THE SUMMER SESSION PROGRAM INCLUDES

Four Important Features

1. July 5th to August 11th. The University of Maine will offer you in the 1944 Summer Session opportunities for study to prepare yourself for professional advancement or to increase your credits toward a Master's degree. Courses in education, mathematics, physical education, languages, economics, English, history, government, music, psychology, sociology, and speech will give you a wide range from which to choose.

2. The Post-Session, with a Physical Education program offered by Dr. Louis Hutto, State Director, will follow immediately after the regular session.

3. August 14th to September 1st. The University of Maine will offer a Workshop for Elementary Teachers under the direction of Professor William H. Burton of the Harvard School of Education, with the cooperation of the Maine State Department of Education. Professor Burton will be assisted by representatives of normal schools from both in-state and out-of-state. As enrollment will be limited early application is desirable.

4. August 21st to August 24th. The conference of Superintendents of Schools will be held on the campus.

The ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

An Anniversary

August 5, 1875, for the purpose of organizing an alumni association.” First president, elected at this meeting, was George H. Hamlin ’73 of Orono.

One of the earliest moves sponsored by the alumni was, in 1882, the effort to promote legislation for inclusion of an alumni representative on the Board of Trustees; such a law, passed in 1883, has ever since given the Association a share in formulating the basic policies of the University.

Other accomplishments of the early organization pointed towards the many services to Maine carried out under the reorganized program. In 1890 Frank E. Kidder ’79 established the scholarship fund which still bears his name and offers assistance to worthy and needy students. Efforts of the alumni in 1895 and 1898 to improve athletic facilities at Maine and athletic relations with other colleges were of value to the entire future of athletics. In 1901 alumni helped to finance the construction of the building which is still known as Alumni Hall.

Reorganization

With the year 1919 the need of expanded services to the University and to the alumni made apparent to all that the alumni program should be reorganized. In particular the Association needed a permanent, full-time representative to supervise the projects proposed by the Council, to secure and maintain accurate records of alumni, and to serve as the general organizing agent of the Association. At the same time the need was felt for a medium of information between the University and alumni and among alumni themselves. To fulfill the first need, the reorganized Alumni Association approved the employment of a full-time Alumni Secretary; in August, 1919, W. D. “Pep” Towner ’14 was employed as the first Executive Secretary. To satisfy the second need, The Maine Alumni was projected, planned, and published; the first issue of the magazine, now in its twenty-fifth volume, appeared in October, 1919.

Buildings

Names of alumni have been written deeply into University history in concrete, material ways as well as in more intangible accomplishments. Two of the great highlights of the twenty-five year period are the construction of the Alumni Memorial Gymnasium and the new Library.

Feeling the great need for added facil-
Summer Program Announced

Plans for the regular University Summer Session have been announced by Director Roy M. Peterson. Dates of the regular Session will be July 5 to August 11 and in addition the summer program will include a Post-Session in teaching and school administration, a special program in physical education, and a Workshop in Elementary Education, all from August 14 to September 1.

The regular Session will again be largely aimed toward teachers and school administrators with the School of Education playing an important role in the curriculum. A wide range of subject matter courses will again be offered permitting undergraduate or graduate credit for professional advancement. Departments scheduling courses in the Session this year will include, besides Education, the fields of Economics, English, History and Government, Languages, Mathematics, Music, Psychology, Sociology, and Speech.

Faculty members will, as usual, include both members of the regular University teaching staff and also visiting faculty members in specialized fields.

The three-week Post-Session will offer courses in school administration, teaching of social sciences, especially geography in wartime, a seminar in guidance, methods of teaching, and a course in Peace Plans. Students may register for either the Post-Session or the regular Session, or both. By taking a full schedule of courses in both sessions a student may obtain up to ten credits or summer study.

An interesting and novel feature of the summer program this year will be the Workshop for Elementary Teachers. Co-operating with the State Department of Education, the University has set up the workshop under the experienced direction of Dr. William H. Burton of Harvard, assisted by visiting faculty and members of the University staff. Aim of the Workshop will be to provide a limited number of students exceptional opportunity to work on individual problems in the elementary field. Much work will be done with actual, laboratory tasks in creating materials and methods for use in solving particular classroom needs. There will also be at the same time a special program in physical education teaching under the direction of Dr. Hutto of the State Department.

