It is difficult to write a definition of the American way. But it is easy to find good examples. Here is one:

It is not impossible to believe that a young man could only see into the future and read what would happen to him in business, he'd be mighty enthusiastic about his first job.

"I want to be where my best talents can be used. I need to polish those talents—not just by schooling, but by new learning at my work. I don't want to be blocked or 'lost' in the crowd. I want to work with people who know more than I do and have new responsibilities waiting for me if I succeed in my first work."

We'd like to say right here that any company worth its salt has exactly that job prescription written for the future of the young men it hires.

Some of our knottiest problems have been unraveled by young men. To be sure, they have had the counsel of older experts to hurry their success. But isn't that what a young man wants?

- At General Electric, for example, in the fields of jet engines and electronics, gray hair is scarce. In one division the average age is 29 among the 767 engineers working on such things as gyroscopic gunsights, autopilots for jet fighters, missile batteries, guided missiles.

- Working on atomic power for submarines and atomic power for planes is a group of research associates, research assistants and engineers, averaging less than 34 years of age.

- Three young men in their twenties designed General Electric's first large-scale reactor to produce that new chemical prodigy, silicones. And they received the Company's top award for outstanding achievement.

- One thing we do know—when we take trained young men and supply them with an experienced organization and planning, then put at their disposal our resources and manufacturing know-how, the results surprise even the young men themselves.

The speed with which America's young scientists and engineers are developed will in large measure determine the rate of America's future progress.

(A new booklet has just been published: "This is General Electric." In it we describe the methods we use for channeling talented young men into the new fields that are constantly being created by the ever-widening uses for electricity. For a copy, address General Electric, Room 123-2, Schenectady, N. Y.)

50 Years Is A Long Time ...

H. V. Sheahan '03

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The brief address made by Harold V. Sheahan '03 on behalf of the Golden Reunion Class of 1903 during the Alumni Luncheon at Commencement last June was so well received, and brought such favorable comment, that your editor wishes to share it with alumni who were not present.)

For the Class of 1903
By Harold V. Sheahan

Fifty years is a long time. It's a good deal longer to look ahead to than to look back upon. When we were students at the University, our future or foresight looked long—our history, or hindsight was short. Today all that has been reversed. Our foresight is short, and our hindsight is long. And one can be very sad if he looks in the wrong direction. So, let's be glad and talk about hindsight. It has been said that old folks live in the past. That being so, let's thank the Good Lord for giving us a long past in which to live—and what if it did take parts of two centuries and three University Presidents to get us through this institution. We made it, and it was worth it.

Do you realize that there were no automobiles, no airplanes, no radios or television, and no deep freezes until after we got out of college and went to work? To put it in the language of last fall, "You never had it so good" until after we graduated.

Star Days

That was a long time ago—so long that at that time only two days in the week had been given names, Saturday and Sunday. The other five days were designated by stars, single and double star days, alternating. The only way you could tell them apart was whether you had math at 10:00 A.M. or at 2:30 P.M. To make it easier for you to understand—if today was a "single-star day" and it was Tuesday, a week from today would be Wednesday.

When we were here, the college was so small that all the "coeds" lived at the Mount Vernon House—and the young professors lived there too. What a racket!

We have seen our baseball team coached, part time, by an Old Town Indian, a one time big league player.

We were here when Maine beat Bowdoin in football for the first time in history.

In those olden days, Monday mornings when the roll was called to see who went to church on Sunday, we did not hide behind the Fifth Amendment. We just lied and said "present."

The Maine Spirit

We were here before the Stein Song. We never knew Rudy Vallee who sang it. In fact, when we were wearing caps and gowns, Rudy Vallee was wearing safety pins. No, we never knew Rudy Vallee. But we did know Lincoln Colcord, the boy who wrote the Stein Song. He wrote it for the love of his University. He contributed something to this University, and, in return, he took something away with him—that "Maine Spirit." Others have contributed much in athletics, in music, and in many other prominent ways. They, too, have received in return. But I think of that great crowd of students through the years, who, by their simple loyalty to the right, their integrity, their love of fair play, and their sincerity of purpose, have made the University of Maine what it is today. For it is they who have created this so-called "Maine Spirit." It's not in the bricks and mortar of these buildings. It's in the hearts of men and women. It's what brought you and I here today.

It's a "hand-me-down." Upper classmen gave it to us when we came here, and we, in turn, have handed it down to those who came after us.

As I have roamed around the campus these two days, seen these fine buildings and equipment, met old friends, and made new ones, I think of the story of the Creation as it is written in the Bible. Each paragraph closes with these words, "And God saw that it was good." If He sees through our eyes, and I believe He does, then today He must surely see that it is good—down here.

I did not intend to bring my personal feelings in here. But I have seen so much, and the past has come back to me so vividly, that you will have to pardon me for doing so.

The photo above will vividly bring to the minds of many alumni Bangor's Great Fire of 1911. The photo was made available by Walter Maddison '13 of Lynn, Mass.

OCTOBER, 1953
Freshman Week - 1953

The 86th College year opened with the now traditional Freshman Week Program on campus. Freshman Week, 1953, opened on September 17 and closed on September 22, and was under the able direction of Professor Matthew McNairy.

Freshman Week, an orientation period for first-year students, now generally scheduled by colleges and universities throughout the country, is believed to have originated at the University of Maine campus in 1923.

The orientation program this year included various academic tests, health examinations, social affairs, and "get-acquainted" activities.

The freshman class, numbering about 925, was divided for programming purposes into 40 divisions of approximately 25 each. Student leaders, who are members of the Skulls, Owls, All-Maine Women, and Eagles, were assigned to dormitory units and assisted throughout the program.

The freshmen met together for the first time for supper Thursday evening, September 17, in Memorial Gymnasium. Janice Griswold, Walpole, Mass., and Gorham Hussey, Presque Isle, were the upperclass student leaders in charge of the program.

Registration took place in the Women’s Gymnasium on Friday, September 18.

President Arthur A. Hauck extended a welcome to the first-year students Friday evening at an assembly in Memorial Gymnasium.

Orientation meetings and program conferences took place on Saturday. In the evening, a freshman "mixer" was held in the Memorial Gymnasium. The program was in charge of student leaders, Mark Cohen, Lewiston, Davis Wigg, Oakland, Grace Libby, Bar Harbor, Hiram Bronson, York Harbor, Richard Griswold, Walpole, Mass., and Miss Eileen Cassidy, faculty adviser.

Religious services were scheduled for Sunday morning. The Rev. Elwin L. Wilson directed Main Christian Association Services in the Women’s Gymnasium and students also attended local churches. Additional orientation meetings were held on Sunday afternoon including sessions with the dean of men and the dean of women. In the evening a "sing" was conducted in the Women’s Gymnasium. Upperclass students in charge included Norma Jose, Waterville, Norland Roux, Lewiston, and Margaret Flint, Augusta.

President and Mrs. Hauck held a reception for the freshmen on Monday evening.

Tests during the week included psychological examinations and reading comprehension tests. A music qualifying test was required of first-year students planning to take voice or instrumental music lessons. French, orientation, and adjustment tests were also scheduled.

Each freshman week division had a one-hour discussion meeting with its faculty section leader and an upperclass student leader. The committee in charge was Mark Lieberman, Bangor, Nancy Gentile, Auburn, Dean John Stewart, and Dean Edith Wilson.

Chest X-rays and health examinations were also part of the program.

Other meetings provided information about physical education and athletics, use of the library, and faculty advisers.

Recreational activities were arranged, and college songs and cheers introduced.

An information booth was erected and staffed with student leaders Mary Renfro, Stillwater, and Nicholas Khoury, Bangor, in charge.

Open house for freshman students was held in the Memorial Union and dormitories after evening meetings on September 17 and 18. Arrangements were in charge of student leaders Ruth Bartlett, Naples, Paul Marcoux, Lewiston, and Nelson Jones, director of the Memorial Union Building.

Upperclass and transfer students registered on September 21-22, and classes for all students started on September 23.

99TH COMMENCEMENT

On August 14, the 99th Commencement of the University was held with 44 bachelor's degrees, 54 master's degrees, and one honorary degree being awarded.

Dr. Rufus C. Harris, president of Tulane University, New Orleans, was the commencement speaker and was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws during the exercises.

Rabbi Milton H. Elefant, Director of the Hillel Foundation for Jewish students at the University, offered the prayer. Candidates for degrees were presented by the Deans of the colleges and the degrees were conferred by President Hauck.

In his address Dr. Harris said that the great issue of the United States in this decade is the preservation of individual liberty. He added that contemporary forces are seeking to create conditions of distrust of the thoughtful man.

"A person of independent thought seems to be an undeserved person," he told the summer graduating class.

The Tulane educator stated that the freedom to differ, to hold a contrary point of view, the freedom to reject any party line including the accepted or orthodox view is the freedom universities cherish most.

"This is the most real and vital new responsibility of this generation of college graduates, the responsibility of re-asserting and protecting this freedom to differ."

New Faces and Faculty Promotions

The 1953-1954 college year marks the 86th year of the University of Maine and finds nearly as many promotions as appointments in the faculty. Two well-known department heads of the College of Arts and Sciences have received promotions to Full Professors. Dr. Wofford G. Gardner is Head of the Speech Department. His A.B. degree is from Southwestern College and his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Northwestern University. Dr. Gardner joined the Maine faculty in 1946. Vincent A. Hartgen is the Head of the Art Department. Professor Hartgen's B.F.A. and M.F.A. degrees are from the University of Pennsylvania, and he has been at Maine since 1946.

New Faculty

New appointments have been made at the University as follows:

Agriculture: A new Agricultural Extension Editor has been named in the person of Edwin H. Bates. He has graduated from Maine in '37 with a B.S. degree. Mr. Bates has been employed by the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture as Fieldman, Purchase Representative, and Program Specialist. Earle E. Gavett is to be the Acting Assistant in Agricultural Economics. He holds a B.S. degree from Maine in '52 and was previously a Vocational Agriculture Instructor at Weare High School in New Hampshire. Arling C. Hazlett has been appointed Extension Economist in Marketing for the Agricultural Extension Service. Mr. Hazlett received his B.S. degree from Alfred University and an M.S. degree from Penn State in '50. For the past three years he has been employed by the Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers, Inc., in their sales and service department. In Home Economics, Miss Mary J. Hitchcock becomes an Assistant Professor. She holds a B.S. and master's degrees from Drexel Institute of Technology in Philadelphia. Miss Hitchcock has served as an Instructor at Beaver College and the University of Maine, and as Assistant Professor and Dietitian at the University of Delaware. In Agricultural Engineering, David H. Huntington will be an Assistant Professor and also Assistant Agricultural Engineer at the Agricultural Experiment Station. Mr. Huntington was graduated from Cornell University with a B.S. and M.S. degrees and is expected to receive his Ph.D. there in September. He has served as a teacher of agriculture in Pine Bush, N.Y., graduate assistant in Agricultural Engineering at Cornell, and assistant county 4-H Club Agent in Osego County, N.Y. Raino K. Lanson becomes Assistant Poultry Husbandman at the Agricultural Experiment Station. Mr. Lanson received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the Univ. of Massachusetts and is working for his doctorate at Rutgers. He has been a teacher of agriculture in schools of Mass. and Vermont, Associate Professor of Poultry Husbandry at the National Agricultural College, Poultry Husbandman for the Eastern States Experiment Station in Ellington, Conn., and feeds research worker for the Eastern States Farmers Cooperative. Dr. E. Howard Moore, Jr., has been named Assistant Professor of Agricultural Economics and Farm Management and also will serve as Assistant Agricultural Economist in the Agricultural Experiment Station. Dr. Moore holds a B.S. degree from Oregon State, an M.S. degree from Purdue and received his doctorate from Michigan State in August. He has held graduate research assistantships at Purdue and Michigan State. As Daily Specialist at the Agricultural Extension Service is Norman R. Ness, a graduate of Maine in '38 with a B.S. degree. Mr. Ness worked for the Eastern States Farmers' Exchange and for the past 10 years has been the Franklin County Agent. Dr. Richard F. Saunders will be Assistant Agricultural Economist and Assistant Professor of Agricultural Economics and Farm Management. He holds a B.S. degree from Maine; M.S. and Ph.D. degrees from Cornell. He has been a graduate assistant in the Agricultural Department at Cornell. At the Agricultural Experiment Station Miss Eleanore E. Thim will be an Assistant in Nutrition. She holds a B.S. and M.S. degrees from Cornell and has been doing report and statistical work for N.Y.S. Extension Dept. at Cornell.

Arts and Sciences: In English, George B. Abbe has been named an Instructor. Mr. Abbe has a B.A. from New Hampshire and his Master's from the Univ. of Iowa. He has served as an Instructor at Mt. Holyoke and Yale, Assistant Professor at the Univ. of Pittsburgh and Wayne Univ., and Lecturer at Columbia. As a free lance writer, he is the author of four novels and two books of poetry, as well as contributing articles to several leading magazines. Lewis E. Weeks, Jr., will also serve as Instructor in English. He has a B.A. degree from Colby College and an M.A. degree from Brown University. Mr. Weeks instructed at Jonesport High School and Gettysburg College. Recently he was doing graduate study at Boston University. In Zoology, Dr. Alfred B. Chaet is to be an Instructor. His B.S. and M.S. degrees are from the Univ. of Massachusetts and his doctorate from the Univ of Pennsylvania. He served as a laboratory assistant in mammalian physiology at the Univ. of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, where he previously was a research assistant. In Mathematics, Joseph S. Dinsmore, Jr., will serve as Instructor. Mr. Dinsmore has served as an Instructor at Hampden Academy and the Univ. of Maine. He has a B.A. degree from Maine and a master's degree from North Carolina State College. Donald Allen Kearns will serve as instructor in Mathematics and Astronomy; he has received a B.S. degree from U.C.L.A. in '47 and an M.A. degree from Brown University in '50. He has served as Instructor and then as Assistant Professor of Mathematics and Physics at Merrimack College. In Physics, Gerald S. Harmon will serve as instructor. Mr. Harmon holds a B.A. degree from Maine and has worked as an electronic engineer for the Federal Telecommunication Laboratories at Nutley, N.J. In Speech, Miss Suzanne Pooley is to be an Instructor.

Humanitarian Marine . . .

(EDITOR'S NOTE. The humanitarian efforts of Milton Stone '51 on behalf of Korean orphans as described in the following letter from his father, George L. Stone, to Mrs Paul McNabb (Mary Belle Tufts), Secretary of the Class of 1951, will be read with pride and much interest by Maine alumni of all classes.)

Mrs Paul McNabb
23 Bennoch Street
Orono, Maine
Dear Mrs McNabb:

I am writing to you for my son, Milton Stone, whom I am sure has been too busy to keep the college informed of his whereabouts for almost three years.

A former Marine, veteran of the Pacific, World War II, he entered your class at Brunswick and completed two years at Maine. About to enter his junior year, he was called back to the Marines in the summer due to the Korean trouble. He was sent to Quantico, Virginia, and back to his former job of radio communications, operator, teletypist, code man, in the Marine Air Corps. He was sent to Behlitz University of Languages and was enrolled in Russian. This was in addition to his regular duties at Quantico.

