New England is a fertile land for growing minds

High on the list of New England's achievements is the scholarly tradition that has grown up here. New Englanders pioneered education in America — the first college, the first secondary school, the first public school, the first women's college. Today, New England schools and colleges are respected throughout the world ... and the nation still looks this way for educational leadership.

These things didn't happen merely by an accident of time or geography. By respecting the scholar, admiring the inquisitive mind, New Englanders provided a fine climate for learning. Today, every state in the nation and nearly every nation in the world is represented in the enrollment of the New England colleges listed below. This June, more than 23,000 students will graduate from these institutions. From these young people will come spiritual, educational, industrial and political leaders of tomorrow. Surely what they gain here, by living and learning together in a spirit of scholarship, benefits everyone, everywhere.

One of New England's proudest accomplishments is its continuing contribution to education. The First National Bank of Boston is equally proud to have worked with New England's schools and colleges for 175 years.

ON THE COVER

Prof. Stanley M. "Wally" Wallace, kindly and energetic University athletic trainer and head of the men's physical education department, retired in June after serving the University for nearly four decades. His absence will be felt at Maine, especially by those who participated in athletics. For they were the ones privileged to have been placed in his expert care while representing the name of Maine in championship competition with other New England college athletes.
T. N. Weeks ’16 Receives Alumni Service Emblem

THOMAS N. WEEKS, ’16 was awarded the Alumni Service Emblem on Saturday evening, June 6, to highlight the 84th annual Alumni Reunion of the University of Maine.

The Alumni Service Emblem is the highest honor given by the General Alumni Association.

In presenting the coveted award to Mr. Weeks, Henry T. Carey ’22 of Jersey City, N. J., president of the General Alumni Association, said:

“T. N. Weeks ’16 Receives Alumni Service Emblem

Our 1959 Service Emblem recipient has an unsurpassed record of alumni and University service. He has served on the Alumni Council as representative of the College of Law since 1940.

His legal service to the General Alumni Association, always rendered without fee, has been of invaluable assistance on many important matters affecting the future of the Association’s programs on behalf of the University.

Always a key leader in general and local alumni activities, he has been instrumental in furthering the programs of the Northern Kennebec Alumni Association.

It was largely through his able assistance that the University’s General Alumni Association was one of the first college alumni associations in the nation to be granted federal tax exemptions.

“Our 1959 recipient has been so highly regarded by his fellow alumni that he was awarded the Black Bear Award in 1956. Tonight it is my true privilege to present the 1959 Alumni Service Emblem to THOMAS N. WEEKS, Class of 1916, of Waterville.”

New officers of the General Alumni Association were elected for one-year terms at the annual business meeting of the organization on Saturday morning.

Named president was Dr. George F. Dow ’27 of Orono. Other new officers are, Alvin S. McNeilly ’44, Melrose, Mass., first vice president; Mrs. Lucy F. Sheive ’27, Portland, second vice president; and Harry T. Trevorgy ’49, Orono, treasurer.

Edwin H. Bates ’37 of Orono was re-elected clerk for a term of one year.

New members, elected to three-year terms on the Alumni Council, the Association’s governing body, were Robert B. McLeary ’42 of Augusta and Miss M. Eleanor Jackson ’20 of Boston, Mass.

Mr. Carey's and Mr. McIntire's terms were given special designations, Mr. Carey as representative of the College of Technology and Mr. McIntire as representative of the College of Agriculture.

Members of the 1959 nominating committee were Chairman Clifton E. Chandler ’13 of Portland, Dr. William L. Irvine ’42 of Portland, Hugh H. Morton ’32 of Westbrook, Albert S. Noyes ’24 of Augusta and Mrs. Bernard P. Rines ’49 of Gorham.

In addition to the new GAA officers elected, Albert Smaha ’45 of Bangor was reelected to a three-year term as a member of the University’s Athletic Board and Samuel Calderwood ’33 of Bangor was named to a four-year term as alumni stockholder of the University Store Company.

Four of the reunion classes made substantial contributions to the University at the Alumni Banquet. The classes of 1909 and 1919 made gifts of $5,000 and $1,500, respectively, to their class funds. The class of 1929 gave $2,500 to establish a Class of 1929 Student Aid Fund and the class of 1934 gave $1,500 to the Arthur A. Hauck Building Fund.

Gifts to the Alumni Activities Fund were as follows: Class of 1909, $100; 1914, $250; 1924, $200; 1929, $75; 1934, $100; 1939, $39; $1944, $44; 1949, $100; and 1954, $54.

Attendance cups were presented as follows: 1908 Cup, awarded to the class of the 19th century with the highest percentage of its members present, to the class of 1896 with 20 per cent present; 20th Century Cup, awarded to the class of the 20th century with the highest percentage of its members present, to the class of 1909 with 34.5 per cent present; 1924 Cup, awarded to the reunion class of the last 30 years with the highest percentage of its members present, to the class of 1934 with 15.4 per cent present; and the President’s Cup, awarded to the class with the most members present, to the class of 1934 with 73 present.
He Will Be Missed

ON THURSDAY afternoon, May 7, the body of Dean James Norris Hart ’85 was laid to rest at Mt. Hope Cemetery in Bangor.

The service, attended by a large gathering of those who respected and loved him, marked the end of a man who was the oldest University alumnus at the time of his death.

At 97, and only days away from his 98th birthday, Dean Hart died on May 4 from what is most commonly called “old age.”

Dean Hart was recognized by all as a true symbol of the University of Maine. He attended Maine as a youth and worked in its service for many of the remaining years of his life. Even in retirement, he maintained close rapport with the campus, visiting it as often as possible and participating actively in campus activities.

First Dean

During his employment by the University, he served as the first dean of the University and once he was acting president for a short period.

He was the only surviving member of the Class of 1885. In recent years when he attended reunion in June his presence gave his class a 100 percent attendance mark and the honors that went with it. Last year members of the General Alumni Association paid him their highest honor when they presented him with the Alumni Service Emblem for “recognition of outstanding service rendered through the Alumni Association to the University of Maine.”

In making the award, Henry T. Carey ’22, GAA president, said:

“Our 1958 recipient has served the University for half a century in positions from instructor to acting president. During the greater part of his distinguished career at the University, he served as Dean of the University.

“He was instrumental in the early programming of the General Alumni Association, and through the years has served many key alumni committees. In past years he has been an active officer and member of the Penobscot Valley Alumni Association and always has been a willing worker as well as generous giver to all alumni fund efforts. Devoted to his fraternity, he has held key alumni leadership positions in his House Corporation.

“He holds the distinction of having a major University building named for him and an alumni-raised scholarship fund in his name. From 1940 to 1951 he served as secretary of the Senior Alumni Association. He is our oldest living Maine alumnus, and Professor Emeritus of Mathematics and Astronomy.”

When Hart Hall was named in Dean Hart’s honor in 1955, a leaflet in connection with the opening of the hall read in part:

“To James Norris Hart belongs the honor of serving his alma mater with high distinction for half a century.

“As student, instructor, professor, dean and acting president he has known, and has been held in affectionate regard by, hundreds of Maine men and women. He has been a teacher, counselor, and friend of young men and women who, from 1887 to 1937, came to the University of Maine for their education. And he served them well.

“The privilege that has been his—of serving the students and of witnessing the growth of the institution over a period of 50 years—is granted to but few men. Fewer still have been able to maintain over such a long period of years an undiminished zest for life and learning, and to keep alive in the wisdom of age a heart that is young in its human sympathies.

“It is most fitting that the Board of Trustees should vote to name the new dormitory for men for James Norris Hart, Dean Emeritus of the University and Professor Emeritus of Mathematics and Astronomy.”

Dean Hart grew up in the small town of Willimantic in Piscataquis County. He attended Monson Academy and Foxcroft Academy and also taught five winter terms of ungraded school prior to entering Maine. In 1882 he entered the sophomore class of Maine State College, one of less than 100 students then attending Maine.

Retired At 76

In 1894 he took a leave of absence for two years and studied and earned his master’s degree in science at the U. of Chicago. In 1903 he was appointed the first dean of the college by President Fellows. He also became head of the mathematics department and held that position until he retired at the age of 76 in 1937.

His late wife was the former Alice Pottle of Bangor. They were married in 1897 and had two sons, one of whom died accidentally during high school. His other son, Clarence ’26, is with the Maine State Highway Department in Augusta. A grandson, Eugene, graduated from Maine in 1950.

Only recently, he served as special gifts chairman for emeriti non-alumni faculty members for the Arthur A. Hauck Building Fund.

Repeated by many in the days following his death, this phrase sums up the thoughts of thousands of alumni and friends of the University of Maine:

“He will be missed.”
Recipients of honorary doctorates at Commencement exercises were, left to right: Thomas G. Mangan ‘16, Livermore Falls; Ray M. Boynton ‘20, Tenafly, N. J.; Dr. Carroll V. Newsom, New York City; Carl R. Smith, Exeter; Dr. Clinton A. Clauson, Augusta; and Dr. Luther I. Bonney, Turner. They were introduced by Dr. Raymond H. Fogler ’15, President of the Board of Trustees.

112th University Commencement

Boynton ’20, Mangan ’16 Honored

The University of Maine awarded the bachelor's degree to 779 seniors and the master's degree to 56 graduate students at its 112th commencement exercises on Sunday, June 7.

The 1959 exercises were divided into two programs with seniors in the Colleges of Arts and Sciences and Agriculture receiving their diplomas in a morning service while the seniors in the Colleges of Education and Technology received their diplomas in an afternoon program.

Honorary degrees were awarded to six distinguished leaders in various fields. Raymond H. Fogler ’15, Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y., president of the Board of Trustees, made the presentation of the honorary degree recipients, who were:

Dr. Clinton A. Clauson, Augusta, Governor of the State of Maine, Doctor of Laws.
Dr. Luther I. Bonney, Turner, Dean Emeritus of the University of Maine in Portland, Doctor of Science in Education.
Ray M. Boynton ’20, Tenafly, N. J., world-famed bridge engineer with the firm of Robinson and Steinman, Doctor of Engineering.
Dr. Carroll V. Newsom, New York City, president of New York University, Doctor of Social Science.
Carl R. Smith, Exeter, successful farmer and former Commissioner of Agriculture for Maine, Doctor of Laws.

Commencement Address

Dr. Newsom stated that over the years educators and citizens alike have agreed that it is the task of the schools to educate for democracy.

"Basically, this is sound," he said, "even though many of our major educational controversies and problems through the years have been associated with the difficulty of determining the nature of an education appropriate to a democracy.

"Certainly it is proper that American citizens should learn early in life that our system of government places upon them some very fundamental responsibilities and obligations," he declared.

"There is little doubt that our accomplishments as a people, and perhaps our continued survival as a nation, depend strongly upon the intelligent participation of American citizens in the affairs of government," he asserted. "Thus, the burden that has been placed upon American education is great indeed."

The speaker expressed his "heartfelt concern and fear" that the education of American citizens to share the responsibility for the affairs of government has lagged behind the needs of government for citizen participation.

President Newsom said the founders of this nation were in general agreement that government should play a limited role in American life, especially the federal government.

He said one of the significant effects of the depression of the Thirties was the development of a whole range of public services, with the federal government having far more effect on the lives of everyday citizens.

"In recent months a definite trend is apparent within the federal government toward the creation of large programs of assistance to education upon all levels," he said.

"The net effect of this huge expansion of governmental activities upon our tax rates and upon our national debt is well known, but many citizens fail to recognize the vast effects upon our entire social order, upon our industry and economy, and upon individual judgment and perspective.

"Government and your life and mine have become intertwined in a complex snarl that staggered one's ability to comprehend," he declared.

Pointing out that his comments should not be regarded as criticism of government—"after all, you and I are the government"—President Newsom said American citizens should understand what has happened and what is happening and have some comprehension of the consequences.

