KATHERINE HEGARTY

A FEMINIST VIEWPOINT

By JoAnne Dauphinee

The shooting of Katherine Hegarty by three "peace" officers was a shocking result to a misguided police adventure. But, it was not the only result. Fear and suspicion of all police officers has increased among women I know. We are angry that those with power - on many fronts - choose to promote violence, and angry that the deadly violence is so often directed at women to no consequence. We are angry and not a little cynical about the officers stories and the System that will deal with them. Our outrage and cynicism given voice over this murder, is actually born from our wider experience with the trivializing of the harassment, battering, rape, and killing of women our society tolerates so easily. I'm beginning to see why the movie "Thelma and Louise" scared so many men. My first reaction to news of what they'd done to Katherine Hegarty - right after that familiar sinking feeling - was to gather up a few independent-minded women, circle the station, and blow them away. It is so easy for violence to breed violence.

There are many things we might choose to learn from this, and many roads we could take in our impossible efforts to set things right again. Some things are abundantly clear. Just as the beating of Rodney King in L.A. was typical - not unusual - so too, in Maine and throughout the U.S., violence has become commonplace. The U.S. is the most violent of all countries not at war. In the U.S., violence and disregard for people's pain is often portrayed as an acceptable - even desirable - "solution" by leaders in everything from the highest government offices, to business, to sports, to TV, movies and cartoons. From the infamous "Make my day" and "Read my lips" kind of posturing, to the serial-killer-of-the-month sensationalism of fact and fiction, we are saturated with violent words and images and actual violence.

Jack Hegarty has been quoted as saying "If there had been a man in that cabin, there never would have been a shooting." He is not alone in believing that the fact the officers were going against a woman played a major role in the officers actions. In the U.S., harassment and violence against women is practically the national pastime. And, I would add, the kind of woman she was - independent, highly-skilled, fun-loving, intelligent, outspoken - is exactly the kind of women men most fear and fantasize about "putting in their place". Passive, more accommodating women can take no comfort here however. Just being female in the U.S. puts us in considerable danger. The U.S. has the highest incidence of rape of all Western nations, and a recent study of middle school students revealed one-fourth of boys and one-sixth of girls said it was acceptable for a man to force a woman to have sex if he had spent money on her. An estimated third of all homeless women are fleeing domestic violence. A 1988 survey of U.S. companies found 90% had received complaints of sexual harassment and more than one-third had been sued by complainants. The rate of homicides and assaults is three to four times greater in the U.S. than Europe. By the time a child is 18, she or he will have watched some 40,000 murders and 250,000 acts of violence on TV. One in 8 Hollywood movies shows a woman being raped. And violence tends to be imitated. For example, police reports show that after the Super Bowl there are more complaints by battered women. Some feminists' attempts to link porn and violence has not been conclusive, but has strengthened the evidence that violent imagery breeds real violence.

Still, cold statistics do not begin to reveal all the ways women have devised to try to numb ourselves against the onslaught. It takes many tricks of the mind to live in the same wilderness, the same camping areas, the same neighborhoods, and sometimes the same houses with those we have reluctantly learned to mistrust. The courage it takes to just go to work in a country where being a sexual harasser is no impediment to a judgeship. Or, to be a community activist in a country where only 0.03% of rapes result in prison terms. (Less, if the rapist is from a prominent political family.) I'm scared for the young women and men who witness our hypocrisy toward women. It's a dangerous, sometimes deadly deception.

We can only speculate why Katherine Hegarty refused to open her door at 12:30 AM to several men claiming to want to interview her about burglaries in the area. It was more than reasonable for her to question who was there and what their intentions were. In fact, they admit lying about their intentions. It was more than reasonable for her to mistrust those intentions, having fired her gun earlier and having had previous negative dealings with two of the officers. Many Somerset county residents, I'm told, are fearful of current police practices which have come more often to include midnight raids and SWAT team tactics. Katherine Hegarty was among those concerned about police excesses.

When officers arrived, Katherine Hegarty was asleep. Ten minutes later she was dead. If the System says these officers acted responsibly, then the System sucks. The System works for those in power - white guys, rich guys, even big fish in small Dennistown ponds. It works for Clarence but not Anita, for three straight boys in Bangor but not a gay Charlie Howard, for L.A. cops but not Rodney King. And not for Katherine Hegarty.

