Maine Alumnus, Volume 15, Number 9, June 1934

General Alumni Association, University of Maine
The 1909 Class with 39 registered, nearly doubled the former 25th anniversary attendance record.

Harold W. "Rip" Hall and Norman H. "Spike" Mayo, both '09. They are thought to be the first 25 year men to have ever played baseball on the alumni team.

"Hal" Hall '34 and his father, Harold W. Hall '09, opposed each other on the mound in the opening inning of the Alumni-Senior baseball game.

Commencement Exercises were held in Alumni Memorial with about 2500 in attendance.
Over 400 Alumni Return for Commencement

Williams '05 Elected Alumni President

1909 Makes $1,000 Gift

The Sixty-third Commencement of the University has come and gone. With its passing new memories, which will become more treasured as time passed, have been formed. With it some four hundred boys and girls automatically become members of the alumni body. With it a new and higher standing of what a class reunion may be has been established. With it the great value of the new gymnasium for non-athletic purposes was again demonstrated. With it a gift of a reunion class for one thousand dollars. And finally with its passing was the sad touch of the retirement of "Prexy" Boardman who has been at the helm for eight years.

A total of 327 alumni registered during Commencement. This is about twenty-five per cent greater than last year and third largest on record. Unquestionably more than 400 alumni were on the campus for some or all of the Commencement program.

A new record was established, so far as can be determined, when 757 alumni, faculty, and friends were present at the banquet. The unique stunt, if such it may be called, of 1909; the dedication of Stevens Hall; and the tributes paid to President Boardman and Governor Brann were other high spots of Alumni Day.

The 1908 Attendance Cup was awarded to the Class of 1884. Five of its thirteen living members were on the campus; this representing the highest percentage of any class.

1909 was winner of the Twentieth Century Commencement Cup having thirty-nine registered up to 6:00 P.M. Alumni Day. This is twenty-five per cent of its list. Indeed 1909 missed having the largest registration this year by only six. 1933 was first with forty-four, next came 1909 with thirty-nine, followed by 1932 with thirty-five and 1931 with thirty-three, and 1912 with 25.

Election Results

At the General Alumni Association meeting, June 9, George S. Williams '05 of Augusta, was elected to succeed Arthur L. Deering '12, of Orono, who had served three years as president of the organization. Other officers chosen were Harold M. Pierce '19, of Bangor, vice-president; Paul Bray '14, of Orono, treasurer; and Maurice D. Jones '12, of Orono, clerk. Members of Alumni Council at large are George T. Carlisle '09, Bangor; R. H. Fogler '15, Chicago; J. E. Totman '16, Baltimore; and Arthur L. Deering '12, Orono. Member of the Alumni Council to represent the College of Arts and Sciences for unexpired term of H. W. Fifield, deceased, Hazen Ayer '24, of Boston. Member of the Alumni Council to represent the College of Law, Robert W. DeWolfe '07L., of Portland. Clifton A. Hall '10, of Bangor, was re-elected to serve a three-year term as an Alumni Representative on the Athletic Board.

Others who were appointed or elected to committees are as follows: Endowment & Donations committee, George O. Hamlin, 1900, Boothbay Harbor, and R. H. Fogler '15, Chicago. University Store Stockholders representing Alumni Association, F. Donald Crowell '17, Bangor; J. H. Freeland '19, Bangor; Robert N. Haskell '25, Bangor; and C. E. Crossland '17, Orono. Trustee of Alumni Activities Fund for five years, Theodore W. Monroe '23, of Boston.

At the business meeting of the Association various reports on dues, Memorial Fund, Swimming Pool Requirements, Placement Service, Alumni Activities Fund, and Alumni Trustee were received.

Mr. Frank E. Weymouth '96, Los Angeles, noted engineer, who was the recipient of an honorary degree the following Monday, spoke briefly and showed motion pictures of the mammoth project of which he is director.

The concluding action of the meeting was a rising vote of thanks and appreciation extended to the retiring president, Arthur L. Deering.

Immediately following the Alumni meeting was the Alumni Luncheon held this year in the Memorial Gymnasium for the first time. Two hundred forty-one were accommodated at this luncheon which in addition to the eighty-five who were at the 1909 luncheon made a record for recent years at least.

A band of University students furnished a concert for one-half hour in the University Oval while alumni had the opportunity of visiting with each other and the reunion classes to prepare their stunts. Five classes participated in this part of the program. 1930 put on a mock trial. 1931 humorously depicted the students of the University as recorded by the magazine Time a few weeks ago. 1932 staged a bull fight while 1933 depicted the 1934 version of the State Track Meet with Bowdoin being the only competitor. These stunts were well received. The Class of 1909, however, presented something new and entirely different than anything ever given before and is described elsewhere.

Stevens Hall Dedication

Immediately following the conclusion of the stunts came the dedication of Stevens Hall. Dr. Harold S. Boardman opened the program with remarks concerning the present occasion. He then introduced Dean Emeritus James S. Stevens after whom the Arts and Sciences Hall has been named. Next came Dean James Muilenburg who looked into the future of the Arts College. The dedicatory address was made by Charles J. Dunn '20H, Jus-
277 Baccalaureates, 33 Advanced And 9 Honorary Degrees Coferred

"...Nearly four years ago you came to the University of Maine as freshmen. It was my privilege at that time to welcome you....In a few moments you will pass thru the portals of the Institution as alumni, and as such I would again welcome you to the family of Maine men and women. Your Institution will then be your Alma Mater, and as such you owe her your allegiance, your respect, and your love. The simple ceremony of graduation does not sever your connection, it strengthens it, for by that ceremony you take on an identity which you can never change....

"And now as students I bid you farewell and as Alumni I greet you. May you ever reflect credit upon your Alma Mater."

Such were the parting words of President Boardman to the members of the Class of 1934. They are so full of meaning that they are so full of meaning that they need no comment from me. With this admonition the 277 new degree holders left the big Memorial Gymnasium where the exercises were held.

"The Educated Man Faces His World" was the title of an able, scholarly, and practical address by Dr. John E. Schroeder, President of the University, at which he challenged the graduates to marshal their abilities, to think individually, to make their college course be a stepping-stone in their education, pointing out the many opportunities and problems before them, and fields which they might conquer. His address was received with ringing applause.

A total of 277 Bachelor degrees were conferred, 69 in Agriculture, 88 in Arts, 104 in Technology, 13 in Education, and three out of course. Twelve additional degrees will be granted in September conditional upon completion of requirements.

Thirty-three advanced and professional degrees were conferred. Of these fourteen were Master of Arts, twelve, Master of Sciences, one, Master in Education, and one, professional degree in Electrical Engineering. Twenty-one of the recipients of these degrees were University of Maine alumni. This total, thirty-three, is the same as last year and is the largest number of this type degree awarded in any single year.

13 Sons and Daughters

Thirteen alumni, sons and daughters, were included in those who received Bachelor degrees. They are as follows: Ruth E. Hamor (George H. '09), Hulls Cove; Muriel T. Covell (Henry T. '12), Monmouth; Mabel E. Robinson (Veysey H. '17), Old Town; Ruth I. Vaughan (William ex-'11), Belfast; Josephine Burrill (Harold S. ex-'11), Brewer; Lewis B. Varney (Perley N. '06), Gorham; Thomas M. Hersey (Guy A. '00), Bangor; Allen M. Larrabee (Charles C. '12), Winthrop; Frances J. Lord (Leslie R. '08 and Edith Jordan '10), Old Town; Alpheus C. Lyon, Jr. (Alpheus C. '02), Bangor; Lewis M. Hardison (Grove M. '08), Caribou; Harold M. Hall (Harold W. ex-'09), Anburn; and Helen A. Williams (John S. '87), Guilford.

Honorary Degrees

Of the nine honorary degrees conferred three went to alumni of the University; namely, Frank E. Weymouth '96, Carl N. Garland '07, and Arthur L. Deering '12. Particularly fitting was the degree to Hon. Hannibal Hamlin who not only has achieved success and distinction as an attorney and citizen but also whose father had such an important part in the founding of the University. Honorable Blaine S. Viles is father of William P. Viles '28. Following are the citations given by President Boardman in conferring the honorary degrees:

JOHN CHARLES SCHROEDER—Doctor of Letters.

Native of New York, former student College of the City of New York, Union Theological Seminary, Columbia and Harvard, honorary alumnus of Bowdoin College, Pastor of the State Street Congregational Church of Portland.