He was proficient in French and a fair linguist in Japanese, having studied Japanese at a Marine Corps School at Yokosuka during occupation. With a keen ear for languages he did well in Russian until he was suddenly shipped to Korea.

Here he was attached to the famous Marine Air Group 12 which was featured in a magazine article in the Ladies' Home Journal under title of Operation Kid Life.

He supported his air group 12 in the famous July Bombing of the Korean Power Plants and the wiping out of these units for which he and his unit received a Presidential Citation.

After locating at Pyontack near Seoul, he and two other Marine Sgts were picked, as extra duty, to teach democracy in evening classes at Pyontack High School. He taught also a class in English. At the same time he enrolled in an advanced Japanese class. Most of the class dwindled to three finally due to casualties and death of the enrolees.

In his work of public relations with the Koreans at Pyontack, he and his two associates were able to promote good will. Ever conscious of the Korean orphans and waifs, for they were everywhere, he met Mrs Lee Gi Iem, an elderly widow who had organized a crude shelter for some fifteen orphans with her own funds as she once was considered wealthy. In a conference with her, she agreed to head an orphanage, which was built by voluntary contributions from the 1200 men of air group 12, and legal adoption papers drawn up. Food was secured, land was bought for farming, clothes were sent from Marines' homes in the States, and the Korean orphanage took care of a sizeable brood. The Marines really became attached to the kids. It was the only bright spot in a pretty drab existence.

When Sgt Stone left a banquet by the Pyontack Chamber of Commerce featured in his honor was held with a dinner of sour sweet pork, kimchi, (the breath of a nation), and ceremonial wives. But most of all, saying good-bye to the kids and Mrs Lee Gi Iem, the elderly widow of the orphanage, was the saddest of occasions. All this was the result of the work of the three sergeants who had been appointed by the commanding officer for the base, with a free hand to do what seemed best for the promotion of democracy.

At the same time, Sgt Stone was communications chief of the center with new untrained draftees from the States to teach and indoctrinate.

A few flights to Japan and an occasional five days rest there enabled Sgt. Stone to use his Japanese Language.

Returning home safely in November, '52, he was sent to Cherry Point Air Base, North Carolina, where he now is in charge of communications radio, etc., center and is teaching classes of draftees. He is very busy and has not been home since November. He was accepted for Officers Candidate School but declined. He hopes to be released by September in time to continue his education.

Here are a couple of pictures if you wish to use them. I didn't know but this might be good material for Alumni News or Bulletin and at Homecoming the information could be of some interest to his old classmates who have wondered as to what became of him.

Sincerely,

GEORGE L. STONE

Attends European Conference—

Miss Estelle Nason '22, Home Demonstration Agent Leader of the Extension Service, attended the eighth International Congress on Home Economics at Edinburgh, Scotland, during the summer.

Miss Nason was the only official delegate from the USDA extension service, and one of only five official representatives of the American Home Economics Association.

"As We Do Now"

In the year 1903, a young senior wrote the history of his class to be published in the "Prism" of that year. After he had chronicled all the important events of those four hectic years, and sensing the fact that in a very short time, his classmates would be widely scattered around the country, he tried to penetrate the Iron Curtain of the future and leave some thought or suggestion for his classmates for the years to come. Today, that same senior, now older grown, and living in a future that he could not possibly conceive when he was a senior, again looking for some word for his classmates to take away with them, does not try to search the future, but rather goes back into the past, and quotes for you those words that he wrote in the Class History so many, many years ago "Wherever we go, whatever we do, may we always love and respect Old Maine as we do now."

After all these years, the only comment I have to make on those words is to say—CHECK!

THE MAINE ALUMNUS
SUMMER SESSION

One thousand teachers, school administrators, and students from many states attended the University’s 1953 Summer Session which closed in mid-August. During their stay on the Maine campus, these Summer Session students took part in workshops and institutes, heard noted national educators, participated in excursions and week end parties and attended musical and dramatic events.

More than 160 courses were available to the students. These courses were given by 48 resident faculty members and 32 visiting faculty members, many of whom are nationally known in their fields. Dean Mark Shibles, head of the University’s School of Education and director of its General Extension Service, served as director of the Summer Session.

Summer Session students were given the opportunity of hearing lectures by several noted national educators. These outstanding speakers included Dr. Esther McGinnis, professor of Family Life Education at Ohio State University, Dr. Oscar Chute, superintendent of schools for Evanston, Ill., Dr. Roma Gans, professor of education at Teachers College of Columbia University; Dr. Thomas L. Hopkins, professor of education, Horace-Mann Lincoln Institute of Columbia University; Dr. Carl J. Weber, professor of English at Colby College, Mrs. Mildred Schrumf ’25, newspaper columnist on food, Dr. Ellis Hartford, professor of education, University of Kentucky; Miss L. Gertrude Nygren, New York State College of Home Economics; Dr. Louis E. Raths, professor of education at New York University, Dr. Wilbert Snow, professor of English at Wesleyan University; Dr. Charles F. Phillips, president of Bates College; and Dr. Harms Harms, professor of education at Capital University.

Summer Session came to a close on August 14 with special summer commencement exercises. Commencement speaker was Dr. Rufus G Harris, president of Tulane University.

The “Stein Song” scored a hit with the Head-Hunters of the Amazon, reports Lewis Cotlow, New York insurance man, in his book, Amazon Head-Hunters, recently published by Henry Holt & Company.

Mr. Cotlow, on a trip into the Amazon jungles, reports that, when playing a hand-cranked phonograph for the Indian Chief, he showed particular delight at Rudy Vallee’s record of our own “Maine Stein Song.”

President of Johns Hopkins

A Maine alumnus, long in the top ranks of the nation’s educators, has been named president of Johns Hopkins University. Dr. Lowell J. Reed ’07, was named to that high post effective September 1st.

It was only last June, that Dr. Reed’s retirement as vice president of Johns Hopkins was announced. A matter of weeks later, Dr. Detley W. Bronk, president of Johns Hopkins, offered his resignation to accept the presidency of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research. Dr. Reed was asked to return to the University as its president.

Nationally and internationally known in the field of biostatistics, Dr. Reed has been on the staff of Johns Hopkins since 1918. A native of Berlin, N. H., he returned to the University of Maine, following his 1907 graduation, to receive his master’s degree in 1912. He took his doctorate at the University of Pennsylvania in 1915. Dr. Reed then returned to Orono to teach mathematics and physics at Maine from 1915 to 1917. He served a year (1917) as head of the wartime Bureau of Tabulations and Statistics for the War Trade Board in Washington.

Appointed assistant professor of biostatistics at Johns Hopkins School of Hygiene and Public Health in 1918, he became professor and head of the department in 1925. He held the position of dean and director of the school from 1937 until 1947, when he was named vice president of both Johns Hopkins University and Johns Hopkins Hospital.

With Raymond Pearl, also a former member of the University of Maine faculty, Dr. Reed developed the Pearl-Reed Growth Curve which has enabled scientists to predict epidemics more easily.

In appointing Dr. Reed to his new position, Carlyle Barton, president of the Johns Hopkins Board of Trustees, said: “We consider the University fortunate to have a man of Dr. Reed’s ability, so fully familiar with the current plans of the University and willing to devote his energies to their advancement.”

Dues Committee

In announcing the 1953-54 Alumni Dues Committee, General Alumni Association President, George E. Lord ’24, expressed the hope that the alumni body would support the new committee in the same grand manner in which they responded to the appeals of the 1952-53 Dues Committee.

Named chairman of the 1953-54 Dues Committee was James A. Gannett ’08, who retired in August after 40 years service as Registrar of the University. Named to the committee with Mr. Gannett were George Ginsberg ’21, Thomas Horsey ’34, Philip Parsons ’34, and Elizabeth Reid ’41.

The dues for the Association for the coming year is $22,700.

Mr. Lord and retiring President Myron C. Peabody ’16 expressed their appreciation to the 1952-53 Dues Committee for the outstanding job which was done last year. Special appreciation is expressed to Charles E. Crossland ’17 who has chaired the Committee for three years. Those who served with Mr. Crossland last year were Mrs. Mary Kavanagh ’14, Thomas Mangan ’16, Robert Parks ’29, Winthrop Libby ’32, and Robert Perti ’46.

The 1952-53 Alumni Dues Campaign was the most successful in recent years. 5,047 alumni paid dues during the year, including 674 members of the Class of 1952 who paid special “first-year-out” dues. In the previous year, 4,801 alumni paid dues.

In accepting the chairmanship of the new Dues Committee, Mr. Gannett urged all alumni to send their dues in at an early date. He points out that hundreds of dollars in printing and postage expense can be saved for better use in Association programs if alumni who will pay dues before the close of the year will send their dues in this fall.
Introducing to members of the alumni body who were unable to attend the Annual Meeting of the General Alumni Association in June—your new officers for 1953-54:

Two University of Maine alumni, J. L. Ober '13 and Theodore W. Prescott '33, have been largely responsible for the presentation of one of the hit programs now appearing on TV. The program, "My Little Margie," is sponsored by the Scott Paper Company and appears on the NBC network each Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. In the Bangor area, the program appears on WABI-TV on Monday nights at 7 o'clock. Mr. Ober is vice president and Mr. Prescott is assistant advertising manager of the Scott Paper Company. Both are very active in the University of Maine Pulp and Paper Foundation.
53rd HOMECOMING

PRESIDENT HAUCK has appointed Francis S. McGuire '31 Chairman of the 1953 Alumni-Faculty-Student Homecoming Committee. The following have been appointed to serve on the Committee with Mr. McGuire: Philip Brockway '31, T. S. Curtis '23, Kenneth Fobes '49, Prof. Vincent Hartgen, Nelson Jones, Prof. Matthew McNeary, Velma Oliver '25, Winston Pullen '41, William Wells '31, Robert Worrick '43, Norman Brochu '56, Gorham Hussey '34, Norma Jose '54, Margaret Mollison '50, and Don Taverner '45.

The Homecoming Committee promises all alumni that the 53rd Annual Homecoming to be held on November 6-7 will be packed with activity and entertainment for all. Needless to say, the highlight of the two-day Homecoming will be the varsity football game between Maine and Bowdoin. Still smarting from last year's trimming at the hands of the Bowdoin squad, "Westy" Westerman's Black Bears are out to reverse the situation in 1953!

Homecoming Luncheon

The Bowdoin-Maine game on Saturday will be preceded by the traditional Homecoming Luncheon in Memorial Gym. Alumni attending this popular Luncheon will witness the presentation of the 1953 Black Bear Awards to be given for "devotion and loyalty to the high ideals of the University of Maine." The grand football Team of 1928 will be honored at the Homecoming Luncheon. This 1928 team was New England Champions and tied with Colby for the state championship. They were defeated only by Yale. It is anticipated that a good number from the '28 team will be on campus to receive the well-deserved tribute.

Maine Masque

The popularity of the Maine Masque Theatre's productions during the last two Homecomings has been so great, that "Standing Room Only" has become the watchword for those who neglect to make advance reservations. The Masque will present another play this year with performances on both the Friday and Saturday evenings of Homecoming. Prof. Herschel Bricker announces that this year's Homecoming play will be selected on the basis of its appropriateness to the occasion. Prof. Bricker promises a presentation which will be fully enjoyed by all attending alumni. Alumni are urged to make reservations early.

Homecoming activities will get under way with a tremendous "Beat Bowdoin" Rally and Bonfire on Friday evening.

The "M" Club will hold its annual meeting following the Rally, and activities of both recreation and relaxation are being arranged for alumni and guests in Memorial Gym and the new Memorial Union. Throughout Homecoming, the new Memorial Union will be open with its splendid facilities available to all alumni.

As a prelude to the Bowdoin-Maine scrap, alumni and students will test their physical prowess on Saturday morning when the Freshman women will meet their Sophomore sisters in a hockey match to determine whether Freshman girls' hats "remain in vogue" or are doffed permanently. The alumnae will meet the undergraduate women in a field hockey match following the girls' Frosh-Soph game. Meanwhile, the Freshman boys will be straining "might and main" against their Sophomore overlords in an all-out effort to earn the right to discard their "beanies."

Social Events

Fraternities and dormitories will enthusiastically compete against one another in the Homecoming Decoration Contest. Winners will be announced between the halves of the Bowdoin game.

Following Saturday afternoon's football game, opportunities will be available for alumni, faculty, students and friends to warm themselves with hot coffee and refreshments, and the Memorial Union plans an Open House directly following the game.

An opportunity will be offered alumni to revisit with old faculty friends, at "Coffees" in the Memorial Union on Saturday morning.

Black Bear Award

A highlight of the Faculty-Alumni Homecoming Luncheon preceding the Bowdoin game on November 7 will be the awarding of the Fourth Annual Black Bear Awards. Presented in "recognition and appreciation of outstanding service in promoting University spirit," the award was originated by the General Alumni Association in 1950.

A Black Bear mounted on a Maine granite base with sterling silver inscription plate forms the award. The bear is cast in bronze from a model exclusively sculptured for the Alumni Association by the noted Providence sculptor, Aristo B. Cianforani. The granite bases have been contributed by Robert McGuire '32 of the Deer Isle Granite Corporation.

Selection of recipients of the award is made by an Association committee from nominations made by alumni. The award is not restricted to alumni, and faculty and administrative members or friends of the University are eligible. Anyone who has received the Alumni Service Emblem, the highest Association award, is not eligible for the Black Bear Award.

Among the points considered in making the award are: 1—devotion to the aims of the University; 2—exemplification of the ideals of the University in personal life; 3—length and quality of service to the University or Alumni Association; 4—standing among alumni.

Those who have received the award in the past are: 1950—President Arthur A. Hauck and Alfred B. Lingley '20; 1951—J. Larcom Ober '13, Clifford Patch '11, and Miss Addie M. Weed; 1952—John C. Sealey, Jr., '36 and Stanley Wallace.

THE MAINE ALUMNUS 9 OCTOBER, 1953
Named B.U. Dean—

Dr. W. Linwood Chase ’20, has been named Dean of Boston University’s School of Education, B. U. President, Harold C. Case has announced.

Dean Chase joined the Boston University faculty in 1928 and was Professor of Education before being appointed Dean. Following his graduation from Maine, a master’s degree and a doctorate from Columbia, Dean Chase enjoyed a distinguished career in education. He served as an elementary school principal and superintendent of schools in Maine and Massachusetts, taught at the Horace Mann School in New York City, and for five years was headmaster of the Newton Country Day School for Boys. Dean Chase has many honorary and professional affiliations and has authored many professional articles and texts.

FSTC President—

Erno H. Scott ’31 has been named president of Farmington State Teachers College. It has been announced by Earle N. Vickery ’06, Chairman of the State Board of Education.

Mr. Scott received his master’s degree from Maine in 1936 and has served as State Deputy Commissioner of Education for the past five years. He has served as vice-principal at Eastern States Normal School, Castine, as director of the University College Apprentice Teaching Program at New York University, and president of Castleton (Vt.) State Teachers College.