Candidate

John C. Fitzgerald of Portland, alumnus of the Law School, Class of 1918, has announced his candidacy for the First District Congressional nomination for the Democratic Party to the House of Representatives. He served formerly as state administrator for the WPA.

A native of Bath and graduate of Bowdoin College, Mr. Fitzgerald attended the University of Maine Law School, leaving to enlist in World War I. He was discharged, with the rank of Lieutenant, in 1919. In 1928 he was named a civilian aide to the Secretary of War in promoting the Citizen's Military Training Camp program. He became affiliated with the WPA in 1935 as assistant administrator. He was made state administrator in 1937 and served until the termination of the program in 1942.

Activities Fund

Most of the classes which are scheduled to hold reunions this year are planning to limit their activity to very informal programs primarily for those residing near the University. However, reunion classes will be invited to carry on the tradition of making a reunion gift to the Alumni Activities Fund, according to Kenneth MacQuarrie, '19, Chairman of the Fund Committee.

The Alumni Activities Fund seeks to provide a continuing source of income which will better enable the Alumni Association to make plans and carry out a program which is difficult to do with a wide variation in receipts from year to year.

Although the Fund was established in 1924, it was not until 1939 that a plan became fully operative and for the past decade most reunion classes have been making gifts. The Fund has grown rapidly since 1940, the total having now reached $8,200.

The goal for this twenty-fifth anniversary of the reorganization of the Association is "Reach the $10,000 mark."

In addition to Chairman MacQuarrie the other members of the committee are: Jesse Mason '09, Lewis O. Barrows '16, Hazen H. Ayer '24, and Robert Parks '29.

Oracle...

According to a recent article in the Nevada State Journal of Reno, alumnus Nathaniel E. Wilson '88 of that city, for more than fifty years a prominent and loved citizen of the city, is still regarded by Reno residents as a civic and political oracle. Mr. Wilson is affectionately known as "Prof" in recognition of the brief time he occupied a professorial chair in chemistry at the University of Nevada, fresh from the Maine State College.

It was not long before Prof. Wilson left the Nevada campus to establish the N. E. Wilson Drug Company in Reno which, like the proprietor himself, has become a familiar and loved institution of the city. By the time that Reno was ready to become incorporated as a city, early in the 1900's, Prof. Wilson had so won the respect of the citizens that he was asked to serve as acting mayor to get the new municipal machinery turning.

From that time on, Mr. Wilson has occupied a unique place in the civic life and leadership of Reno. To quote part of the article devoted to the grand old man of Reno who will in part show the respect with which he is regarded by his fellows: "Prof. Wilson, the oracle, has time after time swung municipal elections by his endorsement of candidates or issues. For the voters, perplexed and muddled by claims and counter-claims, have come to accept his judgment of men and proposals. They know his source is honest, honorable, and sincere. And they know from experience that it proves out."

Such is the tribute grateful citizens pay to Nathaniel E. Wilson '88, graduate of Maine State College, one-time resident of Orono, member of Phi Kappa Phi honorary fraternity, and former teacher of chemistry. The same article contains another paragraph of tribute well worth quoting for the record. "As the years go on and Prof's circle of confidence expands, Reno people and thousands of others who know him and the influence he wields, point to him as an outstanding example of what a man earns when he lives his life as a trust, set up in accordance with certain definite principles from which no deviation is permitted. For though the Prof. is not rich in worldly goods, he is one of the world's wealthiest men in public esteem, confidence, and reputation for honesty and integrity which no man can attack without being promptly challenged by hundreds. The reputation of a man like Reno's Prof. Wilson must be earned, and there's only one way it can be earned, by being the kind of person he is."
The SERVICE PAGE

Family relationships among the men and women of Maine in service provide an interesting study of group loyalty. According to the records of the Alumni Office there are four alumni father-son combinations in the service, eight examples of three brothers from the same family, one of two brothers and a sister, one of two sisters, and two cases of twins in service, one of women and one of men.