We applaud the courage and determination of Jack Hegarty, Gail Edwards, Linda Smithers and others who continue to insist that we recognize the danger and outrage of such monstrous events having too little consequence. Join the efforts of the "Remember Kathy Hegarty Committee". We encourage women and men who value and respect women as human beings to find a way to join these efforts. We encourage women to take the power and live out your dreams. We encourage women to stand by each other. If we want peace we must work for justice. Justice for ALL people will only come when women and men who care ARE the system. Get involved. Lend a hand to some positive community effort. There is a bit of Dirty Harry in all of us, but, if you are a person prone to act out violence against others, seek help. Poet Anne Herbert advises, "Practice random kindness and senseless acts of beauty." Take a good long look at how women are treated. Better yet, stand by the women you know who work to expand the circles of justice and equality. Don't turn your head. Be a witness to injustice. Find your voice. In the '60s we used to say, "If you are not part of the solution, you are part of the problem." I still believe it.

ABORTION RIGHTS UPDATE & ACTION

The Supreme Court, by a 7-2 vote on June 29 upheld the authority of all states to severely restrict the right to choose abortion. Though the Court ruled by a thin 5-4 margin, that women can still choose abortion, the restrictions authorized by the Court - mandatory waiting periods, parental consent, and biased counseling - will in fact prevent millions from being able to exercise that right especially young, low-income, rural, or battered women.

Now, more than ever, we must focus on national and state elections.

WHY?

*The Freedom of Choice Act, even if passed in Congress, will be vetoed by Bush. Until he is defeated OR until there are enough pro-choice lawmakers to override his veto, the FCA cannot become the law of the land.

*The next president and U.S. Senate will choose who replaces 83 year old Justice Blackman, author of Roe, on the Supreme Court. We may lose the crucial one vote that keeps abortion legal.

*The recent Supreme Court decision invites state legislatures to enact similar or even more restrictive laws to obstruct abortion access. All candidates must declare their position on Choice questions including funding and parental consent.

The Mitchell-Cranston version of the FCA makes explicit that the Act does NOT preempt a state's right to decline to fund abortion or to require parental involvement in a minor's abortion decision. Continue to tell Senator Mitchell why lack of funding and parental consent are dangerous obstructions. 176 Russell Office Bldg. Washington, D.C. 20510.

The Maine Choice Coalition, of which Maine NOW is a member, is supporting "An Act To Preserve a Woman's Right to Privacy". This bill would repeal the 48 hour waiting period currently under court injunction in Maine and would continue the current state policy NOT to limit a woman's access to abortion except after viability at which time it is allowed only if the mother's life is in danger. Maine's law requiring adult involvement in a minor's decision would not change. The Legislature may hear this bill in a Fall Special Session or in the January 1993 Regular Session. HELP PASS THIS BILL - call Chris Rusnov 873-0878.

Additionally, Maine NOW has begun a campaign of nonviolent civil disobedience to demonstrate our determination to protect the right of ALL women to legal and safe abortion and birth control. We are holding CD trainings throughout the state. Contact Merrie Allen 874-2899 or Lib Jameson 799-8744 for information.

Dauphinee Does It Again

Well, she's done it again! A magnificent job! Yes, JoAnne Dauphinee feminist political analyst extraordinaire has logged in many, many, many hours to bring us the Maine Legislative Candidate Analysis and Maine NOW PAC Candidate Analysis and Endorsements included in this issue of the MNT. This is the 7th candidate analysis produced by Maine NOW with JoAnne at the helm. Many individuals and organizations in Maine depend on this work to help them make decisions on voting, endorsements, and legislative strategy.

JoAnne (with bits and pieces of help from various board members) created the survey, sifted through responses, made/returned phone calls, tallied legislative records, decided what to include and (oh, dear) what not to include, and organized it all so the board could make final endorsement decisions. With the help of her good friend Harry Gordon, a computer wizard, the data was entered. Harry also did the layout and design, a monumental task, and extremely well done. Thanks Harry, you preserved all of our sanity. Our sincerest appreciation.

As you can see, this is a big job. Whew! You can imagine how proud we are of JoAnne and how grateful we are for all of her time, knowledge, persistence, and dedication. Thanks again and again! Now, take a break Jo!

Farewell Nora

Three years ago, Nora Cameron, a layout and design artist, generously offered her expertise to the quarterly publication of the Maine NOW Times. Nora gave the newsletter a new face. Her artistic ability, professionalism, and feminist heart and spirit shined through. Recently, Nora has made some personal changes, deciding to marry her longtime sweetie and move to Boston. Boo! Hoo! for us. We truly appreciate Nora's contribution to NOW - her tireless efforts, her good natured accommodation of our crazy schedules, and her willingness to share her knowledge and her computer. We wish you lots of luck and happiness in your life and work. (We'll give you a break and won't tell Boston NOW about you immediately.) Thanks Nora! We'll really miss you!

