Marching right along with the armed forces of this country are thousands of telephone workers.

They work side by side with the Army and Navy. Wherever the need is communications, you are likely to find telephone men and their trucks and materials.

Day and night the order is for speed and more speed.

They wear no uniforms, these telephone workers, but men in uniform know how much they are putting into the Nation's biggest job. They see it first-hand and they know it is first-rate.
TRIBUTE to a HELLENIST

Dr. John Homer Huddilston—better known as "Paddy"—is recognized as an outstanding classical scholar. The title which he himself most cherishes as the crown of his career is that of a Hellenist. Certainly his writings, his teachings, his advanced study in Greek language, culture, art, and history, supported by wide learning in other ancient cultures has given him a right from the scholarly point of view to this title. But the title of Hellenist in Dr. Huddilston's case goes much deeper than the mere surfaces of scholarship. It is a thing of the spirit, and this Irish professor in a Yankee environment with an old-world love of the soil, and an international education, is in his breadth of culture and his omnivorous love of learning indeed deserving of the title Hellenist, interpreter of the spirit of Classical Greece.

It is possible that comparatively few students of the University have been aware that in the presence of Paddy Huddilston, familiar and loved figure for more than forty years, they have been in contact with a fine scholar; none who have ever had contact with him, however, and their number is legion, have failed to realize that they were in the presence of an individual and stimulating mind. For Paddy Huddilston has ever worn his laurels in his own inimitable way and scholarship to him has been only a means to an end, the end of stimulating the student mind to a larger comprehension of the eternal values of true culture and its appreciation whether exemplified in his beloved Greeks, or in modern America, in art, in architecture, or in literature.

Archaeology. Dr. Huddilston, caught up in this enthusiastic re-discovery of ancient civilization, received his degree in the field of Archaeology, the third man from the United States to receive such a degree.

In this atmosphere he stayed to study and write, finishing two books, one on Greek tragedy, the other "Essentials of New Testament Greek," which has since been translated into practically all foreign languages and passed through some twenty reprints and which is still in use as a basic text in Greek language study.

Returning to this country he taught at Bryn Mawr for a year then accepted appointment to the University of Maine Named Greek Professor, he started his career at Maine teaching Greek and German.

Among the many interests resulting from Dr. Huddilston's contact with the Germanic revival of ancient cultures was that in Greek Art. He brought with him from the continent a number of photographic reproductions of architectural and sculptural examples of classic culture. These subsequently formed the foundation for introducing courses in ancient civilization and culture. Thus the Greek professor became by gradual development a teacher of Ancient Civilization and of Art History until he is today more often identified with the teaching of Art than with his scholarship in the classics. In one sense this is most fitting since the greatest contribution to the cultural development of the University made by "Paddy" Huddilston is without question the development of art appreciation among the students and the creation through many years of the University's art gallery. For these parallel contributions to the progress of Maine, alumni and the University owe to him a lasting debt of gratitude.

Art Gallery

The growth of the art gallery and its collection of art reproductions is in itself an interesting chapter in University history. In 1900 through the initiative of Prof. Huddilston the society known as the University Art Guild was promoted to enlist the interest of people from Orono, Bangor, and Old Town. At its peak this organization numbered some 200 members. Dues and subscriptions provided funds which resulted in the first home of the art gallery in the old frame building now housing the University print shop. This building, formerly used as the college gymnasium, was made available by the construction of Alumni Hall with its superior gymnasium facilities. In this building materials Dr. Huddilston had brought from Europe, largely purchased by funds donated by the Guild members, provided the modest beginning of an art collection which through the tireless efforts of the master himself has grown through the years to its present place on the campus.

(Continued on Page 6)

Biographical

Dr. Huddilston completes in June a period of service covering 43 years, which began with his appointment as Professor of Greek in 1899 under President Abram W Harris.

Born at Cleveland, Ohio, in 1869, Prof. Huddilston graduated from Baldwin University and in 1893 from Harvard. For two years he taught Greek at Northwestern then traveled to Europe to study at Munich from which he received his Ph.D. degree in 1897. This first trip to the centers of German culture, the first of ten visits to the continent during his long career, deeply influenced the direction of his thinking and his teaching. In Germany at that time famous scholars were building a new knowledge of ancient culture and art through the study of

March, 1942
As the grim business of war increasingly involves the efforts and lives of Americans everywhere, the list of Maine alumni in the armed service of the country grows swiftly greater. We choose for tribute this month the total of 333 Maine men now known to be in the various branches of the Army other than the Air Corps, featured last month. This long and varied list of names grows daily as more alumni are called to the colors.

The leading names on the list from the point of view of military rank are those to the three Colonels in the active service, Colonel Sumner Waite '11, Colonel Archelaus L. Hamblen '16, and Colonel John H. Corridon '17.

Colonel Waite holds that rank in the infantry and is now stationed at Fort Jackson, South Carolina. He has had a distinguished career in the military service following his commission as a Second Lieutenant immediately after graduation in 1911. He served on the general staff during World War I, received several citations for his service. His duties have carried him to many parts of the world. His latest appearance on the campus was with the reunion of his class in 1936 when he served as marshal for the Alumni Day program.

Colonel Hamblen has also followed a regular Army career following his active service in World War I. He served for some time at the University of Arkansas as professor of Military Science and Tactics. He has been stationed at various times in Hawaii, Kansas, Kentucky, Chicago, and is at present located with the War Department in Washington.

Colonel Corridon is a member of the Judge Advocate General's Department. He was a graduate of the University Law School in the class of 1917.

Alumni of many classes will regret the announcement this month of the death in action of Colonel Loren P. Stewart, '15, who also held this rank previous to his death in action in the Philippines.

Other alumni who have achieved high ranking positions are four Lieutenant Colonels on our list: Dr. Leonard H. Ford '99 at Camp Blanding, Florida; Ralph R. Glass '14, Vancouver Barracks, Washington; Herbert E. Watkins '17, Temple, Texas; Allan F. Sullivan '22, Fort Missoula, Montana.

Active Service

Of special immediate interest to Maine men everywhere are those alumni with the Army now participating in the active fighting in the Philippines. Three alumni, at least, are serving with the heroic forces of General MacArthur helping to write a new page in the history of American courage and initiative. They are First Lieutenant Festus P. Watson '38, Lieutenant Carl G. Weeks '40, and Second Lieutenant Clayton H. Pielke '41. Details of their service at the present time are, of course, unobtainable.

Other alumni too are already stationed outside of the continental limits of the country, including Hawaii, Alaska, the Canal Zone, and other locations. Men so stationed have been designated in the accompanying list as "In Foreign..."
Service." Two alumni, Lieutenant Francis E. Weatherbee '26 and James A. Mallory '39, are reported in service with the Canadian Army.

The following list, as complete as ever-changing records can make it, shows the wide class range from which Maine men have been called to the service of the colors and the various branches of the Army in which these men are serving.

In training camps, coastal defenses, and army bases in this country and with the spreading might of American arms in far corners of the world, Maine men are carrying forward traditions of service and courage.

---

Next month The Alumni will carry a supplementary list of all alumni in the various branches of the armed services from whom information has been received since publication of this month's and previous lists. All men in service are urged to send us their address to be included in this roll of honor.

In the accompanying list where present address is not known the home address is given. Undoubtedly many more alumni than here listed are in the Army, but these are all of which the Alumni Office is at present informed.

---

1899
Ford, Dr. Leonard H., Lieut Col. (Medical Corps)
Camp Blanding, Florida

1903
Potter, Paul, Capt
Boston, Mass.

1911
Gould, William S., Jr., Capt. Ordnance Dept

Walter, Sumner, Colonel (Infantry)
Fort Jackson, So. Carolina

1914
Brown, Lester E., Major
Camp Blanding, Florida

Glass, Ralph R., Lieut Col
Vancouver Barracks, Washington

Haggart, Alexander L.
In foreign service

1916
Ashton, Donald, Capt
Fort Sill, Okla

Coffin, Harold W., Major
Fort Williams, Maine

Hamberl, Archeaus L., Colonel
War Dept
Washington, D. C.

1917
Corridon, John H., Colonel
Judge Advocate General's Dept
Washington, D. C

Stephenson, Charles L., Major (Field Artillery)
Providence Military District
Providence, R. I.

Watkins, Herbert E., Lieut Col
Temple, Texas

1918
Libby, Donald M., Major
Fort Bragg, No. Carolina

Redding, Harold L., Capt
Lewiston, Maine

Turner, O'Dillon C.
Bangor, Maine

1919
Alley, Frank O., Jr., Major
2nd Recruiting Dist (Infantry)
Manchester, N. H.

Astle, Ray M., Capt
Houlton, Maine

MacDonnell, Reginald H., Capt
Subsistence Research Lab.
Quartermaster Depot
Chicago, Illinois

1922
Nickerson, Osgood A., Major
3rd U. S. Army
San Antonio, Texas

Quinn, John T., Major
Judge Advocate General's Dept
Augusta, Maine

Sullivan, Allan F., Lieut Col
Fort Missoula, Montana

1923
Fisher, Linwood W., Lt
Camp Blanding, Florida

Getchell, Dr. Ralph, Major (Medical Corps)
Fort William, Maine

Hamm, Clifton M., Capt (Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass

Hutchins, Bentley S., Major
Fort Devens, Mass

1924
Beckett, Charles L., Capt (Infantry)
Fort Knox, Kentucky

Eastman, P. Clifford, Capt (Infantry)
Fort Sam Houston, Texas

Fayle, Leslie E., Capt
Camp Blanding, Florida

Griffin, Guy E., 1st Lt, U. S. Engineers
Boston, Mass.

Mackay, Roger D., Major
Fort Benning, Georgia

1925
Chandler, J. Winthrop, Capt.
Corps of Engineers
Bradley Field, Windsor Locks, Conn.

Humphrey, O. Julian, Capt (Infantry)
Fort Meade, Maryland

Mussey, George A., Capt (Infantry)
Fort Bragg, N. Carolina

Pressey, Harold E., Major (Medical Corps)
Camp Blanding, Florida

1926
Mashall, John T., Capt (Field Artillery)
Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont

Somers, Vernon H., Capt (Infantry)
Macon, Georgia

True, William H., Jr. Capt
Windsor Locks Air Base
Windsor Locks, Conn

1927
Berg, Frederick T., Capt.
West Point, New York

Grant, Ernest H., 1st Lt.
Camp Edwards, Mass.

Howard, Henry G., Capt (Infantry)
In foreign service

Kelse, Elmer G., Capt (Field Artillery)
Camp Livingston, La

Rounsville, Sherman H., Capt
Camp Pendleton, Va.

Stetham, Lloyd H., Sergeant
Pittsfield, Maine

1928
Beeker, Dr. Vincent H., Capt
Medical Detachment
Camp Blanding, Florida

Cutler, Dr. Lawrence M., Capt.
Medical Detachment
Camp Blanding, Florida

FitzMaurice, Frederick E., 1st Lieut.
Camp Edwards, Mass

Fitzpatrick, Francis G., 1st Lieut
Camp Shelby, Mississippi

Manter, Nelson L., 1st Lieut
Fort Devens, Mass.

Staples, Roscoe E., 1st Lieut. (Infantry)
Camp Blanding, Florida

1929
Lynch, John B., Capt.
Fort Benning, Georgia

Moore, Roger W., Lieut
In foreign service

1930
Beckwith, Milledge M., Capt
Pine Camp, N. Y.

Flynn, Horace F., 1st Lieut.
Camp Wheeler, Georgia

Hapworth, Kenneth C., 1st Lieut
Camp Lee, Virginia

Hargreaves, George M., Capt
Fort Knox, Kentucky

Harkins, John W., 1st Lieut (Infantry)
Camp Blanding, Florida

Knight, Frank A., 2nd Lieut (Ordnance)
Fort Devens, Mass

Lapworth, Kenneth E., Capt.
Fort Leavenworth, Kansas

McAlary, Edward N
Fort Devens, Mass

Sweatt, John H., 1st Lieut. (Infantry)
Quantico, Virginia

1931
Cleaves, Ward B., Capt. (Quartermaster Replacement Center)
Camp Lee, Virginia

Fogg, Donald H., 1st Lieut.
Cheyenne, Mass.

Larrabee, Frederick T.
Bucksport, Maine

1932
Allen, William A., Capt
Portland, Maine

Bagley, Fernald S., Capt
Command & General Staff School
Fort Leavenworth, Kansas

Barrett, Lewis W., 1st Lieut.
(Coast Artillery)

Fort Leavett, Maine

Elliott, Linwood S., 1st Lieut (Infantry)
Camp Croft, So. Carolina

Flanders, Dr. Merton, 1st Lieut
(Medical Corps)

Fort Dix, N. J.

