The Sergeant Walter McClymonds Wales Scholarship Fund

Walter McClymonds Wales spent many happy summers with his family at Northport. He came to love the town, the people who live there, and the State of Maine. He had never attended the University of Maine, nor, so far as is known, did he ever visit the campus. Entering the Army as a private in the Infantry in World War II, he was promoted to the rank of sergeant, went overseas in 1942, and died in action in July, 1943.

In accordance with a request made by Sergeant Wales before he went overseas, an endowment fund of $25,000, known as the Sergeant Walter McClymonds Wales Scholarship Fund, was established at the University in 1945. The annual income from this fund is used for scholarship aid for students whose character and promise make them worthy of financial assistance in obtaining a college education. Because of Sergeant Wales' love for and interest in Northport, preference is given to students from that town. However, if the income from the Fund is not needed for qualified Northport students, it may be used to assist worthy students whose homes are in other Maine communities.

The terms of the gift further provide that especially meritorious young men and women from Northport who have completed their undergraduate education at the University of Maine may be given grants in aid for graduate or professional study at the University or at other institutions.

The University was honored to be chosen as the recipient of this fund in memory of Sergeant Walter McClymonds Wales who loved Northport and Maine, and gave his life in the service of our country.
A Setting For Students

We fell to thinking the other day of the benefits of our land-grant University.

We believe that the benefits offered lie both in academic objectives and in extracurricular activities.

The University of Maine, like so many other land-grant institutions, offers to an open-minded student many different phases of life and experiences through its several colleges. By his association in a University with the philosophies of agriculture, science, and the liberal arts, a student is better equipped to handle life's daily activities after graduation.

At a State University, one does not have to take courses in agriculture, if he is interested in physics, or take programs in art, if he is interested in forestry. Due to the smallness of our University community, the student brushes up against the physics, music, forestry, or education major. By living in a dormitory or fraternity house, he understands the way a student in another course feels and works.

In the realm of outside activities, a vast number of clubs and organizations exist to benefit the student. An engineering major, for instance, enjoys the companionship and viewpoints of the philosophy club or the sailing club.

The University Community Lecture Series, bringing to the University outstanding figures in the world of literature, politics, and science; the Concert Series, giving forth with an array of talented, top artists; such events as the recent Sportsmen's Day, of benefit to sportsmen outside the University community by giving them a chance to meet University biologists and experts; and the many exhibits of renowned artists are but a few examples of beneficial University life.

The point we are attempting to make is that in a University community, as found at Maine, the variety of courses and topics discussed and taught is of invaluable aid to the liberal-minded student attempting to achieve an overall picture of the society in which he lives. Once out of school, this student is an asset to his society for he appreciates the views of the other person.

How valuable this University society is, with its diverse programs, can only be determined by the student himself. The student himself must participate in order to benefit.

The Spirit of Service

Calls like these are familiar to telephone people everywhere. We know them well.

What they say so plainly is that our work lies at the very heart of life. We are in the thick of it. And the way we act matters.

For day in and day out, minute by minute, we are serving the needs of the people. Our entire business—everything about it—exists in order that we may render service.

Out of this experience comes a certain attitude of telephone people that is one of our most precious assets. It is The Spirit of Service.

It begins with a sense of responsibility and shows itself in a sort of combination of knowing-how and wanting-to-do.

We know that without it there would still be telephone service of a sort. But it wouldn't be the same. And we wouldn't be the same people either. For the spirit that brings the most to the job, likewise returns the most to the people who give it.

Much has been done. But telephone men and women know that all that the years have brought is but the beginning.

Our opportunities for Service open wide before us.

The Spectators . . .

BY RALPH CLARK

The backstage life of University professors can prove surprising and interesting to students. Often students wonder just what a faculty member does in his off-moments. Many ask, "Is this professor really human?"

If the members of the Spectator Club are any indications of the after-hour college professor, it can be safely said that "teachers are for real" after all.

"The Spectator Club, taking its name presumably from Addison and Steele who sought 'to break away from the old order and make a name for themselves' by publishing 'The Spectator,' was started March 31, 1911." Mr. James A. Gannett, registrar emeritus, and a member of the club since 1912, said.

"The club, composed of 20 male members of the University faculty and administration, meets the second Tuesday of every month during the academic year. When a vacancy occurs in the club the fellows turn in the name of a person they would like to see as a member. The following month, the club takes all the names, and, through a process of elimination, we choose a new member," Mr. Gannett added.

First, Dessert

"Our meetings begin with dessert and then we proceed to our business meeting, followed by our talk of the evening. We just recently changed the time of the meeting from 7 45 to 7. Before we changed, we had our ice cream, cake, coffee, and mints after the meeting which often carried us to 10 30 or 11 before we broke up. We're getting older now," Mr. Gannett chuckled. "We can't take the late hours."

The object of the club, according to its constitution, is to promote intellectual recreation and good fellowship among its members.

"We meet at the homes of the members in turn, and one of the members talks before the club on a subject in which he is interested, whether it is a subject he teaches or a hobby," Mr. Gannett said.

"The variety of topics vary at the meetings. Harry Smith, who is professor emeritus of biochemistry and an accomplished pianist and organist, always gives a piano recital when the club meets at his home. Every time he has done this. On the other hand, Alpheus Lyon, professor emeritus of hydraulic engineering and an honorary member of the club, usually speaks about boats and sailing. His theme is either on sailboats or the old steamboats that plied on the Penobscot in the old days," Mr. Gannett recalls.

From Science To Music

Some of the topics discussed by the members find many varied and interesting themes. "The fields of education, science, literature, religion, medicine, history and music have all been included in the monthly talks," Mr. Gannett wrote in his 1949 club report. "I was impressed by the fact that early in the development of airplanes, wireless, telegraphy, television, and motion pictures, the members expressed their views on these new inventions. As early as 1935 one of our members discussed 'The Dangers of Communism.'"

"Names, Artificial Lighting, How to Write a Text Book, Why We Are Tall, The Horse, Cow Barns, Animal Breeding, Artificial Insemination, Athletic Movies and Motion Pictures of Campus Activities and the World's Fair, Submarine Boats, How to Grow Old Gracefully, Experiences as an Officer on Duty in the Pentagon and Elsewhere During the War, Bees, What Comes After 65? Toothpicks, Trip to Mt. Katahdin 'With Lantern,' Undulant Fever, Telescopes, Rope, Travel Talks, Horseless Carriages, Darwin's Theory of the Evolution of the Moon by means of Tidal Friction, Photography of Sound Waves, and Finger Prints are but a few of the subjects of the members' talks."

Secretary Reports

Equally as interesting as the members' talks are the secretary's reports through the years.

"When I was writing my history of the club," Mr. Gannett said, "I found that the shortest secretary's report ran 30 words. It simply listed the date of the meeting, the place, the time that it began and ended, the topic of the talk, and it mentioned that 'delicious refreshments were served.' The phrase 'delicious refreshments' has become a standard phrase among the club members."

The minutes of March 10, 1936, with secretary W S Evans, read, "Prof. Dorsey gave a very clever talk, in fact not much else could be expected since the subject was cheesy or cheeses. All kinds of cheese from curd to Limberger were thoroughly explained. I think the talk was thoroughly enjoyed by all since it was followed by the distribution of samples of University of Maine cheese."

October 12, 1937: "Prof. A. C. Lyon gave a very inspiring talk on Privateering during the Revolutionary War and the War of 1812. Some of the vivid descriptions helped us to live again the battles of our forefathers and as the cannon roared and cutlasses clinked only Harley Willard went to sleep." And once again, after the club listened (via radio) to a 'most inspiring talk by President Franklin D. Roosevelt which was greatly enjoyed by our Democratic group,' the meeting 'adjourned after a prolonged discussion of the capture of the Brady gang.'

"Club House Scandal"

Scandals are no exception even in the best of groups, and the group had its own 'Club House Scandal.' The club's annual dues are 25 cents per member, and, as Mr. Gannett's report read, "the Secretary-Treasurer was naturally the dues collector. There was no auditing of accounts in those days. The members were honest and trusted worthy. That is, the club supposed they were."

"Everett Davee was treasurer. He was getting ready to build a house. The club dues were rolling in. The house was started, foundation dug, walls up, shingled, stained lights, plumbing, heating installed, all on Spectator Club annual dues. At least, 46 College Avenue has (Continued on Page 9)

THE MAINE ALUMNUS

... History of 1904

That reminds me of one on Dolly Taylor. You know he and I never looked at the girls, but I am sorry to say that he has become intoxicated with the wine of co-education. He went down to the Coup the other night and the ten o'clock rule slipped from his memory. The co-eds didn't forget it, however, and they had all the alarm clocks in the house going off outside the parlor door every minute after ten. Finally they set them off all at once and Dolly left in such a hurry that he forgot to say good-night to Mrs. Reynolds.

"The co-eds suffered a great loss in Miss Webber who was obliged to leave college on account of nervous prostration, but Miss Buck manages the social functions and they always go off in a blaze of glory.

"You wanted to know in one of your letters if Finn Berry was still travelling the back road. Since he moved to Bangor, he has been obliged to cut it out on account of expense for car fare. He and Fluyt put in last summer in the Maine woods and most of the boys think they have gone daft on the subject. They go 'round muttering unintelligible syllables which nobody can understand about climbing 'Whocutterchink Mountain,' and catching trout that were measured in feet instead of inches. They are now working on a book entitled, 'Lost in Wonderland, or Babes in the Wood.'

"You also wanted to know whether Pete Bean or Jim Sawyer were married. I think Jim is. At any rate he has made money enough out of last year's Prism to support two wives. Some think that Pete is married too, but I think he is only suffering from a base case of corrosion of the heart. He has cut out dancing now, but he attends all the prize contests and I notice that he always has a woman with him."

"Say, P I, what kind of a crowd stops in Oak Hall now?"

"The crowd hasn't changed for the worse since you left. John Quimby can eat faster than ever and Marthy Beare uses a new kind of hair restor. Runt Sawyer changed his room when Oak Hall was declared under military rule and lives in constant fear lest the inspector will find out where he has moved. Mike Small keeps his old room in the Hall, but he has another room in Old Town which he occupies most of the time. Tommy Herbert and Willie Stewart are leading a busy life this year. It was rumored that they were going to have a marked down sale at the College store, it was weighed in the balance and found wanting."

"I don't doubt that in the least, P I, but how do you like the new members on the faculty?"

"Oh, the new men this year are all right. Bill Ricker says Farmer Hurst is a 'corker,' and he ought to know because he takes 'Pig Culture' under him. I think we did better this year than we will next; that is, judging from what I have seen of Willie Giles and some others. Willie maps out courses for himself, Judge Parker, Ben Larrabee and other men taking a 'left handed course.' He has pointed out his work to the instructors almost every day and thinks this will get him a place on the faculty list. He thought at first that smoking would bar him out, but since he found out that Conner and Simpson smoke he feels greatly encouraged."

"Is there much doing or excitement since old 1903 left?"

