University of Maine Awards 639 Degrees at 95th Commencement

The smallest group of seniors since World War II and the largest number of advanced students in the history of the University of Maine received their degrees at the 95th Commencement in Memorial Gymnasium on June 15.

Degrees awarded by President Arthur A. Hauck numbered 572 bachelor's, 60 master's, and seven honorary.

Honorary Degrees

Recipients of honorary degrees, all distinguished leaders in various fields, were: Robert Braun, Portland, one of New England's industrial leaders, LL.D.; Charles A. Dickenson, Orono, professor emeritus of psychology at the University of Maine, Sc.D.; Milton S. Eisenhower, president of Pennsylvania State College, LL.D.; Dr. Frederick T. Hill, Waterville, a noted otolaryngologist, Sc.D.; Miss Florence L. Jenkins, Augusta, state director of Home Economics Education, M.S.; Justice Harold H. Murchie, Calais, Chief Justice, State of Maine Supreme Court, LL.D.; Mrs. Dorothy T. Payson, Portland, a leader in developing the cultural and civic life of the state, L.H.D.

Gov. Frederick G. Payne spoke briefly and extended greetings to the students, faculty and guests.

Spiritual Security

Commencement speaker, Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, chose as his topic "Spiritual Security.

"The fundamental division among people of the modern world is not economic or political—it is in the realm of the spirit," Dr. Eisenhower said. "The Communist system is predicated on the emphatic rejection of God. The division is between a completely materialistic concept, on the one hand, and a way of life on the other, which had its origin and gained much of its strength from the spiritual values of religion," the president of Pennsylvania State College told his audience.

Dr. Eisenhower added that every educated person today must "constantly be alert to the basic distinction between the ideologies that divide our world and must develop within himself the understanding and the qualities of sound character which will make it possible for him to contribute his full share to democratic strength".

The development of individual character is the greatest contribution the citizen of today can make to the "spiritual security" of America, and that security will be the deciding force in the present struggle between the free world and Communism, he said.

The development of understanding among the "diverse peoples of the world" is the only base for positive peace, Dr. Eisenhower stressed, and the first task in such understanding is "understanding of ourselves."

Invocation

The Rev. John B. Ford, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Bangor, gave the invocation.

Candidates for degrees were presented by the deans of the various colleges and diplomas were awarded by President Hauck. Candidates for honors degrees were presented by George S. Williams, president of the University's Board of Trustees.

Masters Degrees

Among the 60 advanced degrees awarded were those to the following alumni: 1921 Ethel T. Szek, M.D.

1934 Roscoe F. Cuozzo, M.A., Animal Husbandry

1935 Adene H. Boothby, M.Ed.

1937 Philip R. Mealey, M.Ed.

1941 Stuart P. Haskell, M.Ed., Arthur L. Kelley, M.Ed.

1942 Harold V. Blood, M.A., History and Government

1943 Buford L. Grant, M.Ed., Herbert Friedman, M.S. in Chemistry

1944 Elizabeth Whipple Rowe, M.A., Speech

1947 Grover B. MacLaurin, M.Ed.

1948 Charles E. Cunningham, M.S., Agronomy, Robert M. Zink, M.S., Geology

1950 Richard B. Clark, M.S., Horticulture, Frederick C. Dean, M.S., Wildlife Con.

Voted by the students to "have done the most for the University during their college careers," Jeanne Frye (George W '20), Harrington, and Greg Macfarlan, Stockton Springs, were awarded the Portland Alumniae Memorial Watch and the Washington Alumni Association Watch, respectively, during the 95th Commencement exercises.

The two watches are presented annually by the Portland Club of University of Maine Women and the U of M Alumni Association of Washington, D.C., to one woman and one man in the graduating class who, in the opinion of the students and the University administration, have done the most for the University.

Miss Frye has served as president of the Women's Student Government Association, has been a member of the General Student Senate, Sophomore Eagles, All Maine Women, and Alpha Omicron Pi sorority, and has served on numerous committees. A home economics major, she was named to Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary scholastic society, and Omicron Nu, national honorary home economics society.

An outstanding student throughout his four years at Maine, "Greg" Macfarlan has been president of the General Student Senate during the past year. He was president of the Class of 1952 in its senior year and was elected alumni president during Class Day activities. He has been a member of the Sophomore Owls and the Senior Skulls. A history and government major, he has been on the dean's list during his entire career at Maine. He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.
Baccalaureate

The baccalaureate address was presented by the Rev. Arthur E. Wilson, D.D., pastor of the Beneficent Congregational Church, Providence, R. I., earlier in the day. Dr. Wilson was graduated from the University in 1923.

"From here on your growth must be almost entirely intellectual and emotional." Dr. Wilson told the graduates.

Honor Students

Sixty-seven members of the graduating class received special recognition for their scholastic achievements.

Topping the list were eight students who received degrees "with highest distinction." These students and their major subjects were: Lucien L. Kristner, Plastics, Agronomy; Albert M. Smith, Bucksport; animal husbandry; Rita A. Moroney, Old Town, home economics; Claire D. Malcolm, Gardner, English; Calvin H. Beal (Carl I.'24), Troy N. Y.; Frank A. Butler (Henry R.'20), Portland and Roy P. Webber, II, Falmouth, Forestry; all in chemical engineering, and Albert H. Ashley (Class Salutatorian), East Machias, engineering physics.

Five seniors completed the Honors Program and were graduated as follows: Remigio C. Appalo, Philosophy, With Highest Honors; Arthur E. Downey, South Portland, With High Honors; Gilbert M. French, Portland (Class Valedictorian), With Highest Honors; Dorothy I. Hubbard, Millinocket, With Highest Honors; and Don H. McKeen, Belfast, With Honors.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The University Scholarship Committee announced late last month that 167 students had been awarded scholarships for the 1952-53 academic year.

Thirteen students received University Scholarships. These are awarded annually to students of high scholastic standing and intellectual promise whose general record is satisfactory and who are in need of financial assistance.

Recipients of the University Scholarships were: Robert L. Appleby '55, Gary; Carolyn H. Bradbury '54, Belfast; James H. Brann '55, Lewiston; Susan L. Chase '53, Bangor; Reginald A. Deering '54, Brooks; Bernard O. Deschane '55, Waterville; Charles H. Goodwin '54, Portland; Gerald S. Harman '53 (Carl M.'26), Bridgton; Doris G. Martel '55, Berwick; Elizabeth A. Pierce '55, Augusta; Mary H. Porter '55, West Peru; Mary A. Trout '55, Poland, and William F. Vandevest '54, Bangor.

The 22nd annual Alumni Service Emblem was awarded to Alfred B. Lingley '20 at the Alumni Banquet, June 14, during 77th Reunion activities.

Mr. Lingley was a member of the First and Second Memorial Campaigns, chairman of the Library Fund in Rhode Island, and chairman of the Rhode Island Union Building Fund Campaign which was the first area to make its quota.

He is past president of both the Rhode Island Alumni Association and the Black Bears of Rhode Island, Providence Area Chairman, Placement Bureau, and has personally assisted many alumni and students.

A member of the Alumni Council since 1941, he served as vice president of the General Alumni Association in 1949, and as Association President from 1949 to 1951.

A willing and able worker on numerous alumni committees, he served on the Post-War Athletic Committee, and since 1950 has been chairman of the Special Dues effort of the General Alumni Association.

He has made many generous personal gifts to the University and the Alumni Association.

Mr. Lingley was formerly president and general manager of the Goodyear Footwear Corporation in Providence, R. I., is now vice president of Klestone Rubber Co. in Warren, R. I., and makes his home in Cranston, R. I.

He received the B.S. degree in chemical engineering at Maine and is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.

Established in 1930, the Alumni Service Emblem is awarded in recognition of outstanding service through the Alumni Association to the University. High standards for the award have been set by virtue of the many and varied devoted services rendered by each who has received the Service Emblem. The highest award of the Alumni Association, it has through the years gained high prestige.

Alumni gathered for the 77th Reunion Banquet on Saturday, June 14, were thrilled by a rendition of the "University of Maine Band Song" by its composer, Col. Joseph (Joe) McGusker '17. Colonel McGusker wrote his prize-winning Band Song in 1930, and it has been one of the most popular University songs since that time.
Nominations for the Black Bear Awards should be sent to the Alumni Secretary prior to October 1, so that they may be given to the selection committee to be appointed by President Myron C. Peabody ’16.

The awards will be made at the Homecoming Luncheon November 1.

The award recognizes the "devotion and loyalty to the high traditions of the University of Maine" and may be given to any alumnus or alumna, faculty member, or friend of the University. As many as three awards may be made in a year.

Nominations should state rather briefly how the nominees qualify for the award.

Previous awards have been made to President Arthur A. Hauke ’28, Alfred B. Lingley ’20, Clifford Patch ’11, J. Larcom Ober ’13, and Miss Addie Weed, recorder for the University of Maine Alumni Association.

THE MAINE ALUMNIUS

JUNE, 1952
77th Alumni Reunion

A varied program, excellent weather, and a registration count of 658 returning alumni marked the 77th Alumni Reunion, June 13-15. A gaily decorated campus received added color when several reunion classes turned out in distinctive costumes and head-gear.

Official reunion classes were those whose numerals end in twos and sevens and the class of 1950, although many other classes had large representations present. Heading the "Parade of Classes" was 1902 celebrating its 50th Reunion. Twenty-three members of 1902 returned and were presented with fifty-year certificates by Dr. Arthur A. Hauck and Association President Myron C. Peabody '16 at the Alumni Luncheon on Saturday. Arthur E. Silver '02 of Montclair, New Jersey, served as Honorary Marshal and assisted in the presentation of certificates.

At the Luncheon 572 alumni and guests witnessed the tribute by Dr. Hauck to the members of the faculty who are retiring, and to those faculty members who have completed twenty-five years of service to the University. Those honored were:

- Dr. Ernest Jackman, Professor of Education;
- Dr. Harry W. Smith '09, Professor of Biochemistry; Miss Addie M. Weed, University Recorder, Dr. Charles O. Dirks, Professor of Entomology; Dr. Ferdinand H. Stemmke, Professor of Botany; Dr. George F. Dow '27, Associate Director of the Agricultural Experiment Station, Dr. Marion Sweetman, Professor of Home Economics, Marion E. Rogers '30, Professor of Physical Education for Women, and Irving H. Prageman, Professor of Mechanical Engineering.

Officers Re-elected

The Senior Alumni and reunion classes held Class Meetings Saturday morning. A well-attended General Alumni Association Annual Meeting re-elected the following Alumni Association officers: President, Myron C. Peabody '16, Vice President, George E. Lord '24, Clerk, George F. Dow '27, and Treasurer, Roy A. Ladder '43.

The Association elected a new Council Member for a three-year term: He is Lewis O. Barrows '16 of Boston, re-elected as Council Members-at-Large were: Professor P. W. Moore '22, Clifton Chandler '13, and Mrs. Helen Pierce '41. Thomas Weeks '16 was re-elected as Representative of the College of Law.

