as well as serving the local and General Alumni Associations in many capacities.

The James Adrian Gannett Scholarship Fund of over $1,000 was presented to the University of Maine Foundation. The income is to be awarded annually to a worthy student who needs financial support. It is expected the first award will be made for the college year 1955-56.
The Western New York Alumni held a Maine Lobster Picnic on June 29 in Akron, New York. Guest at this enjoyable outing was Philip J. Brockway '31, Director of Student Aid and Placement at the University. Mr. Brockway brought University greetings and news to the group. Heading the Committee on Arrangements for the Picnic were John Tschamler '44 and Richard Smith '48.

North Shore, Mass., Alumni—

Under the leadership of new officers elected in the spring, the North Shore, Mass., Alumni held an Alumni Picnic on July 28 at Lynn Beach. Among those attending this pleasant outing were several "lost" alumni (those alumni whose addresses had been unknown).

New President of the North Shore group is Leland Carter '42.

is anxious to carry announcement and reports of your meetings.

Regents of the University, Architect, and Contractor took part in the ceremonies during which the cornerstone for a new men's dormitory was laid in August.

A metal box, containing copies of the Campus, Alumnus, Catalog, Viewbook, and details of the new building, was sealed into the cornerstone.

The last session of the Maine Legislature appropriated $400,000 for the new building and authorized the University to borrow an additional $400,000 to complete its construction and also to furnish it.

It is expected that the structure will be completed in time for students occupation in the fall of 1955.

Excavation work for the building was begun in April. The foundation has been completed, and workmen are currently building the brick walls and placing steel for the first floor.

Located at the north end of the campus, the dormitory will form a quadrangle with the present Oak, Hannibal Hamlin, Dunn, and Corbett Halls.

The four story brick building has been designed to accommodate 250 men students. When the building is completed, the University will be able to move 250 students from the present temporary North Dormitories.

Last year was a "banner year" for Local Alumni Associations and Alumni Meetings. It is anticipated that the coming year will be fully as active and successful.

Officers of Local Associations are urged to send news of coming meetings, as well as reports on meetings just held, to the Alumni Office as soon as possible. The Maine Alumnus is anxious to carry announcement and reports of your meetings.

If you are interested in attending Alumni Meetings, but do not know of a local group in your area, write to the Alumni Office for information.

The cornerstone of the new men's dormitory, currently under construction, was laid during informal ceremonies in August. Those taking part in these ceremonies, as shown above, are (left to right) Edward A. Whitney, Board of Trustees; William J. Salter, President, Stewart and Williams, contractors; Raymond Davis '11, President, Board of Trustees; President Arthur A. Hauck; William C. Wells '31, Manager of University Dormitories; Donald Huff '36, General Superintendent for the Contractors; and Alonzo J. Harriman '20, architect.

NOTHER strong Rhode Island team provides this season's opener for the Pale Blue gridders when Abruzzi and company invade Alumni Field. Vermont, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Bates, Colby and Bowdoin follow on successive Saturdays.

This year also marks the beginning of Coach Hal Westerman's fourth season at Maine. Turning in a Yankee Conference and State Series championship team his first year here, Westerman produced a 4-3 record in 1952 and a State Series winner last season. This year he is being aided by Coach Russell "Russ" DeVette, who is handling the backs; Walter "Andy" Anderson, who is working with the linemen; and Walter "Walt" Hewins, who is coaching the ends. Fresh Coach Sam Sezak also lent a hand until his yearling candidates arrived on campus.

The New Coaches
Andy Anderson and Russ DeVette begin their first season as Maine coaches, while Walt Hewins is enrolled as a graduate student. Graduating in the class of 1952, he is remembered as an outstanding end with the Black Bears in 1950 and 1951.

Andy is a graduate of Boston University where he won 11 varsity letters. In 1948 he was selected as Boston University's outstanding athlete. He will also serve here as head baseball coach.

Russ graduated from Hope College, Holland, Mich., where he played three years of collegiate basketball, two years of baseball, and one year of football and track. He holds his master's degree from the University of Michigan. While there he served as assistant basketball coach. He will also be Maine's head basketball coach.

The Team
Led by Co-Captains Tommy Golden, Augusta, and Ernie Smart, North Bridgton, the Maine squad has been busy building up a backfield to replace last year's powerhouse that was sparked by big Ed Bogdanovich.

Undoubtedly there will be many changes before the season is out, but position for position, the team shapes up like this:

At the end positions, Lettermen Kenny Woodsum leads a group of eight candidates. Dave Smith of Houlton and Don Douglas of Lisbon Falls both played varsity ball in 1953. Five sophomores have moved up from an undefeated freshman team. They are Thurlow Cooper of Augusta; Paul Boucher, Auburn; Paul Buckley, Lewiston; John Castor, Pompton Lakes, N. J.; and Stu MacLaggan, Chappaqua, N. Y.

Lew Clark of Westbrook, Francis Pluta of New Sharon, and Bruce Munn, all lettermen, appear to be leading the race for tackles. Clark was all-Maine in 1953.

Tommy Golden, Little All-American last year, is a certain choice for a guard position. Angie LoCicero of Quincy, Mass., and Dexter Early of Sabattus will see a lot of action. Mario Chiarevich of Lewiston is a leading sophomore candidate.

The center slot is a toss-up. Rod Cyr of Saco, who saw action last year, and Sophomore Norman Cole of Gardiner and Bobo Martin of Rumford are fighting for the job.

Paced by veteran Ernie Smart, a group of 19 men are battling for the four back positions. Returning veterans who will play a lot of ball are Wally Covell of Monmouth, Jim Duffy of Beverly, Mass., Teddy Mahar of Mechanic Falls, Robert Miles of Old Town, Cole Nice of Newburyport, Mass., Don Shields of Leominster, Mass., and Jack Small of Bath.

Pete Kostacopoulos of Pawtucket, R. I., who passed the freshmen to victory last year, is a leading candidate. Ray Hostetter of Osterville, Mass., Tim O'Connor of Brewer and Johnny Edgar of Andover, N. H., also are counted in the running.

Homecoming
The big event of the football season for alumni and friends will be the Homecoming game—this year with Colby on October 30.

OCTOBER, 1954
The Summer Session of 1954 opened in July with the largest enrollment in recent years. Some 1,253 registrations were recorded. One out of five of the students were from out of state, the records show. Over 600 of the students enrolled were working at the master degree level, according to Dean Mark R. Shibles of the School of Education and director of the Summer Session.