"Unless we do understand, we are drifting," he said. "It is not likely that our social, economic and political structures can long survive if we as a nation are merely adrift upon the ocean of time.

"I see a challenge to education that may be the greatest in our history," he continued. "Never before has it been so essential that Americans be competent to exercise their prerogatives and obligations as citizens."

President Newsom concluded his address by saying: "It is obviously supplementary to say that at no time in our history has education been so fundamental to the career of each person.

"The personal satisfactions of a well conceived education are great indeed. However, it is probable that the trust of these satisfactions comes from the increased service that the well-educated man can render to mankind, including the great and noble country that has nurtured him and has provided him independence and dignity. It is the meek truism, intensified by the demands of modern civilization, that our nation can occupy its proper and essential place in history only if it is supported by loyal citizens who are well educated."

Baccalaureate

The Rev. Nathanael M. Guptill, associate secretary and minister and director of the Department of the Ministry of the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches of New York City, gave the baccalaureate address on Sunday morning, May 31.

Mr. Guptill spoke on "The Valiant Life." The Rev. Neal D. Bousfield of the Maine Sea Coast Missionary Society of Bar Harbor gave the invocation. President Lloyd H. Elliott presided.

ROTC Program

Seventy-five ROTC cadets at the University received commissions as second lieutenants at special commissioning exercises on Sunday morning, June 7. All were members of the graduating class.

The exercises were held in the Memorial Gymnasium. It was the second time that separate commissioning exercises have been held. In 1958 the ROTC program was separated from the regular graduation program.

Colonel B. V. Bryant, who retired from active duty in June, administered the oath of office to the cadets. Colonel Bryant held the position of professor of military science and tactics at the University.

The principal speaker was Lieutenant General Blackshear M. Bryan, commanding general of the First United States Army, who also presented reserve commissions to the graduates.

Honor Students

One hundred and sixteen members of the senior class received special recognition for their scholastic achievements at graduation. Twenty-three students received their degrees "with highest distinction." Those students and their major subjects were Murray E. Shaw, South Paris, animal and dairy science; Joan E. Dow, Winthrop, Merrill A. Warren (George W. '34), Dover-Foxcroft, both in home economics; Charles J. Bower, Brewer, Nancy W. Bradford (Robert B. '34), Dexter, Walter O. Fullerton, Bath, all in business and economics; Jan E. Adlmann, Rockland, Alice L. Lane, Rockport, both in English; Janet L. Collins, Wilton, French; Gerald R. Gordon, West Sullivan, history and government; Enid M. Marshall, Kennebunk, psychology; Elaine G. Marquis, Richmond, romance languages; Ruth Sclair, Bangor, romance languages; Judith Adams, Needham, Mass., sociology; Ann M. Tompkins (Lawrence E. '34), Island Falls, zoology; Dominique C. F. Bizier, Waterville, Sara O. Burbank, Auburn, Judith A. Kittredge (Merrill R. '29), Bangor, Elizabeth J. Pope, Portland, all in education; John A. Hackett, York, electrical engineering; Milford C. Crocker, II, Fairfield, David M. Linekin (Maynard F. '25) Noranda, Quebec, Leonard J. Merrill, Auburn, all in engineering physics.

Among those receiving degrees "with high distinction" were Judith A. Webster (Edwin P. '36, Phyllis Hamilton '36), Bangor, zoology; Barbara A. Coleman (Sidney B. '26), North Andover, Mass., education; and Nathan H. Rich, III, (Nathan H. Jr. '40, deceased), Old Town, engineering physics.

Among those receiving degrees "with distinction" were Anne C. Betts (Lynwood K. '28), Port Washington, N. Y., romance languages; Mary S. Coffin (Marion Stewart '31), Augusta, zoology; and John I. Sturgis (Guy H. Jr. '29), Melrose, Mass., mechanical engineering.

Among the students in the College of Arts and Sciences who were enrolled in the "honors program" and graduated with "high honors" was William H. Springer (Morita Pickard '25), Orono, history.

Class Parts

Valedictorian of the Class of 1959, who had the remarkable record of achieving all A's while at the University, was Alice L. Lane of Rockport. Salutatorian was Charles J. Bower of Brewer.

Other class parts were held by Blaine Moores, Springfield, history; Suzanne Dunn, Gardiner, prophecy; John Boutilier, Readfield, poet; Robert Munson, Portland, marshal; Klaus G. Thomas, Oradell, N. J., organist; and Charles Eberbach, Brewer, tribute to the wives of seniors.

Alumni Watch Award Winners

Joellen Anderson of Cape Elizabeth and Donald E. Cookson of Augusta received coveted alumni watch awards to highlight the annual Class Day exercises at the University on June 5.

Miss Anderson received the Portland Alumnae Memorial Watch and Cookson was awarded the Washington (D. C.) Alumni Association Watch during the program which was attended by seniors, their relatives and friends, and University faculty members.

The award winners were selected by a vote of their classmates for having "done the most for the University of Maine during their college careers."

Miss Anderson, a zoology major, has received high grades during her college career. In addition she has been elected to the Sophomore Eagles and All Maine Women's Society, the two highest non-scholastic honor societies for women at the State University. She has also been active in student government affairs and dormitory activities.

Cookson, who has been an honor student while majoring in history and government, has also been active in extracurricular activities. He has been director of the student radio station, president of the Interfraternity Council, president of his fraternity, editor of the yearbook, president of his class, and a member of the Sophomore Owls and Senior Skulls, the two highest non-scholastic honor societies for men.
At the final senior class meeting, permanent class officers were elected. They were: Joseph T. Cuccaro, president; George A. Giorda, vice president; Suzanne Dunn, secretary; and Richard Smart, treasurer.

The seniors voted a gift of $1,492 to the General Alumni Association for first year dues, voted the class gift of approximately $2,000 to the University for the purchase of new books for the library, and presented a gift of a handsome briefcase to their advisor, Vice President for Administration Charles H. Crossland '17.

Among the advanced degrees awarded at commencement exercises were the following to alumni:

Alexander M. Adams (English)

1949
Charles S. Partridge (History)

1952
Ernest R. Wardwell (Education)

1954
Fern E. Crossland (Mathematics)
James C. Bussell, Jr. (Civil Eng.)
Robert M. Davis (Zoology)

1956
Clayton W. Dodge (Mathematics)
Lloyd J. Jewett (Ag. Economics-Farm Manag.)
Edward G. Corbett (Agronomy)
Janet A. Smith (Biochemistry)
Ralph C. Keef (Pulp-Paper Tech.)

1957
Herbert E. Elliott, Jr. (Mathematics)
John L. Libby (Electrical Eng.)

1958
George E. McCutcheon (English)
Robert C. Fuehrer (Pulp-Paper Tech.)
Sterling W. Huston (Pulp-Paper Tech.)
Richard C. Davis (Education)
Carroll E. Denbow (Education)

Three Maine alumni received professional degrees. Charles F. Parker '28 received the degree of professional civil engineer and Howard A. Crosby '43 and Kenneth L. Parsons '34 received degrees of professional electrical engineer.

HONORARY DEGREE CITATIONS

CLINTON AMOS CLASUN
Born in Iowa, but a resident of the State of Maine for nearly forty years; veteran of World War I; following graduation from the Palmer School of Chiropractic, he was a practicing chiropractor for fifteen years in Waterville until his hobby of public service became his major interest; a leading citizen of Waterville; dedicated to educational, civic, military and fraternal organizations.

RAY MAURICE BOYNTON
Native of Maine; graduate and honorary degree recipient of Bates College; student at Johns Hopkins University; teacher and educational administrator of extraordinary devotion; dean emeritus of the University of Maine in Portland; beginning as a teacher of Latin and Greek in secondary schools, he later became professor of mathematics at Middlebury College, Vermont, which he was affiliated for twelve years; dean and teacher at Portland Junior College, now the University of Maine in Portland, for twenty-five years, during which his courage and faith combined with his ability and tireless effort enabled him to overcome seemingly insurmountable obstacles; ever youthful in spirit, with an intense desire to encourage and inspire youth.

THOMAS GERALD MANGAN
Native of Massachusetts; graduate of the University of Maine in civil engineering, class of 1916; officer in World War I; engineer and paper mill executive; starting in 1916 as a draftsman, he devoted his entire business life to the International Paper Company, rising to the position of Manager of a mill in 1925 and serving as manager of the company mill in Livermore Falls, Maine for thirty years, until his recent retirement; highly esteemed by his employees and associates, who have established a scholarship fund in his name; active in local, State and New England organizations; a devoted and generous alumnus who has served the University and the General Alumni Association countless ways over a long period of years, including president of the Association for two years; recipient of the Alumni Association Distinguished Service Emblem; active in organizing the University of Maine Pulp and Paper Foundation which has done so much for the University.

LUTHER ISAAC BONNEY

As President of one of the world's largest and most complex universities, you continue to demonstrate man's hope for a better world through learning. To parallel your distinction in the logical and precise world of mathematics, you have shown the versatility of high achievement in the vague and uncertain realm of administration.

THOMAS GERALD MANGAN
Native of Massachusetts; graduate of the University of Maine in civil engineering, class of 1916; officer in World War I; engineer and paper mill executive; starting in 1916 as a draftsman, he devoted his entire business life to the International Paper Company, rising to the position of Manager of a mill in 1925 and serving as manager of the company mill in Livermore Falls, Maine for thirty years, until his recent retirement; highly esteemed by his employees and associates, who have established a scholarship fund in his name; active in local, State and New England organizations; a devoted and generous alumnus who has served the University and the General Alumni Association countless ways over a long period of years, including president of the Association for two years; recipient of the Alumni Association Distinguished Service Emblem; active in organizing the University of Maine Pulp and Paper Foundation which has done so much for the University.

In recognition of your services to the State, your high standing and leadership in the pulp and paper industry, and your conspicuously long and successful services to this University, the Trustees are happy to confer upon you the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws.

CARROLL VINCENT NEWSOM
You were born in Illinois; graduated from the College of Emporia, where as an undergraduate you began the work in your chosen field of mathematics; graduated from the University of Michigan with Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees, where you continued your major work in mathematics; elected to membership in Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi, Phi Kappa Phi, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Council on Education, Board of Governors of the Mathematical Association of America and numerous other educational and scientific organizations, and granted a dozen honorary degrees by colleges and universities in America in recognition of your achievements.

As President of one of the world's largest and most complex universities, you continue to demonstrate man's hope for a better world through learning. To parallel your distinction in the logical and precise world of mathematics, you have shown the versatility of high achievement in the vague and uncertain realm of administration.

History And Government To Offer Ph.D. Program

Each recipient will receive a total of $6800 for his own expenses for the three years of study at the rate of $2000 for the first year, $2200 for the second year, and $2400 for the third year. In addition he will receive $400 per year for each dependent.

The University will also receive funds which are necessary for expanding its program in the two fields of study at the rate of $2500 per year per fellow.

The total amount to be received by the University for expansion will be approximately $75,000, plus tuition fees from the students involved.

The 10 fellows will begin study at the University starting with the fall semester of the 1959-60 college year. To be eligible for a fellowship, a student must not have completed more than one-half of one year of graduate work. Preference is given to applicants who plan to teach in institutions of higher learning.

New Sorority

A seventh national sorority has been added to the University campus. Gamma Chi Alpha became Delta Theta Chapter of Alpha Chi Omega sorority on April 25.

The sorority was founded by Rheta Colwell and Judy Clark, two freshman women, on May 23, 1957. Now 43 girls are members of Alpha Chi Omega.

President Lloyd H. Elliott spoke at a formal banquet following the pledging of the new chapter. Mrs. Elliott was named an honorary member.

Twaggies Graduate

Seventeen two-year agriculture students received certificates at graduation exercises for the class on May 2.

Dr. David H. Huntington, assistant to the dean of the College of Agriculture, presided at the program. The speakers included Miss Margaret Mollison '50, assistant alumni secretary, who presented information about the General Alumni Association.

