Wartime readjustments . . . #1

The Easbys enjoyed all the discomforts of vacation — right in their own back yard

War calls for all kinds of family adjustments — some amusing, some not. But they do bring a new sense of values.

Most families are learning to know each other better — to live more simply — to do without little luxuries in order to take care of big necessities.

That usually means War Bonds first — then life insurance. Both are certain investments in an uncertain world. Both help check inflation. Both boost the war effort, for a good part of each insurance premium goes into Government securities.

Families need the protection of life insurance today more than ever before. No other purchase provides so much protection for so few dollars. Let one of our Career Underwriters show you how New England Mutual's contract helps to finance itself through times when premium payments may be more difficult than usual.

Here are some of the advantages of a New England Mutual contract

1. DIVIDENDS begin at the end of the first year.
2. CASH VALUES begin at the end of the second year.
3. A PREMIUM LOAN is available toward payment of the second annual premium.
4. CONVERSION to Retirement Income or higher premium plans requires the payment of difference in reserves only.

Here's help with your adjustments!

It's easy to agree that family readjustments must be made in time of war. But it's not always so easy to make them as Mr. Williams' cartoons suggest.

You can count on some real help, however, from any of the men listed below. They're alumni of your college and they talk your language. They are also trained representatives of the First Mutual Life Insurance Company Charterred in America.

Out of their experience you'll get practical, constructive suggestions. They'll help you make the most of your limited life insurance dollars — help you protect your present policies with premium loans if necessary.

Check your protection now when you need it most. If none of these men is near you, you can get similar service at the New England Mutual office in your city.

*Ernest L. Dinsmore, '37, Boston
*With U.S. Armed Forces

We're making readjustments, too. With some 15% of our field force now in military service, we have real opportunities for able men in several cities.

If you're interested in a satisfying career where you can be your own boss — and if your draft status is reasonably assured — we'd like to talk things over. Or perhaps you have a friend who might appreciate the tip.

In either case, just write to Wm. Eugene Hays (Stanford '26), 501 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass., for information. There's no obligation, of course.
SUMMER weeks at the University are usually quiet and peaceful; the campus buildings are nearly deserted, the roads and walks nearly empty of people. But this summer has been different. This has been a war summer and as in nearly all other phases of American life, that fact has profoundly changed the usual life of the campus.

This year halls, shops, and laboratories have hummed with activity. Special war training courses have brought new faces to the campus and a "speed-up" program of undergraduate study has kept many of the familiar faces still here.

Accelerated Program

After America's entry into the war the University revised its calendar and inaugurated the first full scale undergraduate summer program in its history. Starting immediately after Commencement twelve weeks of intensive undergraduate work were scheduled to permit students to complete their regular college work in less than the usual four years. The program was optional because so many Maine students depend on summer vacation work to finance their next year's education. About 150 students, a few entering freshmen among them, registered for the work in June, and the busiest summer in Maine history was under way.

For the second six weeks of the program the work was coordinated with that of the regular University Summer Session. Under the able direction of Dr. Roy M Peterson, the regular Session again offered educators, graduate students, and others a wide menu of courses to choose from and registered 435 persons. Special interest this year was added by the presence of 31 European refugee scholars brought to the campus by the Friends Service Committee. These men and women represented nine different European countries and brought to Orono the languages, customs, interests, and cultures of lands oppressed by the Nazi conquests.

On the program of entertainments and conferences several outstanding events were included. The program of the Health Education Institute in July brought a number of leading authorities to the campus to discuss problems of health education for a nation at war. Subjects included nutrition, safety education, physical fitness, and social hygiene.

Another event of importance was the annual meeting of the State Superintendents of Schools held on the campus in August.

War Training

In addition to the regular processes of education, the University has been a center of war training activities this summer. In Crosby Laboratory, the Mechanical Shops, the Drafting Rooms, and Electrical Laboratories and classrooms the lights have burned late all summer. War training work in welding, machine shop practice, drafting, radio work, and other fields has prepared men and women to fill the fast expanding needs of war production.

One program of special interest to all has been the training of Ordnance Inspectors for the Army. Beginning in May men were brought to the campus by Civil Service selection to undergo an intensive nine- to twelve-weeks' training in inspection work, production processes, drawing, and related studies to graduate as government inspectors of war materials for New England plants. In August the first group of women under the Ordnance program arrived for the same training. The second group of women trainees, coming in September, brought six alumnae back to their alma mater for the training. Barbara Hogan '42 of Bath, Mrs. Elizabeth Curtis Huntoon '39 of Searsport, Phyllis Knapp '41 of Bradley, Maxine Knights '41 of Brewer, Helen Mehann '42 of Bangor, and Mary Young '42 of Winterport entered the training which will place them in the factories of New England as inspectors of munitions during the war.