"Well, as for that, there is little to say. You see since the bottom dropped out of the Prism business the members of the class have been too crestfallen and dejected to start things stirring, and as the members are obliged to assume the dignity that the position of senior requires they have relegated the amusement list to the lower classes. But say, you remember Bread, he of unlimited gall and brass, with Phi Kappa Phi aspirations? Well, you would hardly believe that one who had led such an ascetic sort of existence and in whom the faculty had so much faith that they entrusted the chapel roll book to his care, would start out at so late a date to sow wild oats. But last spring at the end of his junior year there were whisperings of suspicious happenings going the rounds that scan-

MARCH, 1954
Col. Alcott Dies—

Word has been received of the death of Col. Robert Alcott in San Marino, Calif.

Col. Alcott was professor of military science and tactics at the University from 1934 to 1939.

Dr. Seal's Article—

Dr. Philip M. Seal, associate professor in the department of electrical engineering, has had an article, "Analysis of Network Response to Periodic Waves," published in the January issue of the Journal of the Franklin Institute.

The article contains a Steady-State Inverse Transform Table for Square-Wave Inputs, not hitherto available, which is applicable in the square-wave analysis of linear networks.

Course At Bowdoin—

Professor Edward F. Dow has been appointed Adjunct Professor of Government at Bowdoin College during the second semester.

Professor Dow will spend Tuesday afternoon in Brunswick each week and will be assisted in the work of the course.

Prof. Herschel Bricker

Problems of Municipal Administration, by Mr. William S. Flash, instructor in government.

"We are particularly fortunate in having Professor Dow, a graduate of Bowdoin in the class of 1925, available to give this course," Dr. James S. Coles, president of Bowdoin College, said. "He is admirably equipped by his own professional attainments and his intimate knowledge of municipal problems to carry on the work projected this year by Mr. Owsley." Mr. Roy H. Owsley, city manager of Portland, resigned several weeks ago to continue his work in Louisville, Ky.

Prof. Bricker Named—

Professor Herschel L. Bricker, director of the Maine Masque Theatre, has been named administrator of International Theatre Month.

For the past four years theatres throughout the United States have participated in International Theatre Month. During these years various community and educational theatres have chosen plays which had an international theme or plays which reflected the life or customs of another country, for production during the month of March.

Responsibility for the project is handled by the American Educational Theatre Association and Professor Bricker has been asked to direct its administration.

Professor Bricker has been a member of the University faculty since 1928. His activities have been with the Maine Masque and the Camden Hills Theatre.

100th Commencement

"Today's undergraduate colleges must pay attention to the student's natural, honest concern about how he will earn his living," Dr. Ernest C. Marriner, dean of the faculty at Colby College, said at the annual mid-year commencement at the University February 5.

At the same time, Dean Marriner said, we must not "undersell broad, general education at the expense of vocational training" at a time when so many are suspicious of intellectual pursuits.

The University graduated 57 students with bachelor's degrees and 10 with master's degrees. Candidates for the degrees were presented by the deans of the various colleges and President Arthur A. Hauck officially conferred the degrees.

In the ideal liberal arts college situation, said Dean Marriner, "liberal education and vocational training should be, not enemies, but partners in the common task of fitting us for life."

The student's concern about his future job is "a legitimate part of every student's college days," he added, while we must also continue to "uphold the practical, earthy value of ideas" as the intellectual side of college training.

Dr. Marriner is a Colby graduate and has been a member of the faculty there for over 30 years.

Dr. Ralph J. Barron, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Nashua, Iowa, gave the invocation.

Commencement exercises were preceded by the General Alumni Association's annual dinner for the graduating students. George E. Lord '24, president of the Association, was the speaker.

Principals in 100th Commencement Exercises held February 5: President Arthur Hauck; Dean Ernest Marriner of Colby; Dr. Ralph Barron, Invocation Speaker.
Grant Promoted—

John F. Grant '48 has been promoted to the office of vice president of the Merrill Trust Company, Bangor.

Mr. Grant has been with the company since 1937 except for the time he served in World War II and the Korean War. Since engaging in the banking business he has had experience and training in all departments and branches of the bank.

He is chapter advisor of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity.

Wentworth Recipient—

John W. Wentworth '49 has been named the recipient of the RCA Victor Award of Merit for 1953 for "extraordinary service to the corporation."

As leader of the television terminal design and color projects group, Engineering Products Department, he has "contributed substantially to the advancement of the RCA color television program," and has assisted in the training of large numbers of engineers in television through his "unusual teaching talent." Some 500 engineers from all departments have attended after-hours courses which were organized and taught by Mr. Wentworth.

His technical notes on color TV have been used as a handbook by the engineers and will be published as a college handbook.

Mr. Wentworth has aided in the design of the colorplexor—heart of the RCA color television system.

Bartley Honored—

Charles E. Bartley '43 received the American Rocket Society's C. N. Hickman award at the society's Honor Night program held recently.

A fellow of the society, Mr. Bartley was the third recipient of the award, receiving it for his outstanding work during the past year in the solid propellant field.

Formerly chief of the solid propellant section of the jet propulsion laboratories, Mr. Bartley two years ago was instrumental in forming the rocket division of the Grand Central Aircraft Company and is now director of that company's rocket division.

J. N. Stephenson '17

J. N. Stephenson Honored—

The Canadian Pulp and Paper Association at its annual Convention in Montreal honored J. N. Stephenson '17 with a Special Award in recognition of forty years' distinguished service to the industry.

Mr. Stephenson was cited for his service in the promotion of education and accident prevention and as editor of the Pulp and Paper Magazine of Canada and of the four editions of "Pulp and Paper Manufacture."

Joins Oil Company—

Shao E. Tung '49 has joined the Continental Oil Company's development and research department in Ponca City, Okla., as a research chemical engineer.

Mr. Tung was born and raised in China. He received his master's degree in chemical engineering from the University of Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Barrows Elected—

Lewis O. Barrows '16, secretary of Liberty Mutual Insurance Company, has been elected a director of the Transportation Association of America.

Mr. Barrows, governor of Maine from 1937 to 1941, joined the insurance company in May, 1941, and was appointed secretary of Liberty Mutual in 1943.

Highway Commissioner—

David H. Stevens '28 has been appointed the first full-time chairman of the Maine Highway Commission.

Since 1947, Mr. Stevens has been commissioner of Health and Welfare and was serving his third three-year term at the time of his new appointment.

Mr. Stevens has been an engineering instructor at the University and has worked as an engineer for the New York Telephone Company in New York City. He is a registered professional engineer.

"In my opinion, he is the top administrator in our state government," Governor Burton Cross said when he announced the appointment.

Wilkins Appointed—

Roger C. Wilkins '29 has been appointed vice president of the Travelers Insurance Company. He has been secretary of the mortgage loan department since January, 1953, and has been associated with the Travelers since 1929.

SPECTATORS

been known to Spectators for these many years as the Club House and Everett has never denied the charge.

"But the finger of suspicion points to others besides Everett.

"Former Treasurer Harry Watson built a house, Walter Leavitt has a stamp collection worth in the millions, Treasurer Raymond Walkley left town; and Treasurer Evans bought a Chrysler New Yorker."

Town Meeting

In the history of the club, one of the major highlights occurred when the club entered town politics by staging, on its annual ladies' night, a typical New England town meeting. This event occurred March 12, 1918.

"The Town Offer Sires have desided 2 adopt the You Fone Nick form of spelling which is now coming in 2 voge." And adopt it they did!" The "Ann You Al Re-port of the Municipal Offer Sirs of Speck Tater Town for the Fskul Year," written by A. L. Grover, found a warrant stating: "In the rm of the Start ov Main, U R heet by required 2 notifte & warn the elect or ate of Speck Tates Town to meet at the Town Hall on 2s day the 12th day of March, (Ann I Domino) 1918, at 8 o'clock in the evening, 2 ake on the following R-tickles, two wüt.

Among the "R-tickles" were: "To see what a mount the town will appropriate to purchase Bees for the Buzzer classes of the Electrical Department; (indefinitely postponed, according to the minutes of the "Town Clurk," Harriens Conser); and "2 C if (in the interest of few well conservashun) the Town will request the Stevens wether burow 2 shorten December & Jan-you-worry to 28 dafe & add the Xtra dafe 2 June & Jew Lie," (much discussed and variously amended and adopted, the "Clark," summed up).

"Order and hilarity reigned in the galleries and the meeting adjourned at 10 10," Mr. Conser recorded.

Useful Purpose

Mr. Gannett, in his report of the club's activities, wrote, "One is impressed by the fact that the club has carried on for these many years."

Another member added, "The fact that the club has continued all these years is proof that it has served a useful purpose in the lives of its members."

And Mr. Gannett muses, "One is also impressed by the fact that it does not take much to amuse the Club."
Gift from Dr. Chadbourne . . .

Dr. Ava H. Chadbourne, class of 1915, professor emeritus in education at the University, has made a gift of $5,000 to the University of Maine Foundation.

The income from this fund, which is to be known as the Ava H. Chadbourne Fund, will be used to pay for the room rent of a freshman woman student who resides in Chadbourne Hall. This award, which is to be made by the Scholarship Committee, may be made to any native born and life-long resident of Maine. High school and community activities, scholarship record, personality and financial need are to be considered in making the selection. Any member of the Chadbourne family or an applicant residing in Mattawamkeag, where Dr. Chadbourne was born, is to be given special consideration.

The terms of the gift provide for some latitude in increasing principal and the making of more than one award when income permits.

Widely known as an authority on the history of education in Maine, Dr. Chadbourne achieved an enviable reputation as a thorough, patient, kindly teacher. Her doctoral thesis on the “Beginning of Education in Maine,” together with work done by several graduate students under her supervision, has given the state an unusually complete educational history.

Dr. Chadbourne was appointed to the University staff immediately following her graduation. She retired in 1942 after 27 years service, at which time she was made professor emeritus.

In recognition of her high standing, her loyalty, and her contributions to the education of the state and to the University, the Board of Trustees voted in 1952 to name the freshman women’s dormitory in her honor.

Jenness Receives Pulp-Paper Award

A University professor who has devoted more than 30 years to teaching the techniques and principles involved in the production of pulp and paper was honored in New York on February 17 by alumni of the university.

Professor Lyle C. Jenness, head of the department of chemical engineering at the University, was presented with the University of Maine Pulp and Paper Foundation’s Honor Award for 1954.

Over 150 graduates of the University of Maine who are connected with the pulp and paper and allied industries gathered in the Bowman Room of the Biltmore Hotel to pay tribute to Professor Jenness who joined the Maine faculty in 1923.

The citation inscribed on the plaque which was presented to Professor Jenness read as follows:

“Presented to Lyle C. Jenness in recognition of his many years of faithful teaching and fruitful research in pulp and paper technology.

“An inspiring teacher and able engineer, respected and admired by his colleagues and students and highly esteemed by the paper industry.”

Maine alumni were welcomed to the luncheon by Fred Herbolzheimer, Jr., ’43, technical director, Marinette Paper Company, Marinette, Wis., chairman of the U. of M. Pulp and Paper Alumni.

Principal speaker was Dr. Ashley S. Campbell, dean of the College of Technology at the University of Maine. He gave a report on university activities, stressing developments in the College of Technology.