Receive Awards

Two alumni sons received major scholarship awards at the annual Scholarship Recognition Assembly shortly before college closed.

David H. Miles of Orono (Mrs. Evelyn (Adriance '38) Miles, mother, and Mrs. Florence (Buck '04) Adriance, grandmother, deceased) and Browne C. Goodwin of Brewer (Howard M. '38) will share the Class of 1905 Scholarship during the next college year.

Help From Washington

The new doctoral programs in chemistry and history at the University have received major financial help from the U. S. Government.

Ten graduate fellowships, established under the terms of the National Defense Education Act of 1958, have been awarded to the University.

According to Dr. Edward N. Brush, Dean of Graduate Study, each fellowship is for a period of three years. Five persons receiving the fellowships will study for their doctor's degrees in chemistry and the remaining five will study in history.

The highlight of the annual ROTC Review and Awards Ceremony in May was the presentation of the Alumni Sabre by General Alumni Association President Henry T. Carey '22 of Jersey City, N. J., to Cadet Colonel Norman M. Descoteaux, a senior business administration major of Biddeford.
Reunion Days At Maine

Reunions offer old friends a chance to meet and chat. The friends in the picture at left have attended many reunions. Dean Joseph M. Murray '25 of the College of Arts and Sciences (left), who has attended 34 commencement programs, and Registrar Emeritus James A. Gannett '08 (right) are happy to see Professor Emeritus Charles P. Weston '96, who was recovering from a recent illness. Mr. Gannett has seen 52 commencements while Dean Weston hasn't missed one in decades.

The fellow in the picture at right wasn't doing too much talking when the photo was taken. He was too busy checking on the barbecue chicken served at the annual Alumni Barbecue on Saturday noon in the fieldhouse.

In the photo at right, it looks as though Phil Brockway '31 (center) is trying to make up his mind about the comfort of the handsome University chair which has become a part of the Brockway residence. It was presented to him by a grateful General Alumni Association for his 25 years of service as a member of the Commencement Committee. Presentation was made at the Alumni Banquet Saturday evening by GAA Executive Director Don Taverner '43, right. New GAA President Dr. George F. Dow '27, left, also offered congratulations to Mr. Brockway for his efforts, which included 10 years as committee chairman.

(Photos of reunion were taken by Carroll Hall of Bangor and your Alumnus staff.)

1944
THE GENERAL FUND COMMITTEE of the Arthur A. Hauck Fund met on June 5 in Orono to review Phase One of the Campaign, and to plan future Fund activity. Following this meeting, General Chairman, Thomas G. Mangan ’16, reported on the Fund to the Alumni Council, the General Alumni Association Annual Meeting, and to alumni attending the June 6 Alumni Commencement Banquet.

In his report, Mr. Mangan announced that, as of June 5, 1959, subscriptions totaling $512,256 had been made to the Fund. Mr. Mangan’s report included the following statistics:

Praises Faculty and Students

Mr. Mangan pointed out that $987,743.12 is required to meet the Fund Goal of $1,500,000. He expressed great praise and appreciation to the Student and Non-Alumni Faculty Divisions. The Non-Alumni Faculty and Staff of the University are the first to exceed their division quota, having subscribed $10,161 toward their goal of $10,000.

The University students have subscribed $85,148 toward their student goal of $100,000, and plan to reach that goal with a Fall, 1959 campaign under the leadership of Robert S. Sterritt ’60 of Lockport, New York. Receiving personal commendations from Mr. Mangan were Professor Matthew McNerney, who was chairman of the Non-Alumni Faculty Division; and Blaine D. Moores ’59 and Arthur Mayo ’58 who served as chairmen of the two student phases held to date.

Sixty Percent of Alumni Uncontacted

The General Fund Committee’s report indicated that only forty percent of the living Maine alumni body have been contacted for their pledges to date. Gifts and pledges from those contacted have been gratifying, but the major problem now facing the Fund is the contacting of the great remainder of the alumni body.

Commenting on this situation, Mr. Mangan said, “The enthusiastic and conscientious effort of chairmen and workers in making their contacts in some areas deserves the appreciation and commendation of all of us. However, we have too many areas where the job, though well started, was only partially done when local inactivity set in. We are pleased indeed with the interest and response to this important effort by those who have been seen. Our problem now becomes reorganization of volunteer personnel in order to have everyone contacted.”

Area Campaign Leaders

Five General Alumni Campaign Areas have already exceeded their quotas, and continue on in their efforts to amass gifts above the set local goals. These areas are:

Other areas approaching their goals in gifts and pledges are: Rochester, N. Y. Area; Florida; Northeastern New York State; and Western Massachusetts.

In total, twenty areas have exceeded forty percent of their area quotas.

Future Plans

During its June 5 meeting, the General Fund Committee made the following decisions on the near-future program for the Fund.

Phase One of the General Alumni Campaign was closed as of June 5-7 Commencement Week End. The alumni areas for the general effort will be reorganized, and, following a new preparation program, will open activity on Phase Two toward completion of the General Alumni Campaign goal of $722,500.

The Alumni Special Gifts Program, under the leadership of Hazen H. Ayer ’24, will continue its current activity toward the Alumni Special Gifts Goal of over $500,000. An accentuated Special Gifts activity will be undertaken at the close of the current summer.

Appreciation was expressed to the Maine Student Body for their voluntary decision to complete their goal of $100,000 in the fall.

The Non-Alumni Friends of the University Division, under the leadership of Raymond H. Foggler ’15, will continue its program which is still in its early stages. Appreciation was expressed to the several non-alumni citizens of Bangor and Brewer who have initiated an excellent solicitation program in these cities. Other communities in Maine have opened similar programs. A goal of $125,000 has been set for the Non-Alumni Friends Program, and over $25,000 has already been subscribed.

Confidence Expressed

General Chairman Mangan, and Fund Treasurer George E. Lord ’24 joined in an expression of thanks to all who have had a part in making Phase One of the Fund successful, and expressed confidence that the planned Phase Two would bring the total campaign effort much closer to the total goal of $1,500,000.

Members of the General Fund Committee of the Arthur A. Hauck Building Fund spent much of their time during Reunion Weekend reviewing the Fund’s past and its future. The above session took place at the Fund office on the top floor of the Union.
YEARS OF IMPORTANCE
AT U. OF MAINE

ALUMNI TRUSTEE REPORT

On July 1, 1959, Dr. Lloyd H. Elliott became the ninth president of the University. This development and the legislative program have been the two most important matters in a year which may be characterized as one of continued progress. Only a few of many interesting developments of the year can be recorded in this report.

Our New President

The coming of a new president to a university is one of the greatest importance to the institution. Upon him devolves the responsibility for the constructive and inspiring leadership essential to progress.

The members of the Board are gratified that Dr. Elliott is providing that type of leadership which augurs well for the future. We feel that his first year as president has been an outstanding success. He was formally inaugurated at a colorful ceremony on October 24, 1958, at which 271 colleges, universities, educational and leading Maine civic organizations were represented by official delegates.

Registration

The registration for the 1958 fall semester was 3933, of which 954 or 24 per cent were women. The registration of 168 graduate students is believed to be the largest in the history of the University. Likewise the 1958 Summer Session registration of 1620 set a new record.

Academic

There have been many important academic developments during the past year.

1. The new four-year nursing program is now underway with 18 freshmen enrolled last fall. Indications point to an even larger registration next year.

2. Three institutes are to be held at the University this summer, which will not only be interesting but also add stature to our University. They are as follows:
   a. A six weeks' institute in mathematics for 50 high school teachers for which the National Science Foundation has made a grant of $48,600.
   b. A four weeks' institute for high ranking high school students, 25 each in mathematics, chemistry, biology, and physics. This is made possible by a grant of $42,780 by the National Science Foundation.
   c. A foreign languages institute of seven weeks for 100 selected teachers. This is one of only four such institutes in the entire United States, and is made possible by a grant of $102,000 under the National Defense Education Act.

3. The College of Education has been accredited for the first time. The departments in the College of Technology other than chemistry and chemical engineering have been accredited for two or three years rather than the full five years. It is imperative that steps be taken to strengthen the work of those departments, in fact a start has already been made, but additional funds are urgently needed for this purpose. Chemistry and chemical engineering had previously been accredited. Also the Department of Agricultural Engineering in the College of Agriculture has been accredited.

4. The History and Government Department has been authorized to offer a Ph.D. program. This will be the second department of the University offering doctoral work; chemistry was approved last year.

5. Many revisions were approved in curricula and course offerings. One especially important change was the adoption of a common first year program for all freshmen enrolled in the agricultural courses.

6. A special Trustee committee has been working with President Elliott and Dean Libby in considering reorganizations, course changes, physical plant and other needs of the College of Agriculture.

Personnel

Eight major appointments in addition to the President of the University have been made or persons took office this year. They are as follows:

Director of the School of Forestry
A. D. Nutting '27—July 1, 1958
Dean, University of Maine in Portland
Dr. William L. Irvine '42—July 1, 1958
Director of Admissions
James A. Harmon '40—July 1, 1958
Head, Biochemistry Department
Dr. Frederick Radke—July 1, 1958
Head, Bacteriology Department
Dr. Frank H. Dalton—July 1, 1958
Head, Civil Engineering Department
Prof. George K. Wadlin—September 1, 1958
Head, Botany and Plant Pathology Department
Dr. Richard J. Campana—October 1, 1958
Treasurer
Harry W. Gordon—effective September 1, 1959

Four staff members of many years' service will retire this year—
Prof. E. Reeve Hitchner 37 years
Prof. Stanley M. Wallace 37 years
Mr. Elmer R. Tobey 47 years
Treasurer Frederick S. Youngs 36 years

To each of these men and others the Trustees wish to express their genuine appreciation for the many years of devoted and valued service they have rendered to the University.

Dr. Robert P. Shay, director of the School of Business Administration and head of the Department of Business, Economics, and Sociology, who has been on the University staff since 1950, has resigned as of June 30 next.

Gifts
A preliminary summary shows that nearly $150,000 has been given to the University and the University of Maine Foundation during the past year. Of this amount some $15,000 was given for scholarship endowments, $27,000 for research, over $20,000 for annual scholarship awards; about $8,000 for additions to loan funds, and the balance of over $75,000 for miscellaneous current expenditures or unrestricted gifts. The above figures do not include the grants amounting to $192,880 for the institutes already mentioned in this report.

In addition there were many other non-monetary gifts, including a piano, wood carving, a fine clock, and four paintings.

Notice was received also that about $17,000 per year income from the Madge Walker Trusts, created by the late Donald S. Walker, will be available to the University to award in amounts up to about $1,500 for annual scholarship awards; about $8,000 for additions to loan funds, and the balance of over $75,000 for miscellaneous current expenditures or unrestricted gifts. The above figures do not include the grants amounting to $192,880 for the institutes already mentioned in this report.

Physical Plant
There has been much activity in relation to the physical plant both for present needs and provision for future developments.

Orono Campus
1. The Commons (men's cafeteria) was opened for use the first time last September. It is an attractive, efficient building with a capacity for feeding 800 at one sitting. Also used the first time were the additions to East Aubert Hall, chemical engineering laboratories and class rooms. The University is most grateful to the University of Maine Pulp and Paper Foundation for their generous gift of funds for equipment placed in this building.
2. Three buildings have been under construction this year and all are scheduled for completion on or before next August 31. These buildings are a men's dormitory, named Gannett Hall in honor of James A. Gannett '08, a physics building, and the animal-poultry science building named Hitchner Hall in honor of Dr. E. Reeve Hitchner, who is retiring this year.
3. Two pieces of property totalling about 65 acres, immediately north of and adjacent to the campus, have been purchased. This area will be used for married student and faculty housing units which are contemplated under the bond issue discussed later in this report.
4. A "Master Plan" for the future development of the campus is in process of preparation.