Director of Research—

Dr. George W. Ellis ’41 has been appointed by the Committee of New England as Director of Research to supervise completion of the committee’s studies of New England economy.

Dr. Ellis is industrial economist with the Federal Reserve Bank. A native of Orono, and son of the late Dr. Milton Ellis, Head of the University’s English Department, he received his master’s and doctor’s degrees from Harvard.

The Committee of New England was formed by the National Planning Association at the request of the Congressional Joint Committee on the Economic Report.

Fund Honors Dean Jordan—

A Harvey H. Jordan Award Fund has been presented to the University of Illinois honoring Harvey H. Jordan ’10, Associate Dean of Illinois University’s College of Engineering.

At the presentation, Dean and Mrs. Jordan were honored at a dinner attended by 285 persons, including a college friend, Professor Raymond Davis ’11 of the University of California. Dean Jordan retired last month after 42 years of service to the University of Illinois.

Superior Court Justice—

In August, Cecil J. Siddall ’17L of Sanford became the eighth member of Maine’s Superior Court. Justice Siddall headed the American Legion in the state in 1941 and during World War II was appointed to the State Military Defense Commission by Gov. Summer Sewall.

Honored by Holland—

E. D. Merrill ’98, Arnold Professor of Botany, Emeritus, Harvard, was made a Foreign Member of the Koninklijke Nederlandse Akademie van Wetenschappen at its headquarters in Amsterdam during the summer.

Receives Award of Merit—

Everett G. Ham ’16, technical director of the John A. Manning Paper Company of Troy, N. Y., was one of ten leaders from all industries to receive the award of merit of the American Society for Testing Materials during the summer. The award was presented for outstanding contributions to the field of engineering materials.

Retires from Alcoa—

C. L. Lyceette ’11, assistant secretary of Aluminum Company of America, has retired after 40 years with Alcoa. Starting as a draftsman with Alcoa, Mr. Lyceette rose through many key positions to assistant secretary in 1931. He was elected a director of The Insurance Buyers of Pittsburgh in 1945.

Named Plant Manager—

Stanley W. Campbell ’21 has been named Manager of the South Gate Plant of the Armstrong Cork Company. The South Gate Plant is located in California. Mr. Campbell joined the Armstrong organization in 1924 and has served the company in several key positions.

Appointed Purchasing Agent—

James L. Robertson, Jr. ’32 has been appointed Purchasing Agent at the General Offices of the Campbell Soup Company.

He joined the Campbell Company in 1938 as a Foreman in the Warehouse, later joining the Purchasing Department. Prior to his promotion, he was serving as Assistant Purchasing Agent at the firm’s Camden plant.

B&A Promotes Three—

Three Maine alumni have received key promotions from the Bangor and Aroostook Railroad. These alumni are W. Jerome Strout ’29, Vaughan L. Ladd ’24, and R. H. Morrison ’36.

Mr. Strout has been made general manager—operations. Previously mechanical superintendent and chief engineer, he joined the company in 1926.

Mr. Ladd becomes mechanical superintendent. He joined the B&A in 1924, and has been a mechanical engineer and superintendent of shops. Prior to this latest promotion, he was manager for contract work.

Mr. Morrison is now chief engineer. He entered the employ of the B&A in 1940, and has been assistant chief engineer. Previously, he served as superintendent of bridges and principal assistant engineer.

NEW MEN’S DORM

Construction of a new men’s dormitory at the University of Maine will start next spring. Dr. Arthur A. Hauck, president of the University, has announced.

Alonzo J. Hartman, Inc., Auburn architects, are working out final plans for the building, which will be located at the north end of the campus and form a quadrangle with the present Oak, Hannibal Hamlin, Dunn, and Corbett Halls.

Construction will get under way early in the spring of 1954. It is expected the structure will be ready for occupancy about January, 1955.

The last session of the Maine legislature appropriated $400,000 for the new dormitory and authorized the university to borrow an additional $400,000 for the construction and furnishing of the building.

The four-story brick building is being designed to accommodate about 250 men. When it is completed the university will be able to move 250 students from temporary dormitories which have served as non-permanent housing units since the last war. The North Dormitories, barracks-type structures, were moved in sections to the Maine campus from South Portland where they had been used to house defense workers.

The old frame building known to older alumni as old Estabrooke Hall, which was used by the Student Religious Association, has been torn down to make room for the new men’s dormitory. The S.R.A. offices are now located in the Memorial Union.
Lewiston-Auburn Alumnae—
The Annual Meeting of the Lewiston-Auburn Alumnae Association was held on May 28 at the Wooster House in Hallowell. This was a banquet meeting with officers for the coming year elected.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. David Griffin '47; Vice President, Mrs. Gilbert Stanford '35; Secretary-Treasurer, Nancy Pike '52; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Otto Wallingford '45.

Boston Black Bear Club—
The Black Bear Club of Greater Boston met on June 30 at the Engineers Club in Boston, with President Henry Turner '22 presiding. Following dinner and a social hour, the group held a business meeting and re-elected their officers. Don Taverner '43, alumni secretary, was present and spoke informally to the group on the 1953 Commencement and Reunions.

Rockland County, N.Y. Alumni—
The Alumni Picnic held by the Rockland County, New York, and Northern New Jersey Alumni early last summer found alumni traveling long distances to attend. Among the large group present were representatives of many older classes, as well as future alumni in the form of many small children. Charles Pidacks '44, President of the Rockland County group, points out that the "youngest alumnus" present was Raymond Brown '72, son of Carl '41 and Nellie '43 Brown.

Oxford County Alumni—
On August 26th, the Oxford County Alumni met in Norway with over 100 alumni from all sections of the county attending. Alden Chase '12 served as Toastmaster following a splendid buffet supper, and introduced the many guests from the University and the General Alumni Association. Feature speaker of the evening was President Hauck who discussed recent developments at the University. Also present and speaking were George E. Lord '24, President of the General Alumni Association; Myron C. Peabody '16, Past-President of the Association; Dan Chase '07, representing the Greater New York Alumni Association; Don Taverner '43, Alumni Secretary; and Margaret Mollison '50, newly appointed Assistant Alumni Secretary.

A good program of entertainment was enjoyed, and an orchestra played for the enjoyment of the attending alumni. The group voted to officially organize and to hold a second meeting in the fall.

Maine Teachers Alumni—
The Maine Teachers Alumni attending the University’s Summer Session held a dinner meeting on the campus in August.

The Local ASSOCIATIONS

Feature speaker at this pleasant affair was Frank G. Fellows '36 who gave an informative and humorous talk on "Whoever Came from Maine." Charles O’Connor '31 served as toastmaster.

Guests present and introduced were Dean Mark Shibles of the School of Education and Alumni Secretaries Don Taverner '43 and Margaret Mollison '50.

Washington, D. C. Alumni—
Guests at an informal luncheon of the Washington Alumni during the summer were Alumni Secretaries Don Taverner '43 and Margaret Mollison '50 "Maggie" and "Don." were in Washington for the National Conference of the American Alumni Council and took advantage of the opportunity to meet with the alumni and discuss recent campus developments.

Lewiston-Auburn Alumnae—
As this issue goes to press, plans have been announced for the first fall meeting of the Lewiston-Auburn Alumnae. This meeting was held on September 14 at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Stanford '35. A complete report on this meeting will be carried in a later issue.

Boston Alumni—
The Boston Alumni held their Annual Sports Night on September 23 at the MIT Faculty Club in Cambridge. Members of the North Shore Alumni Association and the Black Bear Club of Boston were invited to the meeting.

Leading Boston sports activities were represented at the meeting and Samuel Sezak '31, Freshman Football Coach at the University, discussed this year's football season and the team. A more complete account of this Sports Night will be included in a later issue.

Black Bear Club of Rhode Island—
The Black Bear Club of Rhode Island met on September 25 at the home of Carl Brugge '18 in Pawtucket.

Program and activity plans for the coming season were discussed. Guests and informal speakers at this meeting were Dr. Rome Rankin, Director of Athletics at the University, and Don Taverner '43, Alumni Secretary.

Western New York Alumni—
The spring meeting of the Western New York Alumni was held in the form of a Maine Lobster and Clam Picnic in Lancaster, New York.

An enjoyable afternoon was made even more pleasant for the attending alumni and their families through the excellent work of the "chef," Dick Smith '48.

With the FACULTY

Assistant to Dean—
Herbert N. Wood, Jr., has been appointed assistant to the dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, Joseph Murray ‘25, it was announced prior to the opening of the school year.

An assistant professor of government, Mr. Wood joined the Maine faculty in 1950. He succeeds James A. Harmon ‘40, who was appointed University Registrar upon the retirement of James A. Gannett ‘08. The new dean’s assistant received his bachelor’s and master’s degrees from American University, and his Ph.D. from Columbia.

Foundation Secretary—
James A. Gannett ‘08, who retired as University Registrar in August, has been appointed resident secretary of the University’s Pulp and Paper Foundation, J. Lareom Ober ‘13, president of the Foundation, has announced.

In his new office at 305 New Engineering Building, Mr. Gannett will play a vital role in assisting the Foundation with its programs.

Visiting Professor at Indiana—
Dr. Ronald B. Levinson, professor of philosophy, will serve as visiting professor of philosophy at Indiana University during the second semester of this academic year. Two years ago, Dr. Levinson gave the Powell Lectures at Indiana University.

In 1951, he gave a series of four lectures entitled “In Defense of Plato” at Indiana.

Chairman of Important Committee—
Dr. Frank C. Foster, professor of education, has been named chairman of an important committee of the Joint Council on Economic Education. This committee is the Committee on Supervision and Curriculum Development.

Dr. Foster attended a meeting of the Committee at Riverside School in New York City in August, where a workshop in economic education has been in progress. A workshop in the same field was held at the University this summer as a part of the Summer Session program.

Receives Fulbright Grant—
Dr. John J. Noble, assistant professor of history and government, will be in the British Crown Colony of Hongkong during the academic year 1953-54 for study and research under a Fulbright grant which he has been awarded.

He will be associated with the University of Hongkong, and plans an investigation into Chinese anti-foreign disturbances in and around Canton, China, during the years 1842-1856 and the effect those disturbances had upon Anglo-Chinese relations.

Attends Denver Conference—
Theodore Curtis ‘23, Faculty Manager of Athletics, attended a meeting of the National Ski Rules Committee of the NCAA in Denver, Colorado, during the summer.

Mr. Curtis is an eastern member of the five-man committee and attended the important meeting under sponsorship of the NCAA.

At Jackson Laboratory—
Dr. Jacob Berg, instructor of psychology, was one of twenty-four scientists from twenty-four colleges and research centers who took part in the Roscoe B. Jackson Memorial Laboratory’s annual summer study program at Bar Harbor.

The study centered on those fields of biological and experimental medicine which emphasize genetics.

Homecoming
alumni will make their annual trek to the “Old House” for reunions and to engage in “bull sessions” with their undergrad brothers about “the good ole’ days.” Most fraternities plan special events for the week end.

First Homecoming
Credit for the idea of Homecoming at Maine should go to Dr. O. F. Lewis, professor of German, who in the early years foresaw the value of stimulating enthusiasm for important State Series games, and at the same time, bring alumni and students together. He was instrumental in bringing about the first “Maine Night” which was held in the old gymnasium and chapel and saw more than 700 gather. “Homecoming” in the form it is known today began in 1931.

Each succeeding Homecoming seems to be larger in numbers and enthusiasm. Alumni are urged to make plans early and to send reservations in as soon as they are available from the Homecoming Announcement Bulletin which will be sent to all alumni in the northeast early in October.

Faculty
Columbia Univ., Faculty of Political Science doing advanced work EDUCATION: Clarence O. Bergeson has been appointed Assistant Professor of Education and Director of Audio-Visual Service. Mr. Bergeson holds a B.A. degree from Gustavus Adolphus College and an M.A. degree from the Univ. of Minn. He has taught in schools of Minnesota and Wisconsin, been Director of Audio-Visual Education at Macalester College, and part-time Instructor at Teachers College, Columbia Univ., where he is currently doing graduate work. Alex M. Coughran is to be Assistant Professor of Education. He has received an A.B. degree from Drury College and an M.Ed. from the Univ. of Missouri. He has taught in schools in Missouri, supervised the Reading Clinic and served as Instructor of Psychology at the Univ. of Missouri.

TECHNOLOGY: W. Civil Engineering Oscar D. Bostick has been named as Instructor. He was graduated from Maine with a B.S. degree and has done graduate work at Maine. He has been employed by the Maine State Highway Commission.

Chenical Engineering John F. Gorham will be an instructor. Mr. Gorham was graduated from Maine and received his M.S. degree from Maine.

New Extension Editor—
Edwin H. Bates ’37 has been appointed editor of the Agricultural Extension Service of the University to succeed Clarence Day ‘2811 who retired after more than 40 years of extension work.

The new extension editor has worked closely with the extension service and the extension editors for several years since he has held key positions with the Production and Marketing Administration of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Take 2000-mile Tour—
Three University faculty members, two of them members of the Agricultural Experiment Station staff, took a 2000-mile tour early in September to gather information on apple production and to attend the meeting of the American Institute of Biological Sciences at Madison, Wisconsin.

The trip will take Dr. Franklin Eggert, head of the Department of Horticulture, Dr. Merle Hillbom, plant pathologist, and Frank Owen, Extension Service fruit specialist, through apple producing areas of New York, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois.
THE MAIN AlUMNUS 13 OCTOBER, 1953

FOUNATION INCORPORATES

J. L. Ober '13, vice president of the Scott Paper Company, Chester, Pa., and former chairman of the executive committee of the University of Maine Pulp and Paper Foundation, was elected president of the Foundation at a recent meeting during which the Foundation became incorporated in the State of Maine.

Other officers of the Foundation named at the time of its incorporation were as follows: W. E. Parsons '11, president of the Keyes Fibre Company, Waterville, vice president; F. A. Soderberg '25, vice president of F. C. Huyck and Sons, Rensselaer, N. Y., vice president; H. W. Fales '35, vice president of St. Croix Paper Company, Woodland, secretary, and R. A. Wilkins '19, vice president of Bird and Son, Inc., East Walpole, Mass., treasurer.

Ten directors were named for the Foundation They were P. S. Bolton '13, research and technical director, Robert Gair Company, Inc., Uncasville, Conn., A. S. Campbell, dean of the College of Technology: E. H. Clapp, president of Penobscot Chemical Fibre Company, Great Works, R. W. Davis '11, president of the University's board of trustees, Arthur A. Hauck, president of the University; Harold Holdren, president of the Eastern Corporation, Bangor E. P. Ingalls '15, vice president of the S. D. Warren Company, Cumberland Mills, L. C. Jenness '25A, head of the department of chemical engineering, T. G. Mangan '16, manager of the International Paper Company, Livermore Falls, and M. C. McDonald, president of the Great Northern Paper Company, Bangor.

The Foundation was created in 1950 "to further the study of pulp and paper at the University of Maine."

Its six main objectives are as follows:

1. To interest students in preparing for careers in the pulp and paper industry.

2. To provide financial assistance in the form of loans, grants, and scholarships for students who plan to enter the pulp and paper industry.