Those at the head table beside Dean Campbell and Mr. Herbolzheimer were J. L. Ober ’13, vice president of the Scott Paper Company, Chester, Pa., who is also president of the University of Maine Pulp and Paper Foundation, Professor Jenness, James A. Gannett ’08, Orono, resident secretary of the Foundation; Donald V. Taverner ’43, Orono, alumni secretary; and the three previous Honor Award winners, George D. Bearce ’11, Bucksport (Me.), general manager of St. Regis Paper Company operation in the state of Maine; Professor Clarence E. Libby ’16, a graduate of Maine, retired head of the pulp and paper department at the New York State College of Forestry and present head of the newly established department of papermaking in the School of Forestry, North Carolina State College of Agriculture and Engineering; and Dr. Ralph H. McKee ’29, New York, consulting chemical engineer, who established the first course in pulp and paper technology in this country at the University of Maine in 1913.

Visiting lecturers for pulp and paper courses at Maine were introduced by Professor Jenness.

This year’s Honor Award was presented to Professor Jenness by Mr. Ober, president of the Foundation.

Professor Jenness prepared for college at Proctor Academy, Andover, N. H., and was graduated from the University of New Hampshire in 1922 with a B.S. degree. He received his master’s degree from the University of Maine in 1925. He has also done graduate work at MIT.

After teaching for a year at Proctor Academy, Professor Jenness joined the Maine faculty in 1923 and rose through the ranks to become head of the department of chemical engineering in 1947. He was acting head of the university’s Department of Industrial Cooperation in 1947-48.
Auburn-Lewiston Maine Club—

The February 18th meeting of the Auburn-Lewiston Maine Club was held at the Auburn Legion Home on the 18th.

Featured speaker and guest at this meeting was Prof. Richard Hill of the University's College of Technology. In addition to serious commentary on late events at the University, Prof. Hill entertained the attending alumni with humorous readings.

Black Bear Club of Boston—

The Black Bear Club of Boston met at the M.I.T. Faculty Club for a dinner meeting on February 10.

President Henry Turner '22 presided at this meeting which had as guests and speakers Head Football Coach Harold "Westy" Westerman, and Alumni Secretary Don Taverner '43. Movies of the 1953 Bowl-in-Maine football game were enjoyed as was a social hour preceding the meeting.

Bangor Alumnae—

The February 15th meeting of the Bangor Alumnae was held at the Tarratine Club with two foreign students from the University as guests and speakers. Nicholas Legatos of Greece, and Jan Kinoshita of Japan.

These two capable students described conditions in their home countries during their talks. A social hour was also enjoyed by the attending alumnae.

Black Bear Club of Rhode Island—

On February 12, the Black Bear Club of Rhode Island gathered at the home of Earle "Doc" Ferren '20 in Providence for their annual "Baked Bean Supper."

Guest and speaker at this annual supper was Head Baseball Coach Harold "Tubby" Raymond who spoke on prospects for the coming season and told the group of the annual Southern Trip the Maine ball club undertakes.

North Shore Alumnae—

The North Shore, Mass., Alumni meeting reported in the February ALUMNUS as being held on January 12, was postponed and held on February 9 in Salem.

This was a "Fun Night" and was thoroughly enjoyed by all attending.

The constitution for the North Shore group was presented and officially adopted at this meeting.

Lewiston-Auburn Alumnae—

On January 20, the Lewiston-Auburn Alumnae met at the home of Mrs. Henry Anderson '35 of Auburn.

The group enjoyed a lecture and slides presented by Miss Patricia Naugler who served over two years in Africa in missionary nursing work.

Portland Alumnae—

The February 4th meeting of the Portland Alumnae was held in the Alumnae Lounge of Westbrook Junior College.

Mrs. Lloyd Pike gave an interesting demonstration of cake decorating during the program.

Plans were made for the Bates Fashion Show which the Portland Alumnae are sponsoring at the Y.M.C.A. on March 30. Undergraduate women from the Portland area will be the guests of the group at this Fashion Show.

Pulp and Paper Alumni—

Maine Pulp and Paper Alumni from all sections of the state attending "Paper Week" activities in New York City gathered at the Hotel Biltmore on February 17 for the annual Maine Pulp and Paper Alumni Luncheon. One hundred fifty alumni were in attendance.

Featured speaker at this highly successful Luncheon was Dr. Ashley Campbell, Dean of the University's College of Technology.

Highlight of the meeting was the presentation of the University of Maine Pulp and Paper Foundation's 1954 Honor Award to Prof. Lyle Jenness '25A, Head of the University's Chemical Engineering Department.

This Maine alumni affair received national publicity and was enjoyed by all present.

THE MAINE ALUMNUS 11

THE MAINE ALUMNUS

By Ralph Clark '54

When final examination time appeared this month, several students were asked whether the "times that try men's souls" should be abolished.

"Yes, too much emphasis is put on them," one answered.

"They might just as well be, for I often think they are not an example of what we know but what the instructors think we ought to know," another said.

A third person said, "They are a strain on the student body," but one person commented that "it was the only way that professors can find out how much we have accomplished."

Despite the apparent hatred for examinations, the student body and the faculty have overcome the mid-year hump. Now the University focuses its eyes and efforts to the annual Winter Carnival.

The Carnival, held Feb. 19-21, had as its theme the Mother Goose stories, and was titled "Frosty Fables Frolics."

Carnival King and Queen

Bruce Munn, Wellesley Hills, Mass., and Joanne Roberts, Brownsville Junction, were crowned King and Queen at the Carnival Ball held Feb. 19. Other candidates were Joyce Hobbs, Portland, Shirley Palmer, Waterville; Frances Rodrick, Canbou; James Horsfall, Little Falls, N. J.; Hiram Bronson, York Harbor; and Abbott Mosher, Gorham.

Intramural and varsity ski events were held Friday afternoon at the University ski slope with Bowdoin and Colby competing. The usual ice show, planned for the skating rink at the Maine Outing Club cabin, was cancelled due to a heavy snowfall. Instead of the show, the Union presented a variety show, followed by a concert featuring the Varsity Singers, a new feature this year.

Steve Stevens and his 16-piece band played at the Carnival Ball, while the Union sponsored, for the non-Arthur Murrays, a movie, "House on 92nd Street."

Saturday's program included novelty ski races at the Women's Athletic Field, a varsity track meet between Maine and Boston University, and a varsity basketball game with Maine meeting the University of Massachusetts.

Snow Sculptures

Phi Kappa Sigma won the annual snow sculpturing contest in the men's division, with Sigma Nu and Lambda Chi Alpha, runner-ups. North Estabrooke won the women's division with honorable mentions going to South Estabrooke and Balentine. Judging was by President Arthur A. Hauck, Professor Vincent A. Hartigen, Miss Elizabeth Kelso, and the King and Queen.

An ice hockey game was held Sunday afternoon and a jam session in the Union in the afternoon ended the week-end's activities.

An unusual snowfall, unusual to the extent that it usually never snows on Winter Carnival Week End, helped make the event one of the finest carnivals the University has seen. Alice Rinehart, Weston, Mass., was chairman of the Carnival week end.

Brotherhood Week

Brotherhood Week started Feb. 21 with the annual Brotherhood Banquet in Estabrooke Hall. The Rev. Frederick W. Whittaker, president of the Bangor Theological Seminary, was the principal speaker.

Dr. J. Oscar Lee, executive director of the Department of Racial and Cultural Relations, was the principal speaker at an assembly Feb. 24 in the Memorial Gym.

Dr. Lee entered the field of race relations while still attending college. He has been with the National Council since 1946 and took over the executive directorship of the Race Relations Department in 1947.

He has served as assistant chaplain at Hampton Institute, assistant professor of religion at Virginia Union University, professor of Christian education and director of field work of the Theological Seminary at Howard University's School of Religion, and secretary of the Connecticut Council of Churches. The Race Relations Department, of which he is executive director, serves as an information bureau on all phases of social problems.

Other events during Brotherhood Week included a television panel discussion over station WABI, a radio program over campus radio station WORO, and several films in the Union building.

Lecture Series: Dr. Bunche

Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, Nobel Peace Prize Winner, spoke at the University Thursday, Feb. 25. Dr. Bunche appeared as another guest lecturer in the University-Community series made possible through a gift to the University.

International famous for his services both to the United States government and to many other nations of the world, Dr. Bunche served as principal secretary of the United Nations Palestine Commission in 1948, and as U. N. mediator on Palestine.

President Hauck presided at the lecture.

Student Judiciary

As the Alumnus goes to press, a new student judiciary, two years in the making, will be voted on by the students of the University at a special student election Feb. 24. The judiciary system, if adopted, will be set up and put into operation for the remainder of the year, and will be put to a two-year test period at the end of which the student body will again vote on the plan.

According to the judiciary constitution, its purpose is "to encourage among the students the feeling of responsibility for maintaining the standards of individual behavior expected of students of the University of Maine, and to have the students participate in the handling of individual violators of these standards of acceptable conduct."

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Black Bear varsity basketball team after experiencing a dismal start which saw them drop six out of seven games, came back and won three of their next four, only to go into another tail spin of four losses.

At this point Maine has a 4-11 record with three games left to play against Rhode Island, Bates, and Bowdoin.

The highlight of the season was the 55-53 victory over Colby at Waterville that snatched the Mules' State Series win streak at 31 straight compiled over a four year period. It was fireball Keith Mahaney that was mainly responsible for the Colby upset. His fancy exhibition of ball handling in the closing moments of the ball game gave Maine the win.

Bates was the victim of Maine and Mahaney after the Colby game as the Bears set a new team total of 92 points to Bates' 68. Mahaney also broke the old individual scoring mark by scoring 39 points.

The 92 points against Bates broke the old mark of 88 against Vermont last year. Johnny Norris, the high scoring Bear center last year, previously held the Gym record for a Maine player at 37 points.

Mahaney, a 5' 11" guard, proved his 39 points against Bates was no fluke, when he came back the next Saturday to toss in 32 in Maine's thrilling 80-77 win over New Hampshire. This was the last regular game for Mahaney, who decided to leave school and join the U S. Army. A crowd pleaser all the way, the former Fort Fairfield flash boasted a 23 point per game average for 11 games.

Since Mahaney's departure the Bears have dropped successive games to Colby, Connecticut, New Hampshire, and Massachusetts. The team, under the experienced hand of Coach Rome Rankin, has come a long way since the beginning of the season, but the loss of such a stellar playmaker and scorer is hard to compensate for.

Playing consistent ball this year for Maine is captain Bob Nixon, who coupled with Mahaney, gave Maine by far and away the best backcourt duo in the state. Nixon, a slick ball player, is averaging 15 points per game.

Sophomores coming along fast and who should be a big help next year are Tom Seavey, regular center, and Gus Folsom, a starting forward Seavey, 6' 1", is short as centers go, but has a fine shooting eye and gets his share of the rebounds. Folsom, at 5' 8" is a scrappy ball player who manages to pump in about ten points per game, while playing a very good defensive game.

Filling in for Mahaney have been set short artist Don Arnold, a 26 year old veteran, and Bert Daniels, a junior in his first year of varsity ball.

don and host Colby at Waterville on February 13 and 14. The team scores were Maine, 250, Bowdoin, 564.67, and Colby, 430.68.

Irish, who along with Scrone will compete in the NCAA ski championship at Reno, Nev., on March 4-7, won the ski master trophy for the third year in a row. He was given a great battle for individual honors by Bowdoin's Dick Marshall for the second straight year. Irish beat the Bowdoin standout by 9.14 points. Irish collected a total of 390.75 points.