Along with the regular six-week courses, the Session offered some work on a three-week basis. Besides the regular session, a special Superintendent's Summer was offered. The program, which consisted of special seminars for school superintendents in Maine, included sessions on school finance, school plants and personnel procedures.

In addition, the fifth Noted National Educators' Lectures Series was included in the summer program. With such noted educators participating as Dr. Edward G. Olsen, who is widely known as an authority in the field of school and community relations; Dr. Miner Patten, an elementary school principal in Portland, Ore., Dr. Leo Gans, editor-in-chief of Secondary Education of the American Book Company; Dr. Roma Gans, professor of education at Teachers College, Columbia University; Dr. H. Leroy Selmeir, director of instruction, Grosse Point, Mich, public schools; Dr. Henry Otto, graduate professor of elementary administration and curriculum at the University of Texas; and Dr. Thomas Hopkins, professor of education at the Horace Mann-Lincoln Institute for School Experimentation of Columbia University.

A course consisting of lectures by noted authors on their contributions to the field of literature was also presented. Mr. Walter R. Whitney, Associate Professor of English at the University, was in charge of the program.

Three assemblies were presented during the session, one by Dr. Herbert Brown, professor of literature at Bowdoin College; Dr. Garland B. Russell, associate professor of education at Maine; and Dr. Wilmarth Starr, a member of the University faculty who has recently served as Education and Information Officer for the Technical and Economic Mission to Cambodia, Laos and Vietnam.

This summer the University also operated a graduate program for teachers of industrial arts at Gorham State Teachers College for the first time.

The session ended on Aug. 13 with commencement exercises. Edward Whitney of the Board of Trustees gave the commencement address.

Dr. Martin is now Director of the State Agricultural Experiment Station and Extension Service in N. J. Rutgers Univ. College of Agriculture.

1916 Mrs. Evelyn W. Harmon (Evelyn Winship) Livermore Falls

Greetings, and welcome here. I am back on the job of getting out the 1916 column for the Maine Alumni. I trust everyone had a very pleasant summer. I was very much interested in the reunion in June, and had a most delightful time. Our class was well represented there. I received many compliments on our column, from members of other classes. This made me quite proud, but I realize that I could do very little without your help and cooperation. It gave me a great deal of pleasure to be present at the Alumni Banquet when our classmate, MYRON G. Peabody, was presented the Certificate of Appreciation in recognition of his outstanding service to the University.

My first letter this month was from RUSSELL E. BARTLETT of Rockland. He writes that it was 50 years ago that we were classmates, which we’ll have to admit is true. He has been in the dairy business in his home for the last 20 years. He has two children and four grandchildren. His son graduated from Maine in 1938, was in the Navy five years, coming back with the rank of Commander. At present, he lives in Skowhegan and is District Manager of Maine for American Legion. He works for the National Service Co. of New York. Russell’s hobbies are fishing on Moosehead Lake, hunting in the fall for birds and deer, and winter for rabbits.

Yesterday I received a very interesting long letter from Charles Blackman of Columbus, Ohio. I only wish I could put it all in. He has had a most interesting and busy life. In June 1917, he received his master’s Degree from Iowa State College. He served as assistant county agent in Penobscot County, Extension Specialist in Dairy Husbandry at Iowa State College, and as Field Secretary for the New England Holstein Association. In the fall of 1929, he went to Ohio State University as Professor of Dairy Science in Extension. In 1946 he went to Columbia to work for that government under the direction of the Office of Foreign Agricultural Relations of the United States Department of Agriculture. He and his family had many interesting experiences there. Two years, he was assigned to take charge of foreign visitors who were coming under various plans sponsored by the United States. Visitors came from Iceland, India, Malaya, and South America. His son is a teacher and is with him now, while working for a Doctor’s Degree in Extension. Charles still comes to Lena, as his mother, who is ninety-two, is living on Peak’s Island.

Last Sunday afternoon, I was very pleasantly surprised by a call from Edith Coolbroth, whose present address is Buckfield, Maine. We had a wonderful chat about old times. I, of course, had to tell her all about the difference in our lives. Edith has three children—Dorothy Coolbroth Stocks of South Portland, Martha Jane Coolbroth, who is a Korean War Veteran. They live in Natick, N. Y., and Donald M. Coolbroth, Jr., who expects to enter the Service soon.

1917 Maurice Jacobs of Philadelphia has a unique Printing Establishment. Dr. Jacobs’ employees must have a knowledge of six languages as he has one of the few presses in the country that can deal with Hebrew and Arabic as well as Latin, Greek and other foreign languages.

1918 Dr. Albert M. Carde is living in Milo, Maine, where he practices medicine.

The days are busy ones for Styles Bridge of New Hampshire when in Washington as he is Senate president pro tem, chairman of the Appropriations Committee, and senator from New Hampshire.

1919 The Times of Barre, Vt., informed us that Carl A. Anderson began his 30th year as principal when Thetford Academy opened in September. Carl has his residence in Maine and has been town auditor and on the Board of Trustees of the Thetford Library for many years. He says it is too busy to teach algebra and bookkeeping.

1920 Frederick R. West is at 4503 Westmorland Terrace, Portsmouth, Va.

Henry M. Gardiner now receives mail at Box 145, Stafford Springs, Conn.

Ernest L. Coolbroth resides on Old Mararoneck Road, White Plains, N. Y.

1921 Mrs. Harold P. Wood (Leta Weymouth) North Berwick

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Augustin Kurth, on June 30, 1954, in Quincy, Mass., has been announced recently.

Mr. Kurth was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kurth, farmer in the Boston Symphony Orchestra for 42 years, and the late Mrs. Kurth. He attended Boston English H. S.studied music at the N. E. Conservatory of Music and Conservatory of Music in Leipzig, Germany; Post Graduate scholarship at Stern Conservatory of Music, Berlin, Germany. He was Lt. Band leader of the 71st Artillery, C A C band in World War I and Chief Warrant Officer and bandleader 241st C A C band at the 86th Army Ground Forces band in World War II. Mr. Kurth is of the Army. Martha and Richard will live in Quincy for a short period and then will reside at Fay-Da-Way Acres, North Sandwich, N. H.

1922 Mrs. Albert E. Libby (Minnie Norell) 55 Bayview Ave., So. Portland

We are all waiting, and it’s not too late, to hear about a special vacation,
Elizabeth Ring, back from study and research in California, was the speaker at the Annual meeting of the Maine Historical Society in Portland in June. Her subject was “Maine and the Forty-niners.” She is living at 193 Clark St., Portland.