Hincks, Maynard A., 2nd Lieut.
Westover Field

Chiricopa Falls, Mass.

Kuskonak, Ameil F., Capt. (Infantry)
Fort Knox, Kentucky

McCabe, Francis J., Lt.
Camp Edwards, Mass.

Merriam, Wheeler G., 1st Lieut. (Cavalry)

Fort Benning, Ga.

Young, Ronald E., 1st Lieut (Infantry)
Camp Joseph T. Robinson, Arkansas

Bachrach, Dr. Samuel, 1st Lieut.

Medical Corps

Mitchell Field, N. Y.

Banks, John T., 1st Lieut.
Indian Town Gap Military Reservation
Pennsylvania

Blake, Donald C., Capt
Fort Devens, Mass.

Clifford, Robert L., 1st Lieut.
Plum Brooks Ordnance Works
Sandusky, Ohio

Decker, Lawrence F., 1st Lieut
Quartermaster Corps

Pine Camp, N. Y.

Doyle, John P., Capt. (Corps of Engineers)

Portland, Maine

Farnsworth, John M., 1st Lt. (Infantry)
Camp Wheeler, Georgia

Gillien, Fred E.
Bangor, Maine

(Continued on Page 10)

March, 1942
Alumnus Leads Move
To Improve Law Study

Leadership in the recent improvement in requirements for admission to the Bar in Florida is directly credited to a Maine alumnus and long a leading lawyer in the state, James Booth of the Law School Class of 1910. Credit for the significant development in Florida law standards follows no less than fifteen years' work in this direction by Jim Booth, the last six of them as chairman of the Legal Education and Admission to the Bar Committee of the Florida Bar Association.

Fellow-lawyers in the state have much to say in praise of the tireless efforts of lawyer Booth, firm member of Booth and Dickinson, Attorneys at Law in St. Petersburg. Characteristic comment is the following, quoted from Florida Law Journal: "Jim Booth has practically dedicated his time, mind, and efforts to this one objective... He has succeeded himself as chairman of the Committee on Legal Education and Admission year after year at the request of the president of the State Bar Association. It was under his leadership that the recent petition was filed with the Supreme Court which resulted in an Order of the Court fixing the higher standards of admission.”

The result of his long and successful drive is the adoption in the State of Florida of the American Bar Association rule as an educational and legal requirement for admission to the Bar to practice in that state. Previous to the successful termination of this work, Florida requirements for admission to the Bar did not include graduation from an accredited law school and related educational qualifications. The petition, presented last December by the Florida State Bar Association, under the leadership of alumnus Booth, stressed the raising of educational qualifications for the following reasons: protection of the Bar and the citizens, keeping step with educational requirements for other professions, the advance of legal education which is within the reach of any who earnestly seek it, and the interests of the profession and the public.

In granting the petition, the Supreme Court, therefore, ordered that after January 1, 1942, all applicants to the Florida Bar must show evidence of graduation from an accredited law school, must have graduated from a senior high school, and completed at least two years of resident college work equivalent to half the credits for a Bachelor's Degree.

This notable improvement in Florida legal standards had been supported for a number of years by many leading legal minds in the state and by none more whole-heartedly or actively than by James Booth. The achievement of their aims is indeed a tribute to the Florida

LIBRARY REPORT

Norman H. Mayo '09, of Portland, has been appointed Chairman of the new Alumni Library Committee authorized by the Alumni Council Executive Committee at its meeting in January to succeed the original Library Fund Committee which, having exceeded the campaign goal, was discharged with sincere appreciation for its fine job. The other members of the committee appointed by George D. Bearer '11, president of the General Alumni Association, are James A. Gannett '08, treasurer of the Library Fund, Mrs. Edward L. Herlihy '16 of Bangor, Alton T. Littlefield '21 of Augusta, and Earle R. Webster '27 of Bangor.

Upon this committee devolves the responsibility for determining what future activity shall be undertaken, the collection of subscriptions, and the preparation of the Book of Donors which is to be on display in the new Library.

The latest tabulation of subscriptions shows that a grand total of $251,066 has now been received from 5,931 persons with additional subscriptions still coming in. It is hoped that time may permit the compilation of a class standing to appear in an early edition of The Alumnus showing how the classes responded in this campaign.

Bar Association and to the leader of the movement.

Mr. Booth is a past president of the St. Petersburg Bar Association and has long been a leader in his profession. He has been an active and interested alumnus of the University and served as chairman of the Florida area in the recent Library Campaign.

It is fitting to close with another sentence from the Florida Law Journal, "It is the devotion of men like Jim Booth that contributes to the services rendered by professional organizations."

Tribute to a Hellenist

(Continued from Page 3)

With the construction of the Carnegie Library in 1906, Dr. Huddleston and his collection moved to the new building. Here in the south room of the gallery and around the lobby of the library were displayed the art collection, and here Prof. Huddleston lectured and labored with the passing generations of students for nearly thirty years. Many are the students who remember the characteristic voice in the big room lecturing on the qualities of the Greek spirit or with dramatic gesture emphasizing a point of particular importance. With a sweep of the hand, an intonation of the voice, he would invest with new meaning a great painting or an example of architecture giving it an unforgettable place in the history of human development.

An important date in the history of the art gallery and Dr. Huddleston's long effort to build art into the culture of the University was that 1935-36 when the Carnegie Corporation provided several thousand photographs, colored reproductions of paintings, and books on art history. This was followed by a special appropriation from the trustees for remodeling the top floor of South Stevens as a home for the collections, now of respectable size and importance. Subsequent gifts from the Carnegie Corporation have added to the collection.

Today the art gallery under Prof. Huddleston's direction is performing a service not confined to the campus. From the gallery are arranged loans both to University students and to numerous high schools throughout the state. Loans to students consist of framed reproductions of masterpieces with which the student can live intimately for considerable time learning day by day a sounder appreciation of the value and beauty of the work. To the high schools go both reproductions for display and series of art appreciation lessons correlated with the prints. Fifty-six high schools each year are served in this way and offer an opportunity for the school not equipped with art materials of its own to offer its students information of great cultural value.

This year Dr. Huddleston has climaxcd his years of service by presenting to the University all of the art materials, pictures, and photographs which he himself has accumulated for so long and which still make up a considerable portion of the gallery display and the supplementary materials used in his courses.

In Retrospect

Thus for more than forty years "Paddy" Huddleston has been an intimate part of the pattern of University history. His mind and personality have been woven into the fabric of Maine life. His courses in Greek language, his teaching of Art History, his work in Ancient Civilization, and a more recent course in American Culture have made a deep impression on undergraduate minds. As he looks back over the years he knows a throng of familiar faces and in his many visits among the alumni has the pleasure of again meeting those he taught in former years. His influence has been and remains wide in range and lasting in effect. Paddy Huddleston has become a tradition at Maine, a tradition which neither time nor distance has dimmed in the minds of those with whom he has been associated. So will the memory remain, much like the spirit of his beloved Greeks, a lasting influence for broader and deeper living long after the familiar voice no longer sounds in the lecture halls at Maine.

March, 1942
Defense—

A total of 1,346 students registered voluntarily to receive training or assist in the University defense program last month. This number is slightly over 70% of the student body and the Council was extremely pleased with this cooperation. Volunteer blood donors were the most numerous group, although enlistments in first aid and air raid assistance closely followed. More than 100 students already hold Red Cross First Aid Certificates and 388 wish to take the course if it can be arranged. One hundred and five students are now taking air raid warden instructions and 499 more desire to take the course. The following is a brief summary of interests in other fields: 9 students already have Red Cross Home Nursing Certificates and 73 desire to take the course; 65 are ready to sign up for a nutrition aide course; 67 have had telephone switchboard experience and over 400 are willing to take a fire-fighting course.

Pledges—

Three hundred and three freshmen pledged to the various fraternities during the rushing season from Feb 2 to 16. Phi Eta Kappa lead all houses with forty men pledged while Delta Tau Delta was second with 34 and Kappa Sigma third with 32. Other fraternities pledged as follows: Phi Gamma Delta and Alpha Tau Omega each pledged 25 men; Lambda Chi Alpha and Sigma Alpha Epsilon 24; Sigma Chi 20; and Phi Kappa Sigma 18. Fourteen men pledged to Theta Chi; 13 each to Beta Theta Pi and Phi Mu Delta; 10 to Gamma Rho; 7 to Sigma Nu; and 4 to Tau Epsilon Phi.

Honored—

Three hundred and thirty-six students were honored by inclusion in the semester's dean's list of students making an average of 8.0 or better in their courses. Among these were the following ten upperclassmen who received an all-A record: Seniors Shirley Ashman, Augusta; Malcolm Blodgett, West Brooksville; Gerard Goullette, Dexter; and Edgar Pitts, Stonington. Juniors Earl Langley, Mars Hill and Wentworth Schofield; Portland, Sophomores Guilio Barbero, Bangor; Paul Eastman, Smyrna Mills; Joyce Iveney, Eastport and Dolly Lamoreau, Easton; roommates in Balentine Hall.

Ski—

A Ski School by the Maine Outing Club began February 13 under the direction of economics instructor, Dr. Paul Fischer, formerly of Austria, whose experience on skis has included Alpine trips.

March, 1942
With the Teams

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Connecticut 47—Maine 39

The University of Connecticut jumped into an early 10-0 lead in the first twelve minutes and these same 10 points proved to be the deciding factor of the game. Although Maine held them throughout the second half, they were unable to make up for the 10 point deficit of the first half. Hussey and Small led the scoring for Maine with 13 points each, and Crowley played an outstanding floor game.

Maine 44—Colby 42

In one of the most thrilling games ever played in Memorial Gymnasium, Maine edged Colby in a second overtime period by two points to change the State Series standing. Maine and Colby are now tied for first place. Colby took the big end of an 8-2 score early in the game and Maine was unable to overtake this lead until the end of the first half which ended 12-18. Scoring in the second half was evenly divided with first team leading by two points and then the other. With seconds to go, Leger of Maine, dropped in a field goal to tie up the game 37 all just as the final gun sounded.

The first overtime period was definitely defensive. Crowley of Maine and Zecker of Colby tallied one field goal each which caused a second overtime to be played.

Crowley opened the second overtime with a beautiful one-hand shot from the corner, but Colby immediately knocked the score again. Small made good a foul attempt and substitute Presnell scored from the floor to give Maine a 3-point lead. Colby, made good a free throw, but was still two points short.

Small and Crowley led the scoring with 15 and 9 points respectively. An important factor in the victory was Maine's complete domination of the backboard play all evening.

Maine 56—New Hampshire 33

The basketball ability of the home team proved definitely superior to that of the visiting New Hampshire Wildcats on February 17 as Maine won the New England Conference game with ease in a rather loosely played game. Maine led nearly all the way, 22 to 9 at the end of the first half, and was never seriously threatened. Acting Captain Gene Leger and his substitute Gene Hussey at center took six baskets each, closely followed by Nat Crowley, forward, with five baskets and a foul shot. Harold McKeen, thought lost to the team, but granted a draft deferment, returned to the sport to give a good account of himself at guard.

SCHEDULES

Because of the shortened school year, varsity, baseball schedules have had to be revised. The State Series has been reduced to two games apiece instead of three. The corrected schedule follows:

(Week day games are at 4-00)
(Saturday games are at 2-30)

Baseball Game Schedule

Apr. 21 Colby at Waterville
24 Bowdoin at Brunswick
25 Bates at Lewiston
30 New Hampshire at Durham

(Two 7-inning games)

May 1 Rhode Island at Kingston
2 Connecticut at Storrs
4 Bates at Orono
6 Colby at Orono
8 Rhode Island at Orono
12 Northeastern at Orono

(Two 7-inning games)

VARSI TY TRACK

Mar. 7 Bates at Lewiston
14 Northeastern at Orono

Maine 60—Bowdoin 22

The Black Bears turned on the heat in the first half of this game and after twenty minutes of very fine shooting and passing were out in front 39 to 9. The feature of the game was the fine defensive work of the two Maine guards Downes and McKeen in holding Bowdoin's ace forwards to four points each. Small led the scoring for Maine with 16 points, but was closely followed by Hussey who tallied twelve. Coach Kenyon used three complete teams besides frequent substitutions throughout the game.

Northeastern 42—Maine 40

In a breath taking finish at Orono on Feb 21, Northeastern won the decision by a final basket in the last minute of the game. Leading at the half, Maine was unable to hold the visitors in check during the second part of the game, trailing 40 to 36 with less than a minute to go. Then baskets by Gene Hussey and Parker Small tied the score for the third time, only to have Pajonas, visiting star, drop the winning tally. Leading scorer for Maine was Hussey with 12 points.