Your life has indeed been full, spent in service to your fellowmen. A leader in public thought wherever you may be, unafraid to speak your mind, you have the ability to interpret ideals in terms of the affairs of everyday life which has endeared you to your people. May you always have courage to speak the truth as you see it.

HARRY TRUST—Doctor of Letters.

Native of England, adopted son of the State of Maine. Graduate of Bowdoin College, Bangor Theological Seminary, Minister of the Gospel, Preacher, and Organizer, President of Bangor Theological Seminary.

The prediction that you had unusual capacity for leadership has been borne out in the results of many activities which have been yours during a very fruitful life. We are proud of the friendship that exists between the Seminary and the University and we are sure that under your guidance the Seminary will advance to serve even greater spheres of usefulness.

CARL NATHANIEL GARLAND—Doctor of Humane Letters.

Native of Newfoundland, adopted son of the State of Maine, Graduate of Bangor Theological Seminary and the University of Maine, clergyman in the Methodist Episcopal Church for over 30 years.

Since entering the ministry your activities have been ceaseless and your service has been rendered in many places. During the World War, as Religious and Social Director you were under fire and on numerous occasions acted as an ambulance bearer. Later you became active in a movement which brought you into contact with religious leaders of the entire North American Continent. More recently you have served as pastor of several churches in Maine, and at present you are serving as Superintendent of Methodist Churches on the Rockland District, Maine Conference.

The many testimonials which we have received from your co-workers show the confidence and esteem in which you are held.

PAUL CLOKE—Doctor of Engineering.

Son and namesake of Maine's grandest figure of the fiercest Civil War, your father was an incorporator of the University of Maine and chairman of the first board of trustees. His name has left an indelible mark on the memory of every citizen of our State.

Your engineering activities at home and abroad have given you an enviable reputation. For many years you were connected with the U.S. Government, holding positions of responsibility. You are now Chief Engineer of the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California, in charge of the Colorado River Aqueduct, with all the responsibility attending thereto. Yours has been a life of engineering activity and the end is not yet.

HANNIBAL EMERY HAMLIN—Doctor of Law.

Native son of the State of Maine, Graduate of the University of Maine, Engineer of distinction.

Your engineering activities at home and abroad have given you an enviable reputation. For many years you were connected with the U.S. Government, holding positions of responsibility. You are now Chief Engineer of the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California, in charge of the Colorado River Aqueduct, with all the responsibility attending thereto. Yours has been a life of engineering activity and the end is not yet.

Native son of the State of Maine, Graduate of Bowdoin College and Yale University, forester, manufacturer, and man of affairs.

By many years of practice in the judicial courts, you have won an enviable reputation as an able lawyer, who always manifests in his practice his high sense of justice and honor.

In your rise from one public trust to another, your fellows have felt a just pride; and in all your success have rejoiced and taken courage.

ARTHUR LOWELL DEERING—Doctor of Science.

Native of the State of New Jersey. Graduate of Lehigh University, former faculty member in Pennsylvania State College, and two-thirds innings, but his support was so wobbly as to enable the seniors to come out victors.

Alumni Banquet

Preceding the Alumni Banquet was the parade in which all alumni and faculty participated arranged according to the class age. For this function Dr. E. S. Abbott '84 was honorary marshal, and Harry E. Sutton '09 was marshal. As the head of the parade the entire hall, music furnished by The Bye Family Ensemble, of Portland, enlivened the air, and as soon as all were about the tables, Ermo Scott led in singing the Stein Song and a cheer, which together with the favors sent the event off to a good start. During the evening Ermo Scott, with Neil Calderwood at the piano, led the best assembly of 757, considered to be a record attendance, in singing University and other old time songs.

The music for this occasion was especially appropriate being given by The Bye Family Ensemble under the direction of Terschak F. Bye '07. This family group has won much distinction throughout New England and added a very pleasing touch to the program.

Dr. Boardman acted as toastmaster and first introduced the members of the Class of 1884. George S. Williams '05, newly elected president of the Alumni Association, awarded the Cups and the Class Loyalty Shield. He paid tribute to the retiring Alumni president, A. L. Deering '12, and highly commended the work of Dr. Boardman. In concluding he called alumni to show their appreciation by rising vote which was done with much enthusiasm. Fred Knight, president of the Class of 1909, was the next speaker. He ably developed a background which led up to the presentation of a gift of one thousand dollars to the University of Maine Foundation mentioned elsewhere in this Alumni of the Supreme Court of Maine. His remarks were most appropriate and the many commentary statements heard after the exercises were testimony of the excellence of his address.

From the seriousness of the dedication, alumni then turned to a ball game of Alumni vs. Seniors. In this activity the alumni came out losers, a score of 8-2. The game was opened with "Rip" Hall 14, of Portland, delivering the charge to the seniors, to which Phil Parsons, president of the Class of 1934, pleasingly responded, outlining what he hoped would be the standards of loyalty and service which his class might attain.

With the presentation of Governor Brann the entire audience arose and gave him a most hearty ovation. The Governor spoke glowingly of the work of President Boardman, of the University, and stated that alumni of Maine had played a stimulating, important, and successful part in the affairs of state during his administration. The concluding number on the program for Alumni Day was the hop.

On Sunday two classes, 1909 and 1912, held outings to complete their special class programs.

Over 400 Alumni Return

A. Lincoln King '14, of Portland, delivered the charge to the seniors, to which Phil Parsons, president of the Class of 1934, pleasingly responded, outlining what he hoped would be the standards of loyalty and service which his class might attain.

Native of the State of Maine, graduate of the University of Maine, Director of the Agricultural Extension Service and Dean of the College of Agriculture.

Your activities in behalf of the agriculture of your state have been many. You were Field Secretary of Kennebec County Food Producing during the World War, you were Secretary of the Maine Farm Bureau Federation for ten years, and for years you helped direct that Institution, so dear to the hearts of Maine farmers, known as Farm and Home Week. You are a member of the Executive Committee of the Regional Agricultural Credit Corporation. Altho your time has been full with your professional work you have not been too busy to give your efforts to the upbuilding of the Alumni Association of your Alma Mater. You have held many positions of trust in the Association and for the past three years have been its President.

John D. Chadwick, of New York City, one time head of department of Electrical Engineering at University of Arizona, a member of the faculty of the University of Maine, educator, writer, scientist.

Although your life has been busy with matters relating to your profession, you have found time to devote to State service. You have been a member of the Fish and Game Commission, Land Agent and Forest Commissioner, a member of the Maine Legislature, a member of the Governor's Council, mayor of your city, and a prominent member of the State committee of your party. To have the esteem of your fellowmen is a great asset.

ADELBERT WILLIS GORDON—Master of Arts.

Native son of the State of Maine. Graduate of Maine Wesleyan Seminary. General Agent for unorganized territory in the public schools system of the State, recognized administrator.

Although your life has been busy with matters relating to your profession, you have found time to devote to State service. You have been a member of the Fish and Game Commission, Land Agent and Forest Commissioner, a member of the Maine Legislature, a member of the Governor's Council, mayor of your city, and a prominent member of the State committee of your party. To have the esteem of your fellowmen is a great asset.

NATIONAL BANQUET

Alumni of the University of Maine were the guests at a national banquet on Thursday evening, following the Alumni Day ceremonies.

The program of the banquet included a silent film presentation of "Bordered by Conflict," a dramatic play, a dance, and a speech by Dr. Boardman in which he discussed the University of Maine and its alumni.
Alumni Trustee Buck Reviews Year’s Events

In submitting my report for the year now ending I am calling to your attention the more important happenings of the year. To go into all the details would necessitate a long report and perhaps be of no particular interest.

For the third time during my service on the Board of Trustees I have participated in the election of a president for the University.

After a service of eight years as president, Dr. Harold S. Boardman ’95 tendered his resignation to take effect at the close of this college year. Dr. Boardman took the presidency at a time when a conservative policy of administration was important to the University. Results reflect the record Dr. Boardman has made as our first alumni president, and I feel confident that all interested friends and alumni of the University fully appreciate his work; and extend to him and to Mrs. Boardman their earnest wishes for all that is best in their future.

Upon the resignation of Dr. Boardman the no small task of selecting his successor fell to the trustees. To accomplish this a committee composed of Edward E. Chase, John T. Gyger and Bertram E. Packard was appointed with full responsibility, thus to avoid duplication of effort and confusion of contacts that might otherwise well occur. Through the president of the Alumni Association, Arthur L. Deering, the members of the Council were requested to co-operate with this committee. The trustees fully appreciated the action then taken by Mr. Deering and the subsequent attitude of the alumni. It was a great help to the committee and the trustees.

