COVID-19 vaccination clinic at UMaine tomorrow

April 27, 2021

A COVID-19 vaccination clinic, offered in partnership with Penobscot Community Health Center, will be held at Wells Conference Center at the University of Maine from 1-5 p.m., Wednesday, April 28, offering the one-shot Johnson & Johnson vaccine and the two-shot Moderna vaccine. The second Moderna vaccination also will be administered at a clinic at Wells Conference Center.

No appointment is necessary; community members will choose which vaccine they wish to receive during the registration process at Wells.

There is no charge for the vaccine. Proof of insurance is not required. If you have medical insurance, please bring your insurance card it so that any administrative costs can be billed to your insurer. There are no out-of-pocket costs for receiving the vaccine.

All members of the university community are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity.