Another contribution to the war effort was made possible at the University this summer when the War Department authorized the expansion of the R.O.T.C. by inclusion of a Signal Corps unit. In addition to the work already offered in Infantry and Coast Artillery, students of all four classes with special interest and major study in electrical communications or electronic physics will now be able to select work in the communications branch of the Army. DEANS: Two new Acting Deans have been named to the administration as the result of the demands of war service. With Joseph Murray '25 an officer in the Army Air Corps, Acting Dean R. L. Morrow, left, Associate Professor of History and Government, has taken over his responsibilities for the duration. Dean Olin S. Lutes of the School of Education has been commissioned a Captain in the Army Air Corps, and Dr. Payson Smith, Hon. '08, right, has been named Acting Dean.

APPOINTMENTS and PROMOTIONS

APPOINTMENT of two acting deans, an acting steward, and a new General Secretary for the M.C.A. headlined the annual list of promotions and appointments to the faculty and administration. Also in the list were names of thirteen faculty members receiving advancement in grade.

Deans

The departure of Dean Joseph M. Murray '25 to active service in the Army Air Forces on leave of absence brought to the position of Acting Dean of Arts and Sciences popular associate professor of History and Government Rising L. Morrow on July 14. A native of Vermont, Acting Dean Morrow was graduated from Wesleyan University in 1923 and received from Harvard the degrees of A.M. and Ph.D. in 1925 and 1932. He served as assistant in history at Harvard and Radcliffe, then as instructor in history at Wesleyan. He taught at Brown before his appointment to the University as an instructor in History and Government in 1934.

Dr. Morrow was named assistant professor in the department in 1935 and was advanced to associate professor this year. In addition to his teaching duties he has carried on extensive research in the field of American history.

In the School of Education also a new administrative officer sat in the office of the dean as Dean Olin S. Lutes accepted a commission as Captain in the Army Air Corps and left on leave of absence. Dr. Payson Smith, Hon. '08, was named Acting Dean to succeed him. Dr. Smith, widely known in educational circles, has served formerly as Commissioner of Education in Maine and in Massachusetts. A native of Portland, he was graduated from Tufts College and subsequently received honorary degrees from three Maine colleges including the LL.D. from Maine. He was once invited to become U. S. Commissioner of Education. He has also served as lecturer in Education at Harvard.

Other Administrators

Another major administrative change this summer brought a new General Secretary to the Maine Christian Association as the Rev. Albion Beverage resigned to accept the pastorate of the First Congregational Church at Niagara Falls, N. Y. Mr. Beverage who had headed the work of the M.C.A. since 1938 completed last year work for his theological degree at the Bangor Seminary and wished to return to the active church work for which he had studied. His place will be taken by alumnus Charles E. O'Conner '31 who was named to the position by the M.C.A. Advisory Board in August.

Mr. O'Conner was prominent at the University in debating, dramatics and track athletics, as well as the work of the M.C.A., during his undergraduate years.

In 1931 he was appointed assistant Dean of Men at the University, then attended Yale University Divinity School as a graduate student for one year. Since 1933 he has taught high school at Millinocket and Bangor. In 1940 he was appointed Principal of Winter Harbor high school from which position he comes to the University.

Army service has also brought a leave of absence to Steward William Wells '31 and in his place has been named as Acting Steward Mrs. Charlotte Fifield '26. Mrs. Fifield, a native of Orono, was graduated in Home Economics. She married the late Herbert W. "Bucky" Fifield '22. Following his death in 1934 she returned to her profession. She served as House Director at South Hall for one year, then after teaching at So. Portland was named dietitian at Westbrook Junior College.

The complete list of faculty and administration members on leave of absence for active service on war work totals nineteen.

Appointments

New appointments to the faculty announced from the office of President Arthur A. Hauck total seventeen.

College of Agriculture: Carl R. Brever, Assistant Professor of Bacteriology, B.A., Simpson Coll., 1934, Ph.D., Iowa State Coll., 1939, lecturer, McGill U., past three years. Replaces Prof. Matthew Highlands, on leave for military service.