Arthur Wilson had the distinction of being the only parish minister from the Congregational Church who represented the U. S. who was included as one of the Cong. Churches’ 12 delegates to the World Council of Churches’ Conference in Evanston. “Pete” is the minister at Beneficent Church in Providence.

Howard S. Emery was honored last June when he completed 30 years of teaching in Bangor. And rightly! What of future plans, Howard?

Harvey Fickett’s new address is 9 Ricker Park, Portland.

1924

Mrs. Clarence C. Little (Beatrice Johnson)

Box 558, Bar Harbor

Dear Classmates:

Today’s paper states that Albert S. Noyes of Augusta has been named Bank Commissioner of the State of Maine. Congratulations, Albert, and we rejoice with you and your family in this highly deserved recognition.

John and Ruth (Bessey) Conti’s son, John, Jr., graduated from George Washington Univ. Law School in June and was married to a Washington and Bar Harbor (and beautiful) girl, Janet Gross, two weeks ago here in Bar Harbor at a large and fashionable wedding.

Surely some of you people have news to send on to keep our class notes in the alumnus.

Mrs. Merrill Henderson (Anne Thurston)

Quechee, Vt.

School bells are again ringing which also means items for the Alumnus. Since I have neither seen nor heard from any Maine folks this summer, all credit is due the Alumni Office.

Several changes of address have occurred:

Alton P. Keene has moved from 151 Ridge St., to 18 William St., Glen Falls, N. Y.

Mr. Francis S. Dole who formally lived in Norwalk, Conn., now lives on Armstrong Rd., So. Coventry, Conn.

James P. Boyden, former editor of Westinghouse Elec. Corp. in Pittsburgh, has moved to 126 Sylvanian Dr., R. D. #1, Quechee, Vt.

At the annual Home Economics Assn. meeting, Mrs. Mildred Schrumpf (Brownie), the outgoing president, was named councilor and Mrs. Louise Lord (Quincy) was named chairman of the home-makers division.

Rudy Vallee, on an eight week tour of summer theaters, appeared in “Jenny Kissed Me.” The papers carried some high lights of his stage life, especially interesting was his reason (so the papers say) for leaving Maine, a jilted romance. Many of you may have read about this editorial.

Mrs. Hilton Buley (Arline Besse) writes that they are just off the Merritt Parkway on Old Lane Road, Chesire, Conn.

Mrs. Albert D. Nutting (Leone Dakin)

17 College Hgts., Orono

Surely some of you have news to send on to keep our class notes in the alumnus.

1927

Mrs. Robert Thaxter (Edith O’Connor)

159 Fountain St., Bangor

"27ers that were on campus in June for the Alumni Day and Commencement were: Milton H. Clapp of Montclair, N. J., Richard C. Dolf of Orono, George F. Dow of Orono, Serena W. Hussey of Presque Isl, Sally Palmer of Orono, John E. Stewart of Orono, Iva Stanley Waring of Orono, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Webster (Margaret Preble ’27) of Bangor. It would appear that our Orono delegation was the largest.

Your secretary would certainly appreciate hearing from some of you about news of you, your families, and other classmates. I am enjoying the news, why not share it with the rest of the class?

1928

Mrs. Richard C. Dolf (Erline Besse)

41 Forest Ave., Orono

Class of 1928 needs a Class Reporter. Hat Hyland and I have sent out a couple special invitations but have received no answer. Doesn’t someone want to keep the world, especially the U. S. and the World, in touch with the Class of 1928?

Just read the below items and see what some of our Class are doing.
John W. True became the first town-manager of Hampton, N. H. He has previously served as town manager in Old Orchard, Maine, and Lancaster, New Hampshire.

Kenneth Lovejoy, Casey to most of us, was honored Tuesday, June 22, during National 4-H Club Camp at Washington, D. C. He was awarded a gold key signifying 25 years of service to 4-H Club Work in Maine.

Dr. Frederick H. Thompson gave the Commencement address at the graduation exercises of Bangor Theological Seminary. This took place June 8 in the Hammond St. Congregational Church.

Here are a few addresses:
- Warren P. Carson lives at Rt. 6, Box 218, Savannah, Georgia.
- Dr. Robert F. Chandler, Jr., who has been president of the University of New Hampshire since 1950, has resigned his position to become a consultant to the Rockefeller Foundation in its foreign agriculture program. Bob received his Doctor of Philosophy degree at Maryland and did graduate study at California in soil science, geology and plant nutrition. Maine gave him an honorary degree, Doctor of Laws, in 1951.
- Elmer G. Horton is receiving mail at 4 Sunndale Rd., West Hartford, Conn.
- Larry Gonyer is receiving mail at P. O. Box 119, Pleasant Hill, Mo.
- Robert Parks has been reelected president of the Massachusetts Restaurant Association.
- Willard J. Strout, vice president in charge of operations for the Bangor and Ampthill Power Plant, has been named president of the Maine Association of Engineers.
- John W. True became the first town-manager of Hampton, N. H. He has previously served as town manager in Old Orchard, Maine, and Lancaster, New Hampshire.

What are some of the rest of you doing and where are you?

1929
- Miss Barbara Johnson lives at 32 Orland St., Portland.
- Dr. Robert F. Chandler, Jr., who has been president of the University of New Hampshire since 1950, has resigned his position to become a consultant to the Rockefeller Foundation in its foreign agriculture program. Bob received his Doctor of Philosophy degree at Maryland and did graduate study at California in soil science, geology and plant nutrition. Maine gave him an honorary degree, Doctor of Laws, in 1951.
- Elmer G. Horton is receiving mail at 4 Sunndale Rd., West Hartford, Conn.
- Lawrence Gonyer is receiving mail at P. O. Box 119, Pleasant Hill, Mo.
- Robert Parks has been reelected president of the Massachusetts Restaurant Association.
- Willard J. Strout, vice president in charge of operations for the Bangor and Ampthill Power Plant, has been named president of the Maine Association of Engineers.
- J. C. Buzzell has moved from Chelmsford, Mass., to 17 Highland Ave., Groveland, Mass.

In case you haven't heard, Roderick Cassidy, previously with the V. A. Hospital at Livermore, California, is now at the Monterey County Hospital in Salinas, Calif.

In June Ellen Mullaney, a member of the faculty of Garland Street Junior High School, Bangor, was a Maine delegate to the biennial convention of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., at St. Louis, Missouri. She was also a speaker on "Work With Career Girls" at one of the workshops. Ellen did her graduate work at the Univ. of Iowa.