Gay and Lesbian Teachers Interview Project

As a teacher educator at the University of Southern Maine, and as the parent of a lesbian who is currently studying to be a teacher, I am acutely aware of the damaging effects of homophobia in our public schools, especially on teachers and counselors who are not free to be themselves or to act as mentors for their gay and lesbian students. By giving voice to the concerns of gay and lesbian educators, I hope to lead administrators, teachers, parents, and the wider public to begin confronting the effects of homophobia, not only on gay, lesbian and bisexual students and teachers but on society as a whole.

If you are a gay, lesbian or bisexual teacher or counselor (K-12) in a public or private school and would be willing to be interviewed, I would be very grateful for your help. All references and attributions in whatever I write will be completely anonymous, and I will gladly take any other steps you wish to insure confidentiality.

If you would be willing to be interviewed in person, on the phone or to respond in writing to a brief questionnaire, write or call Rita Kissen, Dept. of Professional Education, 222B Bailey Hall, USM, Gorham, ME 04038, (207) 766-5158(h) or 780-5376(w)

1992 Maine NOW PAC Candidate Analysis

Listen to Women for a Change -On Leadership-

by JoAnne Dauphinee

"We've got to make sure that pro-choice legislation will not be blocked (by leaders). Last year we had to go begging to the governor and I didn't like the feeling."

NOW member, Rep. Anne Larrivee, Democrat of Gorham, on why Democratic women are seeking legislative leadership positions. From the Maine Sunday Telegram 7-19-92

The number of women in the Maine legislature reached 61 at the start of the 115th, almost 33% of the total (186). It's been a long slow climb from 1923 when the first woman was elected to the House. Getting through that glass ceiling to leadership is even more difficult.

Currently, all five House leadership posts are held by men, as are three of five Senate posts. Half the leaders are considered anti-choice, and two others are unwilling to lead on choice. No woman has ever served as Governor, Senate President, House Speaker, or as a Constitutional Officer. In the history of the Maine Legislature only nine women have ever served in leadership. It is time for some change.

NOW member, Rep. Sue Farnsworth, a two-term Democrat from Hallowell and a recognized leader among progressive legislators, will seek the House Majority Leader's post. She is likely to face NOW-endorsed Rep. Dan Gwadosky making his try for a third term as leader.

The position of Majority Whip is open this session, since Joe Mayo decided to switch gears and challenge Assistant House Clerk, Deborah Bedard Wood for Clerk of the House. There is a 4-way race shaping up for Whip. Two MNP-endorsed candidates, Rep. Annette Hoglund of Portland and Rep. Ruth Joseph of Waterville are among those going for Whip. Both men seeking the post, Pat Paradis and Richard Gould, are anti-choice.

Challengers to anti-choice John Martin have also emerged. MNP-endorsed 3-term Rep. Marge Kilkelly is among those seeking the gavel. It is considered a long-shot to unseat Martin, now in his 18th term as Speaker, but in politics nothing is certain.

On the Senate side, NOW member Senate Majority Leader Nancy Randall Clark will seek another leadership term. The Freeport Democrat is one of two women already holding one of the ten leadership posts. The other is Assistant Minority Leader Pam Cahill. The tirelessly pro-choice Republican may challenge anti-choice Minority Leader Webster for that top spot in the 116th, or he may step aside to avoid a showdown.

In other leadership news, MNP-endorsed Joe Brannigan will attempt to unseat anti-choice, anti-lesbian/gay rights Senate President Charlie Pray. We wish all our progressives the best!

Women Make A Difference

In 1992, 54% of all U.S. registered voters are women. Since 1986, women's votes were the deciding factor in 14 senatorial races, four gubernatorial races and countless local elections. But we have a long road ahead. There are 535 members of the U.S. Congress. 31 are women (29 in the House, 2 in the Senate). Women are outnumbered 17 to 1.

The good news is, as of late June, 18 women are running for the U.S. Senate, 148 for the House, and 6 for Governor. The bad news is, at our present rate of growth, it will take another 341 years to reach equity.