Miss Grace Tucker, Assistant Professor (Continued on Page 8)

SECRETARY: New General Secretary of the Maine Christian Association is Charles E. O'Conner '31, former track star, scholar, and one-time Assistant Dean of Men. The Rev. Albion Beverage resigned to accept the pastorate of a church in Niagara Falls.
THE steadily rising number of alumni in the armed services of the nation now has passed the one thousand mark, with a total on September 24 of 1,033. Maine men—and women, too—are fighting the battles for the freedom and the future of the United Nations on the steaming islands of the South Pacific, or the cold shores of Alaska, in Ireland, Australia, Africa, India, or the deserts of Arabia.

The Day's Work

Heroes are among these Maine alumni, but they are not heroic about it. The job to be done is part of the day's work. Typical of the reports coming back to the campus from time to time from far flying and far fighting alumni is one from Lieutenant Harry W. Smith '38 of Bucksport, navigator on a Flying Fortress of the Army Air Corps, which battled Japanese planes over Wake Island in August. He with other crew members of the embattled Fortress subsequently received the Distinguished Service Cross. He described the battle which took place after the bomber had accomplished its mission in the following words:

Six Japs attacked simultaneously from all directions. One pulled ahead and turned in at about 800 yards, trying to come in under our nose, firing incendiaries and shooting all the way in to about 100 yards when it disintegrated under our fire...
The second plane shot down came from the rear... ready for the run. We caught it at less than 400 yards and it disintegrated, falling like a leaf.

Another fighter came alongside within 15 yards. We could plainly see the pilot and he tried to get us from below but soon went down in flames.

We shot one at 50 yards.

We were uncertain whether we got the fifth plane, but the sixth followed us... about 150 miles from Wake, when it turned back, and there was 50:50 chance it got back, the weather being bad.

We shot one at 50 yards.

The following list contains the names of all alumni known to have entered the armed services since the publication of the final list last June.

Honors Colonel Stewart

The Army honored the memory of Colonel Loren P. Stewart '15 by naming the great main parade ground of Camp Blanding, Fla., Stewart Field in August. Col Stewart was well known to many alumni both by his undergraduate years and by his long service in the University ROTC unit from 1928 to 1935. He was reported killed in action in the Philippine Islands in January, 1942, one of the first Maine men to die in active service in this war. Col Stewart in recognition of his long and able career in the Army and his work as executive officer of Camp Blanding from March to October, 1941. At the ceremony naming the field was unveiled a simple memorial honoring Col Stewart and perpetuating his name and memory.

Alumni Reappointed
To Board of Trustees

The reappointment to the Board of Trustees of Harold M. Pierce '19 of Bangor as Alumni Representative, and Raymond W. Davis '11 of Guilford was made this summer by Governor Sumner Sewall and confirmed by the council.

Mr. Pierce was originally appointed to the Board on the death of Hosea Buck and served out the unexpired term. He was then reappointed in August 1939 for a regular term.

As member of the Alumni Council for many years and one time vice president of the Association, Mr. Pierce has a wide acquaintance with alumni activities as the alumni representative. He has also served on various committees including the dues committee and finance committee. Since graduation in 1919 he has been engaged in the banking and investment fields. He is president of the firm of Pierce, White, and Drummond, Bangor Investment company and is a trustee of the Eastern Trust and Banking Co., the Penobscot Savings Bank, and the Albert E. Bass Estate.

Mr. Davis has served with the Trustees a full term of seven years beginning in 1935. His reappointment carries until 1949.

Mr. Davis was first president of the Piscataquis Valley Alumni Association and has long been an active participant in University and alumni affairs. He is president of the Guilford Trust Co. and treasurer of Davis and Adams, Inc., dealers in pulpwood, timber, and land. He began his career as bookkeeper in the Trust Co. after his graduation in 1911. He has served as town treasurer, and has been active in the Trust Company Association of Maine, in the Piscataquis Valley Country Club, the Red Cross, the Guilford Memorial Library, and numerous other activities.

Library Fund

Additional subscriptions to the Library Fund have now raised the grand total to 5,946 subscriptions amounting to $251,786.36 according to Chairman Norman H. Mayo '09. This does not include the $30,000 grant made by the Carnegie Foundation to the University for use in development of the new Library.