1931
- Mrs. Sam Sezak (Ethel Thomas) lives at 1931 Newmarket Ave., Orono.
- Dr. W. Adrian Cassidy, previously with the V. A. Hospital at Livermore, California, is now at the Monterey County Hospital in Salinas, Calif.
- Ellen did her graduate work at the Univ. of Iowa.

1932
- Miss Angela Miniutti lives at 7 Catell St., Apt. 5, Bangor.
- The most exciting news this month is in the Dan Cupid Department. A very short note from Bernice Woodman reports that Dan Cupid, Inc. did a special order for the Maine Delegation to the National 4-H Club Championships at St. Louis. The order included shirts, ties, and caps for the Maine group. Bernice is very happy with the results.
- Members of the class will regret to learn of the hospitalization of Luthan Crosby for severe burns sustained when attempting repairs on an automobile gasoline tank at Crosby's Filling Station at Milo.
- Howard F. Burnham of 43 Wildwood Avenue, Greenfield, Mass., public accountant and a former assessor and selectman, has announced his intentions of seeking Republican endorsement for county commissioner at the September 14 primaries. This column was written before Sept. 14, and I hope that when the October Alumnus appears, Howard will be a victor.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Rice Moody (Doris M. Baker) and family with their trusty 1917 Pierce Arrow Touring Car. (See 1932 column for details.)

Dr. and Mrs. J. Rice Moody (Doris M. Baker) and family with their trusty 1917 Pierce Arrow Touring Car. (See 1932 column for details.)

Watch for reports from our fund-raising campaign in this column.
I really felt the summer was over today when I started three younsters back to school and realized I had reached the deadline for sending in our class news for the first fall Alumnus. If the column is to be interesting this year I need lots of items from you. If you are too modest to send in about your own doings please write a postcard telling me about 33ers you have seen or heard from recently.

Atty. Robert Zottoli has opened a law office in Brunswick, Maine. He and Mrs. Zottoli and their five children have moved to Princes Point after living 17 years in Quincy, Mass. Welcome back to Maine, Bob.

Melbourne F. Means of Biddeford was elected vice president of the Maine Savings and Loan League at a recent meeting at Sebasco Estates.

Lieutenant Colonel John T. Bankus graduated in June from Army War College at Carlisle Barracks, Pa. He assumed duties with the Department of the Army in Washington, D. C. John is married to the former Charlotte F. Kava of Dorchester, Mass.

Mrs. Ruth (Callaghan) DeCoteau of Norway, Maine, Oxford county home demonstration agent, will be recognized for 10 years of distinguished service October 13 in Chicago. She will be one of 62 in the United States to be so honored. Frank Hagan, also of Norway, has been elected president of the Maine County Agent Association.

First, I want to pay tribute to Maddy Frank Hagan, also of Norway, has been elected president of the Maine County Agent Association. Ted Prescott is now associated with N. W. Ayer & Son, a large advertising agency, with an office at W. Washington Square, Philadelphia 6, Pa.

1934 Miss Claire Sanders 123½ Main St., Orono

At reunion time Alice (Dyer) DeCourcy promised to send news items.

The Alumni Office has supplied the following changes of address: Robert E. Crockett, 220-65th Street, Niagara Falls, New York, N. Y.; Earl D. Brown, Kedarburn, Waterford, Maine; Hayden S. Rogers, R.F.D. #1, Rumford, Maine; Fred S. Atwood, Jr., 209 W. 107th St., Apt. 3-W, New York 25, N. Y.

Imagine it, this coming June will be the 'twentieth reunion' for the Class of 1935. Start making plans now to be on campus for the June week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Cobb (Arlene Higgins '36) are residing at 1401 Beacon Hill Blvd., Greenwich, Conn., and live at 10 Quintard Avenue.

The postman finds Arthur B. Otis in Maryland in the fair city of Baltimore. 1906-A Ramblewood Road in the 14 Zone of Baltimore is his exact location. Now living in Durham, lives one of the 35ers, Albert H. Galvraith at R. #2, Box 256, Cole Mill Road.

1936 Mrs. Edwin P. Webster, Jr. (Phylis Hamilton '36) 235 Norway Rd., Bangor Marcia Allen Grodin (Mrs. Irving L.) is living at 7745 A Washington Lane, Elk Park 17, Rockville, Maryland. Marcia and five State-of-Mainers were our representatives at the Alumni Day in June of 1954. The others were: Rena Allens of Bangor, John S. Getchell of Orono, Donald Huff of Augusta, Henry Little of Bucksport, and Ruth Hinkley McMillin (Mrs. Edward S.) of Orono. Send on news of yourself and your family to keep '36 in the news column.

1937 Mrs. Gordon Raymond (Barb Lancaster '35) 37 Glenwood Ave., Portland Vacation is over and it will be Homecoming week end almost before you read this. I am always hopeful that some of you will get a yen to see a football game and be back on campus one of these times. Speaking of vacations, during ours we called on Roger anders (Robert E. '35) in New York (New- worth) Smith. Their boys, Edward, who is about nine, and Larry, four (hope my memory is somewhere near right) were getting acquainted with Dale and Dana when it was time to leave—how typical! In case you did not know, the Smiths have a love farm outside Presque Isle, where they keep busy, while Rog has a job in town during the winter. I believe he has something to do with agricultural publications for the government. It was fun seeing them again and we promised to go to camp with them next year.

A note to the Alumni Office Dean Deering informs us that George G. Grane has been promoted to Deputy Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. Congratulations to you, George. Since last May Barbara (Colby) Syster and her husband Paul have been living at 610 N. Lincoln Ave., Hastings, Nebraska. Mr. Syster assumed his new duties as minister of the First Congregational Church of Hastings at that time.

Last spring Philip Mealey, Principal of Dexter High School, played host at the annual dinner of the Penobscot League Principals and Coaches Association (Penobscot and Piscataquis County combine). President of the association was James B. Morrison, Jr.

As we read the caption: U. OF M. PROFESSIONAL RECEIVES STUDY GRANT TO ENGLAND, we learn that Dr. Alice R. Stewart, associate professor of history at the U. of M., has been awarded a United Kingdom Council for Research and Development Research Scholarship for 1954-55. Alice will leave for England in September. The project on which she will be working is a study of Canadian-Imperial relations, 1891-1914, with emphasis on intercolonial relationships as a factor in the formation of the of the modern British Commonwealth. She will spend the rest of her time abroad, first at the British Museum and the Public Record Office in London. She will also attend lectures in Commonwealth history at the University of London, with which she will be affiliated. Combined with our congratulations are our best wishes for a most profitable and happy year in England, Alice.