Perhaps the outstanding example of family leadership from the list is that of the Carlisle brothers of Bangor: Norman D. '37 is a Major, John D. '40 is a Lieutenant, and Robert '41 is a Captain, all in the Army. Nearest to their combined ranks are the three Smith brothers of Richmond, Va., Winfield C.'40, James F. '42, and Arthur W. '43, all of whom hold the rank of Lieutenant, Arthur in the Army Air Forces, the others in the Army.

The complete list of alumni fathers and sons now in service includes the following names: Lt. Col. Harold W. Coffin '16 and Lt. Richard H. Coffin '42, of Bangor, Army; Capt. Lewis W. Gammell '18, of Attleboro, Mass., Army, and Aviation Cadet Lewis W. Gammell, Jr., '45, Army Air Forces; Major Frederick Robie '16 of Gorham, Army, and Capt. John W. Robie '42, Army Air Forces; and as a Civilian Engineer with the Army Engineers is Paul P. Arbo '27 of Brownville, whose son, Edward P. Arbo '42 is a Lieutenant in the Infantry.

Among the more interesting, and perhaps at times confusing, family groups in service are the twins. In the Women's Reserve of the Marine Corps are Mary J. and Mildred L. Chapman of Orono, Class of 1942, daughters of Prof. C. W. L. Chapman '14, member of the Forestry Department faculty; also in the Marine Corps are twin brothers Eugene L. Bailey '44 and Guy R. Bailey '45.

The complete list, according to alumni records, of families with three brothers follows:

Other reports from the men and women in service bring a graver tone to the military page. Four new names have been added to the list of those officially declared "missing." Over Germany Army Air Corps Lieutenant Lee Simons '43 has not yet been accounted for. In the Mediterranean theatre Technical Sergeant, Army Air Forces, Paul G. Fleming '44 is missing. And in the Marshall Islands' fighting the missing lists include the name of Army Air Corps Lieutenant Frank J. Washburn '39. In another branch of service news has come that the submarine Capelin, commanded by Commander Elliott E. Marshall '30, has been lost. Commander Marshall had been previously decorated with the Navy Cross for his undersea achievements.

Total number of Maine men and women now known to be in the armed forces stands at the figure of 2,674. The following list contains the names known to be added to the service list.

THE MAINE ALUMNUS
Alumni Association

ties for athletics, the alumni in November, 1922, announced the campaign to raise funds for construction of the Memorial Gymnasium and Armory which now stands as a memento to those Maine men who served their country in the First World War and Spanish War and equally to the thousands of alumni who contributed to its building. The raising of nearly $500,000 for the construction of this building makes it the greatest cooperative effort ever undertaken by Maine alumni.

Alumni generosity again responded to the needs of the University with the decision in 1939 to raise funds by a general financial campaign to aid in the building of a new Library. The cooperative efforts of alumni throughout the country carried the endeavor to a final success with the promised gift of $200,000 to the University more than fulfilled. As a result the new Library stands at the southern end of the mall, facing the Memorial Gymnasium and awaiting only the end of the present war for its completion.

Other Developments

In various other ways the reorganized Association strengthened alumni activities. The program of Local Association was expanded from about ten groups at the beginning of the period to a pre-war total of forty-eight, holding meetings from once to eight times a year. The entire country is dotted with local groups wherever a nucleus of Maine men and women find themselves located for a time in a common environment. These social groups do much to promote friendship among Maine people and to keep the memories of campus days and University loyalties active.

One of the outstanding accomplishments of the Local Association organizations and of many class organizations also has been promotion of a scholarship and loan fund program. Several endowed scholarships and loan funds at the University bearing the names of classes attest to the desire of alumni to assist undergraduates. Annual scholarships, provided by various local associations in pre-war years, also proved a real and needed addition to the sources of assistance to worthy students. Developed regularly during the twenty-five year period, this scholarship program showed significant progress in the years just before the war necessitated temporary curtailment.