Once in office, women are more likely than men to have progressive, feminist views within the same party, and in the same self-identified position on the ideological spectrum (i.e., liberal, conservative). 75% of women in office support women's rights. And, according to a survey of state legislators by The Center for the American Woman in Politics:

Δ 59% of women, but only 36% of men, worked to pass a woman's bill in the previous session.

Δ 51% of women, but only 37% of men gave top priority to women's distinctive concerns.

Δ 60% of all lawmakers surveyed said having more women lawmakers had changed spending priorities.

Δ 74% of male legislators said having women in the legislature had made them more aware of how issues affect women.

Primary Notes

MNP endorsed 32 Senate & House June primary candidates. In the Senate 5 of the 6 won. The 6th, Ave Marie Dover of Newport S9, is carrying on a write-in campaign, as is Danielle Yates of H66 in Lewiston. Please Note: Write-in candidates are not included in the analysis. We also did well in the House. We have endorsed 24 general election candidates in these 32 races.

The Maine Difference

The State of Maine boasts 60 women in our House and Senate (There were 61, but one resigned during the session.) That's over 32% of the total, 2nd only to Arizona. As of 1991, women held about 18% of elected statewide and state legislative offices in the U.S., with men outnumbering women more than 4 to 1.

As of August 1, there were 284 candidates for the Maine House, and 71 candidates for the Maine Senate. This is likely to change somewhat as the parties fill some slots of candidates recently withdrawn. Of the 355 current candidates, 86 are women. Since there are eight races in which two of the candidates are women, we can only increase our ranks a maximum of 18 over the current 60 who serve (unless there are write-in successes).

In The Senate

- 17 Women running in 16 districts
- 11 Women are Democrats, 6 Republican
- MNP endorsed 8 women (47% of all women) and supported 3
- MNP endorsed 14 men (26% of all men))

In The House

- 69 Women in 62 races
- 46 Women are Democrats, 21 are Republican, 1 Independent, and 1 Libertarian
  - 7 Races have 2 women running—women could win a maximum 55 seats
  - MNP endorsed 31 women (45 %)
- MNP endorsed 34 men (15.8%)& supported 4
- 5 Senate & 2 House Women are also endorsed by NOW'S National Equality PAC

Support Your Local Feminist

Let me count the ways. Many candidates for the Maine House and Senate need and deserve our support. Just volunteering two hours of time to a campaign can often be a big help. Here are some ideas!

Δ Send money...

Δ SUSTAINER PROGRAM - Receive a monthly newsletter, Jo's JAM, and help the candidates! Just send a monthly donation ($5/mo. minimum) by check or Visa or Mastercard to: Maine NOW-PAC, 87 Sunset Strip, Brewer 04412. Be sure to include your Visa/MC number and expiration date if donating by card. Please designate whether donations go to Maine NOW PAC, Maine NOW, or both.

Δ ONE-TIME DONATION of any size also gratefully accepted! Please send to MNP, or directly to your favorite candidates. (Tell 'em NOW sent ya.)

Δ TIME AND TALENTS - NOW chapters and/or MNP candidates need your time and talents. Here are some of the most common requests from candidates:

Δ Identify progressives in their district (you & your friends?).

Δ Recruit volunteers.

Δ Distribute fliers/literature.

Δ Help with mailings.

Δ Telephone voters.

Δ Organize or help with fund-raisers - dance, food or garage sale, raffle, sports event, auction...

Δ Help with candidate visibility (i.e. host a coffee, let candidate know of events at which s/he might want to be seen.)

Δ Make &/or distribute signs.

Δ Provide transportation for voters, volunteers, &/or candidate.

Δ Assist with campaign strategy.

Δ Computer skills, artwork skills, accounting/financial skills, issue expertise, & so on.

Women on the Rise

Women won the right to vote in the U.S. on August 26, 1920. In 1923, Maine elected a woman to our legislature. By 1963, we had 10 women serving. Maine NOW and Maine NOW PAC have been trying to speed things up since the 1970s. Though I've predicted one less woman lawmaker for 1993, don't feel too bad. We have had over 18% (the current National average) since 1979!

Candidates to Watch and Support

Senate Tidbits

The Maine Senate has 35 seats. In the 1991-2 session, the 115th, there were 21 D's and 14 R's. For the 116th MNP has endorsed or supported 25 Senate candidates. Three are NOW members, in districts 4, 18, & 26. There are many races of interest to progressives, but space limits us. First-mentioned candidates below are endorsed or supported by MNP in the November 3rd election.

S1 Judy Paradis D, is challenging D-turned-R anti-choice, anti-L/G rights Ray Theriault. The St. John Valley has many D's and Judy's an energetic campaigner, but how many will cross over for Theriault?