Maine took a commanding lead in the first day of competition when they scored a sweep in the cross-country. Bill Johnson took first in the event, followed by Scrone, who despite a relatively serious ailment took second place. Irish and Ralph Chase finished in third and fourth.

Also figuring in the victory were Johnny Knowles and Frank Morgan, both of whom added valuable points. Bill Reed, a sophomore, surprised everyone by taking third in the jumping behind Irish and Marshall. Marshall set a new record for the jump with a 117 foot leap, four feet better than Irish.

These same two teams, Bowdoin and Colby, invaded Orono for the Winter Carnival here, and once again the Curtismen set them back on their heels in an informal meet.

The team scores this time were Maine, 298.25, and Colby, 246.18. Bowdoin did not figure in the team totals because the Polar Bears sent only two men.

The Black Bears scored 100 points in both the giant slalom, held at Bald Mountain, and the cross-country. The order of the cross-country finish was Wes Scrone, Bill Johnson, Ralph Chase, Roy Selland, and Frank Morgan, all of Maine. The slalom results saw Irish take first place. Marshall of Bowdoin, Knowles of Maine, Larcom of Bowdoin and Johnson of Maine finished in that order behind Irish.

Next on the agenda for the Maine slatmen is the Eastern Intercollegiate championship at Lyndonville, Vt. Last year Scrone won the nine mile cross-country at Lyndonville, while Chase scored longest standing jump at the Lyndonville jump.

VARSITY TRACK

After dropping their season's opener against Bates College, Coach Chester "Chet" Jenkins' varsity indoor track team bounced back to whip a strong University of New Hampshire team, 71½ to 51½, only to lose their next meet to powerful Boston University, 72% to 53½.

The Bears, now with a 1-2 record, have a chance to end their season on an even note when they entertain Springfield College here in the last dual meet of the season.

Outstanding all year long for the varsity trackclads has been fleet footed Bill Calkin who scored 13 points against Bates and 18 points against both New Hampshire and B.U. Calkin, who has a tremendous start, set a new record for a Maine man in the 65 yard low hurdles (7.4), against New Hampshire and came back the next week to break his own mark against B.U. by one-tenth of a second. The Orono speedster has been racking up his points in the high and low hurdles, the 50 yard dash and the 300.

The New Hampshire meet saw Bill Johnson, Greenwich, Conn., a strapping 6'4" 235 pound sophomore, come unexpectedly into the limelight by taking firsts in both the discus and the weight throw. Ed Bogdanovich, the Bears' devastating halfback in football, set a new meet mark in the shot put with a heave of 46'9½". Calkin, besides setting a new mark in the low hurdles, broke the meet record in the high hurdles, (5.9), and tied the meet record in the 50 yard dash with a time of 5.6.

Against B.U.'s Terriers, the Jenkinsmen fell far behind at the beginning of the meet, closed fast but too late.

Hominalized the inhabitants of the quaint little college town. But this winter, with the ushering in of the new year, he made resolutions to turn over a new leaf and lead a better and cleaner life. And now his conscience has assumed such proportions that last week he was unable to sleep nights for thinking about a cut that he had forgotten to give Bradford the week before and which failed to cause Bradford a notification.

"But speaking about Bradford, he is as swift as ever. The only thing that ever succeeded in disturbing his mental equipoise was when he was on the Priam board and he stayed up nights trying to keep things out of himself.

"Who is basketball manager this year? I read an account in the paper the other day about an exciting game which was played at Orono between the University of Maine and the Home for Aged Women in Bangor. The article went on to explain that Soderstrom lost his head as usual and the game ended in one of the fiercest scraps seen on the campus since the time when 1903 and 1904 mixed 'em up in the old grand stand, way back in the fall of 1900.

"Yes, Shime, we did have a good schedule this year, one that any college would have been proud of. We played twenty-five seminaries, twelve high schools, ten grammar schools, five kindergartens and wound up the season in one grand triumph by defeating the co-eds in a hair raising contest by the close score of 65 to 60, a banner season which marked an epoch in the history of University of Maine athletics."

"Say, P I. I suppose you go to Brewer every night now that they have a free bridge?"

"Go to Dennysville you — — from Brunswick br-r-r-r -click!"

"Well, I'll be damned," said Marthy, bringing the instrument to a stop, "How in the name of all eternal did that record ever come to be mixed up with these?"

It was some time afterwards that Marthy got a satisfactory answer to the above question. Shime was visiting the boys on campus just before Commencement. In one of the rooms the fellows had congregated to talk over old times, and during the course of the conversation the subject of the mysterious record was brought up. It was Shime who promptly dispelled the superstitions that any one might have entertained in regard to it, by the following explanation: champagne.

"Well, do you know we have been hunting for that self-same record for some time, but until now had obtained no information concerning it. It was taken in this way. P I dropped into the office one day and while we were talking to the girls in the office, who was experimenting with a new dictation phonograph, recorded our conversation just for a joke. All the way I can account for Marthy's getting hold of it is that we recently returned a box of blank records to the Bangor Sporting Goods Co., and that through some accident that record got into the box."

BY CLASSES
Senior Alumni will hold their annual reunion on the week end of June 18-20, 1954.

1888
Nathaniel Wilson of 4432 N Wilson Ave, Fresno 4, Calif, recently corresponded with John W. Hatch, who is wintering in St. Petersburg, Fla. We were sorry to learn that Nathaniel had a bit of a setback in Sept, but he hastened to add that his rest with his daughters in Calif. was only temporary and he planned to be back in Reno in the office of his store by now.

1890
Clerk of Courts George G. Gould of 97 Hammond St, recently announced his candidacy for reelection to his office. A county superior court in Bangor George has served in this elected office continuously for seven four-year terms.

1895
C. Parker Crowell reports that his uncle F. Rollins can be reached at 785 Bunker Hill Dr., San Bernadino, Calif.

1897
Alvin W. Kenneally now greets us from 140 Shadwooday, Miami Springs, Fl.

1899
Gracia Fernandez de Arias (Mrs. Ramon) gives her address Sangerville, Me. She had previously resided at 84 Highland St., Bangor.

1901
Mr. and Mrs. Perley E. Jeffrey, residents of Milford, Mass, for over 50 years, held open house recently in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary. Mr. Jeffrey was an electrician for many years.

1904
Fifty years old, Dear, is a milestone on the road that goes the words of a familiar folk song, however, the fifty years since '04ers graduated from the portals of dear ole Maine can scarce be called a 'sentence.'

Plan to join your classmates and capture the memories of a half century ago on June 18, 19, and 20 at the University campus.

Presx Clif Chace of Baring tells us that we'll soon know many who are definitely coming. Get your card in the mail soon.

Mr. Earle R. Richards 11 Parent St, So. Berwick Roy H. Porter retired last December 1 from his post as Special Assistant to the Vice President and General Manager of the Mines of the New Jersey Zinc Co, at the conclusion of thirty-five and one half years of service. Roy is relaxing at his home, 400 Augusta Ave, Palmerton, Pa., until the fishing season starts April 15.

John P. Simmons was vacationing at his farm and permanent address in Bel- fast, Me., in January. He is now on a new assignment with the New Jersey Highway Department as Assistant Highways Engineer on construction and still may be addressed at 34 Taylor St., Newark, N J.

Mr. Karl MacDonald 27 Nelson Ave, Wellsville, N Y.

The Post Office has just advised that one of our "1888" classmates, Louis M. Hardy, is living. He resides at 412 E 6th St, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Charles H. Martin, c/o Phi Gamma Delta Club, 56th Street, New York, 19, evidently lives at the club. He was on the club's Board of Governors in 1952. He says he walks from two to four miles a week, so he is much more active than some of the other classmates.

W. E. Smith, 3452 41st Avenue, S.W., Seattle 6, Wash., sends in a postal that reads like this: Alive, yes, Health, 50-50, Retired, no; Fishing, fair, Golf, no, 1957 Reunion, yes. Bill took a trip East last summer and in his spare time managed to call on a few classmates.

Mildred Mansfield Martin, 11 Shepley St, Portland, Me., expected to take a trip to the West coast in January, where she will spend a month or six weeks with relatives and friends.

Frank W. Trombley, retired, did some research work on dinnerware and picked up some of his old customers. During the summer he and his wife came to Buffalo to visit and then went to Yacht Harbor, Ridgely, Ont., where they said they stayed until it got so cold the lather froze on his face when shaving. He lives at 602 Lexington Avenue, Terrace Park, Ohio.

Joe K. Goodrich, 311 Elm St, S. Wisconsin Rapids, Wis., did not get to Maine last summer as he was called home to Skowhegan in April. He made a visit to the University but did not see a soul he knew. What hurt, he said, is no one ever heard of his car running down hill at Orono into the river. He visited "Pat" Butterworth '06 and W. E. Farnum '17 at Tufts College.

At a recent election of Kora Temple, Order of The Mystic Shrine, of Lewiston, Me., Walter L. Emerson, Sr., of Lewiston was re-elected president of the Past Potenates Association.

Retiring as moderator of the Barnstable Town Meetings after 21 years of service is Henry A. Ellis, a Hyams attorney. He has previously served in the State Legislature.

45th Reunion, June 18-20, 1954
George L. Smith is on R.F.D., St. George, Me.

At 655 Brooks St., P.O. Box 73, Laguna Beach, Calif., we find Helen Steward Bradstreet (Mrs. Alv.) Plan to be in Orono for your 'forty-fifth.'

1911
George D. Beare, general manager of the St Regs Paper Company's Bucksport Mill, has been elected to the board of directors of the Maine Publicity Bureau.

Taking a tour in the south, we would find Don P. Oak at 1007 Silliman Blvd., Tulsa 3, Okla., and John J. Coker at 2440 4th Ave., San Diego 1, Calif.

Arthur G Eaton of Bangor is on the Board of Trustees at the Bangor Theological Seminary. He serves the State Mutual Life Assurance Co of Worcester, Mass., as Associate General Agent Arthyn (Ramon) Civic, Masonic and Church bodies in Bangor.

40th Reunion, June 18-20, 1954
Ernest L. Goodspeed now receives mail at Law Office, 284 Water St., Augusta.

Benjamin B. Anthony is in Aberdeen, So Dakota, at 410 8th Ave., S.E., c/o Mrs. G. N. Williamson.

Make Orono your destination for your 'fortieth.'

Mrs Evelyn W Harmon (Evelyn Winship) Livermore Falls

I must have been exceptionally good this past month, because I received so many wonderful letters from our classmates I enjoyed reading them so much, and I know you will enjoy them just as much. The first to arrive was from Mrs Louis B (Marian Plummer) Cook of Rockland. She has been working as a clerk in a ladies' garment store (Savitt's for twenty years. She has a son and a daughter, both married, and three grandchildren. She is the Corresponding Secretary of the Emblem Club and a member of the Maine Garden Club. Her husband have lived in Rockland for thirty years and like the coast very much. We spent many hours doing Trig together back in college days, and I was so happy to hear from her.
I am so pleased to have a "lost" member to report. Mrs. Albert M. Riley (Maine) is living in Waldoboro, having moved back to her home town from Portland four years ago. She and her husband plan to see the Bowdoin-Maine football game every fall. Her son was graduated from Maine in 1950.