Regular programs at the campus are a part of the services of the Association Commencement week-end, traditionally an alumni highlight, calls for close cooperation between the Association and the University so that plans of reunion classes and other returning graduates may be carried out with maximum enjoyment to all. Fall Homecoming and Freshman Parents Day were planned and carried out through the same cooperative effort by the University and the Association.

Placement services for graduating seniors, undergraduates, and alumni have been made available since 1935 by the Alumni Association in cooperation with the University.

At present many of the regular activities of the Association, developed through the quarter-century, have been temporarily subordinated to the all-important responsibility of maintaining the activities of greatest value to alumni and alumnae in the armed forces. In addition to the regular task of maintaining address files on all alumni—a number now passing the 12,000 mark—the office of the Association has become headquarters for address lists of Maine men and women in service. The nearly 3,000 individuals represented by these cards are the primary responsibility of the Association. To them goes each copy of The Maine Alumnus, to the ones overseas goes a special, abridged edition, mailed first class postage, The Overseas Bulletin. Weekly issues of The Maine Campust undergraduate newspaper, are sent to those of present undergraduate classes and the members of recent classes.

Leaders

No program nor institution is greater than the men who lead it. Thus whatever success has come to the work of the Alumni Association through its first quarter century since reorganization is in very great measure due to the men who have led and participated in the efforts which have brought that success. They have been many, men and women of the alumni body have given freely, gladly of their time, energy, thought, and money to promote the welfare of the University.

First president of the newly formed Association in 1919 was Allen W. Stephens '99. He served in that capacity the second longest period of any Alumni President, a total of nine years; he was also in great measure responsible for the original reorganization. With him in those first formative years worked Wayland D. "Pep" Towner, first employed Executive Secretary of the Association. He was followed by Robert P. Clark '15 in October, 1923.

Other presidents serving in the twenty-five year period have been Harry E. Sutton '09, 1924-1927; Raymond H. Fogel '15, 1927-1931; Arthur L. Deering '12, 1931-1934; George S. Williams '05, 1934-1937; Fred D. Knight '09, 1937-1940; and George D. Pearce '11, 1940-1943. The present holder of the leadership position, Walter H. Burke '06, was elected in June, 1943.

In other fields of activity other alumni—committee chairmen or members, Advisory Council members, and helpers of all sorts—have constantly aided the work of the Association and assumed responsibility for the success of projects. To all these men and women, and to all the alumni who through their membership and interest have made possible the progress of the past and assured continued progress for the future, this anniversery brings the knowledge that they have shared in a worthy activity, and that through their efforts the Association has constantly carried out its stated purpose. "To effect united action in promoting the welfare of the University."

Colonel . . .

The wearers of the silver eagle, denoting the rank of colonel, among Maine alumni include the name of Fernando T. Norcross '14 who is currently in North Africa on an assignment in Military Government. He was promoted to his present rank in October, 1942.

A graduate of Maine in Civil Engineering, Colonel Norcross has been a resident of Washington, D.C., since 1925 where he has been a landscape and consulting engineer. With the call to active duty in the Army he was assigned to duty in the Office of the Under Secretary of War in December, 1940, as Chief of War Housing. Later Colonel Norcross was detailed as Executive Secretary to the Army and Navy Munitions Board. His present assignment brings him new duties in connection with the Civil Affairs Division of the General Staff.

The MAINE ALUMNUS 6 APRIL, 1944
Amendment To By-Laws
Will Be Voted Upon

In accordance with the requirements of the Constitution of the General Alumni Association regarding amendments to the By-Laws of the Association, the following proposed amendment to the By-Laws is printed for the information of alumni. It will be acted upon at the annual meeting of the Association June 3.

Amendment is proposed in Article IV, Dues, Section 3, regarding Life Membership Dues. The amendment proposes to add to the present wording of section 3 the words "...except that for alumni husbands and wives the joint life membership dues shall be $150..." With this change adopted the entire content of Section 3 would then read as follows: "The life membership dues shall be $100, except that for alumni husbands and wives the joint membership dues shall be $150, the principal amount to be kept intact, using only the income therefrom."

The new, proposed amendment was discussed by the Executive Committee of the Alumni Council in January and subsequently approved by the Council. It will serve to provide in the field of life membership a joint opportunity for husbands and wives similar to that now available through joint payment of annual dues.