S3 Harold Dickinson D, could upset incumbent Ludwig in this Houlton-Mars Hill area. It would be a sweet victory.

S4 NOW member Diana White D, of Farmington, came within 800 votes, of nearly 15,000 cast in '90, of defeating incumbent Webster. Minority Leader Webster & the Gang of 13 blocked progressives on many issues in the 115th.

S7 Down East Sen Harry Vose D, is facing a tough challenge from Calais Mayor Cassidy. Hang in there Harry!

S11 Orono D, John O'Dea is likely to move over from the House to fill Bost's old seat.

S18 NOW member Dale McCormick D, has earned the well-deserved respect of colleagues, media, and the public, in her role as Senator. Gardiner-Winthrop area.

S19 Bev Bustin should have no problem with this flashback rematch from 1982. This is the only woman v. woman Senate race.

S20 Trina Wallace is in a 3-way race for this open seat in the Boothbay- Wiscasset area. Though popular R women have held this seat in recent years, Trina has a highly organized enthusiastic campaign & could win.

S21 Rochelle Pingree is in a tough district too, but with incumbent Linda Brawn stepping aside, Chellie could snag this Camden-Rockland seat.

S26 We can't imagine the Senate without NOW member, Majority Leader Nancy Randall Clark!

S27 Former House Member Merle Nelson, a manic campaigner, is in her 2nd try for what is now an open seat. It's a 3-way race, with Rep Butland trying to hold it for the R's.

S35 Mark Lawrence is trying to hold this open seat for the D's, after Estes stepped aside. Prior to Estes this seat was held by an arch conservative R. Lawrence is working hard!

House Specials

The Maine House has 151 seats. D's have a 97-54 majority. As of 8/1/92 there were 284 candidates, though that may well change as parties find replacements for late withdrawals. MNP has endorsed 65 (10 fewer than last election), and supports 4 others. Please look elsewhere in this Analysis for a full list of NOW members running and ways to help your favorite candidates win in November! Here are some races to watch, and help if you can!

22 NOW member Lois Galgay Reckitt, the only Independent woman in '92 is in a 3-way race.

37 Carol Kontos vs "anti-everything Strout" in a rematch. It was close in '90.

49 Progressive activist Rockie Graham is challenging 1-term incumbent Al Barth. This seat was held by a D in the 114th. Go R.G.!

59 This open seat, most recently held by a D for 3 terms, but Charles Woodward faces the R who held this seat in the 112th & lost to the D in '86 and '90. (Whew!)

77 Susan Papineau has a good chance to unseat 1-termer Heino. Held by a D in 114.

84 Attention Appleton-Liberty-Hope area! It's Jim Bowers' 2nd try for this seat. It's an open seat this time, and was held by D's prior to the 115. With your help, a win!

92 NOW member Rep Sharon Treat faces a challenge from former R Rep Bott. This seat was held by R Jean Dellert for most of the '80's, until Sharon unseated her. GOTV - Get Out The VOTE!

100 Pam Hatch made a great run in '90 & the seat is open in '92!

106 Louis Golob also made a great run in '90 and this too is an open seat in '92!

111 Jennifer Hill also made a great run in '90 and she too has an open seat in '92!

113 Pam Chase is in a 3-way race for an open seat in Hamden-Dixmont area.

115 Julie Winn is in a tough District, Herman-Glenburn-part of Bangor, but it's an open seat and she's impressive.

116 Jane Saxl beat the incumbent anti-L/G, anti-choice D in the primary to make this an open seat. See you in Augusta we hope!

123 Here we go again! Glenith Gray first squared off against this R in '88. He won in a squeaker. She won in '90. GOTV in the Brooklin-Stonington area!

136 Can John Gilmore upset arch-conservative Theone Look? This is his second effort. Jonesport-Beals area.

How To Use The Guide

Ahead you will find the list, by district, of all candidates running for the Maine House and Senate. Following the candidate names are incumbency, endorsement status, and candidate positions on a variety of issues. Positions on issues were determined primarily by roll call votes, questionnaires, and (usually just for clarification) phone calls. Whenever possible, secondary sources were checked as well.

Included in the analysis are the endorsement procedures for MNP and Dirigo Alliance, since both groups' endorsements are listed with the candidate names in the Guide. Both MNP and Dirigo will continue to endorse as progressive candidates come to our attention, so this does not reflect the final list of either organization.