The winter sports intramural competition at Winter Carnival, Feb. 23, saw Phi Eta Kappa take first place Lambda Chi Alpha ended up in second place, with a tie for third between Kappa Sigma and Phi Gamma Delta.

VARSITY TRACK

Maine 70½—New Hampshire 46½

At Orono on February 21, the Maine track team took a decisive win from New Hampshire by virtue of well-balanced performances in every event, but throughout the afternoon attention of the spectators was mostly on the performance of New Hampshire's sophomore star, Richard Morcom. The visitor took first places in pole vault, high jump, and broad jump, in every one setting a new meet record and in the pole vault and broad jump setting new field house marks.

In the high jump, Walter Brady, a junior, from Dorchester, Mass., carried Maine colors to the height of 6'2" before being content with second place. With the exception of these first places in the jumps and a first in the 35 pound weight, Maine took top honors in every event. In the 300 yard run, juniors John Radley of Old Orchard and Dick Youlton of Needham, Mass., finished in first and second places, with the latter also taking first honors in the 70 yard dash.

Maine's share of record making was set by junior Bill Hadlock of Quincy, Mass., who set a new meet and college record in the 60 yard high hurdles of 7.9 sec.

Rhode Island 81—Maine 48

Led by the high scoring forward of the nation, Stutz Modzelewski, Rhode Island invaded Orono on Feb 23 to win. Actual scoring honors went to Parker Small of Maine as Maine guards tied up the star much of the game but the outcome was not in doubt at any time. Maine pushed the visitors much harder in the second half of the game with a rally that had the crowd on its toes. Parker Small led the scoring rally but Rhode Island stemmed the tide in ample time to maintain a comfortable margin of victory.

FROSH BASKETBALL

A fine season for the freshman hoopsters ended on Feb 25 with three losses against ten victories for the yearlings in their thirteen game series. Coach Sezak's players defeated Old Town, Brewer, John Bapat, and Higgins, then lost to Deering Ellsworth and M C T. Before the skillful frosh, followed by a thriller which Hebron won 43-42 Victories over Ricker, Keats Hill, South Portland, and Bridgton followed. The final game, against Coburn, was the third defeat for the first-year men.

SNOW-BIRDS

The Maine Winter Sports team skied to a third place at Durham, N. H., February 13 and 14 in the New Hampshire meet. Leading the Maine men were the teams from Dartmouth and New Hampshire.

March, 1942
Dr. Chase's "Windswept" Joins Best Seller List

Maine alumni are accustomed to associating the name of books which are both artistic and successful with alumna Mary Ellen Chase but even her distinguished career has never before risen to heights of popularity now attained by her latest novel, "Windswept." Consistent week by week reports from leading critics and reviewers place "Windswept," that skillfully woven contemporary story, at the very top of America's best seller lists.

The Macmillan Company, fortunate publishers of Miss Chase's recent books, spread "Windswept" on most of a full-page advertisement in the New York Times book section with the caption "America's Top-Selling Novel!" and a recent poll of the literary critics given by Harper's magazine, February, showed "Windswept" with 16 votes as the best fiction out of a possible 20.

Critics indeed have been notably generous in their comments on the book which features perhaps more than any individual character the rugged down-east coast and all that it means to the men and women who dwell with it. Typical comments are the following, "One of the finest of contemporary novels," New York Times "A glowing and lasting novel. One is caught and held by the fine penetration, the exquisite language," New York Herald Tribune.

More penetrating than such quotations is the comment of a reviewer comparing this book to its predecessors by Miss Chase. Apparently both reviewers and readers have found a greater degree of effectiveness and message than in her earlier works, successful though they were. The reviewer writes, "'Windswept' is the strongest and most beautiful novel that Mary Ellen Chase has written, the most distinguished in its unadulterated quality, and the most far-reaching in its significance."

It is with peculiar pleasure that alumni and University note and join in the acclaim given to Miss Chase, a pleasure deriving mutually from her loyal and intimate association with the University and her dignified challenging portrayal of Maine character and scene.

Southern New Hampshire Alumni gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Coggins, '29, in Manchester on January 30. Twenty-five members and friends enjoyed the house-warming and social evening of cards and games. During the evening a letter was prepared to Hon. Styles Bridges, '18, U. S. Senator, confined to the Phillips House in Boston President Elh. Marcoux, '21, was in charge of the meeting and led the group in singing. Presentation of a table lamp was made to Mr. and Mrs. Coggins.

March, 1942

Local Associations

SCHEDULE OF MEETINGS

Boston Alumni Association Weekly Luncheons—Every Friday at the Dinty Moore Restaurant 611 Washington St. Boston

Cumberland County Alumni—First Monday each month Columbia Hotel—12:15 p.m.

Portland Alumni—First Thursday each month Columbia Hotel—8 p.m.

Dr. J. H. Huddleston, guest on March 5

March

3—Central New York—Syracuse
4—Western New York—Buffalo
5—Western Pennsylvania—Pittsburgh
6—Illinois Alumni—Chicago
8—Ohio Alumni—Cleveland
17—New York Alumni—New York
21—Washington Alumni—Washington, D. C.—Wesley Hall, 1703 K St., N.W., 7 p.m.

20—Maryland—Baltimore
6:30 p.m.—Dinner Longfellow Hotel, Charles & Madison Sts.

Dean Murray

21—Philadelphia Alumni—Kugler's Chestnut St. Restaurant—Widener Building

Dean Murray

31—Boston Alumni Association

Dean Murray

The Maine Club of Auburn-Lewiston entertained two Maine coaches at its meeting Feb. 10. Coaches invited for the occasion were Eck Allen, varsity football mentor, and Sam Sezag, '31, freshman coach. Also invited for the meeting were four athletes from Lewiston High School and Edward Little High School.

Coach Allen, as guest of honor, spoke of football prospects and showed pictures of 1941 games Ross Varney, '15, president, led the meeting; the athletes were introduced by Linwood Kelley, '21, and Linwood Dwelley, '25. Thirty alumni and guests attended.

Penobscot Alumni elected Dr. Joseph Murray, '25, new president of the group at their annual meeting in the Bangor House on February 9. Dr. Murray, newly appointed Dean of Arts and Sciences of the University, has long been an active and leading member of the alumni.

Guest of honor for the evening was President Arthur A. Hauck who spoke on current University plans and problems resulting from the war situation. Coach Eck Allen spoke on the past football season and showed several reels of football movies. About sixty alumni attended the meeting.

Other officers elected were Earle Webster, '27, vice president, Henry Doten, '23, secretary-treasurer. Retiring president Sam Calderwood, '31, presided.

Lehigh Valley Alumni met on February 9 at Bethlehem, Pa., for business and a social meeting. Seventeen alumni were present. Election of officers was a feature of the meeting with Paul S. Robinson, '27, named president and Frank S. Beale, '21, secretary. Plans for a meeting on March 18, with Dean Murray from the University as guest, were discussed. Moving pictures from the campus provided entertainment.

Philadelphia Alumni met at Temple University on February 6 for a business and social meeting through the courtesy of Miss Gertrude Peabody, '20, Dean of Women at Temple. Wallace E. Belcher, '99, president of the local group, presided over the business meeting. Plans were announced for the annual dinner, with the date set for March 21 and with Dean Joseph Murray, '25, as guest of honor.

Twenty alumni and guests attended the meeting and subsequently enjoyed moving pictures of campus life, including films of the laying of the Library cornerstone and Commencement pictures—End by J. A. Hayes, '00, and E. M. Woodsum, '15.
Alumni in the Army
(Continued from Page 5)

Hamilton, Allan C., 1st Lieut.
Chemical Warfare Service
Boston, Mass.
Hendrickson, Warren M., 1st Lieut.
(Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass.
Ingram, Robert J., 1st Lieut.
Chemical Warfare Service
Boston, Mass.
Palmer, Donald R., Private (Coast Artillery)
Brooklyn Heights, N.Y.
Shaw, Linwood Z., Lt.
Fort Devens, Mass

1934
Bendtson, Frederick A., 1st Lieut.
(Infantry)
Camp Blanding, Florida
Collins, Earle O., 2nd Lieut. (Signal Corps)
Fort Devens, Mass
Gagnon, Lorenzo A., 1st Lieut.
(Corps of Engineers)
Charleston, South Carolina
Giguere, Armand M., 1st Lieut.
(Ordnance)
Bellingham, D. C.
Griffith, Mardelle E.
Milbridge, Maine
Jordan, Edward C., 1st Lieut.
(Corps of Engineers)
Portland, Maine
Lowell, Donald K.
Carroll, Maine
McLeod, Gregg C., Capt. (Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass.
Moore, Montgomery D., Private First Class
Camp Blanding, Florida
Morse, Thomas S., 2nd Lieut.
Fort Bragg, N.C.
Quinn, John B., 1st Lieut. (Infantry)
Camp Croft, S.C.
Rosen, Dr. A. Everett, Capt.
(Medical Corps)
Camp Edwards, Mass
Rossing, William, 1st Lieut
Fort Knox, Kentucky

1935
Anderson, Dr. Donald L., 1st Lieut.
Medical Detachment
Fort Devens, Mass.
Anderson, Dr. Karl V., 1st Lieut.
Medical Detachment
Fort Devens, Mass.
Bean, Paul W., Capt. (Infantry)
Camp Blanding, Fla.
Blaisdell, Frank R., 1st Lieut
Camp Lee, Virginia
Day, Harry H., 1st Lieut. (Infantry)
Camp Wolters, Texas
Higgins, Robert G., Sergeant
MacDill Field, Tampa, Florida
Honan, Carl N., 2nd Lieut
Camp Edwards, Mass.
MacBride, M. Milton
Camp Blanding, Florida
Martin, Richard O.
Winthrop, Maine
Nichols, Dr. Arthur A., 1st Lieut.
Medical Corps
Fort Devens, Mass
Packard, Vernon L., 1st Lieut.
(Ordnance)
Charleston, Indiana
Page, Woodrow E., 1st Lieut
Fort Devens, Mass.
Stagg, Howard J., 1st Lieut
Pine Camp, N.Y.
Thorpe, William A., Jr., 2nd Lieut.
(Infantry)
Camp Shelby, Miss.

1936
Abbott, Actor T., Jr., 1st Lieut. (Infantry)
Camp Wheeler, Georgia
Boardman, Harold T., 2nd Lt (Infantry)
Camp Edwards, Mass.
Brown, Donald M.
Marion, Conn.
Dowd, Maxim J., 2nd Lieut
Fort Knox, Kentucky
Eaton, Galen P., Lieut
In foreign service
Fogarty, John J. (Coast Artillery)
Camp Edwards, Mass.
Getchell, John S., 1st Lieut.
Camp Edwards, Mass.
Glesser, Roland M., 1st Lt. (Infantry)
Fort Ord, California
Gordon, Richard O., 1st Lieut
Chemical Warfare Service
Edgewood Arsenal, Maryland
Harris, Emory E.
North Monmouth, Maine
Hill, Thomas M., 1st Lieut
Quartermaster Corps
Gowen Field, Bose, Idaho
Keller, Lyndon M., 1st Lieut
Medical Corps
Camp Claiborne, La
Larson, Dr. Karl V., 1st Lieut
Medical Corps
Fort Monmouth, N.J.
Mcalary, Francis, 2nd Lieut
Quartermaster Corps
Washington, D.C.
McDougall, John R., 1st Lieut
Army Base, Boston, Mass.
Pierce, David P., Private
Fort Knox, Kentucky
Saunders, Ernest J., Corp. (Infantry)
Camp Blanding, Florida
Snow, Philip G., 1st Lieut
(Coast Artillery)
Fort Williams, Maine
Wakefield, James A., Jr., 1st Lieut
Army Air Base (Corps of Engineers)
Windsor Locks, Conn
Washington, Donald, 1st Lt. (Infantry)
Fort Sam Houston, Texas