3. To assist in developing a curriculum of advanced study which will attract students and men from business who may become leaders in the operational phase of the pulp and paper industry.

4. To encourage promising students to elect a curriculum emphasizing operational management.

5. To help augment the staff in pulp and paper instruction with highly qualified personnel.

6. To advance fundamental and applied research for the pulp and paper and allied industries.

At the present time, 53 companies and 154 individuals have subscribed to the Foundation.

TWO GENERAL EXTENSION CENTERS

The General Extension Division of the University will operate two Extension Centers this year, one in Portland and the second on the campus at Orono.

Fourteen courses, designed primarily for teachers and school administrators, will be given at the Portland Center in Portland High School, and 15 courses will be given at the University in Orono. Although the courses are designed primarily for school people, others may enroll. Courses at the Portland Center will be given on Friday evenings and Saturday mornings, while courses at Orono will be given only on Saturday mornings. Registration in Portland was held on September 18 and 19, and in Orono on September 19.

This will be the first year that an Extension Center has been operated in Portland. Previously the courses had been given on the campus in Orono or in various communities throughout Maine. The Extension Division will continue to give courses in Maine communities and at Orono, but the Portland Center will "fill a long felt need," Dean Mark R. Shibles, director of the General Extension Division, said.

Veterans wishing to use the benefits of the GI or Korean Bill in enrolling for the courses can do so by making arrangements through the University's Office of Veterans' Education.

Academic credit may be secured on an undergraduate or graduate basis, under ordinary circumstances, for courses taken at the centers.

Courses offered at the Portland Center are as follows: Teaching Social Studies in the Elementary School, Teaching Geography in the Secondary School, Group Guidance Techniques and Materials, Principles and Techniques of Counseling, School Organization and Administration, Newer Practices in Art Education, two courses in Child Development, History of

From its inception, the Foundation has made possible the new five-year undergraduate college program in pulp and paper management. This course is open to all undergraduates studying engineering and forestry, and combines the regular undergraduate courses in these fields with specialized instruction in pulp and paper operations, economics, and business management.

The Pulp and Paper Foundation has made available $1,200 student grants which defray a large part of the cost of the fifth year of the five-year curriculum.

In addition, the Foundation provides tuition scholarships for qualified students in forestry or engineering, who intend to enter the pulp and paper industry, or its allied industries.

FORESTRY'S 50th PULP AND PAPER'S 40th

The University will observe the 50th anniversary of the founding of its forestry department and the 40th anniversary of the establishment of its courses in pulp and paper on October 1-3.

A University convocation, several technical sessions, activity reports, and addresses by several national authorities are included on the joint programs. The third annual Open House of the University of Maine Pulp and Paper Foundation will be held in conjunction with the anniversary activities.

The forestry department's golden anniversary program will begin on Thursday afternoon, October 1. Dr. Arthur A. Hauck, president of the University, will welcome alumni, and Dean Arthur L. Deering '12, of the College of Agriculture, will tell of forestry at the University. Professor Robert I. Ashman, head of the forestry department, will give a history of forestry at the University and introduce present faculty members. This will be followed by a roll-call of classes. A banquet will be held in the evening.

The forestry and pulp and paper groups will join for a University convocation on Friday morning.

"The Role of Forestry in the Development and Future of Maine" will be the theme of a series of technical sessions for forestry people on Friday. A speaker in the field of wildlife conservation will address the group on Friday evening.

After the University convocation, members of the Pulp and Paper Foundation and their guests will hold a luncheon at Estabrooke Hall. In the afternoon, a report of Foundation activities will be presented at a meeting in the Union Building. A dinner is scheduled at Lucerne Inn.

Field and inspection trips are listed for the forestry group on Saturday morning, and informal visits to the engineering laboratories are scheduled for the pulp and paper people at that time.

In the afternoon, both groups will be guests at the Vermont-Maine football game.

Maine, Psychology of Adolescence, Introduction to Speech Correction, Speech for Teachers, Shakespeare's Earlier Writings, and the American Language.

At the Orono Center, the following courses will be given: American Painting, Remedial Reading, Use of Standard Tests in School, The Community School, The English Bible, Recent Writers of Maine, History of the West, Psychology of Adolescence, Mental Hygiene, Child Welfare, Marriage, Theatre Appreciation, Introduction to Radio and Television, Speech for Teachers, and Seminar in Methods of Teaching.
ranks is Don Douglas of Lisbon Falls who will bear watching. Veteran Joe Mawson may be a key man in the season's plans although Red Cyr of Saco will assist him a great deal. Erv Bickford of Lisbon Falls, Kevin Cadieux of Acushnet, Mass., and Jim Holland of Washington complete the group of centers.

This year will undoubtedly find left half back Ed Bogdanovich one of the key men for the Black Bears. Besides offering tricky power running, Bogdanovich, who handled seven touchdowns last year, will do much of the punting and part of the passing, along with Steve Novick, 172 pound quarterback hailing from East Walpole, Mass. Calenda and McCann will run out of the right half slot while Mahar, a real promisier from Mechanic Fallsfills in behind Bogdanovich.

"No one knows what will happen under the single platoon plan, but I want to play as many men as possible," Westerman said. "Of course, I plan to field the best eleven. There is only one man back who played both ways last year. He is Tommy Golden."

Since the opposition will be tougher this year than usual, the changing of the one-way players into two-way grinders will be no easy task. Although all other coaches are in the same predicament, Westerman, with his small squad of 43 candidates, several of whom played no football in high school, will have a difficult time. For the past two years, Maine held the best defensive record in the Yankee Conference but much of the defense this year will have to be sacrificed under the single system of substitution.

The morale of the men is good; however, much of the fate of the Bears depends upon the opening game with Rhode Island. All in all, Westerman believes that the team will make a respectable showing this season.

"I don't mean we will win all our game by any means but we hope to look good, at least," Westerman remarked.

Homecoming

The big event of the football season for alumni and friends will be the Homecoming game—this year with Bowdoin on November 7. Bowdoin, 1952 State Series winner, trounced Maine last year at Brunswick with a major 33-14 defeat. This year, in spite of the Pale Blue's difficulties, the Bowdoin-Maine game will be one of the year's major events.

CROSS COUNTRY

Coach Chester (Chet) Jenkins' varsity cross country team is looking forward this year to improving last season's record. Last year, Jenkins' varsity thimclads whipped New Brunswick 20-41, but suffered defeats at the hands of New Hampshire 24-31 and Springfield 19-36. They finished fifth in the Yankee Conference meet, ninth in the NFICAA and eleventh in the ICAAAA.

Jenkins should receive a big boost from a top-notch Freshman cross-country team, which took second place in the New England and copped sixth spot in the Freshman NCIAAA.

Expected back this year from last season's varsity are Dave Dearing, John

He was a member of Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity. Surviving are his wife, Mary L. Murray, a son, Thomas A., Jr., Maine '47, a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Pease, Maine '52, three brothers, Dr. William S., Maine '21, Dean Joseph M., Maine '25.

EDWARD EVERETT CHASE '13

Friends and alumni of the University of Maine were shocked by the tragic and untimely death of Edward E. Chase who was caused by a private plane crash on August 2, 1953. He was returning from the 50th Connecticut Regiment reunion in Pennsylvania with William Tudor Gardner, former Governor of Maine and owner of the plane, and Edwin S. Burt of Portland, a business executive, when the accident occurred in which all three were killed. During World War II he served in France as a Second Lieutenant in the Army. As an investment broker Mr. Chase was president of The Maine Securities Company in Portland, Maine. His State Legislative record included five terms in the House and he was serving his first term as Senator. Mr. Chase had long been an active alumnus of the University as a member of the Alumni Council and as vice president of the General Alumni Association. From 1929 until 1948 he served as a Trustee of the University of Maine and was President of the Board of Trustees from 1936 to 1948. His service of eighteen years as a trustee is one of the longest in the history of the University. The coveted Alumni Service Emblem, the highest honor bestowed by the General Alumni Association, was awarded to him in 1953 for his many valued services to the University. Mr. Chase's interest in and service over the past forty years has had a direct influence on the University's progress.

Following this tour of duty, he entered the University; after graduation he re-entered the Army and was ordered to Korea on June 1, 1952. Surviving besides his mother are seven brothers and one sister. Mr. Morneault lived in Lille, Maine, prior to his enlistment in the Army.

Due to space limitations some Necrology listings normally appearing in this issue will appear in November.

BY CLASSES

1890. We were pleased to have in our midst at the June Reunion three members of the nineteenth class matriculate at the University. Fred Quincy and George Gould were proud Bangor hosts to their classmate Allen C. Hardison, W. Main St., Santa Paula, Calif. It is also of interest to note that they were fraternity brothers of Phi Gamma Delta. Mr. Quincy was employed at the office of auditor in the New Jersey, keeping the Class of 1890 well represented.

1895. Out in sunny California Melville F. Rollins has moved from Puente to 330 East Francis St., Apt. #2, La Habra, Calif. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity.

Mr. Harold S. Boardman of 172 Main St., Orono, is now located at Hancock Point, Maine.

1897. The Springfield, Mass., newspaper carried a picture and write-up of Marcus Urann of Main Street, Hanson, Mass. As a member of the founding chapter of Phi Kappa Phi at the University of Wisconsin in 1897, Mr. Urann was guest speaker at the spring initiation of Phi Kappa Phi at the University of Massachusetts. He discussed the aims and early halochastic honor society. Mr. Urann is president of the National Cranberry Association.

1900. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sargent of 324 North Main St., Brewer, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in June. Mr. Sargent, a law grad, has practiced law in Brewer until his retirement several years ago. Included in a letter from J. O. Whitcomb of 5424 Alvarado Place, N.E., Albuquerque, N. M., was the news that they were moving into a splendid new brick home and found that three doors away were H. A. Spavin '38 and his wife '37 (Frances Austin).

Mr. George O. Hamlin of 30 Fifth Ave., New York 11, N. Y., summers in Boothbay Harbor, Maine. Not a bad idea to catch the ocean breeze during the heat waves of August.

1901. We have to journey southward to find Clement Whitmer of Searsport, Maine. He is presently at Delray Beach, Fla., Box 1436.

1902. Miss Edith M. Buzzell of Old Town would appreciate notes from you folks. She is presently on Brnnoch Rd., c/o Irene Hothem, Grosvenor, granddauh of William E. Barrows, Professor Emeritus of Electrical Engineering of the Univ. of Maine, is spending Maine in the freshman class this fall. Mr. Barrows is in No. Windham, Maine, until Oct. 1, and then he journeys southward to 3763 1st Ave., No. St. Petersburg, Fla. Ann's mother and father are both Maine grads, as are 3 aunts, 2 uncles, and 3 cousins.

1903. Your Alumni Office wishes to correct an error of omission made in June. The June Alumni did not include the name of Silas Small among the list of "03ers" who returned for the Golden Reunion. Mr. Small was very prominent, and this office wishes to offer apologies.

During July the Lewiston-Auburn newspaper carried an article of George L. Freeman, retired consulting engineer, in a column entitled "Who's Who." Mr. Freeman says, "I am enjoying my farm and my old home at West Gray. I was born here, and my grandparents lived here; I expect to enjoy life here for 25 or 30 more years at least." Classmates know of many of his prominent engineering feats including the San Francisco Oakland Bay Bridge. John H. Hilliard can be reached at Canaan, New York. He was previously in the law business in New York.

1904. Notification that Arthur E. Davenport is now at Brimfield, Mass., has come into the Alumni Office. Mr. Davenport is a retired electrical engineer.

1905. On June 30, 1953, Benjamin M. Cowan, Vice President and Construction Mgr., Stone & Webster Engineering Corporation, 49 Water St., Boston, Mass., retired after 47 years service with that company. He states that his present plan is to continue his residence at 437 Commercial Street, Weymouth, Mass.

Roy E. Taylor reports that he retired as Signal Engineer for the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad on Sept. 30, 1952. This concluded 46 years service with that company, the last 10 years as Signal Engineer. He's at 45 Washington Manor, West Haven 16, Conn.

We have recent locations for three other class members:

Samuel B. Lincoln resides at 69 Putnam Park, Greenwich, Conn.
Prentiss E. French can be found in Easton Center, N. H.

Across the border at 18 Lawson St., Edmundston, N. B., Canada, lives Frank O. White.

1906. Mr. Earle R. Richards 11 Parent St., So. Berwick The Alumni Office is pleased to report that he is presently from your Class Secretary and you can find him at South Berwick after spending the summer months at Cold Stream Pond, Enfield, Maine.
Robert F. Olds resides at 1819 N. Hollister St., Arlington, Va. He is a retired engineer. We thank him for information received from him which he sends to the Bureau of Statistics in Washington.

1907 Mr. Karl MacDonald, 27 Nelson Ave., Wellesley, N. Y.

Edward B. Burnham who has been missing from the Alumni Files for a long time, has been located at 4477 Gratwick Avenue, Port Huron, Mich. It is reported he is in very poor health.

Caleb E. S. Burns and wife of Lihue, Kauai, Hawaii, spent a couple of months vacationing in British Columbia this summer.

Classmates and their wives, within approximately 50 miles of Searspoint, held a "little reunion" at Kibb's Lobster Pound, Searspoint, on July 25th. Present were Lucius Barrows, Ben Connell, Bill Hall, Horace Keirstead, Emmon Lambe, Karl MacDonald, Percy Wyman and Ben Williams. A total of 15 enjoyed a good time and a shore or chicken dinner. Frank White of Vinalhaven could not come. Dick Tabbott was away for ten weeks at Cornell University. Dick, as some of you may not know, retired last June.

Lowell H. Reed, vice president of Johns Hopkins University, retired the last day of June. The latter part of July the trustees recalled him to take over the presidency. We are proud to number Lowell as a member of the class of 1907 and hope he is with us at our 50th anniversary reunion in 1957.

1908 Last May Leslie W. Sargent retired from the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard in Portsmouth, N. H. This marked 35 years of service as a mechanical engineer and he retired as Associate Engre. The Sargents are at New Castle, N. H., PO Box 57.

Everett C. Coleman is a western resident at Box 713, San Clemente, Calif. Mail will reach Stanley T. Hilliard at 102 P Street, Providence, R.I.

Capt. Louis V. Witherell has been located at 47 Everett St., Arlington, Mass. Roydon L. Hammond is located in Washington, D. C., at 4917-44th Street, N.W.

Levi B. Thomas is living at 32 Bush Street, Skowhegan. His daughter Edith was graduated from the University in 1938. She is now Mrs. Ralph D. Sanborn. Ralph is a graduate in the class of 1939.

Bernard I. (Pat) Collins is with the Pibrico Company and lives at North Bay, Ontario. He writes that he and Mrs. Collins are looking forward to the 50th in 1958.

1909 The Chemistry department of the Univ. of Maine held a dinner at the University Inn last May to honor Professor Bertrand F. Brann who retired from teaching in June. Professor Brann has had the distinction of having worked with each of the department heads of the Chemistry Dept., since its inception under Professor A. B. Aubert. The Brans are living in Portland. S. Arthur Paul of Portland, Norwegian vice consul for Maine, was guest speaker at the Sunday noon luncheon in June of the Maine Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club annual convention at the Samoset Hotel, Rockland.

