WABI provides update on UMaine commencement plans

March 26, 2021

WABI (Channel 5) reported on the University of Maine offering an in-person component for the May 2021 commencement. Students will have the option to participate in an in-person stage walk at the Collins Center for the Arts. "What we did hear was the piece of walking across the stage is something that is very important to students," said University of Maine System Vice Chancellor of Research and Innovation and University of Maine President Joan Ferrini-Mundy. "There were other things as well, but we feel like we have got a way to incorporate that part now."