Frank Chase Perry is now Commander Air Group 10, U. S. Navy, stationed at Cecil Field, Florida.

1938

Mr. Robert Fuller

47 Andrews Ave.,

Falmouth Foreside, Portland

When I saw the letter from the Alumni office announcing the deadline for the fall Alumni of the '34-35 season, I knew that summer had—really had it. Lt. Col. Joe Hamlin was graduated last June from the Fort Leavenworth command and general staff college.

Another June grad was Ernest Adams of Natick, Mass.—Ernie was awarded the degree of Doctor of Dental Medicine from Harvard.

John Gowell, pleased as punch, called me the other day just to tell me he was the first of our class to pay his Alumni dues—both Don Taverner and I are extremely grateful. John has changed jobs and moved to Westerly, R. I. He is assistant to the Pres. of Bostick Mfg. Co., manufacturers of the "world's finest staples."

An announcement from Allen and Liz Trask of the arrival of Daniel P. Trask on Aug. 15. He came into the arena at Cheshire, Conn., weighing 7 lbs. 6 oz.

Albert Owens has been promoted to associate Prof. of Agric. Economics of the U. of R. I.

E. C. “Buzz” Sherry is starting a new job as Manager of the Boston Conv. Bureau Sept. 6th—the old clammy charm of New England brings them back sooner or later. Buzz tells me that Dunc Cotting helped him house-hunt in Boston recently—guess they spent the better part of one day at it. Buzz and Herb are some more of those members of the committee for ferreting facts for Fuller—let’s get with it.

Miss Helen Philbrook

Blaine House, Augusta

We certainly missed all of you who could not come back for the 15th Reunion, and we did enjoy seeing and talking with everyone who could come back. I missed out on the get together at the Anchorage, but a good time was reported by all. Certainly hope that you will start planning to come back for the 20th reunion.

At the class meeting the following were elected to serve you: President: Bill (William R.) Hilton whose address is now 159 Forest Lane, Newark, Delaware; Vice President: Tom Verrill whose address is 712 Albert Ave., Farmingdale, L. I., N. Y. Dave Trafford, 389 College Road, Orono, Treasurer and Secretary for 2 years. Helen Philbrook, Blaine House, Augusta. According to the best, but we do have to have contributions from you, and cooperation from you. As for this column it can’t dream itself up, and it is only with your help that there can be a column. I’m no mind reader, but I sure can read letters. We had some very nice notes and letters from people who were not able to come to the reunion. Two of them came from overseas: one from Julie Moynihan whose address is Capt. Julia Moynihan, 7505 USAF Hospital, APO 232, c/o PM, N. Y., N. Y. She hopes to be back in the States next year; the other is Mel McKenzie who is a Lt. Col., and this is in Japan. He hopes to be back in June ‘55. A card from Barb Corbett Barker notifies us that she and Tom have moved to 64 Edgewood Ave., Longmeadow, Mass., and she expects that it is more than a two year stay. Bill (William) Cummerford wrote that he was sorry to miss reunion, and wished to be remembered to every one. Dick Quigley, his wife and daughter visited with Bill and his family in Kansas City the first of this summer. Philip Dunbar had a nice letter from Jo Greene Atley (Mrs. John R.) 1021 Can, St., Milford, Michigan, enclosing a picture of her son who is four. She wished to be remembered to everyone.

Bill Clifford wrote Spike Leonard to say that he was sorry not to be able to come to reunion. Bud (Bernard) Robinson reports that he is still in Westfield, New York, and would like to have Maine people stop in and see him. He has two children, David, 10, and Nancy, 7.

Roger Clement has moved to 116 Red Coat Lane, Manchester, N. H., and Ross Mason has moved to St. Louis, Mo., and is with the Monsanto Company. No home address has been received as yet. Liz (Elizabeth) Henry Stevens (Mrs. John R.) address is 32 Mitchell Drive, Eatontown, New Jersey, and she has a son, John Henry, who arrived last Oct. 8. Lib Dobie Vogel, (Frank) wrote that she and Frank are in Westport, Conn., East Ferry Lane.

Lynn Huff and I did appreciate hearing from you people at reunion time, and how we will continue to hear from all of you at some time during the year. There is no reason why those of you travelling through the State can’t stop and see me. The house is your right on your way through Augusta, and I would love to see anyone of you ’39ers—also any others from the other classes.

Mrs. George C. Grant (Elnora Savage)

14 Piedmont Drive

Rutland, Vt.

Here we are starting another new year with another new address—and a great big mail box to hold all that news you collected this summer. I’m afraid I didn’t unearth much myself, although it was a busy summer. In June we moved into our new home which has a beautiful view of the mountains, but too few rooms! So we were immediately employed with the building of a new wing and are still 'under construction.' Hope many of you will visit us at our new abode. Just bring along a hammer and saw and a strong right arm!

We went home to Maine for two weeks and had the old home town found Isabel and Jack Maassen and Ginny and Nat Fellows and their families just the same as we left them nearly a year ago! Jack and Nat have been having good success with their new venture—The Maine Camp Service—which they started last year. They inspect and care for camps of summer visitors who are unable to tend their property during the winter months. Both Nat and Jack work for the Maine State Fish and Game Dept.

Heard through the grapevine that Wally and Maddy Beardell's camps on Lake Maranacook were booked solid for the summer, and that the Beardells have recently bought a home in nearby Readfield where they plan to reside permanently.

I did see Betty Homans Hancock '39 who had been to Commencement in June. From her report, I gathered that the classes of '39 and '40 had a wonderful time together. Can't remember any of the particulars except that she mentioned Jolly Jellison Weatherbee was there looking very chic and lovely!

Two of our classmates, Lt. Col. Robert Murphy and Lt. Col. Harold Higgins, graduated in June from the Army's highest school of tactics, the Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Lt. Col. Murphy saw service in Europe during World War II, and from 1946-1949 has been assigned to HQ, First Army in Governor's Island, N. Y.

Lt. Col. Higgins is a veteran of service in Europe and the Pacific during World War II, and was to return to Europe for duty after graduation.

Jeanette Bonville of the Danvers (Mass.) High School Faculty was awarded in June a full tuition summer scholarship by L'Amicale de Middlebury of the Middlebury College Summer Language Schools. Jeanette, who is a popular French teacher at Danvers High, has previously attended Summer Session at Middlebury College.