Gratifying as the subscription total is to the Library Committee, the Alumni Association, and the University, another factor of even greater importance is the fine rate at which payments are being made. As the table below shows, the amount paid in to date on these subscriptions is $204,857.87 which, after deducting the campaign and collections costs, makes certain the ability of the Fund to pay to the University the net amount of $200,000 which the Alumni Association guaranteed. Of the 4,165 subscriptions, exclusive of the student campaign, 3,276, or 78.7%, have already been paid in full. Many have prepaid their future installments. Following is the summary:

Total 5,946 $251,786.36 $204,857.87

Treasurer James A. Gannett '08 on authorization of the Committee has paid to the University a total of $125,000 for use in completing the present construction contract for the "shell" of the new building.

The contractor, E. J. Rappoli Company, has practically completed the contract. Because of war conditions no attempt will be made at present to continue construction.

The Class of 1940
Sets New Dues Record

To the Class of 1940 goes the distinction of having set what is believed to be a new record in the number of members of a class who have paid dues in any one year. Their total for the last year was 148, over 25% of the class roster. One must turn back the pages to the gay, late, nineteen twenties to find a percentage which exceeds their figure. Nor should 1885 be left out of the limelight, for once again, the second time, has this fine class equaled its enviable mark of 83.3%. It is, indeed, in a class by itself. Technically first place in the percentage division goes to 1873, for the only living member of that class paid dues and thus has a perfect score.

Following 1940 in order comes 1939 and 1938, both of which are substantially smaller classes. 1917 carried on its high performance as in previous years did also 1910, 1911, and 1912. It is a tribute to the 1910-20 group that six of the ten highest classes are in this bracket.

Not a twentieth century class succeeded in securing a place in the percentage tabulation, though 1900 and 1908 missed it only by a small margin. The following tables give the standing of the leading classes for the year 1941-42:

Golf Champ

It has not been often in recent years that the University of Maine could boast a golf champion, but in the person of Walter M. Reed, Jr., of Fort Fairfield, of the Class of 1944, golf really comes into its own on the campus. On August 14 at Poland Sprugs he walked off, without too great difficulty, with the Maine Open Amateur golf title. He was reported to have lost the ninth hole but to have halved or won every other one of the match which went to 28 holes of a scheduled 36.

This latest golf glory, however, was only one of others to the young champion. Earlier in the year he also walked off with top-ranking honors in the junior championship match and again in the State Intercollegiate. With a three-star record of victories against his name, he returns to the campus this month, the undisputed amateur champion of the state.
VARSITY FOOTBALL

Preseason football practice called back to Orono forty prospective gridiron stars on September 18. Under the leadership of Acting Head Coach William Kenyon they will form the nucleus of the varsity squad that will carry out the regular fall schedule of games with the exception of the traditional early season contest with Rhode Island. The late opening date of the college year made it impossible to schedule the usual meeting with the Rams. As a result the team will engage Columbia at New York as the first game of their season.

Coach Kenyon takes over the full responsibility of the football job this year in the absence of George "Eck" Allen who now wears the uniform of the U. S. Navy. The work includes general supervision of the varsity, junior varsity, and freshman teams, since for the present year, at least, Maine will not change the usual program of having separate activities for freshman teams with separate schedules of games. In this way a much greater number of men can be given an opportunity to participate in competitive sports, a point emphasized by the Army and Navy in their recommendations on physical fitness programs.

Kenyon will be assisted in his work by Sam Szak, '31 and Phil Jones, '19, who have been coaching freshman and Jayvee teams in recent years, and by junior student Hugh Brownlee, of Saco, former Thornton star and outstanding player who is unable to play college ball because of a shoulder injury.

Lettermen

Among the preseason men reporting for work were fourteen lettermen of last year's squad, sixteen up from the outstanding freshman team of last year, and five graduates from the junior varsity. Among the lettermen, Coach Kenyon looks for some good work from several whose names are already familiar to the fans.

In early practice this year the line appears to have fared relatively better for material than the backfield. The lettermen available for key line posts include such veterans as Maurice "Bobo" Guseva '43 of South Portland at center, Edward Robinson '43 of Bronxville, N. Y., a guard, Frank Squires '44 of Medford, Mass., and Richard Morrill '44 of Farmington, tackles. At right end Donald Pressnell '44 of Portland is showing up well as is Dick Boiret '44 of Deering. The left end position is still open for competition with the loss of Lowell Ward by graduation. Sophomores Bob Emerson and Garrett Speirs, both of Bangor, are working for the place.