The Guide lists candidates by district. To help you find your candidates we have included an alphabetical list of towns followed by their Senate & House districts. We also provide explanations of each column and the symbols used.

The Maine Board of the National Organization for Women, and Maine NOW PAC, hopes readers find this to be a useful voting guide this November, and a useful lobbying and resource guide during the 116th Maine Legislature.

Though every effort has been made to avoid errors, we urge readers to call any errors they may find to the attention of JoAnne at 989-3306 or MNP, 87 Sunset Strip, Brewer 04412. Suggestions for the 1994 Guide are also welcome!

Now, learn about the candidates, and spread the word to your friends and neighbors to: GET OUT THE VOTE!

MNP Endorsement Process

Included in this analysis is an indication of each candidate's endorsement status. MNP has two levels of support we offer to candidates. The level a candidate earns is based on the candidate's positions on the issues.

For a formal endorsement, a candidate must support the Equal Rights Amendment, lesbian and gay rights, minority rights, and must be pro-choice. This has been true since before MNP first filed with the Secretary of State's office in 1978. This is a minimum requirement and does not guarantee endorsement.

Only endorsement entitles the candidate to consideration for a monetary contribution, mailing labels for "NOW members & friends" in their district (or possibly statewide), and whatever other resources we are able to offer.

The second level of support is called (cleverly) support. Even if a candidate does not meet the requirements of endorsement, we sometimes wish to make clear that the candidate is nevertheless greatly preferred over their election opponent. To earn MNP support a candidate usually supports at least three of the four bottom-line issues. We tend to reserve this category for "endorsement near misses".

Once minimum requirements are met, our determinations for level and extent of support are based on many factors, such as: candidates positions on other issues, depth of commitment to feminist issues, leadership qualities, willingness to lead on tough issues, stature in the progressive community, campaign emphasis, district make-up, possibility of winning, dreadfulness of opponent, and so on.

Dirigo Alliance

Dirigo Alliance endorsements are also listed in our analysis. The Dirigo Alliance is a coalition of 13 progressive Maine organizations of which Maine NOW was a founding member. Candidates are sent a lengthy questionnaire and if they answer nearly all (or all) correctly, they are interviewed so members can get more in depth on issues. Interviewing members later make a recommendation to the full board. Any one group can block an endorsement, and a group may abstain as well. Rather than direct financial help, Dirigo recruits progressives to run, offers campaign advice, and, when possible, provides volunteers. For more information call 871-7793.

Citizen's Misguided Tour

Some readers may be familiar with "A Citizen's Guide to the 115th Maine Legislature 1991-92" fourth edition, prepared by John Weiss for the Maine People's Resource Center. It has been promoted in direct mail appeals, fliers, referred to in editorials of the KJ and Portland Press Herald. Most recently it has been advertised in the classified section of the Maine Progressive. However, unlike its predecessors, it is hopelessly full of errors.

Back in September of 1991, when I discovered so many errors drastically misrepresenting NOW and our MNP endorsements of 1990, I wrote to MPRC. No response. I corresponded two more times. No response. NOW Board member Beth Edmonds spoke with "George", but still, nothing. Though I am not authorized to speak for other groups, NOW was not the only group misrepresented.

No one knows better than this writer how difficult it is to consolidate mountains of information on hundreds of people for presentation in a coherent, readable form, and without error. But, I promise you, when MNP is made aware of errors we do our best to correct them, and to minimize any damage. We must question the ethics of of any organization doing otherwise.

Therefore, it is with regret but clear conscience, that Maine NOW PAC urges our readers to disregard any and all references to NOW or MNP in "A Citizen's Guide to the 115th Maine Legislature 1991-1992". If you don't own it, save yourself $17.

Correction Corner

See what I mean? Speaking of errors, there was a statement in the last MNT about MNP's policy of candidate support that was incorrect. Unlike for formal endorsement, supported candidates need not support all four priority issues (they may, but it is not required). For a fuller explanation, see the MNP Endorsement Process, explained above.

Also, we apologize for omitting D Jim Bowers endorsement in H84, while including the R primary endorsement. We regret any confusion this may have caused.

Find Your Senate and House District

To find your Maine Senate and House district, find your town in this list. The first number is the Senate District; the second number is the House District. If there is more than one House District listed in your town, call your town office to get assistance.

Column Headings

Name, Party, District are self-explanatory.