1937
Bell, Alton L., Lieut
Fort Benning, Georgia
Berry, Richard N., 1st Lieut
(Corps of Engineers)
In foreign service
Bowles, George M., 1st Lt (Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass
Bramman, Edward F., 1st Lt (Infantry)
Camp Claiborne, La
Brown, Woodford B., Lieut.
(Field Artillery)
Fort Bragg, N.C.
Carlisle, Norman D., 1st Lieut
(Ordnance Corps)
Camp Edwards, Mass.
Chisham, John
Army Air Warning Interpreter
Command, Jacksonville, Florida
Crabtree, Theodore J. (Infantry)
Camp Blanding Florida
Dunlevy, Raymond K., 1st Lt
(Ordnance)
Hatfield, Lloyd D., Corp (Infantry)
Camp Wheeler, Georgia
Houghton, Thomas E., Jr., 1st Lieut
Camp Croft, So. Carolina
Jackman, William L., 1st Lieut
Camp Shelby, Mississippi
Levine, Samuel J., 1st Lieut
(Medical Corps)
Fort Constitution, N. H.
Merrill, Edward O., Private (Medical Det)
Westover Field
Chicopee Falls, Mass
Minnuti, John J., 2nd Lieut.
Camp Croft, So. Carolina
Murphy, Leo J., 1st Lieut
Dow Field, Bangor, Maine
Murphy, Reginald F., 1st Lieut
(Corps of Engineers)
Huntsville, Ala.
Peabody, Arland W., 2nd Lieut.
Signal Corps
Fort Monmouth, N.J.
Roderick, Breleigh H., Corporal
Camp Wheeler, Georgia
Sibley, C. Byron, Corporal
(Medical Detachment)
Fort Knox, Kentucky

1938
Filliebrown, Charles A., Private 1st Class
Station Hospital, Fort Devens, Mass
Gibb, Sewall J.
Old Town, Maine
Gleason, Wallace P., Jr., 2nd Lieut.
Camp Croft, So. Carolina
Hamlin, Joseph H., 2nd Lieut (Infantry)
Camp Edwards, Mass.
Healy, Richard W., 1st Lieut (Infantry)
Military Dept.
Univ of Maine, Orono, Maine
Hodges, Arthur W., 1st Lieut. (Infantry)
Military Dept.
Univ of Maine, Orono, Maine
Hussey, Robert S., 1st Lieut
(Field Artillery)
Camp Blanding, Florida
Lef, Irving H (Field Artillery)
Camp Edwards, Mass.
Nadeau, Walter H., Sergeant
Westover Field
Chicopee Falls, Mass.
Owens, Thomas R., Jr., Private
Fort Knox, Kentucky
Raymond, Gordon B
Brownville, Maine
Reidman, Ernest, Private (Medical Det)
Walter Reed General Hospital
Washington, D.C.
Smart, Walter E., 2nd Lieut
(Ordnance)
Boston Ordnance Dist
Boston, Mass.
Verge, Arnold E., Private
Fort Bragg, Nor Carolina
Watson, Festus G., 1st Lieut. (Infantry)
In foreign service

1939
Buck, Embert C., Sergeant
(Coast Artillery)
Fort Leavett, Maine
Craig, Philip C.
In foreign service
Craig, William H., 1st Lieut
In foreign service
Ernest, Morris A., 1st Lieut (Infantry)
6th Army Corps, Providence, R.I
Farrin, Alton I.
Fort Bragg, Nor Carolina
Fitch, Harlan P., Sergeant
(Field Artillery)
Fort Benning, Georgia
Friedman, Albert, 2nd Lieut.
Camp Edwards, Mass.
Harriman, John R., Corporal (Signal Corps)
Cherryfield, Maine
Jellison, Milton S., 2nd Lieut
Camp Blanding, Florida
Konecky, Leon W., 2nd Lieut (Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass.
Ladd, Edward R., 2nd Lt (Infantry)
Cumberland, Maine
Merrill, L. Carleton
Fort Eustis, Virginia
Merritt, Lawrence M., Corporal
(Field Artillery)
Camp Blanding, Florida
Olds, Corwin, Capt. (Chaplain)
Camp Blanding, Florida
Patterson, Frederick G
Castine, Maine
Pennington, Brian, Sergeant (Infantry)
Camp Blanding, Florida
Rae, John E., 2nd Lieut (Ordnance)
Ordnance Dept, Washington, D.C.
Reed, Earle D., 2nd Lieut
Camp Edwards, Mass.

March, 1942
March, 1942

Strout, Donald F.
Fort Williams, Maine
Ward, William H., 2nd Lieut.
Ford, Myer, Florida
Whiteley, Albert H., Sergeant (Coast Artillery)
Fort Warren, Mass 1940
Alley, John C., Technical Sergeant (Coast Artillery)
Fort Williams, Maine
Arens, Roger S., 1st Lieut (Infantry)
Fort Benning, Georgia
Bacon, Earl G., 2nd Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Fort Banks, Mass.
Bahr, Albert E., 2nd Lieut (Coast Artillery)
San Francisco, Calif
Beardell, Wallace A., 2nd Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Fort Sheridan, Illinois
Bice, Woodbury, Corporal (Coast Artillery)
Fort Leavitt, Maine
Bram, Edward E., Private
Fort Belvoir, Virginia
Breton, Leon J., 2nd Lieut
Fort Eustis, Virginia
Bullard, Edward C., Corporal
Fort Hamilton, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Burke, Gerard J., 1st Lieut (Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass.
Buss, Frank J., 2nd Lieut (Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass
Charpentier, Allyn E., 2nd Lieut
Brooklyn, N. Y.
Coffin, Robert T., Private First Class
Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana
Cottle, Roger, Ace
Fort Benning, Georgia
Curtis, Philip E., 2nd Lieut (Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass.
Derry, John H., 2nd Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Fort Hamilton, New York
Doby, Carleton P., 2nd Lieut
Dow Field, Bangor, Maine
Emman, Edgar E. (Coast Artillery)
Camp Langdon, Portsmouth, N. H.
Fay, Norman F., Private First Class (Field Artillery)
Camp Edwards, Mass
Files, Maynard W., 1st Lieut (Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass.
Fitzpatrick, James J., Jr., 2nd Lieut, Adjutant General Dept
Washington, D. C.
Gartley, Myron S., Private First Class
Fort Bragg, N. C.
Golden, Francis P., Corporal (Coast Artillery)
Fort Leavitt, Maine
Gray, Douglas E.
Waukegan, Mass
Grimmer, Stuart W., 1st Lt (Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass
Hawes, Enos F., 1st Lieut (Infantry)
Fort Bragg, North Carolina
Higgins, Harold D., 1st Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Langley Field, Va.
Higginson, Raymond D
Army Medical Center
Washington, D. C.
Hunter, James H., 2nd Lt (Signal Corps)
Army Base, Boston, Mass
Hutchinson, Philip A., 1st Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Fort Monroe, Va.
Keyes, Allston P., 2nd Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Camp Stewart, Ga.
Lindsay, Andrew G.
Pine Camp, N. Y.
Littlefield, Joseph R., 2nd Lieut
Fort Edwards, Mass
Lovering, Francis W., 2nd Lt. (Infantry)
Lowell, Mass.
MacKay, Hugh P., Sergeant (Coast Artillery)
Fort Leavitt, Maine
McCain, James S., 1st Lt (Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass
McDowell, Conrad W., 2nd Lieut (Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass
Morin, Paul E., 2d Lt (Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass
Murphy, Robert E., 1st Lt (Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass.
Nelson, Harley C., Private First Class
Medical Corps
Camp Edwards, Mass
O'Brien, Oric O.
Brooks, Mass.
Odlin, Clifford W. (Signal Company)
Mitchell Field, N. Y.
Richard, Octave F., 2nd Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Cambridge, Mass
Schmidt, George O., 2nd Lieut (Quartermaster Corps)
Camp Lee, Va.
Smith, Basil L., Private (Coast Artillery)
Paterson, N. J.
Stewart, Robert F., 2nd Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Camp Edwards, Mass
Stuart, Parker, E., 1st Lieut. (Art Corps of Engineers)
Langley Field, Va.
Tremaine, Richard L., 2nd Lieut (Coast Artillery)
San Francisco, Calif
Weaver, Charles L., 2nd Lieut. (Coast Artillery)
Port Eustis, Virginia
Weeks, Carl G., Lieut (Infantry)
In foreign service
Whitney, Norman E., 2nd Lt (infantry)
Camp Croft, So Carolina
Wilson, Gleason W., Sergeant
Fort Bragg, N. Carolina
Adams, Charles E., Jr., 2nd Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Fort Ruckman, Mass.
Allen, Henry W., Sergeant (Field Artillery)
Camp Shelby, Mississippi
Banton, Hartley L., Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Fort Strong, Mass.
Bartley, Henry H., 2nd Lieut
Fort Devens, Mass
Benjamin, Roger C., 2nd Lieut (Quartermaster Corps)
Chicago, Ill.
Berry, Rockwood N., 2nd Lieut.
Camp Wheeler, Georgia
Brown, Brooks, Jr., 2nd Lieut
Camp Roberts, California
Brown, Carl R., 2nd Lieut
Fort Bragg, No Carolina
Byrne, John F., 2nd Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Fort Kearney, R. T
Carlisle, Robert, 2nd Lieut
Fort Devens, Mass.
Chase, Paulkner, Corporal (Chemical Warfare Service)
Edgewood Arsenal, Md
Clark, Arnold H., 2nd Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Liberty, Maine
Colbath, Buton M., Private (Signal Corps)
Camp Gordon, Georgia
Colby, John S.
Fort Knox, Kentucky
Cooper, James G., 1st Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Elizabetb, N. J.
Cornier, Everett L., Lieut.
Fort Foster, Maine
Crane, J. Burleigh, 2nd Lieut. (Coast Artillery)
Charlestown, Mass.
Dexter, Franklin D., 2nd Lieut.
(Combat Artillery)
Fort Adams, R.
Dinsmore, Joseph S., Jr., 2nd Lieut (Field Artillery)
Fort Bragg, N. C.
Ellis, George H., 2nd Lieut
Camp Roberts, Calif
Fairchild, Thomas L. (Infantry)
Camp Croft, So Carolina
Goodchild, Donald W., 2nd Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Camp Pendleton, Virginia
Harris, James W., 2nd Lieut. (Infantry)
Fort Bragg, No Carolina
Hodgdon, Kenneth W., Private (Field Artillery)
Fort Bragg, No Carolina
Irvin, Robert M., 2nd Lieut. (Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass.
Kelley, Lawrence B., 2nd Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Fort Williams, Maine
Kimball, Everett, Medical Corps
Camp Lee, Virginia
Kinghorn, Robert H., 2nd Lieut (Infantry)
Camp Edwards, Mass.
Kuhn, Louis J (Coast Artillery)
In foreign service
Ladd, Leon S., Jr., 1st Lieut (Coast Artillery)
Fort Lyons, Maine
Lapham, Daniel
Camp Edwards, Mass
Libby, Frederick A., 2nd Lt. (Infantry)
Fort Devens, Mass
Lord, Nathaniel N.
Wells, Maine
MacGregor, Walter N., 2nd Lieut. (Coast Artillery)
Fort Warren, Mass.
Meader, Everett L., Private (Coast Artillery)
Camp Davis, N. C.
Monohan, P. Jordan, Lieut.
In foreign service
Munty, Edwin L., 2nd Lieut.
Camp Roberts, Calif.
Nichols, Malcolm G., 2nd Lieut.
Camp Croft, So Carolina
Oaksford, Homer H., Jr.
In foreign service
Payson, Carlton E., 2nd Lieut.
Camp Edwards, Mass.
Peavey, Harry C., 2nd Lieut. (Coast Artillery)
Fort McKinley, Maine
Perkins, Howard R., 2nd Lieut.
(Coast Artillery)
Fort Warren, Mass
Pratt, Elbert S.
Camp Grant, Illinois
Preble, Clayton H., 2nd Lieut. (Coast Artillery)
In foreign service
Smith, Charles B., Jr., 2nd Lieut.
Camp Roberts, Calif.
Smith, Sherman K., Private
Albany, N. Y.
Sobel, Theodore, 2nd Lieut. (Chemical Warfare Service)
Huntsville Arsenal, Alabama
Somers, John W., 2nd Lieut.
Camp Wolters, Texas
Stearns, Roger A., 2nd Lieut (Infantry)
Camp Edwards, Mass
Storer, Allen P., Private (Medical Corps)
Fort Devens, Mass.
Sullivan, Richard P., 2nd Lieut. (Coast Artillery)
Camp Edwards, Mass.
Tracy, Samuel E., Jr., 2nd Lt (Infantry)
Camp Edwards, Mass.
Trask, Harry E., Jr., Private (Medical Corps)
Fort Lewis, Washington
From The Library

Among the latest issues of the University of Maine Studies is one of special interest to alumni and residents of this area, that by Mrs. Fannie Hardy Eckstorm, of Brewer, ‘29 Honorary, entitled Indian Place-Names of the Penobscot Valley and the Maine Coast.

This painstaking work by one of the foremost Indian scholars in the area is a detailed analysis of the derivation, history, and meaning of the many Indian names of localities and natural features in the area covered. The ground is covered by a natural geographic sequence supplemented by a comprehensive index so that any name included can be quickly found by the reader.