Clifford Patch '11 of Bangor was re-elected alumni representative to the Athletic Board. George Ginsberg '21 of Bangor was re-elected an alumni member of the University Store Company Stockholders, and Maurice Rubin '38 was elected as alumni representative to the Student Religious Association's Sponsoring Board.

A budget of $26,050 for the year 1952-53 was adopted.

The Alumni Trustees' Report was read by Alumni Trustee Harold J. Shaw '14, and Clifford Patch '11 gave the Athletic Board Report.

Banquet

The highlight of Alumni Day was the Banquet which was attended by over 625 alumni and guests. Class Gifts were presented during the program. Classes which made substantial gifts to the University were 1912 ($520), 1917 ($1,000), and 1927 ($1,500). Although the Class of 1911 was not holding an official reunion, it also made a generous gift to the University.

The Alumni Activities Fund received gifts from Classes as follows: 1907 ($321), 1917 ($336), 1927 ($50.00), 1932 ($100.00), 1937 ($25.00), 1942 ($100.00), 1947 ($50.00), and 1952 ($35.00). The Alumni Activities Fund is used to maintain and help develop the program of the General Alumni Association. The income from the Fund is annually used to help defray the costs of Homecoming and Reunion.

Both the University and the Alumni Association benefited greatly from the generosity of the reunion classes and gifts were presented with much spirit. Synchronous competition among classes arose at the Banquet and additional monies were presented from the floor.

The Attendance Cups awarded on the basis of those members of individual classes registering up to six p.m. on Saturday were announced at the Banquet. The Fifty-Year Class, 1902, received both the 1908 Cup and the 20th Century Cup for having the highest percentage of its living members registered. The Twenty-Five Year Reunion Class of 1927 was awarded the Class of 1924 Cup for being the class of the last 30 years with the highest percentage of its living members registered. The President's Cup was also awarded to the Class of 1927 for having the largest number registered. Seventy-two of the class were registered at the time the Registration Desk officially closed. Both the fifty-year and twenty-five-year classes had the best showing for similar class attendance at reunions in many years. Other classes which had large attendance percentages included 1907, 1912, 1917, and 1927.

Banquet Speaker

The speaker of the evening was Clifford G. McIntyre '30, Representative from Maine's Third Congressional District. Congressman McIntyre discussed his impressions of the membership of the Congress and pointed out the need for public interest and attention to the needs of Land-Grant Colleges and Universities.

During alumni joined in many old-time and Maine songs led by Erma Scott '31 and accompanied on the organ by Richard Snare '33.

Throughout Alumni Day, returning alumni were entertained in many ways. The University Band held a concert Saturday afternoon, and teas were sponsored by the Bangor Alumni and the All-Maine Women. The evening did not lack entertainment. A general Alumni Open House was conducted by the Commencement Committee on Friday evening, and an Alumni Hop held Saturday night in the Library. Refreshments were available throughout the days and evenings through the courtesy of the Commencement Committee which was chaired by Philip J. Brockway '31.

At the head table during the Alumni Banquet on June 14 were (back row, l. to r.): President Robert F. Chandler, Jr. '29, University of New Hampshire; Harold J. Shaw '14, trustee; Rep. Clifford G. McIntyre '30, speaker; Myron C. Peabody '16, president of the General Alumni Association; President Arthur A. Hauck; Miss Jessie Fraser '31, alumni trustee; W. Gregor Maefarlan '52, president of the graduating class; (front row, l. to r.), standing, Philip J. Brockway '31, chairman of the Commencement Committee; Donald V. Taverner '43, executive secretary of the Alumni Association; Alumni Councilor Mrs. Helen Wormwood Pierce '41, Clifton Chandler '13, and Thomas Mangan '16; Mrs. Bette Kilpatrick '42, assistant executive secretary. Active Local Association Year
The Alumni Association year from September to June brought many active and successful Local Alumni Association meetings throughout the country.

In addition to weekly meetings in Portland, Boston, and Washington, D. C., and monthly meetings in Portland, Auburn, Lewiston, Providence, and St. Petersburg, Florida, a total of 49 alumni association meetings have been reported to the Alumni Office.
By Walt Schuman

ONLY one of Maine’s spring athletic teams succeeded in capturing a state title.

Charlie Emery’s varsity golfers successfully defended their state championship but lost their Yankee Conference crown to Connecticut. Walt Hewins, Winthrop, Mass., a senior and three-year varsity letter winner, won the Maine Intercollegiate Golf Championship to give the Blue Black linksmen a clean sweep in state competition.

Other Sports

In outdoor track, Coach Chester Jenkins’ men again trailed Bowdoin in the State Meet. In the New England meet they tied for 10th place.

Freshman Coach “Tubby” Raymond’s varsity baseball team wound up in a second-place tie with Colby behind Bowdoin in the State Series and was third in the Yankee Conference.

The varsity tennis team under Dr. Gar-land Russell, like Raymond a first-year coach, had several matches named out and ended the season with a 2-0-1 record in YC play, but failed to win in three starts in the State Series.

Award Banquet

Spring athletics culminated in the semi-annual Award Banquet held in the New Cafeteria on May 28. A total of 102 awards were given out and captains were named in five sports.

Albert Noyes, Augusta, was named honorary captain for this year’s freshman golf team, and William Calkin (John B. 28A) was selected by his teammates as honorary captain of freshman track.

1952-53 Captains

Captains for next year’s teams are Albert Card (Clyde S ’27), varsity baseball, Carleton MacLean, Ashland, and Kenneth Lincoln, Arlington, Mass., varsity track, and Donald Mavor, Madison, varsity golf.

Varsity and freshman tennis captains will be elected next fall.

In fashioning its third straight state title, the Maine golf team scored impressive victories over Bowdoin 7-2, Colby 7½-1½, and Bates 9-0.

In earlier matches the Emerymen downed Rhode Island twice, and won handily over Bates and Colby in exhibition matches. At the annual Yankee Conference and New England Intercollegiate meet, held this year in Oakley, Mass., the Bears finished behind Connecticut and Massachusetts in YC team play and failed to place a qualifier in the New England State Track Meet Highlight of the outdoor track season was the State Meet held on Alumni Field, Orono. Invitations were sent out to former State of Maine Olypic and record-holding trackmen. Many came to Orono for the meet as guests of the University.

Bowdoin, paced by ace sprinter Gordon Milhiken, who won the 220, 440, broad jump and was second in the 100, retained its state crown.

Scores were: Bowdoin 69, Maine 56½; Bates 8½, and Colby 1.

Injuries to several of Maine’s top performers in all probability cost the Pale Blue the meet.

Earlier Coach Jenkins’ forces had lost to New Hampshire 81-54 and defeated Boston College 74-61 in dual meets.

In the Yankee Conference meet Maine 26 trailed Rhode Island 80½ and New Hampshire 29½. The Rams won their fifth straight YC crown.

Baseball

Coach Raymond’s pastimes won 11 and lost 10 over the season. The Bears were paced at the plate by Al Hackett. Derby, with a healthy 383 and Dave Bates, Newtonville, Mass., with .316.

Hackett is a center fielder, and Bates plays third base. Ineligible for State Series play but redshirt in the early games was Dave Wiggen (Paul E ’19) who hit the ball at a .383 clip.

Jack Christie, Ellsworth Falls, was Maine’s top pitcher. Included among his wins were two 1-hitters and one 2-hitter.

Five of the Pale Blue regulars will not be available next year. They are Gene Sturgeon, Portland, Carl Wight, Bethel; John McGuire, Old Town, Capt. Merrill Wilson, Providence, R.I. and Christie.

Varsity Tennis

Paced by Capt. Bill Bird (Maurice ’13), who was defeated in the finals of the State Intercollegiate Singles play, Coach Russell’s countmen were defeated by Bowdoin 2-7, and Colby and Bates 4-5. Earlier they had won over New Hampshire twice, 7-2 and 5-3, and lost to Connecticut 2-7.

Coaches Jenkins and Emery were especially happy over the records hung up by their respective freshman teams this spring. The first year trackmen went undefeated over a four meet schedule. Paced by Bill Calkin, who won four or five first places in every meet, the frosh won over Old Town High 65-52, Bangor High 59½-57¾, Deering High 92-33, and in a triangular meet the yearlings scored 104 against South Portland High’s 25 and Rockland High’s 13.

Freshman Golf

The freshman golfers also were undefeated carding wins over Waterville High 6-0 and Rockland High 5-1. The frosh team should provide four or five players.

U. of M. Dean Decorated—

Dean Arthur L. Deering '12 of the College of Agriculture has been awarded the rank of Commander of the Military Order of Christ by the Portuguese government. This honor was conferred upon Dean Deering in recognition of the outstanding services he rendered Portugal during two ECA missions to that country.

Dean Deering made his first visit to Portugal in 1950 as a member of an ECA mission established to step up agricultural production in various European nations. In 1951 he made a second trip at the invitation of the Portuguese government and this time he was called on to formulate a long-range agricultural program for the nation.

The award includes a medal, official ribbons, and the formal document signed by President Francisco Higinio Craverio Lopes.

United Nations Worker—

Back in the United States after visiting twelve countries in a little over a year in connection with United Nations work is Miss Emma R. Broisman '44. She has been employed at the International Labour Office Liaison Office for several years.

In February, 1951, Miss Broisman was a member of the I.L.O. delegation at the United Nations Economic and Social Council's 12th session in Santiago, Chile. While in South America, she visited Peru, Argentina, Uruguay, and Brazil.

Her next assignment was with the I.L.O. delegation to the 6th session of the U.N. General Assembly which convened in Paris in October. She was in Europe for six months during which time she visited England, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland, Austria, Italy, and southern France.

After studying living conditions in Europe and South America, Miss Broisman's message to Americans is, "We just don't know how lucky we are.''

Weston Vice President Retires—

The retirement of Reginald L. Lambe '07 as vice president in charge of manufacturing has been announced by the Weston Electrical Instrument Corporation.

Mr. Lambe joined the Weston organization in 1916 as plant auditor, advancing a year later to supervisor of assembly departments. In 1918, he became head of the order department, continuing in that capacity until 1935 when he was appointed production manager. Four years later Mr. Lambe was made superintendent and in 1939 he was appointed vice president in charge of manufacturing.

He received the B.S. degree in mechanical engineering at Maine.

Before joining Weston, he was employed by the Singer Manufacturing Company as an efficiency engineer.

Engineer Promoted—

The Glenn L. Martin Company has appointed Howard W. Merrill '42 as chief electro-mechanical engineer.

Mr. Merrill joined the Martin company in 1945, after war service with the Air Force, as one of the first engineers staffing the newly organized Pilotless Aircraft section. He was the design engineer responsible for flight stabilization work on the Navy's Viking rocket and several target drones, on the Air Force's Matador pilotless bomber, and on a number of other projects.

After receiving the B.S. in mechanical engineering, he was commissioned in the Air Force in June, 1942. He served in the Air Materiel Command and with a B-17 remote control project of the 8th Air Force. He was a captain when discharged.

Ends Government Duty—

Winding up a seven-month tour of duty as assistant in charge of production programming in the Office of Defense Mobilization in Washington is George P. Hitchings '37.

