Maine Alumnus, Volume 43, Number 2, November-December, 1961

General Alumni Association, University of Maine

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.library.umaine.edu/alumni_magazines

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the History Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.library.umaine.edu/alumni_magazines/247

This publication is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@UMaine. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Maine Alumni Magazines by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@UMaine. For more information, please contact um.library.spc@maine.edu.
In This Issue

- What Is A Maine Student?
- Homecoming - - 1961
- New Officers Introduced Wonder where YOUR MONEY GOES?

You won't when you have a Merrill Trust checking account. It can help you to budget and also help you at income tax time. Plus... you can pay all your bills at one stop... your nearest mailbox.

THE MERRILL TRUST COMPANY
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation • Member Federal Reserve System
Fifteen Offices Serving Eastern Maine
How do you measure a career?

By earnings?
The 1960 average earnings of Massachusetts Mutual full-time representatives with five or more years experience was $18,505. The top 100 averaged $28,387.

By the quality of the people with whom you deal?
Our clients — individuals and business organizations — buy over a billion dollars of new ordinary life insurance each year, plus almost half a billion of group. Our average ordinary policy in 1960, excluding those issued in pension plans, was $15,952. Business Insurance accounted for almost $175 million of our 1960 new business, and premiums from pension and profit sharing plans totaled over $57 million. We now have 48 clients each owning a million or more of Massachusetts Mutual life insurance.

By the caliber of the people with whom you work?
Our Field Force receives an unusually high proportion of the top honors among all life insurance men and women — a good indication of the caliber of the persons associated with the company.

1 in 3 won the National Quality award last year.
1 in 7 are Chartered Life Underwriters — which means they have successfully completed the comprehensive study course and met the professional standards of the American College of Life Underwriters.

1 in 10 qualified for the 1961 Million Dollar Round Table.

YOUR fellow-alumni are with us
Massachusetts Mutual men and women are successful in their chosen field and enjoy the rewards of working among successful clients with colleagues whose education and background are similar to their own. Listed below are your fellow-alumni who are associated with our company.

Interested? Write today for a free copy of "A Selling Career."

MASSACHUSETTS MUTUAL Life Insurance Company
SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS • ORGANIZED 1851

Some of the University alumni in Massachusetts Mutual service:
Harold H. Inman, '30, Bangor
Edward P. Cyr, '39, Bangor
James H. Roberts, C.L.U., '42, Grand Rapids
David P. Buchanan, '48, Bangor
Claude S. Chittick, '48, Rochester, N. H.
Averill L. Black, '51, Ft. Fairfield
Ansel J. Mace, '55, Bangor
Robert J. Pelletier, '58, Home Office
Robert W. Brundage, '58, Danbury
Dexter A. Huntoon, '58, Portland
Gilbert Roderick, '59, Home Office
Robert Samson, '59, Home Office
Diane F. Roderick, '60, Home Office
Nancy E. Waisanen, '60, Home Office
Norma F. Harris, '61, Home Office
Robert L. Sullivan, '61, Home Office
FIRST ROW, left to right: Georgianna K. Ellis, Bangor (Gilbert M. '39, H. Milton '08, grandfather, deceased); Brenda Webster, Bar Harbor (William C. Jr., '38); Jane L. Tompkins, Island Falls (Lawrence E. '34); Margaret L. Boothby, Kokkola (A. Hamilton '35); Julie Love, Melrose, Mass. (Roy F. Allen '02, grandfather, deceased); Marion Hitchings, Darien, Conn. (George F. '37, Pauline Davey '39, Edson F. Hitchings '75, great-grandfather, deceased); Linda M. Curtis, Cape Elizabeth (Clifton E. '31); Charlotte A. Grant, Waterville (Belford '43); Stephanie L. Kane, Cape Elizabeth (Roland S. Dingley '16, grandfather); Pamela A. Braley, Augusta (Richard D. '37); Marilyn M. Morton, Farmington (Richard G. '40); Mary-Ellyn Spear, Kittery (Ross P. '30); Diane F. Cuzzo, Bangor (G. Vincent '31).

SECOND ROW, left to right: Rebecca A. Clifford, Bangor (George E. '43, Priscilla Arbo '45, Paul P. Arbo '27, grandfather); Linda Mansfield, Melrose, Mass. (Clifford S. '35); Mary H. Rogers, Rumford (Hayden S. '34); Paulette Adophine Kellar, Upson Montpelier (N. L. Lyndon M. '36, Adolphine Voegelin '38); Trudy Heath Blanchard, Mars Hill (Russell P. '41); Nancy Troland, Hingham, Mass. (Edwin P. '38); Joan C. Bradgon, Lincoln (George '27); Amy L. Cook, Tennant's Harbor (William S. '40); Sonia Smith Whitney, Cornina (Ralph G. Smith '40, Meredith Lewis '38); Nancy L. Thibeau, Caribou (Francis O. '45); Stephanie P. Barry, Bucksport (Stephen '33, Marvia P. '32); Marjorie E. Libby, Orono (Winthrop C. '32, Elizabeth Tryon '33); Natalie A. Jackson, So. Portland (Raymond A. '33); Martha R. Scott, Farmington (Erm H. '31); Patricia A. Derry, Congaree Falls, Oho (John H. '40); Mary E. Dudley, Winthrop (Elizabeth H. Davis '33); Ann C. Brown, Needham, Mass. (Paul C. '36, Athea Mellett '38); Anne F. Clissor, Ambler, Pa. (Luke E. '28, James E. '00, grandfather, deceased); Marney L. McLean, Elsworth (Harris L. '42); Sylvia F. Sawyer, Waterford (Edward E. '36); Pamela Goodwin, Westboro, Mass. (Frank R. '30, Ruth Shurteill '35); Sharon Wood, Old Town (Marjorie P. Wood '60); Helen A. Downing, Bangor (Kenneth W. '29, Helen McDonough, M.S. '37); Jeanne E. Noyes, Bangor (Estelle R. '33).

THIRD ROW, left to right: Thomas H. Morse, Bangor (Nathan S. '34, Katherine Murphy '38); James E. Poulin, Jr., Westfield, Mass. (Robert E. Deskein '44, Kenneth H. '41, Jean W. '41, Kitterman C. '31); Robert C. McKee, Bernard; J. David Emollo, Hume, Mass. (John H. '33); Ronald K. Dearborn, Dexter (Marion Knox Bearborn '59); Pamela L. Perkins, Bangor (Katherine P. Perkins '56); Karen A. Milner, Holliston, Mass. (George F. '34); Marjorie A. McGraw, East Blue Hill (Eleanor Cousins '39); Pamela M. Woolley, Orono (T. Russell '41); Judy F. Kimball, Pittsfield, Mass. (Barlett C. Charles, B. Kimball, great-grandfather '04, deceased); Elizabeth A. Look, Reading, Mass. (Sidney '35); Melissa Calderwood, Bangor (George C. '38); Martha L. Hunt, Sheffield, Mass. (William S. '37, Alice Harvey '38, Chandler C. Harvey '90, grandfather, deceased); Sally A. Howe, Lincoln (Leon S. Jr., '31); James E. Whitten, Lee (Robert '31); Charles F. Treat, Jr., Randolph (Charles F. '37); Robert W. Perkins, Hallowell (Walter H. '55); John R. Runyan, Wellesley, Mass. (Mary-Hale Sutton '38, Harry E. Sutton '09, grandfather, deceased, George A. Sutton '83, great-grandfather, deceased); Edward C. Sherry, Jr., Manhasset, N. Y. (Edward C. '38); Arthur M. Angle, Barnegat, N. J. (Roland Dodge '10, grandfather, deceased); Donald R. Chase, Sharon, Mass. (Richard H. '41, Mary Crossman '43).

FOURTH ROW, left to right: Parker A. Denaco, Bangor (Allen P. '32, Richard E. Page, Dover-Foxcroft (Woodrow Evans '35); Reynold B. Potter, Stratton (Reynold E. '37); E. Folson Hill, Brewer (Albert E. '41); James L. Brown, Waterford (Earl D. '34); Roger W. Burke, Jr., Lewiston (Roger W. '36, Beatrice Cummings '34); Arthur L. Crouse, Jr., Patten (Arthur L. '38); James L. Tompkins, Island Falls (Lawrence '34); Michael H. Round, Orono (Doris E. LaPointe '30); Talbot William Johnston, Jr., Washington (William S. Johnston '16, deceased); Myron S. Hoyt, Phillips (Winston '33); Peter H. Clough, Portland (Charles H., Jr. '40, Pauline Cushing '41); Alan G. Sawyer, Augusta (Ralph H. '33, Etta Grange '35); George W. Morse, Waterford (Wilson M. Morse '14, grandfather); Paul E. Riutta, York (Odis J. Demers '16, grandfather); John H. Robbins, Orono (John L. Robbins '03, grandfather); Dustin W. Creamer, Bangor (Walter J. '18); Stephen H. Lewis, Newton, Mass. (Ermond F. '30); Richard N. Lord, Jr., Fort Fairfield (Richard N. '36, Phyllis Dean '38); Charles M. Varney, Jr., Bangor (George '11, grandfather, deceased); Charles F. Washburn, Bangor (Charles Marshall '27, Mildred S. Washburn '56); George H. Baker, Jr., Auburn (George '34, Edson B. '04, grandfather, George H. Baker '76, great-grandfather, deceased); Clifford B. Martin, Ossining, N. Y. (Charles B. '30, B. C. Martin '01, grandfather, deceased, Nelson H. '76, great-grandfather, deceased).

FIFTH ROW, left to right: Robert P. Spalding, So. Portland (Prescott D. '39); Daniel E. Lawry, Rutland, Vt. (Otis C. '42, Otis C. '16, grandfather); John W. Wolfe, Kennebunk (Cranston W. '37, Delton W. '11, grandfather); Karl W. Stritter, Taunton, Mass. (Karl W. '41); Richard D. Porter, Westbrook (Richard C. '33); Peter M. Mealey, Brewer (Philip R. '37); David C. Lamb, Gardner (Philip E. '35); Robert N. Rosen, Bangor (Daniel A. '27); Richard L. Knight, Yarmouth (Frank A. '30); Jim B. Dolloff, Orono (Richard C. '27, Erline Besse '28); Richard L. Townsend, Winthrop (E. Lee Townsend '28, deceased); Willard C. Deering, Orono (Bernard L. '53); Richard D. Haskell, Portland (Richard H. '37); Glenn D. Grant, Scarborough (Richard D. '29, Ruth Ahlquist, M.Ed. '56); Paul F. Harnden, Rangeley (Fred B. '39); Peter A. Higgins, Dennysville (Ralph F. '35); Stephen R. Merrill, Bangor (L. Robert Merril '34, deceased, Lucius H. '83, grandfather, deceased); Alan B. Flechman, Waltham, Mass., Class of '64 (Ira '34); William C. Waterhouse, East Greenwich, N. Y. (Edwin C. '26, deceased); W. Karl Robbins, Falmouth (Winston C. '32, Louise H. '33); Norman R. Ness, Jr., Orono (Norman R. '38); Avard M. Dow, Jr., Lewiston (Avard M. '38).

(For sons and daughters not pictured, see Page 34.)
The Maine Alumnus

Volume 43 Number 2

Editor: DR. T. Russell Woolley '41
Associate Editor: Ronald K. Devine '55
Class Notes Editor: Margaret M. Mollison '50
Assistant Class Notes Editor: Mildred (Brown '25) Schrumpf

General Alumni Association

Officers
President: Alvin S. McNeill '44
1st Vice President: George A. Potter '20
2nd Vice President: Mrs. Winona C. Sawyer '43
Clerk: James A. Harmon '40
Treasurer: Harry T. Treesorgy '49
Executive Director: T. Russell Woolley '41
Asst. Executive Director: Margaret M. Mollison '50

Alumni Trustees
Raymond H. Fogler '15
Mrs. Rena C. Bowles '21

Alumni Council
Mrs. Winifred C. Anderson '35
Frank C. Brown '30
Henry T. Carey '22
Maxwell B. Carter, Jr. '44
Marion Cooper '27
George F. Dow '27
Arthur T. Forrestall '33
John F. Grant '48
M. Eleanor Jackson '20
Parker F. Leonard '30
Alfred B. Lingley '20
Frank W. Linnell '29
Clifford G. McIntire '30
Robert B. McLeary '42
Robert W. Nelson '45
Albert S. Noyes '24
Carlton B. Payson '41
Michael Pilot '21
Mrs. Barbara L. Raymond '37
Robert P. Schoppe '38
Stanwood R. Searles '34
Edward C. Sherry '38
Norma J. Swaha '54

Table of Contents

Alumni sons and daughters 4
Maine students today 7-10
Around campus 12-13
Alumni names 14
Athletics 15
Homecoming 16-17
Alumni officers 18
Local associations 19-20
Class notes 21-34

Do you believe student enthusiasm at the University of Maine is disappearing—or worse, that the effervescence you once knew existed here has vanished, is now dead?

Take another look at our cover picture this month!

There is something about a college campus that means automatically we must think of the band and the football team and of dances and rallies and the kind of activity such as bonfires, student parades and building of decorated floats, streaming of banners and manufacture of comical effigies.

Ours is the kind of campus where these happenings are readily suggested. There is a lot of room, plenty of space out of doors to do these things. Actually, plenty of area is available for the band to march and play in as it gets ready for a game. And student enthusiasm to have a marching band exists here. This enthusiasm has not disappeared; yet neither is it quite the same as enthusiasm of another day.

There is truly very little difference between today's student and tomorrow's alumni. Our cover girl is now a senior; next year she will be a member of the youngest alumni class. There is also small difference between yesterday's student and today's alumni. The factor of difference is time. Each of us has but to understand the loyalty he feels toward his own contemporaries, toward the activities of "my days" at Maine.

No! The gap between the generations is not insurmountable.

Eternal verities do exist and some fine traditions almost never change.

The marching band is a holdover from very early days at the University of Maine. Its tradition shall not change, for the enthusiasm to assure retention is certainly present today. Out of past success shall come the direction contemporary students need.

Enthusiasm has not gone; it is only adapted by the conditions, which have been altered. Thus spirit often is expressed now in smaller groups, such being a defense against the crowded circumstances. And what Maine alumni desire is a large marching band, to hold and build a splendid tradition, one that also has been delightfully set to music by Joseph A. McCosker '17:

Oh, the band went down to Mexico,
Did their bit in that hot sun,
In the world war they were on the go,
Chateau Thierry to Verdun;
Of its history we are justly proud,
And we're glad to sing its praise,
May we keep before us ever Valiant deeds of other days!

The Cover: Bangor Daily News photographer Carroll Hall has captured all the flavor of a football game in this enthusiastic photograph of a cheerleader and a cheering crowd. The cheerleader is Kay Fraser and the photo was taken two seasons ago at the Maine-Connecticut game. Kay is now in the last semester of her senior year, is a Newport resident and a home economics major.
IN MATTERS OF TRUST...

Our Trust department offers all trust services. Executor and administrator of personal estates, trustee under wills or as trustee of living trusts and life insurance trusts. Investment management, custodian accounts... in fact, anything under the heading of estates and trusts.

We will be glad to discuss your estate planning needs with you at any time.

Remember... You're always welcome at

MERCHANTS NATIONAL BANK

MERCHANTS National Bank of BANGOR

BROAD ST., BANGOR
UNION AT 14TH, BANGOR
NORTH MAIN ST., BREWER
DOW AIR FORCE BASE

Member, Federal Reserve System and Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

From New York Life's yearbook of successful insurance career men!