The retirement of George H. Brimmer as freight traffic manager of the B & A Railroad company was announced last spring. Brimmer had been with the company for more than 43 years. Mr. and Mrs. Brimmer reside at 24 Holvoste St. in Brewer.

1910 Nathan H. Wells has changed his residence from 99 Boyd Road, Portsmouth, N. H., to 22 Wyman Ave., Kittery, Maine.

Lester M. Bragg returned to Stockton Springs, Maine, from Costa Rica, where he had been employed as a field and office engineer.

1911 Dean Harry Poole Burden of Tufts Engineering School received an honorary degree at the recent Tufts college commencement in Medford, Mass.

1912 A member of the '12 Class was selected as speaker at the University of Maine Memorial Day exercises in May. The speaker was Atty James L. Boyle, adjutant of the Maine American Legion. The Boys are at home at 4 Bartlett St., Waterville.

1913 Mr. R. T. Huntington of 55 Galway Place, Brooklyn, New York.

The University of Maine Pulp and Paper Foundation has been incorporated this summer. At the recent election of officers, J. Laconomer, Vice Pres and Director of the Scott Paper Co. in Chester, Pa., was elected president. Mr. Ober's residence is Chateau Crillon, Philadelphia, Pa.

1914 From the Univ. of New Hampshire Alumni we gather the information on the retirement of Prof. Edward L. Getchell in June. He completed 36 years in the Dept of Electrical Engineering at U. of N. H. The Getchells reside at 18 Rand Blvd., Durham, N. H.

Arthur C. Libby is a consulting Civil Engineer at Winthrop, Maine. We welcomed him back at the June Reunion after many years since his last visit to the campus.

Announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Ruth Fogg Perkins of Auburn, Me., and Roy W. Pease was published in July. Roy is general manager of the Merrimack Farmers' Exchange. The couple will be at home at 60 Bow Bog Rd., Concord, N. H.

1915 Miss Ava H. Chadbourne was a recent visitor in the Alumni Office. Currently her address is 36A Third St., Bangor, Maine. We were all so proud to know that the latest women's dormitory at the University was named in her honor as Chadbourne Hall in July.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Creighton of Florasota Gardens, 822 Hudson Dr., Sarasota, Fl., spent the summer in Friendship, Maine.

Mrs. Mary E. Wescott (Mary Ellen Willard) is a bookseller at the Gunroom Bookshop, North Castine, Maine.

Miss E. Elizabeth Barkley is a teacher of biology and lives at 2209 South Austin Blvd., Cicero, Ill. She has received two degrees since attending Maine. B.S. from U of Illinois in 1921 and M.S. from U of Chicago in 1940.

1916 Mrs. Evelyn W. Harmon (Evelyn Winship) of Livermoor Falls, Dear Clasmates,

I am back in Maine for a while with my one and only daughter, my son-in-law, and three very lively and very interesting grandchildren, David, aged 7, Niane 10, Ralph 9. I came home just after the Fourth having spent seven months with my sister, Rachel Winship Hall, '15, and my brother-in-law, Pres. W. M. Hall '15, in Silver Spring, Maryland. Life is rather hectic here, and sometimes quite noisy—for instance, when one of the younger boys is practicing his music lesson on the piano in the living room and the older one is practising on his clarinet in the kitchen, while Grandma is getting out the household dishes. My one and only claim to distinction in a class of many distinguished members is that of being a grandmother. Speaking of distinguished members, I would like to mention that at Commencement last June, Thomas G. Mangan, manager of the International Paper Company here in Livernoor Falls, has acceded the Alumni Service Emblem, and was elected Vice President of the Alumni Association. We are very proud of this member of our class.

We were pleased to find Sibyl Russell Smith is teaching Home Economics at Washington High, Washington Depot, Conn.

A very fine letter came to the Alumni Office from Prof. C. E. Libby of the School of Forestry, Nova Scotia College, Rawleigh, N. Carolina. He wrote that during the past year, he had found two Maine graduates who were working for their degrees there in the School of Forestry. They are Leroy Francis Rand of New Gloucester, Maine, and David F. Woodworth of Holden, Mass. He also wrote that he was slowly getting used to a Southern temperature of 90 degrees minimum and 105 degrees maximum, and expected to be a true Southerner in another ten years. His home address is 1430 Brooks Ave., Rawleigh, N. Carolina.

We would like to extend a cordial welcome to our new Assistant Alumni Secretary, Margaret M. Mollison, and wish her much success in her undertaking. I am sorry to have no news for our first column this fall. I was foolish enough to allow myself to get rather ill, so was unable to check out the usual number of requests for news. I trust you will cooperate with me again this year, and send me news of your activities, families, interests, and homes.

1917 Many teachers of the Whitman Mass., School Department have compiled fine records of continuous service. Among those mentioned during July was Charles W. Backus, Principal, who has been in Whitman for 31 years. His residence is at 373 Main St., Hanson, Mass.
Elizabeth Mason Bright is living at 48 Park St., Brookline, Mass.

1918 Loring M. Tapley was sworn in last spring as Republican registrar for Hartford, Conn. His up-levies live at 26 Morningside St., Hartford, Conn.

E. L. Newdick, long-time chief of the Maine Department of Agriculture Division of Plant Industry, has been elected to Honorary Life Membership in the Potato Association of America for outstanding contributions to the advancement of the potato industry. Mr. and Mrs. Newdick live at 21 Lincoln St., Augusta, Maine.

George S. Longley, Jr.’s, home is at 22 East Lane, Madison, N. J. He is associated with Wheelock & Lovejoy & Co. Inc. in Hillside, N. J. He has been in the steel business ever since he left college. Mr. Francis Head sent along this information in June previous to attending his daughter’s graduation and the 35th Reunion of the Class of 1918. The Heads live at 208 Essex St., Bangor.

1919 Arthur J. Tierney has moved from Patrick, Mass., to 38 Castletow Rd., West Hartford, Conn.

Mrs. Hamlyn N. Robbins (Estelle Spear) informs us that she is a Residence Counselor for Epsilon Rho University, Conn., Storr’s, Conn. In the summer Estelle is at Rt. #1, Scarborough, Me.

Harold M. Pierce has moved from Bangor to Box 67, Woodstock, Vt.

1920 At the opening session of a two-day meeting of the New England county farm agents last May in New London, Conn., Verne Beverly, Aroostook county agent, was given tribute for his thirty years of service.

The Aetna Insurance Group has named John H. Walsh, manager of their burglary and glass department. Mr Walsh has been in this department since 1929.

Stella Powers is a most vital part of the Personal. As linotypist at the University Press, she is responsible for these columns appearing in print. During the Summer Session Stella was the Organist for the Daily Morning Worship Service held weekly in the Little Theatre. Stella also serves as assistant Organist at the Church of Universal Fellowship in Orono. Her home address is 34 Pine Street, Orono.

Col. Walter C. White is now at R.D #2, Gardiner, Maine.

Frank Weston Howard is electrical supervisor at the Boston Naval Shipyard. He and Mrs. Howard ’24 are at 81 Hillsdale Rd., Medfield, Mass.

1921 Mrs. Harold P. Wood (Leta Weymouth) North Berwick

Edward Mack is living at 616 N. Dixon Avenue in Dixon, Illinois. He is associated with the Chicago Manufacturing Co. Inc. of that city, President of the Lions Club, of the Temple in Sterling, Illinois, chairman of the U. J. A., and very active in the Chamber of Commerce. He still finds time each year to serve as chairman of the March of Dimes.

Lydia L. March, who has been principal of Memorial High School, Middleboro, Mass., since 1931, has been elected headmaster of Purnach High School. After graduating from Maine, Lydia received his master’s degree from Columbia in 1923 and also attended University of Washington at Seattle, and Harvard University. His son, Jackson, graduated from Maine in ’51.

William and Barbara (Scott) Baeslack have moved from Pittsburgh, Pa., to Brewer, Maine, and at present are living on Chamberlain Street. Barbara is the daughter of Harold and Doris Scott of Bangor, Maine. "Bill" will be associated with his father-in-law in the insurance business.

We were pleasantly surprised when Roger and Virginia (Averill) Castle called on us one morning on their way home to New York. Virginia’s niece and nephew, Connie and Dick Averill, have made their home with them since the death of their parents. Dick enters Bowdoin this fall; Connie is entering Maine as a freshman. Roger and Virginia live at 1307 Garner Avenue, Schenectady, N. Y.

1922 Mrs. Albert E. Libby (Minnie Norell) 55 Bayview Ave., South Portland

Hello everyone! Your new secretary and pleading! Since college days in those executive twenties, I have lost track, even forgotten names, of many classmates; so I am looking forward to renewing as many contacts as possible for these interesting columns. Surely hope enough of you share my interest so that I am deluged with mail containing bits of news about yourselves and families.

A recent letter from Mabel Thompson (Mrs. Burleigh Lovejoy—Mr. ’20) informs us that another of their four daughters was married last April to a Cornell graduate, now an administrative engineer for a mining concern in Colorado. Their only son, Charles, is enrolled at Northwestern University in the school of speech, being theatrically inclined. The Watermans reside at 131 East Hartsdale Avenue, Hartsdale, N. Y.

Ida Collins (Mrs. Myron E. Watson) promptly gave me an assist with this new job, in writing about her most interesting adventure in the antique business with her daughter Ruth (Mrs. Clark Potter ’51). Myron is executive vice-president and Mgr. of the Life, Accident & Group Dept. of Boit, Dalton & Church of Boston. Their son, Bob, Home Office Rep.

representative of the Group Dept. of Aetna Life Ins. Co. in New Haven, lives in Milford, Conn. with his wife and six year old son.

I learned from a telephone conversation with Gertrude Farmham (daughter of A. Everett Strout) that she teaches evening school regularly and does some daytime substituting. Everett, who is district principal of Portland High, recently received a certificate of appreciation on retiring as chairman of Junior Red Cross activities. Portland Chapter A.R.C., after 22 years of service. He has a hand in other civic projects as well, being on the committee for the Portland Town Hall 1954 series of lectures. Their son Earle, Kappa Sigma, will be a senior at Bowdoin next February. Everett, the older son, is an engineer at American Woolen Co. in Vassalboro. He has a sixteen month old son.

While shopping this spring, met Carl Stevens’s wife Lee, who told me their son, Daniel, is entering Maine this fall, having completed his term with the Armed Services. The Stevens have purchased a home on 125 Frances Street, Portland.

I got the usual uplift, a return to campus always brings, when I attended the commencement in June of my daughter, Anne, and her husband Douglas Kneeland, now with The Worcester Telegram. Their very new baby, Debra Jo, made me a grandmother for the third time in August. Mary Libby ’46 (Mrs. Richard Dresser) has two sons, My son, Richard, ’54, just back from service in Tripoli, is returning to Maine this fall as a freshman. James ’50, also claims Maine as his Alma Mater, but John, the youngest, reported for football practice at Bowdoin today, now being in his sophomore year.

1923 Mrs. Norman Torrey (Toni Gould) 9 Poplar St., Bangor

For those of you who didn’t get back for reunion in June (more’s the pity), here are a few of the items which interested the editors of the Bangor papers and so they may you. Walter “Wow” Wilson made his first return visit to the campus in thirty years, bringing his charming wife with him. They reside at

Mrs. Samuel Sezak

(Edith Thomas)

4 Gabriel St., Orono

Commencement of 1931 at U. of M. graduated the first son or daughter (so we believe) of a member of the class of 1931. William Beecher Smith received his B.S. in Civil Engineering. He is the son of William Hudson Smith who is now Senior Engineer with Sylvan Electrical Products Inc. of Brookville, Pa. The Smiths reside at 97 Maban St. Con- gran was attending being the first class member to graduate a son! If there are any other members who challenge this honor, please let us hear from you.

Those receiving advanced degrees at Commencement was Samuel Sezak. Sam received his Master of Education.

At the Hebron Academy Commence- ment, I was surprised and happy to meet Evelyn Winslow Johnston. Evelyn's son Peter was a graduate and is planning to enter Yale this fall. Her daughter is now at the University of Maine. The John- stons live in Caribou and Evelyn says she spends all of her spare time at golf.

At the annual Honors Societies Banquet held in May at the University at which the six highest ranking freshmen and their high school principals were honored, Scott Rand's son, Scott, Jr., was the representative of group 6 comprising the small schools of the state. Scott, Jr., graduated from Pennell Institute in Gray where the Rands live. Scott, Sr., now an egg dealer associated with C. E. Huse & Son in Gorham.

At the annual meeting of the Maine Home Economics Association held in Portland, May, Charlotte Cleaves Smith, clothing specialist of the Extension Service, was elected president-elect for 1954-55.

Com. Alvin Giffin, U.S.C.G., has as- sumed his duties as chief of engineering division, 8th Coast Guard District. Al entered the Coast Guard immediately after graduating and was assigned aboard the Coast Guard cutter Champlain. Near- ly all of his first 11 years in the Coast Guard were spent at sea. In 1942, he was sent to the Coast Guard Academy as an instructor in engineering and three years later he was transferred to New- foundland where he served as chief of the engineering division on the staff of the commander, North Atlantic Patrol. In 1947 he became commanding officer of the Coast Guard Yard, Baltimore, Md. Remaining there until 1951, he then became chief of the naval engineering, 8th Coast Guard District, New Orleans, La., and held that position until his ap- pointment as chief of the engineering division.

Happy end of the summer to you all!

And here's hoping that you are all well rested and ready to send in lots of news items about yourself and other class members.

One of the most pleasant experiences I had this summer was on August 10 when I attended the Golden Wedding Anniversary party for Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Carbone of Boothbay Harbor, Maine. The party was given by their 7 children, 2 of whom are from our class: Mrs. Josephine Feeney, Psychiatric Social Worker of Vezzie, Maine, and Dr. Frank Carbone, dentist, of Beverly, Mass.

Hazel S. Mead (Mrs. Frank H.) of 106 Grove St., Bangor, has been in charge of the English Dept. at Oak Grove School for Girls at Vassalboro, Maine, and retired last June. When I received this information from the Alumni office, via a directory card, I was quite puzzled and called her on the phone to find out who she was. I had a most pleasant chat with her and learned that she is our own Kay Mead's mother and that she and Kay graduated on the same day from the U. of M. Little publicity was given to this fact, although in 1932 a combination of a mother and daughter graduating from college at the same time was quite unusual.

Mrs. Mead said that she had attended 3 years at Vassar before her marriage and decided later on that she would like to obtain her B.A. degree, so earned it chiefly through study at summer school and through special classes. Although she has officially been retired from Oak Grove School, she is returning to teach there this fall, and in the winter she will go to Mexico City, Mexico, to study Spanish. Mrs. Mead is interested in foreign languages; she has studied French in Paris, France, and in Mexico this winter she will live with a Spanish family so that she might further her knowledge of conversational Spanish. Mail will always reach her through her Bangor address.

