Long Live Berwick, Long Live B. A.!

IMELDA E. GOYETTE

PIANO

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand features a series of chords and melodic lines, while the left hand provides a rhythmic accompaniment with eighth notes. The music is in a key with two flats and common time.

1. In the east or in the west, Of the State we love the best,
2. Thru her halls of fame and hon - or, We have made our friend - ship fond - er,

The first two lines of the song are set to a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is on a single staff, and the piano accompaniment is on two staves. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the left hand and chords in the right hand.

From its shores tho we may trav - el We'll nev - er find a place so full Of Tho' the years may come and go, The chil - dren of to - day and mor - row Shall

The third and fourth lines of the song continue the vocal and piano accompaniment. The piano part includes a poco cresc. marking. The vocal line continues with the lyrics.

mem - ries ev - er fond and true As our B. A. the ban - ner of white and blue! ev - er shout Hail all hail, To our Al - ma Ma - ter, to our own B. A.

The fifth and sixth lines of the song conclude the piece. The piano part features a ff (fortissimo) dynamic and a cresc. marking. The vocal line ends with a final note on a whole note.

CHORUS

Long live our Ber - wick, long live B. A. Shine ev - er on - - ward thru years of fame For your ban - ner will al - way stain - less be And we'll al - ways fight for your glo -

Rah! Rah! Rah! Ruh!
ry! — In the bat - tle you may win or lose, We'll al - ways give a glad cheer for you, As our hearts are ev - er with you night and day Long live Berwick! Long live our own B.

A. — Ber - wick! Long live our own B. A.