BERNIE KLAZMER—Math major who solved his career problem with million dollar insurance sales!

Natural sales ability and a college background in mathematics proved to be a highly successful career combination for Bernie Klazmer. Within a short time after becoming a New York Life Agent, these two qualities won Bernie a position on the industry's famous Million Dollar Round Table—a distinction he has earned five years in a row.

Bernie is planning to complete his studies for his Chartered Life Underwriter degree this year. He knows that the career he has chosen is limited only by his own efforts and talents. And he has found that by helping others provide for their future years, he receives unlimited personal satisfaction, as well.

If you believe that a career like Bernie's would interest you, or someone you know, write for information.

BERNARD KLAZMER
New York Life Representative in the Philadelphia General Office

Education: West Chester, Pa., State College, B.S., '54

Employment Record: Joined New York Life '54; Member, President's Council (composed of 200 leaders among over 6000 representatives); Life and Qualifying Member of Million Dollar Round Table.

NEW YORK LIFE
Insurance Company

College Relations, Dept. H-25
51 Madison Avenue, New York 10, N.Y.
CONVICTION was as fiery as her wispy red hair when Glenda Wellman declared:
"I don't think as many students are as upset as I am about fallout and the threat of nuclear war. But I'm worried enough to make up for all of them."

Her two companions in the Main Lounge of the Memorial Union chuckled at the positiveness with which the junior from Bangor expounded her views.

Rod McClure, another junior, also from Bangor, countered: "I'm not worried about fallout. I'm very optimistic that there won't be a war. Khrushchev is out to beat us any way he can, but I think he sees the uselessness of all-out nuclear warfare as an answer."

Bonnie Flagg, attending the University as a special student, seemed to sum up the two extremes: "I think the average student is waiting and watching."

Bonnie's evaluation appears to be a valid one. If there is any spirit of defeatism among University of Maine students regarding world crises, it certainly is not expressing itself. On the other hand, the students are aware of the tensions—and they're talking about them.

In the Fernald Hall city room of the campus newspaper, for instance, Editor Earl Smith, a senior from Waterville, leaned back in his chair in the "slot" of the big horseshoe-shaped copy desk and observed:
"We as students are constantly exposed to discussions on the world situation. We're in touch with it in every classroom. The possibilities of nuclear war are not discussed only in international relations classes."

More Serious Minded
Members of the faculty and administration have recognized this growing awareness among undergraduates of the world about them.

Director of Admissions James A. Harmon expressed it this way: “Students today are more serious minded and are coming to college better prepared. There is a general awareness of this age group that our nation is in deep trouble.”

Dean of Women Edith G. Wilson can sense an increase in insecurity among students. “Perhaps it is an aftermath of the war years and a reflection of the insecurity of their parents,” she observed.

But nuclear war, fallout and world crises are not by any means all-pervading in the conversations of Maine students. What else, then, are they talking about?

Sophomore Brad Millett of Springfield, Mass., drew a laugh from his companions over a cup of coffee in the Bear’s Den when he laconically asserted: “Freshmen are talking about high school, sophomores are talking about freshman year, juniors are talking about getting out, and seniors are talking about wishing they could stay.” In a more serious vein, he conceded it was not all that simple a thing to evaluate.

Listen in on any conversation in the Bear’s Den or eavesdrop on a dormitory or fraternity house bull session. Likely the talk will be more frivolous than philosophical, more earthy than worldly. “We don’t have enough really good bull sessions,” admitted Ed Reidman of Portland, a letterman member of the varsity football squad. “There don’t seem to be many people who can get one going.”

More Straightforward

But don’t be fooled into thinking that a lack of serious discussion means a paucity of opinions among students individually. They have strong feelings on everything from Bookstore prices to Berlin, and once prodded slightly aren’t afraid to express them.

“Students today are more straightforward. They don’t have as many inhibitions in what they say or do as students had 25 and 30 years ago,” declared Dean of Men John E. Stewart.

“There is a real desire for sincere intellectual stimulation,” said Dean Wilson, “and not enough opportunity for student-faculty interaction.” She has noted a slight improvement over the years of attitudes toward intellectualism.

Whether this rise in intellectualism is a result of more selective choosing of students or a result of generally better prepared students seeking entrance is open to debate so far as Mr. Harmon is concerned. At any rate, he said, “this (secondary school) preparation is necessary because colleges’ demands are increasing, not only in engineering but in other fields as well. This comes

"There is a general awareness of this" through recognition that in the world in which we live the need for higher education is receiving greater recognition each year."

But are today's students so very much different from their older brothers and sisters—or even from their mothers and fathers who attended college?

Cars Have Effect

"Students at Maine haven't changed intrinsically over the years," observed Dr. E. Kenneth Miles, professor of German and head of the department of foreign languages and classics. "The environment has changed, but students' basic attitudes haven't."

"There has been a noticeable shift in what students do for their own amusement, and one of the largest contributing factors to this is the widespread use of cars by students."

Underclassmen themselves seem to recognize the effect automobiles have had on student life. Said Paul Yeaton, a junior from Belgrade: "Students seem to be more independent. They don't stick together too much. It's awfully easy to jump in a car and drive off somewhere with a group of friends to have fun."

Students may feel a fairly large degree of independence, but they don't particularly feel a freedom for individualism.

Over at the Sigma Nu house the other noon, they were talking about just this pursuit of individualism. Ed Reidman observed:

"There is difficulty at Maine in pursuing individualism. In many cases it isn't encouraged by faculty members, and some even discourage it by an unwillingness to accept ideas and concepts different from their own."

Lew O'Brien, a junior from Vanceboro, said, "A lot of times you decide it's not worth the risk of being laughed at to try something different. Sometimes it is worth the gamble, and you go ahead, even if you know you might be laughed right off the campus."

Exponents of this view have a friend in Assoc. Prof. Brooks W. Hamilton, head of the journalism department. "Pressures are pushing students toward conformity," he asserted, "and students at Maine are too conservative."

Should Be Radical

"I think this is the time of life they should be radical—not because I think they should be radicals later in life, but because it is a good time to learn to see the value of sometimes radical solutions. Students today are
"Because of the cross section of students, you can’t make Maine an Ivy League school"
A scholarship fund of $2,500 has been established at the University by Alan W. and Robert P. Crowell in memory of their father, C. Parker Crowell, class of 1898. Mr. Crowell was a prominent alumnus of the University and a leading architect in Maine for nearly 50 years.

The income from the C. Parker Crowell Fund, which is administered by the University of Maine Foundation, will be awarded annually to either an entering or upperclass student of fine character, in need of financial assistance, and who has made a good scholastic record. Preference in the award will be given to graduates of Bangor or Orono High Schools.

Born in Orono, C. Parker Crowell pursued architectural studies at M.I.T. following his graduation from Maine. He opened an office in Bangor in 1905 which, for many years prior to his retirement in 1956, was known as Crowell and Lancaster.

Plans for more than 1,000 buildings in Maine, including 15 classroom and dormitory halls at the University, were prepared by his firm. A leader in Maine alumni activities for many years, Mr. Crowell was awarded the Alumni Service Emblem in 1932 in recognition of his many valuable services to the General Alumni Association.

In establishing the scholarship fund, Alan and Robert Crowell have perpetuated the name of C. Parker Crowell on the records of the University for all time, and, at the same time, have made provision for financial assistance to many deserving students of the future.
Indian summer and a little snow

A warm Indian summer sun bore down on campus as students drifted back to enroll for the University's 94th fall opening.

As usual, their total numbers had swelled, and when all the hubbub of registration had subsided, some 4,215 students were ready to report for opening day classes. Of these, 1,155 were attending the University for the first time, as members of the Class of 1965. These totals represented gains from the previous year when 4,065 students had enrolled. This was a far cry from the even dozen students who signed up for classes on that first registration day in 1868.

The new semester hadn't been under way a week when the first ripple of excitement murmured across campus. The anxiously awaited opening football game with the University of Massachusetts had been cancelled by a virus bug that put most of the Massachusetts team in bed.

Would Maine find another opponent? Would there be a game? Not the least of those wondering was Ted Curtis '23, faculty manager of athletics. A wave of telephone calls fanned out from his office to schools and colleges all along the Eastern seaboard in an attempt to find a team willing and able to fill the last-minute gap in Maine's schedule.

After an anxious three days, he heard a welcome reply: The U. S. Military Academy's "B" team would face the Black Bears. The Army team flew in on Saturday morning, grabbed a quick lunch, donned football toggs, got beaten 21-6, showered, dressed and flew back to West Point late that afternoon.

Back to Normal

And the campus returned to normal. Clubs and organizations dusted off their rosters, added new names and started their fall programs. The wheels of student government turned anew.

Academically speaking, wheels were turning, too. The English department announced new and revived courses in such far-flung topics as Old English, Ballad and Folk Song and Oriental Masterpieces of the Near East. The history and government department reported receipt of a grant of $400 by the Citizenship Clearing House of New York City for the University's Congressional intern program.

"The Idea of a University" was selected as a discussion theme for the academic year by the Office of Religious Affairs. The Rev. Harvey M. Bates, director, said the topic would be discussed at a series of faculty noon-hour seminars at the Merrill Hall tea room.

Indian summer retreated, leaving a chill in the air as the first fall foliage exploded into its fiery hues.

The group also selected a cast for its tour of India, which was extended by about six weeks, to last from February 2 to May 20. Those chosen to make the trip were preparing for it with a special course on India being taught by Assoc. Prof. Robert B. Thomson of the history and government department.

Local Talent, Too

"The Weavers," popular folk-singing quartet, performed at the opening program of the concert series. Besides programs of outside artists, the series will include a faculty artist series by members of the music department, and a student concert series fea-

44 from abroad study at Maine

Cambodia . . . Mauritius . . . Pakistan . . .

These exotic names are only a few of the home nations represented by the 44 foreign students enrolled at the University this year.

Nineteen of the foreign students are from Canada, and six from India. About half the group are working on graduate degrees and five are doing post-doctoral research in chemistry, according to Cecil J. Cutts, adviser to foreign students.

The five post-doctoral students are Drs. K. N. Rangammal and Arun Dasgupta, India; Brian Green and John Knight, England; and Peter Hofer, Switzerland.

Cutts said the majority of the remaining 39 are studying in the Colleges of Agriculture and Technology.

They are: David Alkalay, Israel; Hyung Kyoong Cho, Korea; Claude de la Roche, Guatemala; Ney DeOliveira, Brazil; Alban deSousa, Noshir Havewala, N. Ravindranathan, and Surendra Tiware, India; Imre Janos Gorondi, Argentina; Serge Henry, Mauritius; Ne'mah Hussain, Iraq; Jan E. H. Johansson, Sweden; Peter Louridas, and George Papadopoulos, Greece; Parviz Moaref, Iran; Susan Martin, England; Rejiro Nakakura and Takeo Watui, Japan; Irfan Siddique, Pakistan; Vanyth Sok, Cambodia.

Also, Gilbert Banville, Marven Betts, David Carrigan, Robert DeBoo, Rosalea Ernst, James Fraser, Stanley Gill, Ian Hunter, Katherine King, Marcel Letourneau, Joan MacEachern, Edward Nugent, Eileen O'Brien, Hilles Pickens, Elizabeth Ryan, Mervie Stanley, Lawrence Thompson and Jean Vaillancourt, all of Canada.
Yes there is a band . . .

But it doesn't march; Musical group reorganized as a concert band

"What, no band?" asked an incredulous alumnus back for one of the football games this fall.

The fact is, Maine does have a band—but not a marching band to parade during football games.

Through an administrative move last spring, Francis G. Shaw, a part-time instructor in music, received permission from Lewis Niven, head of the music department, Dean Joseph Murray of the College of Arts and Sciences, and President Lloyd H. Elliott to reorganize the University band.

Interested students who had previously participated in the music program were re-auditioned and a Concert Band was formed in a selected, well-balanced 45-member unit.

It was generally felt that, because of the shortness of the marching band season, a concert band would be more advisable.

Many feel Maine should have both a concert band and a marching band, but officials point out that the University does not, at this time, have the facilities or a full-time director for both.

Lacking a marching band of its own, the University engaged the Katahdin Rangers of Millinocket for one home game and the Maine Maritime Academy band for another. Maine's ROTC band also participated at games to help fill the void.

Faculty names in the news

Dean Weston Evans of the College of Technology and Dr. Thomas H. Curry, associate dean of technology and director of the Department of Industrial Cooperation, headed a 23-man team of Maine Educators attending a meeting of the New England section, American Society for Engineering Education at Brown University in Providence, R. I., in October.

Dr. Clarence E. Bennett, head of the physics department was in charge of the physics program at the meeting. Prof. Robert C. Chase of the department of chemical engineering presented a paper on "System dynamics as taught in chemical engineering at the University of Maine." Prof. Walter W. Turner of the electrical engineering department was moderator of a panel discussion.

Dr. Clarence E. Bennett, head of the physics department, has accepted an appointment as regional counselor in physics for the state of Maine. The regional counselor program is a pioneer project of the American Institute of Physics to promote and improve the study of physics, particularly at the high school level.

Dr. Alan Barou, associate professor of psychology, has published a technical paper entitled "Studies of Individual and Paired Interactional Problem-Solving Behavior of Rats in the current issue of Genetic Psychology Monographs."

George Crosby, registrar and director of student services, is chairman of an eight-member faculty committee planning the second annual Arts Festival Month program. Other members are Assoc. Prof. Herschel Bricker, Prof. John Hankins, Asst. Prof. George Manlove, Asst. Prof. Ben Chapman, Prof. Vincent Hartgen, Asst. Prof. Arthur Reardon and Assoc. Prof. William Sleeper, Jr. The program, consisting of lectures, concerts, films and art exhibits, will be held in March.

Dr. Richard L. Zusi, assistant professor of zoology, presented a paper entitled "Functions and Taxonomic Aspects of the Skull in Shore Birds" at a meeting of the American Ornithologists Union in Washington, D. C., in October.

Appointed

Dr. Max Hamer of New York City has been appointed lecturer in psychology. Dr. Hamer, a 1956 graduate of City College of New York, received his Ph.D. degree from the University of North Dakota in August. He also has studied at the University of Iowa and Merrill-Palmer Institute in Detroit. He is married and the father of one child.

Thomas Aniger of Los Angeles, Calif., a 1958 graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles, has been named an instructor in English at the Portland campus. Aniger, who received his master's degree from UCLA this year, is a native of Berlin, Germany.
Alumni names in the news

Congratulations to . . .

. . . Justice George H. Worster '05, of Bangor, whose long career as a lawyer, educator and jurist was recalled on the occasion of his 90th birthday in September. A retired associate justice of the Maine Supreme Judicial Court, he also served as an instructor and associate professor at the University's Law School from 1903 to 1916.

. . . Hazen H. Ayer '24, who has been elected a director and member of the executive committee of the newly formed Federal Kemper Life Assurance Co., organized as a subsidiary of Lumberman's Mutual Casualty Co., of Chicago.

. . . Dr. Charles D. Brown '33, who has been elected president of Dielectric Products Engineering Company, Inc. James Robert Marshall '41 also is an executive of this firm.

Steps up the ladder for . . .

. . . Prof. H. Edwin Young '40, who has been appointed dean of the College of Letters and Science at the University of Wisconsin. He formerly was head of the economics department at that institution. The I.S. College, the university's largest division, has an enrollment of 10,000 graduate and undergraduate students.