Incumbency = Number of two-year terms served. In the Senate, this often refers to Senate and House terms. Also in the Senate, if it refers to House terms only, an H is added. This is a House member trying for a Senate seat. An empty column indicates no prior service. F indicates service in the not-so-recent past.

Endorsements = Endorsement or support status with Maine NOW-PAC and with Dirigo Alliance. There are several status possibilities. They are:

E = Endorsed by MNP as of early August.

S = Supported by MNP.

Z = Opponent is endorsed by MNP.

Some, in another situation, might have been endorsed or supported.

Some are unknown to us.

X = NOT endorsable by MNP. Some, in another situation, might have been supported, but not endorsed.

D = Dirigo Alliance endorsements as of July.

SYMBOLS

+ = Agreement with MNP's position on issue(s).

- = Opposition to MNP's position.

E = Equivocal. It is not possible to condense the candidate's position to a plus or minus. In some cases the position is clear, but not condensable. In other cases the candidate is unclear or undecided.

M = Mixed. Candidate has a mixed or contradictory record. Vote is less predictable.

A = Absent. Incumbent was absent or excused during a recent vote on this issue.

S = State ERA. Candidate's position on the FEDERAL ERA is unknown, but this candidate once voted for the STATE ERA.

DOUBLE SYMBOLS

Two sources or related issues. There can be more than one symbol in a candidate's issue column, such as +- or A+. The first symbol is the most reliable source or the most recent vote/source. The second symbol is either a secondary source on the same issue OR the candidate's position on a related issue or issues. Lack of symbol either side of / indicates no knowledge of position on that issue. (Single symbol on double issues is candidates position on both.)

COLUMN HEADINGS - ISSUES

ERA - Equal Rights Amendment. Candidate supports the FEDERAL ERA to the U.S. Constitution. If the candidate's position on the FEDERAL ERA is not known, "S" indicates a vote for the STATE ERA.

L/G Rights - Candidates did/will vote to include "sexual orientation" in the Maine Human Rights Act. Once passed, this will make it illegal to discriminate against lesbians and gay men in the areas of housing, employment, credit, and public accommodation. (LD430)

S Africa - The 113th Legislature(1987-88) voted to divest state funds from S. African accounts in protest of apartheid. In the 115th, an attempt to repeal was made. NOW's position is to continue the sanctions. (LD 2215)

Choice/$ - Info on candidates indicates some pro-choice leaning, and/or, indicates a "yes" response to "whether to have an abortion should be a personal decision left to the individual." It does not necessarily indicate pro-choice as feminists generally define the term. A single symbol indicates candidates also support expanded Medicaid coverage for abortion. Double symbol indicates position on choice first, funding second.

P.C./P.N. - Candidate opposes mandatory parental consent laws, and most also oppose mandatory parental notification laws. Some may support Maine's innovative "compromise" law requiring counseling by a responsible adult.

FreeCh.Act - Usually, this means candidates would vote for a state law to codify Roe v. Wade. However, the question put to candidates included the actual wording of the original Freedom of Choice Act, which some candidates mistook for anti-choice language.(The current FEDERAL version has additional anti-choice loopholes. See page two.) When possible, answers were cross-checked with other sources.

AFDC-CH - Candidates support the current system of allocating benefits "per child", whether or not the child was born while the family was already receiving AFDC. That is, just because a family receiving AFDC chooses to have a child, the child's benefits would not be denied.

AFDC-$ - Candidates support increasing AFDC benefits, and, indexing them to the rate of inflation. If double symbol, first is for one-time increase, and second is for indexing.

ChildCare - Candidates support increased funding for childcare workers.

Alcohol - SENATE VOTE ONLY - Incumbents voted to oppose mandatory posting of warnings about drinking, including a warning to women about drinking while pregnant. (LD 625) For an interesting article on this, contact JoAnne.

MHRC-Preg - HOUSE VOTE ONLY - In the 115th, a bill to expand the circumstances under which the Maine Human Rights Commission could cover disability due to pregnancy was heard. Incumbents voted on whether to exempt those with less than 15 employees. NOW supported the bill without the exemption. (LD 680)

Insurance - Candidates support "community rating" in insurance. That is, requiring the same rate for all members of a group, regardless of age, sex, health status, or occupation. (LD 701)

AIDSS - Candidates would increase funding for AIDS-related services.

SexEduc. - Candidates support sex education in public schools and in Family Planning clinics. Double symbol is schools first, clinics second.

RapeEduc - Candidates support mandatory rape awareness education in secondary schools. Some candidates listed as opposed, objected to the idea of making it mandatory, but support the idea of rape education.