I received such an interesting letter from Lawrence E. Philbrook of Philbrook Farm Inn and Cottages, "Where the view is always out for those seeking peace and contentment," in Shelburne, New Hampshire. Isn't that a beautiful spot? After college, Lawrence went home to help in the management of the old family place—general farming and a resort Inn, which was started in 1861. He has three daughters—all graduates of Maine. Helen, the oldest, is the Executive Hostess of the Blaine House at Augusta and social secretary to Mrs. Cross. The other two are there with him, and there is also a granddaughter. He has been Town Selectman and Town Clerk for some thirty-five years. Secretary-Treasurer of the Coos County Farm Bureau for the past twelve years, and a member of the County Forest Advisory Board. If I ever go to the White Mountains again, I am going to try to get to Shelburne, and look up this interesting place.

Mrs. Emma Perry Means owns and operates a small country theatre in Machias. As a former ticket seller, in 1892, she has been selling tickets for the past forty years. A short time ago, she flew back from Washington, D. C., with her daughter, Priscilla, and her three month old son, Emma's first grandchild. Her daughter graduated from Colby Jr. College, Newton, N. H., and Emkens College. She married Edwin Nelson Rice of Washington, D. C., who was a Lt. at the Rockland Naval Station. They live on Connecticut Avenue in Washington.

From a newspaper clipping from Panama City, dated Dec. 1, came this piece of news which should be of great interest to every member of our class. It was Brig. Gen. A. L. Hamblen, Chief of the U.N. repatriation group, who sent the plan to the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission for starting explanations to the South Korean prisoners of war who are the Reds as repatriation. The General is a member of the Class of 1916.

Lewis O. Barrows, ex-Governor of Maine, secretary and director of the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company of Boston, has been elected a director of the Transportation association of America. He has moved from West Newton to 20 Chapel St., Brookline 46, Mass.

I am so very enthusiastic about the letters which have been receiving lately. Please keep them coming. If they do not appear in one of the ALUMNUS, they will come out in the next issue.

At a recent annual corporation meeting of the Portmouth Trust Co. Lawrence E. Mulloney was chosen to the Board of Directors. Lawrence is presently president of the Portmouth Chamber of Commerce, a Housing Authority Commission and general manager of the C. H. Sprague & Sons Co.

Maine Publicity Bureau members at their annual meeting elected Edward W. Collins of Caribou as chairman of the board. The Maine Securities Co of Portland announces Kenneth T. Wooster as Sales Representative. Paul E. Wiggins is retired and presently at the New England Music Camp, Oakland, Me.

Down in Chattanooga, Tenn., at 14 Ormand Dr., lives Thurlie S. Whitehouse. 35th Reunion, June 18-20, 1954

Are you planning to be in Maine for your 'thirty-fifth'?

1921 Mrs. Harold P. Wood (Leta Weymouth) North Berwick

It recently received special attention that Leon O. Marshall was recently cited by the Asn of County Club Agents of the Agricultural Extension Service for the Distinguished Service Award for outstanding work performed as County Club Agent of Worcester, Mass.

Stanford E. at 2 Claridge Court, Montclair, N. J. He took a law course at U. after graduation from Maine and is associated with the Fidelity and Casualty Co. of N. Y. City in their Law Dept.

Mr. Vernon F. Hobbs can be reached at 3203 Burnam Wood Rd., Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome C. Burrows are reached now at P.O. Box 114, Rockland, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wass have as their present address 110 Woodland Rd., Auburndale, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ginsburg (our President) are planning a Caribbean cruise before long. Have a wonderful trip, George, and tell us about it.

1922 Mrs. Albert E. Libby (Minnie Norell) 55 Bayview Ave., So. Portland

Our congratulations to you, Myron E. Watson, on being admitted to partnership in the firm of Boit, Dalton and Church. Myron joined the Travelers Insurance Co. soon after graduation, as field representative in the Portland, Me., office, later being transferred to the Boston office of Travelers as associate manager of the life, accident and group department. In 1930 he joined the Boit organization where he organized and started the firm's life, accident and group department. It is good to know when one of our classmates receives his just reward.

A lost member in the person of Claude Rice has turned up for this report at Black Horse Lane, Cohasset, Mass.

Russell Washburn has moved from California to 3660 North Avenue N., St. Petersburg, Florida.

Wish Elwood Wilkins would answer my letter to let us know what he has been doing in Paducah, Ky., or is it top secret? The Alumni Office informs that he is back again at 1 Beech Tree Lane, Bronxville, 8, N. Y.

Didn't realize until a clipping from the Alumni Office revealed that Errol Dearnorn has distinguished himself with 31 years of service at Farmington State Teachers College, being named its first president in 1945 when it became a state college. "One of his outstanding services there," said Dr. E. H. "was his initiative in organizing a campaign for funds for a new gymnasium. President Dearnorn resigned in January to retire. I noticed that Marjorie Whitcomb's "(Mrs. Sterling Shaw '24) son John is among the freshmen pictured in the Nov. ALUMNUS.

Richard Libby, son of Minnie Norell and Albert E. Libby '10, also a freshman at Maine, missed the picture and wasn't in the list of those not present when taken.

A few changes of address should be noted. Rev. Laurence Porter has moved to 225 Bradley St., Portland 4, Mrs. Joseph F. Hughes is at 40 Locust Drive, Summit, N. J. Paul D. Sullivan lives at 121 So. Jarden St., Shenandoah, Pa.

Sumner Hopkins has moved from Greenfield, N. H., to the Bangor House, Bangor, Maine.

Fred Jordan, Portland Manager of home agency office of Union Mutual Life Insurance Co., was recently elected president of Maine State Chamber of Commerce. He has always given unselfishly of his time to municipal projects, campaigns and committees.

Raymond Adams of Bangor was elected to be a 33rd Degree Mason at Nat'l meeting of Supreme Council, AASKRNMJ held in Chicago. Edward Hacher of Portland also has been elected. Ray has been a member of 22 men from Bangor who have annually presented the 20th degree at the Maine Consistory meeting in Portland for the past 21 years, last eight being in complete charge. He was named to the grand council and made a member at large of Internat's Org. of the DeMolay.

1923 Mrs. Norman Torrey (Toni Gould) 9 Poplar St., Bangor

Tidings from afar this month! They are most welcome and also help to keep our batting average on the publishing score way out in front.

Everett Mansur, whose address is 505 Segovia Ave., San Gabriel, California, is a Planning Consultant for a number of cities and counties in that State, including Arcadia, Bakerfield and Santa Barbara as well as being a member of the San Gabriel City Planning Commission. His many publications include, "How's That? Don't's for Planning Commissions" in the Jan. issue of The American City Magazine, and articles in Western City Planning & Civic Annual for 1951. Everett says that his wife was born in Dover-Foxcroft so "we try to get back to Maine visit every once in a while." We hope the next time will be soon and that we get a chance to get caught up on old times.

John Seymour, as you may know, is a successful New York attorney located at 30 Rockefeller Plaza under the firm name of Bauer & Seymour. Although John graduated from Maine as a Chemical Engineer, he has his L.L.B. and Doctorate from George Washington Law. Boating appears to be his second love because he has a rank of Commodore-Western Long Island Sound Lighting Fleets. He is also a member of the International Board and a Delegate YALI.

Henry. Doten, business manager at his Alma Mater, has a way of getting around too and he recently attended a meeting of the National Federation of College & University Business Officers Assoc. in New York City. This Committee is sponsoring a study pertaining to the standardization of certain business procedures in institutions of higher learning and is made up of representatives from each of the five regional business associations in the U. S. It is planned to make a pilot study in 12 small or medium-sized institutions, mainly along the Atlantic seaboard.

I am grateful for your personal response and hope that more will do likewise.

1925 Mrs. Merrill Henderson (Anne Thurston) Quechee, Vt.
In December the consolidated school was dedicated in Deseb. This is known as the Harland A. Ladd School, in honor of our former classmate and Commissioner of Education, Harland A. Ladd. Mr. & Mrs. Hale O. Daggett (Helen Burton) after having a military address for a while are now in Rochester, N. Y. Box 184, R.F.D. #2.

Lincoln L. Sennett, president of Washington State Teacher's College at Machias, was re-elected chairman of Maine teachers college and normal school administrators.

Bob Haskell has announced that he will seek re-election to a fifth consecutive term for the State Senate in the June primaries. He has a long list of very successful political offices which he has held, so our very best wishes go to him.

However, there is keen competition for the above office. Another classmate, also of Bangor, Earle M. Hallman, is seeking the nomination. He too has quite a list of political positions to his credit. Good luck, Earle.

Oral Alton Hardy, formerly with the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, in Boston, retired in Oct., 1924. He has recently moved to Rehobeth, Me.

1926 Mrs. Albert D. Nutting (Leonie Dakin) 17 College Higs., Orono
C. Michael Dowd is receiving mail at Box 1813, Portland, Maine.

Marion Eaton Vanderbeck is teaching Latin at Orono High School this year so she can be near her mother who is not well. She will continue her sailing school as usual next summer.

Joseph D. Doherty is Consulting Engineer for Island Creek Coal Sales Co in Huntington, W. Virginia.
 Ralph F. Dudley's address is Box 305, Rockland, Maine.

Marjorie Lee is at 200 Atlantic Ave., Long Branch, N. J.

Walter Mack has moved from Calais, Maine, to Jackson, South Carolina. Another member of the class who has deserted the Coast of Maine is Howard H. Small who has gone to Newton Road, R. F. D., Danbury, Conn.

Edmund E. Gonyer is manager of the W. T. Grant Co., store at 110 Bleeker St., Utica 2, New York.

Oscar Wyman's daughter, Gertrude, was married at The Church of Universal Fellowship in Orono on December 20th to Ll David Charles Bepple.

Dick Holmes was really anxious to tell you all that Dr. Olin Moulton will lecture for the Class of 1929. He is traveling from Reno, Nevada. And Bill Bixby is crossing a bit of territory from Phoenix, Arizona, to add to the presence that he's bringing. His sons, age 7 and 10, to get a look at "Maine." Surely those of you in the near east will certainly plan to be in one of things when dishes are minimal compared to these treks from the Southwest.

Just think, in three months with the final June days we will be counting for our "twenty fifth" Count on being with us in Orono.

Raymond Ernest, Principal of Mt. Desert High School, has been elected principal of Bucksport High School. Raymond and his family are well known to many in Bucksport where he served in local schools for 15 years previously.

Mrs. Dewitt H. Brake (Esther Hawkes) locates west out at 610 Lawrence Ave., Yuba City, Calif.

The Travelers Insurance Co. has appointed Roger C. Wilkins as vice president recently.

1930 Mrs. Elfred L. Leech (Pauline Hall)
Homer Folks Hospital, Onontio, N. Y.
William Flynt has a new address of 8 Newcombe Road, Melrose, Mass.

Barbara Higgins has moved to Ithaca, N. Y., 101 West Upland Road.

Russell Lathrop, manager of the W. T. Grant Co. in Bangor, has been named chairman of the 1954 financing campaign of the Penobscot County Chapter of the American Red Cross. "Russ" has a son, Kenneth, a junior at Bowdoin College, and a daughter, Elizabeth, a freshman at Brewer High.