. . . John A. Hall '49, who has been appointed assistant superintendent of engineering and maintenance at the Ashubula, Ohio, works of the Union Carbide Metals Co., a division of Union Carbide Corp. Earlier, he had been promoted to the post of assistant superintendent of the power station at the same plant.

. . . David E. Larabee '59, who has been promoted to manager of the Manchester, N. H., service center of the Eastern States Farmers' Exchange, Inc.

. . . Rodney F. Moulton '55, who has been promoted to the rank of captain while serving with the U. S. Army in Korea.

. . . Edward Woodward '43, who has been promoted to superintendent of maintenance at Wyman-Gordon Eastern Division, Worcester, Mass.

Headlines about . . .

. . . Walter Eitel '56, of Hartford, Conn., whose photographic work will be on display at the University in January as part of the 1961-62 program of exhibitions, arranged by the art department. Giant enlargements of two of Mr. Eitel's photographs of the Maine coast form a prominent part of the decor of the newly opened Ford Room in the Memorial Union Building.

. . . Paul Harthorn '44, of Buenos Aires, Argentina, who has published an article entitled "Operations Coordination—Dollars Saved" in Hydrocarbon Processing and Petroleum Refiner magazine.

. . . Col. Arthur W. Hodges '38, who has been named professor of military science at the University of Wyoming. He also has been author of articles in the Infantry Journal and the Army Magazine.

. . . Ronald E. Bishop '53, of Hampden, and Kenneth L. Alley '50, of Camden, who were among eight selected agents of the nationwide field force of National Life Insurance Company of Vermont to attend a special home-office training school at Montpelier, Vt. Bishop, Kenneth P. MacLeod '47, of Brewer, and Walter F. Tweedle '51, of Mars Hill, earned attendance at the firm's educational conference at Honolulu in August.

. . . John B. Douglas '55, who has been appointed field man for Eastern States Farmers' Exchange, Inc. He will serve part of southern Maine.

. . . Lewis C. Berce '50, who has been named serviceman for the Houlton service center of the Eastern States Farmers' Exchange, Inc.

. . . Army 2nd Lt. James F. Simms III '59, of West Newton, Mass., and Donald R. Clifford '60, of Silver Spring, Md., who have recently completed the officer orientation course at the Engineer School, Fort Belvoir, Va.

. . . Alfred C. Beckwith '55, who presented a paper at the national meeting of the American Chemical Society in Chicago on Labor Day. Topic of his paper concerned altering chemically the properties of wheat gluten.

Representing Maine . . .

Miss Martha A. Pratt '52 represented the University at the inauguration of Dr. Leonard J. Savignano as president of the State College at Westfield, Mass.

Dwight B. Demeritt, Jr., '51 represented the University at the inauguration of Dr. Arthur Ole Davidson as president of Wagner College, Staten Island, N. Y.

Stanley A. Murray '47 represented the University at the inauguration of Dr. Joseph F. C. peland as president of Maryville College, Maryville, Tenn., in October.

Mrs. Mary (Crowley) Mulvey '30 represented the University at the installation of Rosemary Piercel as dean of Pembroke College, Brown University, in November.

Col. Joseph A. McCusker '17 represented the University at the inauguration of the Very Reverend Edward J. Burke as president of St. John's University in Jamaica, N. Y., in October.

Dr. Frederic A. Leonard '43 represented the University at the inauguration of Dr. Randle Elliott as president of Hood College, Frederick, Md., in October.

Russell S. Bodwell '44 represented the University at the inauguration of Dr. Robert Fisher Oxnard as president of Drew University in Madison, N. J., in October.

Raymond H. Fogler '15, chairman of the Board of Trustees, represented the University at a convocation commemorating the 100th anniversary of the founding of Vassar College on October 12.

Gerald E. Smith '54, secretary of the Western Pennsylvania Alumni Association, represented the University at a convocation of Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., commemorating that institution's 150th anniversary in October.

Dr. Rena J. Rutte '51 represented the University at a convocation of Reed College, Portland, Ore., commemorating that institution's 50th anniversary in September.

ANNUAL ALUMNI FUND SCORECARD

Here are some leading records among the classes for the General Alumni Association's first Annual Alumni Fund:

| Class | Contributing Members | Amount Gifted | Average Gift |%
|-------|----------------------|--------------|-------------|---|
| 1922  | 56                   | $737.50      | $13.81      | 1.30%
| 1934  | 48                   | 660.00       | 13.75       | 1.09%
| 1938  | 73                   | 833.50       | 11.42       | 1.09%
| 1943  | 89                   | 856.75       | 9.63        | 1.11%
| 1949  | 116                  | 1,575.00     | 9.97        | 1.35%
| 1950  | 155                  | 2,137.50     | 7.83        | 1.67%
| 1951  | 129                  | 897.00       | 6.75        | 1.14%
| 1952  | 103                  | 795.50       | 7.72        | 0.77%
| 1958  | 84                   | 884.00       | 10.52       | 0.92%
Athletics

Bears march to victory

IT WASN’T an easy game.
Maine had two good runs called back on penalties, and Coach Hal Westerman, looking back on things, said, “I thought . . .
we might get down and not be able to come back, but the boys came back stronger than ever.”

Then he added, “When we lost one touchdown on a penalty and had almost another called back and then we came back, that meant more to me than everything else. It could have worked the other way.”

Trophy Retired
When the clock finally ran out, Maine had won the 63rd State Series competition by less than a touchdown in a 13-8 game against Bowdoin.

The win allowed Maine to retire the Lewis
O. Barrows Trophy, the victory giving the Bears a sufficient total of 13 points—the winning figure coming after 20 years of Series competition.

More than 9,000 chilled fans witnessed the climactic contest—largest crowd since the 1953 Bowdoin/Maine game.

The victory left Maine with a season record of seven wins, no losses and that 15-15 standoff with Bates as the Bears sharpened up for the tough rescheduled contest against Massachusetts on the day before Thanksgiving.

Touch And Go
It was an unusual season, marked by postponement of the Massachusetts game, scheduled as the opener, and a quick shuffle for a substitute team when the Bay Staters took sick. The U. S. Military Academy’s “B” team came up and was defeated 21-6.

It was pretty much touch and go all the way as Maine faced and vanquished strong opposition: Rhode Island (22-20), Vermont (34-14), New Hampshire (7-6), Connecticut (2-0), Colby (14-0) and Bowdoin.

(Press deadlines prevent us from reporting the outcome of the Massachusetts game
in this issue.)

All in all, it was a fitting way for Westy to mark the 10th anniversary of his history-making undefeated team, first that he coached at Maine, and it marked another winning season for the Bears’ coach, who has never had anything else but in his decade at the University.

Frosh Shine, Too
The Freshman squad turned in a successful season, too. It met defeat only once in a 14-0 contest against Maine Central Institute. The Frosh tallied victories against Bridgeport Academy (15-14), MCI (20-6),
Colby Frosh (36-6) and Bowdoin Frosh (28-0).

Sports briefly . . .

Charlie Akers ’61, captain of the 1961 varsity ski team, has been named to the 1961 NCAA All-American Team as a re-result of his winning the NCAA 10-mile cross country championship in the national meet last winter at Middlebury, Vt. Now with the U. S. Army, Akers served on the 1960
U. S. Olympic Team. He hopes to compete on the biathlon squad on the 1964 Olympic team. As a result of his record, the Maine Intercollegiate Athletic Association has voted to name future state intercollegiate skimeister trophies as “The Charles Akers Trophy.”

A new sport on the Maine athletic scene this fall is soccer. Under the tutelage of Silas Dunklee, who has been appointed to coach skating and tennis, along with soccer, about 20 men turned out for practice. Coach Dunklee said emphasis is being placed on fundamentals and some inter-squad games.
He noted that most of those who came out are freshmen, “which means they’ll benefit from this early instruction.” University athetic officials hope a varsity schedule can be adopted within the next year or two.

Maine’s golf captain Gordon Curry, de-defending Maine collegiate champion, won’t be around to defend his title next spring.
A member of an Air National Guard unit that was activated, he will be serving with the Air Force for the next 12 months, according to Brian McCall, golf coach.

Football was still going full-tilt when in mid-October Coach Brian McCall issued the call for candidates for the basketball squad. Heading the group of men out for the team was Captain Tom (Skip) Chapelle, All-New England and Little All-American selection a year ago when the Bears won 18, lost 5. Maine will play a 24-game schedule this winter.

Harriers harried by Redmen

Mike Kimball of Maine pounded his way toward the finish line, fast closing the gap separating him from Bob Brouilet of the University of Massachusetts.

He was just two seconds short of catching his Bay State competitor and Brouilet’s victory paved the way for Massachusetts’ successful defense of the Yankee Conference cross country championship, run this year at Orono’s Penobscot Valley Country Club.

The Massachusetts harriers proved to be Maine’s nemesis over the entire season.

Earlier, the Redmen had forced Maine to take second place in a triangular meet that included Northeastern.

But in other contests, Maine, coached by Ed Styrna, defeated New Hampshire and won another triangular meet against Vermont and Bates.

The freshman cross country squad, also coached by Styrna, had equal success, suffering its only defeat at the hands of the University of New Brunswick’s varsity team.
• Black Bear Awards
• A gridiron thriller
• Honors for '51 team

Alvin S. McNeilly '44, left, presents Black Bears to James E. Totman '16, Avery C. Hammond '11, and Abel P. Wyman '07. Photos on this page courtesy of the Bangor Daily News.

HOMECOMING 1961

AND NOW I present to you the 1961 Black Bear winners.”

A hushed silence came over the Memorial Gym where nearly 500 alumni were gathered for the annual Homecoming luncheon. Alvin S. McNeilly '44, president of the General Alumni Association, began reading the citation for the first of the three alumni to be honored with the coveted Black Bear Award this year.

“...A strong civic leader and an extremely willing alumni worker. He has been an official of the Memorial Union Fund Drive and of the Arthur A. Hauck Building Fund. He has served 30 years as the secretary of his class, and has faithfully served the tasks of reunion planning and fund raising for the outstanding class of which he is a member, and which presented last June over $19,000 to the University for scholarship purposes.”

As the hints continued to fall from Mr. McNeilly’s citation, many alumni in the audience had deduced even before his name was read that Avery C. Hammond '11 of Bangor was the first winner.

A resounding and sustained applause greeted Mr. Hammond as he accepted the award.

Mr. McNeilly began the second citation: “...He has been an advocate of research for the promotion of Maine agriculture and industry who has shown superior generosity in making grants for this purpose, and in establishing liberal scholarship assistance. Always an ardent alumnus and devoted contributor to alumni projects, he has given of his wealth and also of his time and energies to promoting the welfare of his university. He has employed Maine graduates and has assisted many others in school.”

Again the words of the citation gave many in the audience a clue to the identity of the award winner. This time James E. Totman '16 of Baltimore, Md., rose to the thunder of applause to receive his Black Bear.

About the third winner, Mr. McNeilly said:

“...A devoted correspondent about alumni and earnest son of Maine, he has been a loyal member of his class and a firm advocate of assistance to and better education for young people. He served as reunion chairman for the golden anniversary of his graduating class. He has often VICTORS: Their jubilation was well deserved.

DIGNITARIES: Gov. Reed and Homecoming Queen Sharon Folsom.

VISITORS: Returning members of the undefeated 1951 team.
been a committee member for GAA purposes, doing his work efficiently, promptly and thoroughly. He is known for his outstanding work as president of the Senior Alumni Association."

These clues removed all doubt from most in the audience that Abel P. Wyman '07 of Waterville, immediate past president of the Senior Alumni Association, was the third winner. He, too, accepted his Black Bear amid peals of applause.

Thus came the climax to one of the highlights of the 62nd annual Homecoming celebration.

1951 Team Honored

Tributes also were paid at the luncheon to members of the 1951 football team, the only undefeated squad in University history and the first Maine team coached by Hal Westerman.

One of the most touching tributes to Westy was made by a member of the team who couldn't attend the ceremonies.

Eugene F. Sturgeon '52, in a letter read to the alumni, wrote: "... Everyone who has known Westy will tell you that he is an outstanding moulder of men and a fine representative of Maine. I can think of nothing more positive to add than the hope that in each of us, no matter where we may be or what our endeavors, there remains a little of Westy. I am humbly proud to know him as a coach and friend."

As Westy rushed off for the dressing room to help the 1961 team prepare for the Homecoming game, he was seen wiping a speck of dust from his eye.

Among the loyal alumni attending the Homecoming festivities was Gov. John H. Reed '42. He addressed the luncheon and gathering briefly and later, during halftime ceremonies, presented Homecoming Queen Sharon Folsom, a petite blonde freshman from Stillwater, to the 8,000 who attended the game.

A Cliff-Hanger

It was a game worthy of a Homecoming weekend. For four action-packed quarters Maine's Black Bears battled UConn's Huskies tooth and nail to a near standoff.
Maine's two-point safety, gained in the early minutes of the contest, proved to be the deciding factor in an almost unbelievably exciting match. Fans of the Pale Blue were choking on their hearts as the last play of the game found Connecticut brush-ing the goal line. On the verge of scoring a three-point field goal, the Huskies were frustrated by a blocked kick and the crowd went wild.

The weekend program also included a series of pre-game activities Friday evening, college coffees and get-togethers Saturday morning, fraternity reunions and the Maine Masque Theatre's presentation of George Bernard Shaw's Androcles and the Lion.

Climaxing the festivities was a dance sponsored by the Southern Penobscot Valley Alumni Association at the Pilot's Grill in Bangor, attended by about 180 alumni and friends.

AYOUNCANTWIN'EMALL

Last issue we reported on Maine's new computer lab and by way of illustration blandly explained that if the Indians had invested the $24 they were paid for Manhattan Island at six per cent compounded semi-annually, their funds would total $15,021,962 today.

We also asserted that it would take a mathematician quite a considerable length of time to figure the problem out "by hand."

Well, along comes Dean S. Piercee
'50, an engineer with the General Electric Company in Hudson Falls, N. Y., and proves us wrong on both counts.

He points out that either our computer is wrong, or the author of the problem fed it the wrong data. A check with the lab proves that the computer is indeed functioning properly and the data indeed was in error. Instead of calculating the problem on the basis of 335 years—Peter Minuit bought the island in 1626—the problem was set up on the basis of 337 years.

Mr. Piercee also writes, "It takes less than 5 minutes to make a calculation as described in the article without a computer if you have taken a course in mathematics of investment at the University of Maine."

So there.

Along the mall

NEW EDUCATION BUILDING DEDICATED

The new College of Education Building became an "official" member of the campus with dedication ceremonies on November 18.

Dr. Lloyd S. Michael, superintendent of Evanston Township High School in Illinois, was a featured speaker at the exercises.

UNIVERSITY GIVEN
CANADIAN BOOKS

The University was among several northern New England institutions that were presented gifts of Canadian books by the Canadian Consulate General in Boston Canadian Consul, Miss Laura Beatie, was on the Maine campus in October to present the books to the University's library.

PLACEMENT OFFICES
CONSOLIDATED

The University has consolidated its placement activities under one office in the new College of Education building. The merger brings together two placement facilities which previously operated separately, one serving the Colleges of Agriculture, Arts and Sciences and Technology, and the other serving the College of Education.

Philip J. Brockway '31, who has directed the former bureau, has been appointed director of the new set-up, and Miss Thelma H. Demont, who has handled teacher placement for the College of Education, is serving as assistant director.

Coddled?

Is American education coddling its students?

H. Russell Beatty '27, president of Wentworth Institute in Boston, in a keynote speech before the 52nd New England Conference of State Federations of Women’s Clubs this fall, answered with an emphatic
"Yes."