Mrs. Mead brought me up to date on her daughter Katherine who is now Mrs. Edward Herrick and lives in Gilmanton, New Hampshire, where she and her husband (U. of M. '30) operate a country store where they "sell everything." They have two sons ages 6 and 12.

The remainder of this month's news has come through the Alumni Office.

Mrs. Charles Bowen (Bertha Warren) lives at 56 Charlestown, Boston, Massa- chusetts.

A newspaper clipping of June 1953 from the Portland Telegram has the pic- ture of a very handsome "feller," Richard W. Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Elliott, West Falmouth, Maine, who has been awarded a four-year Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps college scholar- ship. He will enter Oregon State College this fall.

Chester W. Burris is a senior chemist with the Eastern Gas & Fuel Associates, Everett, Massachusetts (201 Rover St.). His residence address is: Hopkins St., Wilmington, Mass.

1933

Mrs. Winthrop Libby

(Betty Tryon)

14 Spencer St., Orono

I am so glad to have this opportunity to say "Hello" to all you classmates many of whom I haven't seen in twenty years. If you didn't get back for reunion in June, you missed a grand time. The highlight was the class dinner Friday night. We met first in the lobby of the Harrington Club in Bangor and struggled to recognize each other. The noise was terrific. We all agreed, however, that we hadn't changed a bit.

The lovely new Memorial Union made a perfect background for the rest of our reunion activities. Our thanks go to Swen Halgren, his reunion committee, and also retiring class president, Russell Shaw, for getting out such a large group and planning such a good time for us.

There were 58 '33ers in attendance and we just missed winning one of the attendance cups.

John F. Wilson was elected the new class president and plans to start right away stirring up enthusiasm for our 25th. He has, by the way, moved recently to 3000 Southern Blvd., Dayton, Ohio, where he is associated with the Leland Electric Company.

Another enthusiastic '33er is our in- coming vice president, Thomas Desmond. He lives at 43 Garden Road, Wellesley Hills, Mass.
The new custodian of our meager funds is Edwin Giddings, who lives here in Orono on College Heights. The Giddings have one daughter, Sally. A news item informs us that Ed is the new president of one of our local P.T.A.'s.

Blanche Henry is a very staunch '33er and keeps in touch with many of us. She is teaching in New York, but prefers her mail to go to Beechwood St., Thomaston, Maine.

A note from John Farnsworth said he "would much prefer to return to Orono "but was leaving very soon for Japan. He gave his home address as 67 Beach St., So. Portland, Maine.

I saw two sets of 1933ers, such as Bill and Mrs. (Mary Scott) Bratton who came from 7 Lee Terrace, Williamstown, Mass., Dr and Mrs (Eleanor Cushing) Washatt from 441 Talbot St., Rockland, and Bob and Mrs (Elizabeth Barrows) Pendleton from Island Falls, Maine.

Merritta Dunn Anderson said she is teaching in Caribou in her spare time. Her home is in Stockholm, Maine. She sees Alys Grua Parsons about once a year and they stay away all night talking over old times. Alys and her husband run a set of sporting camps accessible only by foot and live there the year around. Her address is Lakewood Camps, Andover, Maine.

An item received about Arthur A. Brown says that he, Mrs. Brown, and their four children, Rachel 11½, Connie 10, Pegay 7, and Richard 3, have moved from Arlington, Va., to 3 Benton St., Wellesley, Mass., where Arthur is engaged in research for Arthur D. Little, Inc., of Cambridge. He received his Ph.D from Princeton University after leaving Maine.

The first column of the new school year is really something. It shows that the Alumni Office hasn't been napping during the summer. I have an envelope full of changes of addresses and returned from lost, etc., here Goes!

Mary Marble Wettergreen is a housewife and is living at 1815 Mt. Auburn Rd., Evansville, Indiana.

Irvine Harvey lives at 2276 22nd St., Wyandotte, Mich.

Ward Fullerton, Construction Management Engineer, Project Program Branch, Civil Works, Office Chief of Engineers. His residence is 3821 Milan Drive, Alexandria, Va.

Frank Nute is living in New Baltimore, N. Y.

Frank Skillin is employed at the Bath Iron Works and his address is R.F.D. #1, Box 102, Wiscasset, Maine.

Howard McCracken is a Librarian salesman for the Librarian Co., Portland. His residence is Torrington Point, Peaks Island.

Mrs. John B. Hodgkin (Ruth Walenta) lives at Box 56, Southampton, Pa.

George Jellison lives in North Sullivan, Me., and is Postal Transportation Clerk with the GPO in Bingham and Calais, Me.

William Davis has the kind of occupation one would expect him to have—he is a Mt. Sunapee State Park Ski Patrol. Bill was married in 1946 and has two sons and three daughters. His residence is Box 38, Newbury, N. H.

Capt. Walter Ludden gives as his business address Engt Ctr., Fort Belvoir, Va. His residence is 4623 Richmond Highway, Alexandria, Va. Listed under occupations are: Capt. U.S. Army and teacher in Fairfax County Schools, Fairfax, Va. The teaching is being done by Mrs. Ludden (Fulil Chase '47).

Otto Pasanen is Senior Civil Engineer, Construction Division (Designer of Water Works and Sewage Works), Metropolitan District Commissioner in Boston, Mass. His residence is Concord Rd., Acton Center, Mass.

Another Maumee—Elizabeth Blethen—now Mrs. Arthur E. Francis is living at 4508 Fordham Lane, College Park, Maryland.

Al Thayer is employed by the Maine State Employment Bureau and lives at 31 State St. Apartments, Portland.

Hope Clark is now Mrs. George A. Satter and she lives at Ardsley on Hudson, N. Y. Hope and I used to dissect the earthworm in Frosh Zoology—many years ago.

John Doyle is a dry goods salesman and his address is 50 47th St., Weehawken, N. J.

Carlton Babbridge graduated from Maine as an engineer, but later became a Baptist minister. His address is 318 North E. St., Lakewood, Oregon.

I am copying this little piece about Wilmot Dow just as it appeared in a newspaper, "The Consistent Senator." "Match this one if you can. Senator Wilmot S. Dow with his automobile registration no. 32, his State Senate locker number is 32 as is his Senate seat number. He has to ride on Route 32 to reach Supreme House House and it is exactly 32 miles from his home. Last week, Mrs. Dow observed her 32nd birthday. So to make it come out right, the Senator started the day with 32 kisses for the Mrs." What to hear it is about some of these so called lost members of our class? May I suggest that you know where you are—if you're married—and any children, etc. How about it?

Mrs. Thomas McGuire (Agnes Crowley) 209 16 1033rd Apt 3-W, New York 25, N. Y.

Hope you all had a wonderful summer and vacation, and that you were in Maine enjoying the breezes during the terrific heat wave.

Congratulations to Kenrick Sparrow who has been named Judge of the Probate Court for Barnstable County, Mass. Kenrick was a Naval Reserve during World War II and was Lieutenant-Commander at the end of the war. After receiving his B.S., in civil engineering from the University of Maine in 1935, he completed a three year law course at the U. of Virginia in 1938. Since 1947 Kenrick has been registered with his active in community affairs and lives with his wife, the former Joan Miller, three sons, aged eight, five, and seven months on the John Kenrick estate in South Orleans, Mass.

In the spring at the All-Maine Women Quaker, Marion Martin was guest speaker. Her topic was "Opportunities and Responsibilities of the College Woman in Today's World."

We haven't had news or addresses for a considerable period of time from some of our '35ers. Thanks to the efforts of the Alumni Office, we can supply a few now.

Don Murphy is now Field Examiner for the Veterans Administration and is living at 44 Russell Street, Manchester, N. H.

Charles Brown is now living at 851 Main Street, South Portland, Me.

Richard Maines is Post Office Clerk and is living at 1505 No San Gabriel Blvd., South San Gabriel, Calif.

Aldverde J. Norton is proprietor of a Boat Yard in Dark Harbor, Maine, and is living at 21 Mountain Street, Camden, Me.

Dr Howard H. Milken is living at 105 Second Street, Hallowell, Maine.

Bob Littlefield is with the Perry Gyroscope Company of Canada, Ltd. His address is at 17 Wenton Rd., Pointe Claire, Quebec, Canada.

John Symonds is with Pratt and Whitney Aircraft of East Hartford, Conn., and is at 530 Wethersfield Avenue in Hartford, Conn.

We have changes of address for: Carl Whitman to 201 Paul Revere Rd., Needham Heights 94, Mass.; George Stinchfield from Key West, Florida, to 42 Center St., Nantucket, Mass., Col. Clayton Townsend to U.S.M.C., Camp Joseph H. Pendleton, Oceanside, Calif.; Kenneth Kembal to Improved Paper Machine Corp., Nashua, N. H. If you hear any of these, let us know whom you met, and all about the '35ers.

1936

Mrs. Edwin P. Webster, Jr. (Phyllis Hamilton) 258 Norway Rd., Bangor

First of all, a great big "thank you" to Margaret Mollison, the new Assistant Alumni Secretary, for getting right on the job and sending us a raft of items for our first fall column. Many of lost alumni people have finally been located.

For many of you, there are just additions to your own lists of names and news, so if you see just your name and address, will you please drop me a card and fill in the other details—also news of any of your '36 friends?

For the following we have a bit more information:

Alphonso Joseph Durette is a supervisor at the San Francisco Naval Shipyard. His address is 423 Fremont Ave., Pacifica, Calif., Sharp Park, Cali.

Gordon Stewart has moved from Old Town to Hogan St., Houlton, Me., where he is Manager of the Eastern Maine Gas Co.

Maurice Duncan is a grocer in Rockland, Me. His address is 156 Main St., Rockland.

Samuel Horwich is a lawyer for the Interstate Commerce Commission. His address is P.O. Box 177, Benjamin Franklin Sta., Washington, D. C.

Brunswick, Maine, is the home of Dr. Madelyn D. Doucette. Her address is Box 440, Brunswick.

Alfred Cox is employed at the A.B.C. Store, 140 B Main St., Spencer, Mass.

Frank Peaslee is Sales Engineer, Wholesale Coal Div., of the D.L.A.W. Corps, Columbus, Ohio. His address is 275 Main St., Whitesboro, N. Y.

Colonel Donald Washington gives his business and residence address as H.A. Infantry School Det. His mail goes to P.O. Box 1899, Fort Benning, Ga.

Mrs. John Connors, nee Mildred Sawyer, is living at 239 Holdien St., Apt. 283, Boston, Mass. The Connors have one child, John Jr., age 6.

Mr. Crossland received a letter from Alumni Office, and forwarded it to me. The address is too few, one David, age 11. They live at 612 Phillips St., Yellow Springs, Ohio.

A.F.E. is a metallurgist at the Materials Lab., Boston, Mass. His name is W. C. Knight.

While on a business trip on the west coast, Alton spent an evening visiting Leonore Dorr Wiley and family. The Worcesters have three children and live at 17371 Rayner St., Northridge, Cali.

Darrell Currie, who has been resident F.B.I. Agent in Bangor for the past seven years, has been transferred to headquarters in Washington, D.C.

Mary Perry, mathematics teachers at Litchfield (Conn.) High School, was away from school to attend a graduation and graduate summer this summer at the U. of Conn.

Now that you have all had your summer vacations and are rested, perhaps you will find a few minutes to send in some news so that we can keep up the column. Have you noticed that the older we get the shorter the columns become? Let's not have that happen to the 36 Personal.

1937

Mrs. Gordon B. Raymond
Barb Lancaster
37 Glenwood Ave., Portland, Me.

After a brief respite from trying to keep you people up to date on the activities of a few classmates, here is time to start another year. The temperature is hovering in the 90's in Portland tonight, so it is hard to believe that football season will be in full swing by the time you read this. Let us hope that many of you will be in Orono for Homecoming November 7 when Maine plays Bowdoin.

Back in June Marge (Thompson) Allen '38 and I spent the week end in Orono. We saw many familiar faces around campus, but there was a dearth of '37ers at the luncheon on Saturday. I did enjoy the '38 class meeting in the morning and getting a glimpse of the new Union Building. We now have another class secretary from Portland, Bob Fuller '38, and we hope to be able to exchange a few items with your help, of course.

During our second week of vacation we called on Audrey (Bishop) Thibodeau in Presque Isle and saw her new baby girl. John was born May 31. Our heartiest congratulations to Audrey and Tib. It happened that Margaret (Orser) Peterson '39 and Virgie (Brown) Knapp were also there that afternoon, so we had a grand chat over a cup of tea while the children played. Afterward we took a dooryard call on Lib (Ashby) Underwood and saw part of her family. We called Roger and Mabelle (Ashworth) Smith from Audrey's, but they were on the boat, so we did not see them.

On the return trip to Portland we stopped to see Henny (Cliff) and Hal Woodbury '36. They were busy building a new house on Grove Street in Orono and were hoping to be moving in by the time I leave. But you know how those things work—never can set a definite date.

The Alumni Office sent quite a few items which we hope to help you with this week. According to a letter from his father we learn that Lt. Col. George M. Bowles' address is: HQ ADSEC USEARE, COMM. Z, Abcy. Don't forget, Who You Back? To quote from the letter, "Briefly George has been in the army for over twelve years. He was all through the South Pacific and following the Armistice was sent to Japan for two years. Following that duty he was military instructor at the Univ. of Georgia for three years. Two years ago he was sent to France at which time he was a Major and last January was made a Lt. Col. It is my understanding that he has now been transferred to France. Thank you so much for the letter, Mr. Bowles.

We have a change of address for Gilbert Bucknam which is: 43 Berkeley St., Nashua, N.H. Some word about what you are doing in New Hampshire would be appreciated, how about a postcard?

This year the forestry department at the University inaugurated a week's "show me" trip as part of the summer camp requirement for junior forestry students. In charge of the tour which included many examples of forestry operations in the three New England States were Dr. Harold E. Young and Dr. Gordon L. Chapman, Chief, Forest of Orono.

Last spring the Boston Herald ran an article stating that the Boston Traveler would publish a series of thirty sketches by Jack Frost, popular New England artist. It mentioned further that these sketches of Ireland's beauty and historical landmarks would serve as a wonderful collection for an Irish scrapbook or for framing. Congratulations to you, Jack. I surely wish I had seen the notice in time to collect your sketches.

I keep hoping that more of you will take time to send me some news this year, especially about classmates from whom we have not heard recently or about yourselves.

REPORT CLASS 1938 15TH REUNION
Fri. P. M.

Friday night at the Anchorage was terrific. The entertainment was out of this world (or should have been). Hardison tried hard to have his way into the act and all in all it was some night—for visual proof see how we looked Sat. A.M. in the class pictures. And the prices Jim Stanley, Henry Lowe, John Haggett and Buzz Sherry were charging for those hats—like the song, "Anything Goes."

Sat. A.M.

Class meeting: Sat. June 13, 9:30 at Union Bldg.—Campus.

Meeting called to order by Pres. John Gowell with about 30 in attendance.