Maxwell K. Murphy took the position last April of Patent Counsel for Detroit Harvester Company. During the next six months he and his wife (Ursula Sprague) manage their Florida apartment group, "Sula's Sands," at 901 North Riverside Drive, Pompano Beach. In summer they reside at 535 W. Golden Gate, Detroit, III.

Preston Spalding is at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, M.O.O., 2904.

Edward K. Stanley has moved from Jersey City to 195 Kent Street, Hackensack, New Jersey.

1931 Mrs. Sam Sezak (Ethel Thomas)
4 Gilbert St., Orono
Congressman Clifford G. McIntyre will be appointed chairman of the State Republican Convention to be held in Bangor on April 1, 1954, is the advance release by Bradford Hutchins, Maine's GOP head.

The Maine Pomological Society elected Stanley Painter of Augusta president at their annual meeting in Lewiston. For your information the Pomological Society is in common vernacular "Apple Growers."

1932 Miss Angela Minutti
7 Catil St., Apt 5, Bangor
Beulah Bradley, formerly of Bangor, has chosen the religious life. After a few years of teaching in Aroostook County and a few years of office work in Bangor, she entered the order of the Sisters of Mercy. As Sister Mary Euphrosina, she is now teaching at the College of Our Lady of Mercy, 242 Walton Street, Portland, Maine. I called at the college a few weeks ago to see Beulah and we had a nice visit. She has been doing graduate work at Boston College during the summer vacations and in 1952 received her master's degree in bio-chemistry at Fordham. At the present time she is teaching biology at the college and also does some teaching at the Mercy Hospital in Portland. Perhaps some of you saw an article in the Portland Sunday Telegram a few months ago about the colleges in Portland, which included a reference to the College of Our Lady of Mercy with a picture of Sister Mary Euphrosina in the classroom surrounded by a group of "building biologists." The College of Our Lady of Mercy is a college for women and gives degrees in liberal arts, sciences and education. Entered are both lay students and Sisters of Mercy who plan to teach.

Francis J. McCabe has just retired from the Maine State Police, after having completed 25 years of service, being Police Chief since 1948. Francis was a Military Police lieutenant-colonel in World War II, and served as warden of the Maine State Prison for two years.

Major Mildred E Smith has been in Heidelberg, Germany, since June of 1933, where her assignment is with the Adjuntant General's Division, U. S. Army, European Headquarters. Her address is:
AG Division USA, APO 403, c/o Postmaster, N Y. Mildred writes that she has been very busy in her off duty hours between sight-seeing and attending evening classes in economics, geography, and German. At Mildred was going to have a 5-day leave after Christmas and was planning to visit St. Maurit, Switzerland, hoping to do some skiing, skating and sleigh-riding as well as some work with her camera.

Francis Ricker received an honorary S. T. D. from the Starr King School for the Ministry in June of this year. Francis is now executive secretary of the Pacific Coast Unitarian Council, serving all the local congregations west of the Rocky Mountains. He entered the Unitarian ministry after graduation from Andover-Newton Theological School and has served churches in Medfield and Waltham, Mass., and Columbus, Ohio. His address is: 2441 Le Conte Ave., Berkeley 9, Calif.

Through the Alumni Office, c/m the following addresses, with no other remarks:
Lester C. Fickett, 2333 Rustic Rd., Dayton, Ohio;
Mi and Mrs. Arthur Lufkin, Jr., 89 Hawthorne Ave., Needham, Mass.
Wilfred S. Davis, U. S. Forest Service, Bishop, Calif.
John Murchie Lane, 77 Glen St., Melrose, Mass.

A very welcome letter came from Tom Desmond just a few days before this column was due. He sent along some items he had picked up recently.

It would help this column tremendously if more of you would do the same.

Tom writes that John Chandler is living in Reading, N. J., and is employed by the Calco Chemical Division of the American Cyanamid Co. at Bound Brook, N. J. He has two children, a boy and a girl.

Freeman Webb just bought a house in Portland on Codman Street which makes him a neighbor of John Doyle who lives on the same street. Freeman is opening an insurance office in Portland. He is associated with his brother Oscar who maintains an office in Bangor.

Tom asked me to include this special notice to men living in and around Boston. "With almost 25 female alumni in the Greater Boston Area I have not seen a single 33er at one of our weekly luncheons in the three years I have been here. The luncheons are "dutch," strictly informal, at any time between 12 and 1:30 p.m. every Friday. You simply order from the menu. The luncheons are held at the Boston City Club on Washington Street over Thompson's Spa and beside the Boston Post newspaper office."

The Reverend Leon A Dean has moved from Fairfield, Conn., where he has been minister of the Greenfield Hill Congregational Church to 331 Lake Ave., Aishabula, Ohio.

Norman Tule who has been in Whin-chendon, Mass., is now at Edgewood Beach, Menominee, Mich.

Arnold Peacock who is with Hygrade-Sylvania is now living at 24 O Rano St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Martin Offinger has recently changed his address to 17 Stratford Drive, Moorristown, N. J.

20th Reunion, June 18-20, 1954

First of all I would like to say don't give up—we are going to have a twentieth reunion! Plans are in the making—it just isn't quite as simple as though Phil Parsons and I lived in the same city. I've been talking to Dot Findlay Carnochan about their twentieth which was last year and she is so enthusiastic that I've caught it too. They had 75 back and she's still talking about what a wonderful time they had. Let's see if we can beat them. I've had several calls and letters about it and am very anxious to be able to give the news that plans are proceeding and watch this column and the mails for more details.

HAD a dandy letter from Joseph Massaro, M.D., of Manchester, Conn. Joe has not let any grass grow under his feet since '34. He has been married 12½ years and has two boys and two girls. After 7 years with the du Pont Co. and the Conn. State Health Dept. he changed from Engineering to Medicine. He has been practicing medicine since '46. That must have taken courage and a lot of hard work. Right now Dr. Massaro is building a new home large enough for his brood (is there one large enough?) and will be a next door neighbor of the Del Ballard's. Joe has seen John Pollock who is general manager for Decotone Products, Fitzburg, Mass., and Dick Lull who is chemist, Food & Drug Dept., U. S. Govt., Philadelphia. Thanks so much to Joe Massaro for the kind of letter a secretary loves to get.

We find James H. Rice at 1 Axon
Court, Slinger Lands, N. Y. James had previously been living in Pennsyl-

Lloyd E. Goodwin has switched southern states. From Macon, Ga., he moved to Regis Kraft Co., Jacksonville, Fla.

At an area meeting of the Maine Heart Association in Bangor we find Lloyd included as a local chairman. None other than Lawrence Chatto of Orono.

Down in Waltham, Mass., the Community Council heard three of the local doctors explain their specialties. Dr. Ira Flaschner, who has been chief of the Anesthesiology department in Waltham since 1946, spoke on the history of the use of anesthetics.

Be making plans to attend your 'twentieth.'

played down the police powers of the Department and shifted to an attitude of service to both labor and industry.” As you may know, Marion is the only woman in the United States holding a post of Labor Commissioner.
George Carlisle of Bangor has been elected to membership in the Bangor
Mechanic Association.
Oscar Fellows will be a candidate in June for re-election to the office of County Attorney. Oscar has been practicing in Maine since 1938, when he was admitted to the bar. He was in Portland for a year, but has been in Bangor ever since, with the exception of the two years that he served in the Navy.
Mrs Raymond (Prudence) Derry is now an eighth grade teacher at the Pollard School in Plaistow, N. H.
Raymond B. Thorne has moved from Waco, Texas, to 202 Kaywood Drive,
Denton, Texas.
Mr and Mrs Ralph Stone have moved from 44 Woodland Road, Stoughton,
Mass., to 135 Burgess Ave., Westwood,
Mass.
Philo Pendell has moved from 56 Chestnut Street, Wakefield, Mass., to 27 Woodbrrier Road in that city.
Robert Lane has moved from 143
Hawkes Street to 66 Stroudwater Street,
Westbrook, Me.
Louisa R. Parrott, Engineer with the Lewis Assos., Inc., can be found at 96
Caiyle Place, Roslyn Heights, N. Y.
Isobel Freeman is teaching General
Science in the Pickering Junior High School in Lynn, Mass., and is living at 103 Broad Street.
Paul Goode, state agent for the New York Underwriter’s Insurance Co of Portland, Me., is now located at 25 Vincent St., So. Portland, Me.
Velma Colson, a buyer for Abraham and Straus of Brooklyn, N. Y., is now living at 131 Hicks Street in Brooklyn.
The stork flew from New York to Maine this past week and brought Tom and me our second son. His present five and one-half pounds hardly qualify him as a candidate for the U. M. squad, but he’ll be an aspirant soon.

So sorry to be slow in reporting Christmas card notes. The last week of November was rather hectic this year. However, better late than never. Also, in the April issue of the Alumni we publish several ‘36 families. Be sure to check next month.
I think I told you that I saw Bruce and Claire (Saunders) Ashworth last summer, but at the time they were visiting in Bluehill and I did not learn their new address. They were in the process of getting settled in Conn., after having been in Texas for years. Now I can tell you that their address is 45 Lancaster Road,
West Hartford 7. Conn. Bruce is Asst.
Mgr. of the Hartford branch office of the Travelers Ins. Co. Clair says that they expect to get to Maine often now that they are back in New England. We’ll be waiting for that long postponed visit!
I received a very nice letter from William Hall who is the father of Margaret (Hall) Hook. He says that Arnold and Margaret are living at 18686
Fairport Ave, Detroit 5, Mich Parke.
Davis and Co have recently appointed Arnold as Technical Director for the preparation of the vaccine to be used by the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis in their mass inoculation for the Polio project next spring.
Thanks so much, Mr. Hall, for this information. Perhaps I’d have better luck if I started to plead with the parents to send in news!
Ernie Saunders has not only a change in address, but a change of title. From Capt. to just plain Mr. He was with SHAPE and is now back in the States at 573 Main St., Lewiston, Me. It would be very interesting to hear from you, Ernie.

Thanks to the Alumni Office we have a couple of items this month. However, they also send word that ‘37’s mailbag is never empty and it is getting increasingly more difficult to scarce up news of ‘37ers in these parts. Some of you must have changed positions, received promotions or taken a trip, any of which might be interesting to all of us.
Let us hear about your activities and families in the near future—better still—don’t wait or the column may be missing one of you.

According to the Oxford Log. Harry
B. Conner, 695 Somerset Street, Rum-ford, has been promoted from Technical Assistant Plain Paper to Assistant General Superintendent effective De-Cember 1, 1953. Co gratulations to you,
Harry, upon your promotion and the fine record of your progress in the paper business. Right after graduation Harry went to work as a Shift Foreman for the International Paper Company, Niagara Falls, New York. In 1940 he joined the Oxford Paper Company as a sales man and in 1941 started work in the Research Laboratory. By 1944 he was promoted to Assistant Group Leader, Research Department. Harry became Superintendent of the Oxford Electro Chemical Plant in 1945 and in 1948 Technical Assistant of the Machine Coated Division. He was transferred to Technical Assistant of the Plain Paper Division in 1952. Harry is a member of the Fine Papers Committee of the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association—quite an enviable record!

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs Mar-vine I. Bain (Nancy Woods) upon the birth of a second boy, Richard L., who arrived on New Year’s Day. The Bains are now living at 311 Lucille Avenue in Norfolk, Virginia—I trust it is not a repeat on this address.