"No mother can call the principal or superintendent of schools and claim that her little Willie is abused because he has too much homework," he said.

"We have spoiled our little Willies so badly in our high schools that 50 per cent of them fail when they go to college."

"We want them to be educated without working for it," he said. "Fortunately, this is not possible."

Unless America develops a more effective educational system, he warned, Russia could outdistance us in the Cold War.

Last year Mr. Beatty traveled throughout the Soviet Union surveying educational institutions. A two-part article by Mr. Beatty entitled "Engineering and Technicum Education in the USSR" has been published as part of a report of the six-man delegation of the Engineers Joint Council which made the trip under an exchange agreement.

APologies

In the last issue of The Alumnus 1961 valedictory address appeared under the title "Time for a change." Through an unfortunate error, the name of the class valdictorian, David M. Hodsdon, was misspelled. The Alumnus regrets the error.

NOVEMBER-DECEMBER, 1961
Presenting . . .

Alumni officers for 1961-62

Elected by you to carry out YOUR policies

OFFICERS
Alvin S. McNeilly '44
President
George A. Potter '20
First Vice President
Mrs. Winona Cole Sawyer '43
Second Vice President
James A. Harmon '40
Clerk
Harry T. Treworgy '49
Treasurer
T. Russell Woolley '41
Executive Director
Margaret M. Mollison '50
Ass't Exec. Director

ALUMNI COUNCIL
Mrs. Winifred (Coburn '35) Anderson
Frank C. Brown '30
Henry T. Carey '22
Maxwell B. Carter, Jr. '44
Marion Cooper '27
George F. Dow '27
Arthur T. Forrestall '33
John F. Grant '48
M. Eleanor Jackson '20
Parker F. Leonard '50
Alfred B. Lingley '20
Frank W. Linnell '29
Clifford G. McIntire '30
Robert B. McLeary '42

Robert W. Nelson '45
Albert S. Noyes '24
Carlton B. Payson '41
Michael Pillet '21
Mrs. Barbara (Lancaster '37) Raymond
Robert P. Schoppe '38
Stanwood R. Searles '34
Edward C. Sherry '38
Norma J. Smaha '54

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE ALUMNI COUNCIL
Mrs. Winifred (Coburn '35) Anderson
Frank C. Brown '30
George F. Dow '27
Albert S. Noyes '24
Edward C. Sherry '38

HARRY T. TREWORGY '49
Treasurer

JAMES A. HARMON '40
Clerk

T. RUSSELL WOOLLEY '41
Executive Director

MARGARET M. MOLLISON '50
Ass't Exec. Director

THE MAIN ALUMNUS
Local Associations

Auburn-Lewiston Alumnae
Mrs. Julia (Shores '49) Hahnel, President
The group met first this year on September 20 at the Wallingford's' camp on Taylor Pond, a large group attending the camp supper and social evening. Business was conducted by the President.
A meeting was held again on October 18 at the home of Mrs. Dorris (Mayne '52) Lindquist, Robin Road, Auburn. Mrs. Alan Hall was guest speaker on the subject of "Family Defense." Plans were made for a Mother and Daughter supper at the West Auburn Church, November 15.

Auburn-Lewiston Alumni
Otto H. Wallingford '48, President
The men met on October 19 at Stephens House in Auburn to eat dinner and then adjourned to the new Edward Little High School for a tour of the building conducted by President Wallingford, who was a member of the School Building Committee. Next regular meeting, November 16, to be reported in the January Alumnus.

Rhode Island and Southeastern Mass. Alumni
Richard T. Fairfield '50, President
A picnic lunch, tail-gate style, was the successful affair staged by the group on the day of the Maine-Rhode Island game, in the parking lot beside the field in Kingston. September 30. Some folks from Connecticut were present. Next year's Connecticut game, it was decided, could be the occasion for both Rhode Island and Connecticut alumni to meet for a similar affair at Storrs.

Alumni Teachers Association
Mrs. Mary Jo (Orr '39) Devitt, President
Dr. David R. Fink, Jr., Associate Professor of Education, spoke to the teachers' luncheon at the Bangor House on October 5, on the subject, "The College of Education and Team Teaching." Dr. Fink is also Director of the Team Teaching project now being conducted under a Ford Foundation grant.

North Shore, Mass. Alumni
Harold P. Hamilton '30, Past President
(A new Governing Board of six members)
Again at the Gloucester House Restaurant a seafood or turkey dinner choice faced the members who met to hear Dr. George A. Billias speak about his book, General John Glover and his Marblehead Mariners. Prof. Billias is on leave from the University of Maine History Department to do research this year.

Southern Penobscot Alumnae
Mrs. Jean (Polleys '50) Fenlason, President
On October 10, a membership coffee was held and a business session conducted, to plan the annual rummage sale. The sale was held on October 27 at 42 Columbia St., Mrs. Constance (Drew '50) Darrah, Chairman. The following meeting, November 14 in the Memorial Union at the University, to be reported in the January Alumnus. Successful projects by the group have been the result of good planning and included willing assistance and fine programs, with publicity, all aiding to build an interested membership.

Washington, D. C. Alumni
Frank E. Patten, Jr. '31, President
On October 12 a dinner was enjoyed at the South Gate Motor Hotel Restaurant's Cardinal Room, South Arlington, Virginia. President Lloyd H. Elliott from the University spoke to the gay dinner meeting, which also included special entertainment. Dr. Elliott presented both summary news and interesting details on progress of the University. Mrs. Mildred (Haney '34) Bergeen, president, New officers were elected.

Baltimore, Md. Alumni
Louis E. Cook '58, President
Members gathered for dinner at the Park Plaza Hotel and for a report on the University by Dr. Lloyd H. Elliott, the evening of Friday, October 13. The program was well received on this Maine night for Baltimore Alumni. The brief business meeting was conducted by Chairman Cook, who also introduced guests, and the speaker.

Northern New Hampshire Alumni
Miss Nancy C. Philbrook '42, Chairman
A meeting of White Mountain area alumni was held at the Shelbourne Farm Inn of the Philbrook family on Tuesday, October 31. Visiting from Orono was Charles E. Crossland '17, resident secretary of the Pulp and Paper Foundation, to bring up-to-date news of the campus.

Southern Kennebec Alumni
Norman Gosline '57, President
A good luncheon group enjoyed the regular meeting on November 3, of businessmen alumni at the Worster House in Hallowell. No formal session was held, but good fellowship stands out in the report of this growing association.

Northern Kennebec Alumni
Chester A. Baker '25, President
A grand evening for families was experienced by the group on Friday, November 3, at the Fairfield Center Grange Hall. Special entertainment (magic) done by Mansfield Packard '25, a business session, and greetings from campus by Assistant Executive Director Margaret M. Mollison '50 comprised the affair. The business was conducted by President Baker.

Finger Lakes, N. Y. Alumni
Philip Lord '55, President
The group met at the Vestal Steak House on Route 17 in the Vestal-Binghamton area on November 4. Charles E. Crossland '17 spoke on "The Growth of Your University," and brought news from Orono.

Northeastern N. Y. Alumni
William M. Foss '23, President
Charles E. Crossland '17 visited the dinner meeting of November 3 at Dunn's Res-
Coming Meetings

Boston, Mass. Alumni
Dec. 7, 1961
Harvard Club, Purcell's Restaurant
Fall Smoker for men
Speaker: Coach Hal Westerman

Greater New York City Alumni
Phi Gamma Delta Club, 106 W. 56 St.
Annual Football Dinner
Speaker: Coach Hal Westerman

Auburn-Lewiston Alumni
Dec. 21, 1961
Stephen's House
Speaker: Coach Hal Westerman

Southern Penobscot Alumnae
Jan. 24, 1962
Dessert Meeting
Footman's Recreation Rm.
Speaker: Prof. Horace Quick
Movies: African Safari

Portland Alumnae
Dec. 7, 1961
Caroline's, Cape Elizabeth
Past Presidents' Night
Speaker: Dean Mark Shibles

Regularly Scheduled Meetings

Monthly—
Western Pennsylvanian Alumni
First Monday of each month
Oliver Restaurant
Smithfield St., Pittsburgh
Noon

Eastern Pennsylvania Alumni
Last Thursday of each month
Electrical Club Dining Room
6th Floor, Architect's Building
17th and Samson Streets Philadelphia, Penna.
Noon

Southern Kennebec Alumni
First Friday of each month
Worster House
Hallowell
Noon

Auburn-Lewiston Alumni
Third Thursday of each month
Stephens House
Union and Court Streets, Auburn Dinner—6 p.m.

Boston Alumni
Weekly luncheons on Friday will now be held in the Alcove Room, Purcell's Restaurant, 10 City Hall Avenue.
Invitations are extended to any alumnus or faculty member living or visiting in Boston to attend on each Friday.

New Local Alumni Officers

Auburn-Lewiston Alumni
Otto H. Wallingford '48, President; Robert
D. Waterman '49, Vice President; John L.
McCobb '25, 2nd Vice President; Shirley G.

When death unexpectedly took Coach Chester A. Jenkins on September 30, many who had studied the arts of track and cross-country under his skillful tutelage remembered him not so much as a coach but as a friend.

"Our drives, our honesty, our sense of fair play were gained in a large part from our association with him," wrote one of his former students.

It was not only his outstanding record, compiled over a 45-year coaching career, that had endeared him to his former students.

"He had another achievement besides his 139 victories, 49 losses and two ties," wrote a former student. "He instilled ideas into boys to make them better men, better husband, better parents and better citizens than they ever would have been had they not had the advantage of the influence and direction of Coach Jenkins."

Indeed, the 72-year-old professor emeritus of physical education, who retired in 1956, had earned a warm spot in the hearts of many Maine athletes, as well as his col-lleagues throughout the nation.

Besides entering one of the best won-lost records on Maine's books, Coach Jenkins at one time or another played guiding roles in the development of five Olympic trackmen.

Coach Jenkins was a graduate of Dartmouth College in 1911. He received his master's degree from the University of Maine in 1931.

Following his graduation from Dartmouth, Prof. Jenkins taught science at Governor Dummer Academy in Byfield, Mass., and at Huntingdon School in Boston. In 1921 he was named assistant professor of chemistry at Bates College and served as track coach.

In 1928 he came to Maine as professor of physical education and track and cross-country coach, a position he held until his retirement in 1956. From 1942 to 1946 he also served as an assistant professor of chemistry.

In 1953 Prof. Jenkins was presented the Black Bear Award by the General Alumni Association.

On June 30, 1913, he married Louise Dunlap, who died on June 3, 1958. Later he married Mrs. Helen Berger of California.
Besides his widow, survivors include a son,
Robert Dunlap Jenkins '43 of Terrace Park, Ohio; three grandchildren and a sister.

In agreement with family and friends, a Chester A. Jenkins Scholarship has recently been announced by the University. Gifts received in Coach Jenkins' name will be add-ted to this fund.
Notes from the Classes

If Your Class Column Is Missing...

...it's because your editors have decided to alternate class news. Your class column will appear in every other issue of the six 1961-62 issues. The 1962 June Reunion classes, however, will have a news column in print every issue.

NECROLOGY

FACULTY

CHESTER A. JENKINS. See opposite page.

DR. STANLEY ROYAL ASHBY. Dr. Stanley R. Ashby, professor of English at the University of Maine died October 12, at Cambridge, Mass. Professor Ashby taught English at the University for 14 years, coming here in 1930 and retiring in 1944. He held degrees from the University of Texas, Oxford University in England, and Harvard University. Dr. Ashby was one of the first to receive the degree of honorary doctor of letters from Teachers College. He was a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Society that selected Rhodes Scholars at this University. He also played an important part in organizing the honors program in the College of Arts at Maine. During World War I Dr. Ashby worked with the Foyer des Soldats with the French Army. He was born at Three Rivers, Mich., April 19, 1880. He is survived by a son, Stanley Royal Ashby, Jr., of Cambridge, Mass.

MAUDE FARNHAM NICKERSON. Mrs. George O. Nickerson, 82, of Houlton, died November 2, 1961, at Bangor hospital. A native of Houlton, she lived in the town where her late husband was a dentist. She was a member of the Houlton Woman's Club and the Houlton Women's Club. For several years Mrs. Nickerson was the owner and manager of the Nickerson House in Houlton, and include one sister and a niece. Mrs. Nickerson was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority.

EDWARD HUTCHINGS. Edward Hutchings, 84, of Springfield, Mass., died September 7, 1961. A native of Brewer, he was a graduate of Bowdoin College in 1888. He graduated from the University of Maine School of Law in 1900. He practiced in Brewer, residing in Veazie, from 1910 to 1959. He opened his own office. On his retirement in 1959, after nearly 60 years as a practicing lawyer, he was the second oldest active member of the Hampden County (Mass.) Bar Association. Mr. Hutchings was a member of the American Bar Association. He is survived by his wife.

JOHN FOY SANFORD. John F. Sanford, 85, of Kensington, died October 25, 1961, at Farmington. A native of Kensington, Mr. Sanford graduated in 1902 from the College of Pharmacy at the University. He operated a pharmacy at York for several years, retiring in 1925. He later moved to New Hampshire to manage the Farmington Drug Co.

HORACE DENVER RIDLON. Horace D. Riddle, 85, of Charleston, died September 16, 1961, at Bangor. A native of Newport, he was a graduate of the College of Arts and Sciences and Professional Women's Club, and the Houlton Women's Club. For several years Mrs. Nickerson was the owner and manager of the Nickerson House in Houlton, and include one sister and a niece. Mrs. Nickerson was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority.

EDWARD PERCY ABBOTT. Horace P. Abbott, 87, died August 21, 1960. He was a native of York. For 60 years he had served as superintendent of the Masonic Order. Survivors include a daughter and a grandson.

EDWARD FRANCIS WELLMAN. Edward F. Wellman, a native of Lewiston, died recently. No further details are available at this time. Mr. Wellman was a classman at Bowdoin and a member of Phi Delta Kappa Fraternity.

ROBERT ADELBERT WEBSTER. Robert A. Webster, 49, of Winthrop, died December 1, 1961 at a hospital in Baltimore. Mr. Webster was a native of Orland. He attended Eastern State Normal School, Castine, and Bridgewater, Mass. He graduated from the University where he was in the College of Arts and Sciences. A veteran of World War I, he was discharged as a lieutenant junior grade after two and one-half years of service. He was Pike out of D-21 and served for several years as deputy sheriff and turnkey at Knox County jail in Rockland. He was affiliated with many fraternal organizations. Survivors include two sons: one, Marion Lee Webster '55 and a brother Dr. Francis Howe Webster 64, of South San Francisco, Calif., and two nieces.

WILLIAM BANNISTER ALEXANDER. William B. Alexander, 74, Melrose, Massachusetts, died October 19, 1961. A native of Canada (his parents were then residents of East Boston, Mass.), Mr. Alexander graduated from Everett High School and received a B.S. from the University of Maine, and an M.S. in Chemistry from Wesleyan. In 1908, after serving as principal of Melrose High School, Mr. Alexander became the managing engineer of the Barret Co., a division of Allied Chemicals and Dyes, in New York. In 1916, he was made sales manager for the company. In 1947, following retirement from Barrett Company, Mr. Alexander organized and became president of Beacon Sales Co., Somerville, handling business supplies and was president and trustee of Melrose Savings Bank. Mr. Alexander was president of the Bank for nine years, and gave the history of the class at the Alumni luncheon in 1957, the occasion of the 50th reunion of his class. Survivors include his wife, four sons, and one daughter. Mr. Alexander was a member of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity.

