The Maine Historical Society Quarterly is published at 170
Stevens Hall, University of Maine at Orono, Orono, Maine 04469, and is received by 2015 members and 135 libraries.

Manuscripts relating to any aspect of Maine history are invited.
Submissions should reflect original, previously unpublished research done according to acceptable scholarly standards and should not exceed six thousand words. Style and footnotes should be in conformity with A Manual of Style, published by the University of Chicago Press.

The authors of all manuscripts published in the Quarterly become eligible to receive the James Phinney Baxter Award of $100.00. Established to promote excellence in the research and writing of Maine history, the Baxter Award is presented at the discretion of the Editorial Board to the author of the best article appearing in the Quarterly during the volume-year.

The Maine Historical Society assumes no responsibility for the opinions and interpretations expressed by its contributors.

The articles appearing in the Quarterly are abstracted in Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life, published by the COVER PHOTO: Maine's State House, completed in 1832, hosted a variety of interesting political figures who, for more than a century and a half, have shaped the state's evolving political institutions. In this issue historian Wayne M. O'Leary reveals the economic interests that structured political debate in mid-nineteenth century Maine, while political scientists Kenneth T. Palmer and Marcus LiBrizzi demonstrate the continuity and change in Maine's constitution. The cover illustration is from Leading Businessmen of Lewiston and ... Augusta (1889).