The Alumni office forwarded a note from Mrs. Frank S. Wilson (Jeanette Mackenzie) whose address is 14 Rotten-ord Road, c/o American Embassy, New Delhi, India. To quote from her letter:
“We came out to New Delhi on June first when Frank took on the job of Industrial Development Advisor in the T. C. M. (Technical Cooperation Mission) part of the Point IV Project. We, Frank, Sandy 10-years and our daughter, Bitty-5, came by boat through the Mediterranean Sea and flew from Bierut, Africa. Wonderful trip. India is a worthwhile experience, a land of contrast and color. I am busy teaching at the American School P. T. A. Welfare work with the five American Women’s clubs and studying India.” She lists as her occupation:
Running a home with six servants.
Typical in India. Thank you, Jeanette, for the interesting note and we shall be happy to hear more about your life in India another time.

I hear that “Big Hugh” Carey still has those Big League aspirations—at least it has been reported that he spent quite a lot of time with the Red Sox, trying to get in condition, no doubt. They say “Little Hugh” is quite a little leaguer too.

Another A.T.O., Bob Choppee, has just been appointed general manager of the Auburn Motor Sales, Inc. Ford Dealers. Since servicing a hatch with the Navy, Bob has been treasurer of Motor Supply Co. (successor to Fuller’s, Inc.) in Lewiston. Before the war Bob was with Central Maine Power Co. Bob married Mary-Belle Flynn and they have two daughters.

On January 8th, the Blow-Knox Co. (Chemical Plants Div.) announced that Elwood F. D’azzu Additon had been appointed Sales Engineer for its mid-Atlantic District with offices in Philadelphia, Pa. His services will be available to a five-state area—"South Dakota" has been with the Blow-Knox approximately 10 years and previously was with Allied Chemical & Dye and American Chemical Co. If memory serves me right, D’azzu married Betty Gruningski. How well I remember Dazzy and Hammy Gilbert in the company of Hannibal Haze our freshman year. Wonder if the “Casanova of Hartford” has slowed down yet?

Thanks to Mary (Wright) Donnini for calling in the following. Kay Rowe has been a lab technician of the New Britian, Conn. General Hospital since 1945 and has been head of the Lab for the past three years.

Mary Ellen (Raye) Hardie is spending this winter in Eastport.

Hope Mary and Dune will forgive me for their last name in the Feb. issue—I always said you shouldn’t try to type so soon after New Years.

Beth was in New York for a few days during the middle of January. Saw Buzz Sherry and talked to John Gowell. John and Nina have purchased a new home in N.Y. They are moving in soon as they get their license. A.D.A. is in the making station.

For news of the Merrills see the ‘40 column.

Anybody else who wants to get into the act is sure welcome!

15th Reunion, June 18-20, 1954
Didn’t realize ’til I received a note from the Alumni Office the other day that this is OUR Reunion Year!

So start making your plans to attend and I’ll keep you posted on all plans and developments. Fifteen years—it’s hard to believe, isn’t it?

Incidentally, it’s high time I retired from this office—other classes change every three or four years and it does make for a more interesting and varied column.

Had a nice note from Charlotte King Pierce. She enclosed a newspaper picture of her son, William’s son, James Robert Maney II. He really is adorable and quite a baseball fan. I would say The Manager is a good boy.

Charlotte had seen Bob Feero and his family. Bob is a research chemist with the armament division of Universal Match Corp. From all reports, he has a very lovely and talented wife, Ruth, and all the Ferros live at 904 S. Johnson, Carbondale. They have two sons, Jay and Bobby. Thanks, Charlotte.

A letter from Virginia Tuttle Merrill brought all kinds of news about her family—a new address, a new baby, and a report on her other activities that would leave the rest of us poor overworked gal gasping for breath.

Virginia is married to Wilford Merrill ’38 and they make their home in Solon, Me., having recently moved from Pleasant St. to a big house on S. Main St. They have three children: Peg who is in Grade 6, Jim in Grade 2, and little Jane Ellen who arrived last April 6.

Virginia’s husband built a boat for the Boston Boat Division of the Allen Quinby Vener Co., and “Tut” herself lends a hand at the business during the winter months when there is no full time crew. As for her other activities to fill in the idle hours, she writes, “Between being town clerk and treasurer and working for The Sentinel and keeping books for two outfits and being a notary public and keeping house and helping finish boats, I have managed to paint the floors in our new house, and move, and get a driver’s license and buy an old Packard and trot around the countryside.” And then she adds that if any of her friends care to visit the Merrills, they can always find a place to roam in the shed chamber among the stored antiques—and she’s always happy to water the soup.

Thanks to Virginia we have a column this month. Meanwhile all four Grants are tugging their skis on these wonderful Vermont hills, and at the rate they are progressing, Nancy and Crandy (who at 5 has his first boots and real skis) will soon be able to ski rings around Mama and Papa.

The marriage of Harold E. Ferry to Miss Villora E. Knowles took place on Jan. first in So. Brewer. Mrs. Ferry was graduated from Newport High School and has been employed by the New England Telegraph and Telephone Co. as chief operator in the Waldoboro Telegraph office. Harold served four years in the USAF in W.W.II with active duty in the Pacific. He is now associated with Lewis Brothers, Inc. They will make their home in Newport, Me.

I received a newsy letter from Allan Storer from which I shall quote, “The new year finds me in the Army as chief of the department of bacteriology and serology in the principal medical laboratory in Korea. I am nearing the end of six months’ duty here. Sometime in early spring I hope to be in Japan and have my wife join me from stateside. Uncle Sam has employed me in uniform for seven years. I worked for Shiner Laboratories in Lawrenceburg, Indiana, for five years. Please pass my regards on to our fellow alumni of ’41.

Allan’s address is 1st Lt. MSC 0543446 Post Box 971 c/o P.M. San Francisco, Calif. Thank you, Allan, for the nice letter.

Our very best wishes for happiness in the years to come to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Martin (Hope Moody) who were married recently in Salt Lake City, Utah. The ceremony took place at St. Mark’s Episcopal Cathedral, Salt Lake City during the past Christmas season. After graduation with our class, Hope taught school in Maine and Vermont and has been a home demonstration agent for the University of Maine and the University of Wyoming. Mr. Martin graduated from the University of Utah and was in the Navy during World War II. He has been employed by the U. S. Geological Survey and is now pursuing graduate studies in micropaleontology at the University of Utah. The couple will reside at 342 Strong’s Court, Salt Lake City.

We are very happy to learn of the engagement of Gwendolyn Haskell to Chester Kaminski of Yonkers, New York. Gwen is employed by Christian E. Burykel and Associates in Yonkers. Mr. Kaminski works with F. and G. Wholesale Parts and Hardware Co. in Yonkers. The wedding will take place in February.

Howard L. Cousins, recently appointed attorney for the Bangor and Aroostook Railroad, was the luncheon speaker for a regular weekly meeting of the Bangor Rotary Club this winter. His discussion concerned opportunities in the state of Maine for young people and also touched upon some description of new and progressive industries which Maine now possesses and is rapidly acquiring.

Dallas H. Edwards, who is with the General Electric Company in Bridgeport, Conn., has recently received a promotion to be clock sales manager, as a result of a new division of authority for sales of GE electric housewares. Previous to his new position, Dallas was a special accounts representative in the clock department, and before living in Bridgeport, he was manager of the Small Appliance division, Chicago district of General Electric.

Mr. Paul Smith
P. O. Box 133
New York 25, N. Y.

There's lots of interesting news this month from the Bromen Browns (Marcia McCarthy) announce the birth of a daughter, Marcia Frances, last August 28. Richelle and Marie Marriner added a boy to their family in late October. Captain and Mrs. Carroll Stairs announce the birth of a daughter, Luann Beth, and on September 13, it is the marriage of Gilbert Mason Carlson to Elaine Louise Olson of Walther, Minn. First Lutheran church of the latter city. The bride is a graduate of Katharine Gibbs School. Gilbert is doing graduate work at Boston University. After finishing his studies at New Hampshire, he returned to Maine, and the couple took up living quarters temporarily in Milton.

Bufford F. Grant has become Water- ville's new Superintendent of Schools. A graduate of Washington State Normal School and the U. of M., he has taught in Bangor and Brewer and served as Superintendent in Ashland for five years and Union 69 in Camden for two years. Earl Rankin directed a production of "Bell, Book, and Candle" at the Community House in Scituate, Mass., on Dec. 10, 11, and 12. After majoring in Theatre and minoring in Music and the Dance at the U. of M., Earl studied at R.U. and the Janvce School of Boston. He has done summer stock at Camden, Maine, and at the Boston Tributary Theatre and has been associated with the Potomac Theatre in Washington.

Helen Myers recently became engaged to Arnold Waldron Thompson of Uxbridge, Mass. Helen is a teacher in the public schools of Franklin, Mass.

Donald B. Wheeler received the Charter as Underwriter Associate designation last October at a luncheon meeting of the Boston Life Underwriters Association. Don is division manager of the group sales and service department of the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co. To qualify for the C.I. U. designation, Don completed a difficult course of study and passed five examinations given by the American College of Life Underwriters. Benefactor of the Elmer and Gertrude G. Fernon of New Hampshire, was appointed several months ago to the Farmers Home Administration Committee for Carroll County, and serves as a veterinarian in that county.

Lt. John J. Creamer has been promoted to the rank of Lt. Commander. He is serving on the Carrier Midway and is at Norfolk, Va.

Joseph Eliot Goldsmith recently married Sarah Libby Silverman at the Boston Club. The bride attended the U. of M. and the U. of New Hampshire. She received her B. S. and Ph.D. degrees from Emerson College. Joe, of course, was a classmate of ours. He is now engaged in the retail furniture business. The couple will complete their honeymoon at 221 Stillwater Ave., Old Town

Preston Rand, civilian secretary to Bangor Police Chief John B. Toole, is perhaps the first stenotypist in the state of Maine. As far as we can gather from Waye St. Greenwich's excellent article in the Bangor Daily News last Jan. 23, the new technique employs a sort of typewriter for shorthand, using English letters (not symbols) and operating on 23 keys that can be depressed either singly or in groups. Preston has already acquired a speed of 150 words per minute, which sounds exceptional for a stenotypist. With his new skill, he is that much closer to a cherished career as a professional court reporter. More power to you, Preston, and lots of luck.

Well, that's all for this month. Some of you haven't written a word yet about your winter activities, and here it's almost spring! And how about some pictures? THE ALUMNUS is asking for some.

10th Reunion, June 18-20, 1954

Received a long "newsy" letter from Hutch (Al Hutchinson) recently bringing me up-to-date on a few of our "strays." Hutch is still in Danvers, 69 Centre St., with his wife (Eddie Anne Young) 48, Suzanne—3 yrs., Tommy—1 1/2 yrs., and Bruce—1 yr. He is advertising manager of the local newspaper.

Carroll Richardson visited them last month while on a business trip from Virginia. He is with the progressive Maine Potato Growers and manages the seed division and is located in Presque Isle.

Hutch received a card from Ray andFrannie Neal (Frances Chapman '43) who are on a farm in Waldo and thereabouts, with their five boys and one girl. The Mert Meloons, (Jo Clark '45) live near the Hutchisons. They have two children, Scott and Nancy Jo. Mert is a district supervisor with the Liberty Mutual Life Ins Co in Boston.