Harold M. Spence, a technical service man for the Clinton Foods Inc. for its Northeastern Division. He has married, has three children, namely, Sarah at R. D. 1, Rowland St., Ballston Spa, New York.

Stanley Gates is now assistant Superintendent of the Erdenheim Farms Co., Chestnut Hill 18, Pa.

Edgar Enman is an engineer and lives on Forest Road, Monroe, N. Y., Box 208.

William Rader lives at Hand's Cove, Shoreham, Vt. He has cottages on Lake Champlain and raises beef cattle.

Archie W. Nickerson, sub-principal in the schools of Sharon, Conn., was awarded a Master of Education degree from the University at the August graduation at the Summer Session.

Several of our fair class were around for the June Commencement and Alumni Day. Virginia (Brady) '43 East B. St., Moscow, Idaho, was back with her wife and family of three to visit in the area and take in the events on campus.

Anna Vater (Mrs. William H.) was over from Cumberland Center, Maine, and the rest of the group are from the vicinity, namely, Milford, Cohen, Betty Reid, Jacob Serota, Dudley Utterback, and Mrs. Dudley Utterback (Barbara Orr) and Russ Woolley.

From a letter Ellis Van Hoesen so kindly sent to us, "I see by the last issue of the Maine Alumnus that the class of 1942 is not doing right by their corresponding secretary (Ed.: well, could be...). After doing my bit for the Air Corps in the last large world confusion, I settled in Detroit, Michigan, in 1945 and graduated from the University of Detroit Law School in 1948. I never miss reading your column in hopes that I may run across some other fellow alumni who have migrated to Detroit to seek fame and fortune. I have my own practice and maintain bachelor quarters at 701 Whittmore Road." Ellis mentioned that he planned to take a tour of Europe in August and hoped to meet some alumni in his travelling. His business address is 2122 Guardian Building, Detroit 26, Mich.

In a recent letter from Jose, who has been stationed as a major in the Marine Corps Reserve, he mentioned having met Lt. Col. Dunc Jewell '41, Lt. "Rip" Collins '39, and Capt. Eaton '42, all of the Marine Corps, during an Orientation Tour of UN installations. From the alumni office, we know of the following recent address changes: Frank Potter is a graduate assistant in the Dairy Dept. at Pennsylvania State University and lives on Klinger Heights Road, State College, Pa.

Robert E. Small is an Electrical Engineer at the Boeing Plant in Seattle and lives at 4848 Fountleroy Ave., Seattle 6, Wash.

Maury and Mrs. David Adams (Rita Cassidy) are living at 2526 Jackson St., Bellevue, Nebraska, and David is in the insurance business.

Dr. John E. Burke is a surgical resident at St. Elizabeth Hospital, 1044 Benjamin Ave., Youngstown, Ohio.

Carl Forrest Davis is a Captain in the U. S. Air Force and his address is 529th A.C.W. Group, A.P.O. #235, c/o P.M., San Francisco, Calif.

Paul D. Danforth is a pilot for Eastern Airlines and his present address is 2121 Millerton Ave., N. Y.

Donald E. Dorris lives at 236 State St., Augusta, Maine.

Lelia M. Libby is an Executive Director for the Campfire Girls at 607 Loew Building, Syracuse 2, N. Y. Her home address is Apt. 9, 1009 Madison St., N. Y.

Captain Howard G. Tukey is a pilot and executive officer in the U. S. Air Force and lives at 10 N. 10th St., N. Y.

Sun. are quite tardy reporting the April wedding of Miss Annette Merri and Harry Cleen Moulton was described in the Lynn Item, Lynn, Mass. as an executive officer in the General Electric Co. in Lynn. The now Mrs. Moulton is a graduate of the Salem Tech. School of Design and has taught in the Lynn school system. The Moultons will live at 37 Ridge Ave., Lynn. Our best wishes to them both!

As for the Cuetaras, we have moved from Wellesley to Orono. The boys, Paul and Joey, are starting school tomorrow, and in addition to that appointment, Bill will teach Massachusetts Audubon Society courses in natural science and conservation throughout that part of the state. He graduated from Cornell in 1948 and obtained a teaching assistantship there while receiving his M.S. in biological sciences. He is a wildlife refuge manager at St. Mark's National Wildlife Refuge in Florida, biologist for the Florida Game and Freshwater Fish Commission, and biologist for the Maine Department of Inland Fish and Game.

Hail to a new year! We hope all of you have had an excellent summer and can hardly wait to see you again and write us all about it. A few news items from the past few months have already come in:
Donald Taverner, Executive Secretary of the General Alumni Association, presented an illustrated talk about recent activities and developments at the U. M. at the May 11 meeting of the North State University of Maine Alumni, held at the East VN, Salem.

Congratulations are due to Frances (Drew) Moody and Dwight Moody on the birth of twins, Constance and Christine, on April 3.

Mrs. Waldron Sawyer (Winona Cole) was elected President of the Woman's Section of the Religious Service of the First Methodist Church at the annual meeting held last May.

Miss Berniece Thompson of Brewer was elected Teachers' Vice President last May of the Maine State Home Economics Association.

You may remember that this column printed last year an account of Preston Rand's use of the stenotype system of stenography on his job as Secretary to Chief of Police John B. Toole of Bangor. Preston resigned this job on July 15, after holding it for three years, and accepted an appointment to the reporting staff of the Maine Superior Court. He will be the first court reporter to use the stenotype system, as others on the circuit are still using the traditional method.

In May, Jean Thomson was married to Edward W. Conners, Jr. in St. Cecilia's Church, Worcester. Jean was graduated from Westfield State Teachers College in 1951. In 1950-51 she did research in Great Britain. She is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and is a candidate to receive her master's from Boston University. Jean has taught in Concord, Vt., and in Tennessee.

Another May wedding was Doris Fleming and John Suminsby at the Washington St. Baptist Church in Swampscott, Mass. The "newlyweds" are "at Home" at 29 Front St., Marblehead. They are both employed by the General Electric Co. John is a design engineer and Doris is a draftsman. She is a graduate of Leland Powers School of Radio and Theatre and attended Virginia Intermont College.

Congrats to Ruth Goldberg and Gerald Tabanen who were married in April at Temple Sinai, Brookline. Ruth is a graduate of Mt. Ida Jr. College. Their address is Beecher Park, Bangor.