ERICH BO YER. Edward J. Drury, a native of Augusta, died July 8, 1961, in that city. No further information is available.

HORACE DENVER RIDLON. Horace D. Ridlon, 85, of Charleston, died September 16, 1961, at Bangor. A native of Newport, he was a graduate of the College of Arts and Sciences and Professional Women's Club, and the Houlton Women's Club. For several years Mrs. Nickerson was the owner and manager of the Nickerson House in Houlton, and include one sister and a niece. Mrs. Nickerson was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority.

WASHINGTON HALEY. William W. Haley, 64, of Pottstown, Pa., died May 25, 1961. Mr. Haley was a prominent potato merchant and shipper. Survivors include his wife, a son, and a daughter.

HORACE DENVER RIDLON. Horace D. Ridlon, 85, of Charleston, died September 16, 1961, at Bangor. A native of Newport, he was a graduate of the College of Arts and Sciences and Professional Women's Club, and the Houlton Women's Club. For several years Mrs. Nickerson was the owner and manager of the Nickerson House in Houlton, and include one sister and a niece. Mrs. Nickerson was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority.

FRED FORREST PEASE. Fred Forrest Pease, 77, died June 25, 1961 at Sagamook, Mass. A native of Lowell, Mass., he moved when child to Maine and graduated from Castine High School. After attending the University, Mr. Pease attended Army and Navy Preparatory School, Washington, D.C. Mr. Pease was founder of Opportunity School for Boys, a trade school for underprivileged children in New Gloucester. He was also a member of the board of directors. He was supervisor of apprentices at the Quincy Ship Yard, and wrote the first dictionary of ship building terms in 1916. In 1922 he went into business as an industrial research company. Sr. Pease was founder of Pease Engineering Company and professor of engineering at the Arthur D. Little Co., in Cambridge. In 1932 he joined the Pease Brothers where he was research engineer and inventor. His work with the Navy during World War II brought him an appointment to the late Frank Knox, then Secretary of the Navy, for his engineering and development programs in anti-aircraft warfare. On retirement, Mr. Pease worked at his expanded laboratory at his Squamscott home. His research engineering and numerous inventions resulted in improved types of coast guard launching gear to "ventilated" ciga- rettes. The last few years of his life were spent working on ventilating systems for atomic bomb shelters. Survivors include his wife, two daughters and a son. Mr. Pease organized the Pease-Athony Equipment Co., making devices to reduce air pollution.

OTIS WILIAM MEANS. Otis W. Means, 77, died July 5, 1961, at Bangor. Mr. Means had been employed by the Personnel Department of the New England Confectionery Co., of Cambridge, Mass. He is survived by his wife, three sons, and a daughter. Mr. Means was a member of Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity.

WILLIAM WASHBURN HALEY. William W. Haley, 64, of Pottstown, Pa., died May 25, 1961. Mr. Haley was a prominent potato merchant and shipper. Survivors include his wife, a son, and a daughter.

WILLIAM WASHBURN HALEY. William W. Haley, 64, of Pottstown, Pa., died May 25, 1961. Mr. Haley was a prominent potato merchant and shipper. Survivors include his wife, a son, and a daughter.

HORACE DENVER RIDLON. Horace D. Ridlon, 85, of Charleston, died September 16, 1961, at Bangor. A native of Newport, he was a graduate of the College of Arts and Sciences and Professional Women's Club, and the Houlton Women's Club. For several years Mrs. Nickerson was the owner and manager of the Nickerson House in Houlton, and include one sister and a niece. Mrs. Nickerson was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority.

FRED FORREST PEASE. Fred Forrest Pease, 77, died June 25, 1961 at Sagamook, Mass. A native of Lowell, Mass., he moved when child to Maine and graduated from Castine High School. After attending the University, Mr. Pease attended Army and Navy Preparatory School, Washington, D.C. Mr. Pease was founder of Opportunity School for Boys, a trade school for underprivileged children in New Gloucester. He was also a member of the board of directors. He was supervisor of apprentices at the Quincy Ship Yard, and wrote the first dictionary of ship building terms in 1916. In 1922 he went into business as an industrial research company. Sr. Pease was founder of Pease Engineering Company and professor of engineering at the Arthur D. Little Co., in Cambridge. In 1932 he joined the Pease Brothers where he was research engineer and inventor. His work with the Navy during World War II brought him an appointment to the late Frank Knox, then Secretary of the Navy, for his engineering and development programs in anti-aircraft warfare. On retirement, Mr. Pease worked at his expanded laboratory at his Squamscott home. His research engineering and numerous inventions resulted in improved types of coast guard launching gear to "ventilated" ciga- rettes. The last few years of his life were spent working on ventilating systems for atomic bomb shelters. Survivors include his wife, two daughters and a son. Mr. Pease organized the Pease-Athony Equipment Co., making devices to reduce air pollution.

OTIS WILIAM MEANS. Otis W. Means, 77, died July 5, 1961, at Bangor. Mr. Means had been employed by the Personnel Department of the New England Confectionery Co., of Cambridge, Mass. He is survived by his wife, three sons, and a daughter. Mr. Means was a member of Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity.
Gardiner's Staff for four years. During his college years he was a member of the Sophomore Owls and the Senior Skulls. Survivors include his wife, two sisters, his mother, a grandson, and a granddaughter. Mr. Balliou was a member of Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity.

1914 ROBERT WILBUR ANDREWS. Robert W. Andrews, 67, of Andover, Minn., owned and operated the Northfield, Minnesota, and Northern Paper Co., of Minneapolis, Minn., and served as chief engineer, executive vice president, and president of the company. In 1922 he joined the Brown Co. of Berlin, N. H., as assistant to the president, and was later promoted to Works Manager. He was recently in charge of construction and operation of the new paper mill to be erected in the company's old mill at Cambridge and was scheduled to retire Oct. 1 to New Hampshire. Mr. Andrews was a member of Beta Theta Pi Fraternity and a member of his one and only son.

EDWARD ISAAC GLIESER. Edward I. Gleeser, 69, of Bangor, died October 1, 1961. A Hartford, Conn., native, he graduated from the local schools, received his education at Trinity College, and his Law Degree from the University in 1914. He had been in continuous practice in Bangor, Me., since his graduation. He served as a recorder of the Bangor Municipal Court, and later was appointed Judge. He was President of the Bangor Bar Association. Mr. Gleeser was one of the incorporators of Katahdin Council, Boy Scouts of America. He served six years as the District Commissioner of the Boy Scouts. Mr. Gleeser was president of the Bangor Bookstore. He had been a member of the Masonic Lodge of Bangor, Me., since this year was elected president of the Maine Federation of Humane Societies. He was a member of St. Andrews Lodge AF and AM, and Anah Temple, Order of the Mystic Shrine, and was a member of the Penobscot and the American Bar Associations. Mr. Gleeser is survived by his wife, Gertie (Giles '15 Gleeser), and a son, Col. Roland M. '36, regimental commander of the University of Maine Academy, at West Point, N. Y., and by a brother. DR. WILLIAM EDWARD GIFFORD. Dr. Wil- liam E. Gifford, 72, of Bangor, died October 6, 1961. A native of Fairfield, Me., Dr. Gifford majored in zoology at the University of Maine, was principal of Brooklin High School. He then attended the American School of Osteopathy at Kirksville, Mo., and received his degree in 1924. Dr. Gifford started his practice in Bangor in 1926. He was a founding member of the James A. Taylor Osteopathic Hospital in Bangor, and a life member of the staff. Dr. Gifford was a member of the American Osteopathic Associations. Survivors include his wife, two sons, Lt. Col. William Gifford, Jr., '42 of Scott Air Force Base, Chicago, III., and a daughter Mrs. Clifford (Charlotte ‘43) Simnett of Portland.

1915 WALTER EVELYN MATHEWS. Walter E. Mathews, 73, died August 26, 1961, at his home 203 North Forest Circle, Orlando, Fla. A native of St. George, S. C., he practiced law in Oakland and at Ft. Fairfield, and served one term in the Maine Legislature. For more than 25 years he was attorney of record for the Consolidated Lumber Corp., with offices in New York City. In 1951 he moved to Orlando. Survivors include his wife and two daughters.

FRANCIS ANTHONY KELLY. Francis (Frank) A. Kelly, 68, of Croquet, Minnesota, died August 20, 1961, at the Dutchess County Hospital, a native of North Andover, Mass., he graduated from Phillips Exeter Academy before entering the University. His senior year he served the University of Michigan where he received his degree. He was employed by the Michigan Sugar Company for several years before going with the Coguic Lumber Company in 1929. He was General Logging Company from 1925 until he became associated with the New England Paper Company in 1929. He became vice president in charge of lands and timber in 1941 of that company, and served until his death. He was a member of the American Foresters Association (49) and was active with many other groups including the Foresters' Association of Wisconsin and the Forest Industries Information Committee, American Forest Products Industry, Keep Minnesota Green, and Society of American Foresters. Mr. Kelly was also president of the Duluth and Northeastern Railroad Co. for 3 years. Survivors include his wife, a daughter, and one grandchild. Mr. Kelly was a member of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity.

1916 ROY HARLAND GENTHNER. Roy H. Genthner, 68, of Noblesboro, died August 7, 1961. A native of Noblesboro, he was a graduate of Lincoln Academy and was a member of the Maine Federation of Humane Societies. He was a member of King Solomon Lodge A. F. and A.M. and Masonic Lodge. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge of Augusta. Survivors include his wife, a daughter, and two grandchildren. Mr. Genthner was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity.

EUGENE R. MERRY. Eugene R. Merry of Anson, died in January, 1956. A successful farmer all of his life, he lived at Smithfield, Me., where he was a selector for six years. He had also lived at Norridgewock, and in California before going to work for the Delight Fellows Lodge. He had ten children. A granddaughter, Sylvia F. Sawyer, of Anson, is a member of the Class of '65 of the University of Maine.

1918 GEORGE CLIFTON CAMERON. George C. Cameron, 63, of Fryeburg, died at his home August 12, 1961. A native of Center Conway, N. H., he graduated from Fryeburg Academy before entering the engineering course at the University. Mr. Cameron was for many years a consulting engineer in Ohio and in the states of the Midwest. He was a member of the Alpha Delta Sigma Fraternity. Survivors include his wife, two sisters, and a daughter. Mr. Cameron was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

MARY ELIZABETH FUREY. Miss Mary E. Uechti, 70, Ocean City, N. J., died August 23, 1961, at her home in Philadelphia. She was a graduate of Johnstown, Pa. She graduated from Topsham High School before entering the University. Miss Uechti held teaching positions at Bangor and at Malden, Massachusetts schools, and was for several years head of the English department at East Orange High School in New Jersey. Prior to her retirement 20 years ago she was treasurer of the Women's Research Association, and active on the East Orange Board. Survivors include two sisters and a brother.

ELLEN LIBBY CLARK. Miss Ellen L. Clark, of Alibon, died May 15, 1967. No further information is available.

RUTH MERSEREAU ROBINS. Mrs. Harry C. Robbins, of Nashua, N. H., died July 22, 1961. A native of Somerville, Massachusetts, Mrs. Robbins attended the University for two years and graduated from Simmons College in 1918. Before her marriage in 1929, Mrs. Robbins was a social worker in Framingham, Mass. From 1927 to 1961 Mrs. Robbins resided at Swampscott, Massachusetts, where she held office in many civic organizations, including the director of the Young Ladies Chapter of the American Red Cross. Survivors include a daughter, two grandchil- dren, and a brother. Mrs. Robbins was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority.

1919 MARIAN ESTHER STUBBS. Marian E. Stubbs, 65, died in Anson, Mass., and was a native of 1, 1961. A native of Buckspurk, she was a graduate of Eastern Maine Conference Seminary. Survivors include her mother, a brother, a son, nine grandchildren, and the University of Wisconsin, Miss Stubbs received a certificate from Pratt Institute, New York. Mrs. Stubbs was a member of Phi Mu Sorority.

JOHN GLUYN FUREY. John G. Furey, 65, died September 15, 1961, at Bangor, Me. He attended Bangor High School where he became a prominent athlete. Following his graduation from the University he transferred to the University of Maine, and was a member of the University of Maine baseball team. He was elected president of the local chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity. After graduation he transferred to the University of Maine and was a member of the American Legion of Bangor. Survivors include a sister, a brother, and a niece, Mrs. Furey was a member of Theta Chi Fraternity, and a Senior Skull.

1920 CARLETON AMES LANDERS. Carleton A. Landers, 62, of Lewiston, died September 7, 1961. A native of Bangor, he moved to Easton and was educated in the schools there. After graduating from the University he worked with the National Youth Administration at Haddon and Prescott Air bases. For many years he operated a general store at Easton. He served as high school principal at Vassalboro and Farmington. He was then administrative assistant at the Veterans Administration at Portland from which he re- tire June 4, 1939. He was a member a daughter, a son, and an other survivor. Mr. Landers was a member of Theta Chi Fraternity.

DR. FRANK EUGENE BARTON. DR. FRANK EUGENE BARTON, JR., D.D.S., 48, of Bangor, died September 10, 1961, at his home. A native of Bethel, Dr. Barton graduated from Gloucester (Mass.) High School, and after receiving his B.S. degree from Boston University School of Medicine in 1952, he went on to receive his D.D.S. degree from Boston University School of Dental Surgery. He was an assistant professor of clinical surgery at Boston University, a consultant at Massachusetts Memorial Hospital in Boston, and a member of the Hahnemann Hospital. He was a member of the American College of Surgeons and the Boston Surgical Society. In 1955 Dr. Barton was elected a trustee of Boston University in 1953 and was serving in that capacity at the time of his death. He was a member of the general alumni association for one year. May Last, May, Dr. Barton was chosen as "the outstanding medical alumnus" at the University of Maine. Survivors include his wife and a sister. Dr. Barton was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity.

1921 RAYMOND HARWOOD LOVEJOY, Raymond Lovejoy, 68, of Acton, died July 5, 1961, at a Veterans Hospital. He served in the Army. After graduation, Mr. Lovejoy was employed by the National Survey Co., of Chester, N. H. He then served in the Army, Extensions Service, a position which he held for 20 years. Following that Mr. Lovejoy was a member of the American Forest Products Industry, Keep Maine Green, and Society of American Foresters. Mr. Lovejoy was a member of the Maine Federation of Humane Societies. He was a member of the Alpha Delta Sigma Fraternity. Survivors include his wife, a son, three brothers, two sisters, and three grandchildren.

1922 EMMETT N. KELLEY. Emmett N. Kelley, 67, in Indianapolis, Ind., July 7, 1961. He was a native of Willimantic, Conn. He was a district engineer, division head of the Tennessee Highway office, in Indianapolis. Mr. Kelley was a veteran of War I., two daughters and a sister survive. Mr. Kelley was a member of the Delta Tau Delta Fraternity.

1923 GEORGE DUNNING YOUNG. Mrs. Donal D. Young, 62, of Bath, died September 7, 1961, after a two day illness. A native of Topsham, Mrs. Young was an active member of the Bath Women's Club. After graduating from the University, she taught school in eastern Maine and Bath. She moved to Bath as a science teacher at Morse High School where she taught for 30 years. She was a pianist teacher, and during World War II was a science teacher in that city. Following her husband's death in 1951, Mrs. Young...
Class of 1907 members are pictured at their annual “Little Reunion.” See Class of 1907 news for details. A. P. Wyman ’07, of Waterville, was behind camera that took this picture.