Mr. and Mrs. (Pauline Davee '39) Hitchings were planning to return to Ypsilanti, Mich., early this month. Mr. Hitchings has been on loan to the government from his position as manager of the economic analysis department at the Ford Motor Company in Dearborn where he has been for five years.

After receiving his B.A. degree in economics at the University, Mr. Hitchings was awarded a Rockefeller Foundation Fellowship for work with the Federal Reserve System.

Corporation President—

H. Joseph Taylor '41 has been named president of the Gas and Electric Distributing Corporation of White Plains and Albany, N. Y. The corporation is a subsidiary of the A. O. Smith Corporation.

Mr. Taylor was Maine distributor in Bangor for the A. O. Smith Corporation before being named to his present position.

He is married to the former Marion Bolduc, and they live with their two children at Saugerties, N. Y.

Utility Manager—

The Pennsylvania Power and Light Company recently announced the appointment of Paul D. Sullivan '22 as manager of the company's Shenandoah district. He has been manager of PPL's Mount Carmel district since 1942.

Mr. Sullivan joined the utility company in September, 1923, as a line superintendent and in April, 1923, was named superintendent of distribution at Sunbury, Pa. In August, 1930, he was appointed manager of the Sunbury district and served in that capacity until his Mount Carmel appointment.

County Agent Named—

The announcement of the appointment of Earl B. Langley '43 to succeed Paul N. Mosher '41 as Penobscot County Agent of the University Extension Service was made last month by Richard C. Indoff '27, County Agent Leader.

Mr. Langley is no stranger to the Extension Service having served as 4-H Club agent in York county in 1947-48. For the past four years he has worked as assistant manager of the Presque Isle warehouse of a large farmers' cooperative.

He was graduated from the College of Agriculture in 1943 with a major in agriculture.

Alumni Officers—

Seven University of Maine alumni received commission in the Navy at the Newport, R. I., Officer Candidate School in two graduations on May 23 and June 6.

The Newport school is currently graduating more new officers annually than the Naval Academy and all the college NROTC programs combined.

Candidates at the school cover the same instruction in 16 weeks that NROTC students do in four years.

Campus Comment

BY BILL MATSON ’52

THIS is it. The end of the year is here. What seemed to be the quickest four years in the world is over for me and some 600 others. It's been fun, these four years. Fond and sad memories of our undergraduate life at Maine will remain with most of us for a lifetime.

But what of those who have a year, or two, or three left to go before they will receive the coveted sheepskin. Are they sitting back and gazing reflectively on the past? No sir, not this group.

General Senate

Look at the General Senate. That group is rolling merrily along. William D. Hirst, Wellesley Hills, Mass., was elected to the post of senate president, the job that was handled so superlatively by Greg Macfarlan this past year. Hirst’s election came on the heels of one of the most spirited campaigns here in years. Hirst beat out rivals Donald Stevens, West Enfield, and write-in candidate, Duke Walters, Readfield, who amassed a large number of votes in the race. Other major campus offices were filled following the annual celebration of Maine Day.

Mayor Campaign

Zinas “Zeke” Mavodones, a junior from Portland, was the overwhelming choice of the student body for mayor. Once again, there were only two majority candidates. Mavodones’ opponent was Jack “Sad Sack” Cerasulo, Bedford, Mass. Both candidates, however, went all out to get the students’ vote. Mavodones staged one of the most hilarious programs ever seen in the Memorial Gym.

Elections

Along with the mayor and the senate president, other officers for key campus groups were elected for next year. Woody Carville, York, was named president of the Men’s Athletic Association. Ernest Hilton, Great Neck, L.I., New York, was named president of the Student Religious Association. Beverly Pettingill, Portland, won the big one for the co-eds by being elected president of the Women’s Student Government Association. While Helen Strong, Augusta, was elected president of the Women’s Athletic Association.

While we are on the subject of honors, Harry Easton, Winchester, Mass., was not slighted. Easton received the silver alumni sabre as the outstanding graduating cadet in the University ROTC corps. Myron C. Peabody, president of the General Alumni Association, made the presentation. Easton served as cadet colonel, the highest grade that an ROTC cadet can attain.

Maine Masque

Moving away a bit, we take a glimpse of the Maine Masque’s final production of the year, the famous Broadway smash, “Detective Story.” The Masque’s production, featuring sophomore Phil Nectow, Portland, in the lead role, was a howling success. Other Masque acts Dwight Frye, Topsham, Dave Haskell, Auburn, and Marjorie Cross, Brunswick, were outstanding in the top supporting parts.

While we are on the subject of honors, the two highest ranking seniors have been designated Gil French, Portland, and Al Ashley, East Machias, were named by the registrar as valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, for the class of 1952. French is a psychology major, while Ashley is majoring in engineering physics.

Paul Marcoux, Lewiston, has been named by the student-faculty publications committee as the editor of the next year’s Prison. Paul is the head photographer on the Maine Campus.

Memorial Day

Memorial Day was observed at the University with an assembly featuring Rear Admiral Edward Ellsberg, U.S.N.R. (Ret.), an author with a distinguished and colorful naval career, as the main speaker. The Committee on Veteran Affairs once again sponsored the assembly’s ROTC units, the ROTC band, and the combined glee clubs all participated at the solemn ceremony.

The senior class held its annual assembly and, following discussions, the class voted overwhelmingly to give a sum of money to be used for the proposed campus radio station, WORO Leonard Silver, Portland, speaking for the radio station, pointed out that with additional revenue there be nothing to impede the progress of WORO. Other seniors spoke briefly on various phases of commencement and upon other gifts that the class might give to the University.

Editors’ Luncheon

Regional members of the Associated Press and officials and editors of daily newspapers in the state were the luncheon guests of the University Press Club. The AP men and the editors and officials held a short business meeting at the Journalism Department in Fernald Hall prior to the luncheon.

The Maine debating council awarded University of Maine Debate Keys to six varsity debaters. The six receiving keys were Raymond Cox, Bangor; Dana Devoe, Orono, Dalton Newell, Old Orchard, Bertha Norris, Winterport; Carol Pretis, Waterville, and Richard Wilson, York Beach.

Golden Apples

Six golden apples, the highest honor that the Maine Masque can bestow upon those who have worked in its productions, were given to Frances Brown, Belfast; Martin Gerrish, Bucksport, Bernard Joy, West Sullivan; Philip Nectow, Portland; Gerald O’Shea, Orono, and Bill White, Topsham.

The WSGA has undergone a major change regarding its method of representation. Sorority representatives have been eliminated. The change will give each upper class dorm a junior and senior representative, and each freshman dorm a freshman representative. Under the present system, each sorority has a representative. Under the revision, the Elms Annex will be included in the Elms representation.

Football Ticket Applications will be mailed September 1 to alumni living in the 10 northeastern states. Others may secure application on request.

THE MAINE ALUMNUS 10

JUNE, 1952
FOUNDATION MEETING

Hazen H. Ayer '24, of Boston, was elected president of the University of Maine Foundation at the thirteenth annual meeting which was held at the University on Alumni Day, June 14. Roy A. Ladner, Jr., '43, of Orono, was elected treasurer, and Raymond H. Fogler '15 of New York and Otto Nelson of Bangor were named as members of the corporation.

According to the Treasurer's report, the Foundation now holds over $194,000 in gifts, bequests and trust funds. This is an increase of $25,000 during the past year.

After ten years of service as a member of the Foundation, most of which time he also served as a director, Harold P. Marsh '09, of Bangor, retired as a member. The by-laws of the corporation limit membership to two consecutive terms of five years each. During the entire period of ten years, Mr. Marsh did not miss a meeting of the Foundation.

The two members elected at the annual meeting have previously served the organization, but not during the past year. Mr. Fogler who recently retired as president of W. T. Grant Company was president of the Foundation for several years. Mr. Nelson, who is vice-president and head of the trust department of the Merrill Trust Company, has been greatly interested in and helpful to the Foundation.

President Ayer, now serving his tenth year as a Foundation member, is president of Standish, Ayer and McKay, investment counsellors of Boston. Treasurer Roy Ladner, Jr. is manager of the Orono branch of the Merrill Trust Company and active in many community organizations.

Appointed by the University Board of Trustees as the members to represent the Board for the next year were Raymond W. Davis '11, of Guilford; Mrs. Clarence C. Little '24, of Bar Harbor; Frank P. Prent '17, of Portland; and Harold J. Shaw '14, of Sanford.

Among the gifts received by the Foundation during the past year are the following: Frank P. Morison bequest of $5,000, to establish a scholarship fund; Mary Strickland bequest of $10,000 to establish the Anna Strickland Scholarship Fund, and $3,805 from seventy-one alumni and friends to establish the Benjamin C. Kent Scholarship Fund.

The Class of 1911, which has given the Foundation $5,000 for a scholarship fund, at its last meeting broadened the terms of their gift so that after 1901 (the fiftieth anniversary of the class) the directors of the Foundation may continue to use the fund for scholarships purposes or use income or principal or both for such purposes as they deem in the best interest of the University.

The Foundation was organized in 1934 to receive gifts, bequests, and trust funds.

Alumni Silver Sabre

Highlight of the annual Federal Inspection and Military Revue was the presentation of the General Alumni Association Silver Sabre by Myron C. Peabody '16 (c.), president of the Association, to Harry M. Easton ’52 (c.), Winchester, Mass. Honorary Colonel Frances Willett '53 (l.), East Corinth, was an interested spectator.

Harry M Easton, Winchester, Mass., was the recipient of the Alumni Silver Sabre at the annual ROTC Federal Inspection and Military Review held on Alumni Field, May 15. The sabre, awarded annually to the outstanding military cadet, was presented by Myron C. Peabody '16, president of the General Alumni Association.

The day-long program included a review and presentation of annual awards to the ROTC cadets, class exercises and a tactical field problem. This is the second year that the Alumni Sabre has been awarded. Selection is based on military leadership, scholastic record, military bearing and aptitude.

George W. Hayden '51, Auburn, won the sabre last year. He is now on active duty as a second lieutenant in the Artillery stationed at Camp Edwards, Mass.

TEMPORARY DORMS RAZED

The two temporary, barracks-type buildings, formerly known as East and West Halls, that were located in front of Carnegie Hall are no more. They were razed last month.

The structures, which were used to house freshman women in the four years following World War II, were moved to the campus from South Portland. They were trucked over the highway in sections and reassembled on campus. About 130 women students were accommodated in the buildings each year.

North Dormitories and South Apartments, also temporary structures, are not being removed at this time.

AGGIE GRADUATION

Graduates exercises for 13 students who had completed the Two-Year Agriculture Program were held Friday, May 2, in the Little Theatre.

Fred Nutter, State Commissioner of Agriculture, gave the graduation address. Dean Arthur L. Deering '12 of the College of Agriculture presided in the absence of President Arthur A. Hauk, and Associate Dean Withrow C. Libby '32 of the College of Agriculture presented certificates to the graduates.