Mr. Troyout of silence in respect to deceased members. Held elections: Pres. John R. Gowell, V.P. Ernie Reidman, Sec. Buzz Sherry, Treas. L. Fuller—protested. Mary Deering was given a vote of thanks for 10 long years of faithful service and the new Sec. was instructed to pick, at his discretion, any assistants to help contribute to Alumni news. The following are stuck along with me: Waldo Hardison, A. Veague, Jim Stanley, Harold Goodwin, Buzz Sherry, Lucy Cobb, and Mary and Dink Cotting.

A. Veague was also given a vote of thanks for his swell job as Program Chairman for the 15th reunion. Sherry gave a hazy report on the state of the Treasury and voted to give the Alumni Assoc. $25.00. A. Veague and Jim Stanley unanimously voted as co-chairmen of the program committee for the 20th reunion. (What price publicity?)

Jim Stanley, Arnie's ass't. and chairman of the Hat Committee, gave the following report, which should go down in history, along with the Gettysburg address: 'REPORT OF THE HAT COMMITTEE
CLASS OF '38

President Johnny Gowell, through Secretary-treasurer Buzz Sherry, contacted Arnie Veague in reference to the June 15th reunion of the great class of 1938 in June of 1953. Arnie, being the executive type, immediately deputized several '38ers to do his work for him. I was given the job of seeing to it that all returning '38ers have some distinguishing object or piece of apparel, so when they are at the Reunion. At once I called my old friend Henry Lowe, who, without hesitation, said we must go to New York to do some looking around for something which would be appropriate to adorn the members of so distinguished a class. So we called Johnny Haggett and Bill Perry. Henry because he is a great salesman and being in the paint business must certainly have an artistic turn. Bill Perry was invited on our trip because of his being a photographer, we could get the right slant on things. On calling Buzz Sherry, he told us he could get us a room in New York for four at a reduced price, so we started on our buying tour. The first night in New York was what you would expect and if I remembered anything about it, I would report to you. However, I awoke the next morning and Henry was the first of our party to speak. "I couldn't sleep a wink last night, someone left the curtain up," I replied, with an air of great wisdom, "why didn't you pull the curtain down?" Henry lamented, "I couldn't reach across the street—Oooh, she was shapely!" Johnny, the artistic member of our crew, said, "She must have been an actress. Boy! She had so many prominent parts." Bill the photographer, blurted out, "She wasn't so hot, I thought she was underdeveloped and over-exposed." Well anyway, everyone of the crew was able to talk that day we were very soberly went about our business and wound up the day by purchasing a truck load of the finest hats available for both men and women.

To date our sale of hats has reached the total of 40 sold at various prices, bringing in a total cash on hand of $31.94. The hats have not been paid for and Buzz Sherry is still looking for reimbursement for the expense of a trip for four to New York, for which the undersigned do thank dear Buzz."

Discussed ways and means to raise suitable sum for U. of M. at our 20th reunion. Decided to ask $1.00 each person.

Congratulations to Peg Peaslee Danforth and her husband, Ralph, on the arrival of a baby daughter, Judith Anna, on June 27th! The cute announcement also gave the Danforths' addresses—552 South St., Concord, N. H.

Surely am glad to have more complete news of Barbara Welsh Wilson Bard is married to W. Malcolm Wilson (Colby '33) and lives at 5604-240 St. S. W., Edmonds, Washington, where she is a teacher of English and World History at Edmonds High School.

Louise Thibodeau, who is head of the French Dept. at Stevens High School at Rumford, Me., has been selected as a John Hay fellow, and has chosen to use the scholarship to attend Yale University as a student in humanities and philosophy. Prior to this, Mrs. Stephens Louden taught at the U. of Maine, The Seminary of Chicoutimi in Quebec, Hebron Academy, and at the Lycee Janson de Sully, Paris, France. Before coming to Maine she studied at the Univ. of Laval, The Univ. of Paris, and received a M.Ed. from the U. of Maine in 1950. While staying in Europe she held an International Exchange Scholarship to France.

Caitlyn B. Payson has been appointed a Recorder of the Worcester, Mass., Board of Health. This board is to assist the Health Commissioner in running the Health Department. Caitlyn is Treasurer of the Worcester Community Council and a member of Rotary.

Harold Rheinlander, M.D., is a surgeon at office at 30 Bennett Street, Boston. He and Mrs. Rheinlander (Eleanor Ward ’42) live at 46 Cedar Rd. Weston, Mass.

Richard A. Bramhall is Assistant Manager, S. Morgan Smith & Co., and sells Hydraulic Turbines. He lives at 2127 Niagra St., Denver, Colorado.

Dr. George H. Ellis of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston has been named Director of research to supervise compilation of the committee’s studies of the New England economy.

Milford Cohen has been elected treasurer of the Bangor Jewish Community Council.

Charles B. Smith, Jr., has been appointed assistant of the agriculture department in New Salem, Mass. Academy. He has completed eight years in the Hermon high school (Maine) with the agriculture dept. and expects to receive his Master’s Degree from the University of Maine this past summer. He and Julia Alice (Smith ’41) have four children.

Robert D. Larson has been promoted from assistant to associate professor of mathematics at Clarkson College of Technology. Robert has been at Clarkson since 1946. In 1947 and 1948, he did advanced work at Harvard. He is also a member of the Mathematical Association of America and the International Congress of Mathematicians.

I saw Buzz Tracy in Northeast Harbor last week. Same Buzz—we had a nice chat. He is still with the N. Y. Life Ins. Co. and has an office in Bangor, but works out of Northeast most of the time. I don’t blame him. It was about 90 that day.

Mrs. Jose Cuetara (Barbara Savage) 76 Prospect St. Wellesley Hills 82, Mass.

It’s very nice to be saying “hello” again. at the beginning of the column’s year, and do remember to write a few lines to me sometime during this year. Our first big news is concerning the wedding of Jack Kilpatrick and M. Gilbert Tavernt in a candlelight service at the Church of Universal Fellowship in Orono on August 15th. Mr. Tavernt is Assistant Cony High School, Colby College, and Boston University School of Theology. He is pastor of Hyde Park Church. The Tavernts will reside at 27 Central Ave., Hyde Park, Mass. We wish them both great happiness.

Congratulations to Stan (Class V.P.) and Sandy (Mrs. Brawn) on the birth of their son, Thomas Grant Phillips, who arrived on May 31st, 1953.

On Memorial Day, William George Cunningham was born to George and Barbara Cunningham. Our congratulations! A very gay and interesting letter arrived from Dr. Paul Beegel with the following news, “I married Barbara Sue Ferguson, a doctor who does pathology. She graduated from the University of Cincinnati and N.Y.U. College of Medicine in 1944. This event took place in St. Olav’s Church, Weehawken, N.J. The minister was the Rev. Ole Olsen who is an M.D. himself. Both Barbara’s mother and father are doctors, as well as her grandfather Beegel and grandfather also took their undergraduate work at the University of Maine. The U. of M was also represented in the best man, Leo MacLeod, an M.D., by the way, was July 11, 1953.

Well, so much for the press release. By the way, Leo’s address is 263 Gilmore St., Williston Rd., Pembroke, N.H. Regards, Paul Beegel, M.D. It does make quite a story, doesn’t it, and we do wish both Dr. Beegel all the luck and success in the world in their medical careers and lots of happiness in their marriage! We haven’t heard for a long time news of Rudy Canti and the latest bulletin is that he has been named truck and fleet sales manager for the Boston district of Ford Division, Ford Motor Co.

W. T Grant Co has announced the appointment of Carrol D. Davis as manager of the Fall River store. Carrol managed stores in Madison, St. Johnsburg, VT, and Rochester, N. H. Prior to his latest assignment, he is married to the former Kay Sylvester, and the Davises have one son, Larry. They plan to reside in Swansea.

A news clipping came up to us with a picture showing entries in the National Golf Day at the Portland Country Club with Bill Gilman, formerly national blind golfing champion, playing in a foursome with Bette Davis, Gary Merrill, and Ernest Bohnen, the Portland Country Club pro.

More information about Leo MacLeod arrived from the Alumni Office, telling that Leo is with Fairchild Engine and Airframe Factory, L. L. I., as manager of Safety and Security in the Engines Division, and Director of Industrial Relations.

Two recent recipients of Ph.D. degrees from New York University are James Warren Ingalls, Jr. of 141 Hall of Fame Terrace, Bronx 53, N. Y., and John Eldridge Frist, of 21 West St., New York 21, N. Y. Our congratulations to both James and John!

The new principal for Plainville, Mass., High school this year is Kenneth Sharp, who was formerly the principal of Mapleton, Maine, High school. After serving with the Navy for three years, Kenneth taught in Houlton, Me., High school and from 1946-48 was principal of Hodgdon, Me., High school until the time he went to Mapleton. We wish him success in his new appointment.

Roberta Puffer has been appointed as a teacher in the Center school in Acton, Mass. Roberta has taught at Mechanic Falls High school and more recently in the elementary school at Long Beach, N. J. We wish her good luck on her new job.

Constance Banks Howe and Henry Smith of Belfast were married in the early summer at the First Universalist Church in Meriden, Conn., by Rev. William E. Gardner, who is the former pastor of this First Universalist Church in Bangor. Mr. Smith is a consignee for the Texas company and the Smiths made their home in Honolulu, Me., during the summer months. Lots of happiness to them both!’

Last spring, Paul Knaut, Jr., of Dover-Foxcroft now, and formerly of Quincy, Mass., was honored by an exhibition of color prints at the Garfield Red, of Quincy. Paul has taught color photography at the Maine School of Photography.

That is all for this month, friends. Hope that many of you will get back to the campus for Homecoming.

TAKING over this column from Fred Flanders Lycette is no ordinary challenge. Freda had everything. If the column is going to be reminiscent of her fine high level, I shall need a lot of help from every one of you—letters and letters and more letters. So far, the response has been excellent. Keep it up. It all depends on you.

The Lycette family continues to give us our yeoman service. Bob having been elected for the newly last President at that highly successful 10th Reunion that we had last June. Dorothy McLeod Bedard is Secretary, Edward Etzel Treasurer, and Bert Pratt. If they were not busy enough, is our new President. Some of you may have seen the announcement in the May 28 Bangor Daily News of Bert’s appointment as director of guidance and housemaster at MCI. Bert was already head coach of basketball, assistant housemaster and instructor in the social studies. The newspaper article reads: “Pratt, a native of Caribou, received his A.B. degree from the University of Maine in 1943. After service in the army during World War II, he taught for four years at Bucksport High School, where he was also director of athletics. During 1949-51, Pratt was general secretary of the Bar Harbor YMCA. In 1951, Pratt became a member of the staff of the National Red Cross, serving with a disaster unit in the Mid-West floods. Later he was general field representative for the ARC in Ohio. He joined the MCI staff as Director of Guidance.”

That ought to keep a man busy.

Bert’s old tennis rival Malcolm Peckham, was around for reunion, too. With his keen eye for biological changes, Dr. Peckham observed that Bert had put on a few pounds and remarked that I should be just one man here who was a little too fast for me. I’d like to get him out.

The only 45er whom I actually see these days is Emmie Lou (Littlefield) Danforth. She brought her two children down to see us for a couple of hours in August. Don is the recently appointed general supervisor of the Eastern paper plant in Brewer.

Bill and Carolyn Chaplin Bradbury should be in their new home by now, having spent three years in Enfield, wallpaper, hardware, etc. The new address is Brook Rd., R.F.D. 3, Portland. It is in the area known as Pride's Corner, and the door numbers turned out to be the Rev. and Mrs. Ed Manning and their two boys. Ed is now minister of the Pride's Corner Congregational Church.

I had prophesied in our last column that in this issue I'd be writing to you from Everett, Wash. However, Dave is at the Chester Plant of Scott Paper Company until late in the fall, but in time we'll get back to Everett.

Jack (Potter) Robert and her husband, Frank, are so proud of their new son, Mark Allen, born June 29th and weighing in at eight pounds nine and ½ ounces. The Roberts are still on Fuller Road in Needham, Mass.

Spent part of my vacation in Lewiston trying to locate some of our "lost sheep." Did have some visits—first with Ginny (Tufts) Chaplin in Lewiston and with Doris (Stickney) and Bob Anderson in Lisbon Falls. Will try to scatter more of the news I learned through future columns.

But this year let's start getting our address books up-to-date early so Christmas card lists will include many 1946ers as possible Bob and Joan (Greenwood) Franz moved in May from Smyrna, Ga., to Clayton, Ga., where they can be reached by "General Delivery." Judy Fielder can be reached at 166 Main Street in Orono. Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Wood III (Mary Elizabeth O'Conner) are living at 257 Stoughton Street, Stoughton, Mass.

Leo Ullrich, who is employed at Crescent Laboratories in Trenton, N. J., received his mail at 28 Brenwel Avenue in Trenton. Out on the west coast Norma Herzing is working for Pacific Lighting Corporation as an Accounting Clerk. Her new home address is 328 Clayton Street, San Francisco, Calif. Harry Kagan is now a salesman at Hecht's Department Store in our capital; Harry lives at 1305 Seybold, N. W. in Washington, D. C.

Ernest Larson has left Reading, Mass., and he and his wife are now in Bangor, Maine, at 327 West Broadway. Here's a repeat on Dick and Mary (Libby) Dresser's address: MOQ Apt. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hadley are now at the Shenanooah National Park in Luray, Va.—how about news of you who've made these changes?

Many of you may remember Mrs. Alan Burgess (Mary Marble) and her work as Director of Youth Programs in Bangor, Maine; Mary is now serving as supervisor of youth activities for the Couples Club of the First Parish Church Unitarian. The Church is sponsoring a youth group for Protestant Teenagers.

Last June Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Watt of Holyoke, Mass., announced the engagement of their daughter Ruth to William R. Talford of Portland, Maine. Bill started at Maine, but finished his college work at Princeton, he is now studying for an advanced degree at the Massachusetts College of Optometry in Boston. Ruth is working as a technician in the blood group laboratory in the Children's Hospital in Boston; Ruth and Bill were planning to be married this past August.

It doesn't seem possible that summer is over and it is time to get busy on other issue of the Alumnius. And it certainly doesn't seem possible that some of us have children getting ready to start school this fall. Time does fly.

We missed so many of you of our class at commencement this was a wonderful week end and the dedication of the Union Building, or rather the Memorial Union, was very impressive. The building is just beautiful and one of you who haven't seen it should make every effort to do so when you are up Orono way.

An announcement card way last April brought news of the birth of a daughter, Diane Barbara, to Fay '47 and Barbara Clark. She joins a brother Peter, two and a half. The Clarks are living at 25 Wilmans Rd., Wabanassass, N. J.

On May 29, 1953, a son, Thomas Edward, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Warkozik (Valerie). They are living at 301 Westgate West, Cambridge, Mass. Ed is working on a Ph.D. in Physics at M.I.T. in Cambridge.

One of our other teachers in Bangor this fall is Barbara Mills Brownie. Barb has accepted a position as speech and dramatics instructor in Bangor High School. Barb, Bob and their daughter Melinda, age two and a half, are living in their new house at 92 Somerset St., Bangor.

Barb tells me that Gerry Small is working on her master at Columbia. She has been working on Time magazine and will do so on a part time basis while continuing her studies.