SENIOR ALUMNI

Annual Reunion, June 8-9-10, 1962

A Meeting Report

The annual meeting of the Executive Committee of the Senior Alumni Association was held at Homecoming in Orono. N. H. He was the class present: Richard F. Talbot ’07, President; Walter Farnham ’07, Second Vice President; James A. Gannett ’08, Secretary-Treasurer; and Fred D. Knight ’09, Ernest Lamb ’10, and Emerson P. Lamb ’07, Appointed Members. Henry W. Beards ’06, First Vice President, was prevented from attending the meeting by the weather which was giving the orchardists of Maine a tough time at that period.

Beside making plans for the Commencement meeting of the Senior Alumni next June the highlight of the committee meeting was the presenting to the University of a fourth Scholarship Award of $150 for the year 1961-62. Three Scholarship Awards were presented last June following the usual plan of the Senior Alumni.

James A. Gannett ’08, Sec’y-Treas.

1896

Charles P. Weston celebrated his 86th birthday on November 8, at the home of Convalescent Home in Orono. Arthur Deering ’12 and “Jim” Gannett ’08 were among the many callers on Mr. Weston on that day. “Jim” reports Mr. Weston in fine spirit and well remembered with cards by his friends. It is not too late to drop Mr. Weston a note.

1899

George Collins has a new address. Retired, he lives at 1216 Richmond Rd., Lexington, Ky.

1902

During Homecoming tentative plans were made for the 60th Reunion of this class. Margaret Mollison, Asst. Alumni Executive Director of the General Alumni Association and Arthur Silver for the 1902 promotion group discussed plans pertinent to arrangements for this reunion. This promotion group is comprised of Walter Eldridge, 15 Pond Circle, Jamaica Plain 30, Mass., Arthur E. Silver, 360 North Fullerton Ave., Upper Montclair, N. J., and Lida Knowles Smith (Mrs. Rainsford), 12 Bowman St., Bath. You’ll be hearing more from this class.

1903

Mr. Harvey D. Whitney 698 Minot Ave., Auburn

Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Sheahan celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary April 29. Mr. Sheahan, at 80 years of age, is an active practicing Civil Engineer at Somersworth, N. H. He was the class marshal for his 50th Reunion at the University in 1953.

Edward P. Murray, the only active-retired justice of the Maine Supreme Judicial Court passed his 85th birthday at his usual routine of hard work. Justice Murray expects to retire at the end of his current term in 1962.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. George Freeman, of Gray, in the death of his wife, ETHELYN, on September 2, 1960. Mrs. Freeman was active in music circles, and was retired from 24 years of teaching in Portland.

1904

Correction: Everett Gill lives at 177 Midland Ave., Tarrytown, N. Y., and not at Bangor as reported.

Address correction. Mr. Allen M. Knowles’ address is 920 Lincoln Circle, Winter Park, Fla. In the October Alumni we inadvertently had him back in a Northern clime, while for the past 3 years he has been basking in sunshine at the above address in Florida. As proof, Mr. Knowles sent us a picture of his home which is one of the show places in Winter Park. An early cousin of Mr. Knowles was co-founder of Winter Park, 1881-1885, as well as of Rollins College. Mr. Knowles says, “Winter Park has a homey sort of feeling for me.”

1907

Mr. Karl MacDonald 27 Nelson Ave., Wellsfield, N. Y.

The “Little Reunion” was held at Kobs Lobster Pound, Searsport, on Saturday, July 29. A very enjoyable time was had by all—except that it was chilly on the shore after dinner. The following were present with their wives: Lucius Barrows, Emerson Lambe, Karl MacDonald, Dick Talbot, and Perce Wyman. Also present were Edith (Tate) Brawn, Walter Farnham, and Ben Williams. We were very sorry “Russ” Woolley, Executive Director, and Miss Mollison, assistant director of the General Alumni Association could not be with us due to a meeting scheduled in Portland.

Edith (Tate) Brawn, 140 Castle Ave., Westbury, N. Y., had her usual visit with us at Pitcher Pond during which she attended the “Little Reunion” and then went to Bangor to visit her cousins. She says it is a long drive to and from Westbury, alone. Next time she expects to fly.

James P. Van Pagan, 400 Poplar St., Laguna Beach, Calif., writes, “No news, but last Sunday (Aug. 5) we visited Helen (Steward) Bradstreet, ’09. She had been under the weather, from a fall, for the last few weeks. Much better now and coming along O.K.”

John H. Burleigh, 15 Lincoln St., Exeter, N. H., says he has no news. “We lead a very quiet life. A small garden in the summer, an occasional week end with the various members of the family, plus frequent games of contract Bridge are our chief diversions.” He expects to be at our 55th Reunion but says long distance driving with his eyes as they are, is not too good. Perhaps some classmate can take care of this?

Eva (Libby) Jordan arrived in Hartland June 13 and spent the summer with her sister. Says she enjoys working in the garden there. She returned to 640 11th Ave., S., St. Petersburg, Fla., for the winter. She is secretary to the Puget Sound Marine Club there.

Howard C. Stetson, 1349 S. Gaylord Ave., Denver, Col., reports that on June 27, they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. On account of Mrs. Stetson’s heart condition, her doctors said they could not have open house. However, their two sons, both engineers, came with their wives, also two grandchildren and they had a fine time.

We wish to extend sympathy to William Alexander and family on the loss of her husband who was our class president. See Necrology.

1909

Mr. Fred D. Knight 9 Westhaven Drive, W. Hartford 27, Conn.

EDITOR’S NOTE: Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Knight who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on June 14, 1961.

Many strange and unexpected things occur while traveling and we feel that it was just such an occurrence that led to the meeting of Miss and Mr. Knight.

Formerly of Massachusetts, the Knights went to the eastern coast of Mexico to visit friends. They planned to see the Mayan ruins of Chichen Itza and then stop in Mexico City where Mr. Knight was to attend a meeting of the American Institute of Mining Engineers.

On the contrary, they were to spend their last night in Mexico City and then fly to the Bahamas to spend their anniversary and the next few days at Guyana’s Carriacou Island in the Caribbean Sea.

But things happen. A friend’s sudden illness kept them longer in Mexico City. They also visited Guadalajara, a city of some 750,000 people.

They returned to Mexico City just in time to return to the United States and then to the Bahamas. They spent their wedding anniversary in Nassau for a few days and then continued their tour to the Caribbean Islands and the Bahamas, stopping at places they have always wanted to visit. They have received nothing but wonderful attention and a most cordial welcome everywhere they went.

The Knights have also celebrated their Silver Anniversary and are active members of the Miami Alumni Club.

1911

Mr. Avery C. Hammond P. O. Box 200, 713 East Market St., Bangor

You will find that we are in, this year, every other month. There is but one way, now, to be published in the off months.

William Hilton, was again honored by The Great Northern Paper Company, for whom he served for almost 50 years. Their new steel Tow Boat to be used at Chesuook Lake was named William Hiltson. His youngest daughter, Mrs. Mary Hilton
Mr. in Maine. He was a graduate of the Uni-

The Ernest Walker took another tour during the past summer in the European direction. After the trip, he returned to the Ernest T. Walker room in the Union Building with some every-glass containing 1000.00, the gift of the Eastern Five Paper and Pulp Division, Standard Packing Corp., Bremerton.

One of the two members retired from the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Commissions in June. The other member was written, "I was on June 10th, last and still going. Would like to hear from any surviving members of the U. of M. baseball team that shut out Harvard 2-0 on Soldier's Field at Cambridge in 1908 for the first Maine victory over a Harvard team. Phil Ryan (1911) pitched and I cought."

Claude H. Gipilarget, Gatineau, Que., Canada, was agent for the Canadian International Paper Co., for 44 years, retired about six years ago.

George A. Mealy, now at 555 N. E. 50 Ter., Mead, Florida.
The President, John H. McInnis, is at 3 Handy Ctr., Burlington, Vt.

Our President, Joseph McCusker, was master of ceremonies recently, at the dinner honoring the Rev. Francis LeTourneau on the occasion of his 25th anniversary of his ordination in the Episcopal church.

He has now forwarded me the information that our Class of 1917 Scholarship of $500.00, for 1961-62, has been awarded to Mary E. Brooks '64 of Brunswick, Me.

Here are some new addresses for your files.
Mr. Philip T. Verrill, 144A So. Main St., Rockland, Me.

Mr. Martin R. Hilton, 555 E. Broadway,
Augusta; Mr. Carlton S. Herrick, 5 Gillet St., Hartford, Conn.; Mr. Bryant Hopkins, Box 162, Wasserl, Maine.

Mrs. James H. Freeland (Polly Mansur)
130 Grove St., Bangor

Ralph A. Wilkins, president of Bird & Son, Inc., received an honorary doctorate degree from Suffolk University in June. He was recently elected treasurer of the U. of M. Pulp and Paper Foundation.
A picture in the Bangor Daily News showed him seated at a table with other officers of the Foundation. He was also recently appointed to the advisory council to Suffolk University College of Business Administration.

Samuel W. Collins of Caribou has been re-elected to a five year term on the U. of M. Foundation Board.

Carl A. Anderson has retired as principal of Thetford Academy after serving 36 years. He and his wife were feted by friends at a reception held in Anderson Auditorium which is named after him.

The Bangor Daily News recently reported that former Maine State Senator, Kenneth B. Colbath has gone on the Pentagon payroll at $30 a day as "local coordinator" with the Federal Government in transition problems of Presque Isle Air Base and the community. He will be paid "for the days he works" a Defense Department spokesman said. He was officially hired as a consultant and his services would be needed for several weeks.
No paper recently showed a picture of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Hacker of 21 Sheffield St. asboard the American Export Line passenger ship the United States. The vessel is now on a 12,000 mile cruise to the Mediterranean.
They visited Spain, France, Italy, Greece, Egypt, and Lebanon.

Dwight B. Demerrit, vice president of the Dead River Co. has been named a member of the National Defense Reserve. Drawn from industrial and professional ranks, the Reservists would man the operation of a production unit of a national defense plant.

The Boston Herald recently had a picture of L.
Earle Merrow, vice president of the Orange and Revere Utilities, Inc.

Elliott E. Hall, Vinalhaven, has written a book titled "My Folks and I". A copy of this book has been placed in the University Library.

A large barn fire in Maine owned by Thomas Dexter was recently destroyed by fire. The loss was estimated at about $25,000 which included farm equipment, 25 tons of hay and four cows. Firemen were able to save the home although it was badly scorched.
Jim and I attended the homecoming luncheon and football game with my brother Everett B.
Mastiche, his wife Glena, and we were delighted to see so many familiar faces.

1921
Mrs. Stoumont Josselyn
(Emilie Kratzer)
228 Kennebec Ave., Haverhill, Mass.
Hello, you '21ers!
Sorry some of you missed a perfectly wonderful reunion!
A note of thanks to Dot Smith McDonald for her invitation to this anniversary celebration.

1922
Mr. Leslie W. Hutchins
30 Albion Rd., Waban 68, Mass.
Mrs. Dorothy Kinsbury Houston, formerly of 'Orrington, is now living in Dover, Fla.
Your Class was scholars and made Homcoming for much work was in progress at the farm in India. You'll hear from us soon with plans for the future.

1923
Mrs. Norman E. Torrey
(Toni Gould)
9 Poplar St., Bangor
We were delighted to hear of the death of Raymond A. Colborn, husband of our classmate, Gladys Staples, and extend to her sincere sympathy. She was at the Pond Hotel again last summer and continues to live at Seal Harbor.

It is most pleasant to encounter Elizabeth Ring at the Conference of the Maine Historical Societies at Wiscasset this past summer. Besides this she is the President of the Maine Genealogical Society. She is also the President of the Maine Historical Society and actively participating in producing the newsletters to her members. Recently, she gave an illustrated talk on Maine before the N.E. Assoc. of Teachers of Genealogy. Her Spring Conference. Elizabeth's address is 197 Pine St. Apt.
32, Portland.

Our congratulations to Elizabeth Hitchings on being selected "Woman of the Year" by the Caribbo PW, a most deserving recipient. In addition to teaching History and Social Studies in Caribbo H.S., she has been president of the Caribou Teachers' Club, as well as being an active member of the Acroostook County and Maine Teacher's Associations.

Howard H. Randle, our former class Pres., now resides at 148 Dresden Ave., Gardiner, Me.
We welcome you back to Maine upon your retirement, Howard.

Dr. Morris Witchell Allen, a member of the faculty of the U. of Cincinnati and Consultant at the Childern's Hospital, was in Oslo, Norway, this spring, recently wise appointed by the International Board of Directors of the Children's International Summer Villages, of which she was chairman, President and founder. This fall Doris participated in a panel discussion on "Growth in attitudes favorable for Peace: Outcome from experiences at the Villages from ten years of study," at the National Convention of the SPSSI (The Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues) in NYC. When at home, her address is 30 W. Fountain, Glendale, Ohio.

1925
Mrs. William E. Schrumpf
(Mildred "Brownie" Brown)
Linwood "Zeke" Dwelly retired this past spring after 30 years as Ski Coach at Edward Little High at Auburn. "Zeke" now resides in Auburn as a member of the Maine Skiing Hall of Fame.

"Chet" Baker has been re-elected State Secretary of the YMCA.
Cecil (Sam) Cutts, of Orono, was promoted from Assistant Director of Student Aid at the University to Associate Director.

Robert (Annie Fuller) Linn lives at 38 Westwood Drive, Orono. He attended the University of Maine and is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Association of Teachers of English and also of the Portland College Club.

Burleigh Hutchins last summer joined Bird & Sparhawk as a vice president at charge of engineering. He will direct various engineering activities including design, power plant and industrial engineering, and will serve as consultant on plant engineering. He holds a degree in Business and Engineering Administration from M.I.T., as well as the one in Electrical Engineering from Maine. From 1945 until his recent employment he was a staff consultant for The Rust Engineering Co. of Pitts-bury, a pulp and paper specialist.

John W. White is president of the Bangor Art Society this year. Both he and his wife (Marnie White) are very active in art circles in the Bangor area.

George W. (Bim) Damon, who was with us just days ago, has returned to Salem for the year, working in the Fitzhugh, Mass. newspaper. He is the street and sewer superintendent of Leominster, Mass. He worked as a city engineer in Salem during World War II, of which their ancestors were early settlers, and were highly praised for the jobs that they are doing for their city.

Ward F. Snow of Blue Hill was elected first vice president of the Maine County of the National Asso. of Postmasters, which is the main concern for the Blue Hill area.

Whitney Stowe has been re-elected president of the state Y.M.C.A. executive committee.

We now have the address of Sally Finks who

THE MAINE ALUMNUS
NOVEMBER-DECEMBER, 1961

was listed in the lost column in the Alumni Of-

We start our news of classmatess this fall season by

Classmates who were entertained so pleasantly at

Classmates who were entertained so pleasantly at

The children's center. Polly took her master's deg-

This has been a busy year for the Thomas M.

This has been a busy year for the Thomas M.

NOVEMBER-DECEMBER, 1961

on your next 30 years' service the Army

We start our news of classmatess this fall season by

Classmates who were entertained so pleasantly at

Classmates who were entertained so pleasantly at
Hello there! Please note your new class secretary's name above—she does keep her mail box bulging with lots of news concerning our class members.

We have had a successful reunion. The committee in charge certainly deserve a great deal of credit. I am sure we will make the festivities at the Tarrants Club Friday night, Loads of fun and laughter prevailed as hummous and, with our friends and neighbors present, it was a great success. I am unable to unsucepting soult. Your new class officer are all interested, and I would like to meet you all at the dinner. V. P., John Dyer;

Charlotte, Maine, is teaching grade two in Deep River, Conn.