The General Alumni Association was host at a dinner for the graduates and their relatives and friends in Balentine Hall following the ceremonies.
Education and Freedom

By Robert F. Chandler, Jr.
President, University of New Hampshire

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article by Robert F. Chandler, Jr., '29 (the late Robert F. '03) appeared in the Hartford Times as a guest editorial under the title "Education and Freedom." The tunnel and general content makes Dr. Chandler's editorial of special interest to alumni. Dr. Chandler is the twelfth president of the University of New Hampshire. He was educated at Maine, where he received the B.S. degree in horticulture, University of Maryland, where he received the Ph.D degree in 1934, and University of California where he did postgraduate work. He has served the State of Maine as State Horticulturist and has taught at Cornell as Charles Lathrop Pack Professor of Forest Soils Under the Rockefeller Foundation. He served a year in 1946-47 as soil scientist in Mexico. From 1947 to 1950 he was dean of the College of Agriculture and director of the Experiment Station at the University of New Hampshire. He was made president in November, 1950. Dr. Chandler is the author of numerous scientific articles and is co-author of an authoritative treatise, Forest Soils, published in 1946.

The central thought of our times involves the protection of individual freedom. Although traditionally our country has been "the land of the free and the home of the brave" today the rights of free nations over the world are being challenged by powerful and sinister forces. In my opinion, one of the most important bulwarks of freedom in our country is our educational system. Not only do we have practically universal attendance in primary and secondary schools but also a larger percentage of our young men and women go to college as compared with any country in the world. Some contend that higher education has become so generally available that it is meaningless to possess a college degree. I do not agree with this reasoning. True it is that we should have adequately high admission standards, but for those who are mentally equipped, a college education cannot be made too valuable.

To me this seems highly important in the world today. Man has shown tremendous ingenuity in developing machines, some of which are highly effective in destroying human lives and the creations of civilized living. In spite of all the wisdom that has come forth from man's thinking and experience through the ages, we are not yet prepared to provide a suitable solution to the problems of man's relation to man.

Student Preparation

A large percentage of the nation's college students are taking courses in government, economics, history, as well as music, art, and literature. From a study of these subjects, the students gain an appreciation of the best that has been said and done within the records of all time. They acquire an understanding of the basic conditions that provide the background for the present worldwide struggle. They prepare themselves for intelligent participation in the activities of modern life and socially competent human beings, willing to meet their responsibilities to society. The selected few from among our college graduates will serve on the diplomatic front where, in the perhaps not too distant future, the nations of the world can find a common meeting ground, without resorting to bargaining with human lives to settle their differences.

Our colleges and universities must be maintained at a high level with the proper environment for true scholarly work. During recent years, educators have received some criticism for their views. It actually has been muttered that many college professors are reds and many are positively or overly leftist. Essentially all of this criticism is unjustified and is caused by a lack of understanding on the part of the general public. Our professors must be free to teach the truth, to reveal all sides of every situation. No subject if presented honestly, factually, and in good taste should be taboo on our campuses. I am confident that each student who knows the facts about communism and democracy will not hesitate one moment in choosing the latter. We have a great heritage, which education at all levels and directed to all ages can portray to our citizens.

There is a real scarcity in the world today of high quality, intellectual leadership. We need men and women who can think in broad terms about the greater issues confronting mankind—who are truly concerned with the realization of a decent society that will allow for their fullest expression of the human spirit. The world needs strong-minded citizens who can sift out of all of that is said and written the real truths that constitute the building stone for a future world in which true human happiness and content will reach new heights.

Education's Responsibility

All this may seem rather unrealistic for a time when we are carrying on an armament race with another world power—when lack of food, illiteracy, and general poverty plague millions of people in other countries. I am confident, however, that in the years ahead, man will conquer his physical problems through science, and then can we expect real progress to be made in problems of the mind and spirit. Higher education has the responsibility for providing the trained leaders to accomplish this great and rewarding task.

In grateful recognition of faithful and outstanding service to the University and to the state, the Board of Trustees is happy to confer upon you the degree of Doctor of Science.

Non-scholastic Honors

Jean Dolloff '53 (L.) this spring became the third member of her family to become a member of the All Maine Women. Her mother (Er dine Besse '28) was a member 25 years ago. Her aunt, Mrs. Arline Besse Buley '25, was a charter member. Miss Dolloff's father is Richard C. 27. (Photo by Ayer)

Sixty-one men and women students were named to the University's four top non-scholastic societies last month.

Tapped as new members of the Junior Skulls were the following junior men: David Beppler, Montclair, N.J.; Lin wood Carville, York; John Curry Shattuck, South Portland; Patrick Dione, Skowhegan; Denius Hawkes (Wyman E. '22); Bath, William Hirt, Wellesley Hills, Mass.; Chiford Nelson Cape Elizabeth; Norman Roy Brunswick, Donald Stevens, West End; and Lawrence Wright, Stratton.

Election to the Skulls is regarded as the highest non-scholastic honor for men at the University.

Eleven girls were named to the All Maine Women at the organization's annual banquet. The newly named members are Beverly Pettequill, Portland, Jean Dolloff (Richard C. 27, Er dine Besse '28); Orono, Isabelle Stearns, South Paris; Eleanor Zehner, Lexington, Mass.; Susan Chase, Bangor; Lois Weldon, Brewer; Ruth Mitchell, Dark Harbor; Barbara Jackson (H. Laton '21, Lo is Manter '23), Brunswick; Charlotte Trouth, Portland; Phyllis Noyes, Kenneth B. '19), Orono; and Carol Prentiss, Waterville.

Mrs. Barbara Dunn Hitchner '20 was named an honorary member of the society.

The members of the All Maine Women Society are chosen each spring from the junior class on the basis of character, honor, dignity, and willingness to accept responsibilities.

The 20 new Sophomore Eagles are Mary Bigelow, Natick, Mass.; Janet Bishop, South Portland, Shirley Bos trom (Frank '29), Cambridge, Mass.; Nancy Caton, Presque Isle; Elizabeth Connors, Jackman Station, Jean Cousins (Maurice L. '34), East Blue Hill; Norma Cummings, Easton; Jean Eastman (the late Robert D. '27), Fryeburg, Elizabeth Fors, Ashby, Mass.; Son dra Glassor, Tom's River, N.J.; Mary Alice Hastings (Robert D '23), Bethel, J. Kenneth, Worcester, Mass.; Lillie Joy, Northeast Harbor, Shirley Kirk, Ashland, Constance Lewis, Dexter, Nancy A. Littlefield, Calais, Cynthia Nelson, Portland; Joanne Roberts, Brownville Junction; Anne Shrabany, Old Orchard, and Patricia Sweeney, Portland.

In recognition of your eminence and untiring services to the cultural and civic life of our state, the Trustees of the University are happy to confer upon you the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.
PULP AND PAPER FOUNDATION

WHAT'S this University of Maine Pulp and Paper Foundation that we're hearing and reading so much about these days?

Alumni, faculty, and students are asking this question time and again as the Foundation continues to make news with its significant activities in connection with the University's pulp and paper program.

The Maine Alumnus in its January, 1951, issue carried an article which outlined how the Foundation came into existence. This article indicated that Philip S. Bolton, '13, Research Director, Robert Gair Company, Inc., Uncasville, Conn., and Frederic A. Soderberg, '25, Manager, Industrial Division, General Dyestuff Corporation, New York City, were the "fathers of the Foundation." The article also explained that the Foundation was actually "launched" on February 22, 1950, at the annual University of Maine Pulp and Paper Alumni Luncheon in New York.

Foundation Goals

The goals of the Foundation were given as follows:

To interest more students to select the pulp and paper program.

To give such students financial aid.

To offer studies that will attract students and men from the industry.

To screen outstanding students for a five-year course stressing operational management.

To advance fundamental and applied research for the pulp and paper industry.

Well over a year has passed since the Alumnus carried its first account of the Foundation's development. In the meantime the Foundation has been making significant progress toward the goals set by its founders when the project was hardly more than a dream.

The Foundation's most recent membership figures indicate that the organization now has 22 company members, four scholarship underwriters, 15 special gifts from companies, 124 individual members, and six junior members.

Recruiting Students

The first goal which the Foundation set for itself was "to interest more students to select the pulp and paper program." Much thought has been given to this activity during the past year and now a definite recruiting campaign is being undertaken.

Funds have been allocated by the Foundation to provide for visits to secondary schools by members of the teaching staff in the pulp and paper program. High school students will thus have an opportunity to learn about the pulp and paper courses offered by the University and also something about job opportunities in the pulp and paper and allied industries.

A special booklet has been prepared which gives a summary of this information. This booklet is being circulated among the high schools and by interested alumni.

New Lecturer Appointed

Through the cooperation of the Foundation, the University has been able to appoint Charles M. Howell as a lecturer in pulp and paper technology in the Department of Chemical Engineering.

Mr. Howell rose through the ranks to become General Plant Manager and a member of the Board of Directors of the Scott Paper Company.

The University of Maine is the first educational institution to add to its staff in pulp and paper a lecturer with the diverse background of Mr. Howell. With many years of practical experience in the paper industry, he is particularly well qualified to teach courses in this field.

Scholarship Holders

Present holders of Foundation Scholarships, all of whom are scheduled to be graduated this June, are as follows: James E. Ayer, Randolph; Frank A. Butler, Verona, N. J.; John M. McClure, Glen- dale, Calif.; Donald R. MacKinnon, Rid- lonville, Robert E. Perry, So. Freeport, and Roy P. Webber II, Portland.

Three additional holders of Foundation Scholarships are expected to be graduated in June, 1953. They are Dwight D. Frye, Bucksport, William H. Pomeroy, Bath, and Robert N. Zabe, Bangor.

An attractive poster which gives de- tails about the Foundation Scholarships has been prepared and distributed to schools, industry representatives, and interested Foundation and alumni leaders.

Research

The bringing on of research in the pulp and paper field is another goal of the Foundation which has received much attention during the past few months. At a Portland meeting of the Research Committee, agreement was reached on several general topics for student and staff research. Six of the Foundation's scholarship holders and several other students are now conducting research on problems relating to pulp and paper.

Research Day was held at the University on May 9-10. This Foundation-sponsored event provided opportunity for students and staff members to present progress reports on their various research projects.

Open House

An Open-House-Week End at the University on October 5-6, 1951, proved to be highly successful. Twenty-nine representatives from 19 member companies of the Foundation attended. President Arthur A. Hauck, speaking at a luncheon meeting, praised the work of the Foundation "as a pioneering venture in cooperative education." The purpose of the Open-House was to provide an opportunity for representatives of member companies to visit with one another, and to become familiar with the teaching facilities at the University and with the faculty members who are participating in the five-year curriculum.

JUNE, 1952
Honor Award

When the annual University of Maine Pulp and Paper Alumni Luncheon was held in New York on February 19, 1952, the Foundation presented its second Hon- or Award to George D. Bearce, '31, of Bucksport, "in recognition of outstanding service to the pulp and paper industry in management and technology." Mr Bearce is general manager of the St Regis Paper Company operations in the State of Maine. The award was presented by J. L. Ober, '13, vice president of the Scott Paper Company, Chester, Pa., who is chairman of the Foundation's executive committee.

