Biographical / Historical

Box 1 Folder 1 includes a background document written by Tony Kaliss on the materials in this record group and an autobiographical profile. In summary, the material was gathered by Kaliss during his time as an undergraduate and graduate at the University of Maine where he was "an active participant in some of the student protest activities that took place at UMO, activities similar to those taking place across the country on college campuses". The materials are more of a snap shot of student protest activities not a comprehensive record. There is material on protests regarding the Vietnam War, tuition, dormitory rules, labor disputes, and miscellaneous student political activities.

Scope and Contents

The records mainly contain textual information curated by Tony Kaliss during his time as a student at the University of Maine including on the subjects of student unions, general left caucus, anti-war marches, protests, and sit-ins, University President Libby's speech on rights, Justice Department visits, labor related activities, California grape boycott, Penobscot Shoe Co. strike, and Doug's shop and save strike.

The records include material from various student union and general left caucus meetings, copies of various student publications, posters for events, planning information, University of Maine memorandums regarding student activities, and correspondence between Kaliss, the University Coalition to end the War in Vietnam, and President Winthrop C. Libby. Also, includes a copies of speech given by Libby on rights and limitations and material regarding a committee tasked with reviewing the University's disciplinary code.
