Busy week for Seniors includes tickets, awards, caps and gowns

Alumni Field will be covered with caps and gowns on June 1st as graduation commencement exercises at 10:30 a.m. Speaking will be Mr. Daniel B. Wiggins, Editor and President of the Washington Post.

The commencement exercises are scheduled for June 1st on the athletic field, and for inclement weather, the exercises will be held in two sessions in the Memorial Gymnasium, with one group of students at 10:30 a.m. and a second group at 2:30 p.m.

Wiggins began his newspaper career in 1922 on the Rock County Star, a country weekly at Luverne, Minn. He joined the staff of the Orono paper, Paul Pioneer Press in 1930 as an editorial writer, and was named managing editor of the paper in 1942.

In 1946 he became assistant to the publisher of the New York Times and was named editor of the Washington Post in 1947. He has held his present position with the Post since 1961.

About a year ago Wiggins projected a long-established weekly newspaper in Ellsworth.

Seniors are reminded to pick up their tickets, which are available at the Main Entrance in case of rain, Tuesday through Thursday, May 25-27, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. There will be no tickets sold the day of the ceremonies.

If it does rain, one graduation will be held at 10:30 a.m. and the other at 2 p.m.

Graduation announcements are in the May 16 issue of the Daily Times.

The remainder of the week includes plans which should keep everyone busy. The Senior Banquet will be held on Thursday, June 1st at 6:30 p.m. in the West Commons. Tickets will be available in the Student Union Office until May 26.

Wednesday, the 15th, the Class Day Adjudications will begin at 2 p.m.

This year's Class Day Adjudication will be presented with credentials identifying each as a member of the National Honor Society at EXPO 67. Maine's Stanley R. Tapser, head of the United States participation at EXPO, makes the presentation.

YOUNG IN MONTREAL—"Thank you very much for this honor; none of us had expected that," said M. W. Tapser, U.S. Commissioner for Canada, as the applause died down. "We were only too pleased to be able to present some credentials identifying each of you as a member of the National Honor Society at EXPO 67." He added, "The purpose of our visit is to encourage our students to follow the example of those who have been successful in the field of education and to stimulate change, and to share ideas and systems of organization with A.W.S. groups across the nation." He explained.
Spanish honor society forms new local chapter

By Carolyn Palmer

Zara Katz, the 145th chapter of Sigma Delta Pi will be installed at the University of Maine, Monday, May 12, in the Memorial Union. Sigma Delta Pi, the only honor society devoted entirely to students of Spanish, Professor Stuart Gross of the Spanish Department has been instrumental in the formation of the new chapter. The first eleven members were announced at a meeting of the students on Tuesday. They are nominated for membership at the discretion of their respective professors.

The committee in charge of installing the new chapter will be: Dr. George Mowld, head of the Department of Languages and Classics; Prof. Williams Joffre, acting head of the History Department; and Prof. Francis Case of Cottey will receive honorary members.

If any student wishes to become a member, they should contact the President of the chapter or any member of the Greek Fraternity, Sigma Delta Pi. The Greek Fraternity, Sigma Delta Pi, is the only honor society devoted entirely to students of Spanish. Sigma Delta Pi has national headquarters in New York City.

Four nationally known soloists will join the University’s 180 voice Chorophonic Society in presenting the Verdi “Requiem” in Memorial Hall Monday, May 15 in the 6th Annual Concert Season. The performance will be conducted by Dr. Harold Headley and will close the 1966-67 Concert Season.

The University is especially fortunate in having the four renowned soloists, Jeanine Crader, Enocie Alberts, David Rubens and Dr. Rubens, as the principal singers in this, the last performance of the season. Dr. Headley has invited each of these renowned voices to join the University’s Chorophonic Society in presenting the Verdi “Requiem.”

Jeanine Crader is a member of the Music Faculty at the university and has made for himself a distinguished place in this, his first year in recital. Recently he sang the part of Escamillo in “Carmen” with the Kenosha (Wisconsin) Symphony Orchestra.