Portland
1. To provide for future needs, two pieces of property adjacent to the campus have been purchased. One is already in use for faculty offices and student organization rooms.
2. A campus "Master Plan" is being prepared for the Portland campus, similar to the one mentioned above for Orono.

Legislative Program
With the coming of a new President of the University and the evident need for a substantial increase in funds even to maintain the present staff, a carefully considered legislative program was developed and adopted by the Board upon recommendation of the Public Relations committee of the Board of Trustees. Following are some of the more important phases of the program:
1. Appointment of a faculty-staff advisory committee of about 20 members to discuss and develop plans and publications.
2. Publication of 3 booklets, two of which had wide mailing to alumni and citizens of Maine, including the legislators; the third booklet was primarily for legislators.
3. The visit of 43 legislators-elect to the campus on November 15.
4. Organization of an Alumni Legislative Educational Committee, with from two to twelve members in each county, to inform directly or indirectly legislators concerning the University program and especially to be helpful in any way they could in providing needed information about the University.
5. An extensive speaking program, with President Elliott very much in demand.
6. Personal contacts with legislators in Augusta by President Elliott.

This has unquestionably been effective. The University 1959-61 biennial request was as follows:

For Operations—$8,131,009; an increase of $2,900,000 over the amount received for 1957-59.
For Capital Expenditures—$9,212,400.

At the time this report was written, the Legislature had not made an appropriation. From current reports it appears that the University may receive upwards of $2,000,000 increase over 1957-59. This amount allows for almost no increase in staff, which in turn means limitation of enrollment.

Of the $9,202,400 requested for capital expenditures, the feeling now prevails that we will get about what the Governor recommended, namely, $3,996,000. It has been our earnest hope that funds might also be provided for an electrical engineering building which was not included in the Governor's recommendation.

Plains and specifications are ready for a women's dormitory and the building at University of Maine in Portland with the hope that if the appropriations for these buildings are made with the emergency clause attached, it will be possible to have them completed and ready for use by September, 1960.

For Bond Issue for Housing—$24,000,000.

The Legislative Committee on Education, to which this bill was referred, made two reports. The majority report recommended $8,195,000, which has been approved by the House. The minority report, favoring $12,000,000, has been approved by the Senate. The result, therefore, is uncertain.

The act as adopted by the Legislature must be approved by the voters of Maine before bonds can be issued. This means that the University will need to inform the citizens about the purpose, significance, and proposed manner of use of the bonds.

Board of Trustees
For the first time in several years, there has been no change in the personnel of the Board. Mrs. Clarence C. Little '24 was reappointed to serve a second seven-year term. President Raymond H. Fogler '15 has given invaluable, constructive leadership, devoting countless hours to carrying out the duties of his office.

In Conclusion
May I express my appreciation and gratitude to all who have made it possible for me to serve the University of Maine as Alumna Trustee. My sincere thanks to all my fellow workers, and may we ever continue to work together for the best interests of students and alumni at large, and for the greatness of our University.

Respectfully submitted,
Rena C. Bowles
Alumna Trustee

ATHLETIC BOARD REPORT
On behalf of your alumni representatives on the Athletic Board, Thomas Hersey '34, Clifford Patch '11, and Albert Smaha '45, I submit this annual report covering athletic activities for the college year of 1958-59.

Our teams have all had excellent coaching and have improved their over all records this year. Two State Championships (Track and Winter Sports) were won this year against none won last year. Our Rifle team won the only Yankee Conference Championship this year. For the first time we operated under a full time varsity basketball coach (Brian McCall) and we had a very successful year, tying for first place in the State and placing second in the Yankee Conference Championships. Our varsity Basketball team won fifteen and lost seven games during the season. We

Wally Retires

Wally has retired.
Maine's most familiar figure in athletics and the best friend Maine athletes have had in the past 39 years, called it quits at the age of sixty-four last month.

Although reaching retirement age, the news of Wally's retirement was a surprise to the campus. Still one year shy of the usual retirement age, nearly everyone thought he would leave the University in June of 1960.

First Notice

The first notice came on a Sunday morning in May. Persons picking up the weekly edition of the Portland Sunday Telegram read the news in an article by Woody Bigelow '50, Bangor area correspondent for the newspaper.

For Bigelow, the story was a "scoop" in the best tradition of reporting. But for those associated with the University, it meant that an era in athletics was coming to an end.

Few have ever called Wally by his full name, Prof. Stanley M. Wallace. It just didn't sound right, somehow. He seldom dressed like a professor and his classrooms, the athletic field and the gymnasium floor, were unlike other classrooms.

Wally began doctoring the ills and injuries of Maine athletes in 1922. He not only took care of his boys at all home games, but managed to travel to nearly all away games to make sure the Maine players received the best of care rather than rely on physicians unfamiliar with the boys' medical backgrounds.

A small man in size, Wally weighs less than 150 pounds. But that lack of size has never hindered his physical being. He has always remained in top condition. He not only leads his students in physical training, but remains in good shape by spending long hours hunting and fishing during his days away from the campus.

Much as Wally loves the University of Maine and the State of Maine, it was the attractions of another state that prompted him to retire a year early.

As a way of expressing its thanks for his efforts over the past 39 years, the University urged Wally to take a leave of absence during the first part of the spring semester of the just-completed college year. Wally and his wife took advantage of the vacation by motoring to Florida.

He quickly fell in love with the sunshine state and purchased a home there.

Happiness In Florida

"The trip made up my mind," he said upon returning. "Now I can fish in Maine in the summer, hunt in Maine in the fall and fish all winter in Florida. What more could I ask for?"

Members of the General Alumni Association wish Wally well. In 1936 the GAA made him the guest of honor at the annual Alumni Homecoming and in 1947 he was honored again at the same occasion. In 1952, he was the recipient of the Black Bear Award for distinguished service to the University.

In 1934, the senior class dedicated its yearbook to him and the class of 1933 asked him to join them for their class picture when they held their 25th reunion in 1958.

When reporter Bigelow asked him for his personal thoughts on retirement, Wally had this to say:

"My only regret is that I hate to grow old."

The General Alumni Association feels the same way.

Maine Athletes Enjoy Success

University athletic teams came through with a good spring season to climax one of the best years in sports for Maine in many years.

The baseball team, coached by Jack Butterfield '53, won seven out of 10 games in the Yankee Conference for the second best effort by Maine in YC baseball in history. It earned the Bears a second place finish. In the State Series, Maine posted a 3-3 record and again finished second.

Coach Ed Styrna's track forces won the State Meet, finished third in the Yankee Conference and 10th in the New England Meet.

In tennis, Maine finished last in the Yankee Conference, but tied for second in the State Series and the number one doubles team of Capt. Carl Edler and Bob Chase won the state championship.

The golfers fared poorly as a team, finishing last in the YC and also in the State Series, but Art Dickson won the individual state title to provide Maine with the top college golfer in the Pine Tree State.

Here's how Maine teams finished in Yankee Conference and State Series play for the year:

The following local alumni associations have elected officers for the year 1959-60 as indicated:

Somerset County Alumni—President, Elbert Prince '50; Vice President, Dorothy Sawyer) Shorey '35; Secretary-Treasurer, Charlotte (Currie) Stafford '39.

Boston Alumni—President, Edward C. Sherry '38; 1st Vice President, Eric H. Hanson '48; 2nd Vice President, John K. Dineen '51; Secretary, Philip R. White, Jr. '50; Asst. Secretary, Gene Drolet '53; Treasurer, C. Roger Lappin '23.

Southern Kennebec Alumni—President, Jack Nickerson '50; Vice President, Whitney Wheeler '29; Secretary-Treasurer, Dr. Keith McKay '49.

Portland Alumni—President, Norma J. Smaha '54; Vice President, Emily (Smaha) Marcus '51; Recording Secretary, Ellen (Stratton) Turner '51; Corresponding Secretary, Jean (Turner) Hall '55; Treasurer, Dorothy (Booth) Dimire '53.

Greater New York Alumni—President, Albert M. Parker '29; 1st Vice President, Norman H. Parrott '50; 2nd Vice President, Peter J. Kuntz '32; Secretary, Melvin E. Libby '44; Treasurer, Eldon H. Luther '44. Area Vice Presidents: Westchester, Edward W. Larabee '38; Nassau, Norman H. Parrott '50; Suffolk, Francis A. Craig '33; Brooklyn and Queens, Richard E. Martinez '43; Manhattan and Bronx, Elizabeth Pullen '55; Northern New Jersey, Dr. Edward F. Stanton '26; Southern New Jersey, Edmund J. Dempsey '17; Staten Island, Charles Cambell '26.

Boston Alumni

The Boston Alumni held their Annual Dinner-Dance at the Boston Yacht Club on May 2. A Social Hour preceded the Dinner and Program.

Guest and featured speaker at this successful spring affair was University President, Lloyd H. Elliott, who addressed the attending alumni and their guests on late developments at Maine and anticipated activities.

Also present, and bringing greetings from the General Alumni Association, was Margaret M. Mollison '50, Assistant Alumni Secretary.

Following the program, an evening of dancing was enjoyed by those attending.

Lewiston-Auburn and Augusta Alumni

On May 20, the Lewiston-Auburn Alumni and the Augusta Area Alumni held a joint Spring Banquet at the Worster House in Hallowell.

The many alumni attending enjoyed an unusual program. Prof. Herschel Bricker and two of his theatre students, Suzanne Dunne '59 and Calvin Thomas '60, spoke on the recent Maine Masque Theatre trip through Europe. They illustrated their talks with slides of their Masque performances to the U. S. Armed Forces in Germany and Italy.

Also present and bringing news of the Orono campus was Margaret M. Mollison '50, Assistant Alumni Secretary.

Chicago Alumni

On May 8, alumni of Maine, Bates, Bowdoin, and Colby, residing in the Chicago area, joined together for a dinner and social evening at the Union League Club, Chicago.

The presidents of the Maine colleges alumni associations in Chicago “turned-out” a good representation of their respective alumni, and an enjoyable dinner meeting was held.

From this initial joint meeting, hope was expressed that the alumni of the four Maine colleges would meet together periodically, to hear a speaker and visitor from their respective alma maters.

Heading the Maine delegation was Maine's Chicago Alumni President, Charles H. Jack '46.

Rhode Island Alumni

The Rhode Island Alumni met at the University Club of Providence on May 15 for their Annual Spring Dinner.

Guest speaker at this enjoyable meeting was James A. Harmon '40, University Director of Admissions. Mr. Harmon spoke to the group on admissions policies and problems at Maine.

Also present, and speaking briefly, were Don Taverner '43, Alumni Secretary, and Margaret M. Mollison '50, Assistant Alumni Secretary.

Rhode Island Alumni President, John R. Govell ’38.

Black Bear Club of Rhode Island On May 16, the Black Bear Club of Rhode Island enjoyed their Annual Clambake at the home of Carleton ("Speed") Merritt ’24 in East Greenwich.

A delicious Rhode Island Clambake was enjoyed, and the regular monthly meeting held.

Guests from campus to this spring event were James A. Harmon ’40, University Director of Admissions; Donald V. Taverner ’43, Alumni Secretary; and Margaret M. Mollison ’50, Assistant Alumni Secretary, who discussed University activities with the group.

Western Pennsylvania Alumni The Western Pennsylvania Alumni met in Pittsburgh at the Royal York on June 19. This proved to be an anniversary meeting, in that the group’s speaker was Professor Matthew McNeary, Professor and Head of the Department of Graphics at the University. Professor McNeary was the speaker at the Western Pennsylvania Alumni meeting of May, 1949, just ten years ago.

Professor McNeary addressed the group on late developments on the Maine campus, and the anticipated future growth of the University.

Arrangements for this meeting were under the leadership of Clarance A. MacGregor ’26, the group’s secretary.

1959 participated in the first Annual Downeast Classic Basketball Tournament held in the Bangor Auditorium.