Basically, of course, the study is a scholarly treatment of the names from the point of view of philology, correct derivation, and historical development. It involves basic problems of pronunciation and spelling which, in many cases, are extremely difficult of solution in English. It recognizes and attempts to correct many errors, false interpretations, and myths which have grown up around these names through popular use and abuse. In addition, the study provides many interesting thumbal sketches of Indian character and of historic incidents which richly repay the attention of the reader.

One example among many of the careful work exercised in ferreting out the original meanings from present day names, often distorted almost beyond recognition, is the story of Matanawcook (p 53), applied equally to the lake, stream, and island in Lincoln. When thoroughly studied by Mrs. Eckstorm, this name is not identical as today’s spelling has it but represents distortions of three different Indian names. Another illustration of her sound method of attempting to place herself in

Service Emblem Nominations

Under the new plan the Alumni Service Emblem award will be made at the Alumni Banquet during Commencement. The closing date for 1942 nominations is March 31. Any alumnus may make a nomination. The regulations specify that the award may be made to any person, alumnus or otherwise, who has rendered conspicuous service to the University. The chief points considered in making the award are the type, variety, length, quality, and importance of service rendered to the General Alumni Association or any division thereof and to the University. Nominations should be sent to the Executive Secretary, General Alumni Association, 11 Fernald Hall.

March, 1942
NECROLOGY

1879
PERCIA VINAL WHITE One of the first women graduates of the University and first woman to receive the Master's degree from Maine, Mrs. Percia Vinal White died at her home in Bidgeland on January 10. Before her death Mrs. White was the oldest living alumna of the University. She received her degree in Science and Literature in 1879 and a subsequent Master of Arts degree.

Mrs. White was a native of Orono. Following her graduation from Maine, she taught school at Orono and also established a reputation as a writer of short stories. She married her husband's death in 1908, Mrs. White carried on his insurance business for fifteen years.

Mrs. White was a native of Orono. Following her graduation from Maine, she taught school at Orono and also established a reputation as a writer of short stories. She married her husband's death in 1908, Mrs. White carried on his insurance business for fifteen years.

1881
HAROLD MASON PLASTED A native of Bangor, Harold M. Plasted died at his home in St Louis, Missouri, January 25 after an illness of some months. Harold was born in Bangor, Maine, in 1861, was educated in the Bangor schools and the University in the field of engineering, taking advanced work at Stevens Institute. He served as secretary to his father, while he was governor of Maine in 1881 and later moved to St Louis where he made his home up to the time of his death.

1890
ALBERT MILLIS HASTINGS The proprietor of E. B. Hastings and Company, a retail store in Rockland, Albert M. Hastings died at the age of seventy-one following a long period of illness on December 26.

1904
WALTER ERVIN SCOTT The death of Walter E. Scott, at the age of sixty-one, occurred on February 5 in Washington, D. C., after a year of failing health. A native of Dexter, Mr. Scott had made his home in recent years in Carle Place, L.I. He received a degree in Civil Engineering at the University and entered on employment with the railroad until World War I when he served over seas as a captain of engineers. During the war, he was employed in many states in construction work. In 1934 he was employed by the Public Works Administration in Pennsylvania and in Washington where he was located at the time of his death.

1907
ARTHUR ADOPHUS BLAIR Notice has just been received of the death of Reverend Arthur A. Blair, of Nashua, N. H., on November 25, 1941. The Rev. Blair attended the University with the class of 1907 and received his B. D. degree from Tufts in 1895. He had been in Nashua for some time previous to his death.

1908
OSCAR FRANKLIN SMITH The Alumni office has just been notified of the death of Oscar F. Smith on October 7, 1944. Mr. Smith attended the University from 1904 to 1906 and received a degree from Penn State College in 1911. He served as a professor of physics at that college up to the time of his death and made his home in Boalsburg, Pa.

March, 1942

1915
LOREN PRESCOTT STEWART Stewart, a War Department notice announced on February 9, 1915, that Colonel Loren F. Stewart, '15, formerly a member of the R.O.T.C. staff on the campus, was killed in action with the troops of General Douglas MacArthur in the Philippines. No details of his death have yet come out of the heroic fighting in these islands.

Colonel Stewart was a native of Thornridge and graduated from Freedom Academy. He received his degree in civil engineering in 1915.

Following his graduation, he was employed as a civil engineer by the Pennsylvania Railroad until May 15, 1917, when he joined the Army for active service in World War I. During this conflict he held the rank of First Lieutenant of Infantry.

Colonel Stewart remained in active service with the Army following the war and was subsequently stationed in Anchorage, Alaska, in Wisconsin, South Dakota and Connecticut. He was appointed in 1928 as a professor of military science and tactics with the rank of Captain of Infantry. He served in this capacity until 1935, establishing one of the longest records of service in this department. He was then transferred to Indiana and in 1937 spent a two-year tour of duty at Fort William McKinley, Philippine Islands, returning to Pennsylvania for a few months leave of absence at the end of this service in 1939.

In 1940 he was stationed in Augusta in charge of the National Guard until his appointment, March 1, 1941, as executive officer of Camp Blanding, Fla. On November 1, 1941, Colonel Stewart was called back for service in the Philippines, reaching there shortly before Thanksgiving. His career had been marked by regular advancement and he was given the rank of Colonel on December 24, 1941.

He leaves his wife and two children, the son, Loren F., a senior at the University, and a daughter, Josephine, a student at State College, Tallahassee, Fla.

1919
EUGENE FAIRFIELD ARNOLD The death of Eugene F. Arnold, of Dover-Foxcroft, on May 5, 1941, has just been reported to the Alumni office. No further details of his passing are known at this time.

1938
LIEUT. CARLTON THAYER FOOG The Navy Department reported on February 9, 1938, that Lieutenant Carlton T. Fogg died in action as an aviator with the U. S. Navy. He was twenty-four years old at the time of his death.

A graduate of North Yarmouth Academy, he was enrolled in the Chemical Engineering class from 1934 to 1937 when he entered the Naval Aviation Service. He was graduated as an Aviation Cadet in January, 1939, and commissioned an ensign in January of that year.

In October, 1939, he was stationed at Pearl Harbor. In November, 1940, he was one of 370 Naval Reserve aviators appointed to the regular navy. He received his commission as Lieutenant, Junior Grade, this winter.

BY CLASSES
SENIOR ALUMNI
Next Reunion, 1942

Fiftieth Reunion, 1942

News items are scarce about members of this class. Plans are already under way to make this the biggest reunion yet. Write your secretary, Warren Healey, 2/Partridge Hill Rd., Westboro, Mass., that you are to be with us.

Next Reunion, 1943

Harry M. Smith, president of Bangor's Y.M.C.A. for six and one-half years and member of the board for the past twenty years, was tendered an official farewell by the directors of the Y. M. C. A. at their annual meeting in January. A new constitutional provision which provides that directors shall remain only a given length of time in office was the reason for his retirement. A gift was presented to Mr. Smith by his associates and fine tribute paid him for his many years of tireless service.

Next Reunion, 1942

Dr. Leonard H. Ford, a lieutenant colonel with the 152nd Field Artillery at Camp Blanding, Florida, was married in the chapel at Fort Williams, Portland, on January 6th to Mary W. Brooks, of Bangor. Dr. Ford returned to Florida but Mrs Ford is remaining in Bangor.

Next Reunion, 1942

The Rotary Club of Palmer, Massachusetts, at its December meeting awarded four certificates to four citizens for outstanding service to the town during the past year. Judge Ernest E. Hobson, one of the recipients, received a certificate for his work as chairman of the draft board and for donating huge quantities of tin foil for the Shriners' Hospital for crippled children.

Next Reunion, 1942

Ernest C. Butler, of Skowhegan, was elected vice president of the Somerset Bar and Library Association.

Charles H. Prinham, formerly at the Franklin Armory, Philadelphia, has given us a change of address. Mail is going to him at 112 S. Lynn Blvd., Upper Darby, Pa., since he has accepted a position in the office of Chief of Ordnance in Washington, D.C.

Next Reunion, 1946

Ralph Whittier, president of the Penobscot Savings Bank, was named a member of the Bangor committee for United China Relief for the State of Maine.

Next Reunion, 1946

Stephen E. Patrick, of Augusta, formerly affiliated with the Maine State Education Department, has resigned his position as vocational education director, after serving 18 years, to accept the position of senior defense training representative for the Department of Education.
Washington. His new duties take him into all parts of the country to coordinate and compromise difficulties arising in defense training programs.

At the annual meeting of the American Society of Civil Engineers held recently in Boston, Paul D. Simpson, of Seal Harbor, was one of the fourteen engineers in New England honored by the award of a life membership in the society. Mr. Simpson has spent many years in government service in the western states and in state, municipal, and public utilities work. Recently he has been connected with the development work on Mount Desert Island.

1904 Next Reunion, 1946
Carroll S. Chaplin is a member of the Portland committee for United China Relief, State of Maine.

1905 Next Reunion, 1945
William J. Ricker, of Turner, was appointed delegate to the College of Agriculture by the members of the Maine Pomological Society at the annual election session held in Lewiston in January. Mr. Ricker is Androscoggin County chairman of the Maine War Board for the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.

1906 Next Reunion, 1945
W. D. Bearce, of 4121 Sassafras St., East Erie, Pa., now represents the Federal and Marine Dept. of General Electric in Erie.

Miss Joanna C. Colcord, one of the directors of the Russell Sage Foundation of New York, has been loaned by her employers to serve for three months as consultant in the office of Defense Health and Welfare Services in Washington, D. C.

1908 Next Reunion, 1945
Daniel Chase recently presided at the annual dinner and meeting of the Men's Class of Riverside Church. Mr. Chase is president of the class.

James D. Maxwell, Bangor lawyer and former Penobscot County attorney, has announced his candidacy in the Republican primaries in June for nomination one of the legislative positions from the city of Bangor. Mr. Maxwell has been recorder of the Bangor municipal court and is a member of the firm of Maxwell and Conquest.

Masons and Builders Supplies
ACME MFG. CO.
G. A. Hersey, '00
T. M. Hersey, '34
BANGOR

Bangor Furniture Co.
Complete House Furnishers
84-88 Hammond Street
Bangor, Maine

OLD SOUTH PHOTO ENGRAVING CORP.
Makes Plates for
The Maine Alumni
173 Summer St. Boston, Mass.

Justice Raymond Fellows, of Bangor, was re-elected president of the Bangor Historical Society at its annual meeting held in mid-January. Carroll K. Phillips of Portland was named a new director of the Maine Publicity Bureau at the annual meeting in January.

1909 Next Reunion, 1944
Thomas A. Sanders, Portland attorney and secretary of the Federal Loan and Building Association, was the principal speaker at the institute for the Portland board in early February. The subject of his address was "Appraisals from the Cost Approach and Comparative Approach." The institute is one of a series sponsored by the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

George T. Carlisle, of Prentiss & Carlisle, was elected vice president of the Bangor Historical Society.

Harold P. Marsh, of Bangor, was elected a director for a term of three years by members of the Anah Temple Association at a meeting held in January.

1910 Next Reunion, 1944
James Booth has brought about in the State of Florida the acceptance of the American Bar Association rule, as an educational and legal requirement for admission to the Bar. Mr. Booth has worked on this problem for about fifteen years and for the past six years has been chairman of the Legal Education and Admission to the Bar Committee of the Florida State Bar Association.

Frank B. Clancy, of Nauset, has been named a director of the Nashua Manufacturing Company.

Herman P. Sweetser, of Cumberland, was appointed a liaison agent for the North Yarmouth, Yarmouth, and Cumberland area of Cumberland County in the Cumberland County's law enforcement division of the Maine Civilian Defense Council.

1911 Next Reunion, 1944
Charles B. Houser is one of twelve men from the State of Maine who is in the government foreign service. Mr. Houser is a consul general, but he is on special inspection detail and has been inspecting our foreign service establishment in South and Central America.

He is now in Mexico. Mr. Houser entered foreign service in 1919 and has been an inspector since 1940.

Richard M. Holmes, professor and head of the Physics Department at the University of Vermont, is a lieutenant commander in the U. S. Naval Reserve and has been assigned to duty as naval liaison officer at the State selective service headquarters.

1912 Next Reunion, 1944
Victor H. Hinkley, Brewer pharmacist, was elected president of the Maine State Conference of Pharmacy at its meeting in Augusta in December.

Phil R. Hucy, of Bangor, was elected president of the Maine Association of Football Officials at the annual meeting in Portland in December.

U. S. Representative Frank Fellows, of Bangor, has announced that he would seek a second term as representative from Maine's third district.

John E. Ash, of Bar Harbor, was named a new director of the Maine Publicity Bureau.

1913 Next Reunion, 1943
President for 1942 for the Brewer Kiwanis Club is John Littlefield who was installed at the meeting in early January.