The Thomas Moore family has moved to Hampden Highlands, Maine. Tom is running the poultry farm at his home.

Peter Bradshaw was married in August to Virginia Collins of Tiefeld of Brewer. Peter has been working at Knight Auto Sales in Bangor and this fall will be on the faculty at Brownville High School.

Thanks to Winifred Richardson Moore for her news letter. Winifred and her husband Merle are living in Durham, Me., but their present address is R.F.D. #1, Bridgton, Maine. They have two children, Bette Jean, five years, and Donald Owen, two years. She writes that Bob and Bette (Ambrose) Chaplin are living at 25 Linden St., Williamstown, Mass., with their son Mark. Bob is manager of W. T. Grant Co. in North Adams, Mass.

Tom Duford also writes that Peg Cousins has been nursing in California and is going to school to get her credentials as an elementary teacher.

Avis Hughes was back for commencement. She had a sister in the graduating class Avis is still living in Middletown, Conn., working as a dietitian at the Middletown Memorial Hospital.

John and Evelyn (Foster) Adams have a new baby girl. Joan Foster Adams was born in August. She has a brother, Richard Steven, almost two. They live at 42 Tucker Ave., Cranston, R. I.

From Sacramento, California, comes news that the Herbert Champions have a new son, Herbert Jr. Congratulations to you both.

Also our congratulations to Rena Bell who has been teaching sixth grade at the Bates School in Middleboro, Mass. Rena was awarded a scholarship to attend the summer session at the University of Maine.

Don't forget to keep us posted about yourselves and your families. We'll be writing each of you soon, but meanwhile drop us a card even just to say "Hi."

The most important item for my first literary attempt is the sincere expression of thanks to John Grant and Bob Browne from all the '48ers who attended our 5th reunion. It was their planning that made our week end so enjoyable. The lobster dinner and vie dance at the VFW Club in Hampden on Friday night provided the perfect setting for renewing old friendships. The "Hospitality Hour" at the Anchorage Hotel on Saturday afternoon was attended by several '48ers who couldn't be present on Friday evening, and a good time was had by all. At our class meeting on Saturday both Bob and John were elected class officers for the next five years, President and Treasurer.
respectedly Roger Thurrell was elected Vice President and yours truly Secretary. From the Alumni Office I have received many items of new information, but a large part of it is change of address notices. I am somewhat at a loss for the more personal material that would give the column a boost, so why not drop me a line about yourselves in order that we all can get up to date on who and where? Let’s hear from you!

Three engagements and two weddings head our news this month. In April the engagement of Carolyn Ruth Folley to William J. Reardon of Brookline, Mass., was announced. Kayo has been teaching kindergarten at the Cabot School in Newton, Mass. Bill attended Convoy High School in Augusta and was graduated from Bowdoin College. He is a member of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity. Bill is employed by the Aetna Life Insurance Company in the group insurance division.

Also announced this spring was the engagement of Dolores Dixon of Malden, Mass., to Lester Mack. Les is an engineer in the Engineering and Service Division of Westinghouse Electric Corp. in Pittsfield, Mass.

In July the engagement of Clara Mae Bartlett of Portland to Peter Wedge was announced. Clara is a graduate of Colby College and is employed as a claims adjustor by Liberty Mutual Insurance Co. in Boston. Peter is a supervisor in the claims department of Liberty Mutual.

On July 18th Marguerite Sullivan became the bride of Robert F. Powers of Lewiston. Bob is a U. of M. graduate as well as a B. U. Law School graduate. He is practicing law with his father in the firm of Powers & Powers in Lewiston.

May we have your new address, Sally?

The other wedding took place in Norfolk, Va., where on June 25th Ada Marsh became the bride of Robert E. Henders son. Ada has been teaching at Stearns High School in Millinocket. Bob is an airway operations specialist for the Civil Aeronautics Authority.

During the summer our class baby list was increased Ruth (Fogler) and Merle Goff announced the arrival of Janice Mabel on June 3rd. This Brunswick household now boasts three—Freddy who is three and Margaret now two complete the list.

Helen (Becker) and Brian Mooers now have a daughter, Martha Ann, born April 13, to go with their son, Brian Jr. Brian is an engineer with Brown Corporation, pulp and paper manufacturers. The Mooers are living in La Tuque, Quebec, Canada.

A June 24th baby to add to our growing list is Robert Winslow Murray whose parents are Margaret-Jane (Gorham) and Stanley Murray. Scuffy and Stan bought a house some time ago and their address is Hoovana Courts, Rt. 8, Kingsport, Tennessee. Stan is a chemical engineer at Tennessee Eastman Company.

Another newcomer to our baby list is Jeffrey Jonathan Stevens who arrived in the Danvers (Mass. for Weymouth) household at 18 Oak Street, Wrentham.

Two members of our class received advanced degrees recently. Frank B. Wood received his degree in Philosophy in June from the University of Iowa, and was an instructor at the University of Iowa’s summer school. Frank has recently moved to the west coast with his wife and two daughters, where he has taken an assistant professorship at Humboldt State College in Arcata, California.

On May 30th Paul Grant received the Doctor of Degree of Philosophy at Brown University. Paul also received his master’s degree at Brown.

Mrs. Frederick Robie, Jr. 118 Main St., Madison

As the summer days passed, I knew this day of reckoning would soon arrive. Now here it is with a tall stack of clipings and letters and a circled deadline date on the calendar in front of me. It is wonderful to have news from and of so many classmates. Hope others of you will contribute, and if any of you are over this way, do drop in for a visit!

There were several spring and summer engagements announced. Miss Lee Bower Reiss and Sumner Robinson became engaged in March. Leacone attended New England Conservatory of Music. Sumner is now attending the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy.

Virginia Robinson’s engagement to Alden McKay was announced last April. Virginia was graduated in Arlington, Mass. Alden is employed in the instrumental laboratory of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

William Rollins is engaged to Patricia Martin of Augusta. Both are employed by the State Highway Commission, Pat as a stenographer, and Bill as an engineer.

The betrothal of Janice Wilmer of Dorchester to Sumner Bernstein has been announced. Janice recently served with the Army in the Korean war.

Jeanne F. Walsh of Lowell, Mass., is engaged to John Stanford. Jeanne received her degree in art education from Boston University and is the art supervisor in the elementary schools of Hudson Falls, N. Y. Don is engaged in research work for the New York state conservation department.

Miss Glad Ruth Beaumont’s engagement was announced. Jan Shulman and Miss Beaumont attended Brandeis University.

And the last engagement is that of Dorothy Ann Hoffman of Chelsea, Mass., to Lawrence Gray.

Alice Raymond is now Mrs. Thomas J. Coughlin. Tom is also ‘49. They live at 5 Hartsborn Rd., Walpole, Mass.

Marion Osborn is now the wife of Capt. John Bergman. They live at San Marcos, Texas, but mail goes to 8 Hillside Terrace, Lexington, Mass.

Lawrence Smith and Ellen Rexine were married in April in the Boston University Chapel. The bride graduated from Boston College and received her M.A. there in August. Lawrence is elementary supervisor of Mankato schools. They live at 133 Dean St., Mankato, Mass.

Rosemarie Cote and John Butler were married in Lewiston during June. John is in business in that city with his brother. They live at 29 Hale Street in Lewiston.

The second June wedding was that of John R. Wentworth and Annabel Shields. Annabel has taught home economics in the high schools in Belvedere and Hardin dale, N. J. John is employed by RCA Victor in Cranford, N. J., as a project engineer in charge of the advanced development of color TV camera equipment. They wed at the 383 Tavistock Blvd. in their new home in Haddonfield.

Our last June wedding is Marilyn Shaylor’s to Erna Mellen, Jr. The Mrs. graduated from Bates and was a welfare worker for the state. The Mellen will live in Albuquerque, N. M., while Erna attends the USAF and atomic energy school.

Congratulations and best wishes to all afore-mentioned. And we wish you lots of happiness.

In mid-August Priscilla Thomas Rines, Barbara Thompson York, and I got together for a brief chat and delicious lunch at Barb’s house. The Yorks have two children, Dana, who is near the age of her sister, and Jeffy, who is one and one-half years old. Kent is still a safety representative for Eastman Kodak Company. They live at 53 Vermont St. in Redbank, So. Portland, and are in the process of building a new home which they hope to be in by Thanksgiving. Their new address will be Wildwood Park, Cumberland Foreside.

Pussy and Bernard Rines and two sons, Matthew and Dale, are moving to Gorham. Bernice is beginning in business as a registered professional engineer working out of Gorham. So attention, farmers, if you have any needs concerning building, irrigation, wiring, etc., he’s the man to contact. The Rines’ mail goes to RDF, Westbrook.

1951 Miss Winnifred Ramsdell 113 Camden St., Rockland

Can you believe it! In June 1954, three years will have passed since that famous day when the Class of 1951 left the University of Maine and joined the ranks of the Alumni. Last June, with the return of many of us, we held our First Reunion. As many of you know—and especially for those who don't—John Giew was re-elected Class President, Russ Meade as Vice Prexy, "your truly" was elected Secretary, and "lawyer-to- be" John Dnecool was elected for the class purse strings. And so as your new Secretary, I extend to all of you, a real "Maine hello!"

I'm sure I voice the opinion of all in attending the Class of '51 Reunion. They are off to you, "Tuffy!"

Needles to say, '51ers are serving in all branches of the armed forces.

1st Lieut. Richard Hale has been assigned to the 25th Signal Battalion at Fort Devens, Mass.

Lieu. Bruce McGhee is with the Infantry stationed at San Marcos, Texas. He is a flying student at the liaison school there.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Slosser are the proud parents of a son, Brent Gene, Bob is a member of the Bangor Daily News staff.

Helen and Lester Bunker welcomed a boy, John, David, on June 26.

Well, that's the news for this Alumnius. As your new Class Secretary I would appreciate hearing from YOU—how you are, what you are doing, and anything that would be of interest to our classmates. For our column to be full and interesting, I need to know about you.

1952 Miss Dorothy McCann 59 Fessenden St., Portland

Well, here I am again! It hardly seems possible that a summer has passed and it's almost time for the class of '52's first reunion. And, gee, we have big plans for the week end, too. Greg, Marine, and I will have met again when you read this and have everything about finished as far as plans go—the rest of it is up to you. We officers can plan the reunion but you make it a success. Come on now—sure it'll mean a little expense, but figure you can eat hamburg and the rest of the money for this month. We have the banquet put aside in the new Student Union Building (wow, you should see it), and—but, gee I better keep some surprises. Let's see as much of you there the week end of November 7 as possible. Remember, the first one's the greatest—they say.

Well, enough promotion, now a barrage of news that has piled up over the summer.

The most important change that has come over the class is that there are so very many changing their names. I guess by the time a girl gets about middle twenties she gets tired of her name and a fellow at that time likes to share his—so marriage.

Al Cole and Alice Bean were married in July at Old Orchard. Al and Alice will live in East Machias, where Al will resume his teaching positions at Washington Academy.

Bob Blethen and Nancy Powers are now Mr. and Mrs. of 9 Hancock Street, Boston, Mass. They were married August 29 at the home of the bride's parents Bob is attending Tufts College Dental School in Boston.

Frank Beal took Ruthie Burrill to be his lawful wedded wife on June 20 in Portland. Now they're living in Phillips, Maine, where she is a member of the teaching staff at Phillips High School and he is in business.

Gilbert B. Seawell married Phyllis Bates on June 15 at the Colby Chapel in Waterville. They are living in Waterville where he will teach this year and she will be at Colby College.

Dick Gilmore married Jackie McNamara in Bangor on August 29. He is employed as a chemical engineer in Buffalo, N. Y.

In Springfield on July 5, Robert A. La Fountain, Jr., married Barbara Lengyel. They will live in Springfield where he is employed by the Jones and Lamson company.

Dick Legge married Wilda C. Hignett on March 21 in Foxboro. He is employed by Sherman-Williams Co., Brockton, as a credit manager.

Joan Cosgrove has been Mrs. Paul Stebbins since August 29 when they married in Blandford. They will reside at York Village, Maine.

One step down from the wedding ring is the engagement, however at these I hesitate, because some of the news is so old that a lot of the following may be very much married. Therefore, please accept my apology if it's now "for real," and I'll print any later developments.

Sam Allen and Barbara Jane Cooper have been engaged since April. Sam is Lt. Allen of the U. S. A. and has left for Far East command.

Eleanor Phillips is engaged to Randall David of Hacketon, N. J.

Miriam Price is engaged to Amory Patten of Wellesley Hills, Mass. He is now serving in the Army's medical corps.

Richard Devardins, U. S. A., is engaged to Elizabeth Hurd of Fryeburg. Dick left in late April for overseas duty.

Grace Dunlap was engaged to Philip Day last April. She is employed at the Stoddler laboratories at the Eastern Maine General Hospital in Bangor as a lab technician. He is majoring in engineering at Maine.

Alan Shulman of Chelsea became engaged to Glad Beaumont of Brookline in June.

Well, with just marriages, engagements and births, I have filled a column this month I haven't even mentioned those in the schools or in other other of the worthwhile occupations, however, there are many more months, so let me hear from you—and don't forget to subscribe to Maine Alumni because that's your only contact with your class news and I am writing this column for you.

OCTOBER, 1953
No word of pen or stroke of artist's hand
No flowered phrase or oratory's boast
Need tell the story of the world you've made.
'Tis writ upon the pages of the land
From north to south—from coast to coast.

Those poles you mount—those lengthened strands you string
Are not just sturdy uprights in the sky
That march across the miles in proud parade.
You've made them into words that help and sing
A doctor's call, good news, a lover's sigh.

Deep etched in time the record of your skill
The work you've done—your willingness to do
The fires and storms you've tackled unafraid.
Your signature is carved on every hill
Yours, too, the creed—"The message must go through."

BELL TELEPHONE SYSTEM
Cumberland and Oxford Canal

First conceived in 1791 as a means of opening up trade to and from the rich farm areas and woodlands of Maine from Harrison Village to Portland, the Cumberland and Oxford Canal was not completed until 1830. To help finance its construction the Canal Bank was founded in 1826.

The canal followed the waterway from Harrison down Long Lake through Brandy Pond, along the twisting Songo River, down Sebago Lake to the upper falls on the Presumpscot River. It was one of the greatest projects of its time.

Above the falls at Saccarappa the canal cut across fields and marshes to its termination near the foot of Clark Street in Portland; later it ended at Thompson's Point. There were 27 locks in the canal through which the boats were towed at a lockage charge of six cents each.

Cargoes of lumber and farm produce were carried to Portland. Return cargoes were furniture, groceries and other commodities needed by the farm folk along the way. Apples cost three mills per mile per barrel per ton per mile. Fuel wood, 2 to 3 cents per mile. Passengers paid a half cent per mile.

The boats were flat bottomed; the largest about 30 tons capacity. Two short masts carried a small sail on each which were used on the lakes and part of the river. These masts worked on pins so that they could be lowered when passing under bridges.

The advent of railroads spelled the passing of the canal as a highway for commerce. Today parts of it remain with some sections dry, though the old tow paths can still be seen grown with grass.