Fine Records

Our varsity Baseball and Football teams both scored second position in the Maine and Yankee Conference Championships.

Our golf Captain won the Maine Intercollegiate Championship at Augusta, and our Tennis #1 Doubles team won the Maine Intercollegiate Doubles Championship.

A member of our ski team defeated all cross country competitors in Eastern United States at the National Intercollegiate Championships held in Colorado.

A member of our varsity football team signed a New York Giants contract.

Our varsity Baseball team won twelve out of twenty games this season.

Our varsity Football team had a six win, two loss record for 1958 season.

Our varsity Track team won all of its indoor and outdoor dual track meets.

The Winter Sports team won the Eastern Intercollegiate “B” Championship and is now rated in the top ten teams of the east.

This year Prof. Stanley “Wally” Wallace will retire from active service in Physical Education and Athletics. We appreciate the very fine services which “Wally” has given us during the past thirty-seven years. His loyalty to the college, his keen interest in athletes and in sports, has been a contribution we all appreciate, and we wish “Wally” and Mrs. Wallace many years of happiness.

Several members of our coaching staff hold many leading positions as members of the I.C.A.A.A.A. and New England Executive Committees and other leading positions.

We expect to add a new member to our staff next year to fill the position of a full time athletic trainer.

Our athletic program will have an important position in the college life of our ever increasing enrollment.

My several years membership on the Athletic Board have been very interesting, and I have appreciated the assistance of the fine support of the University officials, alumni, faculty and students.

The attitude of the athletes giving their best efforts is also to be commended.

It has been a pleasure for me to serve on the Athletic Board.

Respectfully submitted,
Albert Smaha ’45

SENIOR ALUMNI

Fred Quincy, who is 91 years of age, is the oldest living member of the Bangor-Brewer Lions Club.
1898 The many alumni friends of the late C. Parker Crowell of Bangor, a noted Maine architect, will be interested to know that the Tau Beta Pi national honorary engineering society of the University of Maine, posthumously elected Mr. Crowell to membership.

1899 Wallace E. Belcher wrote that he would not be in Orono for the Commencement Weekend, but he was very interested in receiving the complete geographical listing of the Senior Alumni Association. His address is: Yorklounge Manor, Apt. F-1, City Lne & Berwick Road, Philadelphi 31, Pa.

Louise Campbell, daughter of our classmate Clara (Greene) Campbell, writes that her mother is in a nursing home at 64 Eastern Promenade in Portland, Maine. She is ambulatory, but not able to attend meetings. Her letters were sent to us for a fine Senior Alumni Session in June.

1900 Fred C. Mitchell of 32 Deveroux St., Marblehead, Mass., is retired from his career as a high school principal. He served 48½ years in this position in the educational field.

1902 Arthur E Silver of 360 No, Fullerton Ave., Upper Montclair, N. J., wrote that Mrs. Silver and he returned to their home on April 7 after a very enjoyable three week vacation tour to Florida. A highlight was participation in a dinner party in St. Petersburg with George H. and Mrs. Davis '01, Prof Emeritus and Mrs. William E. Barrows '02, and the latter's daughter, Mrs. Blanche Barrows. After the dinner, the group spent an enjoyable evening at the Barrows's home. The Silver House, guests of the Davises in St. Petersburg. It was a most enjoyable trip.

1904 Arthur E. Davenport has left his winter address of 3670 Dubsdread Circle, Orlando, Fla., and is now at his summer residence, Brimfield, Mass.

Allen M. Knowles of 920 Lincoln Circle, Winter Park, Fla., wrote recently that they bought a home at this address in Florida. There are six rooms (three bedrooms), air conditioning throughout, and the house was fully furnished. They call it their "dream home." A bungalow type on one floor, there is a large sunken living room, and four fruit trees in the yard. The plans are to sell their Teenac, N. J., home this summer and reside in Winter Park, Fla., where two large lakes, a golf course, and the University Club are all within walking distance.

Mr. Knowles visited John Quimby in Clearwater, Fla., in March and found him in good health, but with failing eyesight.

1906 Mr. Earle R Richards wishes to extend his recent visit to South Berwick. There are six members of our class who hope to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary this year of 1999. These events will be reported in later issues of the Alumnus, so far as possible depending on the cooperation of the persons concerned.

Your Secretary expects to be at Cold Stream Lake, Enfield, during July and possibly August, the weather is favorable. We would be pleased to have any of you come and see us.

1907 Mr. Karl MacDonald of 11 Wabon St., Augusta, is still secretary and treasurer of the Maine Turnpike Authority. He and wife attended the inauguration of President Elliott last fall. He went to the highway conference at the University in December. The check-up he made for your secretary in regard to Ned Druery was very much appreciated. Ned, who is in the Augusta State Hospital, is still alive.

1998 The many alumni friends of late C. Parker Crowell of Bangor, a noted Maine architect, will be interested to know that the Tau Beta Pi national honorary engineering society of the University of Maine, posthumously elected Mr. Crowell to membership.

1908 Mr. James A. Gannett 186 Main St., Orono

Guy Durham's death came as a great shock to the members of the Chemical Engineering-Pulp and Paper Technology staff at the University. He had been on the campus from April 28 to May 2 for the annual Research Days program held on May 1 and 2, and sponsored jointly by the University and the Pulp and Paper Foundation. He was chairman of the reception committee. Guy left the University on May 2 for Detroit where he spoke on Monday before the Pulp and Paper group of the American Society of Training Engineers, on the history and operation of the Pulp and Paper Foundation.

William and Bell (Harris) Cobb attended the annual meetings of the Congregational-Christian Conference of Maine held at Bangor on May 5 and 6. They also attended the meeting of the directors of the Congregational Church.

Earle Vickery was head of the general committee for the annual convention of the Universalist Church in America, Inc., which was held at the Universalist Church of Pittsfield on May 1 and 2. He was also chairman of the Men's Club for the Association of Universalist Ministers and held a banquet on Saturday. Earle's son, Charles, Maine '42, told us about his obligations for foreign service at a commissioning service held on May 1. He is going overseas to work with refugee boys at the young home in northern Germany this summer.

Dan Chase was re-elected executive director of the Sportsmanship Brotherhood, Inc., at the recent annual meeting held in Orono, and he and Alice attended the New York Alumni Dinner on April 24 and sat with Robie Mitchell '07, Arthur E. Silver '02 and Mrs. Silver, and Tom Austin '09. Tom and Dan remained together, playing in "As You Like It." in the first Maine Masque, and also appeared with Prof. Karl P Harrington back in college days, is still playing the game and recently won the Queens, Long Island Division, Masonic Tournament. He says his chess and bridge are better than his golf, for Henry Beare, on his way home after a winter in Tucson, Arizona, beat him five up and four to go, and captured the Belt which they have fought for the past 31 years. He writes that Henry "looks very fit."

1909 Mr. Fred D. Knight 9 Westmoreland Drive, W Hartford 17, Conn.

This is the last time this year your reporter will be meeting a dead line for The Alumnus. It has been a lot of fun and sometimes a bit of work—a labor of love, I assure you. My greetings to you and my thanks for cooperating.

"Putt" (Herbert P.) and Mildred Bruce are joyfully busy in their local church (United at Nahant, Mass.) and have many other civic interests. In the church, Mildred is organist and "Putt" is a deacon and member of several committees on raising funds, remodeling, and expanding the church hall. Both have participated actively in the work of the Red Cross, Veterans Hospitals, and other worthy projects which can be summarized as only one word: volunteering. Their devotion is reflected in the fact that organization to the Brucos during anxious months while their son was out of touch in Korea.

The George Naumans are back from their extensive trip to South America and report a marvelous trip.

The Alumnus begins with headquarters at the Hammond Street Congregational Church. Will also attend the meeting of the directors of the Congregational Church.

Jess Mason agreed to act as Honorary Marshal for our 50th Class Reunion. He hopes to find a good, gentle horse—white preferred.

It was a real thrill to learn that "Judge" (H. A.) Parker and Harriet are planning to fly East for the Alumni Reunion.

With headquarters at the Hammond Street Congregational Church. Will also attend the meeting of the directors of the Congregational Church of Maine.
Charles and Mrs. Allen have a son and a daughter, and four grandchildren.

A news item from Augusta, Maine, announced an honor for Harvey R. Pease, retired clerk of the Maine House of Representatives, a position he held for over 25 years. He was honored at a joint convention of the House and Senate by the unveiling of his portrait. Pease was well known for his work with the University of Maine Alumni Association.

Several of our number who have been listed for several years as lost, strayed, or stolen have been found. They are John K. McKay, 6 High St., Honolulu, Hawaii; York; Chauncey W. Stratton, Hancock; and Ben C. Worchester, Southwester Harbor. It is good to know where these classmates are.

When you read this column our 50th Reunion will be history. Hope you Orono.

Class President Arthur Deering writes, "Whenever we receive the Alumnius, the most interesting part to us is "The Notes from the Classes." The March issue suggested that many of the 1912 Class might like to meet together sometime this summer. I was glad to see this idea. Let's keep pushing the idea to all the class members somewhere in the Bangor area during the summer. In some ways I would favor a meeting on the Campus, possibly for a cookout, if it could be arranged—or perhaps we could meet at the Penobscot Valley Country Club. There would be advantages in doing so, a notice in the Alumnius urging all those who may be available to drop one of us a note.

I am saying, "Although Crystal and I are having another wonderful year here at Cornell, we are both counting the days when we will be back in Maine."

Well, this is the notice Arthur suggested and I do hope "Drop one of us a note." I am sure we'll all like to have the summer meeting, say in August, and we'll all bring our best with us.

Oscar W. Moulton, writes, "I had a very pleasant visit in April from Mr. Pease of Livermore Falls. Mr. Pease lives at Lake Worth, Fla., and came over to visit me at 515 38th St., So., St. Petersburg 11. I had not seen him since our 45th Reunion at Orono two years ago. Hope I see him more often in the future." As you know Oscar is the president of the U. of Maine St. Petersburg Alumni and has a fine series of winter luncheon meetings every year.

A letter from Bob Fogler a few days ago asked me to take over the secretaries for the Class of 1915. I shall try, but how successful I am will depend upon all of us for we need letters of interest from each and every one. We want 1915 to be in The Alumnius. Also 1960 must be kept in mind for it will be our 45th reunion and it's not too early to think about it.

I am including Bob's story and will follow it with a bit of mine as there are other items at present.

Bob writes: "Retired from active business at the ripe old age of 60 in 1952, since then I have been Assistant Secretary of the Navy for three years and eight months, have spent a lot of time at the University, and continue several business connections through directorship. The seven children, all graduates of the University, are all married and have children. The total of grandchildren is now 29."

The Adamses came to Melrose 25 years ago. "Hi" has been, and still is assistant manager of the New England Milk Producers Association. We have been at intervals on the University of Maine, and Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin. Samuel is a graduate of Norwich University. They married fine girls at present and we have eleven grandchildren.

It hardly seems possible that this is the last column for the school year.

From Tampa, Fla., about the middle of April came a very welcome letter from Murdock A. Campbell. He and his wife have been spending the winter in Guernsey City, Tampa. They are planning to return to their Northfield, Vt., farm home around the middle of May. They are looking forward to the summer months. Their new home, a three-story brick house, is almost complete and will be a place of refuge for many a summer visitor.

A news item from Augusta, Maine, announced an honor for Harvey R. Pease, retired clerk of the Maine House of Representatives, a position he held for over 25 years. He was honored at a joint convention of the House and Senate by the unveiling of his portrait. House Speaker, Joseph Edgar, said the portrait would be placed in the House Retiring Room.

Our 45th Reunion is close at hand, and I hope we met in Orono for our 45th Class Reunion.

A letter from Joe McCusker has just come to me telling of a gift of $75.00 to our Class of 1917 Scholarship Fund from Joseph N. Stephenson of Gardenvale, Quebec, who is editor-in-chief of the Pulp & Paper Magazine of Canada. I am sure we all want to thank him for this generous gift.