Nominating Committees

According to By-Laws amendment adopted last year at the annual meeting of the Association, President Walter H. Burke has appointed nominating committees. Members of the general committee are nominating officers and Alumni Council members at large are: Clifton E. Chandler '13, Robert DeWolfe '07, Miss Lena E. Shorey '23, all of Portland. Another committee to nominate a representative of the College of Technology on the Council consists of Prof. Harry D. Watson '18, Prof. William E. Barrows '02, and Prof. Weston S. Evans '18. A similar committee to nominate a Council representative from the College of Agriculture has also been named; its members are Prof. Maurice D. Jones '12, Richard Dolloff '27, Smith McIntire '32.

WAC—

The Commanding Officer of the first company of the Women's Army Corps to see overseas duty, Captain Frances Kegan Marquis, spoke at the University on Friday, March 24, in the Little Theatre. Under the sponsorship of the Women's Student Government Association, Captain Marquis told of the tremendous job which the WACs have undertaken overseas. As a member of General Eisenhower's headquarters staff in North Africa since last January, Captain Marquis was able to tell from first-hand experience of the work being done.

Honors—

For the Winter Term a total of 163 students were named to the Dean's List for the different colleges of the University in recognition of honor grades. Leading the list for honors were the names of five who made all A's in their courses. They were: Leona B. Peterson '45 of Orono, Business Administration; Thelma L. Myers '45 of West Summer, Education; Richard C. Lord '44 of Old Town, and Walter H. Hatch '47 of Old Town, both in Chemical Engineering; and Grace E. Wentworth '45 of Orono in Chemistry.

Commissioned—

Latest member of the faculty to accept service in the U. S. Army is Associate Professor of Biochemistry, Dr. J. Thomas Pedlow. Dr. Pedlow left recently to become Captain Pedlow in the Sanitary Corps as a Nutrition Officer. He is a graduate of Pennsylvania State College and Rutgers University, receiving his Ph.D. from Pennsylvania in 1934. Previous to coming to Maine in 1936, Dr. Pedlow had been employed as an instructor at Depauw University and as a research chemist with the du Pont Company and Burroughs-Wellcome Company. He enters the Army on leave of absence from his regular teaching and research duties at the University.

Registration—

At the opening of the Spring Term of the University on March 14, the total of 695 regular and special students registered for civilian courses. Also in attendance were 60 17-year-old members of the Army Specialized Training Reserve program, including a group of some forty new members beginning their college work under that program this term. Following preliminary announcement through the newspapers that Army requirements were to bring about the virtual discontinuance of the Army training program, members of the ASTP at Maine were shipped out to other assignments; finally word came that all advanced students of the Army program also were to be sent to other duties. Therefore with the opening of the Spring Term no Army students except those in the 17-year-old reserve were still a part of the campus life.

The civilian enrollment for the Term, totalling 695 men and women, included 7 graduate students, 116 seniors, 140 juniors, 141 sophomores, and 237 freshmen. Those registered as Special Students number 18, and there are 36 enrolled in the 3-year Nursing program.

Pianist—

Head of the Fine Arts Department, University of Georgia, Dr. Hugh Hodgson, noted pianist and lecturer on music, was a two-day guest of the University March 20 and 21 for a program of piano concerts and lectures. Visiting first the faculty of the Northern Conservatory of Music, Bangor, Dr. Hodgson then came to the campus to present his first public concert, a recital called by him "Parallaxes and Contrasts," in the Little Theatre, Monday evening, March 20. Subsequently he lectured to classes in Music, English, and Sociology. He gave an interesting lecture on the relation between literature and music, playing pieces inspired by specific poems. He also presented an informal recital in North Estabrooke on the afternoon of March 21.

Speaker—

At a general assembly Tuesday, March 28, Wing Commander W. V. Crawford-Compton, New Zealand officer of the Royal Air Force, spoke on "Spitfires over the Western Front." Recipient of the D.S.O., D.F.C., and bar, Commander Compton is founder and leader of a famous New Zealand fighter squadron. His flying career has included naval engagements, bombing escorts, work on the Dieppe raid, and many other types of combat.