1914 Next Reunion, 1943
Wilson Morse, of East Waterford, was elected second vice president by members of the Maine Pomological Society.

Roland E. Stevens is the new president of the Woodfords Club. Mr. Stevens is principal of the Lincoln Junior High School in Portland.

Carl A. Weck is a member of the Prese Isle committee for United China Relief, State of Maine.

1915 According to reports reaching the campus, Raymond H. Fogler is chairman of the Cham Store Division of the American Red Cross on the coast of New York, and is also chairman of the Textile Division Committee to promote the sale of defense bonds under the salary-saving plan.

Frank A. Talrist, attorney of Rockland, has been appointed Rockland chairman to head a redesigned disaster relief committee aimed to fit in with the rest of the civil defense program.

Phillip M. Dearborn, of Cape Elizabeth, has been named liaison police chief for the Cape Elizabeth and Scarborough area of Cumberland County's law enforcement division of the Maine Civilian Defense Council.

Mrs. Edward J. Gleszer was re-elected president of the Travelers Association at the annual meeting held in early January.

1916 Lewis O. Barrows, who has been on leave of absence from his duties with Liberty Mutual Ins Co., of Boston, has just completed travelling as representative of the Federal Office of Civilian Defense in Industrial Plant Production, covering every state on the east coast, west coast, and gulf states within 300 miles from each coast. A total of 28 states have been reached in more than 17,000 miles of travel. His residence address is 54 Valentine Park, West Newton, Mass.

Mrs. Edward L. Herby, of 34 Bellevue Ave., Bangor, is a member of the board of directors of the Good Samaritan Home Association in that city.

Mrs. A W. Harris, of Southwest Harbor, is chairman of the women's division of civilian defense. She recently addressed the League of Women Voters in that community on the subject of defense, telling what had been done and plans for the future.

Murdock A. Campbell, assistant adjutant general for Vermont, is colonel in charge of the Vermont State Guard.

E. D. Brown has been appointed executive secretary of the Insular Government of Puerto Rico according to press announcement made some little time ago. Since graduation from Maine he has taught school in San Juan, Ponce, and Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, has worked as an accountant in Puerto Rico, Dominican, and Venezuela, and served as assistant executive secretary in Puerto Rico since 1937.

1917 Next Reunion, 1942
Elwood I. Clapp, of E B Badger and Sons of Boston, has been called to Washington, D. C., to make an engineering survey of the Probable future increasing capacity of the United States. He has specialized in the design and construction of all types of alcohol-producing plants since 1918.

Mrs. William West, of Bangor, was named a director for a three-year term on the board of directors for the Travelers Anti-Saloon League.

John M. Pomeroy is disaster relief...
committee head for Knox County in the civilian defense program.

Dr. Noel D. Godfrey, associate professor of history of civilization at New York University, represented the University of Maine at the Fordham University Centennial exercises held recently.

Carl T. Stevens, Portland High School faculty member, was named Skowhegan's rationing supervisor.

Bryant L. Hopkins, of Waterville, was co-chairman with Dr. Franklin W. Johnson (Colby's president) of Waterville's Red Cross drive, which went over the top.

Arthur Blanchard, of Cumberland, was elected president of the Maine Ponomological Society at the annual elective session held in Lewiston in January.

1918

W. Mayo Payson, of Portland, has announced that he will seek a fourth term in the House of Representatives, and, if elected, will be a candidate for Speaker of the House at the 91st Session of Legislature. He is at present House majority floor leader and House chairman of the Legislative Research Committee, which committee has been responsible in a large way for getting into shape much of the emergency defense legislation. He has been a member of the council of the city of Portland since 1936.

Friends and classmates of A. L. Shaw, for many years located in China, will be pleased and happy to know that he is now in the United States after a rather exciting trip across the Pacific just as the war started. He is at present receiving mail at 44 Spring Street in Lewiston.

1919

S. W. Collins, of Caribou, was re-elected president of the Aroostook Trust Company at a meeting of the board of directors held January 18. Major Karl M. Pattee is with the U. S. Army Engineers Corps, in North Carolina. He had been in complete charge of building Camp Edwards as constructing quartermaster under the Quartermaster General.

Mrs. James H. Freeland is a member of the board of directors of the Good Samaritan Home Association in Bangor.

1920

Senator Francis H. Friend, of Skowhegan, was unanimously elected president of the upper legislative branch to serve until January, 1943. He was chosen at the opening of a special session of the legislature.

1921

Alton T. Littlefield, of 313 State St., Augusta, is serving as acting vice chairman of the National Defense Savings Bond Campaign for the State of Maine.

1922

Lawrence D. Porter, pastor of Elm Street Church, South Portland, has been appointed second vice president of the Maine Council of Churches.

Carl T. Stevens, Portland High School faculty will instruct classes in Red Cross first aid training in Portland.

Mr. Stevens recently completed the 30-hour training course for first aid instructors conducted at Portland High School under the auspices of the American Red Cross and is particularly fitted to teach first aid. With 19 years of teaching sciences, Mr. Stevens also holds a State certificate for physical education.

Estelle Nason
University of Maine
Oro, Maine

1925

Next Reunion, 1945

Another month gone by. I hardly finish reading the Alumnius before I am notified my personnel is due for another publication.

The March issue of The Albatross published monthly by the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co. contains a very interesting story about George Gruhn. George is assistant commissioner of the State of Maine, Food for Victory, with headquarters at Augusta, Maine.

Harland A. Ladd has accepted a position as superintendent of the schools of the city of Bath. He has had a similar position in Milo for several years. He will take up his work in Bath in March.

Mrs. Ladd (Doris Dow) and daughter will join him in April.

At the Penobscot Valley Alumni Association held recently in Bangor, Dean Joseph Murray was elected president.

Hillard H. Buzzell, county attorney for Waldo County, has announced his candidacy for renomination on the Republican ticket.

Raymond Finley was elected chairman of the Somerset county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

N. H. Haskell was elected treasurer and a governor for the third year of the Penobscot Valley Country Club.

Our class is represented on the executive board of the Washington County chapter of the American Legion.

A letter from Ann Thurston Henderson tells of a picnic held for the southern Vermont group. It was held at Achilles Cavasista's, 27, in Chester, Vermont. Stan. Arlene Hyde, and Ann represented the class of 25. "Ami" says, she only grudge lecturer this year. I bet she has had some very interesting meetings.

Louise Lord
38 Forest Ave
Oro, Maine

Next Reunion, 1945

1926

Herbert H. Sawyer is a construction engineer with E. I. DuPont de Nemours and Company at a Lake Ordnance Works, Chateau, Oklahoma. He receives his mail at Box 84, Pryor, Oklahoma.

Theodore (Ted) S. Rowe is vice president and general manager of Samuel Moore & Co., 1308 N. B. C Building, Cleveland, Ohio. Ted is living at Twin Lakes, Kent, Ohio.

Charlotte Osgood Fife is directing the training of a campaign unit of twenty to thirty members who meet at Portland High School Cafeteria.

Clarence A. MacGregor is assistant advertising manager for Clairol, Inc., 375 Fairfield Avenue, Stamford, Conn. He lives at 90 Shadow Lane, New Rochelle, New York.

Fred W. Holdsworth receives his mail at P. O. Box 301, Wilmington, North Carolina. Fred is owner of Wulf's News Service at Wilmington.

Oscar Wyman has been having a tough time with his eyes for nearly two months and has spent his time in a darkened room at home or in the hospital. However, I am glad to report that he is much better and is able to be at his office at least part of each day this week.

Recently I heard indirectly that Brute Mitchell is a very successful business man, is married and has— is it two children, Brute? Why not send us the details and tell us what you are doing, where you are living and whether the children are boys or girls.

Leon D. Nutting
9 College Heights
Oro, Maine

1930

Next Reunion, 1944

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Janet Mae Browne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Browne of Old Orchard Beach, to Lyman Abbott, Jr. Miss Browne was graduated from Thornton Academy, Westbrook Junior College and Northeastern Business College. She is employed by the United States Government in the Federal Building, Portland. "Lynne" is employed by the Personal Finance Company, Inc., located at Biddeford.

Alice Bagley is a "forelady" in the Prime Inspections Department of the Denver Ordnance Plant, and her residence address is 1038 Pennsylvania Avenue, Denver, Colorado.

James Book is in the Research Department of the Permutit Company, 332 West 42nd Street, New York City. He and Mr. Book (Ray Buck '29) and family are living at 329 Hillside Avenue, Nutley, New Jersey.

In a late December issue of the Bangor Daily News there was a fine article about Kingdom Harvey and his Fort Fairfield
Doris gram, a man all thing writing League, In he being Harvey also in Portland, Maine. "The general equipment of the Portland, Maine Press and the Portland Press Herald, director of the Portland Press Herald, is serving in the Aeronautical Engineer of the Aircraft Armament Unit, U. S. Naval Air Station, Naval Operating Base, Norfolk, Virginia. His residence address is 1500 Cedar Lane, Edge water, Norfolk. Hubert Tracy has been recommended as county agent for Penobscot County, to succeed Stetson Smith who resigned in December. He has been assistant county agent in Penobscot County since May 16, 1941, and before that held a similar position in northern Aroostook County.

Walker Pickering is serving as Chief Air-Raid Warden for Deer Isle. He recently completed a series of courses in Augusta and is instructing a large group of deputy air-raid wardens. Mail still reaches me at the usual address. Doris L. Gross Stonington, Maine.

1932 Congratulations to the following proud parents:
Maynard A Hincks, Jr., born December 30 to "Blondie" and Helen Hincks of 56 Elizabeth Road, Portland, Maine.
A daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sweetser, College Apts., Orono, Me.
Michael David Pearson born December 25, E.M. Hospital, 2:10 a.m. to Dr. and Mrs. John J. Pearson, Main St., Milford, Maine. The baby weighed 7 lbs., 13 oz. and the announcement was in the form of a theater ticket—very clever.

Stacy Miller, Extension Economist with the Maine Agricultural Extension Service, is the author of a recently issued bulletin "Solving Land-Use Problems." Stacy's work is statewide with over 50 county agents. His home address is 55 North Main Street.

Morris Robinson, Minister of the Vil lage Church, Amisquash, Mass., was guest speaker recently in Orono at a student forum. Morris has studied at Harvard University, the Bangor Theological Semin ary and the Crane School of Religion at Tufts and has served as assistant supervisor of music in Bangor, and as supervisor of music in Island Falls, principal of the training school at Gorham Normal, a member of the faculty at Lee Academy, educational director for two years at the CCC.

Sorry not to include this among the above announcements—Bob Shean is a proud father I have been trying to track down more of the details but have not been very successful. That it is a boy, and that he is six or eight months old, is true but I cannot find out the date of birth nor the name of the baby. I have no information is welcome Congratulations, Shirley.

Mary G Bean 2 Madison St Bangor, Maine.

1933 Next Reunion, 1943—Well—here at last is the news on the marriage of Stanley R. Prout Stann was married on Dec 27 in New York City to Miss Margaret of Geneva, New York. They are making their home at 31-41-84th St., Jackson Heights, Long Island. Incidentally, Stanley is still with the Montgomery Ward Company, 75 Varick St., New York City.

Vivian T. Moore recently became the bride of Basil D Eaton. Vivian has been a member of the faculty at Mattanawcook Academy in Lincoln, Mr. Eaton attended the Eastern State Normal School and is now associated with the F H McGraw Company in Bermuda.

Evelyn Mills Madison recently entertained at a tea in honor of Louise Hill Robbins who has just moved to Portland from Lynnfield, Mass. Louise is residing on Stonybrook Road, Cape Elizabeth. "Win" is now associated with the Todd-Bath Shipyards here.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland DeCoteau (Bun ny Callaghan) are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, January 12. The DeCoteaus are making their home on Peaks Island.

Congratulations also are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Linwood J Bowen on the birth of a son, Paul Jules, on December 24.

The Old Town City band recently presented a concert in the City Hall (Old Town) under the able direction of the other than our very own Tommy Viola! "And that's all from Portland at this time" (and that will be all for some time if you people don't get whoopin' and send me some notes—don't you ever do someth ing?)

Dorothy F. Camacho 39 Falmouth Street Portland, Maine.

1934 Next Reunion, 1943—This is an improvement over last month, thanks to a few more items from the Alumni office, a letter from Ben Caswell and a call from Pete Karakeas. Thank you one and all.

Ben (not Benny) is now working for Stone and Webster in Cambridge, Mass. He and his bride are living in Cambridge.
We had a grand evening with Pete Karalekas last week. He is a State Sanitary Engineer with headquarters at the Water, Hydrant, Sewer and Western Mass so we have him to thank for our pure water. I mentioned some interesting things about their work during floods, hurricanes, etc. He explained that if we've taken a lot for granted about our everyday supplies of water and the cleaning of diseases at such times.