In the backfield such seasoned ball carriers as Bob Nutter '44 of Sanford, Alfred Hutchinson '44 of Dauver, Mass., and Clarence McIntire '44 of Portland will be helped out by a promising group of candidates from other squads Winslow "Windy" Work '45 of Bangor, a star on last year's powerful freshman team, is expected to add power to the backfield with his running and passing ability. His teammate, Laurence "Bud" Lyford of Brewer, also from the frosh, should be a valuable man. Among the older players Albert Edeksien '43 of Sanford and Ben Graham '43 of Milton, Mass., will be called upon to fill in some of the gaps left by the loss of Ed Barrows by graduation and Emil King to the armed forces.

Prospects are bright for good competition both within the state and in the New England Conference. The only change in schedule over former years is the loss of the traditional Rhode Island game because of the late opening date of the semester. At Columbia, Maine will enter its first game, Columbia their second, a reversal of the situation two years ago when Maine held the Lions to a 15-0 score. Only New Hampshire will be opening college as late as Maine this year, and the game at Durham on October 10 will be their first contest.

Within the state all teams have good prospects. Colby, the defending champions, will be helped by freshman players, as will all the teams except Maine. The only institution to retain the regular freshman ruling, the University will provide in this way the greatest opportunity for the largest number of men to participate in athletics; this, it is believed, is more important than the opportunity to use one or two freshman stars on the varsity team.

Bates College is expected to be unusually strong this year with a letterman reputed available for every position. Bowdoin will have the advantage of early training, having begun several weeks in advance of other colleges with an earlier opening date for the school year. Adam Walsh, football coach at Bowdoin, remains the only head football coach in the state not taken over by the armed forces.

COACH: Coach Bill Kenyon, member of the athletic staff since 1926, as assistant in football and other sports, then coach of basketball and baseball, will assume full responsibility this fall over varsity football as Acting Head Coach of Football in the absence of Coach George "Eck" Allen, on active duty with the Navy.

CROSS COUNTRY

Soon after school opens the annual call for cross country men will go out, and once more Coach Chester Jenkins will follow with his careful eye the pace and form and style of his hill and dailers. Running for Maine this year will be four lettermen and three leaders from last year’s freshman team. Chiefly to be missed from the line-up will be Dwight Moody, of Lincoln, steady pace setter for two years of varsity competition, who is in active service. In his place, responsibility for individual and team leadership will fall on Dick Martinez of Albany, N. Y., Philip Hamn of Charleston, and Leo Estabrook of East Corinth, all of the senior class.

The varsity schedule for the year is as usual except that the late opening date of the semester prevented the annual dual meet with New Hampshire. A new meet, a dual against Connecticut at Orono, has been brought into the schedule. Chances for the team look good for the State Meet again, but the New Englands are likely to go to Rhode Island, twice champion.

A real point winner is anticipated in the freshman squad when Malcolm Dempsey of Presque Isle, last year national high school champion, puts on his spiked shoes this fall.
Dues Committee Meets
To Plan Year's Program

The 1942-43 Dues Committee under the chairmanship of Richard C. Dolloff '27 began its consideration of ways and means of raising the dues budget of the Association with a meeting on September 4. Lynwood S. Hatch '22 of Old Town and Parker Frost '35 of Bangor are the other members of the committee, just appointed by Association President George D. Bierce '11.

Biggest news to come out of the meeting was the decision to continue sending THE ALUMNUS and other material to all alumni in the armed services to help these men keep in touch with the Association and the University and to show them that alumni are interested in them and proud of their service. An increase in the regular dues income was pointed out, to maintain this valuable service.

Richard Dolloff, chairman of the committee, was appointed last year for the first of three terms but due to the absence of the senior member, Henry Doten '23, on active service with the Army, was named chairman. He is State County Agent Leader for the Agricultural Extension Service. He first entered this work in 1929 after two years of agricultural teaching, serving as a 4-H Club agent in Cumberland county.

Next Reunion, 1944

Some of this news dates back to last June, as I missed that issue of the Alumnae. Helen Brewer and Eleanor with a group of Maine Third District Democrats, and she was listed as Democratic State Committee woman from Penobscot County. And while on the subject of politicians, Andre "Bud" Cushing was renominated by the Republicans in the June primaries to the office of County Treasurer.

Virginia Smith Lamb was re-elected president of the Cumberland County League of Women Voters in May and attended its National Convention in Chicago. This summer, I'm sure, has been very busy as well as an emergency demonstration agent in Cumberland County for the U. S. Extension Service during the Food for Victory program conducted during July and August. A letter from the class president, Dave Fuller, in August, brought the news that he is now in the Army. He is at Fort Devens, in Headquarters Co., Service Command Unit No. 1112. He is in the personnel office and says he sees many friends, as so many men from Maine go through there.