EDITOR: To Sam Collins, Jr., '44 of Caribou, just retired as editor of the Maine Campus, has been given the praise of alumni of recent classes, students, faculty, and administration for carrying on the paper successfully under extreme difficulties. He is succeeded in the position by Joan Greenwood '46 of Farmington. Collins is son of alumnus Samuel Collins '19.

LIEUTENANT JAMES STUART PAUL. Member of the Army Air Forces,
Serving with the First Transport Command in India, First Lieutenant James S
Paul was killed in action August 4, 1943. A graduate of Fort Fairfield high school, Lieut. Paul attended the University in the College of Technology. He was a member of Phi Eta Kappa fraternity. Enlisting in the Army in October, 1941, he was assigned to duty in the Army Engineers School, Chanute Field, Ill. In March, 1942, he was commissioned a second lieutenant and volunteered with other officers and enlisted men to form the First Ferry Command, later known as the First Transport Command, and was stationed in India. He was promoted to the grade

SERGEANT GERALD ELLSWORTH SPOFFORD. In Italy on January 30, 1944, Sergeant Gerald Spofford of Kennebunk was killed in action while serving with a medical battalion. According to reports Sergeant Spofford was with a group of American Rangers in forward positions during early days of the Anzio beachhead operation. The enemy cut off the entire force in their counter movement and only a few individuals managed to escape to the allied lines. Sergeant Spofford, a graduate of Kennebunk high school, was a student in Forestry, regularly named to the Dean's List of honor students, and graduated in 1940 with highest distinction. He was a member of Phi Eta Kappa fraternity. Following his graduation he was awarded a fellowship at Texas A.

We extend our sympathy to Gerald Spooner whose recent word was received by her that Jerry was killed in action on January 30th in Italy. Jerry is definitely one of our class heroes, having been through four major battles of the Tunisian campaign driving his ambulance. He was wounded in action, received a Purple Heart and the Silver Star. Jerry was transferred to Italy last August. He was evidently with the two battalions of American Rangers that infiltrated through the enemy lines in the early days of the Anzio Beachhead operation. This action occurred on January 30th when Jerry was killed. Only a few stragglers got back to the American lines as you will remember from newspaper accounts. Jerry was one of our loyal classmate always interested and contributing news of himself. Christmas time brought a V-mail from him, as you will remember I reported. He will be very much missed by us all.

Polly Weatherbee also helped out with a letter about doings in Bangor. She and Barbara Welch and Rachel Kent at the Club had a get-together recently. Rachel is located in Bangor at present, too. Polly says that Elsoro Savage Grant has gone to Portland to be with George, little Nancy, of course, with her.

Dr. Robert Robertson wrote to the Alumni Office telling of his change in address. He is now at Lenox Hill Hospital with the Main Office at 111 East 70th St, New York, N. Y.

Mra William A. Publicover, Jr.—Bet Johnson sent in a change in address. She is now at Route 1, Box 330, Largo, Fla.

A series of Farm Bureau meetings on the subject "Food Fight for Health" will be held in every Farm Bureau community in Somerset County. Dorothy Phair, Home Demonstration Agent, will conduct the first of these. Dot lives at 74 Main Street, Skowhegan.

Miss Mary Crosson's engagement to Howard Kenney was announced recently. Miss Crosson is a graduate of Simmons College School of Nursing and is at present a head nurse at the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital in Boston.

Guess this is all for now. Please heed my S.O.S.