Bob and Mary Nutter are the proud parents of a son, Robert Jr., Willie Nutter is in the insurance business in Sanford.

Sure do appreciate all the news, Hutch. P.S. Hutch also saw George Thompson during the holidays and he is working in California but hopes to be transferred to the East Coast.

Marion Korda is head music librarian at the Univ. of Louisville School of Music. She is a member of the Louisville Philharmonic Orchestra. Her mail goes to 2302 Woodford Place, Louisville 5, Ky.

Congratulations to the Leonard Wallaces (Priscilla Eaton) on the birth of a daughter, Sherrill Ann, born last May 15th. They also have two sons, Jeff—4 1/2 yrs., and Scott—2 1/2 yrs. Priscilla wrote that her husband had recently been transferred to Newington, Conn.—134 Reserve Rd.

Another prospective U. of M'er, Mark Shepley born on Nov. 27th to the Rices (Arietta Thorpe). Their mail goes to 17 Beacon St., Fitchburg, Mass.

Robert Byam received honorable mention in a Lowell newspaper for being a member of the Byam family traditional in Chelmsford, Mass., since 1635. Bob attended Lowell High, U. of M., and Duke University, and is a veteran of W. W II. The Byams have two children. Bob is in business with his brother, Arnold, Jr.

Capt. John Johnstone's address is:

Al Crockett has moved to R.D. #1, Box 142, Chester's Summit, Pa.

Several people have asked what we (The Cooks) are doing—Charlie is a salesman for the General Ice Cream Corp. (Se alta) covering Boston, Bar Harbor, Washington County, etc. Not very lucrative weather now! We have two children, Margo—4 1/2 yrs. and Charles III—2 1/2 yrs., who take up all my time.

The Reverend Charles E. Darrnett is really making the headlines these days. Early in January, the Brewer minister received the first D.A.R. Award of Merit ever given in the State of Maine. This award is presented "in appreciation of service to the community."

Then on January 14 many of Charlie's friends helped him celebrate "D-Day." This was a recognition day tendered him to show appreciation of his numerous friends for his kindness and service to all. The celebration was not sponsored by any one group, but was a public affair in which everyone could participate. Our congratulations to Charlie for these new honors. We expect to hear of more fine things issuing forth from Brewer, where he is the Methodist minister.

5th Reunion, June 18-20, 1954
Have you made plans yet for attending our Fifth Reunion? Let’s hope that many of our forty-niners will be able to get back. Looks like big things are planned for those days in June!

Dana and Flora Smith are now located at 900 State Street in Bangor while Dana finishes his work on a graduate degree at the University. Dana has been on active duty with the Navy as a Lt. JG for the past two years. Billie Jean Smith, 1½ yrs., keeps the spotlight for the present.

Jeanne (LeBaron) Sawyer writes that after four years of residence at Cornell husband Richard is now Dr. Richard Sawyer, assistant professor of Vegetable Crops at Cornell and presently stationed at the Research Farm at Riverhead, N. Y. The Sawyers have two blonde daughters, Meredith, called Polly, who is almost six years, and Nancy who is nearing four. Jeanne says they are also encumbered with tropical fish, two turtles, and are in hopes of finding a dog. Certainly sounds busy, folks.

Word from the Louise (Hilton) and Leonard Varnum tells us they now have two daughters, Kathy and Rebecca Sue. The second young lady arrived on September 16th. The Varnums are living in E. Outh. Hope (Bigbee) and Ted Robinson are now living in Dover. They have a daughter about 1 year old. Ted is working for International Harvester in Dover. Jean (Cunningham) and Ken Jackson are back in New England. They and children Peter and Pamela are in West Acton, Mass. Mail goes to Box 66 there. The Jacksons would like to see any old ‘Maiiacs’ in that vicinity.

Likewise the Paul Clifords (Barbara Gammell) and their sons, Meade and David, have moved back east. Paul after over four years service in California with the Forest Service, has accepted a transfer to the Division of Engineering and Aerial Mapping Project. In hopes of being more settled they have purchased a house and one and a half acres in Alexandria, Va. The Clifords’ mail goes to 1972 Oak Drive, Groveton in Alexandria.

Back from Alaska are the Rudy Honkolas family. They are now living in Salisbury, N. H. Viking Anne arrived last May and Willy is now over two years. Rudie and Barb (Hastings) are proprietors of Honkolas in Franklin and sell sporting goods and cosmetics in the store. Their address is RFD No. 1, Dover.

Dott Poulin is married to Clifton Bouton and they are living in LaMarre, Colo. Both are teaching. Dot is teaching Mexican children.

Jayne (Hanson) and ‘Bun’ Bartley and Peter are now living at 4 Maine Ave., in Millinocket. ‘Bun’ is with Great Northern.

William Brennan has taken a position on the editorial staff of the Boston Herald.

The Tudor Bradleys are now living at 315 B Granfield Ave., Bridgport, Conn. He is the assistant manager of the W. T. Grant Store in Bridgeport.

Gerald Rudman is really keeping busy. He is publicity director for the Penobscot County Chap. of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and has been named publicity chairman for the 1954 March of Dimes campaign in Bangor. Gerry is associated with his father in law practice in Bangor. The Rudman family live at 9 Madison St. There Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ford of Bucksport are the proud parents of a daughter, Nancy Joanne.

Joe Cobb has accepted a position with the News Dept. of WCHS-TV.

John Donovan recently moved to 261-64 Langston St., Glen Oaks, L. I., N. Y. Cecil Lancaster became town manager of Wells in late October. He had previously served in Hartland. The Lancasters have one child.

Thomas Fowke is living at 261 Concord Way, Atlantic Heights, Portsmouth, N. H. He is employed at Schiller Station with the Public Service Company of N. H. The Schiller electric power station’s main fuel-burning boilers boil mercury to make mercury vapor instead of boiling water to make steam for electric power.

Our dentist friends, Dr. Ralph and Mary (Dirks) Snyder and Dr. Keith and Barbara (Barney) McKay, went to Florida to visit friends early in December as their vacation.

Parker and Evelyn Blaney are living in Kittery. Parker is working in the shipyard as an engineer. During the summer, in addition, they ran a dairy bar. The Blaneys have two children.

Ruth (Gould) and Derril Hubbard live here in Madison. They have two boys, James, who is over four yrs., and Derrill Jr., who is one yr. Derrill is assistant master mechanic working for Great Northern. The Hubbards live at 23 Head Street.

I would like to hear from all of you that haven't been mentioned in the column to let me, and the rest of your friends, know of your whereabouts since graduation.

Well, to continue with the Mr and Mrs.

Beth Chick and Dana Warren are now enjoying a wonderful honeymoon in Honolulu, thanks to the U. S Signal Corps with which Dana is serving. I imagine they're enjoying the sand, sea and salt. That's living!

I was visiting Selma Urlang, who is now Mrs. Ralph Cope, in Cambridge, Mass., where Jerry is doing graduate work at Harvard. They are both enjoying the duties of housekeeping and are very happy.

Here's a quick resume of some of our working classmates:

John Cogswell is again in Skowhegan as a Home Demonstration Agent and likes it very much. Barb Hobbs is working as a medical secretary in Bangor. Walt Schurman tells us he is still in Dover-Foxcroft with the newspaper. Earl Steward is with the H. and W. Paper Co in Waterville.

Bill Scott, Jr., is employed by the Hahnel Bros Co in Lewiston.

A very nice call a little while ago from Mr. Dow of the class of 1898 told me that Donald Blanchard and his wife, Mary, have been the parents of twins since September. Diane and Donna are in excellent health and every one but Don and Mary. Don is with G.E. and was recently sent to their plant in Schenectady, New York.

Transferred, but on April 25, Katharine Hawley of Stillwater became Mrs. (Lt.) Merrill Day Bartlett of Belgrade Lake.

John Wills, Jr., and Arlene (Kit) Kidder were married May 23 in Portland. I saw them this summer and they certainly convinced me "it's life."

They look very happy!

June 22 at Newman Hall was the scene of the marriage ceremony of Mary Carrillo and Dave Chadwell. They will make their home in Lexington where Dave is a student at the University of Kentucky.

Claraelle Gooch became Mrs. Virgil William Hare of New Hartford, July 18. They will live in South Gouldsboro. He is from Sidney, Ohio, but is now assigned to the U. S. Navy Station at Winter Harbor.

Jeanne Frye married Charles Begley of Lawrence, Mass., in Harrington on June 29. They will reside in Waldoboro where he teaches English at Waldoboro High School.

Paul Gaudin of Newtonville, married Maria Colantonio, Newton Falls. They will live in Jamestown, N. Y., as he is a salesman for Lever Bros.

Joy Bolt and Sidney Folsom were married June 22 in Harpswell Center, Maine. They will live in New Haven where Syl is federal courts reporter with the New Haven Journal Courier.

In Lewiston on May 3 Betty Schneider married Julius Wise. Julius went to Maine for two years, served with the U.S.A. 18 months in Korea, and is now associated with his father in business.

Norma Drake became Mrs. Philip Arnold Black in Norwalk, Conn., June 1. He is a marine engineer for the Socony-Vacuum Co.

Dorothy Amergian is at Bangor High School this year as the Physical Ed instructor.

Jean (Gyger) and Angus Black are at Vermont Academy at Saxons River, Vt., where Gus is teaching Conservation, General Science, and Biology. They have a daughter, Sandra Ann, born March 13, 1953.

THE MAINE ALUMNUS

MARCH, 1954
A Meeting at Bowles' Tavern

On April 3, 1826, a meeting important to Portland’s future took place at Bowles Tavern at the corner of Federal and Temple Streets. There, on this Monday morning, were assembled nine men influential in civic and business affairs of the fast-growing city. There were Woodbury Storer, Cotton B. Brooks, Phineas Varnum, Nathaniel Mitchell, Joseph Pierce, John Perley, John T. Smith, Eliphalet and Samuel Adams. They met to adopt a set of by-laws for the newly incorporated Canal Bank. Late at this time Bowles Tavern, they met and voted... "That a lot of land be procured on Union Street for the purpose of erecting a building for the Bank." From this start, for a hundred and twenty-five years, The Canal National Bank of Portland has served Maine business without interruption, through political, economic and social upheavals.

Bowles Tavern, where the Bank’s incorporators first met, had a long and varied career. Started as a Public House in 1823 by Mr. Bowles, the original 2-story brick structure was built in 1791 by Eben Storer for a dwelling. After it became a Tavern operated by Mr. Bowles, it was the most popular and stylish public house in Portland. The various owners who succeeded Mr. Bowles added rooms until it was also the largest tavern in Portland. Samuel Haskell owned the place about 1835 and in 1840 it became The Elm House. It was the headquarters for all stage lines serving Portland — there were twelve stages daily by 1855, and both Federal and Temple Streets were at times crowded with arriving and departing coaches.

When Portland was the capital of Maine, State Senators and Representatives lived at The Elm House for months at a time. Many important decisions on the new state’s business and political affairs were made there. Hannibal Hamlin boarded at The Elm House while he read law at the offices of Fessenden and Dearborn. The Tavern was burned in the Great Fire of 1866.
