"A Noble and Dignified Stream"

THE PISCATAQUA REGION IN THE COLONIAL REVIVAL, 1860-1930

Edited by Sarah L. Giffen and Kevin D. Murphy

This regional study examines the emergence of an historical consciousness that appeared in southern Maine and coastal New Hampshire and illuminates the role played by the region in the formulation of an image of the American past during the colonial revival movement. Interdisciplinary in content, the catalogue examines the literature, art, architecture, gardens and early historic preservation projects that flourished between 1860 and 1930 in New Castle, Dover, and Portsmouth, New Hampshire, and York, Kittery Point, South Berwick, and Ogunquit, Maine.

"A Noble and Dignified Stream brings together some of the most adventurous and skilled analysts of that complex American cultural phenomenon, the colonial revival. Judiciously addressing issues of aesthetics, architectural, literary, social, and cultural history, this book is both a model of interdisciplinary analysis and a revelation of Americans' hopes, desires, and anxieties as the twentieth century began."

Harvey Green, Northeastern University

In the Hands of Joshua L. Chamberlain and the American Civil War

by Alice Rains Trulock
Foreword by Alan T. Nolan

A young professor who led the Twentieth Maine Regiment to glory at Gettysburg, Chamberlain became Maine's inspiring example of the citizen-soldier and Grant's choice to accept the Confederate surrender. After the war Chamberlain continued to serve his state as governor and later as president of Bowdoin College. Alice Trulock's insightful biography uses letters, diaries, and photographs to illuminate the life and times of this remarkable man.

Bibliographies of New England History

Prepared by the Committee for a New England Bibliography

"These books are the most useful works of their kind ever prepared. They make the available references in other states look very inadequate by comparison. So once again, whether we like it or not, New Englanders seem to lead the way in doing local history."
—Michael Kammen

"The region of New England has, of course, a long and proud history of literary endeavor, and the editors of this project . . . have enhanced that tradition with these exemplary volumes."
—AB Bookmans Weekly

"Durable acid-free paper and superior binding contribute to long-term serviceability . . . A model of bibliographic communication."