Enocie Alberts has won an extensive reputation as a singer of standard operatic and oratorio repertory and of contemporary music. She has appeared to soloist with Leonard Bernstein, Josef Krips and Sir Malcolm Sargent. Miss Alberts has sung the role of Bette in Verdi’s “Aida” with the New York City Opera in Lincoln Center. She has appeared with many of the leading opera companies in this country and toured Europe for the Harmonia Miscellanea.”

David Rubens is a member of the Music Faculty at the university and has made for himself a distinguished place in this, his first year in recital. Recently he sang the part of Escamillo in “Carmen” with the Kowrin (Wisconsin) Symphony Orchestra.

This performance will be the last under the direction of Dr. Headley as the director of the Chorophonic Society. Dr. Headley, Professor of Music and Head of the Music Department, has resigned to accept a position as Chairman of the Department of Music at the University of Rhode Island.

The American Association of University Professors will meet Tuesday, May 16 in the F.R.A. room of the Memorial Union. Items on the agenda include: election of officers, a report from Dr. St. John, National A.A.U.P., and a report from the convention committee concerning consideration of legislation on the status of women; a report from the committee on minority freedom and tenure.

National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals

The North American Society of Antiquities is held Monday, May 8 in the F.R.A. room of the Memorial Union. The program includes: discussion of the proposed legislation on the status of women; a report from the committee on minority freedom and tenure.

HOW TO GET A’S

In today’s column, the last of the school year, I don’t intend to be funny. I have achieved this objective many times through my usual device of keeping you laughing against your Will. The hour is wrong for levity. Final exams are looming. Have you got a chance? I sure you! I may not become the world’s foremost author of stove bolts and nightgowns but my system is designed to churn out the highest quality -- A’s! Here’s how! By studying. How? By learning mnemonics.

Mnemonics, the art of memory aids, is all new, invented by the great Greek philosopher, Moses in 1850 B.C. (This, incidentally, was only one of the turns in thisattle of Athens. One of the most important, the state of war, was listed by the Persians, and the Greeks with Nightingales and Doves.)

Since leaving the university, the Mndern, the Persians, and the Los Angeles Rams, this later became known as the Missouri Compromise.

The makers of Personna, after I missed several deadlines, walled me in. for they are good and true and gleaming and constant - as good and true and gleaming as they make me— and I wish to state publicly that I will always hold them in my high esteem, no matter how my suit for back wages comes out. And so, to close the year, I give you one last "memorial:

But I digress. We were discussing mnemonics, which are nothing more than aids to memory—little jingles to help you remember names, dates, and places. For example:

If you get a little nervous during the early part of the school year, you may say I am a popular writer for the Persians. May I say further that it’s been an even more popular write for you, the undergraduates of America. You’ve been a most satisfactory audience, and I’m going to miss you this summer. In

"Killing for peace" prompts peaceniks to prod people

By Peter Tabor

The parents came last Thursday afternoon to see the annual ROTC Review, but they also saw what is fast becoming a contention tradition—the annual peace demonstration. 1967's demonstration for peace in Southeast Asia was quiet, sober, and, unlike last year's, was not met by violence. The marchers assumed an automatic, slow and silent pace. The author didn't say—just resist. A tiny one said simply, "Resist." Its stripes were torn off. The stripes were torn off. Summer Theater shapes up

"The Skin of Our Teeth," a com- edy by Thornton Wilder, will be the opener for the Univer-sity’s second Summer Theatre sea- son in Orono on July 12.

A few changes have been made in the theatre schedule for this sum- mer. Student actors will be di rector of the theatre company, and stated that opening night for all six plays would be on a Wednesday evening, continuing through Sunday.

A resident student company makes up the cast and crew for each pro- duction. According to Barushok, the company will be made up of 15-20 students who will represent four different major departments.

Three productions will be held on the campus, and the remaining three are at the State House in Augusta, the University of Maine, and the University of Southern Maine.

A block of seats will be reserved for students, and tickets will be required for admission. The cost of admission will be $5 per production.