Exhibits

Arrangements are being made to have a series of exhibits, provided by various concerns interested in the Foundation, displayed on the campus. These exhibits, featuring the equipment, materials, processes, and products of the concerns, are expected to attract considerable interest among the general student body as well as among the pulp and paper majors.

Lecture Series

The lecture series by representatives from industry, which has developed hand-in-hand with the Foundation, continues to be an important part of the training of the students in the pulp and paper curriculum. This lecture program, instituted Professors Yule C. Jenness, '25, A, head of the University's Department of Chemical Engineering, brings to the Maine campus men from industry who are qualified to speak on a variety of technical phases of pulp and paper production.

Through the sponsorship of Paper Trade Journal, the lectures, after being edited by Professor John Lewis, '43, and Professor Jenness, have been published in magazine and book form. Seven thousand copies of the magazine and 2,500 copies of the book have been circulated. The project has been administered by John B. Calhoun, '28, A, Executive Director of Industrial Cooperation.

The first volume of the book has been completely sold, with requests still pouring in from all parts of this country and from foreign countries. The lectures have already been translated into Chinese and Spanish. A second volume will be published later this year.

Things To Come

Still an infant, only a trifle over two years old, the University of Maine Pulp and Paper Foundation has already given a strong indication of the many fine things it hopes to accomplish for the good of the University and the industry in the years ahead. A constant flow of well-trained men to responsible positions in one of the country's outstanding industries looms as one of its major accomplishments.

With the FACULTY

Prof. Wayne Jordan

Journalism Head Resigns—

After six years at the University, Prof. Wayne Jordan has left the Department of Journalism to return to active newspaper work on the foreign desk of the New York Times.

Prof. Jordan came to Maine in 1946 from an executive position on Business Week with more than 20 years of journalism experience.

When he arrived at the University only a few courses were being taught in journalism. Through his efforts the unit has grown from a subsidiary of the English Department to a full-fledged Department of Journalism.

Education Project in Asia—

Dr. Wilmarth H. Starr, Head of the Department of Modern Languages and Classics, has been named chief of the Educational Branch of the Mutual Security Administration's Special Technical and Economic Mission to the Associated States of Indo-China.

Dr. Starr was to have left Washington early in June for the Far East by way of Paris, where he was to confer with the French Foreign Office. He hopes to return in September, 1953.

In carrying out his assignment to set up a long-range educational program, which is intended to be a foundation for a strong and free society that will be a bulwark against Communism in Southeast Asia, he will work closely with the U.S. State Department, the U.S. Office of Education, officials of the Indo-Chinese government, French Colonial government, and MSA authorities.

“Little Hoover” Director—

At the request of Gov. Frederick Payne and the “Little Hoover Committee,” Prof. Edward F. Dow, Head of the History and Government Department, has been temporarily released from his University duties to accept the position of executive secretary of the commission.

The Committee of Citizens to Study the Government of Maine was authorized by resolution of the 95th Legislature and is to recommend to the 96th Legislature such action as may be deemed appropriate to improve efficiency, to reduce costs, and to promote an enlightened participation by the people in the formulation of public policy.

Before coming to the University, Dr. Dow taught at Western Reserve and Dartmouth. He joined the University staff in 1929 and has been Head of the History and Government Department since 1932.

Artist Winning Fame—

A fast-rising name in the art world these days is that of Prof. Vincent A. Hartgen, Head of the Art Department. Recently, Prof. Hartgen's work was appearing simultaneously in three major exhibitions at Portland State Teachers' College, Portland, N. Y., twenty of his watercolors were on display. At the same time twenty-five paintings of the Maine coast were exhibited by the Bermuda Art Association in Hamilton, Bermuda. During this same period one of Prof Hartgen's paintings, "Neptune's Tomb," was traveling through thirty New England art museums and galleries as part of the Boston Independent Society of Artists Exhibition.

He works mostly in watercolors. His one-man show in that medium at the George Brinton Galleries in New York was during the summer of 1950 drew such comments as: "New York Times, "spirited work with striking use of color"; "New York World-Telegram and Sun" declare sure and knowing."

B.W.I. Historical Article—

Author of the first in a series of documentary articles on West Indian history to be published by the Caribbean Historical Review is Dr. Alice R. Stewart '37, Associate Professor of History. These documents, the originals of which are in the public archives of Canada and the West India Library, Kingston, Jamaica, cover a variety of topics in Canadian-West Indian relations including an attempt to bring about a political union between the two areas and negotiations for a reciprocal trade treaty.
Alumni Trustee Shaw Reports
To G.A.A. Annual Meeting

THE 1951-52 fiscal year for the University of Maine will soon close and there will be a brighter report than anticipated. Increased enrollment over estimates and shrewd management by the President and Department Heads will largely account for practically wiping out the expected deficit.

Our President, Eighteen years as President of the University of Maine is a record for both Dr. Hauck and the Institution. As at the close of the first year he served, his popularity and leadership with students, parents and all other citizens is at a high level. He has been the hub of stability in education, rising to meet an expanding University's education and adjusting to that which now appears to be a stabilized enrollment of about three thousand students.

The problems of a staff, finance, and public opinion, he has accepted as a challenge to his office. They have all been handled as a credit to himself and with an understanding of Maine people. The years ahead may require new approaches, but we all are sure President Hauck will choose to serve with the same satisfaction and distinction as in the past eighteen years. We should express our confidence as he confronts tomorrow's problems.

Registration: Happily, the predicted 2800 student enrollment for the fall semester of 1951-52 turned out to be 3020 and it would appear now that the 1952-53 entering class would well exceed 3000. This should safely insure a fall enrollment of 2800. With the uncertain times, with the work opportunities available, and with the fact that in many of our urban High Schools nearly fifty per cent of the male graduates are immediately transferring to the Military, I think this enrollment a very satisfactory trend and an expression of confidence in higher education and the University of Maine.

The enrollment of students from outside of Maine has been slightly over 50 per cent annually. With the peak enrollment this was about 12 per cent of the total student body. Now with the adjusted enrollment of 1951-52 it has changed to almost 18 per cent. Our decrease has been in Maine boys and girls. A study of distribution of students by counties shows that the county ratio has been very consistent over the last five years with no particular area causing this decrease. Recognizing the above, and even in the light of higher operating costs, the Trustees have voted in opposition to any further increase in tuition at the present time.

Student Aid: With the constantly rising costs which the student encounters, it is necessary to provide some financial assistance to those who are ambitious and deserving. True it is not large in dollars or buying power but it helps to bridge a tough spot for about 25 per cent of our total enrollment. Student employment is by far the larger source of student aid, and unfortunately this opportunity decreases as the total enrollment stabilizes itself from the high peak and as changes become necessary for increasing efficiency of operation of the University.

Gifts: In addition to valuable gifts of paintings, books, and equipment, $65,000 has been received as gifts and bequests to the University and the U. of M. Foundation, $55,000 of this was specifically for scholarships or to endow scholarship funds. The existing endowment funds of the University were enriched by $100,000, which was brought about by the sale of 90 shares of Piscataquis Iron Works stock that had previously been bequeathed the University by the late Frederick W. Hill. It had been carried in the endowment funds at $6,750 and earned $900 annually. In an unexpected development the stock was sold for $108,000, which is the general endowment fund.

On October 31, 1951, and after 23 years of service to the University, Dr. Fred Griffee passed away. His contributions to research and education were many. The whole University recognizes the loss and we extend to Mrs. Griffee and the family our heartfelt considerations. Later our own Dr. George F. Dow '27 was appointed Associate Director Agricultural Experiment Station to succeed Dr. Griffee.

Miss Edith Bussell '02, known as "Edie" to her host of friends, holds an astounding record of attendance at Commencement activities at the University. In the 50 years since her graduation she has not missed a single year of getting to the campus to register and participate. A native of Old Town, "Edie" taught school there for many years, but is now retired.

It is interesting to note that the class of 1902 had four women graduates all of whom were able to return for the 50th Reunion on June 13-14, Miss Bussell, who has been mentioned above; Mrs. Rainsford Smith (Lida Knowles), Bath; Miss Genevieve Boland, Wrentham, Mass.; and Mrs. J. F. Gallagher (Cecilia Rice), Bangor.

There have been many promotions, leaves of absence, and honors accorded our staff during the year and there are at least three retirements which we should recognize:

Prof. Ernest Jackman of the School of Education, 22 years a servant of the University. Prof. Harry Smith '09 of Bacteriology and Biochemistry, 40 years our servant, and Miss Addie Weed of the Registrar's office, 44 years a beloved employee and the recipient of one of Maine's Alumni Black Bear awards last fall.

We are very proud of these people for more than a century of accumulated service and owe them a real debt of gratitude.

Budget: The budget for 1952-53, as approved, is slightly over four million dollars. I am sorry to say that estimated income is $290,000 less. This deficit will be made up from reserve funds which have been saved during years of high enrollment and which have been earmarked for plant rehabilitation and post war conversion. This deficit will practically exhaust these reserves.

The budget estimates to take $70,000 less in tuition and student fees.

It provides for a general increase in salaries although very small and still not competitive.

This year the teaching staff was reduced by over thirty full-time people. The 1952-53 budget continues this reduction.

With above saving the total cost budget is $45,000 over this year's operation and with an estimated total decrease in revenue of $160,000.

The only hope is that more students will show up than anticipated, and I am told that a more aggressive approach has been made to the prospective students for 1952.

Looking ahead this is the last year that reserves can fill the gap. With student tuition and fees and board accounting for 46 per cent of the gross revenue of the University, it seems unlikely that this income can be stretched too much without seriously handicapping many Maine boys and girls in securing an advanced education. This is the last year of the Mill Tax. From now on we have no post to hitch to. The need for advanced education within the means of the average and the acceptance of the many services rendered by the University will formulate the public opinion which will determine the future.

The Administration will inform the Alumni and the citizenry of Maine relative to the minimum requirements for the proper financial support of the Institution. This will be done in more detail than ever before. The challenge is that each individual appraise the proposal and then help to determine the future which they may want for the University of Maine.

I again want to express an appreciation for having the opportunity to serve you as a Trustee. Respectfully,

HAROLD J. SHAW '14

JUNE, 1952
ATHLETIC REPORT

This Annual Report is made, on behalf of your three representatives on the Athletic Board, by the retiring member of that group, and summarizes the Athletic activities of the past college year. A detailed account has appeared in the "Alumnus" in the form of excellent monthly articles by Sports Correspondent Walt Schurman ’32.

Football coaching was directed by Harold Westerman with an able staff of assistants, and the team compiled an outstanding record, winning both our first Yankee Conference Championship and the State Championship, and completing Maine's first undefeated season.

Cross Country

The cross country team, coached by Chester Jenkins, was undefeated until the New England and Yankee Conference meet, where they finished fifth and fourth. The indoor track team had their usual successful season. In outdoor track the squad finished second in the State Meet and third in Yankee Conference competition.

Rome Rankin, Director of Physical Education and Athletics, coached the basketball team, which finished the season with a 7-12 record and tied for second place in the State Series.