Here goes with the latest news for this month, taking off with a welcome letter from Bob McLeary who is temporarily a neighbor North Carolina. Bob has been at Chapel Hill, N. C. Navy Pre-Flight School, training cadets for about a year now. "It's interesting work and the results are just beginning to assert themselves in about every war theatre, yuh, we bring out the lurking panther in 'em and turn Milque-toasts into Cagnys." On January 9th, Bob and Gladys Clark were married while Bob was on leave, and they are both at Chapel Hill now. Our best wishes, you two. Bob wrote he's seen many Maine boys go through training and very recently spotted "Mark Ingraham's face under a cadet hat peaking out at me from the Ship's Service. I'm sure he'll get some injunctions here that will bring him in in first place in some of their 'track meets.'" Bob's address is Ensign R. B. McLeary, 204 USNPS, Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

George Buck has been traveling around a bit within the states, but is now on the beam towards being a weather observer after being first in the infantry, then at Clemon College, S. C., in the ASTP program; later, he was transferred back to his original outfit, and finally transferred to the Air Corps Weather Observer School. His address is Pvt. G. H. Buck, 31081325, 2nd Weather Sqdn., Bowman Field, Ky.

Lt. Gordon Winters came through with the word on himself in a much appreciated letter. In November 42, I came overseas and landed in Casablanca. Later I moved across to Africa to participate in the Tunisian Campaign. I got to Sicily about 15 days before the show was over, and now I'm in Italy. I saw Bill Irvine in Sicily and Hartley Banton in Casablanca. I hear that Bill Talbot is on his way over and hope to see him soon.

Doc's address is Lt. Gordon Winters, A.P.O. 464, c/o Postmaster, New York, N. Y.

Another overseas letter arrived from 1st Lt. Earl L. Hodgkins whose address is A.P.O. 230, c/o Postmaster, New York, N. Y. Earl has been overseas since August, 1942, and is now in England, "a change from my other stations, and so far really enjoyable."

From Charles Remick's overseas letter, I'll "lift" most of its interesting content. "I left school in 1941 with a National Guard unit. Am with the same unit but managed to get double bars out of it a year ago. Lt. Col. Wilbur Bradt is in a unit of this division. We’ve moved about some. We got a good look at New Zealand before we sailed, but it was almost bloodless battle town Russia. We spent some time training in New England, it was a good sight compared to the Solomons. We got in a few good licks at New Georgia during the Munda Campaign. I was lucky to be chosen or should I say ordered to Bougainville as an observer for a short time. The South Pacific will need a mighty good salesman for the first war to sell any of us down here a trip to the islands. I’ll take a canoe ride on the Stillwater any time. Fourteen months in a tent now. Sure will enjoy a hard floor or a sidewalk. The news is great to get. Would like to hear from any of the old gang.” Capt. Charles Remick, A.P.O. 43, c/o Postmaster, San Francisco, Cal.

On January 13th the marriage of June Page and Ensign James Wells took place in Newcastle, Maine. Lots of happiness to you both! From the postmark on the envelope of the announcement, we deduce that Ensign and Mrs. Wells are living in South Bend, Ind.

A last blast and full of enthusiasm for the life of a claims examiner for the Prudential Insurance Company, a letter from Lois Stone. She and Gloria Minnitti share an apartment in Jersey City at 88 Van Reypen St., and “would love to have any and all other Maine Alums who might get down our way, spend a week, a day; or a month.” In Jersey City is only a 20-minute tube ride from New York City and the apartment a four-minute walk from Jourdain Square. Lorraine Ditmire is living at 315 South Bayview Ave., Freeport, L.I., N.Y., and working for Grumman Aircraft as a production aide. Arlene ‘Peanut’ Webster is a Girl Scout Executive and her mail goes to 93 Clarendon St., Springfield, Mass., c/o William Hagan. Marion Hines is with the Chemical Warfare Dept., and living at 181 Bay Street Road, Boston. Dave Hopkinson is stationed in Hawaii and Vic Minnitti in North Ireland, but unfortunately I can’t give you their addresses. Every time I hear a ‘String of Pearls’ and some of the other favorites on the juke box in the cabin, I get so homesick that I could cry,” Me, too. Lois, and how about a taste of fudge cake and ice cream? Thanks for the “scops” and the invitation and directions to the apartment.

Arlene Boyle dropped a post card with news of her recent trip to Louisiana and Maine people seen en route. “Fred Libby is a instructor at Selma Field in Monroe, La. Pat and baby girl are down there with him. I spent about three weeks there and saw all the old crowd of return combat men from Loj’s group. I went to Shreveport, La., to see Beulah (Wilson), Kerm and little Steve. They are at 845 Ontario St. Kerm is an Operations Officer at Barksdale, La. Louis is ‘old there’ and has been gone 19 months now.”

