Old Orchard, Maine

THIRTY FOURTH SEASON
July ninth to August thirty first, nineteen hundred and six.
OLD ORCHARD, MAINE

(An acrostic by Joseph Yates Peek)

Old Orchard! to thy wondrous charm, I yield my weary, troubled soul.
Lying upon thy gleaming sands I cry aloud, "My Soul! My Soul!
Drown here thy sorrows and thy sins where these soft billows roll!"

Old Orchard! in thy fragrant groves I gather precious heavenly fruit
Ripened amid the whispering trees. Breathing the balmy atmosphere,
Caught up on wings of faith and prayer, I find my Lord and Saviour here.
How dear thou art, Old Orchard, dear, how widely known thy honored name!
All hearts have felt thy fervent zeal, and far has flashed thy sacred flame;
Round the whole earth thy message flies, received with joy and glad acclaim
Deep fountain-head of holy fire, unnumbered hosts extol thy fame!

OLD ORCHARD BEACH, the famous summer resort on the coast of Maine, early in the history of the extension of the Boston and Maine Railroad, was selected by leading religious teachers as a center for a wide-spread moral and religious influence; and such it has been for more than thirty years. Thirty three seasons of campmeetings, conducted by the most eloquent and spiritual teachers in America, and others from almost every clime of the world, have carried their influence to every continent of the world, and is still bearing fruit for righteousness, and will to the end of the world.
The burning words of Inskip, McDonald, Munger, Boole and many others of the Holiness movement, which mightily stirred the churches, freighted with more than the breezes of the ocean and the balm of the majestic pines, under which these prophets of God called sinners to the cross, and the Christians to holy living and Christly service, by the very breath of the Spirit of God, still are reverberating around the world, and their messages are echoed by native lips in Africa, India, China, and in every continent and the Islands of the seas.

Here Murphy received his commission for temperance evangelism. Here Miss Willard found her tongue of fire, which made her a prophetess of righteousness which carried her name and her cause in the White Ribbon movement around the world.

Here was born the latest evangelistic missionary movement which is touching the heathen world. A thousand uplifted hands was the pledge to endeavor the opening of Tibet to the gospel of Christ, and hundreds in every continent are the fruit.
Here was opened the first Salvation Army campmeeting of the Country, and here they were given recognition and fellowship at a time when they were the subjects of ridicule and persecution by almost all classes.

The grounds are still held for religious, spiritual and moral purposes, but also with the opportunities for physical health, excelled by no place under the sun. The pine grove whose towering trees shelter the Auditorium exhale their healthy balm to the body, while the hovering Spirit carries health and vigor to the soul. The great wide sea beach, which lies contiguous to the grounds, affords safe and delightful bathing for the thousands who gather daily at the surf, and return with quickened pulse and invigorated strength for worship and service.

But few, if any place, holds so many favorable conditions for health, for quickened spiritual life and for the enjoyment of nature.

A living spring on the grounds, free to all, has acquired a wide reputation for its health giving properties, and it has been sent as far as Washington, D. C., to persons who have been helped by it while here enjoying the meetings. Besides this spring on the grounds other springs furnish pure drinking water at moderate prices, among which is the Old York Spring at the Farms, which has no superior drinking, health giving, water.

The Boston and Maine R. R., the Maine Central R. R., and Grand Trunk R. R., furnish the best possible service for the Campmeeting season, from July 9th to Aug 31st, at reduced rates. To secure the reduction ask for Orchard Beach Campground tickets, good through each of the Conventions or Campmeetings.

Accommodations can be secured on and near the grounds at rates suitable to all purses. Furnished cottages can be secured at from $30.00 to $200. for the season; much less than prices range at other seaside resorts.

For such accommodations for board, lodging or rental of cottages, correspond with the President, Rev. I. Luce, or Rev. H. Chase, Treasurer, and they will do their best to serve the friends who wish to enjoy the meetings.
Portland District Campmeeting.

JULY 10th TO THE 19th.

This will be the opening meeting of the season, under the direction of Rev. B. C. Wentworth, Presiding Elder, and will begin Tuesday evening, July 10th, and close Thursday evening, July 19th.