The baseball team under their new coach, Harold Raymond, had a successful pre-season southern trip, tied for second in the State Series, and placed third in the Yankee Conference.

Golf Team

The golf team, coached by Charlie Emery, lost only one match in seven meets and placed first in state competition, and finished third in Yankee Conference play.

Dr. G. William Small retired as tennis coach after 22 years service in that capacity. He had brought Maine to the forefront in New England tennis circles. His successor is Dr. Garland B. Russell.

The winter sports team, coached by Ted Curtis, Faculty Manager of Athletics, lost the State Championship, for only the second time in 22 years. Bob Pidack's '51 was Maine's representative to the Olympic Winter Games.

Although our Yankee Conference opponents used freshmen on their varsity teams, Maine continued the freshman rule. The wisdom of this policy was manifest in our freshman sports program where teams were successfully maintained in all sports, with no detriment to the varsity teams. The freshman rule will be reinstated in all colleges for the coming year.

1926 Champions

Homecoming Alumni honored the 1926 Championship football team and former coach Fred Brice whose teams won eight state titles in nineteen years.

Extracurricular activities are universally recognized as an important and valuable part of any educational program. Viewed from the standpoint of benefits to participants, and appeal to students, alumni, and public, athletics, properly conducted, rank tops in the extracurricular field. Continued and increasing support of our Universities' sound athletic program should rank high among Alumni activities.

During my several years service on the Athletic Board it has been my great pleasure and privilege to work with a great many students, faculty members, alumni, and others, in an atmosphere of genuine cooperation, loyalty, and enthusiasm, and to all of them I wish to express my gratitude for their sound and helpful leadership, advice, and assistance. Respectfully submitted.

of varsity caliber for next year's team.

The freshman baseball team, coached by Bob Hollway, split even over a six-game schedule. The frosh whipped Ricker
17-8, Husson 10-6, and Coburn 11-1, while losing to Maine Maritime Academy
10-3, Maine Central Institute 3-2, and Higgins 10-1

Kent Trophy

Phi Eta Kappa was All-Point winner for the third consecutive year and gained possession of the new Benjamin C. Kent Trophy.

Three girls received the coveted Seal Awards at the WAA's annual Spring Sports Banquet on May 28. Those receiving the awards, the highest honor that may be won by a girl athlete at Maine, were Isadore Stearn, South Paris; Ruth A. Johnson, Andover, Mass.; and Ruth E. Mitchell, Dark Harbor.

CAMPUS COMMENT

The General Senate also made a big move when it recommended to the president and the board of trustees of the University that a Union Building fee of $5 be placed on the term bill beginning next semester. Present subscribers are omitted under the plan. Present subscribers are those who have already pledged $5 or more a semester. The senate took action after hearing a report of the Student Union Building Committee which has been studying union building fees at other colleges and universities. The Senate's recommendation also pointed out that if a student has subscribed any amount under $5 a semester, he will be charged the difference between $5 and the amount that he has subscribed.

The Senate also approved an assembly committee plan whereby each student will pay $1 on the fall term bill and receive a pass to all concerts presented during the year in the University Concert Series.

Maine Day

Despite rainy weather, students and faculty alike turned out to make the 18th Maine Day a success. The big note in the entertainment field was on the evening of Maine Day when the annual student-faculty skit was presented. The mock trial of ex-mayor Don Stritch, Sanford, was the main feature. Stritch was placed on trial before a jury of distinguished faculty members to be judged on whether or not he had carried out his campaign promises of last year. High point of the evening was the snappy "Charleston" danced by President Arthur A. Hauck and Miss Edith Casady of the Women's Physical Education Department. Dr. Hauck, attired in a bright sports outfit, brought the house up roaring.

You Can Save...

Your Alumni Association money by sending your alumni dues now before the annual request is mailed on September 1. By doing so you will not only be sharing in the Association's program of "promoting the welfare of the University" but you will also assure yourself of receiving The Maine Alumnus during the coming year.

Beginning with the first issue of The Alumnus you can be sure of:

- Publication on the first of each month
- Sports and campus news coverage
- Expanded picture coverage
- Sketches of outstanding alumni careers
- Late news of the faculty
- Local association meeting calendar
- Class personals
- An interesting, informative alumni magazine that will keep you "in touch" with what's new at the University and with your classmates and friends.

Here's my check for my alumni dues for 1952-53 which includes a subscription to The Maine Alumnus. Annual dues $5 (husband and wife $6). Sustaining dues $15.

LEROY CLIFTON SMITH A resident of Tangerine, Florida, Leroy C. Smith died in May, 1952. He was a native of Exeter, Maine, and had lived in Florida most of his adult life. Before his retirement several years ago he was a druggist in Mt. Dora, Fla. He was a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

WALTER WALTER BLACK Dr. Walter W. Black, a surgeon, of Oswego, Oregon, died suddenly on April 10, 1952. Following his graduation from Maine, he received his M.D. from Oregon Medical School. He is survived by his widow, a son, and two grandchildren. Dr. Black was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

1908

JAMES DAVIDSON MAXWELL The death of James D. Maxwell occurred in Bangor on June 4, 1952. He was a lawyer and served in a number of municipal capacities including the Bangor Municipal judgeship. Experts in the field of music have rated Mr. Maxwell as one of the greatest cellists in the New England area. One of his two daughters, Margaret Maxwell Atwood now of Madison, Spain was of the class of 1940 at the Universitas.

1909

RUSSELL SHEPHERD TAYLOR On May 4, 1952, Russell S. Taylor of Skowhegan passed away. He attended the University for two years, with the class of 1909 and then went to Bowdoin from which institution he received his Bachelor's degree. He was a member of the Lons Club of Portland, and of the Masons and Kora Temple Shrine. In conjunction with his profession, he was a member of the Cumberland County State of Maine, and American Bar Associations.

1910

JAMES MURCHIE FATON James M. Eaton, art pioneer who retired recently as vice president of American Overseas Airline, died on May 1, 1952, in New York City. Nearly all his working life was spent in the field of aviation in one way or another. It is claimed that an airline between Tampa and St. Petersburg, Fla., was founded in 1914 and which Mr. Eaton helped to establish, was the world's first scheduled service. He was on the advisory committee of the Daniel Guggenheim School of Aeronautics of New York University. He was a Mason, a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, and a member of the University Club of Boston. The late Henry Eaton '26, who lived in Calais, was a brother. 7 live members in its section entitled "Milestones" carried an item about Mr. Eaton's death—a tribute to his far-reaching influence in the public life of the country.

1912

LYNWOOD BURKETT THOMPSON The death of Lynwood B. Thompson of Belfast occurred on March 4, 1952. For many years he had been associated with the Thompson Mfg. Co. Mr. Thompson was very active in the affairs of a number of organizations, a past president of the Chamber of Commerce, a past officer of all bodies of Belfast, a past district deputy of the eighth Masonic district, and an organizer and past president of the Belfast Rotary Club. He was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

1913

WARREN GRANT BREWER On April 30, 1952, in North Tonawanda, N. Y., Warren G. Brewer passed away. He had been with the Remington Rand Company for the past 38 years. A native of Peak's Island, Maine, he married to Alice J. Harvey also of the class of 1913, who survives him. Also surviving are a son, a daughter, and two grandchildren, his mother, and a brother. Mr. Brewer was a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

1916

JAMES EDWARD HARDY James E. Hardy, general secretary of the Newburyport Mass., Y.M.C.A., died on May 9, 1952. He had been with this Y.M.C.A. since 1926, and was known as "Colonel" Hardy. He was married to Alice J. Harvey also of the class of 1913, who survives him. Also surviving are a son, a daughter, and two grandchildren, his mother, and a brother. Mr. Brewer was a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

1917

SAMUEL SOLOMON BERGER On May 31, 1952, Samuel S. Berger passed away at his home in East Side, New York, Mass. He was the proprietor of the Essex Paper Sales Co. in Haverhill, Mass., for many years. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Frances Berger, two sons, and a son. He was a member of Phi Epsilon Pi fraternity.

1925

ALBERT RICHARD GOTT. A very belated report of the death of Albert R. Gott has just come to the attention of the Alumni Office. He was killed when his ship hit a mine in the Atlantic on July 5, 1942. He was in the Merchant Marine.

1928

ERNST HENRY LEGERE Ernest H. Legere for many years a teacher of French and faculty manager of athletics at Bangor High School, died on May 16, 1952, after a prolonged illness, following a deliberate brain operation in the spring of 1951. "Ernie," as he was familiarly known, was well known and very well liked by schoolboy athletic circles throughout the state. He is survived by his widow, two daughters and two sons, as well as other relatives. He was a member of Phi Kappa fraternity.

1931

STEPHEN FRANK KOSCIOLEK Dr. Stephen F. Kosciolke, well known surgeon of Lowell, Mass., met death by accidental drowning in a lake in Northwood, N. H., on April 1, 1952. He and two other doctors were trying out a new motor boat when they were capsized by strong waves. Dr. Koscielak is survived by his widow and two children. He received his M.D. degree from Boston University. At Maine he was a member of Phi Kappa fraternity.

1943

CHARLES BLAISDELL PHIL- BRICK. The death of Charles B. Philbrick occurred on May 13, 1952, following a brief illness. He was a resident of Roxbury, Mass. and was associated with the Red Milk Co. Following his two years at Maine he enlisted in the Navy to serve in World War II. He is survived by his widow, Mary Forkin Philbrick, and three sons as well as other relatives. At Maine he was a member of Phi Eta Kappa fraternity.

BY CLASSES

We quote from the April 4 Boston Globe: “Thanks to the vision of Dr. Elbridge Buffum, Harvard’s Arnold professor of botany, emeritus, a fast-growing tree with distinct possibilities as a timber crop is growing again in many parts of the old world. From which it had been extinct for upwards of 60,000,000 years. Geologists and botanists held the belief that the tree—mesquosa—had disappeared from the face of the earth conspiciously (it was known to them only as a fossil encountered all around the northern hemispheres of the earth) in an unnamed Chinese forest. A forester stumbled across a strange tree in a remote section of Central China in 1910. He took this strange tree to a Harvard trained botanist in Pekmg, who in turn told his “old prof” at Harvard about the discovery. An expedition was formed to find Arnold Arboretum to go to China to bring back seeds and today in America there are many of these mesquosa trees growing again.”

1900

The Honorable Ernest E. Hobson, judge of the District Court of Eastern Hampden, Mass., recently passed the 52nd milestone of his law practice, having been admitted to the Maine bar in 1898. He is a graduate of the University of Maine Law School. He was admitted to the Massachusetts bar in 1904 and has spent his life in that state. Besides his law practice and judейств, Mr. Hobson is well-known as a stamp collector (not in the sense of a philatelist) and benefactor. Annually, he receives thousands of postage stamps which are contributions from various sources and delivers them to Catholic charities all over the world. This hobby has been carried on successfully for a number of years and has helped immeasurably in providing financial assistance to many charities.

1902

Word has been received that Attorney George W. Ritter of Holyoke, Mass., has retired from active law work. He had practiced in that city for 49 years. The Ritters have summered in Maine for years. Then plans are to do some traveling “as the spirit moves them.”