This is the last news column until fall. I hope that a lot of you are planning a vacation in Maine. If so, please look me up, and tell me all the news about yourselves and families. You write me in Orrington, about six miles below the old Bangor Brewer bridge, or about 12 miles from Buckport. Coming from Bangor, you turn right at the four-corners, just 1/2 mile from the old "Pound." If you come from Buckport, you turn left at the four-corners just beyond the Masonic Building and the Orrington Post Office. Keep on down the long hill, bearing right, and you will see our sign just beyond the pine grove. Ours is the cottage nearest the Garden Pool.

Two lost addresses for you:

Robert R. Stevens has moved from 261 Grandview Ave., Hamden, Conn., to 163 Quinnipiac Ave., North Haven, Conn.

On April 24, Lena (Page) Spaulding wrote, "Blanche (Tague) Stevens '21 and I have just spent a delightful two days with Kitty (Horspool) Perry '19 in Ocean City. Their last meeting was at the 1919 graduation. None of us have lost our gift of gab, so it was really fun. After Christmas, Cornene Barker and I had a nice day with Ray and Elva (Gilman) Boynton. Rena (Campbell) Bowles '21 was there and we did a lot of catching-up on news also I have a new grandson. Parents: The Eugene McNabb of Hastings-on-Hudson. The baby's a darling and he has an adoring family, even to grandma. Gene is to be the Pro at Kebo Valley Country Club in Bar Harbor this summer and I'm making plans to spend part of my vacation with the family there. My son and his family are back in the States, live at Golfport, Miss., and he is chief in one of the electronics courses at Keesler A.F.B. Our meeting here tonight and should it be extra special! It's a beautiful day and that always helps."

Walter Talmage's new address is Leach Holt Rd., Casco, and he writes, "You will note by the changed address above that I am on the move after having lived in Buffalo ever since leaving college for a period of almost 39 years. I am retiring from the research and development department of the National Aniline Division of Allied Chemical Corporation and moving on May 9 to the above address. Have purchased a 55-acre home located on the top of a hill about a mile from the village of Casco, which is in the Sebago Lake region about 25 miles from Portland, where both Mrs. Talmage and myself were brought up and just a few miles from our sisters and other relations. The property is not a farm and is mostly wooded with about 5 acres cleared with ample garden area, so that there will be plenty of opportunity for activity. We hope that our friends in Maine, as well as those from out of the State, who are visiting the best vacation area in the USA will call on us."

Harry H. Balmer is chairman of the Maine Real Estate Commission, which with the Maine Association of Real Estate Boards, is sponsoring a series of seminars on problems of interest to all real estate brokers and salesmen in Maine.

If anyone had asked me I would have said that "New" Thompson belonged to "20 but the Alumni Office sent me his message which is interesting: Etasco Services Inc., c/o C.A.A. Auxiliary de Electromicrosis Caelia Postal 883, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Who's Who of American Women

Mrs. Clarence C. Little (Beatrice Johnson)
Little Haven, RFD 1, Ellsworth

This news is being written in May and the occasion is the 50th Reunion. As my class Reunion is in June, we hope to see many of you at that time. George E. Lord is in the news again by way of a feature article with photograph, both of which were published March 29th in the Portland Sunday Telegram. The release tells of the wonderful untiring and efficient work that he has been doing in dealing with the farmer's problems in the State of Maine. Much progress is being made and gains maintained. Congratulations, George, on being appreciated.

Other items are changes of addresses:
Mr. and Mrs. Percy E. Thompson can now be reached at Robinson Road, Scarborough.
Gregory Baker's office changed to 119 Deering Hall on campus.
Christine (Petersen) Richwagen is now at 419 Prospect Street, Burlington, Vermont.

A pleasant summer to all.

1925

Mrs. Merrill Henderson (Anne Thurston)
Quechee, Vermont

From the lost department, David A. Goldberg is living at 28 Concord Ave., Yonkers and Boston: "Let us know what you are doing, Dave."

Another address is Norman S. Davis of 53 Trimount St., Dehass, Mass.

A happy life, rich in adventure and rewarding in long years within academic walls, was the life story of Leroy L. Dawson '21 in the "Who's Who of America's Youth" program. It was the first time in his 32 years as principal of the High School that he had been at a loss for words. Born in Vergennes, Vt., during a blizzard, and running a home (at 18 Thomson Rd., West Hartford, Conn, and Blue Hill, Me.), he lectures on contemporary literature.

From Dave Hoyt, our class VP, comes this newsy letter "Elsie keeps busy with her regular committee activities, being president of the State Council of Church Women and Portland District Women's Society of Christian Service. She does a good substitute teaching job at School for Schools. They reside at 63 Willard Street. Our daughter Jean '53 is teaching in Bideford High School and her husband Richard Taylor '28 have just finished up the two year work of the Portland Branch of U. of M. this spring and to transfer to the Orono campus in the fall. Our son Charles '54 will graduate this spring from B.U. School of Theology and will be appointed to a Methodist Church in Maine this month. Our daughter, Leila, a junior at Maine, was one of the very fortunate students to be selected to go with The Maine Masque players on their seven weeks tour of Europe. Now about myself, I am superintendent of the Bangor and Portland plants for the Koppers Co. and am very busy during the summer months when we put out the road tar. In the winter I am not so busy, and we then have several company meetings which take place in various localities."

From the Alumni Office come these new addresses: George Renwick is receiving his mail at P.O. Box 509 in Bar Harbor. Leland S. March is way down south, where so many of our classmates seem to be heading upon retirement. His residence is at 116th St., Harris City, Fla.

And speaking of far away places: Stuart M. Jankowski seems remote when you consider Signal Hqrs. U.S.A. Japan, APO and San Francisco, Calif. It is a happy summer and be sure to let me know all about yourselves and your activities, wherever you are!
a tribute to his own dad. The highlight of the story was the dramatic entrance of his son Lt. Lendon Dawson and wife. Those of us who have known him so well over the years will miss him greatly. (See Necrology Section)

Edward Bayard has been spending the winter at the Elmwood Hotel in Waterville. We expect him back at 76 Main Street, Orono, to spend the summer months.

We have two famous foresters in our class. From time to time I have kept you in touch with Austin Wilkins, Forest Commissioner for Maine. Gerald Wheeler is supervisor of White Mts. Nat’l Forests of New Hampshire. Let’s hear from you, Jerry.

Clarence D. Pillsbury formerly of Auburn is now in So Berwick.

Sincere appreciation was expressed to our class in a letter to George Dudley from the University for our scholarship which was awarded to Sandra J Page ’62 in the College of Education. Sandra’s home is Gorham.

A new address for Forrest W. Meader is 131-74 St., Brooklyn 9, New York.

Our sympathy to the family of Wilson S. Hayden. He had been ill for some time and died April 24 in Augusta General Hospital.

Here are the addresses for several classmates:

- 3rd Ave., Augusta
- 1930 Mrs. Ernest J Pero
- 1928 Mrs. William B Ledger (Emma Thompson)
- 1926 Mrs. Trygve Heistad (Shirley Roberts)
- 1927 Mrs. Edgar Bogan (Sally Palmer)

Sanford B. Chandler is now residing at 4691 New Haven Ave., N. H. Many thanks.

Carroll E. Hackett is living at 1646 Westbrook St., Portland.

Now for our last report of the year. Do have a nice summer and let us hear from you in the fall.

News has been coming in well this spring, and it is most encouraging to your class reporter. President Bill Daley wrote that the Class of 1930 Scholarship was awarded to a junior in the College of Education and we received thanks from the University and General Alumni Association for funds which make student aid possible.

Sylvester Pratt is vice-chairman of the 1959 United Fund Campaign. Syl is a vice-president of the Casco Bank and Trust Co., a member of the United Community Services board of directors, and has served for 13 years in past Community Chest Fund Campaigns. He is also a director and chairman of the Portland Chapter of the American Red Cross, a director and past treasurer of the YMCA, and director of Casco Homestead Savings and Loan Assn., Maine Automobile Assn., a director of the Portland Savings Bank, and a trustee of the School of Banking at Williams College. In his spare time he’s treasurer of our class.

Charles A Cutting of Andover and Hyattsville, Md., has just been admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the U.S. In 1930 he entered the U. S. Patent Office in Washington as an examiner. After studying at George Washington Univ., he was admitted to practice law before the U. S. District Court for D. C. and the Court of Customs. He received an LL.B. degree in 1934 and was admitted to practice in Maine in 1958. He is currently serving his 29th year in the Patent Office as supervisory patent examiner, an administrative post. However, he looks forward to retiring and returning to Maine in the not too distant future.

Howard Donald has been elected treasurer of the Hopedale (Mass.) Unitarian Men’s Forum. Howard has lived in Hopedale for several years and has a daughter who is on campus at the present time.

A gift of the Univ. of Maine Agricultural Experiment Station in November of 1958 entitled Wireworms affecting the Agricultural Crops of Maine was co-authored by Elizabeth Murphy of Bangor, associate horticulturist of the Univ. of Maine.

The library at Southern Illinois University has been named in honor of President Deltye Wesley Morris, husband of Dot (Mayo) and a former member of the Maine faculty. Built in 1956, the Morris Library is the heart of S. I. U.

Elliott Barker has moved from Caribou to the Maine Employment Bureau in Augusta. Rebecca (Mathews) McBride is still at the American Embassy in Athens, Greece. She can be reached at American Embassy, A.P.O. 223, New York, N. Y.

Hazel (Sawyer) Everett has twins in the sixth grade who shared honors in the recent city wide spelling bee in South Portland. Hazel won, while brother Glenn was runner up. Hazel works in the office of South Portland High School.

Philip T. Lane has a new address—Box 336, Brattleboro, Vt.

Carlton Nims has moved from N.H. to Ward Road, Route 1, Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Dryden Terrace, the modern-designed apartment development south of the campus which was originally built by Prudential Insurance Co. of America, has been sold to a corporation of which James White of Bangor is one of the major stockholders.

Ed Elliott writes that he has been honorably discharged from the Army at Devens after two years in the Boston Harbor Defenses. John, who is ten years younger, attends King Junior High.

Edward Bayard has been spending the winter at the Elmwood Hotel in Waterville. We expect him back at 76 Main Street, Orono, to spend the summer months.

And now new addresses:

Gerald Keene’s new address is Shingle Springs, Calif.

The Bangor Daily News recently carried a picture of the Bangor (Durgin) Hammons seated among the Bangor High School cheerleaders at their annual banquet. Lou has been one of the most enthusiastic members of the group, we are sure, as they cheered Bangor on for the State Championship Basketball Title and into the semi-finals in the New Englands at Boston.

Galen Vassey, who has been superintendent of the Westbrook schools for three years, recently resigned and will return to his former home in Auburn. Galen stated that he will be associated with educational work, but not in the capacity of superintendent in this charge.

One of the exhibitors at the Bangor Art Society Annual Spring Exhibit now being held at the Bangor Library is Philip Brockway.

Thanks for the news. See you all in the fall.

A recent headline in the Bangor Daily News “Rockland Physician Aided Men Brought From Tanker” referred to Dr. Wesley Waspatt. He and his wife Eleanor (Cushing) left New York on March 13 on the Santa Maria, a luxury cruise. As you recall, it was the Santa Rosa which collided with the tanker Valchem. Dr. Waspatt was quoted as saying that he provided aid and assisted the other doctors on board and the ship’s physician, Dr. Bencin, in caring for the crewmen brought aboard from the tanker. He also said it was a beautiful cruise, in spite of the accident.

M. Lucille (Sunny) Nason is executive director of the Four County T. B. Association and her office is in Rockland. She recently attended a State T. B. Workshop which was held in Bangor. Are you coming to Aroostook this summer, Sunny? Among the classmaters who are active in American Association of University Women is Helen (Hilton) Bailey. She is serving this year as recording secretary of the Bangor chapter.

