Forbes highlights Quirk's project as pandemic-era teaching innovation

September 3, 2021

Forbes highlighted an assignment from Katie Quirk in a story about innovations in higher education borne from the COVID-19 pandemic. Quirk, a preceptor in the University of Maine Honors College, tasked students in her creative arts course with "exploring how art sparks conversation and social connection during times of crisis" in her "Documenting the Pandemic" assignment, according to the report.