The trustee committee headed by Mr. Chase did a thorough piece of work and as a result Dr. Arthur A. Hauck, Dean of Lafayette College, was selected and later accepted the call of this important department. The proper upkeep of the buildings and grounds requires the services of an expert such as Mr. Ross is. Within a few years the result of his work will be clearly reflected in the appearance of the buildings and grounds.

An arrangement I have been trying to perfect for several years is now in force. Through the co-operation of Dean Deering and the Horticultural Department has taken over the supervision and care of the shrubs and trees on the campus, working in conjunction with the superintendent of buildings and grounds. This is to work out to the advantage of both departments and will give the students in that department some actual experience.

Last year Alumni Hall, in the future to be designated Administration Building, was thoroughly rebuilt. An inspection of this building today is well worth while. The building now accommodates Departments of the President and Treasurer; the “Little Theatre”; and the girls’ gymnasium in the second story, rear.

Campus planning improvements were carried on under the supervision of Olmstead Brothers, Boston, and considerable new work was completed in 1933. Due to lack of funds available for this purpose new work on the campus has been suspended for 1934. It is the intention of the trustees to carry on under the Olmstead Brothers plan as soon as funds permit.

As has previously been called to the attention of the Council, the Field House has been a source of expense for several years. In 1933 the north wall was entirely rebuilt; a new slate roof constructed; and modern ventilation system installed. This work was done under the supervision of C. Parker Crowell ’98 at a cost of about thirteen thousand dollars. This building is now in good condition.

In the gymnasium proper there has been designated and equipped a room for the athletic trophies. This room is dedicated to the late M. Chamberlain Peirce, Bangor, a Harvard graduate, and son of Mr. Mellen C. Peirce and the late Mrs. Anna Hayford Peirce. Mr. Peirce at her death gave the University six thousand dollars; and later Mr. Peirce gave four thousand dollars, each in memory of the son, the income from the fund to be devoted to athletics. This trophy room seems an appropriate recognition of the gifts and perpetuates the memory of the one in whose name the gifts were made.

During the past winter the trustees employed C. Parker Crowell in conjunction with Mr. Ross to make a thorough examination of Wingate, Lord, and Fernald Halls. These buildings had become seriously out of repair, out of date and a fire hazard. As a result of their report, the trustees authorized the remodelling of these buildings and this will be done during the summer 1934. The shop in Lord Hall will be removed to a new building being constructed northly from Crosby Laboratory. The new shop building is so located as to be in the rear of the engineering building when the latter is constructed.

The retirement pension plan as formulated by the Council through a committee of which Mr. R. H. Fogler ’15 was chairman and of great help to the trustees, has been adopted and is now in force. This is a much needed step in the right direction. To Trustee Walter A. Danforth much credit is due for the time and study he made of the various plans submitted.

It is worthy of note that Mr. Thomas E. Houghton ’11 has recently been reappointed for a third term; and Mr. John T. Gyger, of Portland, has just been reappointed for a second term. Both un-
1909 Honors Fourteen Faculty Members

The Class of 1909 not only had a record attendance for its 25th reunion, a fine program, and presented the University with a gift of one thousand dollars, but also staged a stunt Alummi Day, which in itself is unique, by which it honored fourteen faculty members who were teachers or officials at the institution at the time of their graduation.

To each of the fourteen was presented a sterling silver plate suitably inscribed as a testimony of the esteem in which they were held and in appreciation of their long service at the University. Twelve of the fourteen were present personally to receive their gifts.

The citations, prologue, and epilogue for this occasion were written by Nor­man H. Mayo. They are given here complete because of the general interest which alumni will have in this peculiarly appropriate ceremony:

PROLOGUE

She called us home.

For this one day, Maine called us home again,
To view her, as now so beautiful;
To tread again familiar campus paths
That wind from Hall to Hall, where long ago
She told us truths, that we might better live;
To hear again the Maine "Hello," that mark
Of campus hospitality, unique;
To "Paddy"—when from this man we learned so much
Of how life's battles are won;
To "Paddy"—when we learned too, in case we lost,
That we can laugh, and carry on.
And so we came!

To JAMES MONROE BARTLETT, '80
Chemist of the Maine Experiment Station
Fifty-six years associated with the University.
Fifty-six years a maker of friends through
Cheerfulness, kindness, and helpfulness.
He and others like him have made this
The friendly campus we love, and to which
We so gladly return.

To LUCIUS HERBERT MERRILL, '83
Professor Emeritus, Biological and Agricultural Chemistry
Through most of the years of record
His was a familiar figure on Maine's campus.
Devoted to his duty as few are, he served most faithfully.
Systematic, thorough, and learned,
He was, for years, recognized as one of Maine's best teachers.
He is ill today, and we extend to him our sympathy
With this tribute to his useful, helpful years of labor.

To FREMONT LINCOLN RUSSELL, '85
Professor Emeritus, Bacteriology and Veterinary Science
His years of service on Maine's faculty are forty-three.
Concluding with his retirement, two years ago,
None leads him in faithful performance of duty.
None leads him in helpfulness to students.
So he built, thoroughly and helpfully.
The agricultural interests of Maine
Are further advanced by his labors.
To JAMES STACY STEVENS, '22 Honorary
An inspiring teacher, building in students a desire for more knowledge and a broader education.
A far-sighted executive, building in staff members hope for greater opportunity to serve.
An untiring pioneer, to whom is given major credit for today's College of Arts and Sciences.
Secure forever is his position among the builders of the University.

To CHARLES PARTRIDGE WESTON, '96
Professor of Mechanics in the College of Technology
Some of us build with post and beam
And with arch and sash and spire;
Some of us build with men and cash
And the brains we have, or hire;
Some of us build with post and beam
And with arch and sash and spire;
For over thirty years Maine men
Have benefited by contact with and instruction under him.
We crystallize the thoughts of many college generations
Of Maine students when we today cite
His teaching ability, his patience, and particularly
His helpfulness.

To EVERETT WILLARD DAVIE, Instructor in Mechanical Engineering
For over thirty years Maine men
Have benefited by contact with and instruction under him.
His cheerfulness, his even disposition, and
His helpfulness have given many
Engineering students better personal equipment.
With which to face the business or professional world.

To EDITH M. PATCH, Master of Science, '10
Her achievements as Entomologist of the Maine Experiment Station
Have won national recognition for her
And for the University.
She and others like him have made this
The friendly campus we love, and to which
We so gladly return.

To CAROLINE COLVIN, '27 Honorary
Professor Emeritus of History and Government
Her thirty years on Maine's faculty
Have been so full of friendly, helpful acts
To students, faculty associates, and graduates;
So marked by unusual ability in teaching;
So fruitful in creating a special place for her
In the hearts of Maine men and Maine women
That one of Maine's buildings is named in her honor.
We welcome this chance to add our tribute
To those she has already received.

To JOHN HOMER HUDDILSTON Professor of Greek Language and Literature
We believe no finer tribute can be paid
A teacher than for his former students to say,
"He was the embodiment of helpfulness,
Particularly to students in scholarship distress."
We crystallize the thoughts of many college generations
Of Maine students when we today cite
His teaching ability, his patience, and particularly
His helpfulness.

To GEORGE DAVIS CHASE, '27 Honorary
Dean of Graduate Study, and Professor of Latin
Beginning his years at Maine when we began ours,
He has worked untiringly for twenty-nine years.
That we concentrate upon
We do a truer, finer job;
Because of those days, long gone,
When from this man we learned so much
Of how life's battles are won;
When we learned too, in case we lost,
How to laugh, and carry on.

To JOHN HOMER HUDDILSTON
Professor of Greek Language and Literature
To "Paddy"
Here's to his friendliness! Here's to the smile
Of Maine men, Maine women, and Maine friends.
That we concentrate upon
We do a truer, finer job;
Because of those days, long gone,
When from this man we learned so much
Of how life's battles are won;
When we learned too, in case we lost,
How to laugh, and carry on.

To JAMES ADRIAN GANNETT, '08
Registrar of the University
We know you are the College Registrar.
The records tell us so.

Memorial Committees

Reports Consolidated

Heretofore there have been two separate reports submitted covering the different activities of the Memorial Fund and Memorial Building Committees. Inasmuch as there has been less activity this year than in those immediately preceding, one report is hereby made to cover the entire work.

Memorial Fund

During the year ending May 31 the Memorial Fund collected $1383.50 from the first and second campaign. Three notices and reminders were sent to all having unpaid pledges. The Fund is now under no expense other than that involved in printing and postage to send notices. The work is handled as a part of Alumni Association program.

There is still outstanding in excess of $150,000 of unpaid subscriptions, the bulk of this being in the first campaign. As soon as conditions have shown real improvement, it is our intention to use more intensive methods with the hope of collecting a substantial amount from the outstanding pledges.

Memorial Building

Since the last annual meeting of the General Alumni Association the gymnasium has been completed. Because of default and subsequent bankruptcy of the general contractor the Building Committee had to make final settlement with the contractor.

In engineering and architects plans which cost the Memorial Building Committee $1200. There are two small bills outstanding.

Alumni Activities

Fund Passes $82,000

Six classes are to, or already have contributed to the Alumni Activities Fund as a result of action taken during Commencement. These gifts which exceed $150 will make the total of the fund more than $2000.

Joe W. Gerrity '09, chairman of the five trustees charged with the management of this fund, reported to the General Alumni Association that during the past year the classes of 1897, 1898, 1915, and 1917 had contributed a total of $202 to the Fund, which together with $50.69 interest brought the total to $1846.69.

In submitting this report he pointed out the fact that the following classes had not yet made gifts: (omitting the earlier classes): 1890, '91, '92, '94, '95, '96, 1901, '08, '12, '13, '16, '18, '19, 1921, '22, '23, '24, '26, and 1930, '31, '32 and '33.

The foregoing list should now be revised since five new classes voted or actually made gifts as follows during the Commencement just past:

Rudy Makes Surprise Visit

With almost dramatic suddenness Rudy Vallee appeared with guests at the Commencement Ball Monday, June 11. Although he had indicated he might possibly come to the campus during Commencement no definite plans were received. His stay at the Ball was short for he disappeared after a dance or two with almost the same unexpected speed as he had arrived. In his presence with Miss Alice Faye and other guests from New York certainly gave those present a real thrill.

Student Senate Election

Carl A. Whitman, of East Auburn, '35, was elected president of the Student Senate for 1934-35 with Samuel H. Reese, of Wilmington, Del., '35, as vice-president, and Francis G. Morong, of South Portland, '35, as secretary-treasurer.

Treas. Bray Renders

Financial Statement

Paul D. Bray '14, treasurer of the General Alumni Association, made his annual financial report to the Alumni Council and to the General Alumni Association at annual meetings, June 8 and 9. As the report shows it is expected that the Association will close the year with a small operating surplus.

In accordance with the constitution the report is made in two sections, the first shows actual income and expenditures for (11) months, and the second part is an estimate for June. The income for the year is estimated to be about $475 under the budget, while expenditures are expected to run about $850 under the budget as adopted by the Association last year. Following is the report:

The Maine Alumnus
University of Maine Foundation Organized

While the band played outside and other Alumni Day activities were in progress, ten men met in President Boardman's office in Alumni Hall to complete the organization of the University of Maine Foundation as the culmination of several months' discussion and conferences. Although not especially designed to take place on Alumni Day or to the tune of music, yet both seemed appropriate. The idea originated with alumni and some are prone to believe that this corporation will, over a period of years, mean much to the future of the University.

The ten men who were at the meeting are as follows: Hon. Harmon S. Allen, Sanford, chairman of the Board of Trustees; Dr. Harold S. Boardman '85, president of the University; Hosea B. Buck '93, Alumni Trustee; Robert R. Drummond '85, professor of German at the University; Joseph W. Gerrity '09, Boston, president and treasurer of J. F. Gerrity Lumber Company; Horace S. Stewart, Bangor, president of Merchants National Bank; Stephen Wheatland, Bangor, executive; Ralph Whittier '02, Bangor, treasurer of Penobscot Savings Bank; David Fuller '28, attorney of Bangor; and Charles E. Crossland, Alumni Secretary, and Executive Secretary of Endowment and Donations Committee.

The first eight men had agreed to serve as active members of the proposed Foundation which had been instituted as the Alma Mater's agent in which such persons may use in making gifts for the benefit of the University.

The Class of 1909 presented a gift of one thousand dollars as the first gift to the Foundation, to be used at its discretion.

A booklet will shortly be printed containing a general statement of its purposes and policies and the by-laws of the Foundation.

Nominations for Alumni Service Emblem

The closing date to receive nominations for the award of the 1934 Service Emblem is but a few days off. Have you nominated the one whom you believe should be considered for this honor? Any alumnus may make a nomination. The number, type, length, and quality of service to the Alumni Association in any of its branches and to the University are the chief points on which the award is made. Nominations should be sent to the Alumni Secretary, 13 Fernald.

EPILOGUE

And now 'tis late.
The day for which we came is almost done. But what a place it holds among our days! Through eyes, and ears, and heart we've got so much Of happiness. It's such a joy to know That memories of college days are real; That friendships made in college days are true; That Maine is blest with fruits of lives like these To which we've brought attention here today. And so we close the day in happiness, Resolved that when our Alma Mater calls We will again return.

Final Report on Campus Landscaping

Arthur L. Deering '12, chairman of the alumni committee on Campus Planning and Landscaping, appointed by the Alumni Council three years ago, submitted a final report to the Council at its annual meeting June 8. Following is a report of the committee composed of Mr. Deering and Alumni Secretary Crossland:

Although no formal meetings of the committee or conferences have been held during the past year, members of this committee have kept in touch or been informed of developments relating to campus planning and landscaping.

It seems fitting at this time to summarize the work of the committee. The following has been accomplished:

(1) As result of Council action, the Board of Trustees employed landscape architects choosing Olmsted Brothers of Brookline, Massachusetts, partly at least by the suggestion of this committee.

(2) A campus plan was prepared by Olmsted Brothers and substantially approved by the Board of Trustees.

(3) A campus landscape plan was prepared by the same company and has been approved. The plan has been so prepared that units of work can be done as funds become available for that purpose, estimated cost being given for each unit.

(4) Certain parts of the campus landscaping plan have already been completed and others are under way.

(5) The care or management of shrubs and trees on the campus proper have been placed under the direction of the department of Horticulture of the College of Agriculture, so that a person well qualified by training and experience to do that work is now supervising this important activity.

Since these matters have been accomplished and since there appears to be no problems demanding immediate attention, it seems wise for this committee to suggest that this be considered a final report and that the committee be discharged.

Secretary Reports
Year's Activities

By vote of the Alumni Council the secretary was instructed to publish in The Alumnus as much of his annual report as possible. Following are some of the more important sections.

The year covered by this report has been an encouraging one. The alumni organization appears to be somewhat stronger than a year ago, if increased activity, new local units, larger attendance at meetings, response to a broadened program and the improvements in dues payments are criteria by which one may judge.

While we are all aware of the size of our graduating classes today, the effect of these recent classes upon our alumni organization may not be fully appreciated. Since the General Alumni Association was reorganized in 1919, the number of graduates has grown from 2,590 to 5,799. In addition there are 2,902 non-graduates, a total of 8,701 in the active lists. Our numbers have doubled during the fifteen years since the reorganization of the Association. Of very real significance and importance, is the fact that during this period while the number of men doubled the number of women has more than trebled.

Much of the work to which your secretary has devoted time during the year, is covered in committee reports and will not here be duplicated since all committee reports are carefully filed. The plan under which the secretary devotes nearly half time to Endowment and Donations work for the University has continued in effect this year. A separate report covers this activity.

Alumni Organization
Basic to any successful alumni program is an organization thru and by which activities can be promoted and results achieved. There are three distinct divisions in our alumni organization: (a) The General Alumni Association; (b) The Local Associations; (c) The Classes.

Local Associations
Six new units have been formed or reorganized during the year making a total of 41 local associations. The new organizations are Lincoln County, Piscataquis County, Somerset County, in Maine; Boston Alumni, New York Alumni, and Baltimore, Md. It is significant that two of these were alumnae groups. It seems inevitable that as the number of alumnae becomes larger, that separate local organizations will be established. The interests of men and women are too divergent to weld them into a single unit. Time has demonstrated the apparent wisdom of encouraging separate units with one combined meeting each year so far as possible. The organization of new associations is encouraged only when there appears to be real local interest and initiative.

Sixty meeting are known to have been held, doubtless the number is greater. The reported attendance at 50 of these meetings was 2,336, a good increase over last year.

Three associations, White Mountains, Oxford County, and Twin Cities, did not report any meetings. They may have held a meeting but did not report it.

Emphasis was placed upon the need for local clubs to have some activity other than just to hold meetings. The need for scholarships was pointed out as an opportunity for the groups to undertake an activity which would mean much to the University and might put new life and meaning into their association.

The Class Organization
Other than a few bright spots our class organization is weak. To make this statement is perhaps but a repetition of other years. With the exceptions of the last four classes the only duty of classes is to arrange a reunion periodically. The four youngest classes also write their personals for the Alumnus. 1934 will leave the campus well organized and with sufficient funds to stage their first reunion well. This class, too, has pioneered by having purchased and paid for in full a $1,000 insurance policy to mature prior to their (25th) reunion so that they will be able to present the University with a substantial gift at that time. 1909, the 25 year class, plans to make a gift to the University this Commencement. It is hoped that this will be but the start of a regular custom which all succeeding 25 year classes will follow.

Old Timers Club
Alumni beyond the 50 year class rarely return for Commencement. Their members are so few that an enjoyable class reunion seems all but, if not quite, impossible. Some have frankly said they have left the campus rather "homesick" because they had seen so few of their time, and they did not plan to return. During the last eleven years a total of only 49 alumni beyond the 50 year class have registered at Commencement.
Would it be feasible to form or foster the formation of an organization which might be known as "The Old Timers Club" or some more appropriate name of which an alumnus automatically becomes a member when his class observes its 50th anniversary? All alumni of classes 50 years and beyond could meet as a unit. Emphasis would not be placed so much upon class affiliation as upon association with others of the same relative age. Such a plan seems necessary until our older classes have greater numerical strength.

Alumni Directory
A printed directory, financed by the University, was published last summer and distributed during the fall. The edition was 7634 copies costing $3,499.22.

There are now 8600 names in our active list. To maintain alphabetical, geographical, and class lists for all these is becoming no small task. Thus far we have been able to keep the proportion of lost alumni at a reasonably low figure. Our files show that 203 or 3% of all graduates, and 303 or 10% of all non-graduates in the active list as being obsolete. This figure of 3% is believed the lowest reported during my six years.

The Alumnus
While many alumni have been generous or kind in their expression of approval of the Alumnus, it is not what it should be. The volume for the current year has contained more feature articles of unusual interest than any previous year's numbers. These have been appreciated. The press, both local and otherwise, have used more of the feature articles than heretofore.

The total number of copies printed for the first eight numbers is 43,200, being 200 more than last year, and containing 140 pages as contrasted with 136 for the same period in 1932-33. More space has been devoted to personalities and largely to the somewhat longer and more interesting personalities written by the 1933 class secretary.

Advertising has been a problem. The percentage is down to 22.5%, about 2/5% less than last year which was slightly off previous high. It seems extremely difficult to secure new advertising to replace losses.

Alumni Homecoming
The third annual Alumni Homecoming was held November 10-11. Judging from numbers, it would appear that this was the most successful yet held. A detailed statement is to be appended to this report which covers the event quite completely.

In this connection, we should consider the possibility of a special event which would bring alumni parents to the campus to join with their sons and daughters in a brief social and educational program.

Moving Pictures
Two 400 foot reels of 16 mm. motion picture film have been made depicting campus scenes. These were offered without cost to local associations. They were shown 24 times to approximately 1050 people.

Most of the pictures were taken by Dr. C. A. Dickinson, head of the Psychology Department, who gave hours of time both in taking the pictures and in developing the reels. His assistance was a most important factor in this activity and he should be given a vote of appreciation in recognition of his services.

Placement Service
The Placement Service Committee is going to recommend that the University should establish a Placement and Personnel Bureau. Whether the Alumni Association should undertake to start Placement work on a limited scale is open for consideration. There are some who feel it should be done, funds permitting. Certain others prefer that nothing should be done until the University is ready to start under a well developed plan. Your secretary has done more along this line in recent months than during any of the preceding five years.

Cooperation
It is an inspiration, a privilege and an opportunity to serve the Alumni of the University of Maine with such assistance and cooperation as I have had. Almost without exception committee members have gladly and ably filled the positions to which they were appointed. The progress of the Association, if any has been made, is unquestionably due to the counsel, advice and assistance of these men who have given generously of their time and often of their funds for the welfare of the Association.

Thirty German Books Given to University
The University has announced, through Dr. Robert R. Drummond '05, head of department of German, a gift of books on German language and literature presented to the University by Mr. R. E. Downing of Bangor. Dr. Drummond states that these books will be very helpful and useful to students studying German. They have been placed in the Seminar room in the Library. Mr. Downing is now taking some advanced work at the University.

Memorial Fund Finances
Ralph Whittier, '02, treasurer of Memorial Fund and Memorial Building committees, submitted audited reports at the annual meeting of the General Alumni Association.

Congratulations, "Prexy" and Mrs. Boardman

"Soon I will lie just an alumnus with you all once again, and will continue to have the finest of feeling toward and interest in our University,"

These are the concluding words spoken by President Boardman in an informal, perhaps somewhat more intimate, talk than he has heretofore given before alumni at the General Alumni Association annual meeting.

They reflect in a degree the feelings of relief and of well earned pleasure which are about to come as he leaves the office of presidency. They make clear, too, his fine attitude toward the University. It would indeed be most unfortunate to have it otherwise after his nearly forty years of service to the University.

For nine years "Prexy" has been guiding the destinies of the University. During that time it has gone through the largest building program in its history. More major faculty appointments have had to be made than during any preceding administration. Changes have been made in the curricula, and the last two years the University has had to operate under sharp reductions in budget. These, and a host of other matters, have weighed heavily upon him.

Throughout his tenure of office, however, "Boardy," if we may now speak so informally, has shown a keen interest in and desire to meet with alumni to give them a word picture of the University, its developments, policies, plans, and hopes. He has done this in spite of the many pressing problems on the campus, and perhaps, too, at the expense of undermining his health.

It is hardly necessary for the Alumnus to speak words of regret and appreciation for alumni. These were effectively expressed by earnest tributes paid him both at the General Alumni Association meeting and again more strikingly at the Alumni Banquet.

May we add a word, too, for Mrs. Boardman who has so ably, pleasantly, and tactfully fulfilled the duties which inevitably devolve upon the wife of the President of the University.

We congratulate both President and Mrs. Boardman upon their work and extend sincere wishes for their future and long continued good health and happiness.

Good Work, Mr. Deering!

To Arthur L. Deering '12 who has so ably served as president of the General Alumni Association for the last three years we pay tribute. Few if any persons other than the secretary and former presidents of the Association understand and appreciate the demands which this office makes upon one’s time.

Mr. Deering’s friendly, tactful, thoughtful, and constructive ways and methods have been a tower of strength to our organization. He has built good will. He has cemented the interest of alumni to their University. His leadership, his interest, and his devotion, entirely devoid of selfish aims and motives, have been an inspiration and an example to alumni who may not have realized quite so fully their importance to the future of the University.

Indeed, we have been fortunate in our Association presidents. Looking back over the list, those who preceded Mr. Deering are Fogler ’15, Sutton ’09, and Stephens ’99, all within the time and acquaintance of your present secretary. Each has made an enviable record measured both in terms of what they personally contributed to the progress of the alumni program and what the Association accomplished during their presidency. Doubtless their predecessors, too, set a high standard.

Moreover, we may confidently look forward to the new administration under George Williams ’05. In business he has won the loyalty and esteem of fellow workers. His interest in the University has become conspicuous and his ability is well known.

The next issue of The Alumnus will be published October 1. Here’s wishing you a pleasant summer.
Boston Alumnae Reorganized

Twenty-five alumnae residing in Greater Boston attended a meeting May 19 at The Club, Berkeley Street, Boston, at which time they voted to re-establish an organization for University of Maine Alumnae of Greater Boston. This event was arranged by a committee as a result of a preliminary meeting of a few alumnae interested in creating that organization.

Elizabeth Bright '17, Sue Mooers and Peg Bleden made arrangements for the gathering.

A nominating committee composed of June Kelly '12, Eleanor Jackson '20 and Cora Emery '26, considered the type of organization to be established and officers to be elected. It was decided to have an informal type of association consisting of a chairman and a committee. The chairman elected was Elizabeth Bright '17, with Mabel Powell McGinley '05, Martha Woodbury '21, Christine MacLaughlin '27, Marian Hawkes '29, and Margaret Churchill '32 to serve as the committee members.

They proposed to have a meeting early in the fall to welcome new alumnae of this section.

Somerset County Alumni Reorganization

Even optimists were surprised at the remarkable turnout of 110 alumna, wives, and friends in Skowhegan, April 27. After a preliminary discussion it was voted to reorganize the Somerset Association which has not been active for nearly ten years.

Gerald Dunn, who was chairman of the committee on arrangements, presided at the meeting. Speakers were Samuel Gould '77, former trustee; E. T. Danforth '77, Alumni Secretary Crossland, and Dean James Muilenburg, College of Arts and Sciences. The alumni movies were also shown.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Leon W. Smiley '12; vice-president, Gerald C. Marble '17; secretary-treasurer, Gerald Dunn '23, and one key man in the important alumni centers in the county.

Record Attendance at Western Maine

The dining room of the Portland Y.M.C.A. was taxed nearly to its capacity when 154 men turned out for the annual meeting of the Western Maine Alumni Association to which members of the York County Association had been invited.

There were eighteen York County Alumnae on hand.

Ollie Berg, president, was in charge and introduced speakers, Alumni Secretary Crossland '17 and Dean Arthur L. Deering '12, president of the Alumni Association.

Music for the occasion was furnished by the Bye Family Ensemble. Following the formal program members joined in activities such as basketball, swimming or other games which are available in the Y.M.C.A.

Piscataquis Alumni Organize

The first "get-together" of the Maine Alumni of Piscataquis County was held at The Braeburn Hotel in Guilford, Tuesday, May 8. The occasion was a seven o'clock banquet followed by a short business meeting relative to the forming of a Piscataquis County Alumni Association.

Oscar L. Wyman '26 was toastmaster at the banquet and chairman of the business meeting. We were fortunate in having Mr. Charles E. Crossland and Dean A. L. Deering present who spoke about the formation of an alumni association and how such an association, if active, might benefit the University in many ways.

After voting to form a Piscataquis County Association, the following officers were elected: R. M. Davis '11, president; F. R. Bigney '10, vice-president; Freda Crozier '31, secretary-treasurer.

After the business meeting Mr. Crossland showed moving pictures of University of Maine people and scenes which were tremendously interesting to us all.

There were fifty-five alumni present at the banquet and all enjoyed this first "get-together" which we hope will be only the first of many.

Freda Crozier '31, Secretary

Cummings, H. '28, Addresses Philadelphians

A. L. T. Cummings, H. '28, and formerly a faculty member, now of Portland, addressed the Philadelphia Alumni Association, April 24.

In spite of the unusually heavy electrical storms, there was a fine attendance interested in Mr. Cummings's stories and address, and the music was furnished by Miss Helen Hayes, pianist, and Miss Louise Zehring, harpist, both of the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music. It was one of the best meetings ever held.

G. O. Ladner, Secretary

Portland Alumnae Entertained High School Seniors

At a meeting held May 31, Portland Alumnae of University of Maine entertained a few seniors from three local high schools. G. A. Harrison, of the Grand Trunk Railroad, showed interesting pictures.

By vote it was decided that future watches to be given by this group and awarded to that member of the senior class who by vote is considered as having done most for her class, will be known as the Portland Alumnae Watch.

The next meeting is to be in the form of a picnic at the summer home of Mrs. George Black '88.

Mrs. John Flynn '26, Secretary

Morse '22 Heads Knox Association

The annual meeting of the Knox County University of Maine Alumni Association was held at the Copper Kettle in Rockland, April 24, with friends and guests present. President John L. Tewksbury made a few remarks welcoming the new members and guests. He then introduced Alumni Secretary Charles E. Crossland who brought greetings from President Boardman and told us of the important campus and alumni happenings.

Elmer True, Miss Katherine Veazie, and Dr. Burton Flanders were appointed as a nominating committee. The following officers were elected: F. L. S. Morse '22 president; Mrs. Helen Wentworth '20 vice-president; secretary-treasurer, Miss Katherine Veazie '30; Atwood Levensaler '32, Milford Payson '30, Mrs. Ethel Sezak '31 executive committee.

Dr. James Muilenburg, Dean of the Arts college, was then introduced and gave us a most interesting talk on educational requirements of today, having for his subject "Can Education Carry Us on Our Way?" An informal discussion was held at the close of Dean Muilenburg's talk.

Throughout the dinner hour the singing of Maine songs was enjoyed.

Katherine A. Veazie, Secretary

N. Y. Alumnae Elect Mrs. Estabrook

The second meeting of the New York Women's Maine Alumnae Association was held May 5 at Alice Foote MacDougall's restaurant. Twenty-two were present for the meeting and a luncheon bridge. It was voted to elect Mrs. Estabrook, H. '26, former beloved matron of Mount Vernon dormitory, an honorary member.

Jean Campbell '31, Secretary

A careful record of dues payments made by each alumna is on file in the Alumni Association Office.
Carlisle '09 Elected President

Eighty-five alumni, wives, and friends, attended a meeting of the Penobscot Valley Alumni Association, April 25, to pay final tribute to President and Mrs. Harold S. Boardman, before the President retires from office. When Maurice D. Jones, president of the Association presented Prexy, he was given a big round of applause.

After a short talk by President Boardman, Alumni Secretary Crossland spoke briefly about scholarships and was followed by Dean Arthur L. Deering and Professor C. P. Weston, who were the speakers of the evening.

George T. Carlisle '09 of Bangor, was elected president and other officers as follows: vice-president, Harold M. Pierce '19, Bangor; secretary-treasurer, George Lord '25, Orono. Executive Committee—E. Donald Crowell '17, Gladys Merrill '15, both of Bangor; and V. H. Robinson '17, Old Town.

The singing of college and other songs was enjoyed with Neil Calderwood at the piano. Dancing and card playing concluded the program.

Vickery '31 Heads Waldo County Association

The annual meeting of the Waldo County Alumni Association was held in Equity Grange Hall, Belfast, May 5, with an attendance of 32 Alumni and friends. Speakers on this occasion were Dean of Agriculture, Arthur L. Deering, who is also president of the Alumni Association, and Alumni Secretary Crossland, who brought Alumni motion pictures. Kenneth C. Lovejoy, president of the association, was in charge of arrangements and presided at the meeting.

Officers elected were as follows: President, John A. Vickery; vice-president, Norris Clements, and secretary-treasurer, Doris Curtis.

The possibility of establishing a scholarship was discussed and favorable expression of opinion was secured.

Washington Association

Over forty members and guests of Alumni attended a meeting of the Washington, D. C. Alumni Association held April 17. E. O. Whittier '11, of the Association, presided and introduced Alumni Secretary Crossland, who discussed Alumni and campus subjects. Dr. F. Lamson Scribner '73, prominent alumnus, was introduced. The meeting was one of the best held in many years.

Alumni Homecoming is the next big alumni event. Save the dates of November 2 and 3.

Michigan Alumni

Seventeen alumni and wives gathered April 14 when Alumni Secretary Crossland visited the city, it being the first meeting held in two years. Following the dinner Secretary Crossland discussed subjects pertaining to the campus and alumni activities and the alumni moving pictures were shown.

Western Pennsylvania

About twenty-five alumni and guests held a meeting April 16, with Henry E. Cole '02, president of the association, presiding. Alumni Secretary, C. E. Crossland, spoke of campus and alumni activities and showed movies furnished by the Alumni Association.

Student Government Officers

Women Student Government officers for the coming year are Jean Walker, '35, of Millinocket, president; Elizabeth Shiro, '36, of Bangor, vice-president; Marie Archer, '36, of Milbridge, secretary; and Helen Titcomb, '37, of New Gloucester, treasurer.

Women's A.A. Elects Officers

Annie MacLellan, '35, of Weeks Mills, has been elected president of the Women's Athletic Association. Other officers are as follows: Louise Stevens, '36, of Lincoln, vice-president; Elizabeth Storey, '37, of Pigeon Cove, Mass., secretary; and Agnes Crowley, '35, of Biddeford, treasurer.

Freshmen Contribute to Student Loan Fund

The members of the freshman class voted at a recent class meeting to assess themselves fifty cents each, and make a gift to the Student Senate Loan Fund which was first established three years ago and to which each class since that time has made at least one gift.

Winners of Alumni Watches

Shirley Young, of Camden, was winner of the Portland Alumnae watch. Two Washington watches were awarded to men because of the closeness of the vote.

Officers Elected By The Reunion Classes

1884—Dr. E. S. Abbott, president; William Webber, vice-president; L. W. Cutter, secretary-treasurer; and R. S. Leighton, R. C. Patterson, and Dr. E. S. Abbott, executive committee.

1912—June Kelley, president; Karl Woodward, vice-president; Arthur L. Deering, secretary; and Maurice D. Jones, treasurer.

1913—James E. Church, secretary.

Sophomore Owls Pledged

Announcement of the election of eleven members of the freshman class to the honorary Sophomore Owl Society was made May 30. All eleven of these men have been outstanding athletes during the past year. They are as follows: Alton Bell, of Dennysville; Richard Braley, of Augusta; Wendell Brewster, of Dexter; Gilbert Bucknam, of Dexter; William Hunnewell, of Madison; Donald Kilgour, of Lowell; James Morrison, of Bradford; John Murray, of Bath; Robert True, of Newburyport; Harold Webb, of Augusta; and Frank Tapley, of Robinson.

Freshman Rules

Following the extensive class war between freshmen and sophomores this spring the Campus editorially urged a revision of the rules placing the responsibility for this change upon the Senior Skulls. After a study of the problem the Skulls brought out a new set of rules only slightly revised, according to the Campus, which again leveled criticism at the Skulls for a failure to do away entirely with the annual scrap.

MacBride Heads A.A.

As the result of the annual election, Milton MacBride, '35, of Easton, was chosen president of the Maine Athletic Association; George E. Cobb, of Auburn, senior representative on the athletic board; Myron G. Collette, of Spencer, Mass., junior representative; and William F. Hunnewell, of Madison, sophomore representative.

Tau Beta Pi Pledges Four

Honorary engineering society, Tau Beta Pi, announced the election of four juniors to its society as follows:

Women's A.A. Sponsors Play Day

As for several years past, the Women's Athletic Association sponsored the annual "Play Day" May 27 to which many high schools in this vicinity were invited to send representatives. About one hundred girls attended and participated in the program of sports, picnic, and a banquet.

Sophomore Eagle Society Chooses Ten Freshmen

The announcement of the ten women members of the freshman class elected to membership in Sophomore Eagle Society was made at the annual Freshman-Sophomore banquet May 9. This society succeeds the organization now known as Sophomore Siret Society, previously known as Sister Council. Those honored at this time are as follows: Mabelle Ashworth, of Orono; Carol Stevens, of Bath; Jane Sullivan, of Bangor; Barbara Lancaster, of Old Town; Elizabeth Ashby, of Caribou; Helene Cousins, of Storington; Madeline Frazier, of Norwood, Mass.; Elizabeth Storey, of Pigeon Cove, Mass.; Marjorie McKinnon, of Topsham, and Helen Titcomb, of New Gloucester.

By Board Members

The General Alumni Association is represented on the Athletic Board of the University by three members, who assist in determining the policies, programs and schedules of intercollegiate athletics. In addition to the three alumni there are three faculty, one trustee, and four student members.

Clifton A. Hall '10, of Bangor, who has been an alumni member of the Board for several years was reelected at the annual Association meeting to serve another three year term. Following is the report of the alumni members of the Athletic Board.

We are pleased to report a very successful season for athletics at the University for the year just ended, and we feel that students, alumni, and friends of the institution can point with pride to both the conduct of our teams and individuals, and also to their achievements, in the various fields of competition.

Our coaches and trainer have remained unchanged, and constitute one of the best round-out staffs to be found anywhere.

When the students returned last fall, they found the new Gymnasium completed, which gives Maine one of the best athletic plants in the country, and students, alumni and friends have cause to be proud of this addition to the campus. The alumni will be particularly interested in the action of the Athletic Board at the October 12th meeting, when they accepted the report of the Trophy Committee as follows: "The south corner of the second story of the Alumni Memorial Gymnasium be used as a Trophy Room, and pictures shall be displayed in other parts of the building in large panels arranged chronologically by sports. The Trophy Room to be suitably equipped from the M. Chamberlain Peirce Fund, and be called the M. Chamberlain Peirce Trophy Room." This room is now completed and it is felt that it will be especially appreciated by returning alumni.

Maine Wins Second in State Series

Four victories and five defeats in the state series gave Maine a tie for second place in the scramble for the baseball championship this year. Colby was decidedly better than the other three teams, losing but one of the nine games while Bowdoin placed last with but two victories.

Starting the season with four varsity men the Maine team looked good in open games but as the season advanced they seemed to lose power. Fielding was erratic which permitted a number of unearned runs. According to one publication, Maine had the poorest fielding average of the four colleges in the state. The loss of MacBride about mid-season due to a shoulder injury undoubtedly weakened the team.

The Maine lineup for most of the games has been as follows: pitchers, Hoyt, Henderson, Golobsky; with Alley and Wakely; 1st base, Woodbury; 2nd base, Anderson; short stop, Marshall, who succeeded MacBride after injury; 3rd base, R. Osgood; left field, Walton; center field, Aldrich; right field, S. Osgood and Pruett.

Following are brief summaries of games more previously reported in the Alumnus.

Colby 7—Maine 0

Farum was decidedly too much for Maine in the game with Waterville, May 8, holding our team to 4 hits, two of which were made by Walton. Five errors by Maine assisted Colby in turning their 10 hits into 7 runs. Henderson pitched for Maine.

Maine 14—Bates 5

Bates garnered but 5 hits of Hoyt's pitching while Maine was collecting 12 hits from 4 Bates pitchers. Aldrich and...
Track Team Wins Two Dual Meets
Places Fourth in New England's

Coach Chester Jenkins' track men made a very credible season's showing by defeating Springfield and Bates in dual meets placing fourth in the New England Meet and winning a first place in the hammer throw in the I.C.A.A.A.A. games at Philadelphia.

Of the entire track team only two consistent point winners are lost by graduation. Don Favor, honorary captain and conspicuous scorer in hammer, discus, and pole vaulting, completes his course this year, as does Hayden Rogers, who has developed remarkably as a hammer thrower and who made a mark of more than 160 feet at the Bates Meet this spring.

Maine 69 1/2—Springfield 65 1/2

Springfield gave Maine track men a real scare in a dual meet May 5 on Alumni Field. It was not until near the last event that Maine was assured of victory. Parks of Springfield was high score man with 19 points, Don Favor second with 11 points.

Following are the times and distances of Maine winners: 120 high hurdles, Goddard, 16 sec.; 440 yd. dash, K. Black, 52 1/2 sec.; 880 yd. dash, Marsh, 1 min. 59 1/2 sec.; one mile run, tie E. Black, Saunders, and Emerson, 4 min. 40 sec.; 2 mile run, Cole and Wishart, 10 min. 41 2/5 sec.; hammer throw, Favor, 167 feet; javelin, 164 feet 1 1/2 inches; pole vault, 10 feet 6 inches.

Maine Places Fourth in New England's

In place of the State Track Meet which, as announced in the May 155, was not to be held this year, Bates and Maine held a dual meet in Orono, May 12, with Maine winning 79 to 56.

Our track team won first place in every running event which was largely responsible for victory. Bates freshman, Kishon, garnered 19 points in field events, while Maurice Goddard, a junior, tallied 15 points for Maine.

Following are the times and distances of Maine winners: 120 yd. high hurdles, Goddard, 16 sec.; 440 yd. dash, K. Black, 52 1/2 sec.; 880 yd. dash, Marsh, 1 min. 59 1/2 sec.; one mile run, E. Black, Saunders, and Emerson, 4 min. 40 sec.; 2 mile run, Cole and Wishart, 10 min. 41 2/5 sec.; hammer throw, Favor, 167 feet; discus, Favor, 134 feet 1/2 inches; javelin, Totman, 164 feet 10 1/2 inches.

Freshmen Win Three Track Meets

The Freshman Track Team won three of the four outdoor track meets this spring, being defeated by only one-third of a point by the Aroostook combination when four of the men were absent to compete in the New England Track Meet.

Webb, consistent winner of both the high and low hurdles and high jumper, having the mark of 5 feet 10 inches, has been the high scoring individual on the freshman team. Hunnewell, a national Freshman Cross Country champion, has featured in the one-half mile and one mile runs with times of around 2 minutes for the shorter distance and 4 min. 30 sec. for the mile. Gatti has done the quarter mile in under 53 sec. and Bell has consistently thrown javelin over 170 feet.

1934 Football Schedule

To assist the Alumni in reserving dates and making plans for major events this fall the football schedule is as follows:

Sept. 29 Rhode Island at Orono
Oct. 6 Lowell Textile at Orono
Oct. 13 Dartmouth at Hanover
Oct. 20 New Hampshire at Durham
Oct. 27 Bates at Orono
Nov. 3 Colby at Orono
Nov. 10 Bowdoin at Brunswick
Alumni homecoming will take place November 2-3.

Maine Places Fourth in New England's

Sixteen points garnered by Favor, Black brothers, and Saunders placed Maine in fourth position in New England's meet, following Bowdoin with 26, Northeastern 24 1/2 and M.I.T. with 17 1/2.

Favor won second in the hammer throw, E. Black and H. Saunders, respectively, second and third in the mile and K. Black second in the half mile.

Favor Wins Hammer Throw in I.C.A.A.A.A.

At the 58th Intercollegiate A.A.A. track and field championships, held in Philadelphia, Don Favor placed first in the hammer throw, with a heave of 170 feet 9 inches, defeating the man who had won over him in the New England's. The only other Maine entry was K. Black in the 880 who placed fifth in his event.

Favor Selected for N.C.A.A. Games

Don Favor, honorary captain of the Maine track team, has been selected as one of twenty-three eastern college athletes to compete at the N.C.A.A. Games which are to take place in Los Angeles, June 22 and 23.

Favor, by virtue of having won the hammer throw at the I.C.A.A.A.A. games in Philadelphia in May, is rated as one of the foremost hammer throwers in the country. At Los Angeles he will meet virtually the same competition as he had in Philadelphia. He is considered to have a form which approaches perfection. Weighing but 168 or 170 pounds, he succeeds in throwing the 16 lb. hammer consistently 170 feet or better, or a foot to a pound of weight, which is recognized as a most unusual achievement. He has shown improvement throughout his four years at Maine and has made several throws well in excess of his best competitive mark.

While he is in Los Angeles the Alumni and Southern California Alumni Association are to entertain him.

Freshmen Win Three Track Meets

The Freshman Track Team won three of the four outdoor track meets this spring, being defeated by only one-third of a point by the Aroostook combination when four of the men were absent to compete in the New England Track Meet.

Wehh, consistent winner of both the high and low hurdles and high jumper, having the mark of 5 feet 10 inches, has been the high scoring individual on the freshman team. Hunnewell, a national Freshman Cross Country champion, has featured in the one-half mile and one mile runs with times of around 2 minutes for the shorter distance and 4 min. 30 sec. for the mile. Gatti has done the quarter mile in under 53 sec. and Bell has consistently thrown javelin over 170 feet.

Athletics Reviewed

The Board hoped that the new Base­ball Field would be ready for this spring's schedule, but it was found to be impossible. We feel sure, however, that it will be ready for next season.

To the Alumni who have kept in touch with spring track athletics, it must have been evident that the method of conduct­ing the State Track Meet under the rules of the M.I.T. & F.A. has been far from satisfactory to the Athletic Board for the past several years. Maine Interco­legiate competition in other sports is con­ducted under the rules of the M.I.A.A. with complete harmony and success, but for the conduct of this one event, the State Meet, there has existed a sort of orphan organization known as the Maine Intercollegiate Track & Field Association, having its own set of rules and reg­ulations. For a long time, the Athletic Board has felt that many of these rules were unfair, unnecessary and out-of-date, and that the constitution of the M.I.T. & F.A. should be abandoned, and the State Meet conducted in the manner of the IC4A, New England IAA or Dual Meets. However, due to one of the rules of M.I.T. & F.A., i.e., it takes a three­fourths vote to change the constitution, it has never been possible to effect changes that would be satisfactory.

This Spring the Board decided not to compete under the above mentioned rules, and at a meeting held April 25, 1934, it was voted that the University of Maine would not compete in the State Track Meet of 1934. At that time it was a matter of record that Colby had withdrawn from competition in the State Meet sev­eral weeks earlier, and that Bates had also voted to withdraw. The Athletic Board hopes to see future State Track Meets held under satisfactory conditions, but can report no progress to date.

Respectfully submitted,

Gift is Feature of Class Day Exercises

At the conclusion of the formal part of Class Day program held June 7 in the Oval, Philip Parsons, president of the Class of 1934, presented to the University a full paid insurance policy having a face value of one thousand dollars which will mature just prior to the 25th anniversary of the graduation of this class. In presenting this gift, Parsons said it was a token expressing in a small, yet tangible, way the appreciation of the members of the class of what the University had done for them.

Those having a part in the Class Day exercises are as follows: John Quinn, valedictorian; Shirley Young, class historian; Edward DeCourcy and Alice Dyer, presentation of gifts; Kenneth Foster, class orator; Ernestine Moore, class poet; and Dorothy Davis and Clifford Ladd, class prophecy.

Pageant

Following the Class Day exercises occurred the eighth annual pageant entitled "The Book of Romance," written by Marcia Edgerton Bailey and there was as usual a large audience on hand to observe this masque which was presented on Coburn Green. The pageant was directed by Mrs. Bailey who has directed all of the previous pageants. Over fifty girls had a part in this pleasing event.

DEATHS

'75 George M. Shaw, 80, of Oakland, California, sole remaining partner of Oakland's oldest law firm, died April 17th at his home, 476 Townsend St., after a brief illness. He was a native of Maine who went to California and taught school in the Mother Lode country, studying law in the evenings. Forty-four years ago he went to Oakland and opened a law office, later going into partnership with James A. Johnson. Shaw celebrated his golden wedding with the woman who is now his widow, Mrs. Estelle Porter Shaw, last year. In addition to his widow he leaves two sons, J. Porter Shaw, an attorney, and George M. Shaw, Jr.

'82 Wesley J. Jameson, 72, of St. Paul, Minn., president and treasurer of the Jameson-Heyvern wholesale feed company in St. Paul, which was established in 1892, died May 10th in Midway hospital after a short illness. Mr. Jameson is survived by his widow, a son, Wesley J. Jameson, Jr., and a daughter, Alice Mary Jameson, both of St. Paul, and also a daughter, Mrs. John S. Boyce, of New Haven, Conn. Also surviving are two brothers and three sisters: Frederick Elmer Jameson, of Warren, Maine, Mrs. John Munsey, of Warren, Mrs. S. V. Weaver, of Camden, Maine, and Mrs. Fred Monk, of Miami, Fla. Mr. Jameson was born in Warren and went to St. Paul in 1883 residing there since that time. He was a life member of the St. Paul Athletic club and for twenty years had served on the executive board of the St. Paul Relief society. Burial was in Oakland cemetery.

'07 Thomas A. Malloy, 48, former Bangor newspaper man, died in Buffalo, N. Y. on March 29th and left a brief illness. He had been employed recently on the Buffalo Times. Mr. Malloy was born in Lewiston. He first worked in Bangor on the Commercial reportorial staff and later was telegraph editor. His first newspaper work was with the Springfield Union and he also worked on the Trenton, N. J., News, the Philadelphia Public Ledger, the Wilmington, Del., News, and in the Pittsburgh office of the Associated Press. In 1930 Mr. Malloy was for several months on the city staff of the Bangor News. When he attended the University he was identified with various publications and was editor of the Prism. Surviving Mr. Malloy are his wife, two brothers, four sisters, and several nieces and nephews.

'08 Ralph Wentworth Goss, 53, former municipal court judge, died suddenly on June 12th at the C. M. G. Hospital in Lewiston. After he was graduated from the University he opened a law office in Berwick. He had been treasurer of the town and recorder of the court. His widow, two children, and a brother, all of Berwick, survive.

'09 Herman Brackett Smith died at his home, 830 Dixie Lane, Plainfield, N. J., on April 28th.

'10 The body of Colby Curtis, 45, of Bangor, railway mail clerk on the Bangor-Vanceboro run, who, with another mail clerk, was drowned in Moosehead Lake on June 30, was found May 1st in Squaw Bay. Mr. Curtis was drowned while fishing.

'14 The death of Capt. Woodbury F. Pride, 42, a native of Maine, was reported May 27 at Fort Riley. He had been stationed at Fort Riley for several years and was the author of a history of Fort Riley. Mr. Pride entered the U. S. Army at the beginning of the World War as a provisional second lieutenant. His commission was made permanent and he remained in the service and was one of the senior captains. Commissioned in cavalry, he had the highest academic and horsemanship ratings in the 1922 troops officers' class at Fort Riley. He was the only son of Nathan and Alice Pride. Surviving relatives include his mother, his widow, and two children.

'20 George H. Jordan died suddenly on May 5 at the Memorial Hospital, Manchester, Conn. He was agency organizer for the Mutual Life Insurance Company at Hartford, Conn. Burial services were from the Wilde Memorial Chapel, Evergreen Cemetery, Portland. He is survived by his wife, a son, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jordan, of Portland.

'31 Germaine L'Heureux, 23, of Lewiston, who was a teacher of French at Edward Little High School, died April 25th at St. Mary's Hospital as the result of injuries suffered in an automobile accident. Miss L'Heureux was run down by a truck, as she was on her way to school.