Dr. Frank P. Gilley was recently re-elected to active service with the U. S. Navy Dental Corps, concluding his second tour of duty with the service, and has resumed his dental practice in Bangor.

Tom Easton and wife (Alice Janet Bartlett) are in France on a fellowship from Brown U. Mail may be sent through 55 North Main St., Orono, where seeing so many of you at our "tenth" reunion proved to be such a successful affair.

Meeting:

3. A $50.00 Savings Bond—gift to Alumni Activities Fund.
4. Waldo Libby designated acting treasurer in absence of Mary Billings.

5. Class dues of $1.00 per year voted.

I'm sure every one of us joins in giving thanks to "Prexy" Ted for organizing such a successful affair.

Now to catch up on some news—

Brooks is a Highway Review and Co-ordinating Engineer for Howard Needles, Tommen and Bergendoff of Boston, Mass., who are consulting engineers to the Mass. Highway Turnpike Bill. He worked for Capital Engineers in Dillsburg, Pa., for the past five years and last fall moved to Boston to work for the above firm. His address is 219 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.

In May, Jean Thomson was married to Edward W. Conners, Jr. in St. Cecilia's Church, Worcester. Jean was graduated from Classical High School, Worcester, Bates College, and New England Baptist Hospital School of Nursing. She was a member of the psychiatric staff of Mass. General Hospital. Ed is a graduate of the University and Harvard Graduate School of Public Health. He is an industrial hygienist at the Argonne National Laboratories of Chicago, Ill. The Connorses are making their home in La Grange, Ill.

Mrs. Easton's mother will forward it.

Another May wedding was Doris Fleming and John Suminsby at the Washington St. Baptist Church in Swampscott, Mass. The "newlyweds" are "at Home" at 29 Front St., Marblehead. They are both employed by the General Electric Co. John is a design engineer and Doris is a draftsman. She is a graduate of Leland Powers School of Radio and Theatre and attended Virginia Intermont College.

Congrats to Ruth Goldberg and Gerald Tabanen who were married in April at Temple Sinai, Brookline. Ruth is a graduate of Mt. Ida Jr. College. Their address is Beecher Park, Bangor.

Dr. Frank P. Gilley was recently re-elected to active service with the U. S. Navy Dental Corps, concluding his second tour of duty with the service, and has resumed his dental practice in Bangor.

We Pancoasts have some news of our own, this month. Our third daughter, Barbara Lou, arrived on June 30. The youngest Miss P. weighed an even 8 lbs. at birth and has expanded considerably since. She is a great joy to us all—especially our two very willing “babysitters,” Carole and Judy.

When Barbie was about three weeks old, we took her to call on another class offspring, Scott Thomas Hill. Scott was born on May 24, weighing 7 lbs., 9 oz. and also has grown fast in all directions. Parents Neil and Sue have purchased a very nice home at 316 Maple Ave., Had¬donfield, N. J.

During the past few months two weddings of ’45ers have taken place. On May 22 Ginny Harvey became the bride of George Brett, a graduate of Babson Institute. After a wedding trip to Bermuda, the Brett’s now are living in Brook¬line, Mass.

Yes, we finally are trying to get set­tled in our new home. August was an eventful month in our family since on August 8th we produced our third daughter, Joyce Margaret, weighing in at 8 ½ lbs. and on August 27th we moved in at this new address. Some¬day I will take some time to describe the view from our living room and sun deck, but for this month—on to more news.

Thomas M. Libby, new Town Manager in Provincetown, Mass., became the father of a 7 lb. 13 oz. girl, Sarah Mills, born in Waterville, Maine, on April 9. The Libbys have a 3 year old daughter, Jane 2, Mark 6, and Tim 8. To quote from the Advocate of Provincetown: “They train those Town managers well at the Univ. of Maine... with every raise they get a deduction.”

Also joining the Gambers on August 8 were Asenath and Charles Hass whose young daughter, Bonnie Jean, was born on that day. Their current address is Mrs. Charles F. Hass, 919 Blue Hills Ave., Hartford 12, Conn.

Have a later address for Norman Cole, who has been transferred from Pittsburgh, Penn., to Cleveland, Ohio, by the Alu¬minium Co. of America: Mail reaches Norm at Bouwer Green, Chardon Rd., R.F.D. 2, Willoughby, Ohio. Joseph R. Uzzmann is now living at Platt Lane in Milford, Conn. Joseph is working at the Biological Lab. U. S. Fish and Wild¬life Service, as a Research Biologist.

Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co. has announced the appointment of William C. Gibson as manager of group pension sales; Bill has been with the company since 1951; recently he has been working on the formulation and design of group pension plans.

And we have two important news items about our vice president, Jack Day. First, Jack received his Master of Science de¬gree in Math-Physics at Northeastern’s Commencement exercises May 27 in the Boston Garden. And in June announce¬ment of the engagement of Jean A. Useg¬lio to Jack was made by her parents of Watertown, Mass. After studying at Chamberlayne Junior College, Jean joined the Raytheon Research Division. Jack and Jean are planning an October wedding at Watertown.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Clinton Nickerson of Winthrop, Mass., announced the eng¬agement of their daughter, Nancy, to Dr. Donald R. Blackstone. Donald, after his graduation from Maine, attended Tufts College Dental School; after gradu¬ation he served a one-year internship in Oral Surgery at Bellevue Hospital, N. Y. C. Donald is now practicing dentistry in Providence, R. I.

On July 2nd Joan Kimball became the bride of Clarence Haye Steinberger at the summer cottage of Joan’s parents in Freeport, Maine. After the ceremony the Steinbergers left on a wedding trip to Highgate Springs, Vt. On their return to Clinton, Conn., Joan and Clarence settled in their newly purchased home on Killingworth Rd. Joan teaches Home Economics at Valley Regional High School where her husband, Assistant Vice Director. Clarence is a graduate of Berea College in Kentucky and received his M.A. from Syracuse University in the field of Guidance.

What a wonderful feeling it is to go to the mailbox and find three or four letters every day and a good number of the class of 1947. The replies to our newsletter keep pouring in, and so many of you haven’t simply “filled in the blanks,” but have written long newsy letters as well. We wish we could write long personal letters to every one in return.

In her letter Jacqueline Dole Turk ex¬tends a warm welcome to any who are living or visiting in Southern California. Jackie and husband, Dr. Richard E., live at 1305 Walnut St., Berkeley, Calif. They have two children, Stephanie, age 4, and Jeffrey, age 11 months, and a busy keeping house and Dr. Turk is a psychi¬atric physician.