The engagement of Miss Audrey Beckler of Milwaukee to Henry Murdock was announced recently. He is now assistant electrical engineer in the A.C. Design Dept. of the Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Co., Norwood Works, Ohio, and receiving mail at L. B. Harrison Club, 2108 Victory Blvd., Cincinnati 6, Ohio.

John Houston was recently elected principal of Monsen Academy. Since graduating from Maine, John has taught at the Moses Brown School in Providence, R. I., and at Brookline, Maine, where he was principal of the Brookline High School. We certainly wish him continued success in his new position.

John M. Carter was a member of the class of Aviation Cadets to graduate recently from the Army Air Forces Pilot School at George Field, Ill. He received the silver wings of a flying second lieutenant and, following a short leave, left for Salt Lake City for assignment.

We have a change of address for Nicholas Denesuk who was formerly at Sanford, N. C., and now is receiving mail at Box 983, Stateville, N. C.

Received a hasty word from Bette Kilpatrick that she and little Nancy Elizabeth were on their way to Holyoke, Mass., to live during Don’s training at Westminster. They will live at 6 Portland St., in Holyoke. Don was in the West when Nancy was born, and so it will be a special uniting of the Kilpatrick family.

We hear that Sgt. Bob Davis, USMC, visited the campus recently. Bob had been in Ireland and England and is now awaiting further assignment. His news was greeted by the Division of Public Relations, Headquarters, Marine Corps, Washington, D. C.

We are informed by the Alumni Office that Lt. Michael Haberem, ex-42, has been reported as missing in action since Sept. 11, 1943. Lt. Haberem was attached to the Twelfth Air Force in the Alaskan Theatre. His plane was shot down in the Asiatic Area. He and the rest of the crew were awarded medals.

Marlowe Perkins and Leonard “Pete” Peterson, who received their commissions in the Marine Corps last fall, have been stationed here in New England with the 47th Replacement Battalion which left recently, and Pete with the 51st which is still organizing. They’re both working with 81 mm Mortar crews where he moved out, and it really seemed good to talk over the old days. Perkins had been back on the campus recently and had a hard time in helping put out the fire. Told to Pete on the phone and he sounded as fine as ever.

This year is our year for our first reunion and plans are being made for an informal alumni day program on June 3rd for all who can get back to the campus. Guess the boys overseas and on their way over would want us to try to hold strings together until that big reunion in the future, so be thinking about it.

‘Bye until next month, and thanks for all those letters.'

From Will O'Neil, "somewhere in India," comes another verification of the fact that the Overseas Victory Edition of the Alumnus comes in regularly and in timely fashion. Will is with a detachment of the Airways Communications System stationed at an—(censored). One news item that caught my eye was: In March last year, he later joined the Air Corps and took basic training at Miami Beach. "Then followed a few quick weeks at a few forecast and communication schools in N.Y., brief stints in Texas and California, then shipment overseas in June."

He sends this message: "I'd be grateful to hear from more of you and I'd do my best to answer all letters. Address, Cpl. Wiltbert O'Neil, A.P.O. #429, c/o P.M., New York, N.Y.

A swell long letter from Olive and Don Taverner brings us up to date on their activities since last May. Don reported at Fort Devens last June, and from there went on to the 41st Infantry Battalion. In the meantime, Olive went to Chicago to the Northwestern Univ. NBC Broadcasting Institute. Next, Don left for O.C.S. at Fort Benning. While there, he ran into Ex-Mayor Shorty Coffin and the Mayor of the U. of New Hampshire who said, "You can bet the hot air circulates." After graduation, he was assigned to the Officers' Communications Course at Fort Benning and Olive went back with him to Columbus where they have an apartment at 24 East Fifth St. (that's in Georgia). There has never been a time when the work of the telephone operator has been so important as right now.

For there are more Long Distance calls than ever before. More are in a hurry, particularly the urgent calls of war.

Calm in emergencies, capable and courteous, the telephone operators are earning a nation's thanks for a job well done.