Madeline Devitt (Mary Orr) who is president of the Alumni teachers introduced Dr. David Pink, Jr., of Portland. The Alumni Teachers Association annual luncheon meeting during the Eastern section of the State Teachers Convention at Portland.

This job is getting easier! Only two more columns coming—one in March and one in June. So, if you have any news, please send it along for these issues.

1941

Mrs. Donald G. Wilson

Timberluff, Camden

Hello there! Please note your new class secretary's name above—she does keep her mail box bulging with lots of news concerning our class members.

We have had a successful reunion. The committee in charge certainly deserve a great deal of credit. I am sure we will make the festivities at the Tarrants Club Friday night, Loads of fun and laughter prevailed as hummous and, with our friends and neighbors present, it was a great success. I am unable to unsucepting soult. Your new class officer are all interested, and I would like to meet you all at the dinner. V. P., John Dyer;

Charlotte, Maine, is teaching grade two in Deep River, Conn.

Madeline Devitt (Mary Orr) who is president of the Alumni teachers introduced Dr. David Pink, Jr., of Portland. The Alumni Teachers Association annual luncheon meeting during the Eastern section of the State Teachers Convention at Portland.

This job is getting easier! Only two more columns coming—one in March and one in June. So, if you have any news, please send it along for these issues.

1942

Mrs. Gilbert Y. Tavenner

28 Vernon St., Brookline 46, Mass.

Having just returned from Homecoming at Orono, I am filled with the feeling of how interesting and how good it is to visit the campus periodically. One male alumna with whom I was talking at the luncheon Saturday noon said, "Gee, there are a lot more girls than there used to be!" And I replied, "Yes, but there are a lot more boys, too!" And actually, I believe statistics would bear me out that the proportion is still in the ratio of 3 to 1. . .

In terms of total numbers, there were just about 2,000 on campus today. Today you find close to 4,400. Just think what that means for those admiring the landscape. And just think what that means in relation to the growth of the alumni body. Are you doing what you can to support your alma mater? Have you ever been in that 3 x 5 yellow, white, or salmon card along with your check to show how interested you are in the development of your Alma Mater? If not, why not?

This month has brought numerous bits of special news including, first of all, the fact that our class president Bill Hare has moved on to greener field's once again. He is serving as coordinator of projects in teacher and administrator education being undertaken jointly by four universities in upper New York state, Rochester, Cornell and Syracuse. These projects are part of a broad program, supported during its first six-year phase by a grant of $1,000,000 from the Ford Foundation. These four institutions through their schools of education are initiating an intensive program aimed at improving the teaching of English in the United States. Bill and Martha live at 114 College Ave., Ithaca, N. Y., and I hope to visit them soon.

Our class officers seem to be on the move currently! Nat Crowley has retired from active coaching and has accepted an offer to be guidance instructor at Lincoln High School. He is teaching for 18 years and is most of all will remember coached Lewiston High School's basketball championships in 1959-60 and to the State in 1960.

Jean (Goodwin) Fenlon is living at 31 Hart Lane, Newington, Conn., which is in the Hartford area. Her husband, Al, is managerial of a new line of waring house ware at an opened store in that area, Corbin's Corner. The Fenlons have two children, John 9, and Barbara Ann 18 months.

In a recent change of organizational structure of the Eastern States Farmers Exchange, Bob Brown of Pittsfield was appointed a district fieldman covering Crop, Penobscot, and Washington counties.

Margaret (French) Franz will be stationed at Ft. Roberts, Georgia, until next fall when Dick completes 20 years of service in the USAF. Dick is a Major. They have two children, Barbara and Michael.

Carl Duncan has a new address—2412 Poma Lumina, Winter Park, Fla. Phyllis (Bartlett) Bond gives Betcher Falls, Vt., as her home. She is interested in raising at least part of the winter in Florida last year and working at the Hillsboro Club, Pompano Beach, Fla. R. H. S. R. S. lives at 193 Anglewood, N. J., and is a project engineer with Burns & Roe. O. B. lives in New York City, but he was located at Oak Ridge Nat'l Laboratory on a project.

Barbara (Thompson) Willets and husband Bob and three daughters Pat 17, Cynthia 14, and Sandy 5 are living at 604 W. High St., Edwardsville, Ill., where they have been located since about a year ago. Bob is Regular Army. Their travels have taken them to Florida, Arizona, and Washington. Bob picked up a Master's in Bus. Admins. along the way and is currently Acting Deputy of the Papelle Co. You'll remember that Barbara (Thompson) Willets lives at 48 Dogwood Lane, Levant, K. 1., N. Y. Her children range in age from 8 to 8 years to 8 years (4 boys, 2 girls). She writes that her family occupies most of her time, but that she has digitized his research with Dot MacLeod Bedard and Marcia McCarthy Brown. Incidentally, I saw Marica at Waves on May 30th this summer where her daughter was a camper.

Fred Herboldt, Jr, of Kaukauna, Wisconsin, is now employed by the Federal Relevee, and Paper Open House. He is vice president for manufacturing of the Thalian Pump and Paper Co. You'll remember that Mrs. H. is the former Phyllis Danforth.

Edward Robinson was recently sworn in at Maine Indian Commissioner's hearing examiner. The ceremony took place in the office of the Governor. Harold L. Emerson has joined in partnership with his brother, Dave, in the J. H. Harvey Co. agency in Houston, Me.

Eugene Reynolds has been named superintendent of the new M.A. public school district at the Travers Insurance Co. in Wethersfield, Conn. Gene is married and has three children.

This class has a number of classmates have married as follows: Merril L. Donahue, 21 Laurel Rd., New York City, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Wallace, G.A.D.S. (SOCP), 777, N. W.; and Herman R. Wing, M.D., Dept. of Physical Medicine and Rehab., U. of Louisville Sch. of Med., 340 East Market St., Louisville 2, Ky.

1945

Richard H. Danforth

6 Central St., Winthrop

"What Happened?"

Here's the question for this issue.

Mrs. Norma (Howle) Tiffany, of Cushings, Maine, attended the Foreign Language Institute at the U.S. Army Air Force Language School under a National Defense Education Act Grant. The course consisted of teaching methods, literature and the study of French. While in Orono, she lived at the language house where French was spoken at all times.

The class officer of the Junior-Senior High School of Llanget, Mass., has resigned that position to accept a position as principal of the Hilland Park High School of Highland Park, N. J.

Betty (Brown) Blood, of Farmington, has recently been appointed to the faculty of the Mallet School of Law, University of Maine. While in Farmington State Teachers College, in Farmington, as announced by President Erm H. Scott, Rebecca (Bowden) Herrick, of Blue Hill, has... been named an instructor in modern society at the University of Maine. She is also doing graduate study at the university and expects to receive her master's degree in 1962.

Eugene Bailey of North Lubec, president of the Maine Sardine Packers' Association, was in attendance at a recent meeting of the Maine Sardine Council at the Pilots Grill in Bangor. Among the prominent people present was Dr. Lloyd Elliott, president of the University.

Latest news from the Mortgage Trading Division: A note from Cal Frier, who has just recently been promoted to Sales Manager for the Union Metal Mfg. Co. of Canton, Ohio, resulting in their moving from San Francisco, Calif., to a new address at 2805 Midvale Road, NW, Canton 8, Ohio. While on the coast, they saw a lot of Ken and Judy Marden, Nilda and Pete Tatsclaus. In Canton, they see a lot of Harry Crowell. Cal, send us these folks' addresses, will you? Thanks for the note.

The long lost is found, Kenneth H. Clausen is now residing in Tucson, Ariz. (Overton Rd. RDF 1, Box 743).

Howard C. "Howis" Barber, the terror of the Sinky Sillwate, has moved to 137 Cadin Ave., Rumford, R. I. Soooooo... Free Lunch?

Elinore L. Beeker, who is with the West Irondequoit Board of Education, has a new address at 54 Kings Lane, Rochester 17, N. Y.

William "Bill" Marble has moved to 23 Poo Ave., Wyncote, Pa.

Martin "Kell" Kelley, Sales Engineer for Firth-Stirling Co., is now residing at 49 Arndell Rd., West Hartford, Conn.

Robert and Edith (Merrill) Lancaster have moved from Clarksburg, West Va., to 109 Ashley Ave., Charleston 4, West Va. Is that further South?

Mr. Francis E. Howe, formerly of the Marine Corps, is now at home at 44 Whiting Road, Wellesley, Mass.

Leona Peterson now makes her home at 81-29 Cowles Court, Middle Village, 79, Queens, N. Y. (M. Miller recently of Washington, D. C., can now be reached only through the following method: Write Robert Miller, Postal Officer at Bethesda 2933, New York City, N. Y.)

That's it for now—Please help this nosy news-head out, and write.

1947

Mrs. Walter C. Brooks (Peg Spaulding)
57 Leighton Street, Bangor
15th Reunion, June 8-9-10, 1962

Miss Rachel Jones of Auburn has been appointed health education program director of the new Dairy Council of Southeastern New England. The Dairy Council office will be located in Providence and will serve the entire State of Rhode Island, and New Bedford, Taunton and other southeastern Massachusetts communities. Rachel received her Masters Degree in public health from the Univ. of Michigan last June.

Thomas A. Harrington, for the past five years assistant director of Pittsfield General Hospital has been appointed administrator of the Mary Lane Hospital at Ware, Mass. Tom was elected by the American College of Hospital Administrators to membership a year ago. He is the co-author of articles published in HOSPITALS, the association's magazine. Locally, Tom is an incorporator and treasurer of the Senior Citizens' Center, and chairman of the Home Care Program Committee, a sub-committee of the Citizens Advisory Council formed to meet medical and physical needs of individuals ill at home. The program is connected with the Pittsfield Health Department. The Harrington's home is at 21 Elm St., Ware, Mass. Their boys names are Thomas A. Jr., Allan Crane and Stephen Reed.

Congratulations to Ben and Libby Hodges, Jr. (Elizabeth White), 695 Webster St., Needham 92, Mass., on the adoption of their son Peter Franklin in August. He is now 11 months.

A change of address for Darrol E. Robinson to 189 Redner Ave., Battle Creek, Michigan.

Reid T. Parker's latest address is 4018 Idalia St., Apt. 2, El Paso, Texas.

Miss Elizabeth Kelso's new address is 43 Davenport Ave., Apt. 2 D, New Rochelle, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Dow's address is RDF 2, Turner, Me.

Charles L. Carpenter's new address is 810 Brinsmore Drive, Elm Grove, Wis.

A new address for Mrs. Arline T. Pilot is 112 Phillips St., Bangor, Maine.

A new address for Mrs. John W. Peavey (May A. Barlow) is 280 Park St., Springfield, Vermont.

Can't find your Class Column? There's a reason for it. See Page 21.

1949

Mrs. Oscar R. Hahnell, Jr. (Julie Shores)
12 Jepson Ave., Lewiston
Miss our column last month? I hope that some of you thought it was for lack of news and plan to remedy the situation. Meanwhile...

One new arrival to report, actually he is over a year old now! Curtis Roy Betts, born Oct. 31, 1960; to Bill and Mary (Curtis). He joins three brothers, David, Donald, and Robbie.

Sumner Martin Robison of NATICK, Mass., an instructor in pharmacology and biology at the Mass. College of Pharmacy, has been awarded an M.S. in Pharmacy by that institution.

Lewis Wyman has added to his growing list of honors, this time a National Association of County Agricultural Agents distinguished service award presented at the annual meeting of the association in New York City in September.

Wallace Woodcock is the new head of the English department at Bangor High. Wallace took his Masters at the University in 1954 and has been teaching at Fort Fairfield High School.

Aaron Nelson, Jr., is the new principal at Livermore Falls High School.

Robert Folsom has been promoted to development physicist in semiconductor device development at IBM's Poughkeepsie, N. Y. component laboratory. He is in charge of a group engaged in development of special purpose transistors for application in advanced memory units.

Elbert Moulton, Jr., is the new executive manager of the Greater Lawrence (Mass.) Chamber of Commerce. For the past five years he has held similar positions in Vermont.

Vance Dearborn, who has been the town manager in Dexter for the past six years and was president of the Maine Town and City Managers Assoc., resigned from his post in July so that he can work for his Masters degree at the University. He will also be a part-time instructor in government. He and Evie (Ellsworth) have four children, three girls and a boy.

MUSICAL GIFTS for MAINE MEN and Their Families
Imported Swiss Movement Plays:
Maine's Stein Song

with College Seal and Song

☐ Cigarette Box ........................... $ 9.95
☐ Humidor-Pipe Back ....................... 14.95
☐ Table Lighter ............................ 14.95
☐ Ash Tray (song only) .......................... 5.95

(We pay all shipping charges)

Name Address
City State

MUSICAL CREATIONS, INC.
18 Exchange St., Pawtucket, R. I.

ALUMNI AND THEIR GUESTS

ARE CORDIALLY INVITED WHEN VISITING THE CAMPUS . . .

TO - A Convenient Place TO - A Beautiful Room
TO - A Delicious Menu

THE NEW FORD ROOM

LUNCHEON AND DINNER

SUNDAY THROUGH FRIDAY

THE FORD ROOM, MEMORIAL UNION

NOVEMBER-DECEMBER, 1961
Charles "Leach" is now with Sydney S. Morgan Co., 1 Clarendon St., Boston. Charlie and family live at 10 Longfellow Rd., Lexington.

Robert F. Bird is director of operations at St. Mary's General Hospital here, will leave in mid-November to take over as assistant administrator at Mercy Hospital, Farmington, Conn. Mr. Bird has been active in his field, serving as president of the Massachusetts chapter of the American Hospital Association, and recently elected to the Board of Directors of the N. American Hospital Association.

Robert Marcus is here in Lewiston as manager of the new Columbia Market. He and Emily (Smith) Marcus, their family of five are living at the Hogan Road.

A new address for Dick (’50) and Jodie Wakefield is 44 Longmeadow Drive, Brewer.

A. Wilford Bridges, Jr., and family have moved from Pennslyvania to 4741 Faye Drive, South Eustis, 211, Mass.
GOOD and GOOD for you
it’s HOOD’S ICE CREAM

Meet University and Alumni friends at . . .

VALLE’S STEAK HOUSE
Quality meals and service
Locations in Portland, Scarborough, Kittery, and Newton, Mass.

MOTIVATION VIA COMMUNICATIONS

Businessman, Industrialists, Educators, Engineers, Scientists, Government Leaders are convinced that:

- PRINTING is the principal means of communications.
- Catalogs, Manuals, Booklets, Folders, Inserts, Statement Staffers, Streamers, Annual Reports, Flyers etc are the best means of TRANSMITTING INFORMATION.
- Our plant is geared with CRAFTSMEN and equipment to produce motivating literature of top-notch quality.

For analysis of present or future printing requirements, communicate with Gordon R. Staff ’44, Vice President

STAFF PRESS, INC. • Creative Printers
26 CLINTON AVENUE • VALLEY STREAM, N.Y.
1953

Mrs. Philip E. Johnson

(Elin Rutt)

Southold, Long Island

Hello again! I have a lot of news this month so here goes—

Mrs. M. Stevens has been appointed employee relations manager of the Springfield, Mass., plant of the Monsanto Chemical Co. In Portland, Vt., Herald we learn that Earle Jowdy has been appointed instructor in scientific research at the University of Connecticut School of Law as associate professor.