1904

Professor Clarence E. Libby, who has been with the New York State College of Forestry since 1920, will go to the University of Tennessee at Knoxville on July 1 to begin the organization of a new school of paper making.

Members of the class will wish to extend sympathy to Ralph E. Fraser, who passed away in March. She had been ill for some time.

C Neal Merrill has recently changed jobs from the superintendency of the Millinocket mill to the superintendency of the East Millinocket mill.

A little farther south is Beryl Cram who teaches English in the Conn. high school. Her residence address is 82 Forest St. in that city.

Way down south in Pompano Beach, Florida, is Philip W. Dolloff, who is owner and manager of Surf Apartments on Route #2, 740 Ocean Blvd.

On your way west to Los Angeles, California, you’ll find C. Byron Crosby at 842 N. Alexandra Ave. He is division plant personnel supervisor for a company in that city.

Richard M. Millet, Portland accountant, was recently elected chairman of a citizens committee which is to study Maine’s government. This committee of which Dr. Richard Dow of the U of Maine faculty is executive secretary and will have a semester’s time to study the matter. This committee was appointed by Governor Payne following a directive of the 1951 Legislature. A report and recommendations to the 1952 Legislature Ways and Means that have with the governmental structure for better economy and efficiency is the aim of this committee.

Ella M. Hall is a teacher in the New York City School System. Her residence is 136 W. 73 St., New York City.

Mrs. Harold Wood (Leta Weymouth) of North Berwick.

Lester ‘Bud’ Carey’s son, who has been with the Navy in the Pacific waters off Japan, has returned to this area and now has his discharge. (This is wonderful news, Bud, since we all remember how you were at last report—having not heard from your son for two months) “Bud” is spending the entire month of July at his camp in Canada.

Richard Wood is a retired RIR (Pete) Burns has been in Hawaii since he left Maine. He is manager of a pineapple plantation there. He has two daughters, one married and living in Denver, Colorado, and the other attending college in California.

Mildred Close Mahoney lives at 688 Dan’s Street, Easton, Maine. She has a son and a daughter. Patricia attended the University of Vermont this last year and Brian is a senior at Seton Hall University.

(1 am indebted to ‘Bud’ Carey for the news of ‘Pete’ Burns and Mildred Close Mahoney).

Nancy J. Kelley, daughter of Linwood and Florence Morrill Kelley was awarded the Union Stevens Scholarship recently at the University of Maine. This award is given to the highest ranking junior in the College of Agriculture. It is competitive and given to a student who is a native of Maine who was Dean of the College of Agriculture from 1911 to 1933.

Richard Cook, son of Dorothy (Hart) Cook, has been appointed George W. Els Fellow at Columbia University for graduate study at the Ruskin Institute. The award carries a $1500 annual stipend. In June he will graduate from the University of Vermont where he has also been teaching an nudemester this past year. (The fellowship is for three years.) Wood’s and their daughter. Gregory Yan, professor of Forestry at the University of Maine, has a son, Bob, who is a freshman at MIT.

1925 Mrs. Merrill Henderson (Anne Thurston) Quechee, Vermont

Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaForest (Mary) recently purchased another cattle place “Trade Winds” in Springfield, Vermont. Good luck to them in their new venture. No better food found anywhere than at their old place “The Paddock.”

An interesting letter from Astra Coburn told us of her doings for the last 27 years. For 24 of them he edited a business magazine to the fuel oil and oil heating industry. Two years ago he took on the job of establishing “Gas Heat” for the company and he says that he is still struggling to get it really established. He is also treasurer and director of Heating Pub Inc. Son, Peter, is finishing his freshman year at Maine and daughter, Jane, enters Stephens College in the fall. Mrs. Coburn graduated from the University of Chicago.

Harland A. Ladd, State Commissioner of Education in Maine, was recently reappointed to the board of trustees of the Maine Maritime Academy.

Mrs. H. H. Brown (Madeline Fogg) is a resident of Northeast Harbor. Raymond H. Burton, science teacher at N.Y. High School, resides at 109 Bayard Ave, Hanover, N. H. Donald C. Lincoln is general superintendent of the International Paper Co in mill in Palmer, N. Y.

Ken MacGregor is with RCA Broadcasting Co., Inc., located in the RCA Building, Radio City, New York, N. Y. He has three children: two girls about eight and six years old, a boy a little over two, and also has a new home which he bought a year ago last September.

Fran Brewer is administrative assistant in charge of all the non-professional workers—154 to 164 in number and of all ages, races and sex colors— at St. Luke’s Hospital in New York City. Fran uncles their training, equipment, and maintenance.

Guilbert Little graduated from the Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers University last June following two years of work there. While the rest of us were enjoying our 25th reunion, he was sweating out an oral thesis examination!

Andy Small lives in Detroit and works in the Advertising Department of the Chrysler Corporation. He has a daughter 18 and a son 10.

Earle M. Stevens’ address is now Gen’l Delivery, Crescent Key, Fla. N. J. He is associated with New Jersey Bell Telephone Co.

Frances Willets Naught is teaching in Newport this year and her husband commutes from there to Orono where he is studying at the University.

1927 Miss Marion Cooper 230 State Street

As I understand it, when this issue of the Alumnus appears the 25th reunion will have come and gone and you’ll all have caught up on all the news, anyway. However, here are a couple of three items that came my way and I’ll pass them on to you.

Alfred B. Mitchell, who has been with the DuPont Co. for the past 24 years and has lived in six states, resides at 1243 Norwood Avenue, Niagara, N. Y. Printing is his hobby and I saw an extremely good looking letterhead he had designed.

Henry Scambler is with the New Jersey Forest Service at Belleplain Forest in Cape May County and lives at 200 Central Avenue, Ocean City, N. J. His daughter, Ann, graduated from high school this month.

Cly Brown, who lives at 947 Castleton Avenue, West New Brighton, Staten Island, N. Y., has three children. One daughter will probably attend Maine this fall.

Anne (Stinchfield) and Joe Vermette have gone to Florida to live. 401 South St, Ken West. We’d like to hear more!

Neil Bishop’s son, Paul, has been awarded a Fulbright Scholarship for a year’s study in Paris. Paul is a graduate of Bowdoin College and is completing his work for a master’s degree at the University. This year he is teaching modern languages at Phillips High School.

I’m not sure whether my term as class reporter includes the round-up on reunion, but if it does I’ll try my best to tell you all about everyone who’s there. If it doesn’t I’ve done my best and for goodness sake be more helpful to my successor, won’t you? It isn’t boasting to keep your classmates informed—it’s just being cooperative.

1928 Miss Mary A. McGuire

411 West 116 St

New York 27, N. Y.

Harold E. Bowie has been promoted to a full professorship in mathematics at American International College in Springfield, Mass. Also he has been elected vice-president of the Connecticut Valley Section of the Association of Mathematics Teachers of New England. The Bowies have a new address—133 Old Farm Road, Springfield, and are rejoicing in a new grandson, Stephen Bruce.

David Fuller reports a busy season on the Legislative Research Committee. He recently attended in Washington an institute sponsored by the Association on American Indian Affairs, Inc. Dave is a candidate for re-election to the Legislature.

Byron (“Doc”) Porter writes that he saw Fred Thompson in Portland last fall, and also ran into Pete Bennett in Southbridge, Mass. Pete is Manager of Sales Division in the Kopper’s Company, Pittsfield, Penn. Doc is Assistant Treasurer.

Frederick Scribner is teaching in the high school at Greenwich, Conn.

Word has just been received of the death of Ernest ("Ernie") Legere in a Bangor hospital on May 16, following a prolonged illness. Ernie was well known in Maine sports circles in his capacity as faculty manager of athletics at Bangor High. He also was a director of Bangor Fair, Inc. He is survived by his wife, Anne-Marie Legere, two daughters, Mrs. Lorraine M. Harry and Marcella J. Legere, both of Bangor; and two sons, Ernest H., Jr., Ensign, U. S. Navy, and Robert A. of Bangor.

1929 Miss Barbara Johnson 32 Orland St., Portland
I was pleased to get some news this month from George Bixby, who is living at 341 W. Cambridge Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona. George was married in 1942 and has two sons, George Robert aged 7½ years and Frank Craig, 5. He is in the house building business which is booming, he said, "because of all the Easterners flocking to Arizona." He and his family are already planning to get back for our twenty-fifth reunion in 1954.

Dr. Allison K. Hill was recently named vice president of the Bangor Medical Club.

Arthur R. Dunn, who has been residing in New Brunswick, N. J., is now receiving mail at 812 Buffalo Street, Franklin, Pa.

1930 Mrs. Pauline Leech (Pauline Hall) Homer Folks Hospital, Oneonta, N. Y.
Ellen Mullahay, who is a Bangor teacher, is a vice president of the Maine State Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs. She arranged for a "Your Own Business Clinic" in Bangor in April.

Dr. Louise Bates Ames has been appearing on Boston television shows this spring, now called "Child Behavior." A long article in an earlier issue of The Alumnius this year told of Dr. Ames' work at the Gesell Institute of Child Development in New Haven, Conn.

1931 Mrs. Sam Sezak (Ethel Thomas) 4 Gilbert St., Orono
Herbert E. 28 and Louise Durgen Hammons of Bangor have a son, Herbert Jr., who is the recipient of a $700 Bowdoin College scholarship—one of four in the state of Maine. Young Herbert has been a high ranking student at Bangor High and has also been active in extra curricular activities.

Roger L. Amnis has a new address in Panaville, Ohio—Corduroy, Rd., R.D. #1.

Frank E. Patten has moved from Arlington, Va., to Whitesville, North Carolina—Box 291.

Richard Blanchard, who breeds Jersey cows in Cumberland County, presided over a luncheon meeting for Jersey cow breeders during the Farm and Home Week proceedings on the campus during the first week in April.

Two other members of the class who also participated in the Farm and Home Week program were Lewis E. Parlin, who is with the Soil Conservation Service and who spoke on "Fitting Crops to Your Soil," and Stanley Painter, Assistant Chief of the Division of Market in Augusta. Mr. Painter spoke on the topic of marketing under the general topic of the Maine Potato Tax Committee.

1932 Dean and Mrs. Winthrop Libby of Orono have recently moved to a new home on Spencer St. They have three children.

Kenneth Ludden was recently elected president of the Brever Band and Orchestra Parents' Association.

Walter R. Leach, who has been serving as principal of Corinna Union Academy, has been elected principal of Calais Memorial High. He has held principalships in Maine high schools for 19 years.

Stanley L. Clement is another who has a new principalship. He goes from Wayland, Mass., high school to Braintree High. His degree from Maine was a master's degree.

1933 Mrs. John R. Carnochan (Dorothy Findlay) 36 Goudy St., So Portland

Cecil R. Luce is president of the Farmington Oil Co. of Farmington, Maine. His home is "Hurner Farm and Koot." His wide acquaintance in the business world has kept him away from the farm as much as possible.

Herbert W. Lutts, who is with Bethlehem Steel, resides at 133 Kemper St., Wollaston, Mass.