A local resident who is not a student of the University of Maine will receive a 50% discount on tickets.

In addition to the six productions, a Shakespeare Festival will be held on campus on July 12, with performances of "As You Like It," "Julius Caesar," and "The Tempest.

The festival will be held on the campus lawn, and admission will be free.

A recent poll has shown that the majority of college students are participating in some form of drug use. The poll, conducted by the university, found that 70% of students have used drugs at least once in their lifetime.

The poll also found that the most popular drug among students is marijuana. The next most popular drug is alcohol, followed by prescription drugs and hallucinogens.

The poll was conducted among 1,000 students and was funded by the National Institute on Drug Abuse.

The English Department has been rocked by a storm of internal conflict this year. The storm has been fueled by a battle of wits and a war of words. The Department has been torn apart by a series of events that have left many faculty members feeling vulnerable and uncertain of their future. The storm has caused significant damage to the Department's reputation and has cast a shadow over the academic environment.

The English Department has experienced a wave of controversy that has caused turmoil among its members. The Department has been under pressure from various sources, including student complaints, administrative concerns, and faculty disagreements. The Department has been struggling to maintain its integrity and to provide a stable and supportive learning environment.

Collegium Musicum gives concert

The University of Maine Collegium Musicum will present a very special concert May 23. Very special because of two heralded events: the unveiling of the University's new harpsichord, and the premiere display of the Collegium Instrument Collection.

Rosette Headley, wife of M. Nixon, and Mike Killen, also Friday will play the harpsichord. The program will include selections by the Concerto Trii and the Downeast Chamber Players. Lord Hill Auditorium is the site of the concert.

University urges early registration

in CED courses

Early registration is recommended for courses offered during the fall of 1967 by the University of Maine's Continuing Education Division, according to a recently-published university bulletin.

In the CED publication, "A Tentative Listing of 1967 Fall Courses," a variety of more than 450 courses are offered in 21 locations throughout Maine from Kilroy, Maine to Miami, Florida.

The bulletins, announce that further information, assistance or registration materials may be obtained from the University's CED offices in Augusta, Bangor, Bar Harbor, Belfast, Caribou, Cape Elizabeth, Castine, Eastport, Houlton, Kennebunk, Lewiston, Madison, Mahoosuc, Orono, Presque Isle, South Paris, Van Buren and York.

Also, Madawaska, Orono, Portland, Presque Isle, Raymond, Skowhegan, South Paris, Van Buren and York.

Courses will be given in the following locations: Auburn, Augusta, Bangor, Biddeford, Brunswick, Calais, Dover, Eddington, Farmingdale, Fort Kent, Frenchtown, Houlton, Kittery, Loring Air Force Base, Machias, Orono, Presque Isle, Presque Isle, Madison, South Paris, South Portland, Presque Isle.

The bulletin also states that organizations planning outings on Saturdays and Sundays and desiring sports playing equipment from the men's department of physical education must pick up equipment before 4 p.m. on the Friday of the week of the outing.

Active students acknowledged with honors, awards

Skulls and Owls

New Sophomore Owls and Senior Skulls were tapped in ceremonies held Wednesday night, bringing a talent show which concluded the annual Maine Day festivities at the Orono campus of the University of Maine.

The Sophomore Owls and Senior Skulls are non-academic honor societies for men on the Orono campus and those tapped for the honors are students who have been active and prominent in campus activities. Tapped as Sophomore Owls were Howard Philbrick of Hampden, David King of Benton, Thomas J. Calo of Barre, William Araldizio of Cushing, John F. O’Brien of York, and Donald White of Auburn. Tapped as Senior Skulls for the 1967-68 year were Donald Barter of Fairfield, Richard Tozier of Bangor, and Kenneth Finch of Woodstock, Maine.

Dr. Harold H. Beverage Award

The Dr. Beverage Award Fund was established by friends and associates of Dr. Beverage and the award is presented annually to the student radio station’s record annual revenue generator. The Beverage Award was Robert L. Dumais, student station manager for the past two years, was presented a desk set in recognition of his services.