Starr Roberts Chalmers writes from...
516 Hillcrest Ave., Westfield, N. J., that she is also busy being a housewife and mother to Donna Lee, 2 1/2 yrs. Husband Bud (L. Sumner '44) is product Engineer at Western Electric Co. in Jersey City. Starr is doing part time nursing. She says that Shirley Haines was married last November to Alan Hedin and her address is 3700 Gratia Way, Sacramento, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Reed, Jr. (Lois Richer) are now living at 14 Chalmers Lane, Greenhills, Ohio. They have a son, David, 4 yrs. old, and a brand new daughter, Janet Elizabeth Reed, born July 5, 1954. Ken (Doc) is working for General Electric in Evandale, Ohio.

I saw Clarice Easier in Bangor this summer. She had been training in the credit department at W. T. Grant Co. in Presque Isle where she has been personnel manager. She will handle both jobs now.

John and Phyllis (Pendleton) Bragg have bought an old home in Melrose, Mass., and have been spending every spare minute remodeling—doing all the work themselves. They have two little girls, Barbara (Bonnie), 4 yrs. and Carolyn, 2 yrs. Their address is 39 Otis St., Melrose 76, Mass., and they would love to see anyone passing through.

Miss Barbara Conners is chief Dietitian at the Easton Hospital in Easton, Pa. You can write to her at the dietary dept. at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Barstow, Jr. (Althea Barstow '46) certainly live a full and interesting life—during the winter months Roy teaches mathematics at Burr and Burton Seminary in Manchester, Vt., and as the mountains nearby attract many skiers every weekend Althea makes a little 'pin money' by taking roomers during the ski season in their sixteen room house. In the summer they live in a cottage on Hapsgood Pond in the Green Mountain National Forest. Roy is the Ranger in charge in that area. Doesn't that sound interesting?

A big "Thank You" to all those who have written. The response has really been wonderful and we appreciate it. Let's have lots more for next issue.

Fall again. Doesn't seem possible.

How about dropping me a postcard to bring me up-to-date on you '48ers and your families.

Janet Spiller and Roy Weinstein were married in Boston on March 26, 1954. Roy received both his master's and doctor's degree from M.I.T. Their address is 426 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.

Another spring wedding which I didn't hear about until recently was that of Joanne Satterthwait and Douglas Johnson. Joanne and Doug were married in Wilmington, Delaware, on April 17, 1954. Joanne is a graduate of Memorial School of Nursing and has been on the staff of Boston City Hospital. Doug is associated with the Liberty Mutual Insurance Co. of Boston with headquarters at Chicago, Ill. The Johnsons are living in Chicago.

Barbie (Patten) and Bill Wells have a new baby girl, Jocelyn Amory, born July 5, 1954. Jennifer is now almost 5 and Deborah is 2 1/2. Bill is assistant contracting manager of the Maritime Dept. for American Bridge Corp. in Pittsburgh, Pa. The Wells address is 212 Orchard Lane, Edgeworth, Sewickley, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Chute (Pauline Gilson) have an interesting life managing a resort motel in Naples, Maine, the "Chute Homestead and Cottages." Pauline is kept busy seeing that 100 guests are well-fed and happy, as well as caring for three children, Judith Ellen, 6 yrs., James Conrad, 4 yrs., and Kathleen Elizabeth, 2 1/2 yrs.

Lt. and Mrs. B. Roland Babcock (Jeanne H. Heartz) enclosed a snapshot of their two very handsome boys, Peter, age 5, and Robert, age 2. Their address is Finance Office, Stewart A.F.B., Smyrna, Tenn. Roland just received a commended medal for meritorious service in Air Force Finance. Jeanne is treasurer of the Officers Wives Club and active in Girl Scout Work.

Leonard Korobkin is a junior associate with the consulting Engineering firm of R. J. Abramson Associates, Mechanical and Electrical Engineers of Chicago, Ill. He and the Mrs. live at 930 Park Ave. West, Highland Park, Ill. They have two daughters, Barbara Ellen, age 4 1/2, and Marjorie Ann, age 1 year.

We hope that many of you feel the way Bill Chesebraugh did after he read the newsletter. He wrote a long letter and promised that it wouldn't be seven years before he writes another. Bill has been with the American Optical Co. since graduation. He is married and has a two year old son, James Cutler. They all live in their new home at 17 Cedar St., Southbridge, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Barstow, Jr. (Althea Barstow '46) certainly have a full and interesting life—during the winter months Roy teaches mathematics at Burr and Burton Seminary in Manchester, Vt., and as the mountains nearby attract many skiers every weekend Althea makes a little 'pin money' by taking roomers during the ski season in their sixteen room house. Plan to be on campus for Homecoming Oct. 29 & 30, 1954
Portland Inns

Public Inns, where "Food for the hungry and rest for the weary" were assured early travelers, were also popular gathering places for Portland's social occasions. They were a very important factor in the growth of early Portland, and almost since its beginning, "The Neck," listed at least one inn or tavern among its attractions. The accommodations left much to be desired by today's standards - not until the 1830's was it even suggested that inns "furnish enough beds so each lodger may have one to himself" and that all were entitled to sheets that were clean and fresh and not used by someone else. This became a law applying to all public houses sometime later.

The first public house of record appears to be that of one Richard Seacomb, who was licensed in 1681 to keep an "ordinary" on Fore Street a bit east of India. We find listed, after the Revolution, such fanciful names as The White Horse Tavern; The Freemason's Arms; The Columbian; The Bunch of Grapes. The Freemason's Arms, on the north side of Congress Street between Brown and Casco, was the stopping place for traveling troupes of entertainers - the circus of those days. Exhibitions were given in the spacious yard and attended by spectators from far and near. It was here at the Freemason's Arms that the first elephant seen in Maine was exhibited. This elephant may have been Old Bet, owned by Hackallah Bailey, first of the Bailey's of circus fame. Hackallah sold half interest in Old Bet some time after 1800, to one Nate Hawes who brought her over the road (traveling at night so "people couldn't see Old Bet for nothing") to Maine. Hawes made quite a bit of money on this trip exhibiting Old Bet at "10c a look" but evidently neglected to send half his earnings to Hackallah.

Bailey started for Maine with his flint-lock musket and walked in on Hawes during an exhibition. Hawes refused to turn over half the money, so Bailey raised his musket and took careful aim at Old Bet.

"Hey," shouted Hawes, "I own half that elephant!"

"I'm only aimin' at my half," returned Hackallah.

Hawes paid the money.