ConCon - Stands for Constitutional Convention, as in the one that ratified our U.S. Constitution. Candidates oppose calling a second one. The most popular (therefore, most dangerous) ones claim to be limited to balance the budget, or limit Congressional terms. There is no reason to think a ConCon would be limited in scope. The U.S. Constitution could be re-written.

Many issues of importance to feminists were voted on in the 115th, but for which there was no roll call vote (or the roll call was on a side issue). I especially regret not finding any representative votes on direct environmental concerns.

Occasionally, a district lists a party but the candidate name is missing (i.e. H80). This is because the original candidate withdrew, but as of MNT deadline we did not know whether replacements were found.

Budget - Candidates are willing to put on the appropriations table, for discussion, tax credits and exemptions.

ChildLabor - IN THE SENATE and HOUSE, incumbents voted to increase penalties for child labor law violations. (LD 905)

- IN THE HOUSE, ALL those with "minus" symbols ALSO VOTED WRONG on LD 923 to allow unemployment benefits during lockouts, AND LD 875 to prevent the permanent replacement of striking workers. Double symbols are ChildLabor first, and the other two bills second. NOW supported all 3 bills.

HealthCare - In the 115th, incumbents voted for LD 1727, proposing a feasibility study on statewide health insurance, AND voted for LD 2333 an advisory referendum on establishing a national health insurance program. If a double symbol, the first is on state insurance, second on national.

EnergyAssist - In the 115th, incumbents voted for low-income home energy assistance. (LD 1924)

LngTrmCare - In the 115th, incumbents voted for a proposal to enhance medical and social services to Maine's long-term care consumers. (LD 403)

PayEquity - Candidates support equal pay for jobs of comparable worth.

Lockouts - IN THE SENATE ONLY, the vote on LD 923, to allow unemployment benefits during lockouts, is listed separately in the last column. See also "ChildLabor-IN THE HOUSE", listed above.

DomV.$ - HOUSE VOTE ONLY In the 115th, incumbents voted to increase funding for domestic violence programs by increasing the marriage license fee. (LD 330)

The Last Word

As is our custom at MNP, we wish bright futures and new adventures for our friends who have left the legislature in pursuit of other dreams. It seems many good folks have moved on this time, and as usual there's not enough space to do them justice here.

However, we must say one very special bon voyage to the woman who popularized putting the words "NOW member" and "State legislator" together, Brunswick Rep. and former Maine NOW State Coordinator Marge Clark. She was not the first NOW member to serve in the Legislature, but she ran for the legislature as a feminist, a NOW activist. She caught us up in her enthusiasm, and we loved it! Marge served three terms. She worked tirelessly for NOW and for many progressive groups and causes, in and outside the legislature. Marge is now working and living in Washington D.C. with her husband, Ken.

Some other great movers and shakers are also moving on. We'll surely miss Pat Stevens of Bangor, who gave us 10 years of progressive action. And, her daughter, Kathleen, is the likely winner in Hs 130. Now that's what I call a great going away present! Happy "lawyering", Pat!

So long and all the best to:

NOW member Tracy Goodridge, Cushman Anthony, Harriet Ketover, and Joe Mayo. Good luck to House members trying to move over to the Senate, Judy Paradis and Mark Lawrence.

Senate so longs to Jeff Mills, Steve Bost, Judy Kany, Paul Gauvreau, and Stephen Estes.

Thank you all!

Keeping Choice Safe

Sarah Weddington, the lawyer who argued Roe v. Wade, will speak in a fundraiser for S.A.F.E., Safe Abortions For Everyone, and the Maine Coalition for Choice, sometime in mid-October. For further info: Leann Diehl 547—3919

Special Thanks

NOW/MNP's Sustainer Program provides a solid base of financial support for all our programs. Many of our sustainers also volunteer their time and considerable talents to feminist causes. For giving so much in so many ways, a VERY SPECIAL THANKS TO:

|                   |                     |
|-------------------|---------------------|
| Karen Heck        | Deb Stahler         |

| Christine Torraca | Emily Trask-Eaton   |
| Rep. Marge Clark  | Ann Winterhalder    |
| Beth Edmonds      | Rep. Hugh Morrison  |

And, anonymous.

NOW & MNP survive on many small donations, most in the $5 to $25 range. Each one means a lot to the activists. Sometimes, someone who is able to give more, gives a large donation—the kind that knocks your socks off! VERY SPECIAL THANKS TO:
