The third system concludes the vocal and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "sunshine falls a - - cross her . . . breast , She is so blest . . . , she is so blest ,".

I'm envious of its arms of gold, Oh, that these arms her form might enfold.

The stars look paler at the sight . . . Her smile's so bright, Her smile's so bright, There's naught in earth, in air or sky . . . But sparkles as . . . she passes by; Her eyes are deep as vi-o-lets blue, She is so true, she is so true.

Oh! may she smile, for now I seek. To calm my heart, my love I'll speak. The gen - - de breezes kiss her hair... She is so fair... she is so fair. Let flow'rs and sun and breeze go by... Oh, dearest, love... me or I die.