Pete said Eddie Jordan is a 1st Lt in the army and at present is stationed some place in Virginia. He was formerly a State Sanitary Engineer but also has a leave of absence.

An interesting change of position and address is Ruth Hamor. She used to be in Puerto Rico where she had charge of the feeding of school children but she now is State Supervisor of Welfare Projects for the Virgin Islands. Her address is Charlotte Amalie, St Thomas, Virgin Islands. I have heard of St Thomas since I was a little girl when my grandfather used to tell what a paradise it was—lucky Ruth to be working and living there— I wish I could visit you.

Win Cushing has made many moves since completing her training at Yale School of Nursing and now she is learning still more. She is now working on her Master's degree in Public Health Nursing at Teachers College at Columbia University. Her address is 871 Whittier Hall, 1280 Amsterdam Ave, New York, N.Y. She will be the top in Nursing I should say—

James Merrill is the local leader of frats and classes and various other phases of defense work in Fyeburg—Bill Cunningham and I don't wish to be alarmists but are you ready? Or are you one of the putter offers—

Abe Rosen who was a first Lieut has received his commission as Captain. He is stationed at Camp Edwards. He had graduated from Tufts Medical College and finished a year's internship at St. Vincent's Hospital in Worcester before entering the service.

Kenneth Barker is living at 14 Fiero Ave, Matawan, New Jersey. He has been employed for the past eight years as a paint and color chemist in the Titanium Division of the National Lead Co at South Amboy, New Jersey. He is married and has two children.

Lee Stone was married on Feb 7 to Miss Mary Ann Guilfoyle of Skowhegan. Mrs Stone was graduated from Skowhegan High School and Graves Designing School in Boston. Lee has been a meat dealer in Augusta for the past eight years—I think Armous Co but I'm not positive.

There are two baby girls for this column—Barbara Dale McLeod was born to Capt and Mrs Gregg C McLeod Nov 30 at Worcester, Mass. Capt McLeod is Commanding Service Co 16th Inf., 1st Inf. Div. at Fort Devens, Mass. Virginia Mildred Rich was born to Mr and Mrs Wayne Rich on Dec 21 at Auburn, Maine. That's all. Thanks again for the news—it has given me a ray of hope—

Maddy Russ
37 George St
Springfield, Mass

1936

Next Reunion, 1942

March, 1942

living on Lake St in Auburn, Maine.

Elmer Sisco (ex '36) is engaged to Mary Katharine Harcourt of Atlantic City, N J. He was graduated from Penn Hall at Chambersburg, Penna. and attended the School of Design in Philadelphia. Elmer is employed by the General Electric Co in Pittsfield, Mass.

John Stinchfield was recently married to Elizabeth Prince Sawyer of Wilton, Maine. Mrs Stinchfield is a graduate of Wilton Academy and Miss Wheelock's School of Boston and recently taught at the University of Wisconsin. John is a research chemist at the S & D Warren Co., Westbrook, Maine.

Karl Hendrickson is engaged to Dorothy F. Herd of Portland. Miss Herd was graduated from Colby College and is now employed by the Maine State Bureau of Social Welfare as a social worker. Karl is an Ensign in the U.S.N.R. and is on duty with the public works dept at the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

Sincerely yours,
Phyl Webster
338 Pine Street
Lewiston, Maine

1937

Next Reunion, 1942

Committees are busy, and plans are underway for our fifty year reunion. We hope you are also making plans to return to the campus.

News is very meagre this month, however, I shall endeavor to make a column out of what little I have here.

Avery Rich is now a 4-H Club Agent with headquarters at Woodville, N.H. He and his family are living at 28 Highland St, Woodville, N.H.

I received a card from Helen Brannman this month. Helen gave no address but from the illustration on the card, I think she is stationed at Fort Benning, Ga. Helen said Donn Duglough spent an evening with them recently.

Dr. Lucian Scamman was married to Miss Elvira Bruce at Grand Rapids, Michigan, on September 20, 1941. I'm terribly sorry to be so "out of date" but the news is just reaching me. Best wishes to Lucian and the bride. Dr. Scamman is on the staff at the Angell Memorial Hospital in Boston. Mass. The Scammans are at home at 108 Jersey St., Boston, Mass.

Another marriage which took place some time ago is that of Bob Loveless. However, that is so far as my information goes. I believe Bob is located in Vermont.

Glancing over this column one can see that it is very sketchy. Won't someone please spare a few minutes and drop me a penny postcard?

Hope to see you all at reunion time

Sincerely,
Henny Cliff Woodbury
7 Park Lane
Orono, Maine

1938

Next Reunion, 1942

Quite a lot of news this month, so I won't waste any time.

Lucy Cobb Brown and Paul have a baby boy born January 23, 1942. in Bellfast and weighed 7 lbs 3½ oz. His name William Paul Brown. Had a letter from Lucy which followed the announcement saying she was feeling swell and would be joining Paul soon who is the new 4-H Agent.

PENTISS & CARLISLE CO. INC.

TIMBERLANDS — ENGINEERS

12 Hammond St, Bangor, Maine

Geo. T. Carlisle '09, Philip P. Clement, Robert W. Avery '20, Paul E. Atwood '26, Geo. B. Carlisle '25

RICE AND MILLER CO.

Hardware and Sporting Goods

117 Years on Broad Street

Bangor

A. D. T. LIBBY

PATENT ATTORNEY

Federal Trust Building
Newark, N. J.

DESIGNS — COPYRIGHTS — TRADE-MARKS

WholeSale DAKIN Retail

THE SPORT SHOP

SHEP HURD '17

MGR. BANGOR

MGR. WATerville

BANGOR

WATERVILLE

BANGOR BOX CO.

PAPER BOXES, FOLDING CARTONS

COMMERCIAL PRINTING

75 So. Main St., Brewer, Me.

H. F. Drummond, 1900

Pres. and Treas.

R. B. DUNNING & CO.

No. 54-68 Broad Street

Bangor, Maine

Wholesale Distributors of

Plumbers', Steamfitters', Builders', Painters', Electrical & Dairy Supplies, Hardware, Seeds

Dial 6461

COLUMBIA HOTEL

Congress St. at Longfellow Sq.

Portland, Maine

M A I N E

AL

AL

A U L U M N A E

The

The

First

First

Monday

Monday

Each

Each

Month

Month

at

at 12:15

8:00

P. M.

P. M.
Agent in Hampden County with head-quarters in Springfield, Mass.

Polly Drummond was married to Steve Powell on January 31 in Dr. and Mrs. Drummond's home on Bennoch St. A double ring ceremony was performed.

Polly was attended by Betty (Mrs. Wal-lace Gleason). Polly wore Betty's dress, Bertie's shoes, and a bouquet of pink roses. Barbara Corbett Barker was in charge of guest book. After February 9 Polly was on duty as Second Lieutenant at Camp Croft, S. Carolina.

Julius Stone was married on December 14, to Miss Colette H. H. M. at St. Simon's to Helen C. Goldsmith. A single ring service was performed in a candlelit ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Stone held Sunday for a wedding trip to Florida. The bride was graduated from Old Town High School and Westbrook Seminary and attended the U. of M. She has been employed as bookkeeper at the Penobscot Shoe Co. in Old Town. Julius is now the assistant manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company in Bangor.

Dick Pippin married Katherine Morton on January 10 in the Union Congregational Church in Rockville, Conn. The bride is a graduate of Morse Memorial High School. She has done extensive 4-H work. Dick is employed by Colts in Hartford. After a short wedding trip they will reside at home in 11 Laurel St., Rockville, Conn.

Hiram Leroy Smith, Jr., was married to Dorothy M. W. on January 12 in the First Congregational Church in East Hampton, Conn. Mrs. Smith's home was Boston, Mass.

Lee Boyer's folks have announced her engagement to Frank R. Cutter of So. Deerfield, Mass. Mr. Cutter is a graduate of Lowell High School and Bangor Theological Seminary in 1946. He was formerly pastor of the First Congregational Church at No. Anson and attended Colby College. He has recently been called to serve the Congregational Church in So. Deerfield, Mass. The wedding will take place in late summer.

John Mutty is to be married to Clare S. Hortner. Miss Hortner attended Simmons College and the Mercy Hospital Laboratory in Springfield. She is now library technician in the Charlotte Hungerford Hospital in Torrington, Conn.

John is an Ensign in the U. S. Navy and a graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy in 1940 after leaving Maine. He is stationed on the U.S.S. Maryland. No date has been set for the wedding. (This is probably an appropriate time to say Clara will have to wait till her ship comes in.)

Leo Liebman has passed his bar examinations held in Bangor February 15, 1942, and is now graduated from Harvard Law School this last spring.

John E. Frost was ordained to the Epis-copacy on December 17, 1941 by Rev. Oliver Loring, Bishop of Maine, at services held in Worcester, Mass. John graduated from Berkeley Divinity School in June, ordained to the Diaconate, March 5, 1941. While at the Divinity School he worshiped at St. Paul's Church, Hanover, and during the summer of 1940 was in charge of All Saint's Church, Harrison, New York.

During the past summer he was curate at St. James Church, Old Town, Maine, and assisted in the organization of the Exeter-Dexter Vacation School. In Worcester he assists with the Church School and Young People's work, helps with organizational activities and does Parish calling.

Tommy Houghton is to leave for Camp Croft February 16 and Antonia Robin Houghton and 10 of Tommy's daughters are planning to go along. Betty Gleason who gave me this item reminds me that I hadn't put Tommy's baby hill in the Almanac.

The name: Patricia Ann Houghton; born April 12, 1941.

Betty also wrote that Georgia Taylor Thurlow also should be remembered for her daughter born May 31, 1941, Andrea Ann Thurlow.

Guess that's the sum total for this month. My husband is still stationed at Fort Toten, L. I., New York, though we expect a change any time.

Sincerely,

Mary Wirths

Court House

Binghamton, New York

1939 Next Reunion, 1942

Junior Juniors turned men in the service headline this month's news.

Diana Jeanette was born December 10 to Benjamin Ela and Jeanette Lamoreau. Ela. The address is 3902 Kenilworth Avenue, Berwyn, Illinois.

David Leafe was born January 23, 1942. Lou and Russ are living in their new home at 32 North St., Shrewsbury, Mass. Bud and Lucy Cob Brown have a son, William, born in January.

Last but not least, Robert David Ames Parkman, born to Tib and Betty on February 22. Tib reports that the baby is swell but that he sleeps quite a bit! Births in the service are:

Clifford Daigle who is stationed at Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Melvin McKenzie with MacArthur in the Philippines.

Dick Monroe is in Co. A, A.C.D., Randolph Field, Texas.

Ed Szmajewski is stationed at Sears-

Dorothy, New York.

Ham Dyer is at Kunkensport.

Charlie Huntton is with an Air Base Group at Howard Field, C. Z.

Frank Washburn is at Maxwell Field, Alabama.

William Craig's address is 33rd Infantry, A. P. O. #803, Fort Read, Trinidad, British West Indies, with his father.

Rev. Corwin Olds served as Chaplain with the 152nd Field Artillery in South Carolina and Louisiana.

The class is also holding its own as far as weddings are concerned.

Dr. Charles Kinball and Ruth Greene were married in January. Ruth attended Gilman Commercial School in Bangor and also served as a dental assistant in Milo. They will live in Bangor.

Bill Clifford and Therese Brown became Mr. and Mrs. on December 27 in Montreal. Bill is assistant in the Personnel Department of Aluminum Co. of Canada, Ltd., at Montreal.

At a home wedding in Orono, Polly Drummond was married to Stephen Powell. Those in the wedding party were Mary Louise White, Elizabeth Gardner, and Betty Drummond of Gleason. Stephen is employed by the State Department of Fish and Game. They will make their home at 61 Bennoch Street, Orono.

Anne Woyas and Dennis Curran were married in February. Their address is 760 Prospect Ave., Hartford, Conn.

The engagement of Hugh O'Hear and Bernice MacDonald was announced in December. Bernice is a graduate of St. Bernard College, Antigonish, Nova Scotia. Hugh attended M. I. T. after leaving Maine and received his B.S. at Antigoni, and is now employed by the United New England Carbide Co., Niagara Falls, New York.

Herbert Leonard has been promoted to Assistant County Agent in Penobscot County with headquarters in Bangor.

Sincerely,

Lynne Huff
26 Maine Street
Brunswick, Maine

1940 Next Reunion, 1942

I am sure that the most interesting report is that of the arrival of three prospective football players for the University of Maine team. In 1962 Kenneth George Burr, Jr., arrived on January 22, 1942, at the State Street Hospital, Portland, Maine, weighing 1 lbs. 15 oz. and David Ames Parkman was born on February 2, 1942, weighing 6 lbs. 14½ oz. Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Parkman are proud parents. And the third arrival was that of Michael Winfield to Bob and Ruth Trickey Parker at Fort Fairfield, Maine. Isn't this an impressive list?

