The Maine Historical Society Quarterly is published at 170
Stevens Hall, University of Maine at Orono, Orono, Maine
04469, and is received by 2015 members and 135 libraries.

Manuscripts relating to any aspect of Maine history are invited.
Submissions should reflect original, previously unpublished research done according to acceptable scholarly standards and should not exceed six thousand words. Style and footnotes should be in conformity with A Manual of Style, published by the University of Chicago Press.

The authors of all manuscripts published in the Quarterly become eligible to receive the James Phinney Baxter Award of $100.00. Established to promote excellence in the research and writing of Maine history, the Baxter Award is presented at the discretion of the Editorial Board to the author of the best article appearing in the Quarterly during the volume-year.

The Maine Historical Society assumes no responsibility for the opinions and interpretations expressed by its contributors.

The articles appearing in the Quarterly are abstracted in Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life, published by the

EARLY ARCHITECTURE AND CAMPUS PLANNING AT THE BANGOR THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Bryant F. Tolles, Jr. 92

COVER ILLUSTRATION: This engraving of Maine Hall shows Bangor Theological Seminary's principal structure as it appeared in 1833-1834. Maine Hall and its companion buildings reflect the concerns for economy, practicality, and function typical of New England college and seminary architecture of the antebellum period. In this issue, author Bryant F. Tolles, Jr. presents the seminary's varied institutional styles, construction, and changes in order to illustrate the architectural patterns, including vernacular features, prevalent in nineteenth-century New England campus planning and design. (From Gleason's Pictorial Drawing-Room Companion, 1853.)