Harold V. Perkins was elected treasurer of the ETV Association at its annual meeting. Harold is assistant treasurer of the Merrill Trust Company of Bangor. One son, Alan, is a sophomore in mechanical engineering at the University. The Perkins family lives at 47 Silver Rd., Bangor.

George Hodson has recently been appointed an instructor in the Meriden, Conn., high school system. He will teach mechanical drawing. He is also qualified to teach math and industrial arts. George’s hobbies are archery, fishing, and camping. Before going to Connecticut, he taught in junior high schools in Augusta and Auburn, Maine, and at Edward Little H. S., Auburn.

Kenneth L. Parsons has recently been promoted from associate professor to the rank of full professor in the department of electrical engineering at the University of Maine. He has built up the course in illuminating engineering to a high level.

Last summer he surveyed the electrical system of the City of Bangor and outlined recommendations for its future service to the community. He has been at Maine since 1942.

A couple of “lost” classmaters have been found. Capt. and Mrs. Walter Ludden live at 422 West Oak St., Groveton, N. H., and all three enjoy Scouting and music. Not too long ago they had a trip to Europe—partly because Ken’s foreign duty in the Navy brought him to Morocco. Their daughter, Jeannie, is active in Rotarian and Rotarian of Orleans Town Meeting. The family enjoy sailing, music, hunting, and last of all, observing summer visitors. Ed and Elizabeth (MacKinnon) Stetson have a delightful place for vacation in West Gardiner, Maine. Ed is a Benefit Pensions administrator for the State Administration at Togus, but in the summer they run “Yarnock Lodge and Cabins.” They have one... daughter, 12, who is a Scout and active as they are, in swimming, boating, and church activities. Ed is a Mason, and Elizabeth is in the church Choral Society among many other activities. Frank Morse 1936 Thornton Rd., Bangor.

So sorry that I let you down last month, but I had my first trip to Florida and was away when the deadline arrived. I was in Ormond Beach for 16 glorious days, just missing a week of rain, got a beautiful color (which I will do), and all in all had a marvelous time. Also had my first plane trip and have decided that flying is for the birds. Away I had a letter from Actor Abbott who added to the newspaper report that I passed on to you a while ago. I quote, "I'm glad you are going to come to the changed location. We were in Manchester 6 years, and prior to that 2 years was our longest residence in any one town. The climate is different, but I know we'll love it. We were fortunate enough to rent a nice home, well located in a friendly community. Coming from New York is convenient, the climate is good, and the local scenery is most cordial."

"I now have engineering responsibilities for the entire Bell System, my particular assignments having to do with simplification and modernization of certain engineering procedures and coordination between Engineering and other Departments on matters of interest. All this in the general area of outside plant engineering. I'll be doing a lot of traveling, already made substantial visits to Wisconsin and other places." Actor is still going to continue to head the Class Fund-raisng Committee, even if a buzzy man can give his time to our class the least we can do is keep the contributions coming. In case you have forgotten, his address is 44 Pomander Walk, Ridge-wood, N. J.

Incidentally Actor has been one of my most faithful correspondents and I do appreciate his letters and the others that I receive. Don Huff has been reelected chairman of the standing committee of All Souls Unitarian Church in Augusta. He is general superintendent of the Stewart and Williams construction firm. Lynn, Don and their two daughters, Nancy and Donna live at 87 Whipple Rd., Kittery.

A nice letter from Audrey (Bishop) Thibeau notes that they enjoyed week-end skiing all last winter at the Presque Isle Recreational area slope. Roger and Mabelle (Ashworth) Smith are especially active in maintaining the ski area. Roger is treasurer of the Mount Penobscot Ski Club. Andrey also enclosed a letter and clipping from Helene (Cousins) Stephens, who with her husband Ed, V. Stephens and son George, lives at 12 E Wesley Rd., N. E., Atlanta, Georgia. Dr. Stephens was recently elected to fellowship in the American Academy of Optometry.

This is the last column of the season. Most of our news has come from the Alumni Office and is all "chapter of address." We did have a letter from Betty (Dreumon) Gleason (thanks, Betty). She knows how hard it is to get these news items. Norm and Bea (Gleason) Van Dorn have a new addition to their family. William Wallace Danforth was born on Nov. 15, 1958. The other Danforth children are Debbie, 15, Tommy, 11, and Norma, 9. They live at Canterbury Court, Toledo 6, Ohio. Norm is district manager for Allis Chalmers Company.

Some new addresses are:

Dorothea E. Babcock, 113 Essex St., Bangor. She is teaching at Garland Street Junior High School.

Carl Carlson, 1932 AACS Sa., Kelly AFB, Texas. Earl is in the U. S. Air Force.

Maj. Robert David and Hope (Bryant) Wall- lace, 1504 Turnpike, Milton, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Goldsmith, Route 1, Evergreen, Colorado.

Vincent Cecchi, 1612 K Street, N. W., Wash- ington, D. C.

Frederic Rawlinson, 12649 Martha, North Holly- wood, Calif.

We had a little taste of Maine last week at the Maine Society's annual lobster dinner. Over five hundred Massac set together to eat a real Maine dinner. We had lobster flown down the day before and wonderful blueberry pie made from Maine berries. General Van, the Commanding General of Cape Canaveral and a former Bangor, Maine, man was our guest speaker. It was a great success, and we all had a chance to reminisce a bit. Dr. and Mrs. Hauc were there struggling with their lobsters.

Art and I will be in Maine on June 11, 12, and 13 at the Narragansett Hotel in Kennebunk. We are guests of the postmasters at their convention. Cy Wentworth '39 owns the hotel, and since he and Art were Beta brothers and haven't seen each other since college, we should have some catching up to do!

Hope to see some of you this summer. Write!!

A wonderful long letter arrived from J. Alice Stephens, 36 Beach Street, who are enough to exhaust anyone. With school, 4-H, teaching, church, F.F.A., delegates, gardening, freezing, canning, and entertaining, their life is more than full. The children are active in 4-H—winning may awards. Their address is Box 47, R. 4, Abbey Road, East Hampton, Conn.

The son of Walter and Charlene (Perkins) Strong had a dream come true. They entered an entry blank in a dream sweepstakes and won an expense paid fishing trip for two to Brazil. Peter and his companion will fly to Brazil in October. His hobbies include fishing, reading, sailing, coin collecting, and astrology, and he plays center on his school basketball team.

Avery Bond has married Elva May Bailey of Carthage, Mo. Avery is a graduate engineer in the Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory. They will be living at 3710 Gold St., Los Alamos.

John Dyer has been elected president of the National Assoc. of State Purchasing Officials.

George Coton is now manager of technical services at the B.F. Goodrich Footwear and Flooring Co., Watertown, Mass.

Leroy F. Fuller is with the Federal Maritime Board, Washington, D. C. His "at home" address is 417 N. Thomas St., Alexandria, Va.

Robert E. Kenoyer lives at 40 Boque Ave., Bata- via, N. Y.

Russell Blanchard can be reached at the F.H.A. office, a Presque Isle.

We all owe a great vote of thanks to Margaret Mollison for keeping our column going this winter. I'm afraid that with all of my new duties, I haven't done a very good job. Do have a wonderful summer and do all sorts of interesting things that can be reported to the rest of us.

Did you get back to the campus for Commencement? It's always a treat to be in Orono at that time, and I'm sure you had an interesting experience if you were lucky enough to make the trip this year. The Class of 1939 is now added to the Alumni Roster and we of the Class of 1942 say "welcome!" to those who may see this magazine and read as far back as the classes of 1942!

Marion (Libby) Broaddus recently sent along a fabulously long letter with much interesting news about her own family and classmates about various places whom she has seen in various places during the last few months. She has four sons ranging in age from 9½ down to 1—not that sound like a busy household! Interestingly, the boys all possess Biblical names: Stephen, Samuel, Andrew, and John. Marion says that Cub Scouts are very much a part of their life at the moment for the two oldest boys are members. Sammi follows her around with his handbook in hand wanting to pass every test he comes to in the book, and the "waste can was never emptied so often for about a week!" Marion has served a term as President of the Portland Alumni and, quote, "what an enjoyable time that was for both my husband and myself." Sam is a graduate of Dickinson College in Pennsylvania (but "has become a true adopted Maine grad."). What a great alumnus Marion is! She also has been chairman of the Women's Division of the Cumberland County drive for the Leukemia Corporation.

Marion says, "I met Nancy Philbrook in Portland just before Easter, and she hasn't changed a bit." Also she occasionally sees Gloria Minnitti in Portland on Monday night shopping trips and says of her, "What a lovely M.D. our class has in Gloria!" Back home in Milford, Marion saw Art Boyd in church on Easter Sunday. He and Dot (Braude) are still living in Garden City, N.Y., and W. T. Grant is still Art's boss. Marion mentions that Howard Merrill, as a vice president of the Talbot Crane family of three girls Nancy, 11, Linda, 8, and Jane Ellen, 4 (Dotty (Ouellette) and "Icky" (Ouellette) involved in the Cape Canaveral missile work, Howard and Edith (Huntley) live at 19 Wedge Way, Littleton, Colorado.

Marion closes with, "Fond farewell from a 1942er who gets older and grayer by the day." That could go for all of us, I'm sure! Many, many thanks, Marion, for a wonderful letter.

Judge Beverly Spencer has been elected president of the Board of Directors of the Old Town Y.M.C.A. Beverly has been active in "Y" administration for years or so.

Howard Cousins has been honored by election to membership in the Public Relations Society of America, the national professional organization. As previously reported Howe is assistant to the president of the Bangor and Aroostook Railroad and handles public relations "for them."

Hello again!

John Talbot Crane arrived on March 28, 1959, in Weehawken, N.J., to add to the Talbot Crane family of three girls Nancy, 11, Linda, 8, and Jane Ellen, 4 (Dotty (Ouellette) and "Icky" (Ouellette) involved in the Cape Canaveral missile work, Howard and Edith (Huntley) live at 19 Wedge Way, Littleton, Colorado.

Dock Youdlen writes that he and Ellen (Daggett '44) live in Westwood, Mass., with their children, Rick, 14, Nancy, 12, and Keith, 8. "I am still in the industrial painting contracting business," he goes on, "but have been very active community-wise, and am just completing my term as chairman of the finance committee for Westwood. I have been Cubmaster and Scoutmaster, and now Explorer Advisor. I had a phone call recently from Gordon Tooley. He is living near Indianapolis and is happily married with four children. He is an associate in a construction company doing varied kinds of construction especially motel's and restaurant's. Barbara (Cole) Bear is living at Thor PI., Fairfield, Conn. She and Ed have two daughters: Andrea, a freshman at Brown University and Melissa, a sixth grader. Barbara is a first grade teacher and hopes to get her M.A. from Fairfield University in June. In the summer they operate a Day Camp (Bearmac). Their hobby is primitive camping in the wilds of Maine.

Rudy '42 and Jeanne (Lowell) Haffer live at RD 3, Lewiston, Pa., with their children Anne, 11, Eric, 8, and Peter, born February 25, 1959. Jeanne writes that Rudy is a lead professor at Bucknell University. Their hobby is camping. Jeanne participates in a round robin with Dotty (Rhodes) Frost, Coke (Crowell) Plastedt, and Jimmie (LeClere) Warkme. She'd like news of Wilma True.

Dr. Niles Perkins, mill physician of the Oxford Paper Company, has founded a cardiac clinic. It is believed that this successful clinic is unique in the annals of industrial medicine.

Charlotte (Morrison) Ballard, 81 Rhode Island Ave, Newport, R. I., is a busy housewife, and is involved in various church programs and community work. Her husband, the Rev. Canon Lockey E. Ballard, is an Episcopal minister. Their son, Lockey, Jr., is 12 and Margaret is 9. Charlotte writes, "Trinity Church is most historic, being founded in 1726 . . . We try in our small way to carry on a tradition and religion founded even long before the Revolution." She enclosed a picture of the beautiful interior of Trinity Church.

