Biographical Note

Dr. Hilda M. Fife was born in Greenland, N.H., in 1903. She received her B.A. degree from Colby College and M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Cornell University. She also did graduate work at Boston University and the University of Chicago. She became professor of English at the University of Maine and served on the faculty from 1946 until retirement as professor emerita in 1969. She was the founder of the Maine Old Cemetery Association and had been active in the Kittery Maritime Museum and Rice Public Library in Kittery as well as Maine League of Historical Societies and Museums. She died in 1990.

Scope and Contents

The records mainly contain textual information created and curated by University of Maine Professor Hilda Fife, but there are also some photographic material and a wooden map of Henry David Thoreau's travels in Maine.

The record series Academic Papers contains copies of both Fife's masters and doctoral thesis, articles by Thesis, course outlines, a display kit, and biographies.

The record series Reference Material contains copies various publications and books, particularly from Cornell University on art, history, and literature. There are also clippings regarding Maine and Maine authors and lists of books related to Maine.

The records series Student Papers contains copies of various University of Maine undergraduate and master's student papers from courses on Maine authors and settings most of which appear to have been taught by Fife.