The pastors on the district will assist in all the services, and special workers from various parts of New England are expected. We plan to make this an Old Time Camp Meeting as nearly as modern conditions will allow, surpassing in interest, if possible, that of last year.

Besides a chorus choir it is expected that a double male quartette will assist in the services. A daily evangelistic meeting at 4.30 will be held at the Pier.

Be sure and call for Portland District Campmeeting tickets, good going July 10—20, and returning July 12—21. See Railroad rate table on another page.
Salvation Army Campmeeting.
JULY 20th TO AUGUST 1st.

Major A. W. Crawford, Div. Commander, announces that Commander Eva Booth, and other notable leaders will be present, among whom are Col. Pearl, Chief Secretary of the work in the United States; Col. Gifford of New York City, the New England Provincial Band, Col. and Mrs. Evans, Maj. and Mrs. Withers, Maj. and Mrs. Crawford, Maj. and Mrs. Dart, Majors Albright and Bull and Maj. and Mrs. Davis.

With these forces in the field, July 20 to Aug. 1, we shall look for results far in excess of even the great meetings formerly held in these grounds by the Salvation Army. Commander Eva Booth alone is a tower of strength, a prophetess of this age and for these times, as was her lamented sister Mrs. Booth Tucker.

While we shall miss the genial face and inspiring words of Dr.
Bates, who has occupied the corresponding period, we shall have new voices and new interests to consider in the varied work of the great Salvation Army.

Be sure and call for Salvation Army Campmeeting tickets, good going July 20th to Aug. 1st, and returning July 21st to Aug. 2nd.

See Railroad rate table on another page.
Missionary Alliance Convention.
REV. A. B. SIMPSON, LEADER.
AUGUST 3-13.

The third meeting in the series, conducted by Mr. Simpson, will, as usual, with ever increasing interest, bring tidings from “India’s Coral Strand,” and from almost everywhere except “Greenland’s Icy Mountain,” and send forth from the ten days Convention, a tidal wave of missionary enthusiasm which will pioneer new fields, and carry the good tidings toward the ends of the earth.

A marked feature of the Alliance meeting is the emphasis given to the word of God and its clean and spiritual unfolding. Ten days of biblical study under such men as Mr. Simpson, Mr. Farr, Mr. McKenzie and others who lead the bible study at these great conventions are equal to many days of cold theological discussion. The very life of the word is in evidence in the preaching and Bible Study.

Be sure and call for Missionary Alliance and Temperance Conference Campmeeting tickets, good going Aug. 3—16 returning Aug. 4—17. See Railroad rate table on another page.
Temperance Conference.
AUGUST 13-17.

During these days leading representatives of the various temperance bodies of Maine and other States will be in conference in the interest of temperance and law enforcement, with addresses afternoons and evenings.

The temperance forces of the whole country, and foreign countries, are in lively interest over the issues which are pending in the State of Maine this year, and this conference will organize for a campaign of righteousness.

Be sure and call for Missionary Alliance Convention and Temperance Conference tickets, good going Aug. 3-16, returning Aug. 4-17. See Railroad rate table on another page.
National Holiness Association,

DR. C. J. FOWLER, PRESIDENT AND LEADER.

AUGUST 17-27.

This convention, which is the perpetuation of the Holiness work begun by Dr. Inskip and his co-laborers, will call together some of the leading advocates of a doctrine which the early Methodists were raised up to spread throughout the world.

Dr. Fowler will be assisted by Dr. Carradine of St. Louis, Rev. B. C. Wentworth and local pastors who are in sympathy with this great movement.

The meeting begins August 17th. Song book "Best of All" will be used (10 cent edition).

Be sure and call for National Holiness Campmeeting tickets, good going Aug. 17—26, returning Aug. 18—30.

See Railroad rate table on another page.
Railroad Notice.

The Maine Central will issue tickets to the Orchard Beach Camp­ground and return for the usual reduced rates, good from July 9th to Aug. 31st. On this road ask for Orchard Beach Campmeeting tickets.

For information as to rates and dates on the Boston and Maine, with its several divisions, see Railroad Notice on another page.