I had a nice note from Bob Hubbard, 31 Summer St., Pittsfield, enclosing a clipping about Charles Bartley's being back in the rocket industry. Business Week says, "Bartley's job is president of Rocket Power, Inc., a company just set up to make solid fuels for moderate thrust rockets and missiles, they start with a planned $1-million plant at Mesa, Ariz."

Marlowe and Mary Perkins are living at 46 Kendall Ave, Binghamton, N.Y., with children, Patricia Ann, 8, and Thomas, 7. Si is credit sales manager of Sears, Roebuck and Co. in Binghamton. His hobbies are sports, dancing, and Marine Reserve Organizations. Mary is a Brownie Leader and member of the Church Mothers' Club.

Arthur Mouton, who is a professor of electrical engineering here at the University, has received a patent for inventing a device used in communications research.

Wesley B. Haskell, Jr., assistant to the president of the Kaman Aircraft Corp., Bloomfield, Conn., recently showed films of the latest airplanes and helicopters being used for rescue work. His work at Kaman consists mainly of public relations.

See you in the fall!

Joey Ingalls answered my plea for news and wrote that she and family were happy to be back in Maine and that Joe is now associated with the St. Croix Paper Co. (Woodland) as production manager.

Waldo M. Libby, professor of electrical engineering at the University, has just been promoted to the rank of full professor and associate in the Electrical Engineering Department. Mac has taught at the University since 1944, and has demonstrated outstanding ability as a lecturer. He is a member of the Graduate Faculty and is responsible for the major part of the graduate instruction undertaken in the electrical engineering department.

Dr. Frank Giley has accepted an appointment as regional manager of The Greater University of Maryland Fund. Frank is a very active member of the Bangor community, now serving as president of the Fairmont PTA, and is a member of the Maine Dental and Penobscot Valley Dental Associations and the Bangor TB Association.

Two changes of address.

Nathaniel Sewall—2227 Raleigh Drive, Augusta, Ga.
Robert Atkinson—4267 Verdugo Rd, Apt 1, Los Angeles 65, Calif.

Thanks to all of you for making this column possible. Have a nice summer and please keep us informed.

Oh, the wonders of the chemistry in spring! Just wish I were young again just for a day. However, we're very happy planting our flower seeds and planting a backyard picnic area.

Emmylou (Littlefield) Danforth stopped in the office yesterday with wonderful news. She and Bill have found a home there that they think is fine. He and Edith and Robert (Andover) Mass. It will be ready for them in early July, so Emmylou has a vast amount of packing to do the two weeks after school is out. She's been teaching here all winter.

Emmylou has been teaching, Connie (Carter) Lamprell has enjoyed teaching this past year in Baltimore and plans to continue next year; although she finds, as I do, that doing housework might keep you on the jump (One compensation though—no diet for overweight is necessary!) Kathy is in private kindergarten and Billy is finishing up 2nd year in Boy's Latin. Connie says the racial problem is overwhelming there. Bill was recently elected president of the National Rehabilitation Counseling Div. of that association for N.C., Va., W.Va., Ky., Md., Wash., D.C., and the Virgin Islands. Quite an honor and responsibility, Bill. Congratulations.

Recently the lady from next door came over and introduced herself as Leo Pratt's grandmother. A story of the family...
Stackpoles have two girls and a boy—wish I had their names and ages.

Dave Richards of Lunenberg, Mass., was elected to the board of directors of the Fidelity Co-Op Bank last August. He’s sales manager of the Decorative Products division of the Fitlerburg Paper Co., and is active in civic affairs as a member of the Board of Fitchburg Boy Scouts and the Mass. Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. Dave and Marie (Bennett) live on Elm St. in Lunenberg with their three children.

Two new addresses—Dr Eliot Freidson—325 Park Ave., Leoma, N. J. Eliot is consultant at Montefiore Hospital and teacher ... These two have been in the lost file so it’s especially nice to hear of their whereabouts and professions, all good too.

A letter from Dottie (Currier) Dutton brought news of the Portland U. of M. Scholarship Dance. Sure hated to miss it, as we always enjoyed it so much. Dana and Peg (Brown) Bunker came up from Magnolia, Mass., too. They had nine couples in their group—among them Ginny and Jack Hewes—another 45er. They all gathered at Duttons before the dance. Both Dottie and Bob have had health problems this winter, but seem to be better this spring. They expect all their ills to vanish once they get out to camp again! And I’ll bet they will.

Come fall, Dottie will be taking over again.

For this summer Phyllis (Chadbourne) Lichtenwalner will be at Newcastle and then in Washington, D. C. next fall.

My mail this month included a very nice letter from Roger Thorrelli, who is back in New England and sales manager of Mexico Pacific Aircraft’s aluminum division. He and his family, including two children Linda and Marc, are now living at 61 Cochrane Rd., in Wayland, Mass. We were visited recently with the Husseys of our class and the Phil Cabots (class of ’47). Many thanks, Roger, for bringing us up to date on your whereabouts.

An address for Marge (Yates) Haskins—46 Walnut St., Framingham, Mass. How about Jean Yates? Let’s hear some news from the twins!

From the Alumni Office comes a new address for Ben and Carol (Denton) Luby—Groveloe (Gorham R. P. D.), Me.

Dave and Jo (Libby) Hays also have an address new to us. They are now living on Pane Avenue in Livermore Falls. Dave is district manager for Central Maine Power Co.

New business address for Arnold Shaw—7301 E. La Reata Ave., Scottsdale, Ariz. Arnold works for Abasco Electric Service with headquarters in N. Y.

Harwood A. Steele has moved from Waldoeboro to 37 Day St., So. Portland.

That’s all for this time, folks. Happy Summer, Everyone!

Football Lineup

University alumni living in the New England area will have several excellent opportunities to watch the Maine football eleven in action next fall.

The Black Bears, aiming for their ninth consecutive winning season under Coach Hal Westerman, will play five away games and three at home.

The Bears, boasting a veteran lineup, will open at Massachusetts at Amherst on September 19. The following Saturday the Bears will be at Kingston to meet Rhode Island.

Maine will return home to play Vermont on October 3, then take to the road for a game at Durham against New Hampshire on October 10. On October 17 the powerful Connecticut eleven will visit Orono.

On October 24, Maine will visit Bates at Lewiston for the State Series opener, followed by an October 31 date with Colby at Waterville. The finale will send the Bears against Bowdoin at Orono on November 7.
I attended a Boston-Maine Alumni dinner and dance last Saturday evening and it was jumping. Didn’t see many ’56ers there. Where were you and no excuses. See you all at the next one for sure.

I’m enclosing the latest from Ann Keyo, our treasurer—the last one being at our last Reunion:

I wish to thank Ann for all her good work as our class treasurer during the past year and Judy for her wonderful efforts and spirits as our class secretary. Both have done a tremendous job and so—from the class—thank you both very, very much.

Before closing I wish to emphasize one more point. We can have and do and be whatever you wish. All you have to do is to let me know exactly what you want and when and this is what we’ll have. Send a card or a letter with an idea or many ideas and let’s all consciously make some effort be it large or small to keep our class united and informed. Your part is so vital and I need everyone’s help. So—let’s get with it and stay with it.

Barney Oldfield in Orono on June 5-6-7. I’ll be there looking for ’56ers. Remember I want to hear from you and God willing hope to see you all soon.

Best of luck, good health, and much happiness to all.

Sincerely,
“Barney” Oldfield
Class President

Now to my news: Will take this space to thank all of you who have kept in touch with me, and have offered all your news and notes. Many of you have given me help and suggestions to make this first year as Secretary of the Class of ’56 an important one for me. I sincerely hope that our column in the Alumnus has met with your satisfaction, and am looking forward to making it an even better one in the fall.

Sue Haskell has sent me news about two of our classmates. Tom Mahaney, coach of basketball at John Bapst High School in Bangor, took his team to the Eastern Maine Large Schools Tournament this winter. A fine record for the ’56’ers, Tom! Congratulations.

Of equal fame is Dick Knight, basketball coach at Rockport, whose team went to the Western Maine Small Schools Tournament, also during the winter. A feather in your cap, Dick! We’re proud of you!

Martha (Burow) Norgren writes that she and husband Joel are living at 544 North 4th St., Corvallis, Oregon. Joel is working for his M.S. degree in the Soils Department at Oregon State College, and Marty is assistant technician in a medical laboratory.

A prompt response from John M. Day, Jr., gives us his address as the Solvay Process, 45 Milk St., Boston 9, Mass. John is a chemical salesman for the firm.

Donald F. Huntington is at the Case Institute, Cleveland, Ohio, teaching mathematics and studying for his doctorate. Don would like us to write to him at 421 Main St., Lewiston, Maine, his home address.

Barbara H. Ilvonen is teaching now at the Kaiserslautern American Elementary School, address APO 227, N.Y., N.Y.

Change of Addresses:
- Francis J. Soybach from Lisbon Falls to 50 Lincoln Ave., Poughkeepsie, N.Y.
- John R. Sumpter, Jr., from Portland to 149 Clark St., Portland.
- Roger C. Tarbell from Harrison to Fryeburg.

A correction from an earlier issue of the Alumnus—(October).

Charles “Chazz” Rearick was married to Sylvia Ware in August of ’57. After a year in Germany with Uncle Sam, they returned to this country last fall and “Chazz” is working for RCA, the Cherry Hill Division. Chazz, Sylvia, and daughter Janice Lee are living at 107 Wallworth Park Apartments, Haddonfield, N. J. Sorry, about the slip up, folks.

Also married on February 25 was Mary Lou Splane to Richard G. Wragg of South Portland. Mary Lou is employed by WGAN-TV, and Dick is State Agent for the Queen Insurance Company of America. The newlyweds live at 60 Longfellow Dr., Cape Elizabeth, Maine.

A newsy note from Barney Oldfield tells us that Joseph Benedetto is living at 880 5th Ave., New York, and is in business with his father.

Also that Duncan MacLeod is working for B. F. Goodrich in Reading, Mass., and is living at his home in Wilmington.

Lester and Jane (Sweet) Fogh and son John Allan are living at 228 Alicia Drive, El Paso, Texas.

Bruno P. Conti, health physicist at Armour Research Foundation in Chicago, says that Linda Marie, born December 17, is the latest addition to his family. Lisa is 3 and Debbie is 2. Rico and family live at 3109 Western Ave., Park Forest, Illinois.

The following notes include general locations of classmates. If any specific addresses are in your possession, I would greatly appreciate a card listing them.

Munjoy's Hill

Munjoy Hill is one of the few areas in Portland retaining its original name. Deeded by Portland's first settlers, Cleeve and Tucker, to John Phillips, who in turn gave the Hill to his daughter Mary and her husband George Munjoy, the boundary extended "from beside the house of George Cleeve in a straight line to the Back Cove." A stone wall marked the boundary, with a gate at the end of the lane which later became Back Street, now Congress Street.

The Munjoys built a garrison house on the hill and planted extensive gardens around it. After the death of George Munjoy his widow carried on until Indian depredations forced her to leave. When Indian hostilities subsided Mary Munjoy, who had by then married Robert Lawrence, returned to the Hill. The Lawrences built a new stone house on the site of the old but development of the Hill was slow. As late as 1810 there were only three houses there.

It was on Munjoy Hill in 1690 that a band of lurking Indians slew Lt. Thadeus Clark and thirteen of his men. There, in 1775, Col. Thompson captured the British officer Captain Mowatt, who later destroyed the town in revenge.

On the slope of the Hill toward the town for many years stood a tall spar with a tar barrel suspended at its top which was to be lighted as a warning when enemies were sighted.

It was to Munjoy Hill that the terrified residents fled for safety during the great fire of 1866. Buried treasure was found on the Hill as late as 1880.