Roger Cotting and Polly Cooper were married at the Eliot Congregational Church in Newton, Mass. They phoned eight o'clock ceremony on the thirty-first of January. Several of our classmates attended and wrote to me of a beautiful event took place. Polly and Roger are traveling the South and will be stationed in Orono—7 Pleasant Street—and after the first of March. Best wishes to the Cuttings from us all!

The marriage of Enid Beth Reaves to Burt Sterling Osgood, Jr., on Saturday, January twenty-fourth, was announced. The wedding took place in Bath, Maine, and they are at home at 29 Deering Street, Portland, Maine.

Henry L. Hathaway, who received his commission in the Army Air Corps, was married recently to Miss Ruth Roberts of Springfield, Mass. Ruth graduated from Colby College and is employed by the Hartford Neurological Institute in Hartford, Conn. Henry is a 2nd lieutenant in the U. S. Army Air Corps stationed at Dow Field, Bangor.

Miss Leila Quimby became the bride of Amos H. Fletcher early in January. Mrs. Fletcher is graduated from 2nd State Normal School. The Fletchers will reside in Presque Isle where Amos is teaching with his father.

The engagement of Miss Virginia Esten to Earle S. Pierce was announced recently. No date has yet been set for the wedding.

Miss Ruth Ertick and Arnold J. Sprinkle were announced February 14, 1942. They are to live at 439 Congress Street in Portland where Arnold is employed by Sears, Roebuck and Co.

The engagement of Miss Alice Gibbons to George F. Darvau was announced February 5. Miss Gibbons is a graduate of Cornell University and has a position in the office of the American Fabrics Co. in New York. Miss George is in the office of the Schaefer Brewing Corp., of Bridgeport, Conn. The wedding takes place today—February 14, 1942, in Woodmont, Conn.

Here is another boy to add to the list above: Paul Westin Young was born on February 2 to Stanley and Linea Westin Young at the Eastern Maine General Hospital.

Priscilla Bickford Nelson wrote from Maple Ave, Claremont, about Polly and Roge Cotting's wedding. Pris-cilla and Harry stayed with Jane Dyer in New Hampshire. Jane is working for the People's Liability Insurance Co. in Boston and is living at home. By the way,
Jane is a fire warden in a civilian defense unit. Jane sees Dotty Shirko and Ginny Pease occasionally. The latter two are in the Navy. The Nelsons stopped in to see Marne and Mac Roberts in Alfred, Maine. Priscilla also writes that Phyllis Brodersen is working in Howard, Rhode Island, doing psychiatric social work which is in connection with the graduate work she did at Boston University. Merrill Thompson called on Priscilla and Harry as he was traveling through town. Merrill commented on the fact that Harriet could put cake at 0½ months! Imagine time going so quickly! The first thing we know it we will be back to see all these offspring graduate! My grateful appreciation for your grand letter, Priscilla.

Robert L. Murphy and Maynard W. Files have been promoted from second to first lieutenants at Fort Devens, Mass.

I very much appreciate the letter from Mrs. Harry Laney telling us that Arnold Lane, who has been doing graduate work at Pennsylvania State College, is now in the Navy. "Red" is on "The S. S. Prairie State" in New York City.

It has successfully completed the two months preliminary flight training necessary before taking the advanced flight training for the gold wings of the Navy.

Harry M. Byram is a student of Naval Architecture at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He lives at 50 Broadway, Beverly, Mass.

James H. Hunter is a lieutenant in the U.S. Army Signal Corps, Signal Office Army Base, Boston, Mass. His residence address is 10 Chauncy Street, Cambridge, Mass.

William C. Dinick is an inspector for the Bullard Machine Tool Company at Bridgeport, Conn. He lives at 342 Hawley Ave., Bridgeport, Conn.

All for this month; hope you are all planning to get back for our first reunion if you possibly can! Don't forget it is to be May 23rd and not in June as previously announced.

Sincerely,
Alice Ann Donovan
Houlton, Maine

1941 You're shipping! Just a few letters this month. However I am extremely thankful to those few, and you all should be, too.

The letter that wrote to me from Fort Strong, here at Boston. I shall now go into quotes mark "Clayton Preble was a big joker, and had jokers with the army. The last I know Tom Fairchild is in Co C, 118th Inf., Fort Jackson, South Carolina. Larry Kelly was married January 17. (Sorry I can't add any details to that. How's about a postcard, Larry?—Ed.) Leroy Shepard, who will some day be one of the class of 1941 greats, was working for General Electric the last I heard of him. Sammy Mann is working for the Warren Paper Co. and lives in Raymond. Speed Monohan, who was with us for three years, is now at Fort Richmond, Alaska. Now, shall we all Don a rising vote of thanks for those scamps? As for Don himself, he had a very successful campaign with Dupont Company before being called into the army.

A note from Paul Billings tells me that he and Cordia Kingsey were married on Christmas Day. He tells me that they are the happiest couple in the world, and they certainly surprised it. Congratulations from all of us, Paul. Their address is 41 Elm Street, Elizabeth, New Jersey. Paul is a chemical engineer with Standard Oil Co. Dave Greenlaw, where are you hiding? Paul would like to know your whereabouts, as would others, so...

I had a swell letter from Joe Ingham, but the censor got hold of it before I did, and it looks like someone had been cutting paper out of it! Would you like to know where he is? Well, I'll tell you just what I know. "Formerly in the Banana Navy (U.S. Fruit Company), I am now with the blank Transport Co., which name fronts the fleet of blank under the blank blank flag blank from blank to the blank to both blank ports." I'm sure you can reach him at that address! Dottie Warren and Priscilla Crane were married in Lubec on Feb. 7. Marrie Moulton, Becky Hill (both '42) and Ginnie Moulton Emery were in the bridal party. All reports indicate a beautiful wedding, even though Burleigh tells us that he muffed some of his lines. He is in the army, stationed in Boston.

Rog Paul writes from Lynn where he is working for General Electric. He is now a production follower on the turbine assembly. He adds that it is a far cry from his Forestry course at Maine. Phil Sulkieckoff is an accountant for G. W. John Trowbridge is working for the State Highway Dept. in Connecticut. Hord Bracy is (or was) working for his call to go all the way from training School at Quanton. Thanks for the letter, Rog. Oh, yes, you can reach Rog at the Y.M.C.A in Lynn.

Arlene Rodman announced her engagement to Louis Boyle in January. Arlene is a senior at Maine.

Cliff Stevens is at Kelly Field, Texas, where he is taking his advanced training before receiving his wings as a second lieutenant in the Army Air Corps. He completed his basic training at Good-fellow Field.

Commencement Dates!

Note that Commencement dates for this year have been changed as the result of a shortened college year. The dates of the Commencement Program for 1942 are as follows:

Friday, May 22 — Class Day
Saturday, May 23 —
ALUMNI DAY
Sunday, May 24 — Baccalaureate
Monday, May 25 —
Commencement

Make plans now for reunion attendance on Orono at Alumni Day, May 23.

Reunion Classes planning big times for this year are the following:
Senior Alumni (Classes over fifty years)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Reunion</th>
<th>Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1892</td>
<td>Fifth Reunion</td>
<td>1898, 1899</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1900</td>
<td>1900, 1901</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1917</td>
<td>Twenty-fifth</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1920</td>
<td>Fifteenth</td>
<td>1930, 1939</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Bob Irvine is engaged to Virgie Pfeifer, of Framingham. As far as I know, no definite date has been set for the wedding. Bob and Virgie, Jim and I had fun at the fortune-teller's one night, but we didn't need a fortune-teller to inform us that Bob has picked himself a beautiful wife, Bob is with the 1st Division at Devens.

Barb Barrett and Mitch St. Lawrence have also announced their engagement. Mitch has just received his gold wings (congratulations!) and has been ordered to active duty as a pilot in the Naval Organization of the Navy. Barb is teaching home economics in Unity. The best of luck to you both.

Faye Edenitch-Stirchfield became the bride of Virg Starbird on January 4. Mrs. Starbird graduated from Farmington Normal and is teaching in Strong. Virg is in business with his father in the Starbird Lumber Company, Strong, Maine. Dean Deering announced the appointment of Leroy Brown as club agent in Cumberland County, effective February 1. Kay Logals and Howie Ewing, have also announced that the great day will take place soon. Kay is supervisor of music in the public schools of Houlton, and Howie is at Quantico.

A news clipping from the Alumni office tells me that Barbara Swan, of South Paris, is engaged to Howard Frost. Barb is teaching in Orono. Howard is an aviation cadet of Parks College, East St. Louis.

A nice note from Bob Goodwin—he and Francena Doble have announced "Intentions." Francena is the secretary to the principal at the Maine School of Commerce. The wedding will be in August.

Frank Robertson is a flight instructor in the A.F. C., and he has a 24 Wilder Road, Lebanon, Mass.

Polly Drummond and Steve Powell were married recently in Orono. Polly attended the University of Maine and then studied art in Boston. Steve is employed by the State Department of Inland Fish and Game. They are living at 61 Bennoch St., Orono.

John Stevens is with the Eastern States Farmers Exchange in Springfield, Mass., and living at the Hotel Springfield.

We were very much thrilled to receive invitations to Bette Luce's wedding on March 7. The lucky man is Jack Blaisdell. They are to be married at Llewellyn, Conn. John was graduated from Lehigh and Powers and has spent several years on the stage. He is now working for the United States Coast Guard. After Betty left our fold, she attended Emerson College and is now working in R. H. Sterns, here in Boston.

Teddy Wright Weston, of Colby College, dropped me a card to tell me that she is now an in-law of our class, having married Don Weston on January 12. Don is a lieutenant in the Coast Artillery, and Teddy is continuing her studies.

In December, Don Blaisdell and Anita Robison were married. Anita was graduated from Brewer High and has attended the E.M.O. in Seattle. Don is with Allis-Chalmers in Milwaukee.

I guess I had better close this thesis, because they cut my column in two last time and they may decide to stick in the surplus now. Anyway, I've run out of items, so there! I'll be starting off scratch next month, so the length of the column will depend on you. If not for my sake, won't you please patronize the janitor? He gets frightfully bored when he has nothing to read in the mornings.

Barby Ashworth
59 Beacon Street
Boston, Mass.
Here’s real help for all you “home guards”!

If the Government has given you the job of protecting pigtails and pinafores at home, you can get a lot of help from the New England Mutual men listed below. They’re alumni of your own college—and seasoned veterans who have seen service in many fields.

They’ll be glad to give you good advice—and modern equipment that will carry you through your personal war against want and fear. New England Mutual has helped other fathers in other wars for more than a century.

If none of these men happens to be near you, look up the New England Mutual office in your city. There you’ll find your kind of people—people who enjoy their work and get genuine satisfaction from rendering constructive counsel.

Jos. Jacobs, ’08
Columbus, Georgia
M. Langdon Hill, ’17
Portland, Maine
Howard L. Norwood, ’23
Monmouth, Maine
Robert E. Turner, ’26
Boston, Massachusetts
Ernest L. Dinsmore, ’37
Boston, Massachusetts

We have a number of opportunities available in various cities, where capable field men have left for military service.

If you, too, are a 3-A father, and not particularly happy with the future your present job offers, why not consider a career where compensation and service go hand in hand? Or perhaps you have a friend who might be interested.

In either case, just write to Wm. Eugene Hays (Stanford ’26), 501 Boylston St., Boston, Mass., for further information. There’s no obligation, of course.

Her daddy’s been drafted—for service at home!

He’s in Class 3-A... deferred from army service for family service. Pigtails and pinafores are still just as important as Panzer divisions! While fighting power is essential, the loving care and education of American children are also vital to the nation’s future.

That’s a big responsibility for any young father to face. Excused from one job, he’s got to make good on the other. How can he best protect his home and family through the uncertain years ahead?

One line of defense he dare not neglect is a flexible life insurance program. One safe, sure ally is the New England Mutual—which has grown steadily through the wars and depressions of a century—and is distinguished today by its liberal policy provisions.

A 3-A father can easily establish broad protection for present needs—and quickly convert to meet unforeseen future events.

The best time to begin is today. The best way is a friendly chat with a New England Mutual Career Underwriter. These trained, experienced men make a career of family counsel—and family defense.

New England Mutual
Life Insurance Company of Boston

George Willard Smith, President
Agencies in Principal Cities Coast to Coast

THE FIRST MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY CHARTERED IN AMERICA—1835