207 Burns St., Apt. 2, North Attleboro, Mass. After leaving Maine, Al, a Navy veteran, graduated

Can’t find your Class Column? There’s a reason for it. See Page 21.

from Boston University. He is employed by the Metal and Controls Division of the Texas Instrument

Corp., Albuquerque, N. M.

on June 3, Sally Ann Harum, South Brewer, became the bride of Andrew H. Smith. He has a position with the General Electric Co., Fitchburg, Mass. Their address is 6 Chapel St., Ashburnham, Mass.

Eleanor Johnson, Waterford, Conn., and Melvin Young were married on July 22. He is with the Research and Development Division of the General Dynamics Corporation’s Electric Boat Division, Groton, Conn. They reside at Box 153 Groton, Conn.

Janice Hinkle, Augusta, will marry Fred An-drearm, an employee of the Maine Power Co., in February. Fred, who served with the Army

Security Agency in Turkey, is a candidate for a master’s degree in electrical engineering from the U. of M. His address is 1 Oak St., Hayford Heights,

Hallowell.

Dorothy Beauregard, Fitchburg, Mass., and Donald Freeman have announced their engagement. Don.

who is chief technician at the WTOR, lives at 8 Travis St., Torrington, Conn.

on the Maine Street.

Clay Sinclair, a member of the New York State

Bar Association, has a position with O’Donnell and Schwartz. This firm specializes in labor law. His address is 100 Lenox Ave. Apt. 16-M, New York,

N. Y.

Zira Scheer has moved to 218 South Whitney St.,

Hartford 5, Conn.

Beery Connors is a claimant examiner with Group

Hospitalization, Inc., Washington, D. C., her address is 2725 29th St., N. W., Apt. 319, Washington

8.

Tom Golden, physical education instructor at Portland High School, and his family make their home at 15 Pine St., Portland. Stuart Cohen, D.M.D., has opened his practice.

He can be reached at 460 Main St., Lewiston.

Chris ’58, Laura ’58, and David ’59 (Springer’s officings—Sandra, Chris, and Debbie—are living in

Petersburg, Va., while he does his army stint at Fort

Lee. Last February, he completed his law degree from the University of Michigan.

Jacob Rublin has accepted a job with an engineering firm in Massachusetts. He lives at 273

257, Tremont St., Newton, Mass.

Dexter Earley is with the New England Telegraph and Telephone Company. His address is in Box 12, Sabattus.

How hard does rain fall? Walter Grant, a soil scientist with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, is a member of a U. of M. team, who has developed a unique apparatus to measure the effect of rain.

The equipment will allow them to test the effects of rainfall on different types of vegetables.

Wally Covel is varsity football and baseball coach at Orono High School. In addition to his coaching duties, he teaches physical education, health and science. Lives at 100 Main St., Orono.

Joan (Mason) Lane is program chairman of the Augusta Branch, American Association of University Women. The group will do a comprehensive study of the Latin America in the spring of the year.

Neat Akie is the new pastor of the United Church of Chester, Conn. For several years, he, his wife and daughter lived in Bradford, Vt., where he was pastor of the Congregational Church. He had pastorates in Phillips and Trenton.

At the invitation of the English Department at Lawrence High School, Fairfield, has been appointed instructor of English Composition and Literature at New College, Beverly, Mass.

Alcolm Dobie is the new principal of Rockland

High School. He has held the same position at Bricign, Stonington and LaGrange high schools.

Margaret, his wife, Marilyn, and their children—Michael, Robert and Marilyn—live in Rockland.

James Carr attended the 47th Annual Clinical

Conference of the American College of Surgeons in Chicago, Ill., last month. He presided at a scientifi-cconference sponsored by the children’s Home in Boston, Mass., where he is a surgical research as-instant in the heart research laboratory. Jim and his wife have a four-year-old daughter.

When the Brewer Junior Chamber of Commerce held its annual Awards Banquet on April 27, John

Dixon won the SPOKE Award for having participated in the most projects.

Stanley Fulton was awarded his Ph.D. degree in biology at the annual commencement of Brown

University on June 5. He wrote a thesis on “An ecosystem in a strangely managed forest.”

Bruce Parker has received his master’s degree in science from Cornell University. For the previous year, Billie Atkins attended Sophia University while he was stationed at Japen in the U. S. Air Force. He earned his bachelor’s degree in civil engineering from Northernastern University in June. Billie resides in Wareham, Mass., with his wife, Mary, and their children—Victoria, Cynthia and Watti III.

“Bill” Baker received his master’s degree in education at the University of Vermont on August 19. For four years, he has been a teacher of social studies and varsity baseball coach at Sandwich, Mass., High School.

Philip Edgcombe has been awarded a Ph.D. dege-history and anthropology from the Pennsylvania State University, where he earned his master’s degree in 1960. He and Jackie have one child.

Dick and Libby (Currier) Eustis became the proud parents of Jeffrey Donnell on December 16. He was born to Barbara and Jeffrey of a Massachusetts firm, Bangor, a heating equipment firm. A two-year-old son, James, resides with his wife and two children on R.F.D. 1, Carmel.

Reggie Bowden, press secretary to Governor

John Reed ’42, accompanied a small group which taveled to Honolulu, Hawaii, in June for the annual National Governors Conference.

Sammie, a clothing specialist for the Cooperative Extension Service at the U. of M., spoke on “Tracking the Traveling Wardrobe” at the mother day and daughter desert meeting of the United

Business and Professional Women’s Council, Brewer, at the University of Maine.

Leonard Bowles is at De. 399 MIT, Lincoln Labs,

Lexington 73, Mass. He, his wife and two boys live at Wachusett Dr., Lexington, Mass.

I have a guess that is at least as good as any other you may have along. . . . Incidentally, those of you who will be doing things and going places. . . . Won’t you let me know about your activities. . . . Love to hear from you.

1957

Mrs. Gary Beaulieu

(Jane Eaton)

464 Notre Dame Ave.

Manchester, N. H.

May 19, 1957

Keep Our 5th Reunion in Mind!

Way last May I received a long, newsy letter from Cally (Perkins) Holt. After a long delay, her letter came—making my news column very easy this month!

Nancy (McGourdish) and Peter Guthy now have their children, Carol and Peter Jay. They live at 119

6th St., in Brooklyn. They have a second child, Connie (Doe) and Gil Leslie and their two sons have joined David live at 198 Dow St., Newington

11, Conn.

And ever-busy Minnie McCann, 59 Fessenden St., Portland, Me., who has been teaching fifth grade at Portland, is a widow. She has been active in the Parent-Child Center and served as president of the Portland Classroom Teachers for two years.

Carol (Hallé) and Gene Higgins are living at 11 Maple Ave., Salem, N. H., with their children, Timothy and Katheryn.

Janet (Higgins) and Bud Nolan and their girls, Lisa and Lorrie, live at 1717 4th St., Seabrook, TO ALL MAINE ALUMNI:

A reminder that the decision to build the Hauck Auditorium is soon to be announced by the Board of Trustees. It ought to occur without delay.

It has been determined to ask for an addition to the present total of the fund of $100,000 to MAKE IT A MILLION for all fund purposes.

That amount represents substantially what was originally planned—a theatre-type auditorium costing approximately three-quarters of a million dollars. The Memorial Union has already been completed.

Have your gift and pledge been paid? Does your gift represent your full desire to see the auditorium arise?

We urge you to join us now in making our project complete.

THE CAMPAIGN LEADERS

“A Public-Private Partnership”
Peter O. Minott received an M.S. in Optics at the University of Rochester, Rochester, New York in June.

William A. Burke has been appointed group representative in the Indianapolis group office of Bankers Life Company of Des Moines, Iowa. He lives at 5927 West 16th St., Indianapolis, Ind. John A. Corson is at 13 Elizabeth St., Dorval, Quebec, Canada.

George and Paula (Dannett '60) Sewall live at York, Me. George has employment with the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Suzy's address is Watertown, before not Cambridge as we were informed in 1962.

Can’t find your Class Column? There’s a reason for it. See Page 21.

1960

Mrs. Mark Shibles, Jr. (Elizabeth Colley) 24 Dennis Street, Gardiner 1st Reunion, June 8-10, 1962

C.O. plan to come for our first reunion in June. Carroll Perkins has been elected to the Wallpole, Massachusetts, junior high school to teach physical education. Carroll got his B.S. at Maine and an Ed.M. from Boston University in '61.

Preston Stanleys' daughter Debra, has moved to Nashua, N. H., where he has accepted a position at the University. The Improved Machine Manufacturing Co. Preston has been studying for his M.S. in Mechanical Engineering, at the University. The Stanleys live at 16 Archery Lane.

Dwight P. Hunter is a physical education teacher at Caribou High School. He will be head coach of the Caribou Vikings for their 1961-62 hoop campaign.

Nona Rae Higgins became Mrs. Paul Edmund Franson on October 11 at Boston. They will live in Brookline, Mass. Husband Paul is a senior at Northeastern University.

Gilbert E. Beckwith and Carol Colburnson, both of Fort Fairfield, were married on Oct. 28. Gil is majoring in Mechanical Engineering at the University of Connecticut and Nancy Rich is at Johns Hopkins in Baltimore, Md.; Bernard Mire's new address is 328 So. Cortes St., New Orleans, La.

Charles Aker is stationed at Ft. Richardson, Anchorage, Alaska, and training for the Biathlon, a combination of cross-country skiing and shooting. The team plans to spend three months in Europe this winter.

Teaching in this area are Marge Laney at Scarborouigh Junior High School, Art and Janette (La Clair) Dickson at Bonny Eagle High School and David Sturtevant at the elementary school, and Lenor Hersey also at Bonny Eagle.

Mr. and Mrs. David Adams (Pam Brockway) have a daughter born in May. Miriam Elizabeth joins Phyllis in the Adams Family. Grandparents are Paul '31 and Mildred '32 Brockway; Grandparents Vina and Ada Adams are Colby grads.

ALUMNI sons and daughters

STUDENTS NOT PRESENT were: William E. Barbare, Rockland (Winifred Lamb '36); Richard N. Berry, Jr., Cape Elizabeth (Richard N. '37, Katherine Bunker '37); Dianne V. Buchanan, Brownville Jct. (Malcolm V. '49); Elizabeth J. Buckley, Bangor (James E. Jr. '23); William B. Chase, Syracuse, N. Y. (Richard G. '36, Ruth Barrows '36, William E. Barrows '02, grandfather, deceased); William S. Chase, Class of '63, New York (William O. Sawtelle '95, grandfather, deceased); Raymond J. Cullianne, Westfield, N. J., Class of '44 (William E. '31); Susan E. Dowd, Orleans (Harold L. '30); Linda Giles (Mrs. Robert A Jones) lives at 44 Bliss Mine Rd., Middletown, R. I.

1959

Mrs. Clark H. Hower (Cary Dayton) 533-A Mt. Vernon St., Watertown, Mass. John E. Dowd, completing graduate work in Public Health Nutrition at the University of Tennessee.

Linda Giles (Mrs. Robert A Jones) lives at 44 Bliss Mine Rd., Middletown, R. I.

E. MacMillan, Old Town (Granville B. '39); Chrystal A. Mayo, Bangor (Richard G. '40); Alan R. McClure, Bangor (James W. '33, Mary E. Robinson '29; J. Harvey McClure '05, grandfather, deceased).

Lester D. Moran, Jr., Rockland, Class of '64 (Lester D. '32); Margaret J. Morton, Westbrook (Hugh H. '32); Eleanor J. Murray, Orono (James R. Dwyll '06, grandfather, deceased); Hilton A. Page, So. Portland (Leland A. '38); John R. Page, Fort Kent (Maxime F. Gagnon '38); Niles L. Perkins III, Portland (Niles L. Jr., '43); Philip F. Peterson II, Class of '64, Caribou (Philip F. '38, Margaret Orser '39); Leon Niles Pinkham, Farmington (Niles C. '44, deceased); James L. Puffer, Kittery Point (Charles L. Jr. '32, Charles L. 03, granddaughter); Stuart S. Rand, Sherman Mills (Beverly P. '37); Alan R. Robertson, Frederic, Md. (Merle A. Sturtevant '80, grandfather); Anne Rouny, Camden, Class of '64 (George 36, Barbara T. Brown '38, Walter T. Brown '16, grandfather); Alan M. Shaw, East Holden (Mason D. '33); Albert C. Sherman, Union (Ivan C. '32; Mark A. Stern, Portland (Herbert '38).

Michael P. Striar, Portland (Gordon B. '28); Charles W. Taylor, Bridgon (Harold S. '38); Bruce B. Toolaker, Phillips (James E. 35); Kathleen Twitchell, Bryant Pond (LaForest G. '39); Suzanne Luce Twitchell, Farmington, Class of '63 (Ceil R. Luce '33); Peter H. Ward, Waterville (Seldon L. '39); Joseph W. Warren, Caribou (Ada Woodman '36); David W. Wheeler, Houlton (Paul S. '33, Donna Weymouth '35); Richard A. Williams, Kennebunk (Edwin '31, John S. '87, grandfather, deceased); Joar M. Zottoli, Brunswick (Robert A. Guptill, Class of '63, Pueblo, Colo. (Arnold A. '36, deceased); Robert Cobb Brown, Vassalboro (Paul E. '39, Lucy M. Cobb '58).
At Bell Telephone Laboratories, mathematician Sidney Darlington has contributed notably in developing the art of circuit analysis.

IT HAPPENS IN THE MIND...

...It is essentially a thing of the mind for it works through concepts, symbols and relationships...it helps man to analyze and synthesize the complex phenomena of the universe and himself...it works in many ways to advance electrical communications:

IT IS CALLED MATHEMATICS

At Bell Telephone Laboratories, mathematics works powerfully to solve problems involving complex data. Intriguingly, too, the mathematical approach: led to the invention of the electric wave filter...disclosed a kind of wave transmission which may some day carry huge amounts of information in waveguide systems...foretold the feasibility of modern quality control...led to a scientific technique for determining how many circuits must be provided for good service without having costly equipment idle.

For each creative task, Bell Laboratories utilizes whatever serves best—mathematical analysis, laboratory experimentation, simulation with electronic computers. Together they assure the economical advancement of all Bell System communications services.
Cumberland and Oxford Canal

First conceived in 1791 as a means of opening up trade to and from the rich farm areas and woodlands of Maine from Harrison Village to Portland, the Cumberland and Oxford Canal was not completed until 1830. To help finance its construction the Canal Bank was founded in 1826.

The canal followed the waterway from Harrison down Long Lake, through Brandy Pond, along the twisting Songo River, down Sebago Lake, to the upper falls on the Presumpscot River. It was one of the greatest projects of its time.

Above the falls at Saccarappa the canal cut across fields and marshes to its termination near the foot of Clark Street in Portland, later it ended at Thompson’s Point. There were 27 locks in the canal through which the boats were towed at a lockage charge of six cents each.

Cargoes of lumber and farm produce were carried to Portland. Return cargoes were furniture, groceries and other commodities needed by the farm folk along the way. Apples cost three mills per mile per barrel; powder, 5 cents per ton per mile; fuel wood, 2 to 3 cents per mile per cord, passengers paid a half cent per mile.

The boats were flat bottomed, the largest about 30 tons capacity. Two short masts carried a small sail on each which were used on the lakes and part of the river. These masts worked on pins so that they could be lowered when passing under bridges.

The advent of railroads spelled the passing of the canal as a highway for commerce. Today parts of it remain, with some sections dry, though the old tow paths can still be seen grown with grass.