Plant engineer for Spence Rubber Products Co. of Shelton, Conn., Lyndol Miers resides at 386 Hawthorne Ave., Derby, Conn.

Charles T. Moody is manager of the W T Grant Co. store in Westchester, Pa., and makes his home at 24 Greenview Dr. in that city.

1935 Mrs. Thomas McGuire (Agnes Crowley) 209 W. 107th St., New York, N. Y.

Congratulations to Willis G. "Bill" Pratt, who has recently been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Commander in the Navy Engineering Corp. and the U. S. Naval Reserve. Bill served three years with the C. E. C. in World War II with duty in the Public Works Department of the U. S. Submarine Base at New London, Conn., and with the Sea Bees on Guam in the Pacific. Bill is employed as a Field Engineer in the Projects Office of the Oxford Paper Co. in Rumford, where he has been since 1946. (Many thanks for your note, Bill!)

Before the first fall issue of The Alumnius in October (and copy has to be in by mid-September) I wish you all those '35ers would drop me a line telling us all about yourselves. Then we could start the year with a bang! Have a wonderful summer.

1936 Mrs. Edwin Webster (Phyllis Hamilton) 258 Norwey Rd., Bangor
We note with regret a newspaper report of April 30 which states that Paul L. Stenholm, who attended Maine for a couple of years, is missing in a Brazilian jungle having been engineer officer of a Pan American World Airways Strato-cruiser. He has been with that airline company for about 12 years, is married and has three children. His family resides in Massacupaques, X Y.

William P. Pierse is a partner in Wright & Pierse in Topsham, Maine. John Sealey, Jr., of Skowhegan, has recently purchased the Hames drug store in that town.

The business Mr. Sealey bought dates back to the Bixby and Buck firm which existed in the 1800's. It was purchased from them at about the turn of the century by the late Frank W. Buckman and when he first operated the enterprise it was in the old Coburn Hall block. That building was destroyed by fire in 1904, and aside from a temporary location on Madison Avenue, it has since been located on its present site on Water Street.

Mr. Buckman sold the business in about 1924 and some ten years later Mr. Henry H. Haines purchased it from Nathaniel Johnson, who was then its owner.

The following are chances of address received by the Alumni Office:

Gordon Heath, U. S. Forest Service, Silver City New Mexico
Thomas Reed, 318 Old Farm Rd., Pittsburgh 34, Pa.
Dr. Sevil Hirschan, 58 Deerfield Rd., Portland
George Northrup, Seneca, Pa.
That's it for this month. Remember my plea and do better next time.

1937 Miss Nancy Woods 342 W. Freemason St., Norfolk, Va.

Miss Kenneth W. Downing has been elected treasurer of the Maine Federation of Music Clubs.

A recent change of address came through for Wendell Bagley from Ipswich, Mass., to Greensboro, N. C.

Mrs. Ernest A. Kohler, of Wheeling, West Virginia. Perhaps he'll let us know what he is doing down south!

Dr. Jesse Huttons, in the Department of Veterinary Science at Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana.

Dr. John H. Miller addressed a change of address from Rockland, Maine, to 1511 N. Beck, Dallas 8, Texas.

Robert Akeley of Presque Isle, who is associated with the U. S. Department of Agriculture as a horticulturist gave a talk during the annual Farm and Home Week program at the University during the first week in April entitled "New Varieties of Potatoes." Another class of 1937 man was a participant in the Farm and Home Week program—Beverly Rand of Sherman Milis presided at a meeting of Holstein producers.

1938 Mrs Roland Wurths
(Mary Deering)
1079 Ocean Ave, Portland
Leland and Emme Page have a new daughter, Venene, who was born on March 28, 1938. The Pages live at 47 Waite St, Malden, Mass.

1940 Mrs George C. Grant
(Elmore Savage)
10 Congress St, Augusta
Congratulations to John and Pat Mames on the arrival of their fourth child, Douglas Thornton on May 18th. Youngest of a brother and two sisters. Another bit of good news from the Mames family is that in April John was promoted to the position of Assistant Manager of the Wood Land Department of the Great Northern Paper Co. He is in the Bangor office and they live in Old Town.

Stanley M. Libby, who is principal of Chebeague Island High School, has announced that he will seek nomination as a state senator from Cumberland County on the Democratic ticket. He declared his campaign will be based on "doing what I can to put Maine a little nearer the top than 47th where it now ranks among the states in education." He said he wanted to "provide more and better vocational education opportunity for the youth of Maine.'

John Cameron, formerly with the Health Department in Ann Arbor, Mich, is now with the Bureau of Health and Hospitals, City and County of Denver. He located at West Sixth Ave and Cherokee St, Denver 4.

1942 Mrs Jose Cuartera
(Barbara Savage)
76 Prospect St., Wellelsey Hills, Mass
Bette Barker Kilpatrick is punch hitting for Barbara Savage Cuartera in the writing of this column for this month. The big reason behind it is that Barb has a new daughter, Laura, who was born in May. Laura with her two brothers is keeping Barb pretty busy! Needless to say the Cuartera family was most happy to welcome a young lady into their midst!

Another news item related to our class officers is that Stan Phillips took the big step in May when he married Miss Janet Grant of Chestnut Hill. Mass. Janet is a graduate of Simmons College and Simons School of Social Work. Following a wedding trip to Cape Cod, the Phillips moved into a Beacon Hill apartment in Boston.

Nat Crowley has been appointed athletic director at Deering High in Portland. He has been football coach there for the past year.

The engagement of Romaine Littlefield to Donald H. Kupfer of Los Angeles, California, has been announced. Mr. Kupfer is a graduate of California Institute of Technology. He is the holder of an Arts degree from the University of California in Los Angeles as well as a Ph.D. from Yale. Both served in World War II and both are employed as geologists with the United States Geological Survey. They plan to live in Southern California.

Bob Lunn has taken a new position with the Mechanical Division staff of Arthur D. Little, Inc., electrical and industrial research and engineering firm of Cambridge, Mass.

Doris Emery Spencer really made me drool telling the following tale. Frank has with Dana and Peg Brown Bunker, as well as Jo (Clark) and Mert Melson. So many of our class have settled in the Boston vicinity Janet (McFarland) and Jerry Law, who live in Chelsea, visited the Spencer's recently; and Joyce McLean Mahler (Mrs. Lloyd) lives at 134 Jaffrey St., F. Weymouth, Mass.

The Arno Shepardsons' (Ruth Stearns) recently new address is a move to a seven room house. Ruthie says it seems wonderful after a small apartment, but they are getting homesick for Maine. Anna is waiting for a house in which to live. Perhaps they will be warmly welcomed.

Barbie Atherton Case is another who says that other places suit, but she does miss the Maine ocean. Bob, Athy, and Billy (now 10 months old) are living at 1411 Conant Ave, Burlington, Idaho. Somehow it seems as though Bob will move to Idaho to work for a Potato Growers' Association.

Mrs. A. D. Gamber (Tea Dumas) 1141-D Holland St., Crum Lynne, Pa.

Recently Mrs. Joseph B. Chaplin (Vir- gina Tufts) of Lewiston, attended the National Convention of Young Women's Christian Associations in Chicago as a delegate from the Lewiston-Auburn W. C. A.

Word has been received from Belgium that young Smee's husband was killed in an automobile accident in April. They have two children, a boy and a girl.

Truly I've heard a few stories this month Doris (Stickney) and Bob And- erson were exhibiting their wares at the York County Teachers' meeting in Boston and they recently held a wedding followed by an evening reception at the home of Miss Gladys Frey (Mrs. Raymond Logan) of Lewiston. The newlyweds will make their home in Colorado at the present of their honeymoon, they are now in Maine and serving as principal and science teacher at Berwick High. The Groom is the niece of a baby boy—name unknown!

Also from the Andersons at another "country" school, I learned that Bob Danforth is teaching and coaching at Higgins Classical Institute.

I have heard that Doris Anderson won an RCA- Victor table radio for writing a slogan for Radio Station WCOU in Lewiston.

We spent Easter at the Gamber's farm near Front Royal, Virginia. The scenery was beautiful.

Frances R Moore of 37 Franklin St., Marblehead, Mass, has changed her resi- dence to 2 East St., Ipswich, Mass. Wish would be in touch with you, Frances, to see New England in the spring.

Lt. and Mrs. (Vivian Halsey) Willard Johns who were recently in Fort Knox can be reached by mail c/o W. B. Hays, 1 PO, Box 573, West Hampton, N. Y.

President "Gene" Emerson is now at 40 Russell St. in Poston, Mass. How are things with you, Gene?

Albert Povich, who received his law degree from Georgetown University in 1930, is now serving as assistant corporation counsel in the District of Columbia Government. In March, the engagement of Doris Mae Levy of 1318 Tewksbury Place, Washington, D. C., to Albert was announced. Doris and her parents are in the University of Maryland where she is majoring in English.

We have received the reunion of Lt. Storer S. Parsons ("Tate" to us) his wife, Elaine, and their daughter, Linda Marie, as they returned to Bangor after a month travel on the patrol frigate, USA Gloucester, along the Korean coast and Japan. "Tate," who returned to active duty after a short ref-resher course, will now be assigned to a destroyer in Atlantic waters.

Now that we opened this column we have so many new addresses—how about you very people we've written about dropping me a note about your new surroundings, jobs, etc!

Fortune Hunters

The first quarter of the 19th century saw a speculative fever sweeping into Portland from the larger cities. Money was plentiful and the town's inhabitants were easy prey to the smooth, glib offerers of a new group of men staking the land—the get-rich quick schemers. Tall hat and tail coat was the chosen costume (until then the badge of utmost respectability) of these men, who were dedicated to parting dollars from their rightful owners. They were convincing talkers and impressed the unsophisticated citizens with their probity and sincerity. Fortunes were made—and lost—innate caution and common sense were abandoned in the hysteria of the times.

One story of early Portland relates how such a schemer persuaded some of the town citizens to join in a plan to produce silver from dew. After their initial investment (for a survey), they were informed that the dew at Freeport was particularly suited to the purpose. Consequently, the investors, with great secrecy and difficulty, brought them several quarts of the laboriously gathered liquid. Poured into a great cauldron hung over a roaring fire, this was brought to boiling. After much anxious watching the schemer finally, with great regret, told them something was wrong—the silver did not materialize. Seriously he questioned the investors, and finally learned that the dew had not been gathered at exactly midnight and only midnight gathered dew would work. Back they went the next night and were enough, when the fresh dew was boiled, there in the bottom of the cauldron were gleaming pellets of silver!

With this proof of the workability of his plan the schemer had little difficulty getting additional investors who in turn gathered midnight dew (always at Freeport) and were rewarded with little silver pellets. Visions of quick wealth brought in more and more investors and all were happy.

Until, one morning, the schemer could not be found. He—and their money—had disappeared. Then, unbelievably for the first time, the little pellets were examined closely. On several of them fragments of Spanish words were engraved, and slowly the truth emerged. Thousands of Portland dollars had been exchanged for a handful of broken up Spanish coins!...