News carrying over from last spring includes John Branch's latest teaching address, 36 Wheeler Street, Athol, Mass. Harold Kelleher was elected secretary of the Republican city committee of Bangor sometime in June. At the same meeting he was named as one of a committee to draw up a set of rules for the city committee.

I am delighted to announce the arrival, on July 22nd, of Vance Gerald Springer, who belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Springer, of Augusta. Congratulations! Also the congratulations of Miss Whittem, who was married August 1st to Miss June Baehr, of Iron River, Michigan. Mrs. Whittem is a graduate of Marquette University.

I just got back from Maine to find a column because I had to climb under the wire. Our news is mostly civilian. I'm not up on our latest service men, we did hear that Frederick Black was killed in action, and we don't know where Beers is in the Navy—but I'm sure whether he's Lt. 1r Grade or Ensign and he's either at Newport News, Virginia, or Newport, R.I. He's married to his girl from Minnesota. I haven't many details on Mrs. Beers because I did not hear she had a rather important secretarial position in Washington which she gave up for Ensign.

We know of two of our class who are in the State Guard and there are perhaps many more. Paul Langlois is active in Maine, and Phil Parson is in charge of a unit in command of Company M in Belfast.

U of M is offering a course in the fundamentals of radio this fall for sixteen weeks. Roger Hodgkins of station WGM is the instructor.

Merle Hildred is still very active in scout work. He is assistant executive of Katahdin Area Council but will leave his duty and accept a post as executive of North Litchfield County Council with headquarters in Torrington, Conn.

Bob Cram is an attorney at law in Portland, Maine. His residence is Depot Road, Falmouth Foreside, R.F.D. #4 That must make him a neighbor of the Leddys.

Bill Crockett is going up and up in the teaching world. He is head of the English Department at Technical High School, New London, Conn.

Norman Bartlett is with the Curtis Publishing Co but I don't know where. His residence is 429 Lark Street, Hyde Park Terrace, Bath, Maine.

One or two very interesting articles came out of newspapers in the course of the summer. The Worcester Telegram of April 12 contained a picture of an American officer leading a group of Japanese prisoners through the jungles of Bataan. Mrs. W. J. Bill was later reported "missing in action" for which our sympathy is extended to his family although we shall all hope he returns safely somehow.

He’s firing telephone wire at a Zero!

This fighter plane, with its six wing guns spitting fire, uses up enough copper every minute to make several miles of telephone line.

That’s the right use for copper now — and it’s the reason why we can’t continue to expand our facilities to take care of the expanding Long Distance telephone traffic.

Right now, our lines are flooded with Long Distance calls. Most of them have to do with the war — they must have the right of way.

Will you help us keep the wires clear for war calls — industrial calls that send a plane down the assembly line — military calls that send it into the air against the enemy?

You can do it by keeping your own calls as few and as brief as possible. And you’ll be bringing Victory that much nearer.

Bell Telephone System
She's just seven years old, she lives at 514 Plum Street, her father is plain Bill White. Most people notice her pigtails and her blue eyes, but they never guess they're in the presence of royalty.

But we know!

Maybe that's because we know more about her kingdom—the kingdom she'll be queen of one day—than these people. It's no ordinary kingdom, this—it combines the best features of all the fairy stories you ever read rolled into one. Instead of an ordinary marble palace, she'll have a real home made of inexpensive materials that you haven't even heard of yet, flooded with sunlight, and opening on the whole outdoors.

Instead of a pumpkin coach, she'll drive a car such as you have never dreamed of, and fly a plane as readily as you would drive a car. Plastic shoes will be her glass slippers. And her servants will all be electric, for electricity, in modern electric appliances for cooking, heating, cooling, and cleaning, is just about the best servant man has ever had.

Where is this fairyland? It's right here in America, tomorrow!

But how can we be sure that this is not just another fairy tale? Because American industry has already made enough discoveries and developments to reveal to us the shape of things to come. New materials like plastics, new developments like television, new sciences like electronics, assure us of this—and promise even more.

Today's job is fighting for that better world. But when tomorrow comes, American industry, once again busy producing things to make living better, will help to make tomorrow's young men and women more truly princes and princesses than the heroes of yesterday's fairy tales. General Electric Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

The volume of General Electric war production is so high and the degree of secrecy required is so great that we cannot tell you about it now. When it can be told we believe that the story of industry's developments during the war years will make one of the most fascinating chapters in the history of industrial progress.
